1 Date 12/2/63

FLOYD GUY DAVIS was interviewed at 2825 By Way, Dallas, Texas. Mr. DAVIS said he is the owner of the Sports Dome Gun Range located at 8000 W. Davis near Grand Prairie, Texas, in Dallas, Texas. He said a man whom he knows as "Bear" SLACK, a customer at his range, swears he saw a person identical with OSWALD on the range during recent weeks.

He said the range has been in operation for five weeks and that it was opened about the end of October, 1963. He said he had never seen anyone resembling OSWALD at the range but the following persons have been there on occasions when Mr. SLACK was there and they may have witnessed this person whom SLACK believed to be identical with OSWALD:

CHARLES CAMPLEN and an unknown friend. CAMPLEN is manager of the Great Southwest Warehouses, Heavy Haul Department, which is located at 3191 Commonwealth.

JAMES "JIM" THOMSON, who lives in the 1100 block of Gilpin who operated the range about a week before the President was assassinated and Mr. B. G. MOSES of 2826 By Way who had assisted in handling the range on occasion and HOWARD PRICE of Grand Prairie, Texas. He noted that Mr. PRICE was the man who assisted customers adjusting their scopes and sighting in their guns.

Mr. DAVIS said he had saved all of the brass cartridge cases which had been left at the range by customers and he had ten 6.5 caliber shell cases that he had set aside out of the accumulated shell cases and he furnished all of these cases to SAs BROWN and CARTER for any purposes they might serve in the instant investigation.

He said his wife, Mrs. VIRGINIA PASH DAVIS, has also assisted in running the range however he said he did not believe she had ever witnessed anyone resembling OSWALD at the range. He said he had not contacted the FBI or any other agency concerning SLACK's story because he felt it might bring on a lot of investigation and it might be detrimental to his business however he said he was pleased to cooperate in any way that might assist in the investigation of the assassination of the President. He advised there are other gun clubs in the area which are well known to residents of Dallas and they are the Grand Prairie Gun Club located on Highway 183 and Beltline Road in Irving, Texas, and the Sportsman's Gun Club in Irving, exact address not known. He furnished a list of members who have registered to shoot at his range and he noted that the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or any of his known aliases did not appear on this list. He furnished this list for any possible use it might serve in this investigation. Mr. DAVIS said if any other information came to his attention which he believed might be helpful in this investigation he would immediately notify the Dallas Office of the FBI.

Mr. DAVIS added that after talking with Mr. SLACK about the incident at the range on November 10, 1963, although he could not recall seeing OSWALD at the range he does recall a man between 35 and 40 years of age, 6'1-2" tall, weighing between 220 and 240 pounds, having a black beard, black thick hair, fat appearance, beady eyes, and a sullen disposition as being a customer at the range on that particular afternoon. He said on that particular afternoon the man was wearing a red sweat shirt, color of pants unrecalled, and he noted the man had on a pair of factory made earmuffs further described by Mr. DAVIS as a device to stop concussion and loud noise experienced by persons frequenting a firearms range. DAVIS said although he knew this was the purpose of the "muffs" the man was wearing he, DAVIS, had never seen a similar pair of "muffs" before. DAVIS recalled speaking to this unidentified man in a friendly greeting however the man did not acknowledge DAVIS' greeting and DAVIS formed the opinion the man did not desire to be associated with anyone else on the range. DAVIS recalled on the afternoon of November 10, 1963, this man occupied Position 7 on the firing line. The man believed to be OSWALD occupied Position 8 and Mr. SLACK occupied Position 9.

VIRGINIA PASH DAVIS, 2825 By Way, Dallas, Texas advised that she assists her husband in the operation of the Sports Dome Rifle Range at 8,000 West Davis, Dallas, Texas. She said that an employee, MALCOM HOWARD PRICE had advised her that he believed he sighted in a scope for a man whom he believed resembled LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. DAVIS observed Dallas Police Department Photo No. 54018 of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and said it did not resemble any person she had ever seen at the range which had only been open for five weeks.

Mrs. DAVIS said she did recall a man known as "Bear" SLACK who had remarked that he had seen an individual whom he believed to be OSWALD at the range on October 10, 1963. She said that Mr. SLACK related this person was shooting by him and a large dark complexion, bushy headed, full bearded, big footed man.

She said she did not know the identity of the man described by Mr. SLACK and she did not know any of the people who were practicing on that date as no written register had been maintained when she and her husband operated the range.

Mrs. DAVIS said she had not called the FBI because she felt Mr. SLACK would furnish any information he had to them. She said that in the event any of the individuals who shot on October, 1963 were identified, she would furnish the names to the Dallas FBI Office.

Mrs. DAVIS said although she is unable to recall anyone resembling OSWALD as being present at the range on the Sunday afternoon when SLACK stated he observed OSWALD at the range, she did vividly recall the large dark haired man as being present on the range. She stated he was a very cold and unfriendly person and was not observed to talk to or be friendly with anyone else present. She stated he was wearing a red sweatshirt, appeared to be approximately 25 years old, 225 pounds, 6'1" or 2" tall. She did not observe him to enter or leave an automobile while he was at the range.

GARLAND C. SLACK advised he resides at 4130 DeLee Street, Dallas. He advised he is recently retired from a heating contracting business in Dallas.

He advised that on the morning of November 22, 1963, he had been downtown in the Dallas County Records Building, and shortly before the Presidential parade passed the corner of Houston and Elm he got a vantage point at the automobile entrance to the Dallas County Sheriff's Office which is located on Houston Street near the Elm Street intersection. He said as the parade passed the crowds pushed him and he was unable to see the car bearing the President as it proceeded west in front of the book store building. However he said he had been a hunter and had been closely associated with firearms for many years and he heard two shots in rapid succession and realized from the sound that they must have been fired from the interior of a building. He said he did not realize which building because actually the sound as he first heard it seemed to come from the direction of the overpass but its particular characteristics made him feel it had to come from a building instead of from an open area. He said when he heard the third shot he believed it came from the Texas School Book Depository Building. He said immediately after hearing the first two shots the crowds which were tremendously heavy went into a complete panic and a state of shock. He said he observed the police when they took a young airman into custody and Police Officer H. B. RANDAL picked up a frightened young colored boy who was hiding under a monument which boy was supposed to have actually witnessed the shooting of the President. He noted that Mrs. ALLEN in the Sheriff's Office took a statement from this young colored boy. Mr. SLACK also said he made a full and complete statement to a person he believed to be Mrs. ALLEN.

Mr. SLACK said he did not actually witness the shots when they hit the President and the reason he made a telephone call to the Dallas Office was the fact that he had observed a young man at the Sports Dome Rifle Range in the 8000 block of W. Davis Street in Dallas, Texas, on several occasions during the past five or six weeks whom he believed to be identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He also said that he had in his possession a target which he, SLACK, had fired at on the range and which he believed to have been handled by this person whom he believed to be OSWALD.

Mr. SLACK continued he was at the Sports Dome Rifle Range on November 9, 10, and 17, 1963. He pointed out this range is managed by a friend of his, Mr. FLOYD DAVIS. On November 9, 1963, he was at the range from approximately 3:30 p.m. until about 7:00 p.m. On November 10, 1963, he visited the range from about 2:00 p.m. until approximately 5:00 p.m. On November 11, 1963, he was there from around noon until about 5:00 p.m. On November 10, 1963, he saw a man believed to be identical with OSWALD at which time the man was accompanied by another man described as tall, as having a lot of dark hair, dark complexion, and a full beard. He further stated the man was about 24 years of age, 6' tall, as having very large feet, and his hair was worn in a "beatnik" style. He was wearing green pants similar to those he has observed being worn by Texaco Service Station employees. On November 10, 1963, SLACK observed the person he believed to be OSWALD and the second man get into an old "jalopy" which SLACK could not further describe. On this particular date, SLACK did note the two men had three rifles which he observed them putting into the back seat of this old "jalopy." He said all the rifles appeared to be of the same make. On November 10, 1963, SLACK estimated OSWALD fired between 50 to 70 rounds of ammunition while practicing. SLACK said on this occasion he became upset because the man he believes to be identical with OSWALD had fired on SLACK's target. SLACK said he was further upset because the man was firing so rapidly on occasions and he recalled the man as firing in bursts of three shots at a time in rapid succession. SLACK said he noted the man believed to be OSWALD and the large man accompanying him had a cap about one half filled with rifle ammunition which they were using.

SLACK said he observed the photograph of the rifle used by OSWALD to kill the President which photograph he observed in one of the Dallas newspapers and the rifle he observed at the Sports Dome Range in possession of the man he believed to be OSWALD was a rifle like the one he has seen in a Dallas newspaper. He observed the man believed to be OSWALD was an expert shot.

Mr. SLACK said that on the afternoon of November 10, 1963, he had fired a target which was exceptionally good and when he brought it back to examine it the man he believed to be OSWALD handled this target along with a number of other people whom he could not identify.

Mr. SLACK made this target available for any use it might serve in the investigation and said he would like to have it returned if possible after necessary examination had been made. It is noted that this was a bullseye target manufactured by Hi-Vue Target Company, Box 17088, Dallas, Texas.

SLACK said he felt certain several people noticed the man he believed to be OSWALD at the range however SLACK did not know the names of these people even though he has seen most of these people at the range on numerous occasions.

On December 1, 1963, SLACK accompanied SAs ARTHUR E. CARTER and CHARLES T. BROWN to the Sports Dome Rifle Range where SLACK remained for approximately two hours. At the end of the two hour period SLACK advised Agents CARTER and BROWN he had not observed anyone at the range on Decmeber 1, 1963, who had been present at the range on prior occasions when he believed OSWALD was present and he was unable to determine the true identity of any of those persons who might have seen OSWALD. He said he did not know whether OSWALD shot right handed or left handed.

SLACK said he noticed the scope on OSWALD's rifle while OSWALD was shooting and he also noted the magazine on the rifle was finished out to the trigger and that this gun OSWALD was practicing with was definitely a military type rifle. He said the only thing that bothered him in connection with the incident is his impression that the man he observed at the range whom he thought was OSWALD had blond hair whereas he is positive photographs he has seen of OSWALD on television are identical to the man he observed on the Sports Dome Rifle Range.

On December 1, 1963, SLACK observed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD made November 23, 1963, Dallas Police Department No. 54018. SLACK stated upon observing this photograph he feels positive the individual he observed at the Sports Dome Rifle Range is identical with OSWALD except the photograph shows dark hair and as stated above the individual at the range had blond hair. SLACK could not give a positive description of OSWALD but he described him as a young man of medium build and about the same height as he, which is 5'10", smooth shaven, and clothing not recalled.

Mr. SLACK advised if he determined the identity of any other persons who were present on the days when he thought he had observed a man believed to be identical with OSWALD on the range he would immediately notify the Dallas FBI Office.

MALCOM HOWARD PRICE, 1127 Rice, Grand Prairie, Texas, said he is on sick leave from Ling-Temco-Vought and he recalled that he spent some time at the Sports Dome Rifle Range, 8,000 West Davis, Dallas, Texas, adjusting sites and siting in scopes on rifles of customers at the gun range. He said the range was opened on October 26, 1963 and he believed that he sited in a scope for LEE HARVEY OSWALD on Saturday, October 26, 1963.

Mr. PRICE observed Dallas Police Department photo number 54018 dated November 23, 1963 of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and said he was sure that this was the same person for whom he sited in the scope. He said this man had a 7.6 rifle that had been sportorized by being put in a lathe and being turned down. The rifle had a 4X Jap scope and Red Field Mount. PRICE said he was unable to recall the serial number, but did recall this individual telling him a gun smith in Cedar Hill owed him $25 and gave him the gun and scope.

PRICE stated the customer told him the gun had been bore sighted and he asked that it be zeroed in at 100 yards.

Mr. PRICE said this gun did not shoot a 6.5 shell. He recalled that this gun did not have a sling on it and that the customer was right handed. He said he had no recollection of anyone shooting with this customer and the only persons whom he knew that were present on the date in question was Mrs. VIRGINIA DAVIS, wife of the owner of the range and a deaf mute named LARRY LYNN CLARK who lives at 514 Royal Avenue, Grand Prairie, Texas.

Mr. PRICE said this customer told him he drove by and saw the sign. He said he did not observe the customers car and recalled the picture in the paper showing OSWALD with the gun, definitely not the same gun that he sited in on October 26, 1963. He said he could not recall any doctor who might have been there on that date with his son.

He said he recalled seeing this customer on four or five occasions and on each occasion he wore a "bulldogger, Texas style" hat and had bubble gum or chewing tobacco in his cheek. He said he was very well dressed, clean and neat, 5'8" tall, 140 - 150 pounds, hair dark blond or light brown.

Mr. PRICE said this man shot quite a bit and used two targets on first occasion with eight or ten shots on each target, however, he said he did not observe whether this man shot deliberately or rapidly. He said that he believed a customer whom he knew as "Bear" SLACK was there, together with a large man, who had a heavy beard and hair, but he did not observe OSWALD conversing with this large man; in fact, he did not appear to converse with anybody or have anything to do with anyone. He said that the person whom he believed to be OSWALD visited the range four or five days in succession, arriving about 4 PM and staying until dark. He said he had not been back to the range since the President was assassinated except the Friday following the President's death.

Mr. PRICE said the serial number on the gun he sighted in was on the left and to the rear of the scope mount on the right, and he recalled that the customer told him he was from Cedar Hill. He was questioned again as to whether or not he had observed this man to shoot rapid fire and he said he had not and he did not recall any customers complaining about this man shooting on their target. He said this man used the center stand in a group of nine and described the shooting stalls as being about 40" wide and each of them separated from the others by a 2 x 4 separator on the flat edge, which would make them only 4" apart. He said he was unable to recall whether or not this man picked up his empty shells after he finished shooting, but said he did recall that Mr. and Mrs. DAVIS picked up all the brass that was left there by customers, with an exception of a few empty shell cases they sold to customers for reloading purposes, and all the brass that had been accumulated since they opened the range would still be there.

B. G. MOSES, 2826 By Way, Dallas, Texas, advised he worked occasionally at the Sports Dome Rifle Range, 8,000 West Davis, Dallas, but he had not observed any customers who resembled LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

He said that he had a friend who owns a farm who ran some hunters off recently and these hunters were checking in their rifles and he believed this man ought to be contacted to see if he had any information that would be of value in the investigation of the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Mr. MOSES identified his friend as ALVEY MC GAFFEY, who lives in a big brick home just outside of Hutchins on the left hand side of the Lancaster Road.

He examined the Dallas Police Department photograph No. 54018 of OSWALD and advised it did not resemble any person he had ever known and seen at the Sports Dome Rifle Range.

Dr. HOMER WOOD, D.D.S., residence 1326 Alaska, Dallas, Texas was interviewed at his office, 220 West Tenth Street, Dallas, and furnished the following information:

Dr. WOOD took his son, STERLING, age 13, to a rifle range in approximately the 8000 block of Davis, Dallas, on the afternoon of November 16, 1963, so that his son might obtain some practice with a rifle owned by the son. He said they were at the range from approximately 3:00 PM to 4:30 PM. Dr. WOOD advised his son occupied booth number four and that he (Dr. WOOD), observed the head and shoulders of a man shooting in booth five. His view of this man was a profile view. This man was firing a rifle with a telescopic sight and a sling. He observed his son talking to this man on one occasion and later saw this man's target, noting that there was only one bullet which had missed the bullseye from a distance of 100 yards. The person observed by Dr. WOOD was described as a white male; 25-30 years of age; 5'9"-5'10"; dark hair, thin; with a large nose and sharp chin. Dr. WOOD advised this man came to the range while STERLING WOOD was shooting and left before STERLING WOOD finished. He advised he was not there more than 30 minutes. Dr. WOOD advised he was not aware of anyone who came with this man or left with him and observed no concersation that he had with anyone else at the range.

Subsequent to the assassination of President KENNEDY, Dr. WOOD saw pictures of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television and in the newspapers. He stated that the profile view of OSWALD closely resembles that of this man he saw at the range and in his own mind he is satisfied that it was OSWALD he observed shooting in the booth next to his son at the range.

Dr. WOOD stated that while there were a number of people at the range, the only person known to him who might have observed this man was one KENNETH LONGLEY, a student at Sam Houston State Teachers College, Huntsville, Texas.

STERLING WOOD, age 13, was interviewed at his residence, 1326 Alaska, in the presence of his mother. STERLING WOOD is the son of Doctor HOMER WOOD, also residing at that address.

STERLING WOOD advised that on November 16, 1963, he was taken by his father to a rifle range in about the 8000 block of Davis, in West Dallas, and described it as being located just west of the 'yellow belly dragstrip' and the Sunset Golf Club. He stated he was at the range firing a rifle, which he owned, from approximately 3 P.M. to 4:30 P.M. on November 16. He was shooting from booth 4 or 5-he is not sure which-and did at that time notice a man shooting from an adjoining booth whom he believed is identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He explained this identification by the fact that upon seeing OSWALD's picture on television and in the newspapers on November 22, and 23, 1963, he immediately believed that OSWALD was the man using the booth next to him. He has never seen OSWALD, except on the one occassion at the range.

STERLING WOOD stated that when he arrived at the range and began shooting, there was another person occupying the booth next to him. This person left shortly thereafter and OSWALD then came to the booth and fired eight to ten shots. When the range master called for a halt in the firing, so that the shooters could examine their targets, he, along with the others, went down and examined not only his target but the targets of other shooters, including that used by OSWALD. He noted that all but two of the shots fired by OSWALD were in three- or four-inch bullseyes on the target. He noted that these shots were fired from a distance of 100 yards, and he was impressed by the marksmanship of OSWALD.

He described this man whom he believes is OSWALD as a white male, 25 to 30, 5'7"-5'8', slender build, sharp facial features, black hair, and wearing dark pants with a blue shirt having white stripes. He was wearing no hat.

Since he is interested in guns, during the firing, STERLING WOOD observed the gun used by the person next to him and noted that it was a rifle that he believed was of Italian make. He described the gun as a bolt action carbine with a shoulder strap and barrel extending beyond the stock only three or four inches. He asked this person whether the gun was a 6.5 Italian carbine and was advised that it was. He then asked whether the telescopic sight was a four-power scope and was advised that that was correct. This was the only conversation he had with this man. During the firing, he observed flame coming from the muzzle of the gun when it was fired. He was unable to explain the reason for this flame.

He stated that after the range master stopped the firing for examination of the targets, the man next to him, whom he thinks was OSWALD, went down to the targets, checked his target, and started back to the firing line. WOOD examined other targets in addition to his own and OSWALDS, and when he turned around to return to the firing point, he noticed this person had picked up his gun and was beginning to leave. While he paid no particular attention to him after that, he believed he went over to a car parked nearby and left in that automobile. He was unable to furnish any description of the car, either as to make or color and could describe only as probably a sedan, in that he was sure it was not a stationwagon or a convertible.

With reference to the weapon being used by the man next to him, whom he believes was OSWALD, he stated that he believes it was a re-conditioned Army gun, in that the stock and metal parts were shiny. It had on it a sling made of some black or very dark material. This sling was hooked to the gun underneath the stock, near the muzzle, and at the rear of the stock. He could furnish no information concerning the telescopic sight and was unable to advise whether the scope was round on the top or side of the gun. He commented also that to him it appeared that the trigger guard, which was of a light or silver color, had been scratched, but subsequently polished, in that it was shiny. He expressed the opinion that even though he saw the gun only briefly, he believed he could identify it if he saw it again.

With reference to his identification of the man shooting in the booth next to him, STERLING WOOD advised that he was not positive the man was LEE HARVEY OSWALD, but after seeing OSWALD's photograph in the news, he is satisfied in his own mind that the person in the booth next to him, referred to above, was actually LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

An unidentified photograph of the 6.5 millimeter Italian rifle used in the assassination of President KENNEDY, was exhibited to STERLING WOOD, age 13, 1326 Alaska, Dallas, at which time he stated the weapon in the photograph was not the one he had observed being fired at the firearms range on November 16, 1963, inasmuch as the sling strap and swivel on the gun he had observed were attached to the bottom of both the butt and fore end of the rifle, rather than on the side of the butt and fore end, as on the rifle in the photograph. He stated further that there was a difference in the telescope as between the rifle he had observed and the one in the photograph, in that the telescope he saw had an enlarged eyepiece or ocular lense, of greater diameter than the body of the telescope and that the telescope tapered to a smaller diameter immediately ahead of the eyepiece. He stated emphatically that there was no enlargement of the housing of the objective lense at the foreward end of the telescope on the gun he saw.

He stated that an illustration of the weapon that killed the President, appearing in a recent issue of "Newsweek" magazine, was more similar to the gun he had observed than the gun in the photograph exhibited.

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD - RIFLE PRACTICE

RE: KENNETH LONGLEY

The following investigation was conducted by SA ROBERT E. WIATT on December 5, 1963:

KENNETH LONGLEY, student, Sam Houston State Teachers College, Huntsville, Texas, home address 3537 Crippie Creek, Dallas, Texas, advised that he visited a rifle range on Davis Street in West Dallas on November 16, 1963. He was accompanied by friends DAN and GERALD SPENCER, who reside on Edwards Circle in Dallas. Upon arrival, they met Doctor HOMER WOOD and his 13 year old son STERLING.

LONGLEY and STERLING went to Booth # 4 at this range, which booth was occupied by an individual described as follows:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Age	About 25 years old
Height	5'9" - 5'10"
Build	Slender
Hair	Sandy
Peculiarities	Wearing wire frame spectacles
Dress	Wore a yellow western shirt with snaps down the front

This person remained long enough to shoot about ten shots and then left, mode of travel unknown.

This person had a rifle, possible 7 milimeter, with an alleged 4-power scope, weapon appeared not to have a full stock, which was colored light brown. Rifle spit fire when shot and had a strong recoil. The clip appeared to slant at the bottom rather than being straight.

LONGLEY stated that after observing photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he is of opinion that this person was identical with OSWALD, although Doctor WOOD is of opinion they were identical. The SPENCER brothers claim not to have noticed this person.

Mr. CHARLES CAMPLEN advised he is the Manager of the Heavy Haul Department, Great Southwest Warehouse, 3191 Commonwealth, telephone number ME 1-4560, Dallas, Texas, and he resides at 411 Cliffdale where his telephone number is FE 1-1274, Oak Cliff, Texas.

Mr. CAMPLEN advised he went to the Sports Dome Rifle Range, 8000 West Davis, Dallas, Texas, about 11 a.m., November 21, 1963, and a Mr. JAMES F. DALE, whom he employs as a "rigger" accompanied him. He said they visited at the range for 15 or 20 minutes, and he determined that FLOYD DAVIS, the manager of the range, was out of town. He said he talked to an elderly, heavy set man who was operating the range house, and while there he observed a person who resembled L. H. OSWALD in the range house and talked to this man and looked at his rifle. He recalled the man told him the rifle was possibly a 703 caliber. He said he was not sure of this but does know it was a foreign gun and it appeared the front end of the wood stock had been cut off. He did not recall seeing a sling on the gun, but it did have a scope on it. He said the man told him in answer to a question that it was not an English 303 rifle.

CAMPLEN said he did not observe any large heavy set man with this unknown individual, and he did not see him get in a car, although he believes that the unknown man left the area before he did. Mr. CAMPLEN described this individual as white, male, 5'10", 145 pounds, "full" face, estimated age 32, color and type of hair not recalled. He said this man wore a sort of soft Army-type cap and a green Army-type short jacket. He did not recall anything else about the man's appearance, dress or manner.

After furnishing the foregoing description, Mr. CAMPLEN observed a New Orleans, Louisiana Police Department photo number 112 723 dated August 9, 1963 of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and remarked, "the front view bust picture is a good resemblance of the person" he observed at the Sports Dome Rifle Range, and he said the profile is questionable as is the standup full length photo.

He advised he had never known JACK RUBY or OSWALD or any of the other principals in this matter.

He arranged for JAMES F. DALE to be interviewed at the office of the Great Southwest Warehouse at 3191 Commonwealth.

On December 5, 1963, JAMES F. DALE advised he was residing at 922 Tipperary where his telephone number is DA 7-1525. He said he is employed as a rigger for the Great Southwest Warehouse at 3191 Commonwealth, Dallas, Texas. Mr. DALE stated he met CHARLES CAMPLEN, Manager of the Heavy Haul Department of the Great Southwest Warehouse at 3191 Commonwealth about 10:30 a.m. on November 21, 1963, and he and Mr. CAMPLEN drove together to the Ling-Tempco offices where they were unable to contact the manager. Thereafter, he and Mr. CAMPLEN drove toward Grand Prairie and stopped at the Sports Dome Rifle Range which is located at 8000 West Davis in Dallas, Texas. He said Mr. CAMPLEN made inquiry concerning the owner of the range who is a friend of his, and determined that this gentleman was out of town. He said then he and Mr. CAMPLEN walked through the range office to the rear of the office and outside where they watched three men who were on the range. He recalled only one of these men was shooting, and he fired 8 or 10 shots. He said this man took his time and he would shoot three or four times, then the three men would walk from the firing point to where the target was located and they would check the target. This man would then return to the firing point and fire again at the target.

Mr. DALE said he and Mr. CAMPLEN never did talk to the shooter and his companions, and he did not get closer than about 30 feet to the person who was shooting. He said he recalled the rifle had a sling on it, and he believed it appeared to be a "lever action" gun. He said it had a telescopic sight on it, and he did not know any of the men who were present.

He recalled there were only two cars at the range when he and CAMPLEN were there, one a big brown and cream Buick, Oldsmobile or Pontiac, possibly a 1959 or 1960 model; the other was a 1957 or 1958 model light blue Chevrolet. He said he presumed one of the cars belonged to the man who was in charge of the range, and the other car must have been owned by one of the three men, one of whom was shooting while they were there.

Mr. DALE said after news of President KENNEDY's assassination was announced, he received a telephone call from Mr. CAMPLEN who asked him if he did not believe the man they saw at the range resembled OSWALD. He said he told Mr. CAMPLEN that he did look somewhat like OSWALD.

Mr. DALE described this person as a white male, age young 20's, 5'10"-11", weight 185 pounds. He said the man wore a brown long bill corduroy cap, a brown short, cloth jacket and khaki pants.

Thereafter, he looked at the photo of LEE HARVEY OSWALD which was taken at the Police Department in New Orleans, Louisiana number 112 723 dated August 9, 1963, and he remarked that only the profile resembled the shooter, and he did not think that the full face or full figure views looked like the man who was on the range on the morning of November 21, 1963.

He said that he and Mr. CAMPLEN were not at the range over 30 minutes during their visit on November 21, 1963. He also advised he had never known OSWALD, JACK RUBY or anyone else connected with the assassination of the President.

Major LEON POWERS, Assistant Chief of Police, Irving, Texas, advised that the turkey shoot range at Highway 183 and Beltline Road was not operated by the Irving JC's but it was operated by the Kiwanis Club of Irving, Texas on November 9, 10, 16 and 17, 1963.

He advised that the equipment was left on location from the 9th of November until about Thanksgiving, but no one was there to make a list of the persons who used the range and people just came and went at will. He advised that JOE VARDEMAN of the Southwest Bank was Vice President of the Kiwanis Club, but he did not have anything to do with the turkey shoot. He said that he personally took turns with other members of the Club in operating the range on the 9th, 10th, 16th and 17th, and no one had ever advised him that anyone resembling OSWALD had ever appeared there.

He said that WILLIAM R. "BILL" FULLER contacted him on November 23, 1963 to say that he thought he saw someone who resembled OSWALD at the range on November 21 or 22, 1963 in the morning hours.

He advised WILLIAM R. "BILL" FULLER might be located at 410 Staffordshire, telephone BLackstone 3-8222.

He said WILLIAM R. "BILL" FULLER contacted him on November 23, 1963 to advise that he had known OSWALD and that OSWALD had on occasion acted as if he were deaf.

BILLY LEE BEARD, 2620 Alen-A-Dale, telephone BL 4-2743, Irving, Texas, advised he is employed at Precision Motors, 740 North Pearl, telephone RI 2-9495.

Mr. BEARD said on Wednesday, November 20, 1963, he visited a turkey shoot which was being handled by the Irving Jaycees on a range at Highway 183 and Beltline Road near Irving about 4:00 p.m. with his son, BARRY BEARD, age nearly ten. He noted that none of the Jaycees were present and various other unknown persons were shooting from the bench rests at homemade targets when he arrived and throughout the time he was there. He said he recalled there were about seven persons on the range at the time he and BARRY were there. One was trying to shoot an old two shot Derringer pistol. Two people had an old Army Springfield rifle. Another man had an M-1 Carbine, and the man he believed to be OSWALD had a rifle with a Mouser type action which he observed had the receiver and trigger grouped together and extended below the action.

He said he did not observe a sling on this rifle; however, it had a cheap type scope and he would estimate it to be a 2½X. He said he was never closer than six feet to this man, but his son, BARRY, walked over and tried to talk to him, but the man apparently would not answer him. He described this man as a white male, 5'8"-10", 150 pounds, bare-headed, dark hair, length not recalled. Wore light tan windbreaker type jacket and khaki trousers. Had pair of medium size Jap binoculars with him.

Mr. BEARD said he recalled there were only four automobiles at the range during the time he was there -- a 1961 Chevrolet,white; an old Chevrolet pickup, dark green or dark blue; unrecalled make old car, color not recalled; and a 1963 white Volvo. He said he did not see the person he believed to be OSWALD until about 5:00 p.m. and that he left about 15 minutes later. At that time the man he believed to be OSWALD and four other people were still there. He said that he did not think OSWALD shot more than one time.

He said he telephoned the Dallas Police Department and gave this information to some detective in the Homicide Bureau, and he did not know why someone had not been out to see him earlier. He was asked whether or not he had seen any photographs of OSWALD or the gun and he replied he had seen some in the paper, and he would like to see others. Thereafter he voluntarily appeared at the Dallas Office, where he observed the three photographs of OSWALD which were made by the New Orleans Police Department and a photograph of the gun which is contained in the Exhibit Section of the first report in this matter, and after viewing them he said he could not be positive that the man he observed at the range was identical with OSWALD. He said he did believe the rifle he observed at the Jaycee turkey shoot range on Wednesday, November 20, 1963, was probably similar to the type of weapon in the photograph he saw as mentioned above.

On leaving the office in the company of SA CARTER, a young man was observed in the reception room of the Dallas Office of whom Mr. BEARD remarked, "Boy, he sure looks like OSWALD."

Mr. BEARD accompanied SA CARTER to the intersection of Highway 183 and Beltline Road, where a careful reconnaissance and search of the area failed to disclose any empty shell cases except two .30 caliber cases and numerous .22 long rifle cases.

While there, two men who were identified as ELWYN HUGH MOREHEAD, Agent in Charge, Braniff Airways, and PURVIS GUILLORY, Agent, Braniff Airways, Love Field, Dallas, Texas, advised that they scouted all of the turkey shoot ranges in that vicinity of Dallas County and had only seen 6.5 ammunition on very rare occasions. They noted that someone had taken all of the brass on empty shell cases from this particular range since the assassination of the President and remarked it was probably people who were just saving brass scrap.

BARRY BEARD, 2620 Alan-A-Dale, Irving, Texas, was interviewed in the presence of his mother, Mrs. BILLY BEARD. He advised that he would be ten years old December 11, 1963, and recalled that his father, BILLY LEE BEARD, took him to a turkey shoot at the Jaycee range which is located at Highway 183 and Beltline Road about 4:45 p.m. on Wednesday, November 20, 1963. He said they left their residence and it took about fifteen minutes to drive to the range. When they arrived, there was only one car and three other persons present. He said he and his father shot their two rifles about a half hour. He said by the time they got ready to leave, about six or seven people were there. BARRY advised there was one man there who had a gun his father told him was a German Mouser, and this gun had a light yellowish colored chestnut stock and a long range hunting scope. He said his father thought this man was identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, who was supposed to have assassinated the President. He said he talked to this man about five minutes, but the man was not friendly, and as he watched him shoot three or four times, he saw the man was right handed. He said he did not shoot fast or slow, but he would say just in a regular manner, and he believed the gun was a lever action gun and not a bolt action, after looking at his father's own rifle, which is a lever action gun. He said he thought the man told him it was a .30 caliber rifle, but he is not sure. He said the man did tell him he reworked the stock and had cut it down and refinished it. He said he did not see the man but believed he came to the range in a car.

He said while he was at the range he saw six guns -- one a two shot Derringer pistol, one a British Enfield rifle, one an M-1 Carbine, another man and his son had a "Jungle Carbine". BARRY said this Jungle Carbine had a funnel on the muzzle of it (flash hider). The man whom his father thought to be OSWALD had the Mouser. He said this man had a brown leather gun case and the rifle he had had a sling in it which was attached under the barrel and under the rear of the stock.

BARRY measured his father's rifle and determined it was 43" long and said he believed the gun the other man had, believed to be OSWALD, was longer than his father's rifle. He said he had only visited the range on one occasion and had never seen this person before. He described this individual as a white male, about 5'6", medium build, dark brown hair, had on a short-sleeved brown plaid shirt and dark brown nylon trousers. He said this person did not have any binoculars or any other hunting equipment with him to his knowledge; however, he did have his shells in a regular pasteboard shell box. He said the man did not talk to anyone at the range except to him, and he kept to himself and no one used any targets. They just used cardboard with a spot marked on it instead of a standard rifle target.

BARRY observed New Orleans Police Department photograph of OSWALD, No. 112723, dated August 9, 1963, and he said the person he saw at the turkey shoot certainly looked like this photograph.

Mrs. DON CORNETT, 107 Sam Hill Drive, Irving, T-- advised SA ARTHUR E. CARTER and Patrolman PRESTON C. SNOGA, of the Irving Police Department, that she is the wife of DON CORNETT, who is employed by the Southwest General Insurance Company with offices in the Republic National Bank Building, Dallas, Texas, telephone BL 5-7530 (residence), and Mr. CORNETT's office telephone is RI 2-3421.

She said she recalled that on the evening of November 21, 1963, she and her husband drove to the vicinity of Lindy Lane and Peveto in Irving about 7:15 or 7:30 p.m. for the purpose of buying some tropical fish which they had seen advertised in the paper. She said as they drove into Lindy Lane from Nursery Street, they reached a little crook in Lindy Lane close to the intersection of Peveto, when they heard three loud shots in rapid succession which apparently came from in front of their car or east of them. She said she was quite disturbed; and especially on November 22, after hearing of the assassination of President KENNEDY, she thought this might have some significance.

She said that she and her husband had returned to the area very briefly and had observed a wooded lot near the intersection of Peveto and Lindy Lane and thought that the noise they heard which they believed to be rifle shots might have come from that area. She said she recalled there was a party going on in a house on the corner at the intersection of Nursery and Lindy Lane, but she did not think it possible that the sound could have come from that direction as it would have been to the rear of their car.

She said she had never known of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY until after news of the President's assassination and that she had never seen anyone resembling either of them at any time except on television programs.

Patrolman PRESTON C. He said it is noted that there are two small wooded vacant lots near the intersection of Peveto and Lindy Lane; however, they are on opposite sides of Lindy Lane, and neither of them is large enough for a person to fire a high-powered rifle in.

He stated there are some large open fields and one heavily wooded field in an area about a mile or one and one-fourth miles from the intersection of Peveto and Lindy Lane and stated this area could be reached by driving from Peveto south on Lindy Lane to Nursery, thence left to the wooded area.

He said he was familiar with the investigations that have been conducted in the assassination of President KENNEDY and recalled that Mrs. OSWALD resided with some people in Irving whose home is three or four miles from the woods and farm area indicated above.

He further advised that the youngsters who live in the area around Peveto and Lindy Lane do a lot of small arms hunting in the fields he has described.

Mrs. VICTOR ADAMS, 1121 Lindy Lane, Irving, Texas, advised SA ARTHUR E. CARTER and Patrolman PRESTON C. She noted that both of these are small narrow lots and the area is densely populated with people in small low rent dwellings. She said she definitely did not hear anyone shooting on the night of November 21, 1963, and questioned other members of her family who also advised they did not hear any shots on that evening.

Mrs. ADAMS said that children often shoot air rifles and .22's in the oak trees in the area, but she does not recall any highpowered rifles being fired immediately adjacent to her residence and believes most of the shots are fired in fields about one and one-fourth to two miles away from her residence toward Nursery Street in Irving. Mrs. [redacted], Rail Line Road, Cedar Hill, Texas, telephone number CY 8-4493, advised that she and her husband live on a farm located 3.7 miles from Cedar Hill toward Grand Prairie on the Belt Line Road.

On October 6, 1963, she was at her home preparing six-weeks tests, as she is a teacher at the Cedar Hill High School. Sometime between 1:00 and 2:00 P. M., on October 6, 1963, she heard someone fire a high caliber rifle in her pasture. She went to her kitchen window, and through the window two or three men were seen in her pasture. They have cattle in this pasture, and she was concerned that the persons might wound or kill some of the cattle. Her husband also was working in a field not too far from where the shooting was taking place. She got into her car and drove to where the men were. Two men were standing by a car, which was a 1957 black and white Chevrolet bearing Texas license. The third man was standing some distance away in the field with a rifle. She could not describe this rifle and did not know if it had a scope on it or not. She asked one of the men by the car if they had permission to hunt or shoot on the property. This man asked her what reason she had to ask such a question. She then told the man the property belonged to her, and since they had some cattle in the pasture she was afraid they might shoot them. This made the man with the rifle angry, and he walked back toward the car and made several nasty remarks which she cannot recall. At this time, the man by the car she had been talking to told the man with the rifle to keep quiet. The man by the car then told her he could understand her situation. She then advised them that she was leaving and if they did not leave she would call the police when she got to the house. She took the license number of the car and left; these three men left, and she did not call the police. After a check of the cattle revealed none of them had been shot, she threw away the license number. She cannot recall any part of this number.

Since thinking about this incident, and in view of the assassination of President KENNEDY with a rifle, she has wondered if this man with the rifle was OSWALD. She saw a photograph of OSWALD in the newspaper and stated that a side view of OSWALD does not look like this person. The full face photograph, however, she believes does resemble him. She was shown a photograph of RUBY, but she advised that RUBY was definitely not identical with any of the other persons. She stated the man by the car that she talked to was about 40 years of age, dark complexion, medium height and weight. She could not describe this person any further but believes she would know him if she were to see him again. She could not give any description of the other man by the car at all. The man with the rifle was a young white male of medium height and slender build.

Mrs. PENN stated that the field where the man was shooting has been plowed since the incident, and she did not feel there was any possibility that any of the shells could be located. She advised that she would return to the field where the incident took place and look carefully for any of the shells and would advise the results of this search.

On December 2, 1963, FRED WELLS, Highway 67 South, advised SA'S HENRY J. OLIVER and DAVID H. BARRY as follows:

WELLS stated that he is a student at the Cedar Hill Junior High School, and that he had read in the newspapers that LEE HARVEY OSWALD might have practiced with an Italian rifle which he owned prior to the assassination of the President. WELLS stated that on November 23, 1963, he was on a boy scout trip and visited a place near Cedar Hill which is used by local people for target practice purposes. This place is well known locally as Potters Tank, and those who practice there shoot into a high cliff adjacent to a large field.

On November 23, 1963, while at this spot, he found a 7.65 shell and stated this is the type of shell that is fired in the Italian rifle described in the paper. He advised the shell had a good shine and apparently had not been fired very long ago. WELLS made available this spent 7.65 shell.

Mr. JOHN OTTS, Assistant Shop Foreman, Cullum and Borem Company Gun Shop, 1509 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, on December 3, 1963, advised SA OLIVER that a 7.65 shell could not possibly be fired in the 6.5 rifle used in the assassination of President KENNEDY.

ELWOOD C. AUSTIN, 402 West Grawyler Street, Irving, Texas, telephone BL 3-7976, on December 6, 1963, advised SA JAMES W. ANDERTON that he is a former police officer from Las Vegas and wished to furnish some information concerning a target range located near his house. Mr. AUSTIN stated that he definitely has not observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD at this range but thought it very possible he could have used the range in testing a rifle.

AUSTIN stated the range is actually an abandoned gravel pit and to reach the range one should drive west on Rock Island Road, past Beltline Road until Rock Island Road deadends at a washed-out bridge. He stated then one must walk approximately 150 yards southwest on a path to the gravel pit. He stated not many people know about this range, but that the times he has been out there several individuals have been firing both pistols and rifles. He stated the range is immediately south of the Greater Southwest Airport.

BERT GLOVER, 3129 Williamsburg, Irving, Texas, employed as a barber at Irving, advised that on about Sunday, October 27, at 4:30 PM while hunting on the Trinity River bottom near Irving, he had heard three rifle shots in a burst in that area. He stated that he had seen no one whom he might associate with the shots and had no other information except that the shots appeared to have come from that area north of the railroad viaduct east of Irving and on the east side of the Trinity River. This area he said is approached from East 6th Street in Irving.

Mr. GLOVER stated that he was bringing this to the attention of the FBI inasmuch as he felt that it might assist in locating the area where LEE HARVEY OSWALD might have test fired his rifle.

Captain O. A. JONES, Forgery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, advised that he had supervised the investigation regarding a rumor that reportedly originated from Mrs. JOE BAILY BLACKWELL, 1210 Holly Glen Drive, Dallas, Texas, to the effect that during the nighttime, approximately one week prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY, her sister and husband were driving in almost the exact spot where the President was shot, when a bullet entered the rear window of their automobile and lodged in the car.

Captain JONES advised the results of the Dallas Police Department investigation conclusively established that this rumor was false.

Captain JONES stated his investigators had determined that the rumor was started by Mrs. BLACKWELL's sister, Mrs. LUTHER HOWLE, 910 Winters, phone WH 1-1429. Captain JONES advised that this rumor was traced through Mrs. HOWLE back to a Mrs. MARGARET LEATH, an employee of Western Union Office 2000 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, who upon interview stated that approximately five weeks ago, she was in the vicinity of the Continental Street underpass when the left side window of her car shattered. LEATH advised that there was no hole in the window glass that could have been caused by a bullet and a report was not made to the Police Department regarding said incident.

Captain JONES stated his investigators conducted an investigation of said car, a 1957 Rambler, and could find no evidence of a bullet having entered the car.

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

At approximately 3 p.m. on November 22, 1963, following the President's announced assassination, it was ascertained that Air Force One, the President's jet, was returning from Love Field, Dallas, Texas, flying the body back to Andrews Air Force Base, Camp Springs, Maryland. SAs FRANCIS X. O'NEILL, JR. and JAMES W. SIBERT proceeded to Andrews Air Force Base to handle any matters which would fall within the jurisdiction of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, inasmuch as it was anticipated that a large group of both military and civilian personnel assigned to the Base would congregate at Base Operations to witness the landing of this flight.

Lt. Col. ROBERT T. BEST, Director of Law Enforcement and Security, advised the President's plane would arrive at 5:25 p.m. Subsequently, Col. BEST advised that the plane would arrive at 6:05 p.m.

At approximately 5:55 p.m. agents were advised through the Hyattsville Resident Agency that the Bureau had instructed that the agents accompany the body to the National Naval Medical Center, Bethesda, Maryland, to stay with the body and to obtain bullets reportedly in the President's body.

Immediately agents contacted Mr. JAMES ROWLEY, the Director of the U. S. Secret Service, identified themselves and made Mr. ROWLEY aware of our aforementioned instruction. Immediately following the plane's landing, Mr. ROWLEY arranged seating for Bureau agents in the third car of the White House motorcade which followed the ambulance containing the President's body to the Naval Medical Center, Bethesda, Maryland.

On arrival at the Medical Center, the ambulance stopped in front of the main entrance, at which time Mrs. JACQUELINE KENNEDY and Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY embarked from the ambulance and entered the building. The ambulance was thereafter driven around to the rear entrance where the President's body was removed and taken into an autopsy room. Bureau agents assisted in the moving of the casket to the autopsy room. A tight security was immediately placed around the autopsy room by the Naval facility and the U. S. Secret Service. Bureau agents made contact with Mr. ROY KELLERMAN, the Assistant Secret Service Agent in Charge of the White House Detail, and advised him of the Bureau's interest in this matter.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

He advised that he had already received instructions from Director ROWLEY as to the presence of Bureau agents. It will be noted that aforementioned Bureau agents, Mr. ROY KELLERMAN, Mr. WILLIAM GREER and Mr. WILLIAM O'LEARY, Secret Service agents, were the only personnel other than medical personnel present during the autopsy.

The following individuals attended the autopsy:

Adm. C. B. HOLLOWAY, U. S. Navy, Commanding Officer of the U. S. Naval Medical Center, Bethesda;

Adm. BERKLEY, U. S. Navy, the President's personal physician;

Commander JAMES J. HUMES, Chief Pathologist, Bethesda Naval Hospital, who conducted autopsy;

Capt. JAMES H. STONER, JR., Commanding Officer, U. S. Naval Medical School, Bethesda;

Mr. JOHN T. STRINGER, JR., Medical photographer;

JAMES H. EBERSOLE;

LLOYD E. RAIHE;

J. T. BOZWELL;

J. G. RUDNICKI;

PAUL K. O'CONNOR;

J. C. JENKINS;

JERROL F. CRESTER;

EDWARD F. REED;

JAMES METZLER.

During the course of the autopsy, Lt. Col. P. FINCK, U. S. Army Armed Forces Institute of Pathology, arrived to assist Commander HUMES in the autopsy. In addition, Lt. Cmdr. GREGG CROSS and Captain DAVID OSBORNE, Chief of Surgery, entered the autopsy room.

Major General WEHLE, Commanding Officer of U. S. Military District, Washington, D.C., entered the autopsy room to ascertain from the Secret Service arrangements concerning the transportation of the President's body back to the White House. ADC CHESTER H. BOYERS, U. S. Navy, visited the autopsy room during the final stages of such to type receipts given by FBI and Secret Service for items obtained.

At the termination of the autopsy, the following personnel from Gawler's Funeral Home entered the autopsy room to prepare the President's body for burial:

JOHN VAN HAESEN
EDWIN STROBLE
THOMAS ROBINSON
Mr. HAGEN

Brigidier General GODFREY McHUGH, Air Force Military Aide to the President, was also present, as was Dr. GEORGE BAKEMAN, U. S. Navy.

Arrangements were made for the performance of the autopsy by the U. S. Navy and Secret Service.

The President's body was removed from the casket in which it had been transported and was placed on the autopsy table, at which time the complete body was wrapped in a sheet and the head area contained an additional wrapping which was saturated with blood. Following the removal of the wrapping, it was ascertained that the President's clothing had been removed and it was also apparent that a tracheotomy had been performed, as well as surgery of the head area, namely, in the top of the skull. All personnel with the exception of medical officers needed in the taking of photographs and X-Rays were requested to leave the autopsy room and remain in an adjacent room.

Upon completion of X-Rays and photographs, the first incision was made at 8:15 p.m. X-Rays of the brain area which were developed and returned to the autopsy room disclosed a path of a missile which appeared to enter the back of the skull and the path of the disintegrated fragments could be observed along the right side of the skull. The largest section of this missile as portrayed by X-Ray appeared to be behind the right frontal sinus. The next largest fragment appeared to be at the rear of the skull at the juncture of the skull bone.

The Chief Pathologist advised approximately 40 particles of disintegrated bullet and smudges indicated that the projectile had fragmentized while passing through the skull region.

BA 89-30

During the autopsy inspection of the area of the brain, two fragments of metal were removed by Dr. HUMES, namely, one fragment measuring 7 x 2 millimeters, which was removed from the right side of the brain. An additional fragment of metal measuring 1 x 3 millimeters was also removed from this area, both of which were placed in a glass jar containing a black metal top which were thereafter marked for identification and following the signing of a proper receipt were transported by Bureau agents to the FBI Laboratory.

During the latter stages of this autopsy, Dr. HUMES located an opening which appeared to be a bullet hole which was below the shoulders and two inches to the right of the middle line of the spinal column.

This opening was probed by Dr. HUMES with the finger, at which time it was determined that the trajectory of the missile entering at this point had entered at a downward position of 45 to 60 degrees. Further probing determined that the distance travelled by this missile was a short distance inasmuch as the end of the opening could be felt with the finger.

Inasmuch as no complete bullet of any size could be located in the brain area and likewise no bullet could be located in the back or any other area of the body as determined by total body X-Rays and inspection revealing there was no point of exit, the individuals performing the autopsy were at a loss to explain why they could find no bullets.

A call was made by Bureau agents to the Firearms Section of the FBI Laboratory, at which time SA CHARLES L. KILLION advised that the Laboratory had received through Secret Service Agent RICHARD JOHNSON a bullet which had reportedly been found on a stretcher in the emergency room of Parkland Hospital, Dallas, Texas. This stretcher had also contained a stethescope and pair of rubber gloves. Agent JOHNSON had advised the Laboratory that it had not been ascertained whether or not this was the stretcher which had been used to transport the body of President KENNEDY. Agent KILLION further described this bullet as pertaining to a 6.5 millimeter rifle which would be approximately a 25 caliber rifle and that this bullet consisted of a copper alloy full jacket.

Immediately following receipt of this information, this was made available to Dr. HUMES who advised that in his opinion this accounted for no bullet being located which had entered the back region and that since external cardiac massage had been performed at Parkland Hospital, it was entirely possible that through such movement the bullet had worked its way back out of the point of entry and had fallen on the stretcher.

Also during the latter stages of the autopsy, a piece of the skull measuring 10 x 6.5 centimeters was brought to Dr. HUMES who was instructed that this had been removed from the President's skull. Immediately this section of skull was X-Rayed, at which time it was determined by Dr. HUMES that one corner of this section revealed minute metal particles and inspection of this same area disclosed a chipping of the top portion of this piece, both of which indicated that this had been the point of exit of the bullet entering the skull region.

On the basis of the latter two developments, Dr. HUMES stated that the pattern was clear that the one bullet had entered the President's back and had worked its way out of the body during external cardiac massage and that a second high velocity bullet had entered the rear of the skull and had fragmentized prior to exit through the top of the skull. He further pointed out that X-Rays had disclosed numerous fractures in the cranial area which he attributed to the force generated by the impact of the bullet in its passage through the brain area. He attributed the death of the President to a gunshot wound in the head.

The following is a complete listing of photographs and X-Rays taken by the medical authorities of the President's body. They were turned over to Mr. ROY KELLERMAN of the Secret Service. X-Rays were developed by the hospital, however, the photographs were delivered to Secret Service undeveloped:

11 X-Rays
22 4 x 5 color photographs
18 4 x 5 black and white photographs
1 roll of 120 film containing five exposures

Mr. KELLERMAN stated these items could be made available to the FBI upon request. The portion of the skull measuring 10 x 6.5 centimeters was maintained in the custody of Dr. HUMES who stated that it also could be made available for further examination. The two metal fragments removed from the brain area were hand carried by SAs SIBERT and O'NEILL to the FBI Laboratory immediately following the autopsy and were turned over to SA KURT FRAZIER.

Mr. GERALD A. BEHN, Special Agent in Charge, White House Detail, United States Secret Service, was interviewed at his office and advised that during the President's visit to the State of Texas, then Vice President JOHNSON would always arrive at the next city to be visited ahead of the President and would join the party awaiting the President's arrival. This was accomplished by the use of two Jets; Air Force I, which carried the President; and Air Force II, carrying the Vice President. On departing from a city, Air Force I would first take off followed by Air Force II which would thereafter pass Air Force I in flight, cruising at a faster speed, thus allowing the Vice President to arrive prior to the President and be with the greeting party. D.C.

Mr. BEHN was questioned concerning the section of the President's skull, which was brought to the National Navy Medical Center at Bethesda, Maryland after the autopsy was in progress. He advised that this section, which was measured by the Doctor performing the autopsy as being 10 x 6.5 centimeters, was found in the Presidential car on the floor between the front and rear seats. He further related that two fragments of bullets had also been found in this vehicle in the front of the car and that the windshield had been cracked by the impact of one of these fragments.

BEHN was likewise questioned concerning the location of a bullet which had been found on a stretcher at Parkland Hospital in Dallas and which had been turned over by the Secret Service to an Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation for delivery to the FBI Laboratory. He stated that on learning of such a bullet being found at the Dallas Hospital he inquired of a group of his Agents who had returned from the Dallas trip on the night of November 22, 1963, and Secret Service Agent RICHARD JOHNSEN produced this bullet which had been handed to him by someone at the hospital who had stated that it was not known whether or not the President had been placed on the stretcher where the bullet was found.

Detective R. D. LEWIS, polygraph operator, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, stated that he ran a polygraph of BUELL WESLEY FRAZIER, and while he was running the polygraph, FRAZIER was shown what appeared to be a homemade brown heavy paper gun case. He stated that FRAZIER said that it was possible that this was the case, but he did not think that it resembled it. He stated that the crinkly brown paper sack that OSWALD had when he rode to work with him that morning was about two feet long. (LEWIS refers to the brown, heavy paper gun case. LEWIS refers to the paper in this manner because of the fact that the Dallas Police Department is of the opinion the brown, heavy paper was used by OSWALD to carry the rifle into the building where he was working. The paper referred to by LEWIS is not a gun case at all.)

Detective LEWIS stated that if this was not identical with the sack that was turned over to the Bureau, it is possible that OSWALD may have thrown it away. The police have turned over everything that they have in the Crime Laboratory to SA DRAIN. This has been stated by Captain GEORGE DOUGHTY, Head of the Crime Laboratory, Lieutenant CARL DAY of the Crime Laboratory, and R. D. LEWIS, polygraph operator in the Crime Laboratory. These individuals state that as far as they know, the paper sack of the type described by FRAZIER was not recovered by the Police Department. It is possible, but improbable, that it was recovered by the Homicide Bureau. If so, they do not know anything about it in the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department.

On this date, Special Agents ODUM and MC NEELY went to the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) building, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, where R. E. TRULY, an employee of TSBD made available paper and tape in the shipping area of TSBD on the first floor. He advised that while LEE HARVEY OSWALD was an employee of TSBD from October 16, 1963, to November 22, 1963, he had access to this area.

The paper he made available was described as sixty-pound paper, 24 inches wide, and he stated this is used in all wrapping at TSBD. The tape he made available is gummed, brown paper tape, three inches wide, made on sixty-pound paper stock. He stated that all paper and tape are ordered from the same sources and the suppliers for all tape and paper used in TSBD since October 16, 1963, are the same sources.

Using the original paper sack found at the window on the sixth floor of TSBD, November 22, 1963, from which the shots killing President JOHN F. KENNEDY were apparently fired, a replica sack was made in the same manner as the original had apparently been made, to the same dimensions, and using the paper and tape provided by Mr. TRULY.

Mrs. PAINE advised that she does not recall seeing LEE OSWALD in possession of any sack resembling either of these sacks, nor does she recall seeing him in possession of paper or tape of the type used on either of these sacks.

She advised that she does not recall seeing any paper or tape of the same type used in either sack in her home, and does not believe she ever had such. She produced two small rolls of gummed paper tape, and samples were taken of each.

1 Date 12/2/63

BUELL WESLEY FRAZIER was interviewed at his home, 2439 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, telephone BL 3-8965, and furnished the following information:

On November 21, 1963, sometime before noon, the exact time unrecalled to him, FRAZIER was approached by LEE OSWALD on the first floor of the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) Building, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, where both were employed. They were standing toward the north side of the building near the stairs that lead to the basement. OSWALD asked FRAZIER if he could ride home with him that night, and FRAZIER told him he could but asked why he wanted to ride, since he usually rode home with FRAZIER on Friday nights, returning on Monday mornings. OSWALD replied that he wanted to get some curtain rods in Irving and take them to his room in Oak Cliff.

At about 4:45 PM, on November 21, 1963, FRAZIER and OSWALD departed the TSBD Building, walked to FRAZIER's car and drove to Irving. OSWALD did not have a package and was not carrying anything with him at that time. As FRAZIER recalls, OSWALD was wearing a reddish shirt and a grey jacket, waist length. Very little was said on the way home by OSWALD, and FRAZIER is unable to recall comments made by him. He let OSWALD off at 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, where OSWALD's wife was living. He did not see OSWALD again that night.

At about 7:20 AM, November 22, 1963, FRAZIER recalls that OSWALD looked in the kitchen window at FRAZIER's home and waited outside the house until FRAZIER joined him to go to work. This was within a period of about 5 minutes from the time OSWALD first appeared.

FRAZIER went to his car, entered the left front door, while OSWALD entered the right front door, both getting into the front seat. As he started to drive out of the yard, FRAZIER glanced back and noticed a long package, light brown in color, lying on the back of the rear seat and extending from approximately the right rear door to about the center of the seat. He stated that he only glanced at this package, at the time, over his shoulder and said something to OSWALD about the package, and OSWALD explained that it was curtain rods. FRAZIER then remarked to OSWALD, "Oh, yes, you said you were going to get some curtain rods yesterday."

FRAZIER designated an approximate spot on the back seat where he felt the package extended to from the right rear door and measurement by Special Agents BARDWELL D. ODUM and GIBBON E. MC NEELY determined that this spot was 27 inches from the inside of the right rear door, indicating that FRAZIER estimates that as the length of the package.

FRAZIER stated that he and OSWALD drove to work, and he parked the car about two blocks north of the TSBD Building. OSWALD got out of the car first, and FRAZIER noticed him standing to the rear of the car at the time FRAZIER was about to get out of the front seat. As OSWALD turned to walk south toward the TSBD Building, FRAZIER observed that OSWALD had this package under his right arm, one end of the package being under his armpit and the other end apparently held with his right fingers. OSWALD then walked toward the building with his back to FRAZIER and continued in front of FRAZIER for the entire distance, possibly 200 or 300 yards. FRAZIER followed at a slower pace than OSWALD, watching some welders working on the railroad track. By the time OSWALD reached the TSBD Building, he was at least 50 feet ahead of FRAZIER, and when FRAZIER entered the building he did not see OSWALD and does not know where he went. He did not subsequently see him with the package again.

FRAZIER stated that when he saw this package under the arm of OSWALD, he reached the conclusion that the package was wrapped in a cheap, crinkly, thin paper sack, such as that provided by Five and Ten Cent Stores.

He stated that now upon reflecting upon this matter, he realizes that he reached this conclusion when he observed the package under OSWALD's arm as OSWALD was turned with his back toward him. FRAZIER indicated the approximate closest distance that OSWALD was to FRAZIER with the package under his arm, and this was found to be approximately 12 feet by Special Agent ODUM.

Special Agent ODUM placed the replica sack under his right armpit, and FRAZIER demonstrated how much of the package he could see. When this was completed to FRAZIER's satisfaction, Special Agent MC NEELY measured the part of the package visible, and it was found to measure 9" x 1".

The replica sack was made on December 1, 1963, at the TSBD Building by Special Agents ODUM and MC NEELY from 24-inch-wide wrapping paper found in the shipping area of the TSBD Building and 4-inch-wide gummed paper tape from the same area. The replica was made to the dimensions of the original which was available for reference. The original is the sack found near the sixth floor window of the TSBD Building on November 22, 1963, following the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

FRAZIER advised after viewing the replica sack under the arm of Special Agent ODUM, that he now realizes that his conclusion that the sack was thin, crinkly paper, of the type used by Five and Ten Cent Stores, was based to a considerable extent upon the fact that the color of the sack was a very light brown as compared with the type of dark brown paper used for heavier grocery sacks. He noted that the color of the replica sack was the same color as the package which he had seen in possession of OSWALD on the morning of November 22, 1963.

FRAZIER examined the original found by the sixth floor window of the TSBD Building on November 22, 1963, and stated that if that sack was originally the color of the replica sack, it could have been the sack or package which he saw in the possession of OSWALD on the morning of November 22, 1963, but that he does not feel he is in a position to definitely state that this original is or is not the sack.

FRAZIER indicated on the replica sack the estimated width of the package in possession of OSWALD on the morning of November 22, 1963, and this was found to be an approximate width of 6 inches.

FRAZIER recalls that at some time, probably on the way to work on the morning of November 22, 1963, OSWALD told him that he would not be going to Irving, Texas, on Friday night, November 22, 1963. He could recall no other conversation by OSWALD except that on the way to work that morning, he mentioned to OSWALD that he probably had a good time playing with his children, and OSWALD said that he did.

LINNIE MAE RANDLE, 2439 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, telephone BL 3-8965, furnished the following information:

On the morning of November 22, 1963, at approximately 7:10 AM to 7:15 AM, LINNIE MAE RANDLE was standing at her sink in the kitchen looking out the window, when she saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD walking diagonally across Westbrook Street toward the back yard of her house. Westbrook Street borders her home on the west, and OSWALD was proceeding from Fifth Street diagonally across Westbrook in a northeasterly direction. She noticed that he was walking west, and he came across the street toward the carport which adjoins the kitchen. She opened the back door a slight bit to see what he was doing and saw him go to the far side of her brother's car, which was parked just north of the carport and headed in an easterly direction toward Westbrook Street. She noticed OSWALD opened the right rear door of the car, and presuming he was getting in the car, she turned back to the sink after hearing the car door shut. She then looked up out the window and saw him looking in the window at her from the outside. She was startled and somewhat irritated and called to her brother, BUELL WESLEY FRAZIER, that OSWALD was waiting to ride to work with him.

Mrs. RANDLE stated that at the time she saw OSWALD walking across the street, he was carrying a long package wrapped in brown paper or a brown sack in his right hand. It appeared to contain something heavy. She stated that it was long but did not touch the ground as he walked across the street.

She examined a replica of the sack made by Special Agents BARDWELL D. ODUM and GIBBON E. MC NEELY on December 1, 1963, from 24-inch-wide brown wrapping paper with 4-inch gummed brown paper tape, from the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) Building shipping room area at 411 Elm Street, Dallas. She stated that this was the same kind of paper that made up the sack or package that she saw OSWALD carrying and was the same heavy grade of paper, since she recalls noting that there was something heavy in the sack when she saw it, and it was the same color paper as the sack she had seen on the morning of November 22, 1963.

She was shown the original paper sack which had been found by the sixth floor window of the TSBD Building, where empty cartridge cases were found and from which the shots were apparently fired that killed President JOHN F. KENNEDY on November 22, 1963. She stated that if that original sack was previously the same color as the replica sack, that the original sack could have been the one which she saw OSWALD carrying on the morning of November 22, 1963.

The action of OSWALD walking across Westbrook Street was re-enacted by Special Agent MC NEELY, carrying the replica sack with three scraps of wood in it to simulate weight until Mrs. RANDLE designated the proper path and the proper length of the sack as seen by her on November 22, 1963. The replica was shortened by folding the open top down to reach the desired length. Then, in accordance with Mrs. RANDLE's observations, Special Agent MC NEELY grasped the top of this sack with his hand, much like a right handed batter would pick up a baseball bat when approaching the plate. When the proper length of the sack was reached according to Mrs. RANDLE's estimate, it was measured and found to be 27 inches long. She demonstrated the width of the sack as it appeared to her, noting that it did have something bulky in it originally. Her designation on the replica sack was found to be 8½ inches for the width of the original package she had seen OSWALD carrying.

DANNY GARCIA ARCE, residing 1502 Bennett, employed as order filler, Texas School Book Depository, Elm and Houston Streets, said he arrived for work between 8 a.m. and 8:05 a.m., November 22, 1963, and when he first came to the Texas School Book Depository on that morning he, on the first floor of the building, observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD around the book racks. OSWALD had arrived ahead of him and, therefore, ARCE did not have an opportunity to observe OSWALD when he reported for duty the morning of November 22, 1963.

When first observed on the above date, OSWALD was not carrying any paper bag or sack, nor had ARCE on the previous day observed OSWALD carrying any paper bag or sack.

C. SHIRT OF LEE HARVEY OSWALD

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Mrs. MARY E. BLEDSOE, 621 North Marsalis, Dallas, Texas, at which address LEE HARVEY OSWALD formerly resided, was exhibited a dark rust colored shirt alleged to have been worn by LEE HARVEY OSWALD on the day of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY on November 22, 1963. Mrs. BLEDSOE recalled the incident when she saw OSWALD on a Dallas street bus on that date. When the shirt was removed from an envelope in which it was contained, Mrs. BLEDSOE at first said, "No, no. That is not the shirt." She then inquired as to whether the shirt had a ragged elbow. Upon further examination of the shirt, she observed a hole in the right elbow of the shirt, at which time she quickly stated, "Yes, yes. This is the shirt."

Mrs. BLEDSOE qualified her first answer that this was not the shirt by stating she seemed to recall the shirt she observed OSWALD wearing on November 22, 1963 was more dirty in appearance. She said when she observed the ragged elbow on the shirt, she was positive this was the shirt OSWALD was wearing when she saw him on the bus. She stated she is positive he was wearing a long sleeve shirt of the same dark appearance as the shirt she observed at her residence on December 4, 1963. She stated OSWALD was not wearing a jacket or coat when she saw him on the bus on November 22, 1963. She stated the shirt she saw him wearing was of a brown or dark brown color.

Mrs. BLEDSOE again stated she observed OSWALD as he entered the bus and paid the bus driver. She stated she was seated on one of the side seats opposite the driver, and when she observed OSWALD looking so dirty and disheveled, she turned her head away from him not wishing to converse with him. She stated she recognized him immediately as he entered the bus as being a former tenant at her house at 621 North Marsalis. She stated her first impression was that the left sleeve on OSWALD's shirt was the sleeve that had the ragged elbow; however, she was not positive. She stated she again observed OSWALD as he passed in front of her to leave the bus after the bus had moved a short distance down the street.

Mrs. BLEDSOE said she did note OSWALD had his shirttail tucked into his pants and that his pants were ragged around the top.

D. TIPPIT. CARROLL states that he accompanied OSWALD, after the arrest, to the Homicide Bureau of the Dallas Police Department, namely, to the office of Captain WILL FRITZ. At no time was this shirt removed from OSWALD and he was wearing this shirt at the time OSWALD was turned over to Captain WILL FRITZ on November 22, 1963.

Date December 4, 1963

On December 4, 1963, one brown shirt in color, which shirt had been previously obtained from Captain GEORGE M. DOUGHTY and Lieutenant CARL DAY of the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department on November 22, 1963, and which shirt had been examined by the FBI Laboratory on November 23, 1963, was exhibited on this day to the following individual:

Captain WILL FRITZ, Homicide Bureau of the Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, was exhibited this shirt on December 4, 1963. Captain FRITZ stated that he could positively state that this was the same shirt that OSWALD was wearing at the time he was brought to his office by the arresting officers of the Dallas Police Department following LEE HARVEY OSWALD's arrest on November 22, 1963.

FRITZ stated that OSWALD in an interview told him on November 22, 1963, that he had changed his trousers that day but had not changed his shirt that day prior to his arrest by the Dallas Police Department on the afternoon of November 22, 1963. FRITZ related, however, that on the following day, November 23, 1963, OSWALD claimed that he had changed his entire clothing.

Result of examination:

Because the photograph, Qc31, of OSWALD shows very little detail, a comparison between the rifle in the picture Qc31 and the other photographs available in the Laboratory of the rifle does not permit a definite determination that the gun held by OSWALD in Qc31 is the murder weapon.

K3 .38 Special Smith and Wesson revolver, Serial No. V510210, Assembly No. 65248

DL 89-43
RPG/rms

Results of examination:

Specimen Q48 is a 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano cartridge case. It was manufactured by the Western Cartridge Company, East Alton, Illinois.

The cartridge case, Q48, was compared with test cartridge cases fired in the K1 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano rifle, serial number C2766. As a result, Q48 was identified as having been fired in this rifle.

No fingerprints were located on Q48.

It has been determined by actual firing tests that a skilled person can fire three accurately aimed shots with the rifle, K1, in five seconds.

Specimen K3 (Oswald's revolver) is known as a .38/200 British Service Revolver and was originally chambered for the .38 S and W cartridge. The serial number of this weapon is V510210, the assembly number is 65248 and these numbers appear in all the usual places indicating that all major parts of this weapon, except for the grips, are original parts. It is pointed out that the inside of the right grip bears the number 74149. The number on the grip usually will correspond with the serial number of the weapon.

Specimen K3 has the following alterations:

1. The cylinder has been rechambered to .38 Special.

2. The barrel has been cut off at the first "S" in the word "WESSON" on the barrel. The barrel is now 2½" long. According to information available in the Laboratory, a 5" barrel was standard length for the .38/200 British Service Revolver.

3. The front sight was mounted on the barrel at the muzzle.

4. The butt swivel hole has been plugged.

5. "CAL .38 SPECIAL" has been stamped on the left side of the frame (probably by converter).

On the basis of the English proof marks present on the barrel, cylinder and frame of K3, it is apparent that this weapon has been sent to England. The barrel also bears the stamping ".38" .767" 3½ TONS." There is nothing unusual about this weapon being sent to England since weapons of this type were produced for England and Canada during World War II (all weapons entering England must be proof tested and marked).

Although the Laboratory does not know who made the conversion of this weapon the following firms have been known to sell weapons of this type:

1. Dave's House of Guns, 2544 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas

2. Vic's For Guns, Galveston, Texas

DL 89-43
RPG/rms

3. Golden State Arms, 386 West Green Street, Pasadena, California

4. Klein's, 227 West Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois

It is pointed out that Interarmco, Alexandria, Virginia, does not sell this particular conversion.

No indented writing was found on Q47. The significance of the ball-point pen ink marks on Q47 is not subject to determination by laboratory examination.

Q50 Small notebook containing Russian writing (Item #350)

Q51 Seventeen pages of handwriting on Holland American Line stationery (Items #123, #124, and #125)

Result of examination:

It was concluded that the seventeen pages of handwriting, Q51, were written by LEE HARVEY OSWALD, K4 and K5 in this case.

Most of the writing contained in Q50 is in Russian script and is not comparable with the known writings of OSWALD in English. Therefore, no conclusion could be reached whether OSWALD wrote any of the Russian script writing in Q50. However, it was concluded that OSWALD, K4 and K5, did not write the writing in English in Q50 in the wording "Mrs. Anna Neller Meller 5930½ La Vista Dr. Dallas 6, Texas TA 3-22-19."

Qc52 Xerox copy of International Certificate of Vaccination against Smallpox in the name "Lee H. Oswald"

Result of examination:

It was concluded that K39 was used to prepare the entire rubber stamp impression on the handbill, Q44, previously submitted and the rubber stamp wording "New Orleans, La." on Q43 and Q45.

Qc52 is a Xerox copy of the original vaccination certificate and is not sufficiently clear for a rubber stamp comparison.

It was concluded that the hand printing and the Oswald signature on Qc52 were written by LEE HARVEY OSWALD, K4 and K5 in this case. The signature "A. J. Hideel" on Qc52 is distorted and not sufficiently comparable with the available known writings of OSWALD to warrant a definite conclusion.

Result of examination:

The hand printing on Q60 was not identified with any of the material in the Anonymous Letter File. A photograph of this hand printing will be added to this file.

Q65. Twenty-four miscellaneous negatives (Your item 225)

Result of examination:

Item Q65 contains numerous negatives of identification cards, a birth certificate, type setups of names, an X ray film and a hammer and sickle design. Where a name appears it is usually LEE HARVEY OSWALD or variations of it along with related descriptive information. The names "George de Mohrenshildt" and "Lee and Marina Oswald" appear in the negatives of type setups. Two of the items are film positives of two corresponding negatives and two others are paper prints of a negative and a film positive.

Eight of the negatives have the names and related information blocked out with photographic opaque. This would be a normal procedure to use in changing the name or other information on identification cards.

Prints of the negatives and X ray are attached along with a photograph showing the information that was blocked out with opaque on the eight negatives described above.

Result of examination:

It was concluded that the Oswald signature on Q67 was written by LEE HARVEY OSWALD, K4 and K5 in this case.

Due to the limited nature of the Hidell signature and the lack of comparable known handwriting of OSWALD, no conclusion could be reached whether he did or did not prepare the Hidell signature on Q67.

Under date of December 5, 1963, the FBI Laboratory furnished the following information concerning an examination requested by the Dallas Office, under dates of November 30, 1963, and December 1, 1963:

Specimens received: 11-30-63 (PC-78339 BX JV GH)

Q74-Q77 Four .38 Special cartridge cases
Q78-Q81 Four .38 Special cartridges
Q82-Q86 Five .38 Special cartridges
Q87 Le Coultre wrist watch
Q88 Man's ring

K42 Gray jacket

Specimens received 12-2-63 (PC-78361 BX)

Q91-Q100 Ten cartridge cases, 6.5 mm Japanese caliber, recovered at Sports Dome Gun Range, Dallas, Texas

Results of examination:

The four cartridge cases, Q74 through Q77, were compared with test cartridge cases obtained from the previously submitted revolver, K3. As a result, Q74 through Q77 were all identified as having been fired in K3.

No firing pin impressions are present on any of the cartridges, Q78 through Q86. No marks suitable for comparison with the K3 revolver were found on Q78 through Q86.

The cartridge cases, Q91 through Q100, were compared with test cartridge cases obtained from the previously submitted rifle, K1. Based upon these comparisons, it was determined that none of the Q91 through Q100 cartridge cases were fired in K1.

No latent fingerprints were found on specimens Q74 through Q86.

The K42 gray jacket is a size "medium" light gray cotton jacket having a full length zipper in the front. A manufacturer's label "Created in California by Maurice Holman Los Angeles" has been sewn to the inside right front lining.

A dry cleaners tag "B 9738" has been stapled to the jacket immediately below the above-described manufacturer's label. A visible laundry marking, which appears to be "30 030", is present in the collar of this jacket. The Laboratory does not maintain a visible laundry mark or dry cleaners mark file and is, therefore, unable to advise the identity of the cleaners and laundry responsible for these markings. No invisible markings were found on this jacekt.

The jacket is composed of light gray cotton fibers. No fibers similar to these were found among those removed from the butt plate of the K1 rifle.

Dark blue, gray-black and orange-yellow cotton fibers, which match in microscopic characteristics the dark blue, gray-black and orange-yellow cotton fibers composing the Q11 shirt, were found in the debris removed from the inside areas of the sleeves of the K42 jacket. These fibers could have originated from the Q11 shirt.

No significant residues were found on the watch, Q87, or the ring, Q88. No cavities for concealment purposes were found in Q87 or Q88.

Lieutenant CARL DAY, of the Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed at his residence, 922 Franklin, telephone WH 2-5846, and furnished the following information:

On November 22, 1963, at approximately 1:45 P.M., following the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, he was present on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) building, 411 Elm Street, where he examined an Italian made rifle found in the northwest corner of that floor.

He stated that he held this rifle up, being careful not to obliterate the fingerprints and the Captain, WILL FRITZ, Homicide Division, Dallas Police Department, worked the bolt ejecting a live round. He advised he identified this live round on that date.

He dusted the left side of the rifle at about where the clip housing is located and in front of the trigger housing, and observed three impressions, two of which indicated ridge patterns. The metal was rough, so he did not attempt to make a lift.

The gun was removed to the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department, where on the night of November 22, 1963, Lieutenant DAY made three photographs of the three impressions thus located.

He then took the wooden part of the rifle off by loosening three or four screws and uncovered what he considered to be an old print with a loop formation, which appeared to be the heel of the right palm of some individual. This print was on the underside of the barrel, completely covered by the wooden stock of the gun, and not visible until he had removed the wooden portion of the gun. He estimated this print was within three inches of the front end of the wooden stock. He dusted this print with black powder and made one lift.

At this point, he was instructed not to examine the gun any further and therefore, discontinued his examination. He stated that he believes that this print may be good and possibly identification might be exacted from this lift.

He also advised that even before he took the stock off, he saw what appeared to be traces of palm print coming out from under the wood near the back and of the metal portion of the gun. This print was partially covered by the wood. He had not had time to examine this print at the time he was instructed to discontinue his examination.

On November 29, 1963, the distance from the front door of the Texas School Book Depository Building at 411 Elm Street to the bus stop at Murphy and Elm Street was walked and timed by SA IVAN D. LEE. By going directly east on Elm Street from this building it is a distance of five blocks and the time required to walk this was five minutes.

To cover the possibility that LEE HARVEY OSWALD attempted to avoid being seen on Elm Street, a route was also walked and timed from the front door of the Texas School Book Depository Building one block east on Elm then one block north to Pacific Street, then east on Pacific to Lamar Street, south on Lamar to Elm and then east to the bus stop at Murphy and Elm. This is a distance of seven blocks and required seven minutes.

Mrs. GEORGE A. MOORE, 4109 Stanford Street, Chevy Chase, Maryland, telephonically advised that at approximately 4:30 P.M. on November 22, 1963, she was watching television, probably either Channel 4 or Channel 7 from Washington, D. C., and saw a film clip of the action immediately after the shooting of the President. This film clip showed a policeman getting on a motorcycle and then showed a swing around of the buildings in the area and during this time she observed in the window of one of the buildings, a short dark complexioned woman with a high hair-do, struggling with a man much taller than she was over a gun. She stated the gun was either a rifle or a shotgun. She stated that also in this window there were two or three other people standing behind the man and woman who were struggling. She was not sure what floor of the building the window was on, nor could she describe the building.

Mrs. MOORE said that she was reporting this matter since she had not heard this particular scene referred to in any news release since that time. She stated she was an artist and remembered the scene very clearly.

All such movie film and photographs which have been brought to the attention of the Dallas Office have been reviewed, and no photographs have been located corresponding with those described by Mrs. MOORE.

On November 23, 1963, HENRIETTA JONES, 1814 Trunk, Dallas, TA 1-3718 (negro domestic employee employed by Dr. CARPENTER, 4300 Lorraine, Dallas) telephonically advised SA EDWIN D. KUYKENDALL that at about 9:35 AM, November 22, 1963, she was at the lunch counter of H. L. Green Company, Main at Ervay, ground floor (not the basement), counter nearest Main Street, and noticed a white girl, employee of that counter, eating breakfast at the counter. Something was said about President KENNEDY arriving that day. JONES said she had recently written a letter to the President about not being able to obtain welfare and had received a reply from President KENNEDY. She said she was proud of the letter she had received. The white employee sitting at the counter was described as a blond, about 25 years old, 5 feet 2 inches or 5 feet 3 inches, weighed about 120-130 pounds, thin, possibly wears dress size 11 or 12, and remarked to JONES substantially as follows: "KENNEDY is coming to town and you had better be careful what you say because there will be some bloodshed and no telling what else might happen." JONES has no idea what she meant, but she wanted to report same, as it is possible she may have overheard something someone said that would be pertinent to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

The following investigation was conducted by SA'S ROBERT E. BASHAM and JAMES J. WARD:

AT DALLAS, TEXAS

Mr. SAM JOHNSON, manager, lunch counter, H. L. Green Company, Main at Ervay, advised on December 4, 1963, that he has 78 employees under his supervision.

Mr. JOHNSON advised he would estimate that of his 78 employees, at least 40 of them are blonds, natural or otherwise, and the majority of them are approximately 5 feet 3 inches and weigh around 130 pounds.

Mr. JOHNSON advised that the only blond who works at the lunch counter nearest to Main is a woman approximately 45 years of age.

HILBERT stated he overheard an individual making a telephone call to North Manchester, Indiana. He stated that he was standing close by and introduced himself to this individual and asked the individual if he was from North Manchester, Indiana. This individual had said, "I have been there." HILBERT stated that the individual apparently was making a person-to-person call to someone at the Indiana - Lawrence and Trust Company, North Manchester, Indiana. HILBERT stated that he did not hear any conversation that this individual had with the party on the other end of the line. He stated that the man gave his name as OSWALD. HILBERT stated he is sure that the individual stated his first name, but HILBERT did not recall it. HILBERT stated that this individual was somewhat aloof, and they did not actually engage in any conversation because about the time he spoke to this individual, the connection was made on the other end of the line. He stated that the individual was dressed in a blue military type of uniform and was holding his hat.

HILBERT stated he had approached this individual as HILBERT had previously resided in North Manchester, Indiana.

HILBERT said that this individual had the same general physical appearance of LEE OSWALD, but he could not identify the pictures of OSWALD that he has seen in the newspapers and on television as being the individual with whom he spoke in the lobby of the Blackstone Hotel. HILBERT stated it was his recollection that the conversation with OSWALD occurred at approximately 4:30 to 4:45 P.M., on November 15, 1963.

On November 26, 1963, PETE WHITE, Attorney, Fidelity Union Tower Building, Dallas, Texas, telephonically advised SA VINCENT E. The maid whose name is unknown works at night in the Fidelity Union Tower Building.

The following investigation was conducted by SAs RICHARD E. HARRISON and GEORGE W. H. CARLSON:

At Dallas, Texas

On November 27, 1963, Mr. AL LANDER, Building Manager, Fidelity Union Tower, was contacted relative to identity of a maid who was alleged to have seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD change clothes shortly after the shooting of President KENNEDY in the Texas School Book Depository Building where the maid works in the daytime. He advised the identity of this maid was GLORIA PIGG and stated she did not work in the Texas School Book Depository Building but worked in a building adjacent thereto, McKells Manufacturing Company, 501 Elm Street.

On November 28, 1963, GLORIA PIGG, 4957 Viking, was interviewed relative to her viewing LEE HARVEY OSWALD changing clothes. She advised she had viewed the Presidential motorcade on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, was present in the general area when the excitement took place concerning the shooting of the President however she at no time saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD and in fact had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD and stated that someone had started a rumor to the effect that she had seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD changing clothes.

At 10:15 p.m. November 27, 1963, Mrs. F. P. FORD, 14037 Albemarle Street, Farmers Branch, phone CH 7-3961, telephonically advised SA JAMES W. ANDERTON that she had been watching for the Presidential Parade on November 22, 1963, and that about twenty minutes before the Presidential car reached her point, located on the north side of Main Street at Market, a very heavy burly-set man elbowed his way through the crowd, pushing her slightly, and he walked across Main Street, then looked up into the building which houses the Sigel Liquor Store. She described this man as white male, age about 55, heavy build, wearing big grey hat, grey khaki jacket and a prominent nose.

She stated that after a few minutes this man returned, again elbowed his way through the crowd, and this time another white male, apparently the manager of the Sigel Liquor Store came out, and both of them stood just behind her, talking, with the first heavy-set man stating, "He's up there, you can't see him, but he's there", and they both looked up into the second story window of the building holding the Sigel Liquor Store No. 2, 615 Main, RI 8-3993. She described the manager of the liquor store as white male, age about 65, medium build. She stated that a police officer on duty at that corner also noticed the men looking up and overheard the remarks.

The City Directory reflected that Sigel Liquor Store No. 2 was located at 615 Main Street, RI 7-3993.

On November 28, 1963, SALIC GERSHNER, Manager, Sigel's Liquor Store No. 2, advised he recalled the above incident quite clearly and said that his Negro porter was on the second floor with the elevator, and he, a passerby, and a police officer, were calling to him to get his attention.

Mrs. MARIA VIDALES, nickname TONI, secretary, Juvenile Bureau, Dallas Police Department, furnished the following information:

She speaks Spanish fluently and is known in the Dallas Police Department as an interpreter of the Spanish language. She is also known among the Catholic priests in the Mexican section of Dallas as an interpreter and frequently does interpreting work for them.

On November 26, 1963, she received a phone call at her office at the Dallas Police Department from a boy whom she would judge to be Texas born of Mexican parents, asking her if she were the interpreter. When she replied in the affirmative, he told her that a lady wants to talk to her and turned the phone over to this woman. She then talked to this woman for a few minutes and arranged for the woman to call her back at her residence since she was just getting off work and needed to go home to take care of her family for dinner. She received a call at her residence at approximately 7:15 P.M. from this same woman. She received another call from this woman about 12:15 A.M. on November 27, 1963, and again at about 11:30 A.M. and at 1:30 P.M. on November 27, 1963. The woman has never given her name, her address, or her phone number or any information through which she could be identified or located. This woman insists, however, that she is afraid to identify herself since she fears for her life if she is caught talking. She is employed as a maid for a family in Dallas. This family apparently consists of a man who does not speak Spanish but does speak some other foreign language, and a woman who was born in Mexico, and who speaks both Spanish and English, and probably two small children.

This woman asked her to be certain that the investigators conducting investigation in the matter involving LEE HARVEY OSWALD not stop their investigations. She stated that OSWALD had been at that residence and that there are many more involved, both near and far.

Mrs. VIDALES stated that she expects this woman to call her again and she is endeavoring to gain her confidence in order to identify and locate her and as soon as she is able to do this she will notify the FBI in order that this woman may be interviewed. The woman speaks no English whatever but speaks what Mrs. VIDALES considers to be Spanish of a high-class, well-educated person. She estimated the age of this woman as approximately 40.

On November 27, 1963, Mr. EDDIE BARKER, KRLD News, Bureau Chief, advised it was his understanding an individual by the name of CAPP FIELD whose mother was employed at Sanger's Department Store, Dallas, reportedly had some photographs of the assassination of the President. It was believed that FIELD lived in Denton where he was possibly a student at North Texas State University.

The following investigation was conducted by SA's ALFRED D. NEELEY and ROBERT P. BUTLER on December 2, 1963:

Efforts were made to identify CAPP FIELD through personnel records, Sanger-Harris Department Store, Dallas, and student registration records, North Texas State University, Denton, Texas, with negative results.

Mr. JAMES L. ROGERS, Coordinator of Publications, North Texas State University, advised that CAPPY WALTER NEILSON, sophomore journalism major, 1921 Chestnut Street, was given the assignment to write a story for the Campus Chat on President KENNEDY's visit to Fort Worth and Dallas, but that he knew of no photographs which NEILSON had taken in connection with this assignment.

CAPPY WALTER "CAP" NEILSON, sophomore student, North Texas State University, residence 1921 Chestnut Street, advised that he was assigned to write a story for the Campus Chat, a campus newspaper, concerning President KENNEDY's visit to Fort Worth and Dallas. He advised that he obtained clearance through a Mr. ALLEN or TOM WATKINS, Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, for a press pass, and on November 21 went to Carswell Air Force Base, Fort Worth, and picked up this pass at the gate and witnessed the arrival of President KENNEDY. He advised that the following morning he went to the breakfast given President KENNEDY in Fort Worth and there took a Polaroid camera photograph of President and Mrs. KENNEDY and shortly thereafter left and went to Dallas with JAMES KYLE, a reporter for the Young Democrats (campus organization) and PAT NOON, President of the Denton County Young Democrats, where they witnessed the President's arrival at Love Field. He stated that they followed the motorcade about a block from Love Field but had had tire trouble and decided to go to the Sanger-Harris Department Store in Preston Shopping Center, Dallas, and borrow his mother's, Mrs. RITA HELFER's, car. He stated that Mrs. HELFER is employed at the Sanger-Harris Snack Bar. He advised that the other two boys, KYLE and NOON, returned to Denton. He advised that while he was at the Sanger-Harris parking lot he heard over the radio that the President had been assassinated and hurriedly rushed in to tell his mother that he was going to the WFAA and KRLD Radio Station news room in an effort to pick up information for his story. He advised that subsequently his mother telephoned these radio stations trying to locate him, and it was quite possible that she informed the person she talked with at these stations that her son had taker a photograph of President KENNEDY as he had shown her the Polaroid picture which he had taken.

The following investigation was conducted by SA ALAN L. PANNING at Longview, Texas, on November 27, 1963:

MARVIN KENDALL, Investigator, Criminal District Attorney's Office, Longview, Texas, advised he has received information from a real estate dealer, BILL LOCY, that a Negro porter, HOMER TOLBERT, who works at the Dun Rosmin and the Colonial Motels had seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD as OSWALD had stayed at one of the motels.

HOMER TOLBERT advised that the above information was incorrect. He stated the owners of the Colonial Motel where he works during the day as a maintenance man were looking through records of the motel a few days ago looking for the name of OSWALD as one of them believed the name familiar and that this person might have stayed there. TOLBERT stated he has no further information concerning this.

RAY CANTRELL, owner, Colonial Motel, Highway 80, advised his wife, after reading about LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the paper, thought the name familiar and that OSWALD might have stayed in the motel during 1963.

ALICIA CANTRELL, Colonial Motel, stated she thought the name of OSWALD was familiar but had been unable to locate it in the motel records.

A check of the motel registrations for all of 1963 up to and including November 27, 1963, was made under the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, his known aliases and the name of Jack RUBY, and no such registration was located.

The following investigation was conducted by SA ALAN L. MANNING at Longview, Texas, on November 30, 1963:

ARTHUR FORT, Patrolman, Longview Police Department, advised the wife of another policeman, Mrs. HENRY HOPKINS, had stated a local resident of Longview had advised her that he had been visited by LEE HARVEY OSWALD and OSWALD has left some literature concerning Cuba at his residence.

Mrs. HENRY HOPKINS, 1218 Alpine Street, advised that on November 23, 1963, one W. C. ASHCRAFT of 619 Harrell, had come to her cleaning establishment on that date and in the conversation concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY had stated LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been to his home in Longview, Texas, and left some literature concerning Cuba.

W. C. ASHCRAFT, 619 Harrell Street, advised that about four months ago he was injured in an accident at the Leland Equipment Company in Longview, Texas, and as a result of the accident had had trouble with the company concerning benefits and was subsequently fired. He stated when talking to Mrs. HOPKINS the day after President KENNEDY's death he was telling her about an insurance man who had left some papers for him to sign. He stated they also spoke of the death of President KENNEDY and she must have gotten the two conversations mixed up. He stated he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that to the best of his knowledge, OSWALD has never been in Longview, Texas.

Mrs. IRWIN KAIM, 3626 Pallos Verdes, telephonically advised that she believes LEE HARVEY OSWALD was a picket at the recent ADLAI STEVENSON demonstration in Dallas, Texas. She stated when she saw a picture of him without a black eye which he had shortly after his arrest she was quite positive OSWALD was at this demonstration.

She stated she believed that OSWALD while at the demonstration was wearing a tan coat with dark trousers and was wearing black leather gloves which appeared strange to her. She stated he walked as though he had been in the military service because at the end of each parade back and forth he did what looked to her to be a military type about-face.

Mrs. KAIM stated that this individual who she feels was OSWALD was in the lobby of the building at the Municipal Auditorium and was with a group of younger people. She expressed the view that she thought possibly OSWALD's part in the ADLAI STEVENSON demonstration might have been caught by one of the TV or news cameramen. She stated that a friend, Mrs. JOYCE SCHIPP, unknown address on Rolling Rock Lane also thought that OSWALD had been at this STEVENSON demonstration.

The following investigation was conducted by SAs RICHARD E. HARRISON and GEORGE W. H. CARLSON:

At Dallas, Texas

On November 29, 1963, Mrs. JOYCE SCHIPP, 8517 Rolling Rock Lane, was interviewed relative to information received that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was possibly picketing U. N. Ambassador ADLAI STEVENSON on his recent visit to Dallas, Texas. She advised she had gone to the Dallas Municipal Auditorium to see Ambassador STEVENSON and as she recalled as she walked in the front door of the auditorium she observed an individual walking somewhat militarily in front of the entrance to the auditorium in the vestibule of the building as she recalled carrying some type of sign. She stated to the best of her recollection she thought this individual was possibly LEE HARVEY OSWALD and as best as she could recall he was wearing a suit coat that did not match the rest of his clothes, wearing black gloves, and carrying a placard, the writing of which she did not recall. Subsequently, she went inside the auditorium and heard Ambassador STEVENSON speak and paid no further attention to the incident until recently when it occurred to her this individual might be identical to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She advised to the best of her recollection the only news service which was taking pictures prior to the speech of Ambassador STEVENSON in the vestibule of the auditorium was KRLD who she thought might possibly have a picture of this ihdividual.

On November 29, 1963, EDDIE BARKER, Chief of the News Section, KRLD-TV, was contacted by SAs HARRISON and CARLSON and he furnished films of the shots taken of the pickets and Ambassador STEVENSON at Memorial Auditorium on the recent visit of Ambassador STEVENSON to Dallas and these films were viewed by SAs HARRISON and CARLSON and Mr. BARKER and no place therein was there any individual resembling LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

FRANK CIMINO, 403 East Tenth Street, Apartment 7, Dallas, Texas, advised that on November 22, 1963, he was residing in an apartment at 405 East Tenth Street. He stated that at around 1 p.m. he was at his apartment listening to the radio. He heard four loud noises which sounded like shots and then he heard a woman scream. He jumped up, put on his shoes and ran outside the house, and a woman dressed like a waitress was out in front of his residence shouting, "Call the police". She also advised a man had just shot a police officer and stated he had run west on Tenth Street and pointed in the direction of an alley which runs between Tenth Street and Jefferson off Patton Street. He looked in this direction but did not see anyone. He then walked over to the officer and saw he had been shot in the head. The officer was lying on his side with his head in front of the left front headlight of his car. His gun was out of the holster and lying by his side. The officer moved slightly and groaned but never said anything that he could understand. About this time people came from all directions, and he walked up to the corner of Patton and East Tenth Street and looked through the alleyway but could not see anyone running up the alley. He then walked back to where the officer was being removed by an ambulance and then turned back to his apartment. He stated he was not acquainted with LEE OSWALD or JACK RUBY.

He added that around December 24, 1963, he will be leaving Dallas for a vacation but can be reached through his mother at 530 Fifteenth Street, Niagara Falls, New York.

MAX HILL, 621 St. Peter, New Orleans, Louisiana, telephonically advised SA LESTER G. DAVIS on December 3, 1963, that he had received information of possible interest concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He explained that an artist in the French Quarter by the name of ANTHONY SHEMROSKE had told him of overhearing another man make a statement to the effect "If Oswald hadn't kill him I would have". HILL continued that the person who made this statement is allegedly a recent associate of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and a person who has written a "very leftist book".

On November 28, 1963, the New Orleans Division furnished the following information:

JOHN D. KILGORE, 2830 Chapman Street, Shreveport, Louisiana, contacted Shreveport Resident Agency, November 26, 1963, and advised SA DONALD R. BELMONT he recognized photo of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in newspapers as man known to him by same name who worked for V. C. Bilbo Trucking Company, Dallas, for about ten months in 1963. KILGORE said he worked for same trucking company for about four months and was laid off about September 1, 1963. KILGORE believed OSWALD also laid off about same time.

KILGORE claimed during his tenure of employment at trucking company, he observed three unknown men come to Bilbo's office. On two occasions, they left accompanied by BILBO and OSWALD. KILGORE claimed on one occasion he heard BILBO remark to OSWALD, "Whenever the time comes, you be there and everything will be ready."

KILGORE described unknown men as follows: (1) white male, 45, 6' 2", 240 lbs., heavy set, brown hair, wearing cowboy boots and cowboy hat; (2) white male, age 40, 5' 8", 165 lbs., light colored hair, wore sport clothes; (3) white male, 35 to 40, 5' 3", 200 lbs., dark complexion, dark hair, wearing sport clothes. KILGORE claimed he had seen these men in two cars, one a blue 1963 Chevrolet with unknown Texas license, and the other a 1960 Ford, Texas license.

Mrs. JOHN D. KILGORE, 2830 Chapman Street, Shreveport, advised SA BELMONT on November 26, 1963 that she had seen OSWALD's photograph in newspapers and recognized him as one HARVEY OSWALD whom she met in about 1956 when she and KILGORE lived at 320 Packard Street, Dallas. Her husband was working for Wales Trucking Company, Dallas, at that time as was OSWALD, and OSWALD was guest in KILGORE home one night for dinner. She never saw OSWALD again but KILGORE mentioned to her OSWALD worked at Bilbo Trucking Company.

Mrs. KILGORE said her husband received head injury several times while working in oil fields and occasionally is irrational. In evaluating information furnished by KILGORE, Mrs. KILGORE pointed out KILGORE may be angry with BILBO because BILBO fired him from job.

Records of Shreveport Police Department and Bossier City, Louisiana Police Department, checked November 26, 1963 concerning KILGORE. Shreveport Police Department records reflect KILGORE arrested for investigation in 1958. Bossier City Police Department records reflect KILGORE arrested December, 1961 for forgery, disposition not shown.

Mr. JACK F. REECE of the Wales Trucking Company, 905 Meyers Road, furnished the following information:

He operates the payroll department for the Wales Trucking Company, and, after checking through payroll records, he located nothing to reveal LEE HARVEY OSWALD or ALECK HIDELL ever worked for that organization. Aside from a small office staff, the majority of employees are truck drivers and under ICC regulations, personnel of truck lines (drivers), must be 21 years old. The company has a policy of its own that their drivers be 25 years of age.

REECE did ascertain from payroll records that JOHN D. KILGORE had been an employee during 1956. REECE pointed out, however, that according to newspaper articles and information he had learned through radio and television broadcasts, that in 1956, LEE HARVEY OSWALD was only 17 years of age and he could not have been hired by the Wales Trucking Company.

REECE knows nothing about JOHN D. KILGORE nor any reason why KILGORE would want to say OSWALD had worked for the Wales organization. REECE stated the records show that such was not the case.

He located no record that LEE HARVEY OSWALD or ALECK HIDELL had ever worked for that organization. ROBINSON mentioned that if OSWALD had ever worked there, his association with the company would have been the topic of conversation among all the personnel, but such was not the case.

ROBINSON did locate an old record which revealed that JOHN D. KILGORE had worked for the Bilbo trucking firm during part of August and September in 1963. ROBINSON stated that he had worked at another organization where KILGORE was an employee, and in August of this year, when KILGORE came seeking employment, he (ROBINSON) hired KILGORE. KILGORE did not work out as an employee of the Bilbo trucking company because they received numerous calls concerning his very untidy appearance, and Mr. BILBO discharged KILGORE.

ROBINSON stated he has no idea why KILGORE would want to allege that OSWALD had worked for the Bilbo trucking agency unless he wished to make some trouble for Mr. BILBO. There is certainly no truth to the allegation.

JOHN W. GROSS, 327 Second Street, advised as follows:

He is employed in the Photography Department at Sears, Roebuck and Company at the Shillington Shopping Center, Shillington, Pa., a suburb of Reading, Pa.

On November 16, 1963, between 10:30 a.m. and noon a man came to the photography counter and stated, "I want to see you". GROSS inquired what he wanted and the man then stated he wanted to buy a used camera. The man indicated he wanted a 35 mm used camera, and as GROSS had no such used cameras, he asked for the man's name and phone number. The man stated his name was OSWALD. The man had no interest in a new $45.00 35 mm camera, and after looking at some new cheaper type cameras in another showcase, informed GROSS his name was LEE OSWALD. He also furnished a middle name to GROSS; however, GROSS is unable to recall it. OSWALD stated he lived faraway.

GROSS upon inquiring if he lived in Pottstown, Pa., was informed by OSWALD that he lived in Louisiana. Thereafter, they spoke generally about the Mardi Gras.

Just prior to GROSS being told that OSWALD was from Louisiana, GROSS noticed a nice looking woman standing at the counter. GROSS asked OSWALD if he and his wife were on a vacation, and OSWALD informed him they were. GROSS then asked the woman if she enjoyed the trip and OSWALD told GROSS that she could not understand him because she is Russian. OSWALD then said something to the woman in a foreign language. GROSS asked OSWALD if he had been in the service and met his wife along the border. This was unanswered as OSWALD and his wife departed. GROSS advised the woman had a small girl with her who had dark hair and that the woman also carried a young baby in her arms.

Neither OSWALD nor his wife and family were seen thereafter by GROSS, and he presumes that they departed from the store.

GROSS described OSWALD as about 28 to 30, thin, 5'8", about 150 pounds, chestnut brown hair, and stated when talking his face assumed a sort of drawn expression around the mouth. OSWALD was wearing a white shirt, no tie, and a pair of pants, the color not being recalled by GROSS.

GROSS stated he could only recall that OSWALD's wife was a nice looking girl who had no rouge on her cheeks and who had dark hair. He stated he could furnish no descriptive data concerning the baby, and could only state the girl with OSWALD's wife had dark hair and was about 32" tall.

GROSS observed OSWALD on television following his being taken into custody by the Dallas Police. He stated the individual he saw on television appeared identical to the person who was at his counter on November 16, 1963.

GROSS advised that about five minutes after OSWALD departed, an individual came to the counter with another man. This individual had a noticeable scar over his right eye toward his right temple and was tanned as if he had been in the south. The man with the scar stared at him to the point where GROSS felt he was going to commit a robbery. Due to this, GROSS called another clerk, ROD DUNKLE, from the Rug Department to wait on the man.

This man asked to see some C-620 file, and GROSS at this time recalled that several days earlier he had sold the same man with the scar a cheap 127 camera. A third man walked up about this time and slapped the man with the scar across the back, mentioned some name which GROSS does not recall, and stated something to the effect of fancy meeting you here. The three men then departed after a roll of C-620 film was purchased.

GROSS described the man with the scar as in his late 40s, 5'7", 200 pounds, broad bridge of nose, wearing a hat with wide black band.

GROSS stated shortly after the three men left, he asked IRENE DALPRA in Division 21 at Sears if she had seen the Russian girl with the man from Louisiana; however, IRENE stated she had not noticed them. GROSS stated he knows of no one else at the store who might have observed OSWALD at his counter.

GROSS advised after he saw OSWALD on television he told his wife about OSWALD having been at Sears. He did not tell anyone else about it and hesitated to contact the FBI about it because he felt there might be a connection between the man with the scar and OSWALD. He could furnish no information as to any connection between OSWALD and the man with the scar other than the man with the scar coming into the store at his counter about five minutes after OSWALD had been there.

Wytheville, Va.

Mr. ED ZUBER, Radio Station WYVE, made available a tape recording of an interview by him with Mrs. FRANK NELMS, local Red Cross representative. The interview was on November 25, 1963, and was in Mrs. NELMS' voice.

Mrs. NELMS stated that less than two weeks ago a man who she thinks was LEE HARVEY OSWALD came into her Red Cross Office requesting assistance in getting to Princeton, West Virginia. The man stated that he did not have relatives there but had someone he wanted to see. He stated that he was from near Dallas, Texas, and had a Russian born wife and two children there and that he could get to Dallas only if he could get to West Virginia. The man stated that his name was LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and she wrote the name down somewhere but could not presently locate the paper on which she wrote the name. Mrs. NELMS asked the man if his name could possibly be EWALD inasmuch as there are people in Wytheville by that name. He said that his name was OSWALD and not EWALD. The man looked foreign to Mrs. NELMS and when he stated that he had been to Russia and would like to go back someday he became more foreign looking. Mrs. NELMS gave the man $1.00 and called the Greyhound bus station and advised Mr. PUCKETT that she would pay the difference on a ticket to Princeton at later date. She then asked the man if he knew the way to the station, and he said he did, thanked her, and left.

The tape continued with an interview with BOB PUCKETT, Manager of the Greyhound Bus Station. PUCKETT stated that he did not recall the incident until Mrs. NELMS brought it to his attention. He then recalled the conversation with Mrs. NELMS and remembers the man coming to the station. A ticket was issued to Princeton, West Virginia, for which the Red Cross was charged $2.00. The man said he could get to Dallas once he got to Princeton. Mr. PUCKETT said that the man looked like a professional traveling across the country and did not talk to anyone in the terminal. Mr. PUCKETT thinks that the incident took place around 3:00 or 4:00 P.M., which led him to believe that the man left on the 4:45 P.M., bus to Princeton. PUCKETT did not see him board the bus, however. Mrs. NELMS did not give any name for the person she was to send to the station, only said he was a veteran trying to get to Dallas and that he had a sister in Princeton. AT WYTHEVILLE, VIRGINIA

The following investigation was conducted by SAs FREDERICK A. COOK and ROBERT H. PARNELL, on November 25, 1963:

Mr. CURTIS PUCKETT, owner, Greyhound Cafeteria and operator of the Greyhound Bus Terminal at Wytheville, Virginia, advised that he is the local representative for the Salvation Army in that the Salvation Army maintains a small amount of money on a continuing basis which he uses to assist persons in trouble either in the way of buying food or furnishing them with transportation. He stated he had heard the story that Mrs. FRANK NELMS, the local American Red Cross representative, had made to a local radio station in regard to the possibility of having seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Wytheville, Virginia, approximately two weeks ago. Mr. PUCKETT stated that apparently she was referring to an incident on November 13, 1963, when a young man claiming to be a Veteran, came to the Greyhound Bus Terminal at the suggestion of Mrs. FRANK NELMS and said he wanted transportation to Princeton, West Virginia, to see his sister and also that he was in need of food.

Mr. PUCKETT stated he located a small slip of paper in the Salvation Army records reflecting that on November 13, 1963, one HENRY RICHARDS, Princeton, West Virginia, had been furnished with one lunch, valued at $1.40 and bus transportation to Princeton, West Virginia.

Mr. PUCKETT stated that the actual conversation and dealings with this man, HENRY RICHARDS, were handled by his brother, BOB PUCKETT, who assists him in the operation of the cafeteria and bus terminal. Mr. PUCKETT advised it is his impression of Mrs. NELMS that she is an elderly lady, possibly in her late seventies, and has a difficulty recalling time and events. He stated her recollection is very poor and that he has never heard any comments regarding anyone by the name of OSWALD having any dealings at his bus terminal. Mr. PUCKETT stated that the handwriting on the slip of paper is not in the handwriting of the man known as HENRY RICHARDS, but is the handwriting of his brother, BOB PUCKETT.

Mr. PUCKETT stated he had contacted the radio station, WYVE in Wytheville, Virginia, and suggested to Mr. ED ZUBER that he not play any taped interview with Mrs. NELMS until an opportunity was had to thoroughly check and verify each part of the story told by Mrs. NELMS.

Mr. BOB PUCKETT advised that he recalled on November 13, 1963, that Mrs. FRANK NELMS called the bus terminal and told him that she was sending a young Veteran by by the name of HENRY RICHARDS, who was in need of food and transportation. Mr. PUCKETT stated that this man identified himself as one HENRY RICHARDS, who stated he had a sister in Princeton, West Virginia he was going to see, and then hoped eventually to get to Texas.

Mr. PUCKETT stated that this person was furnished with lunch valued at $1.40 and given a bus ticket valued at $2.00 to travel to Princeton, West Virginia. He stated he does not recall any mention of any name OSWALD and he only has a very vague recollection of what HENRY RICHARDS looked like and his recollection is that this man was just average in size and build, with no particular outstanding features.

Mr. PUCKETT stated that he and his brother, CURTIS PUCKETT, had thoroughly checked all the records dealing with the Salvation Army in their possession and were unable to locate any paper or any record of any assistance rendered to anyone by the last name of OSWALD.

Mr. PUCKETT advised that his brother CURTIS did recall that three or four months previously, in connection with another assistance call, Mrs. NELMS had sent a young couple down to the bus terminal, the man being dressed in some type of military uniform with stripes on the sleeve. He stated that CURTIS recalled that this man purchased coffee and doughnuts for the woman, apparently his wife, who was unable to speak English, and that this person had a small baby as well as a youngster about three years old. He recalled also that this man then left the bus terminal, returned a short time later, and when CURTIS PUCKETT approached him and wanted to know if he could be of assistance, this young military person said no, that his problem had been solved. Mr. PUCKETT noted that of course they would have no type of record in regard to an incident such as this. He also stated that he and his brother CURTIS had mentioned this incident to Mrs. NELMS; however, Mrs. NELMS was very definite in stating that the incident referred to was on November 13, 1963.

Mrs. FRANK NELMS, American Red Cross, Wytheville, Virginia, advised that on November 13, 1963, a man came to her office located on Main Street in Wytheville, advised he was a Veteran, and stated that he needed assistance in regard to food and travel. She stated this man said that he had a Russian wife and that he was going to Princeton, West Virginia to visit someone and then planned on going to Texas. Mrs. NELMS stated she seems to recall she made some type of note in regard to this, however, she has searched everywhere and is unable to locate the note. She stated that she believes this person is identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, after having seen numerous photographs of OSWALD in newspapers. She stated this man was slender in appearance and had very heavy, dark eyebrows and eyelashes.

She stated that she called the Greyhound Bus Terminal to talk to one of the persons there and she did not recall which one of the PUCKETT brothers she spoke with; however, at that time the man told her to just tell them that "HENRY RICHARDS" was coming by. She stated that earlier in the conversation this man had said that his last name was OSWALD and she thought it was "rather strange" that he had a different name at the time she spoke with the Greyhound people.

She recalled that she asked this man if he was related to the EWALDS in Wytheville, at which time he said no, his name is OSWALD.

Mrs. NELMS had no explanation as to why she did not question this individual as to his change in name.

Just prior to the conclusion of the interview, Mrs. NELMS exhibited a newspaper photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, at which time she made the statement the man who was in her office certainly "resembled" LEE HARVEY OSWALD. The newspaper photograph showed part of the shirt being worn by OSWALD and she said that looked like the exact same shirt that he was wearing the day he was in her office, that it had a large plaid and she recalled that it was unbuttoned at the collar and seemed to form a "V" at the neck.

It is noted during the course of the conversation, Mrs. NELMS wandered in her conversation and seemed to have difficulty retaining the same chain of thought. She took much time to explain numerous experiences she had had as the American Red Cross representative.

ELBERT P. NELSON, 580 East Main Street, advised that he had seen the pictures of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the papers and recalled that he had seen OSWALD, or someone who closely resembled him, in the Red Cross Office at Wytheville on September 3, 4, 5, or 6. The exact date was not recalled but it was remembered that it was during the week prior to NELSON'S obtaining a job on September 12, 1963. NELSON stated that he often visited the office hunting assistance in locating a job and on this particular occasion he entered the office in the afternoon and noticed the person resembling OSWALD talking to Mrs. FRANK NELMS, the Red Cross representative. He requested assistance in getting either to West Virginia or Bristol, Virginia. The person stated that he had a wife and two children in a car outside and NELSON could not understand why he would be requesting a bus ticket if he had a car. NELSON recalled that Mrs. NELMS gave him $1.00 and called the Greyhound Bus Station and requested that a ticket be issued to him, and she would pay for it later. NELSON stated that he definitely heard the man say that his name was OSWALD, and he recalled that as Mrs. NELMS asked him if it could be EWALD instead. The man left the office after obtaining the money and was seen on the streets for about one and one-half hours begging money and wandering around.

He was dressed in civilian clothes consisting of a tan jacket, open neck shirt, and blue trousers. He had a mean look on his face and did not seem to act normal.

NELSON stated that he is positive that the man he saw in the Red Cross Office was OSWALD.

It is to be noted that NELSON is known as a loafer around Wytheville and had been drinking at time of interview.

Mrs. FRANK NELMS, Red Cross Office, advised that she now felt that the person she believed to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD appeared at her office in either September or October, 1963, instead of November 13, 1963, as she had previously advised. She stated that she had changed her mind since a veteran by the last name of NELSON had come by her office November 26, 1963, and told her that he was in her office when the man believed to be OSWALD was there and that he said it was in September; however, she thinks that he meant October.

Mrs. NELMS further advised that she now thinks that the incident with FRANK RICHARDS was in no way connected with OSWALD and that she had just gotten the two cases confused. Mrs. NELMS stated that she still feels that OSWALD was the person in her office earlier requesting assistance in getting to West Virginia, and she said that he could have possibly been going to Charleston instead of Princeton as previously reported.

Captain O. A. JONES of the Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, furnished the file to me for review concerning the investigation of a shooting which allegedly occurred on April 10, 1963 at 9:00 P.M. at the home of General EDWIN A. WALKER, 4011 Turtle Creek Boulevard. This file reflected that at 9:10 P.M. on April 10, 1963, a call was received by the Dallas Police Department from General EDWIN A. WALKER, 4011 Turtle Creek Boulevard, Dallas, Texas.

WALKER complained to the police that he was sitting at his desk doing some paper work around 9:00 P.M. on April 10, 1963. He stated he was in the northwest room in his house on the lower floor, when he heard what sounded like a firecracker explode over his head. WALKER saw a hole in the wall to the left of where he was sitting.

Investigation by the Dallas Police Department reflected that a spent bullet was found in the next room which was believed to have entered the window on the west side of the room after passing through the wooden frame of the window, passing by WALKER's head and going completely through the wall. WALKER was hit in the right arm between the elbow and wrist by what was believed to be slivers of the bullet, wood, or pieces of glass. WALKER, realizing what had happened, ran upstairs and got his pistol, and called the police.

This file further reflects that one KIRK COLEMAN of 4338 Newton Street, Dallas, Texas, stated that he was sitting in the back room of his home and heard what sounded like a shot from a shotgun. He stated he ran outside and pulled himself up over the fence in the rear yard, and as he looked toward a church parking lot nearby, he saw some unknown white male speed down the driveway toward Turtle Creek Boulevard either in a 1949 or 1950 Ford sedan.

This file reflects that another witness allegedly saw two men sitting in an automobile about 30 minutes prior to the time of the shooting some distance away from General WALKER's house.

This file further reflects that all leads were investigated by the Dallas Police Department as they were received without results.

Captain JONES stated that one WILLIAM MacEWAN DUFF, white, male, approximately 32 years old, came to General WALKER's home in early December, 1962 and pretended to be an immigrant from Scotland. According to JONES, DUFF stated that he was interested in the type of work the General was doing and wanted to help him just for a place to stay. According to JONES, DUFF stated that he had only been in the Dallas area at the time for about two weeks and kept mentioning that he had to study all of the time in order to obtain his American citizenship papers. JONES stated that DUFF was a pathological liar, lazy, and would not work. He stated in March, 1963, DUFF was asked to leave the WALKER residence.

Captain JONES stated that DUFF was brought to the Dallas Police Department and given a polygraph examination, from which the Dallas Police Department came to the conclusion that DUFF was not involved with the shooting incident at General WALKER's home.

Captain JONES stated that there have been no other suspects other than DUFF and that the Dallas Police Department has been more or less at a dead end. He stated that it is difficult to investigate any type of matter where General WALKER is involved since WALKER apparently does not know the truth from fiction and leads the police up many blind alleys.

Lieutenant E. L. CUNNINGHAM stated that no suspects have been developed in the WALKER shooting incident which occurred allegedly at 9:00 P.M., April 10, 1963 at the General WALKER home at 4011 Turtle Creek Boulevard, Dallas, Texas. He stated the only possible suspect was WILLIAM MacEWAN DUFF who had resided at the WALKER home, and that DUFF was eliminated as a suspect after he had been given a polygraph examination at the Dallas Police Department. He stated that DUFF had resided in General WALKER's home from September, 1962 to March of 1963, and that there were really no allegations or information concerning DUFF as a suspect other than because of his laziness he had been ordered to move out of the home by General WALKER.

CUNNINGHAM states that he had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD until November 22, 1963 at the time of the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY.

VII. ALLEGATIONS REGARDING ACQUAINTANCESHIP OF LEE HARVEY OSWALD AND JACK L. RUBY

GES & DSB/cah
OC 44-430

The following investigation was conducted by SAs GLENN E. SILVEY and DAVID S. BYERLY:

AT OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLAHOMA

On November 25, 1963, the morning edition of The Daily Oklahoman, November 25, 1963, contained the following article captioned "County Man Tells of OSWALD, RUBY."

"LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY were both in a downtown Dallas bar last Sunday, but did not meet a Midwest city man who spoke to both, said Sunday.

"Vern Davis, who went to Dallas to join a Showman's Club, said OSWALD entered JACK's bar in the 800 block Exposition. I was buying, so I called him over, DAVIS said.

"DAVIS quoted OSWALD as saying, 'LYNDON JOHNSON was a nothing senator who got to be a big shot.'

"He was real big on JOHNSON, DAVIS said. The Midwest city man said he spoke to OSWALD for about five minutes. Soon after, RUBY, an old friend of DAVIS, entered the bar.

"DAVIS said OSWALD spoke of the upcoming trip of JOHNSON and KENNEDY and specifically mentioned the trip to the Trade Mart where the President was to talk.

"DAVIS said he met RUBY ten years ago when he was a night clerk in a Dallas hotel and RUBY was running some gambling upstairs. DAVIS described RUBY as a very calm man. DAVIS said he was attempting to get admission to the Lone Star Showman's Club, a club of carnival people, and RUBY introduced him to a COTTON WHEELER, an old Texas showman, who sponsored him to the club.

"OSWALD was in the club at the time, DAVIS said, and everyone thought he was kind of a pest and could have done without him.

GES & DSB/csh
OC 44-430

"DAVIS said OSWALD, who was out of place in his sloppy dress, kept saying, JOHNSON is a nothing. He was very animated in his conversation which nobody was particularly impressed by.

"The general impression was that he, OSWALD, did not belong there and was not welcome, DAVIS said.

"DAVIS pictured RUBY, whom he originally met ten years ago in a Dallas synagogue, as soft spoken business man, moderate and business-like."

Date Dec. 1, 1963

VERN A. DAVIS was located at 6120 S.E. Sixth Street Oklahoma City, Okla. and DAVIS advised that he was born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, on May 27, 1917, and was employed as income tax accountant and salesman, his last occupation being with the Midwest Publishing Company, Midwest City, Oklahoma, in advertisement sales. DAVIS stated that he phoned the managing editor of The Daily Oklahoman concerning the information reported in an article in The Daily Oklahoman on November 25, 1963. He said that he went to Dallas, Texas, on November 17, 1963, his purpose being to join the Lone Star Showman's Club which he described as a club consisting of carnival and concessionnaire people. He said while in Dallas at about 7:00 or 7:30 p.m. at what used to be Jack's Bar, not JACK RUBY, now believed to be Ed's Bar at 813 Exposition Street, he was discussing various topics of conversation with some "carnival people". He said while there, an individual joined the group and began making derogatory statements about then Vice-President LYNDON JOHNSON and his forthcoming trip to the Trade Mart. He said at no time was President KENNEDY's name mentioned by this individual. He said he believed this individual to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD whose picture he saw both in the newspaper and television. He said he then left the bar for a short time and when he came back he noticed an individual he thought to be OSWALD had left and JACK RUBY was standing at the bar.

He said he had met JACK RUBY about ten years ago in Dallas, Texas, and he said JACK RUBY was a gambler who followed fairs and carnivals throughout the country "hustling" poker games. He said he asked JACK RUBY if he knew anyone at the Lone Star Showman's Club and RUBY told him he knew an individual named COTTON WHEELER. He said COTTON WHEELER later sponsored his application for the Lone Star Showman's Club. He said further he did not know RUBY as a night club operator but only as a gambler going from carnival to carnival. DAVIS said specifically that in further reflection about the identity of OSWALD, he was not really as sure that OSWALD was in the club as he had been the day before.

He said he saw JACK RUBY at the Topeka Fair abut two years previous, but he did not know anything about his background other than he was a gambler. RUBY's picture was exhibited to DAVIS and he said he believed this was the same JACK RUBY that he had seen in Jack's Bar.

DAVIS said he had served time for burglary in the Oklahoma State Penitentiary at McAlester, the burglary having been committed at Chickasha, Oklahoma, in 1945. He said he also served time at Folsom Penitentiary and at the penitentiary in Tracy, California, for burglary in Sacramento, California. DAVIS claimed he had only three or four beers the night he saw JACK RUBY in the bar.

"I, EMERY THEODORE GARLOCK, make the following true and voluntary statement to Donald H. Sloat and Samuel R. I have been advised that I do not have to make a statement and that if I do it can be used in a court of law against me. No threats, promises, or duress were used to induce me to make this statement:

"On 10-19-63 I stopped at John's Lounge, 1213 Linwood Street and while there I met and conversed with a person who identified himself as a 'Judge' in the Tribal Council of the Dakota Indian Tribe. This person appeared to be of Spanish origin and spoke with a slight Spanish accent. We talked generally about civil rights as related to Indians and Negroes. The 'Judge' was somewhat distrustful of me at first thinking I might be with the FBI. He appeared to be a well informed person and used good English. I talked with this person from about 6:00 PM to about 10:00 PM and I believe him to be Lee Harvey Oswald, the person who killed the President.

"Some one (1) week prior to this incident I remember seeing Jack Ruby at which time he was having some altercation with 'John' about being too noisy. I later saw this same person when talking with the 'Judge' or Lee Harvey Oswald.

"I also became acquainted with an Indian female by the name of Jeannie who seemed to know the Judge. A third person called the 'Chief' was also present. On the evening when I first met the Judge we all went to the Congress Hotel on their request. While the Judge and the Chief

"were gone to get beer the girl, Jeannie indicated to me that she had worked with "Operation Water Moccasin," disguised as a Japanese National. The Chief also asked me if I had heard of this operation. I replied that I had not.

"The girl 'Jeannie' said her father was Chief Cutnose and had recently been killed. She indicated that he had been treated badly and that someone was going to pay. She also indicated some high state official was going to be killed on a trip they were to make. At this point she became a little hysterical stating she was afraid for her life because 'they' would kill her if they found out she had talked.

"I also remember hearing a girl by the name of 'Dorothy' ask the Judge where his other clothes were and he replied that they were being taken care of by 'them' in Dallas. He indicated to her that she couldn't recognize him in the clothes he was wearing. This occurred prior to leaving the Bar.

"After the 'Judge' and the Chief returned with the beer I passed out from something put in it. When I awoke the 'Judge' was going through my things and had taken an I.D. card with my picture. He indicated that I looked more Russian than American. When I asked him to return my things he did so, however I later missed a little brochure I had prepared on research.

"I apparently had slept through the night and awoke in the morning about 10:00 AM. My son came by the Hotel after seeing my car parked on the street. My wife had also called the police when I did not return home.

"This entire incident didn't have much significance until I saw the TV program on 'Operation, the Water Moccasin Hoax.' I then recalled the girl Jeannie having offered me $3,000.00 if I would assist them in the operation.

DERAL BUREAU OF INVEST

Date November 25, 1963

Mrs. HENRIETTA VARGAS, nee GARCIA, 5011 Capital Street, was interviewed in the presence of her attorney, LAWRENCE P. HOCHBERG, 700 Southland Life Building, Dallas. Mrs. VARGAS stated she is presently employed by McKelb Sports Wear, 501 Elm Street, Dallas.

She further advised that on Tuesday, November 19, 1963, at approximately 4:10 p.m., while en route to a parking lot located directly west of the Texas School Book Depository on Elm Street, she and FRANCES HERNANDEZ, Annex Street, Dallas, and JOSIE SALINAS, Irving, Texas, observed two cars parked near the exit lane of the parking lot. She described one as a 1955 or 1956 Buick which is light in color. She stated she did not notice the other car but was advised by FRANCES HERNANDEZ that it was a new model compact.

She stated the man in the Buick was an older man, perhaps age 40 or more, height about 5'7" to 5'8", build husky. She stated the man in the small car was not entirely visible to her, and that she cannot describe him except that he was of slender build.

She further stated she observed the older man open the trunk of his car and remove a rifle which she noticed had a telescopic sight affixed thereto. She stated the older man gave the rifle to the younger man, who put it in the small car, then both got in and drove away.

Mrs. VARGAS feels that the photographs she has seen of JACK LEON RUBY are perhaps identical to the older man whom she noticed giving the rifle to the younger man on November 19, 1963.

DAVID TORRES advised he resides at 3619 Almazan, Dallas, Texas. He stated he had a discussion with one CONRAD GALVAN, a friend of his, sometime after the shooting of President KENNEDY, and they discussed various phases of the matter.

TORRES recalls that he told GALVAN that two or three girls of Spanish descent who work in the building at 501 Elm Street had seen two men with a rifle outside the Texas School Book Depository Building on Tuesday, November 19, 1963. They do not know LEE OSWALD to his knowledge, at least they did not state they saw OSWALD with the gun, and he stated he does not know how the rumor got started that they saw OSWALD with a gun on November 22, 1963.

TORRES advised that the discussion came up between the girls and himself after they told him that they had been interviewed by the FBI.

TORRES advised that he was the man that told GALVAN originally about this incident and apparently the whole story got mixed up. He advised he does not know and has never seen OSWALD or JACK RUBY.

He stated he is acquainted with RALPH ROJAS, 3009 Clover Drive, Mesquite, Texas. GALVAN was asked specifically if he had obtained any information from three Mexican girls allegedly working in the vicinity of 501 Elm, Dallas, to the effect that they saw LEE OSWALD receiving a pistol from a "chubby" man outside the Texas School Book Depository Building. GALVAN stated that he did not hear of any information of this type, however, did hear from an acquaintance of his, one DAVID TORRES, that three girls who worked in the building at 501 Elm did see several men with a rifle two or three days before the President was shot. TORRES had told him that these girls had seen several men carrying a rifle near the Texas School Book Depository and he believes it was on Tuesday, November 19, 1963.

GALVAN stated that he has no information concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY and has never seen OSWALD or JACK RUBY to his knowledge. He does not know the identities of the particular girls who were discussing this matter.

On November 27, 1963, DONALD G. TANNER, 402 Konawa Drive, Dallas, Texas, employed at E and L Service Center, 7819 Lake June Road, telephonically advised SA CARL E. UNDERHILL that he overheard a rumor that LEE HARVEY OSWALD, on a day or two before the death of President KENNEDY, had ordered a new Cadillac and he was going to inherit some money. He said he heard this at the grocery store located at the corner of Lake June Road and Jim Miller Road.

He said in his opinion, JACK RUBENSTEIN was not too patriotic and there was a connection between OSWALD and RUBENSTEIN.

The following investigation was conducted by SAs JAMES J. WARD and ROBERT E. BASHAM on December 6, 1963:

DONALD G. TANNER, 402 Konawa Drive, advised that he could not recall who he learned the above from, but he believed an employee of the grocery store had overheard this comment made and told the man he heard it from. He advised that he did not know JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never seen them before.

GROVER HUDGENS, Owner, Hudgens Grocery, 7102 Lake June Road; RICHARD HARDY, 3808 Forest Lawn, Dallas, an employee of the grocery store; and H. G. GARRETT, 7920 Elam Road, Dallas, another grocery store employee, all advised that they had never overheard any rumor to the effect that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had ordered a new Cadillac and had said he was going to inherit some money. Mr. GARRETT advised, however, that he recalls a used car dealer on Lake June Road mentioning one day in the grocery that he had repossessed a car from an OSWALD about a month before President KENNEDY was assassinated. He said that this man was in the store about three or four days before the assassination of the President and had made this remark.

THOMAS W. RAY, Assistant Manager, W. J. Motors, 6924 Lake June Road, advised that the owner of the company, Mr. ORDELL JOHNSON, sold a 1956 Ford to one LOUIS OSWALT of 2632 Idaho Street, Dallas. He said that JOHNSON repossessed this car from OSWALT about two months ago. He said that OSWALT was one of three brothers that came from Mississippi sometime back, and that he is not identical with the LEE H. OSWALD whose photograph he observed in the newspapers since the assassination of President KENNEDY. He advised that OSWALT was believed to be presently employed by Thomas Plating and Bumper Exchange, Dallas. RAY advised he never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never seen him before. He said that Mr. JOHNSON's telephone number was FE 1-1500.

He stated that a friend of his called him by the name of JIM WANNER, whose home phone is Fleetwood 1-0664, and told HALL that one of WANNER's employees, a female who was not identified, had overheard a printer at the Record Printing Company, 2818 Elm Street, Dallas, make a statement that approximately a week to ten days prior to November 22, 1963, that RUBY and OSWALD were in the printing shop together. The man that made this statement, according to HALL, is named BARNEY and that he is the owner of the printing shop. HALL did not know whether BARNEY is the man's first or last name but that WANNER told him that BARNEY does RUBY's printing for him and that BARNEY hangs around the courthouse possibly because he prints a number of legal records.

HALL stated that WANNER did not know what to do with the information and that this was the reason for him calling HALL.

The City Directory reflects that BARNEY T. WHITE was owner of the Record Printing Company, 2818 Elm Street, Dallas.

On November 28, 1963, BARNEY T. WHITE, telephone RI 8-9973, advised SA ROBERT E. BASHAM that he has never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD before and does not know him. He advised that he has been doing printing work for JACK RUBY for about a year and a half, but he has never seen either of the two together and knows of no connection between the two.

FRITZ DIETER JAEGER, 1316 Belle Place, Fort Worth, Texas, was interviewed at the Shady Oaks County Club where he has been employed since July 30, 1963, in the kitchen.

JAEGER came to the United States on July 13, 1963, from Cologne, Germany.

His purpose in coming to the United States was to visit an aunt and uncle, R. R. CRUMP, 1316 Belle Place. He does not stay with his relatives but in a room nearby at the corner of Camp Bowie and Clover Lane. JAEGER said he liked it here in Fort Worth and recently applied for a resident visa with Immigration and Naturalization Service, Dallas, Texas.

JAEGER was in the German Merchant Marine from approximately 1960 to 1963. After getting out of the Merchant Marine, he then worked in Cologne, Germany, at the Opra Restaurant as a kitchen butcher until he came to the United States in July, 1963.

While JAEGER was in the German Merchant Marine, his ship docked in many Russian ports including Leningrad, Russia. He said that he had been to Leningrad two or three different times. To the best of his recollection, while in Leningrad during 1961, he and his shipmates visited the Inter Club. This club is known as the International Club and is set up by Russia only for foreigners. No Russian nationals were allowed at the club except for the workers. JAEGER described the club as an information center for the Russians. It consisted of a large room which has microphones throughout the club to overhear any conversations throughout the building. The drinks are free and there are Russians there to entertain, and elicit any information from foreigners by eavesdropping and questioning.

JAEGER said that on this visit to Leningrad and while at the Inter Club, he went to a cinema with someone he believed was OSWALD and identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. JAEGER said he was brought together with this OSWALD because OSWALD and JAEGER were in a group speaking English. During the cinema, JAEGER sat alongside OSWALD and asked him many questions about the film which was in English, and JAEGER did not understand everything that was said.

JAEGER said he did not talk to OSWALD very much, and OSWALD never talked much with him because of microphones placed around the building. JAEGER said he did not ask if OSWALD was there as a foreigner or a Russian. JAEGER said that he did not have to ask OSWALD this because in his own mind he knew that OSWALD was a communist and working there. Further, OSWALD did not leave the Inter Club when it closed at midnight to him and his shipmates. JAEGER admitted that the possibility existed that OSWALD could have been a tourist and could have had a different type pass from what he had.

JAEGER said the Secret Service in Dallas, Texas, exhibited him a photograph of a woman which he identified as being known to him, JAEGER, as LOBUJIR MARREKA (phonetic) and which woman he had seen in the Inter Club as an entertainer. JAEGER said he saw her talk to other people. JAEGER said that he cannot remember whether he ever talked to her, danced with her or that he saw her more than once during his visits to the Inter Club. He said this woman could have handed him a magazine, but JAEGER was not specific in any contacts with this woman whom he identified for the Secret Service.

With regard to any conversations JAEGER had with OSWALD, he said that OSWALD only asked him if he ever docked on the Gulf Coast of the United States. Before JAEGER answered, OSWALD said he knew the Gulf Coast very well.

JAEGER said that the first time that he knew that OSWALD was an American was approximately a week ago when he was accused of the assassination of former President JOHN F. KENNEDY. He related that the Secret Service had shown him a picture of a marine in a uniform, allegedly OSWALD, and he has seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD's picture on television. With regard to identifying OSWALD, JAEGER said that he cannot say for sure that the OSWALD he met in the Inter Club is the same as LEE HARVEY OSWALD, but he is 90% sure.

JAEGER mentioned that he might have OSWALD's name in a book which he has in Cologne, Germany. He stated it was his practice to write names of people that he met at the Inter Club in this book, and he has written to Cologne for the book and will supply it to the Secret Service when he receives it.

JAEGER stated that he has been to Dallas, Texas, only to talk with the Secret Service and the other time to the Immigration and Naturalization Service Office for a resident visa.

BILL LANDS, Special Agent, Office of Special Investigations, Carswell Air Force Base, Texas, advised that information was reported to his office that a German individual, using the name FRITZ, was making a lot of comments concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY, Saturday night, November 30, 1963, in the Hightop Club, a tavern on the Jacksboro Highway, Fort Worth. FRITZ allegedly worked at the Shady Oaks Country Club as a Cook, is about age 30, 190 pounds, and has light hair. FRITZ was driving a 1956 Ford, bearing 1963 Texas license KF443. A check of the Auto Registrations in Fort Worth reflected this car to be a 1956 Ford, Victoria, registered to WOLFGANG H. SCHMITZ, 525 South Judd Street, Fort Worth.

FRITZ allegedly had, and was waving around, a copy of a statement that he had given the Secret Service. FRITZ is alleged to have stated that when interviewed by the Secret Service, he had told them only what he wanted to tell them, that he had seen OSWALD and his wife in a club in Russia when he was in the Merchant Marine, that RUBY had been hired to kill OSWALD, and made other comments regarding OSWALD and RUBY. FRITZ did not appear to be drinking too heavily, but his statements and comments, as well as himself, became boring and he appeared to be a braggard to club patrons.

Mr. LANDS was advised that the FRITZ mentioned above appears to be identical with FRITZ DIETER JAEGER, an employee of the Shady Oaks Country Club.

FRITZ DIETER JAEGER was re-interviewed at the Shady Oaks Country Club, where he is employed as a Cook. He advised that on Saturday, night, November 30, 1963, he visited the High top Club, a tavern on the Jacksboro Highway. JAEGER was driving a 1956 Ford, Victoria, which he is buying from WOLFGANG H. SCHMITZ, a Chef at the Club. JAEGER admitted taking a copy of a signed statement which he had previously given the Secret Service when interviewed by them. He said that he did not read , or understand, English well and wanted someone to help him read it. Further, it was not his intention to divulge any information in discussing the statement with RONNIE (LAST NAME UNKNOWN), owner or manager of the Hightop Club, but to determine if he had done the right thing because RONNIE was his friend. He stated that he had furnished all the information he knows about OSWALD when previously interviewed and he again reiterated that he is ninety per cent sure that it was OSWALD and his wife that he saw in the Inter Club in Leningrad, Russia, when he visited the Club while in the German Merchant Marine. JAEGER again denied knowing RUBY. He says he had talked about this at the Hightop Club, but he was misquoted or misunderstood by the people there.

JAEGER indicated that he had talked to CHRISTENE GRAVES, a waitress at the Cattlemen's Restaurant in Fort Worth. It was his impression that she was going to Cologne, Germany, whe she is from, and it was she who had called him asking if he had any information she could carry to his folks there in the way of greetings. JAEGER stated that he and Miss GRAVES only discussed things of common interest, namely the fact that they were both born in Cologne, Germany.

JAEGER was requested to refrain from making statements concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY, and to furnish such information as he may have to the appropriate authorities. JAEGER agreed to furnish any additional information coming to his attention, or any recollections that he may have of his possible contacts with OSWALD to the FBI.

JOSEPH ROLAND HUMMEL, Rm. 710, YMCA, 605 North Ervay, Dallas, advised that he was presently employed at the Magnolia Tearoom, 1629 Pacific Street. He stated that he thought he had seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the Mayflower Coffee Shop in September, 1963. He advised that he also believed he had seen JACK RUBY on the sun deck at the YMCA during the summer of 1963. He said a fellow named BARNEY (LNU) who is a desk clerk at the YMCA told him that RUBY was a member of the Y. HUMMEL advised that prior to coming to Dallas in April of 1961, he had lived in New Orleans and that he believed he first saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD during Mardi Gra of 1960 in the La Marina Cafe on Decatur Street, New Orleans. He advised that he further believed he had seen OSWALD shopping in a grocery store on the corner of Magazine and Melpomene. He further advised that he believed he had seen OSWALD sometime in 1961 walking on Jackson and Magazine with a white male, sandy hair, about 5' 8" or 9", who appeared to be of German extraction. He advised in this regard he is of German descent and claimed he had no trouble distinguishing this nationality. HUMMEL claimed that he had been a source of information or an informant for the New Orleans police and the Customs Agency in New Orleans. He stated that he was working for RICHARD DOWLING and after DOWLING went out of office, for JAMES GARRISON, presently District Attorney. He said in particular he worked with Captain BARBERIOS.

HUMMEL furnished information known to the Agent which indicated he was acquainted with the New Orleans area, and further admitted he had been arrested by the New Orleans police for a crime against nature and indecent exposure.

On December 2, 1963, the following investigation was conducted by SA's JAMES J. WARD and ROBERT E. BASHAM:

Chief GEORGE B. OWEN, U. S. Navy Recruiting, 1114 Commerce Street, advised that A. H. FERRIS, Medical Department, 7th Floor, 912 Commerce Street, was presently living at the YMCA.

Chief A. H. FERNANDEZ, U. S. Navy, Officer Procurement Section, 912 Commerce Street, present residence 4821 Gaston, Apt. 102, advised that he was at the YMCA from February 14, 1963 to June, 1963 when he moved to his present address, and that he did not know JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

He advised that he could not recall seeing either of these individuals either at the Health Club or while he was residing at the Y.

He said that he has only been employed at the Y since October of 1963 and that he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY personally, but he believes that he has seen RUBY come into the Y on two or three occasions and he has heard that he was a member of the YMCA Health Club. He said Mr. JENSEN, the membership chairman of the Health Club, would know whether RUBY was a member. He said he thought the FBI had been making inquiries about RUBY previously and that they had attempted to locate an individual on the fifth floor. He further advised that a reporter from Latin America has been living at the Y and has been asking numerous questions about LEE HARVEY OSWALD and how long OSWALD lived at the Y.

BARNHORST advised that there is an individual in Room 710 from New Orleans who claims he knew OSWALD in New Orleans, but he said he would not put very much faith in what he has to say since this individual is a big mouth and claims all kinds of ridiculous deeds and feats. He stated when he asked her what she wanted she informed him she wanted to "find out where OSWALD eats." He stated she had a small notebook which she was writing in.

Mr. PHILIP LANCE, Apartment G, 109 10th Street, advised he is currently residing here with his wife, REBA JANE LANCE, and their two children. He advised he is currently unemployed but his wife is working at Skillern's Drugstore in Wynnewood.

LANCE advised that his last employment was at Col-Bec Restaurant in 100 block of W. Colorado Street, where he and his wife worked for approximately one week.

He stated that at approximately 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, November 26, 1963, he and his wife were working at the kitchen at Col-Bec Restaurant when a woman came through the front door right back to the kitchen. He said she advised them she was a White House reporter and that she was "trying to get information on our friend OSWALD."

LANCE stated the woman was very well dressed, in her middle 30's, black hair, stocky build, and spoke with a foreign accent.

He stated she asked them if they knew OSWALD, if he had ever been in the restaurant, or if they had ever seen him on Jefferson Street, or in the area where he last resided which was on Beckley Street.

LANCE stated the woman had a notebook and wrote in the book as she asked questions of them. He said she asked them if there were any other eating places in the area where OSWALD might possibly have gone to eat. He stated he told her to try the bowling alley which is in the 100 block of Jefferson Street.

LANCE stated when she left the restaurant he followed her out and noticed she was walking and that she walked in the direction of the bowling alley on Jefferson Street.

He stated that he, LANCE, was acquainted with RUBY having met him through his wife. He said RUBY was continually trying to embarrass the girls who worked for him and that was one of the reasons why his wife, REBA, quit working for him. He said that one night while she was in the middle of the act before the large audience at the Carousel Club RUBY hollered out "REBA, do you shave." LANCE stated that he wanted to whip RUBY right then but he contained himself. He said his wife quit shortly thereafter.

LANCE stated he thought RUBY was an "odd character" because he never saw him in the company of girls and always had a bunch of dogs banging around him. He said on one occasion he saw RUBY walking four "weiner dogs" on a leash and saw him kiss each dog on the nose.

LANCE advised he never saw anyone who looked like the newspaper and television picture of OSWALD in the Col-Bec Restaurant or in JACK RUBY's clubs.

She stated she quit him sometime in January, 1963, after working for him for over a year because he embarrassed her before several club patrons. She said he asked her, "REBA, do you shave."

Mrs. LANCE advised RUBY tries to act big and likes to show off before a group of men. She stated RUBY is "queer for dogs" and on many occasions saw him act absolutely silly over some of his dogs.

Date November 29, 1963

RUSSELL ROSS FARRELL, Commander, United States Navy Reserve (Retired), 1327 Diamond Street, Pacific Beach, California, advised that he was a medically-retired Commander, U. S. Navy Reserve, who had been a legal officer in various commands in the Dallas and San Diego areas over the past 15 years. After his retirement, he said that he had become active in an anti-communist movement sponsored by the Copley Press in San Diego, a chain of newspapers in the Southwest, in which connection he held anti-communist meetings and showed the movie "Operation Abolition" before various groups.

He advised on November 27, 1963, that he had become convinced during this latter association that the persons of "far right" persuasion who were associated in this endeavor were so strongly anti-KENNEDY and anti-administration in their views, that he now actually believes it possible that they had had a hand in the assassination of KENNEDY and the murder of OSWALD. He stated he had heard conversations and seen correspondence from such persons as Major General WALKER, Retired Chief of Staff; Admiral RADFORD; H. L. HUNT, prominent Dallas millionaire who publishes "Lifeline", an anti-communist publication; JAMES COPLEY of the Copley Press; and others, that convinced him that these persons were so violently anti-administration as to be capable of anything.

When the assassination occurred, FARRELL watched the television coverage continuously and became emotionally aroused, especially when RUBY killed OSWALD. He states he knew RUBY when he was legal officer in Dallas in 1948 and was involved in one investigation of the beating of several members of a bomber crew in RUBY'S club during a disturbance. Dallas policemen were involved, and FARRELL believes RUBY has had influence with the Dallas Police Department for years, since he hired off-duty police as bouncers in his clubs. He dug out a copy of some signed statements taken from the flyers concerning the incident. Neither RUBY nor any policemen are named in the statements, although the fracas did occur at "Abe's Colony Club". One officer is referred to as Badge Number 302. Other officers are mentioned as having participated in the beating, but are not named.

All of this so aroused FARRELL that he contacted SA GERRY and discussed the matter at great length. He felt at the time that the authorities should definitely be considering the possibility that the whole affair was a "rightist plot" and that RUBY had been assigned to kill OSWALD with the connivance of the Dallas Police in order to shut him up.

Later, at 4:30 a.m. in the morning, FARRELL called SA GERRY and said that he had come to realize that he had been irrational; that he actually had no evidence or concrete reason for the view he had expressed; and that he did not wish to carry it any further.

1 Date 12/2/63

WESTLEY ARTHUR WISE, 10026 Lake Dale Drive, was interviewed at his residence, at which time he was advised that he did not have to make a statement and that any statement he did make could be used in a court of law. He was advised of his right to consult with an attorney. Mr. WISE stated that he would be glad to volunteer any information in his possession to the interviewing Agents of the FBI and stated his willingness to cooperate with the FBI in any way that he could.

WISE stated that he is employed as a sports announcer for Station KRLD Radio and TV, Channel 4, Dallas, Texas, and as such handles news assignments out of the KRLD News Department in addition to sports assignments.

In the afternoon on the day following the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, November 23, 1963, WISE was assigned by the News Director of Station KRLD, EDDIE BARKER, to conduct a motion picture camera survey of the route taken by LEE OSWALD from the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository to the place of his subsequent arrest by authorities on the day of the assassination. In connection with this assignment WISE drove to the Texas School Book Depository in the Station KRLD station wagon news unit. WISE endeavored at the door of the Texas School Book Depository to enter the building for the purpose of going to the sixth floor where it was his understanding the assassin had stood at a window with the weapon which killed the President. WISE was confronted at the back doorway on the north side of the building by a secret service agent whom he could not identify who advised him that no one was being authorized to go to the sixth floor. WISE thereupon returned to the KRLD news unit which he had parked previously across the street from the building and was in the process of radioing to Station KRLD to contact JIM UNDERWOOD, KRLD newsman, to have UNDERWOOD make an effort to obtain permission for WISE to take pictures on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository. WISE estimated the time as approximately 3:00 PM when he observed a man in a navy blue suit approaching the KRLD TV unit from the rear of the Texas School Book Depository along Houston Street on the east side of the building.

When this man came to the door of the station wagon WISE recognized him as JACK RUBY, however, WISE at that moment had the window of the station wagon rolled up so that this person could not hear his radio transmission to Station KRLD. Upon rolling down the window following this radio transmission, RUBY introduced himself stating "Hi Wes, I'm Jack Ruby, do you remember me", engaging WISE in general conversation concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY. They talked about how terrible the assassination was and RUBY volunteered how terrible it was for the President's wife and children. At this point WISE noted that RUBY's eyes filled with tears and he appeared to be emotional regarding this particular point. WISE informed RUBY that he had gone to the Dallas Trade Mart that morning for the purpose of photographing the wrapped packages, gifts for the KENNEDY children, which were Western saddles to be presented to the President for the children.

WISE then informed RUBY that he had heard RUBY's name mentioned on the radio the night before and RUBY replied to the effect that he had furnished the information, however, he would have given it to him, WISE, or any other newsman.

WISE recalled that he had heard on the late news emanating from Station KLIF on the night of the President's assassination that KLIF had learned exclusively from a source which WISE could not definitely identify but believes was the Dallas District Attorney or the Chief of the Dallas Police Department, or possibly some other authority, that night club owner JACK RUBY had taken a newsman whose name WISE was not sure of, to the authorities with information that RUBY had obtained.

WISE commented that it was his distinct impression that at the time of his conversation on November 23, 1963, at approximately 3:00 PM with RUBY that RUBY was endeavoring to be interviewed by WISE and WISE paid no particular attention to his conversation with RUBY on that date and their conversation was very casual. WISE noted that from past experience he has determined that RUBY is the type of individiaul who welcomes newsmen and likes to receive publicity, and would endeavor to be interviewed by newsmen.

WISE noted that he has an acquaintance with RUBY as a local Dallas figure who he has observed at various public functions such as prize fights and sports events. WISE has also been to RUBY's club, the Carousel Club, and on occasion has seen RUBY at the Dallas City Hall and present in the audience at trials in local Dallas courts. WISE stated that he did not consider it unusual to see RUBY at a location of news interest such as was the Texas School Book Depository building on the day following the assassination of President KENNEDY. He stated that RUBY impressed him as the type of person who could be characterized as a "news hound". WISE further pointed out that there were numerous persons gathered in the vicinity of the Texas School Book Depository on the afternoon following the assassination of the President, and he assumed that RUBY was sightseeing that afternoon at the Texas School Book Depository building vicinity.

Following his conversation with RUBY, WISE observed RUBY to return in the same direction from which he had previously come, as he walked down Houston Street on the east side of the Texas School Book Depository toward some railroad tracks that WISE knows to be located in the rear of the building. WISE stated that he could not understand why RUBY would walk toward the back of the building unless he had parked his car in a parking space located in that area.

WISE stated that he had not seen RUBY on any other occasion prior to the time that LEE OSWALD was shot. He noted that on the morning of November 24, 1963, he was assigned to go to the Dallas County Jail with the KRLD news unit for the purpose of covering the transfer of LEE OSWALD from the Dallas City Jail to the County Jail. On the way to the jail WISE dropped GEORGE PHENIX, KRLD cameraman, off at the Dallas City Jail. He and PHENIX went in the Main Street entrance on the north side of the City Jail and went into the basement of the building. In the basement of the Police Department WISE noted there were ten or twelve persons gathered. He noted that they were newsmen and other people. He estimated the time as being approximately an hour and a half prior to the time that OSWALD was shot. He noted that BOB HUFFAKER, newsman of KRLD, was present and he, HUFFAKER and PHENIX were the only newsmen that WISE could identify as being in the Police Department basement at the time that WISE was there.

WISE noted that in bringing GEORGE PHENIX to the City Jail he had driven the news unit right into the basement of the Police Department and he was not checked or challenged in this regard by members of the Dallas Police Department. It did not appear to him that there were any security measures being taken at that time. He further advised that he could not recall observing any unauthorized persons present at the basement of the Police Department at the time that he was there. WISE proceeded to the Dallas Couty Jail where he was assigned with other newsmen to cover the OSWALD transfer. He noted that at the County Building the Dallas Police Department had taken measures to provide security around the entrance of the County Building by roping off the area across the street from the building. He noted further that there were police officers present as well as TV cameramen and other newsmen. The fact that OSWALD was to be moved was announced to the newsmen by BILL DECKER, Sheriff, Dallas County, who came to the door of the Dallas County Jail. A few minutes later DECKER again came to the door at which time he announced that OSWALD had been shot. In the meantime, the newsmen had obtained the fact of OSWALD's being shot at the Dallas Police Department by viewing portable television monitors set up in the television news units.

WISE advised that the only associates of RUBY that he could suggest was RUBY's roommate whose name was unknown to WISE. WISE pointed out that he had recently talked to SAM CAMPISI, operator of the Egyptian Restaurant, Dallas, who advised WISE that JACK RUBY had following his arrest for the murder of LEE OSWALD asked to see JOE CAMPISI, SAM CAMPISI's brother and co-owner of the Egyptian Restaurant. On November 30, 1963, SAM CAMPISI told WISE that RUBY had told JOE CAMPISI in connection with his shooting of OSWALD "someone had to do it, so it might as well have been me".

WISE stated that he had heard from an unrecalled source that JACK RUBY at one time was associated with JOE BOND, former operator of the Sky View Club in the Oak Cliff Section of Dallas which is no longer in operation. WISE stated that BOND approximately three years ago was charged with and arrested for a sex offense in Dallas and might now be in custody at the penitentiary in Huntsville, Texas.

WISE stated that he had never heard nor seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD before, was not acquainted with OSWALD and had no information as to his activities prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

WISE stated further that from his past knowledge of JACK RUBY he has determined that RUBY is rather an emotional type of man as evidenced by WISE's observations of RUBY following prize fights when RUBY disagreed violently with the decision of the judges as to the winner of the contest and would behave in a very angry and overly emotional manner. He stated that it was RUBY's general nature to want to be in on activities that were going on in Dallas and WISE has observed him in the past at many sports events. WISE pointed out that on the occasion of WISE's transfer from TV Channel 8 to TV Channel 4 he was given a going away party which was held at the Carousel Club. On this occasion WISE was given a bottle of champagne for having won first prize in a twist contest at the club. A man took the bottle of champagne and RUBY observed him take it and became very angry with the man and actually was violent in his reaction to the man having taken the champagne. WISE thought at the time that RUBY was going to strike this man and WISE interceded in an effort to calm RUBY down.

At 1:00 P.M., December 3, 1963, MARY LAWRENCE, head waitress, B&B Restaurant, Oak Lawn Avenue in Dallas, telephonically advised SA J. DOYLE WILLIAMS she had received an anonymous call from a male caller about 6:00 A.M. on December 3, 1963, who stated: "If you don't want to die, you better get out of town."

LAWRENCE stated she has known JACK RUBY for the past eight years and that she saw him at approximately midnight on November 22, 1963 after the President had been shot or during the early morning hours of November 23, 1963. RUBY was at the B&B Restaurant at that time and was with an individual, possibly identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

LAWRENCE was upset because of the call she had received and stated she felt the call may have resulted, possibly, because of her acquaintance with JACK RUBY. She stated she knew of no reason why a person should want to kill her, because her acquaintance with RUBY had been on a business basis, based upon her employment as a waitress at various restaurants in Dallas.

LAWRENCE stated her husband is CHARLIE LAWRENCE who is employed by Yellow Transit Company in Dallas and that she lives with her husband at 4325 Chestnut, Mesquite, Texas. She stated her working hours at B&B Restaurant are from 10:45 P.M. to 8:00 A.M.

The following investigation was conducted by SA KENNETH B. JACKSON:

On December 5, 1963, Constable T. A. VINES, who is located in the Dallas County Building at 410 South Beckley, Dallas, Texas, advised that he had received information from Mr. and Mrs. FRANKLIN SMITH, 111 West Jefferson, Dallas, Texas, who operate a sporting goods store at that address, that a customer at their store had inferred that person, or persons, employed at the Dobbs House, Colorado and Beckley Streets, Dallas, might have information connecting LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY.

On December 5, 1963, Mr. and Mrs. FRANKLIN SMITH were contacted at their place of business, Smitty's Sporting Goods, 111 West Jefferson, Dallas, and initially they were unable to furnish the identity of the woman who had given them information to the effect that there may have been a connection between OSWALD and RUBY. They finally identified this customer of their store as Mrs. JOHNNIE GARRITY, 9870 Van Dyke. Dallas, Texas

Mrs. GARRITY was interviewed on December 5, 1963, and stated that she was in the Dobbs House at Colorado and Beckley close to noon one day during the week following the assassination of President KENNEDY and overheard a waitress at the Dobbs House, a small 24 hour a day restaurant, talking to a customer. She stated this waitress indicated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had eaten breakfast at this restaurant nearly every morning prior to the assassination of the President, and that JACK RUBY came into the restaurant during night hours but that it would always be late at night. Mrs. GARRITY stated that she did not gain the impression that OSWALD and RUBY were ever in the restaurant at the same time or that any indication was made that OSWALD and RUBY were associated based upon what she overheard at that time.

On December 5, 1963, Mr. SAM ROGERS, Manager, Dobbs House, 1221 North Beckley, advised that he personally never knew OSWALD or RUBY but that he had since President KENNEDY's assassination recognized OSWALD's picture as being that of an individual who had been a coffee customer in this Dobbs House Restaurant.

He said he had no information of RUBY ever having been a customer in the restaurant.

Mr. DOUGLAS LEAKE, 1159 North Madison, Apartment 9, advised he is employed with the Dobbs House at 1221 North Beckley presently on a shift from 6:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m. He noted that during the period of time leading up to President KENNEDY's assassination on November 22, 1963, that he had been working on a 10:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m. shift. He said that he recalled JACK RUBY as a customer in this restaurant but that RUBY to the best of his recollection had not been seen by him in the restaurant for a year or more prior to November 22, 1963. He stated that when RUBY would come in, he would either be alone or in company with a girl from the club where RUBY worked. He said he presumed that any of the girls that RUBY had in his company would have been possibly employees of the Carousel Club in downtown Dallas. He stated the time of RUBY's coming to the restaurant was about 1:30 to 3:00 a.m., and it was his belief this was after RUBY had closed the club for the night. He noted that a uniformed police officer of the Dallas Police Department told him on one occasion that JACK RUBY was connected with the Carousel. He recalled that whenever any officers or detectives of the Dallas Police Department were in the restaurant and RUBY happened to be there as well, RUBY would pay their checks. He said RUBY would have him, LEAKE, tell the officers that their checks were being taken care of by RUBY. He said that as best he could recall, RUBY was possibly on a special diet when last he knew RUBY to be coming into the Dobbs House and that he believed RUBY may have been attempting to control his weight.

LEAKE stated he never knew of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by name until OSWALD received publicity as the result of the assassination of President KENNEDY. He said he then recognized OSWALD as having been a customer in the Dobbs House about two times in days prior to that incident. He stated to the best of his recollection OSWALD came to the restaurant alone. He advised that he knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY and that he never had seen the two of them together.

RE: JOSEPH NOBLE ADAMS

The following investigation was conducted by SAs TERENCE D. DINAN and E. LOUIS HALSIG:

AT HOUSTON, TEXAS:

On November 27, 1963, MRS. MELBALINE MITCHELL, Rt. 6, Box 892 D, advised she is the sister of MARIE ANN ADAMS, who divorced JOSEPH NOBLE ADAMS approximately three years ago.

Mrs. MITCHELL stated that on November 23, 1963, Mrs. ADAMS travelled to Austin, Texas, and returned the following evening. Mrs. ADAMS did not discuss with Mrs. MITCHELL the purpose of the trip or the events which took place while she was in Austin. Mrs. MITCHELL stated, however, that she was of the opinion that Mrs. ADAMS went there to visit her ex-husband.

Mrs. MITCHELL stated that in 1957, at the suggestion of a close friend of hers, she accepted some literature on the White Citizens Council and became a member in that organization. She advised that she terminated that membership the same year, however, and participated in none of the council's political activities. She further stated that to the best of her knowledge MARIE and JOSEPH NOBLE ADAMS were never members of the White Citizens Council and have never expressed an interest in that group's activities.

On November 27, 1963, MARIE ANN ADAMS advised that she, too, resides at the home of her sister, Mrs. MELBALINE MITCHELL, Rt. 6, Box 892 D, and that on November 23, 1963, she travelled to Austin, Texas. She stated that the purpose of this trip was to take her three year old daughter to visit JOSEPH NOBLE ADAMS. Mrs. ADAMS stated that, during the period of her visit, her ex-husband was in a constant drunken condition. She advised that once, when her daughter mentioned the assassination of President KENNEDY, Mr. ADAMS stated that he had contributed $75 to have KENNEDY shot. She stated she paid no particular attention to this statement and attributed it to the fact her ex-husband was intoxicated at the time it was made. She advised that neither she nor her ex-husband have ever been members of the White Citizens Council. She stated that, to the best of her knowledge, he never expressed an interest in political affairs or in the activities of radical groups.

BURK that he shares an apartment at the above address with JOSEPH NOBLE ADAMS and that he had been working with ADAMS as a painter and prior to that time he had worked as a professional hair dresser. Neither did he have any knowledge concerning ADAMS having made any remarks concerning ROBERT KENNEDY, brother of the President, nor did he have any knowledge concerning any telephone calls made by ADAMS to the State of Florida.

He advised that he knows ADAMS to be a chronic alcoholic and to be a very braggadocio type of person when he becomes intoxicated and often makes statements which are untrue when he is in an intoxicated condition.

JOSEPH NOBLE ADAMS, 1204 South Congress, Apartment 2, Austin, Texas, advised SA H. T. BURK that he was born February 4, 1929, at Houston, Texas.

ADAMS was interviewed at the Austin, Texas, City Jail at which time he admitted that he was a chronic alcoholic and had been addicted since 1958 and at that time had joined the Alcoholic Anonymous in Houston, Texas. He further advised that he had voluntarily committed himself to the Austin State Hospital, Austin, Texas, as an alcoholic in February of 1963, and remained there until approximately April 20, 1963, and then again volunterily committed himself to the Austin State Hospital sometime in August of 1963, where he remained for an additional 46 days. He advised that while he was in the Austin State Hospital that he was allowed and encouraged to attend Alcoholic Anonymous meetings in Austin, Texas, which he had continuously since coming to Austin in February of 1963.

ADAMS readily admitted that he had made a statement in the presence of BILL BAKER of 2102 West 35th Street Austin, Texas, in his, ADAMS', apartment on the night of November 24, 1963, while he and BAKER were in a highly intoxicated condition that he, ADAMS, had contributed $75 to have President KENNEDY shot. ADAMS admitted that he had possibly made some mention about the White Citizens Council in the presence of BAKER but cannot specifically recall doing so at this time.

ADAMS also admitted that there was a possibility that he may have made some reference to ROBERT KENNEDY, brother of President KENNEDY but he likewise cannot recall having made any reference to ROBERT KENNEDY at the time he was intoxicated and talking with BAKER. Neither can he recall having made any reference to plans to shoot ROBERT KENNEDY but states that due to his extremely intoxicated condition on the night of November 24, 1963, that he cannot state specifically whether or not he made such a reference. He does recall specifically, however, the bragging remark that he made concerning the contribution of $75 with respect to having President KENNEDY shot.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

ADAMS definitely denied that he had ever made any telephone call to the State of Florida on the night in question and stated that he does not have a telephone in his apartment at the above address.

ADAMS advised that he is very sorry at this time that he engaged in such idle talk but attributed it all to the fact that he was intoxicated at the time and advised that he at no time has ever contributed any money whatsoever to anyone to have President KENNEDY shot nor has he contributed to any other organizations or groups that he thinks could have any bearing upon the assassination of President KENNEDY. He advised that he knows nothing whatsoever concerning the White Citizens Council although he recalls that he saw some sort of literature published by the White Citizens Council at the residence of his wife's sister, Mrs. ~~MABALINE~~ MITCHELL, in Houston, Texas, somewhere between three to five years ago. He denies that he ever had any membership in the White Citizens Council and does not believe that Mrs. MITCHELL was actually a member of this group.

ADAMS further pointed out that on Saturday, November 23, 1963, that he telephonically contacted his ex-wife from whom he is now divorced in Houston, Texas, and invited her to visit him in Austin, Texas, on November 24, 1963, which she did. He advised that his wife was present in the apartment on the night in question when he and BAKER were drinking to excess and he advised that it is possible that his wife may have overheard him make the remarks about the $75 contribution to have President KENNEDY shot although he cannot be sure that she heard these remarks since she was believed to be in the bedroom at the time he engaged BAKER in the conversation referred to above. He advised that his ex-wife is know known as Mrs. MARIE ANN ADAMS of Route 6, Box 892D, Houston, Texas. He advised that this is likewise the address of his wife's sister, ~~MABALINE~~ MITCHELL.

ADAMS further advised that he shares an apartment at the above address with KENNETH LEWIS SMITH, SR. but that SMITH, at his request, had not been at the apartment on the night of November 24, 1963, when his, ADAMS', wife visited him and that SMITH had stayed in a downtown hotel during that night.

Mr. LA MAR ASHTON, owner and operator, Ashton 76 Service Station, Highway 30, Evanston, Wyoming, advised that on November 23, 1963, he received a telegram through Western Union from DAVID BILLS, Salt Lake City, Utah, addressed to ASHTON, and which read as follows: "Rejoice, our arch enemy is dead." It was signed "DAVID BILLS." A stapled notation appearing at the bottom of the telegram read as follows: "This message sent under protest of Western Union operator."

ASHTON advised he is 50 years of age, has resided in Evanston all of his life, is a veteran, and presently chairman of the Evanston School Board. His wife's name is ILA and they have four children, DENNIS, age 20, presently at Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah; KENT, age 18; GENE, age 16; and a daughter, CONNIE, age 15, residing at Evanston.

ASHTON said he became acquainted with BILLS during the fall of 1960, at which time BILLS and ASHTON's son, DENNIS, attended the University of Utah at Salt Lake City, and were roommates at the University of Utah dormitory. BILLS visited Evanston several times during the academic year 1960-61, to visit a girl friend, CLAUDIA CORNIA. CLAUDIA is presently attending the University of Utah in Salt Lake City. While in Evanston, BILLS spent time at the ASHTON home. He was never in Evanston more than one week end at a time. ASHTON saw BILLS last over a year and a half ago and has had no contact with BILLS since that time except for the telegram received on November 23, 1963.

While visiting the ASHTON home, Mr. ASHTON said BILLS was present while he, LA MAR ASHTON, and his son, KENT, discussed politics. Mr. ASHTON said he is a staunch Republican and did not approve of the Democratic policy or administration; however, his son, KENT, is a strong supporter of the Democratic administration and, as a result, they had several involved political discussions in the presence of BILLS. LA MAR ASHTON said he is of the opinion that BILLS assumed he held great animosity toward the Democratic Party and this prompted BILLS to send the telegram.

Mr. ASHTON stated he received the telegram with shock and dismay. He could not believe that BILLS would send such a communication or take the attitude he did. He described BILLS as a foolish and immature young man and at first considered contacting the FBI but discarded the telegram as being that of a "scatterbrain." ASHTON was shocked and very upset over the late President's assassination. He did not consider this telegram worth reading.

Mr. ASHTON said shortly after receiving the telegram he was visited by MARION PALMER, presently a junior at the University of Utah and a girl friend of his son, DENNIS. ASHTON discussed the telegram with PALMER and she stated, "Sounds like BILLS." ASHTON assumed from PALMER's statement that BILLS has a reputation at the University of Utah of being "scatterbrained" with very little judgment or practical sense.

He described BILLS as a junior student at the University of Utah, a history major, about 20 years old, immature, and residing at the dormitory on the campus. BILLS' father is a medical doctor practicing somewhere in Idaho but he did not know the father's name or address. He said BILLS' father has had trouble in keeping BILLS in school as he is lazy and will not study.

The Buffalo Office, on November 29, 1963, advised as follows:

On September 21, 1963, PETER C. CHORAK, who at that time was a member of the United States Air Force, 4624 Support Squadron, Niagara Falls, New York. Municipal Air Force Base, was arrested by the Niagara Falls, New York, Police Department on the charge of "Assault, 1st Degree, with a Deadly Weapon". At the time of his arrest, CHORAK had in his possession a United States Carbine .30 caliber M2 rifle, which he stated he purchased from his father-in-law in Bennettsville, South Carolina. This rifle was taken from CHORAK at that time and is still in the possession of the Niagara Falls, New York, Police Department. CHORAK threatened an individual in Niagara Falls with this .30 caliber rifle.

The local charges against CHORAK were disposed of, and on October 18, 1963, CHORAK received an honorable discharge from the United States Air Force at Niagara Falls, New York, and with the Air Force, he left a forwarding address of 2658 Main Street, Niagara Falls, New York.

On November 27, 1963, Airman Second Class JOHN RICHTER, Serial AF 12634500, who is also a member of the 4624 Support Squadron, Niagara Falls Municipal Airport, remarked to JOHN QUINLAN, OSI, Niagara Falls Municipal Airport, that he "wondered whether CHORAK might possibly have any connection with the assassination of President KENNEDY".

When questioned further regarding this remark, RICHTER advised he had no particular reason for making this remark other than the fact that CHORAK was involved in an arrest dealing with the possession of a .30 caliber rifle, and at this time, CHORAK was discharged, he remarked to RICHTER that he, CHORAK, would be residing in a town approximately eight miles from Dallas, Texas. RICHTER went on to state that he had no other reasons for making the above remarks other than the two reasons set forth above.

It has been ascertained that PETER CHORAK, who was born April 28, 1941, at Huntington Park, California, and is white, left Niagara Falls approximately one month ago and left a forwarding address of 2222 Marvel Drive, Irving, Texas.

AT IRVING, TEXAS

Mr. PETER C. CHORAK, 2222 Marvel Drive, on December 2, 1963, advised SA'S HENRY J. OLIVER and DAVID H. BARRY that he had moved to Dallas, Texas, on November 1, 1963. CHORAK advised that on November 22, 1963, when President KENNEDY was shot, he was at home, and this can be verified by his wife. He stated that at that time he had not been able to obtain a job and, in fact, had only reported for work on December 2, 1963. He is presently employed by the City of Dallas in the Engineering Department. CHORAK stated that while he was a member of the United States Air Force at Niagara Falls, New York, he got into a fight with a group of men, and he did pull a .30 caliber rifle on them

He was arrested, and the rifle was taken away from him. CHORAK advised he could not furnish any information in regard to the assassination of President KENNEDY or the subsequent shooting of OSWALD by RUBY.

Mrs. PETER C. CHORAK, 2222 Marvel Drive, Irving, on December 22, 1963, advised SA'S OLIVER and BARRY that her husband, PETER C. CHORAK, was at home at the time President KENNEDY was assassinated.

She advised she had never heard of LEE OSWALD or JACK RUBY until the assassination of President KENNEDY and the later shooting of OSWALD.

FRED F. MAREK, employed at 502 North Gilpin and residing 3827 Mt. Washington, called the Dallas Office and offered the following information:

One (FNU) CRAWLEY, who operates a business at 1109 East 11th Street, made a statement a few weeks ago to the effect "I would give the rest of my life if I could kill President KENNEDY." This statement apparently was made because of CRAWLEY's dislike of KENNEDY's politics.

MAREK said this statement was also heard by one WILLIAM GORMAN, who lives at 3826 Mt. Everest.

MAREK talked in such fashion as to leave the impression he was intoxicated when he made the above call. He said CRAWLEY was in his sixties, has no firearms, and in MAREK's candid opinion he is not the type of individual who would do such a thing as shoot President KENNEDY. However, he said he was passing the above information on as he felt it was his duty to do so.

WILLIAM FRANKLIN GORMAN, 3826 Mt. Everest, advised he is presently employed as a truck driver by the Ruberoid Company, 2600 Singleton, Dallas, Texas.

GORMAN stated he has known JOE DOYLE CRAWLEY since 1951, having first met the latter while he operated a drive-in store on Fort Worth Avenue in the immediate neighborhood of the GORMAN residence. He stated approximately three or four years ago, CRAWLEY discontinued this business and opened a drive-in on Second Avenue in Dallas, subsequently closing same and thereafter opening CRAWLEY's Grocery, 1109 East 11th Street, Dallas, Texas, which business he presently operates.

GORMAN said approximately two months ago and as he recalled on a Sunday morning, he received a telephone call from CRAWLEY stating he had some "Sunday buttermilk" and invited GORMAN to come by his place of business and have some. With respect to the latter, GORMAN stated this expression was one coined by CRAWLEY to describe beer, noting the Oak Cliff section of Dallas, where CRAWLEY's business is located, is dry and that CRAWLEY has been bootlegging beer in recent years. GORMAN stated he together with one FRED F. MAREK acting on the invitation went to CRAWLEY's store and drank several beers with CRAWLEY. During this time, various matters were discussed, and eventually the conversation evolved around current political events. GORMAN noted he is a staunch Democrat and a supporter of the KENNEDY administration, whereas CRAWLEY is an avowed Republican and very outspoken in his dissatisfaction with and opposition to the KENNEDY administration. The exact matters discussed were not recalled by GORMAN; however, he stated in the heat of the argument concerning the pros and cons of the KENNEDY administration, he, GORMAN, made the comment that he thought KENNEDY was the greatest President the country has had since ABRAHAM LINCOLN. In response to this remark, CRAWLEY asserted in the presence of both GORMAN and MAREK that President JOHN F. KENNEDY was ruining the country and he "would give the rest of his life to kill the "s.o.b."

GORMAN said he attached no particular significance to this remark, stating he felt same was made only in the heat of argument by CRAWLEY and was confident in his own mind CRAWLEY would be incapable of carrying out any such threat, least of all to commit an act of assassination of the President. GORMAN pointed out CRAWLEY is in his 60s, a veteran of World War I, where he was wounded in action, and as a result of such injuries is an extremely highstrung and nervous individual. He acknowledged, however, that CRAWLEY consistently has been pointedly outspoken in his severe dislike for President KENNEDY and especially the policies of the KENNEDY administration as they relate to civil rights matters. GORMAN said CRAWLEY is the owner of an old World War I model 38 revolver, but aside from this is not aware of any other weapons that might be owned by CRAWLEY.

GORMAN stated no one by the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD is known to him, and to his knowledge such person is not acquainted with CRAWLEY.

Mr. CRAWLEY advised that he had never made any statements to the effect that he would like to see JOHN F. KENNEDY dead or that he would give his life to see him dead. Reverend JOSEPH NAGY, Pastor, St. Joseph's Catholic Church, 407 Texas Street, Dallas, Texas, a personal friend of Special Agent JOSEPH M. MYERS, confidentially advised on November 27, 1963, from his hospital bed, Room 368, St. Paul's Hospital, Dallas, that he had some information concerning a JOSEF CSALA that he wanted to furnish to the FBI for whatever value it might be in connection with the recent events involving the shooting of the President of the United States.

Father NAGY stated that on October 20, 1963, JOSEF CSALA came to the St. Joseph's Rectory seeking aid in the form of obtaining a job and food and clothing. He had been referred to Father NAGY by some woman who heads a Citizens Committee to Aid Foreigners. Father NAGY did not know the name of this woman, but she is believed to be in close association with a Doctor WILLIAM DUKAVITS, Mercantile National Bank Building, who resides at 3463 McFarlin, telephone number LA. 1-0618. A NITRO 1940

Father NAGY stated that CSALA mentioned knowing a Father SLEZAK, a Franciscan priest at St. Stephen's Church on 82nd Street, New York City. Father NAGY stated that apparently the woman at the Citizens Committee had known that Father NAGY was a Hungarian refugee priest who had helped other Hungarians in the past and sent CSALA to him for aid.

Father NAGY stated that CSALA apparently was putting on an act to him as he appeared to not understand English when Father NAGY spoke to him, however, CSALA talked to some of the nuns at the nearby school and they told Father NAGY that CSALA spoke and understood English perfectly.

Father NAGY stated that he obtained lodging for CSALA with a Mrs. SEILER, 2613 Swiss Avenue, Dallas, and CSALA was going to eat some of his meals with Father NAGY, which he did. Father NAGY stated that CSALA told him that his luggage was located somewhere on Main Street in Dallas, but Father NAGY did not get the address. CSALA told Father NAGY that he had been taken by someone on Sunday night,

October 20, 1963, to somewhere in Oak Cliff section of Dallas to get a job in a night club but SCALA did not name the club. The job was for only two weeks, and he did not take it. Father NAGY stated that Mrs. HELEN CUNNINGHAM of the Texas Employment Commission assisted CSALA in obtaining a job sending him to several places before he actually took the job with the Sheridan Hotel; said job was actually obtained by Father NAGY who is a friend of Mr. CARL HATZFIELD, the Personnel Manager. CSALA worked in this hotel in the kitchen from Tuesday to Friday of the week October 20, 1963, from 4:00 P. M., to 12 Midnight.

Father NAGY stated that CSALA was in the United States on a short-term passport which expires January 22, 1964, and that he claimed he came to the United States in February, 1963, after escaping Hungary into Austria. Father NAGY stated that CSALA claimed that he did not want to go back to Austria when his passport expired, however, Father NAGY suggested that he go back. Father NAGY had another priest, Father ODO EGRES, take CSALA to the Austrian Consulate in Dallas and attempt to get CSALA back to Vienna. Father NAGY understood that the Consulate told him that he could not get an extension and that he would have to go back.

During the course of talking to CSALA, Father NAGY stated that CSALA told him that he had been offered a job in a warehouse which was filled with books that were to be moved around in this building. He stated that this warehouse was at the edge of downtown Dallas and that he did not actually take the job. Father NAGY stated that because of this warehouse business Father NAGY thought that it might have some connection with the recent shooting of President KENNEDY.

Father NAGY stated that CSALA wrote one letter to a person whom he claimed was his mother but addressed it to Doctor VERA LIGETY in Vienna. Father NAGY stated that CSALA stated that his mother apparently never did believe him about what he did or where he went and claimed that she thought he was a liar.

Father NAGY stated that CSALA disappeared on Saturday, October 26, 1963, from the Rectory, and he has not seen him since.

Subsequently, Father NAGY stated that through confidential information he learned that CSALA received an airmail letter postmarked at Vienna, Austria, November 6, 1963, and that this letter was addressed to CSALA at 2613 Swiss Avenue in Dallas, and had the return address of Doctor VERA LIGETY, Wien 19, Heleigedstetustrase 82 14, Austria. Through confidential information Father NAGY stated that the person writing to CSALA did not appear to be his mother, at least not from the tenor of the letter. Several questions were asked him about what he was doing in Texas, and if he sent some money send it to the same place, place not mentioned, and that the writer appeared to be telling him about someone that both knew, possibly a friend, and CSALA was asked the question if he had seen or not seen him. This person was referred to in the letter as AA, but Father NAGY explained that AA did not mean anything in Hungarian but that it appeared to be a sign designating someone.

Father NAGY further stated that his secretary, Mrs. EUGENIA WALKER, also saw CSALA and that she could not understand him when he spoke English. Mrs. WALKER was also interviewed, but she could not furnish any additional information concerning the above matter.

The following is a description of JOSEF CSALA as furnished by Father NAGY and Mrs. WALKER:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Age	24 to 25
Height	6'
Weight	180
Build	Heavy
Hair	Long, blond, needed haircut

Complexion	Fair

On September 13, 1963, HAROLD PADDON, 13045 Conley Street, Poway, California, advised that HOWARD DANNER claimed he possessed the weapon that would kill President Kennedy. He said that DANNER made this statement in a moment of rage. He added that DANNER was quite upset because a Negro had recently moved into his neighborhood, and he stated that President Kennedy had robbed him of $5,000.00.

On November 24, 1963, Mr. PADDON advised that approximately two or three weeks ago, he heard DANNER mention the name "OSWALD" in a discussion at General Dynamics/ Astronautics in which DANNER was talking unfavorably about President Kennedy.

On November 25, 1963, HAROLD PADDON, 13045 Conley Street, Poway, California, furnished the following information:

Sometime between the dates of October 5, 1963, and November 4, 1963, JOSEPH HOWARD DANNER was engaged in a political discussion with several fellow workers at General Dynamics/Astronautics. In this discussion, which was overheard by PADDON, DANNER was critical of President Kennedy's fiscal policies. PADDON overheard DANNER mention the name "OSWALD" and believes that he said "OSWALD knows".

PADDON said that he attempted to break up the discussion because it was interfering with the work of the men involved and injected himself into the discussion by asking DANNER if the OSWALD he mentioned was OSWALD MOSLEY described by PADDON as a name familiar to him when he resided in England. DANNER replied that he was not referring to OSWALD MOSLEY but that OSWALD was the surname of the individual he referred to.

PADDON was unable to furnish any additional information concerning this discussion and could not identify by name the other persons involved.

Mr. PADDON stated that DANNER was at work Friday, November 22, 1963, at the time of the assassination of President Kennedy.

Upon interview on November 25, 1963, DANNER advised that his complete name is JOSEPH HOWARD DANNER. He admitted that in September, 1963, he made a remark to the effect that he possessed a weapon that would kill President Kennedy. This remark, which was made at General Dynamics/Astronautics, referred to an M-1 rifle he obtained from his father's house upon the death of his father in 1956. He said that he still has this rifle in his possession and believes that he has ammunition for it. Although admitting the statement, DANNER denied any intention of carrying out the threat, adding that the statement was made in anger because of infiltration of his neighborhood by a Negro family. He claimed that this infiltration resulted in a $5,000.00 decrease in the value of his property, and he blamed this decrease on President Kennedy. He said he did not like President Kennedy, did not agree with his policies, and was very outspoken in his criticism of him. He stated that fellow employees, being aware of his political antagonism towards President Kennedy and his policies, often goaded him into political arguments.

DANNER said he does not condone violence in any form but believes only in legal political action to bring about change.

He said that he was interviewed in September, 1963, by a representative of the United States Secret Service concerning his statement that he possessed the weapon that would kill President Kennedy.

DANNER denied ever having been in Dallas, Texas, and any knowledge of, or connection with, LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK LEON RUBY. He emphatically denied engaging in any discussion therein [illegible] or any other participant mentioned the name "OSWALD". He denied having any information concerning the assassination of President Kennedy, other than what he has obtained through news media. He also denied any connection with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee or any organization other than the John Birch Society, which he joined in May, 1963.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION REGARDING CHARLES LEON DREADFULWATER

On November 25, 1963, FRANK WILLIAMS, Don and Frank's Garage, 36 North Lewis Place, Tulsa, Oklahoma, telephone number LUther 7-7847, telephonically advised Special Agent A. RAYMOND SWITZER that in September, 1963, they towed a 1952 Dodge to their garage. WILLIAMS said they just received the title to this car and it is registered to CHARLEY DREADFULWATER, 1517 Heyman, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. WILLIAMS said this title was notarized in the state of Oregon and that apparently DREADFULWATER is not now in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

WILLIAMS said on examining this car that they discovered along with some Army uniforms a card bearing the following notations:

"(St) John" F. Kennedy
(47) + (6) + 78 = 131
Crucifixion = 131
St. John 6F: '61-'64.'

WILLIAMS said he was furnishing the above information since he thought it might have something to do with the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

The following investigation was conducted at Tulsa, Oklahoma, by Special Agent JOE M. PEARSON:

On November 27, 1963, FRANK WILLIAMS, Don and Frank's Garage, 36 North Lewis, Tulsa, Oklahoma, exhibited to Special Agent JOE M. PEARSON Oklahoma Original Title No. E637396-E, showing that 1952 Dodge four-door Coronet Sedan, VIN 32000066, was issued to CHARLEY DREADFULWATER, 1517 Heyman, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, on March 27, 1963. This title indicated that the automobile bore 1963 Oklahoma License XX 8580. The assignment on the reverse of the title

Two blank checks drawn on the Oklahoma National Bank, Oklahoma City.

A spelling tablet bearing the trade name "Stuart Hall" No. 4045. (On the first page the words "Tulsa, Oklahoma, 9126163MI87700" are written.)

A Holy Bible indicating that it was presented to JOYCE FOUST by JEAN BARD for eighth grade graduation on May 23, 1952.

A small New Testament with the back torn off.

A cardboard box containing clothing and pamphlets, the latter of which are shown as having been obtained from the Peace Officers Training Service, Oakland, California, and an examination paper of A/Sgt. C. L. DREADFULWATER, showing he obtained a grade of 96 per cent.

An examination of the automobile disclosed that it was a dark green four door 1952 Dodge bearing 1963 Oklahoma License XX 8580. The mileage on the car was 87,773. It was noted that a book entitled "The Detection of Murder" by WILLIAM F. KESSLER and PAUL B. WESTON, publishers, Greenburg, New York, was laying on the front seat. Found on the back seat was a white metal ammunition box containing a bandage wrap and a flexible cover from a notebook. Also located in the back seat was an ammunition belt and a quart of Phillips 66 Motor Oil.

Under the front seat was located a pair of shoes.

In the trunk there was located men's clothing and a jack.

WILLIAMS made available a small piece of cardboard which bears the printing, as follows:

"(St) John" F. Kennedy
(47) + (6) + 78 = 131
Crucifixion = 131
St. John 6F: '61-'64.

WILLIAMS advised this card had been recovered from the glove compartment of this automobile.

On November 29, 1963, LOUIS GATES, Adjuster, Midland Service Agency, 924 South Main, Tulsa, Oklahoma, advised that he had handled the sale of a 1952 Dodge automobile to the Don and Frank's Garage, Tulsa. He said he did not know the present location of the former owner, CHARLEY DREADFULWATER; however, this individual has a brother named J. B. DREADFULWATER, who lives in Oklahoma City. He advised that an adjuster in Oklahoma City, BILL PRUEGERT, who is connected with United Adjusters, 1029 North Walker, is the individual who handled the transaction at Oklahoma City.

GATES related that DREADFULWATER had insurance with Preferred Risk, Fayetteville, Arkansas, located at P. O. Box 410 at Fayetteville, Arkansas. He advised the car had been financed through the Sanco Finance Company in Oklahoma City. He continued that the automobile had been involved in an accident.

GATES said that it is his understanding that DREADFULWATER is in Oregon; however, he does not know DREADFULWATER's present location.

GATES advised that he had seen the card bearing the name (St) John F. Kennedy with other numerals and words in the automobile; however, he did not know the significance of this printing.

The following investigation was conducted at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, on December 4, 1963, by Special Agent A. RAYMOND SWITZER:

Mrs. JAY B. DREADFULWATER, 1605 Johnston Drive, advised she is the divorced wife of JAY B. DREADFULWATER. She said that JAY B. DREADFULWATER presently resides at 2505 South Indiana, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and is employed on the graveyard shift by the Federal Aviation Agency, Will Rogers World Airport, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Mrs. DREADFULWATER said she is acquainted with CHARLEY DREADFULWATER, JAY B. DREADFULWATER's half brother. She said CHARLEY DREADFULWATER was in Oklahoma City for approximately nine months in 1963, departing Oklahoma City in September, 1963, for Oregon. She stated that CHARLEY DREADFULWATER's wife, JOYCE, is from the state of Oregon and has parents who live there. She stated that JOYCE and her children departed Oklahoma City for Oregon a number of weeks prior to CHARLEY DREADFULWATER leaving for Oregon.

Mrs. JAY B. DREADFULWATER stated she knows of nothing that would reflect on CHARLEY DREADFULWATER but suggested that JAY B. DREADFULWATER may be able to furnish more information regarding him. She said she did not know CHARLEY DREADFULWATER's address in Oregon.

JAY BERRY DREADFULWATER, 2505 South Indiana, advised he is the half brother of CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER. JAY BERRY DREADFULWATER said he is employed by the Federal Aviation Agency in the Special Tool Crib, Hangar 8, Will Rogers World Airport, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

JAY DREADFULWATER stated the last letter he received from CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER was postmarked November 13, 1963, at Cottage Grove, Oregon. At this time DREADFULWATER stated that CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER was residing at Box 7, Culp Creek, Oregon, c/o RALPH GROAT. DREADFULWATER advised he believes CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER is still at this address. He stated that CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER previously had the mailing address of Sweet Home, Oregon. JAY BERRY DREADFULWATER stated CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER was employed at the time he received this letter operating a machine but did not know the name of his employer.

JAY BERRY DREADFULWATER advised that CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER served nine years in the U. S. Marine Corps and was honorably discharged in late 1962, at which time he was stationed somewhere in California.

While in the Marine Corps DREADFULWATER advised CHARLEY DREADFULWATER became interested in law enforcement and took a correspondence course, he believes, at the University of California and had purchased a number of books and material relating to law enforcement. He said when CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER got out of the Marine Corps it was his intention to go into law enforcement but he believes now that CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER has dropped these plans.

JAY BERRY DREADFULWATER advised that a year or so before CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER got out of the U. S. Marine Corps he was involved in an automobile accident while on leave somewhere near Tahlequah, Oklahoma. He said that the accident was caused because CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER had been drinking too much and driving too fast. He stated CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER was seriously injured in this accident and it was necessary to remove one lung. He advised he did not know if this had anything to do with CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER getting discharged from the Marine Corps. He said just before CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER departed for the state of Oregon he underwent a physical examination at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and was given a "clean bill of health."

In early 1962 JAY BERRY DREADFULWATER advised that CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER came to Oklahoma City. He stated CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER obtained employment with the Boardman Company, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. In March, 1963, JAY BERRY DREADFULWATER stated that CHARLEY LEON bought a 1952 Dodge from a used car lot located in the vicinity of 34th Street and South Robinson, Oklahoma City. He said this car was financed by the Sanco Finance Company and that he, JAY BERRY DREADFULWATER co-signed the note.

Around the summer of 1963 JAY BERRY DREADFULWATER advised that CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER's wife, JOYCE, departed Oklahoma City with their five children for the state of Oregon where she planned to live with her parents until she was joined by CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER.

In the latter part of September, 1963, JAY BERRY DREADFULWATER advised that CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER departed Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, to join his wife in Oregon.

At Tulsa, Oklahoma, DREADFULWATER stated CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER was involved in an accident with his 1952 Dodge and hitchhiked the rest of the way to Oregon. Upon arriving in Oregon DREADFULWATER stated CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER telephoned him, informed him of the accident and requested that he handle this with the insurance company.

JAY BERRY DREADFULWATER advised that this automobile was insured by H. BRUCE WELCH and Company, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He said the investigation of the accident was handled by United Adjusters, 1029 North Walker, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He said the car was considered a total loss and that they received payment for the car.

JAY BERRY DREADFULWATER advised that to his knowledge CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER has not left the state of Oregon since he arrived there in late September or early October, 1963.

JAY BERRY DREADFULWATER was questioned regarding the card bearing the notations regarding "(St) John" F. Kennedy which was found in the glove compartment of CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER's 1952 Dodge. JAY BERRY DREADFULWATER said he does not believe this card has any possible connection with President JOHN F. KENNEDY's assassination. He said he was a strong supporter of President KENNEDY and believes his brother also shared this feeling. The only explanation that he could offer for this card, JAY BERRY DREADFULWATER stated, was that CHARLEY LEON was at one time endeavoring to learn how to preach and may have used this card in this endeavor. He said that CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER has never been in any kind of trouble other than having been arrested for drunkenness.

JAY BERRY DREADFULWATER furnished the following description of CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER:

Name:	CHARLEY LEON DREADFULWATER
Race:	Indian

JOHNSON, New Braunfels, on November 23, 1963, came to the Sheriff's Office with newspapers containing photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. JOHNSON advised that about a week before that, he believed he had seen OSWALD at the Bock Ford Motor Company at New Braunfels having his car serviced.

WALTER C. JOHNSON, 265 North Walnut, New Braunfels, advised SA GLAZE that he believed he saw OSWALD in New Braunfels on November 14, 1963. At the time, JOHNSON was having his car inspected at the Bock Ford Motor Company and a young man came in to have his car serviced. JOHNSON believed the car was a white 1962 Dodge or Plymouth. After leaving the motor company, JOHNSON again met this man on the street in New Braunfels, and the man asked if there was a good place to eat in town and JOHNSON pointed out two cafes. The man told JOHNSON he was en route to Dallas from someplace near New Orleans, Louisiana. Employees at the two cafes pointed out by JOHNSON were unable to recall anyone resembling OSWALD ever being there.

CHESTER PEHL, Service Manager at Bock Ford Motor Company could recall no one resembling the photograph of OSWALD having a car serviced there and after checking records for November 14, 1963, stated all customers were personally known to him except one D. L. FARRELL, Dallas, Texas, no street address. PEHL explained that there were two men in a 1959 white Ford, one young and one old, one of whom was FARRELL who had a valve cover gasket replaced on the car. He had no license in the car and no further information regarding FARRELL.

DUDLEY [illegible], 10150 San Lorenzo, Dallas, Texas, on December 3, 1963, advised SAs WILLIAM K. BOCK and JAMES R. GRAHAM, Jr., on interview at the Main Post Office, Dallas, that he was employed as a supervisor in the ~~Superintendent~~ Superintendent of Mails Office in Dallas. On November 14, 1963, he went from Dallas to Palestine, Texas and picked up his father-in-law, one JAMES GRAVER COLLIER, Rural Route 5, Palestine, age about 70, and they went deer hunting. He noticed his car, a 1959 white Ford four-door sedan, was losing oil and stopped at the Bock Ford Motor Company garage in New Braunfels to have it repaired. He displayed a copy of the repair ticket showing a valve cover gasket was replaced on November 14, 1963.

FARRELL advised that he recalls a white Plymouth or Dodge station wagon being serviced at the garage when the car was being repaired, but knows nothing of the owner of the car. While in New Braunfels, he had no conversation with anyone concerning the location of a restaurant, nor did he comment to anyone that he was en route to Dallas from the vicinity of New Orleans, Louisiana.

FARRELL advised he does not know OSWALD or JACK RUBY and to his knowledge has never seen them. He has no information concerning the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY on November 22, 1963.

During the interview, it was noted that FERRELL bears a marked resemblance to OSWALD.

FERRELL described himself as follows:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Date of Birth	5/25/25

Height	5'8½"
Weight	160 pounds

On November 26, 1963, Mrs. NELDA A. FITZHUGH, 2631 Antelope Street, Vernon, Texas, advised ASAC KYLE G. CLARK that her husband, HOWARD DONALD FITZHUGH, is believed to have some connection with the shooting of President KENNEDY. She advised that she hoped that she was wrong; however, she feels certain he had something to do with the shooting of the President.

She said her husband hates his job, his employer, and the United States. She stated also that as late as that evening, November 25, 1963, he had attempted to convert her to Communism.

She further advised that her husband is employed by the Amarada Petroleum Company located at Tulsa, Oklahoma.

It was ascertained that no prior record was known of HOWARD DONALD FITZHUGH in the Dallas Office of the FBI or FBI Headquarters in Washington, D.C.

The following investigation was conducted by SA WILLIAM E. LOGG, JR.:

Mrs. NELDA FITZHUGH, 2631 Antelope Street, advised she had telephoned FBI Headquarters, Washington, D.C., on the night of November 25, 1963, about midnight. She was very excited and probably did not make herself clear, but she was trying to express her feelings about how terrible it would be if Communists could influence people to accept Communist beliefs a little bit at a time. She knew of no association that her husband might have had with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or even that he knew OSWALD. Her husband had bought a fifth of Vodka the night of the telephone call to Washington, and she had had "three or four drinks' of it.

It was noted Mrs. FITZHUGH had apparently been drinking prior to the current interview. She smelled of alcohol and spoke rambling and thick tongued. She went on to state her husband had said he hoped KHRUSHCHEV did not come to the funeral for President KENNEDY because he, KHRUSHCHEV, was the first civilized Communist they had over there.

Mrs. FITZHUGH went on to state her fear is that the Communists can get into our minds and "how can we stop them." She again stated she had apparently failed to make herself clear and the interview was terminated.

Mrs. EVA ORR, 2701 Main Street, advised she is not a friend of Mrs. NELDA FITZHUGH, but Mrs. FITZHUGH has been to her house three times this year. She explained Mr. and Mrs. FITZHUGH have had considerable domestic trouble and when she, Mrs. FITZHUGH, gets in trouble, she comes to her, Mrs. ORR. Mrs. FITZHUGH came to her house on the night of November 25, 1963, about 11:50 p.m., called her by name, and asked to be let in. She got up from her bed and opened the door, and Mrs. FITZHUGH came in. Mrs. FITZHUGH had a wild look in her eyes as though she had been drinking or was under the influence of something. She carried a butcher knife in her hand and stood grinning. She then stated she was going to use the telephone and proceeded to call Washington and asked to speak to "J. EDGAR HOOVER." After speaking with someone, Mrs. FITZHUGH then sat on the bed and asked Mrs. ORR if she was frightened and told her that Mr. FITZHUGH was a Communist and was connected with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She finally left.

Mrs. ORR advised both Mr. and Mrs. FITZHUGH have bad reputations in the neighborhood because they drink a great deal and fight. She stated she had known them about three years but has as little as possible to do with them.

The Boston Office advised by teletype November 25, 1963, that Miss LORRAINE VARGAS, Malden, Massachusetts, had related she met a man, (First Name Unknown) HARIAN and wife, POLLY, of Houston, Texas, at Pan American Hotel, Miami, Florida, September 17, 1963. She said that during conversation, HARIAN made a statement to the effect that he would like to see the president dead and that if he knew someone who would do it he would give him a gun or pay to have it done. She could not say this was an exact quote and had no specific reason to believe this statement would be connected with the assassination.

On November 25, 1963, WILLIAM E. HARIAN, 1221 Rocky River, Houston, owner, William Harlan Insurance Agency, Houston, was interviewed by SA JAMES W. RUSSELL. HARIAN is a former Special Agent of the FBI. HARIAN recalled that in September, 1963, while vacationing at the Pan American Hotel, Miami, Florida, he and his wife met a young lady from Boston, Massachusetts, and remembers engaging in a political discussion with her. He said she was a Boston Irish Catholic and a tremendous admirer of KENNEDY. HARIAN said that he has not always agreed with KENNEDY's policies and did not vote for him at the time he was elected for president. He stated that, as he recalled, Vice President JOHNSON's name was mentioned in this conversation and he remembers the Boston girl stating to the effect that he did not like anyone unless he was from Texas.

HARIAN categorically and emphatically denied that he made any statement to the effect that the president should be dead or that he would desire to see him killed. HARIAN stated he is first a loyal American and knows that the assassination of the president is a grevious thing. He stated he has no knowledge of any specific information concerning OSWALD or RUBY.

The following investigation was conducted by SA ERNEST T. CLARKE:

Mr. EDWARD GLASER, 325 Northeast View Drive, Hamilton, Ohio, advised on December 2, 1963, that he was at Hoppies Gardens at 902 Greenwood Avenue, Hamilton, from about 7:30 to 8:15 PM on December 1, 1963. The only other individuals present in the bar at the time were the owner, WALTER NEWMAN, who was tending bar; LESTER LONG, JR., 911 Greenwood Avenue; and EDWARD HELTON, 920 Vine Street.

GLASER was seated toward the end of the bar and standing at the extreme end was EDWARD HELTON. GLASER, a carrier for the U.S. Post Office Department, Hamilton, did not know HELTON and made no conversation with him. HELTON commented to GLASER, "We spent 1½ million dollars getting rid of KENNEDY." GLASER made no comment and prepared to move to another part of the bar when HELTON stated, "I contributed $100 of the 1½ million."

GLASER joined LESTER LONG, JR., further down the bar. HELTON walked over to them and said that it would take four million dollars to get rid of "Johnson."

GLASER said that he and LONG ignored HELTON who then returned to his end of the bar and announced that he would bet $50 that "Johnson" would not finish his term. WALTER NEWMAN, bartender, who overheard this, threw $50 on the bar in front of HELTON and said, "Put you money where your mouth is." HELTON replied that he did not really want to bet.

Mr. GLASER advised that HELTON was sipping 3.2% beer while in the bar and was in the bar when GLASER left.

WALTER NEWMAN was interviewed on December 2, 1963, and he furnished the following information:

EDWARD HELTON, a resident in the neighborhood, has a reputation for being a braggart and a "pop-off." He is a loner and has no close friends or associates. He was in Hoppies Gardens from approximately 7:30 to 8:30 PM, December 1, 1963, at which time Mr. NEWMAN overheard him announce that he would bet $50 that President JOHNSON would not complete his term.

Mr. NEWMAN said he immediately covered the bet and Mr. HELTON backed down.

Mr. HELTON had been drinking and had a total of three beers while at the bar. Mr. NEWMAN stated he heard no other comment made by HELTON and he stated HELTON left shortly thereafter.

Mr. NEWMAN states he did not consider statements made by HELTON to be responsible. He stated HELTON has been in no trouble to his knowledge; holds membership in the Monkeys Mutual Aid Society of Hamilton, which is a social fraternal organization which provides an insurance benefit. He stated there is no question as to the loyalty of the members of this organization and he has never had reason to suspect the loyalty of HELTON.

RE: THREATS AGAINST THE LIFE OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY AND OTHERS.
RICHARD JACK HERRMANN

The following investigation was conducted by SA JOE P. PATTY:

By letter dated November 26, 1963, United States Attorney WOODROW SEALS, Houston, Texas, advised that a Mr. TOM WHITE, President of Local 16000, at the Ethyl Corporation, Pasadena, Texas, called and said a plant foreman at Ethyl Corporation, upon learning of the death of President KENNEDY, said it was the finest thing that ever happened and that he hoped the Attorney General would come to Texas so that he could be disposed of.

On November 27, 1963, RICHARD JACK HERRMANN, Maintance Foreman, Ethyl Corporation, Pasadena, was interviewed. He said that on November 22, 1963, shortly after learning of the death of the President, he attended a manpower meeting with four other plant foremen. He said that he and the other foremen are close friends and that he has worked with these men for a number of years. He said that they are always kidding each other in a friendly manner. At the above meeting, he said he stood up on a chair and said, "That's one down and there is one to go and after him there were nine more to get (meaning the Supreme Court Justices)". He said that he also made a remark to the effect that he, the President, picked a good place in coming to Dallas, Texas, becuase they got the job done.

HERRMANN said that the above remarks were made to antagonize, in a joking manner, one of the other foreman, who is a staunch Democrat. He said he in no manner intended his remarks to be a threat against the President or the Attorney General. He said he is not opposed to the present administration and feels no animosity toward the President or Attorney General.

He said that on the evening of November 22, 1963, he began to realize that the remarks he had made were in exceedingly bad taste and that he was very embarrassed with himself for making the statements. He said that it was several hours after the assassination before he realized the great impact it would have on him and the United States. He said when he arrived at work on the morning of November 26, 1963, he immediately apologized to the foremen he made the remark to and that he intended apologizing to officials of the Ethyl Corporation for making such remarks.

HERRMANN said that he is not a member of any political or radical group and that the only organization he belongs to is the Mason's. He said he never knew or heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY until the past weekend and that he never has heard any talk of assassinating the President.

HERRMANN is described as follows:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Date of birth	February 5, 1916, Fort Worth, Texas

At 9:32 p.m., W. O. STINSON, Administrative Assistant to the Governor, Governor's Office, Parkland Hospital, personally appeared at the Dallas FBI Office and furnished the following information:

He stated R. E. (GENE) CHAMBERS, Wichita Falls, Texas, President of Armour Properties in Wichita Falls, contacted him by telephone on the morning of November 25, 1963, from Austin, Texas, and stated he had information he thought important and that he wanted to pass it to someone as soon as possible.

STINSON stated he told CHAMBERS, who is a personal friend of his, as well as President LYNDON B. JOHNSON and Governor JOHN CONNALLY, that he would be glad to pass such information on to proper authorities. CHAMBERS flew to Dallas on November 25, 1963, and talked with STINSON until approximately 9:00 p.m. about a reported plot approximately three weeks ago to kill President KENNEDY while he was in Dallas.

According to STINSON, CHAMBERS is completely reliable.

CHAMBERS told STINSON that ROGER TITTLE, President of Panhandle Steel Company in Wichita Falls, came to him on November 25, 1963, and told him he had information relative to a plot to kill President KENNEDY. TITTLE's story to CHAMBERS reportedly disclosed that TITTLE and his wife, THELMA, had dinner with JOHN H. HILL, Southland Center, Dallas, Texas, recently. During the dinner HILL was violently abusive about President KENNEDY. HILL reportedly told ROGER and THELMA TITTLE that arrangements had been made to kill President KENNEDY in Dallas. According to HILL, three oilmen had the money to do the job and that the money had been put up.

HILL reportedly told TITTLE, "You had better get through to Democratic friends of President KENNEDY to change his ways, or he won't get out of Dallas alive." THELMA TITTLE was reportedly upset by the conversation and broke into tears. ROGER TITTLE told HILL, "Don't you know it is a federal offense to even talk about killing President KENNEDY." ROGER TITTLE was reportedly back in Dallas a few days before President KENNEDY's arrival in Dallas. HILL stated to TITTLE at that time, "Have you gotten word to the President." When TITTLE replied "No" to HILL, HILL said, "It is too bad for the President" and "You'll be sorry you didn't do it."

ROGER TITTLE reportedly told CHAMBERS he had told the above story to two other people, MILLS TITTLE, his father, and to PAUL EGGERS, his attorney, both Wichita Falls.

CHAMBERS reportedly stated TITTLE told him that HILL knew RUBY (JACK LEON RUBI) personally because HILL was quite a nightclub man.

HILL in recent years, according to CHAMBERS, has become very wealthy through oil transactions and is a lavish spender. TITTLE reportedly told CHAMBERS the identities of three men he thought HILL had in mind regarding putting up money to kill President KENNEDY.

STINSON stated he was not sure, based upon his conversation with CHAMBERS, whether HILL was referring to three other men or to himself and two other men with regard to those who had put up money to kill President KENNEDY.

STINSON observed that TITTLE, very likely, had a great deal more information than was passed on to CHAMBERS and through CHAMBERS to him.

No reference was made as to the amount of money reportedly put up by the three oilmen to have President KENNEDY killed.

STINSON stated HILL and the three oilmen referred to were concerned about an FPC deal in El Paso, Texas, wherein there is a definite conflict because of FPC interference.

STINSON stated CHAMBERS continued his flight to Wichita Falls following the above conversation and should arrive in Wichita Falls that night.

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59)

Date November 26, 1963

Mr. ROGER TITTLE, President, Panhandle Steel Company, Old Burk Road, Wichita Falls, Texas, residence 2202 Avondale, advised he has known JOHN HILL, President of Southwest Producing Company, Southland Center, Dallas, Texas, for about seven or eight years. He advised HILL has done business with him and he knew him only casually the first three or four years and then became well acquainted with him. He stated HILL had moved from Wichita Falls about 1945 to Dallas, Texas.

Mr. TITTLE advised that about eight months to one year ago he and Mrs. TITTLE went to the Cipanga Club in Dallas with Mr. and Mrs. JOHN HILL for cocktails and dinner. He advised after a few drinks, they sat down for dinner and HILL began a very vicious verbal attack on President KENNEDY personally. He stated HILL criticized what the President was doing to the country and blamed him for bringing Communists and Socialists into the Government and stated the President had stated oil was $1.00 per barrel too high. Mr. TITTLE advised HILL during this conversation stated, "You'd better do something to get this stopped because I know several oil men who have what it takes to have the President assassinated."

Mr. TITTLE stated HILL knows that he and Mrs. TITTLE are strong Democrats and that Mr. TITTLE knows LYNDON B. JOHNSON. He advised he was very shocked by HILL's talk, and both Mrs. TITTLE, who began to cry, and Mrs. HILL were very upset and left the table. Mr. TITTLE advised he told HILL he should not talk as he was talking because a threat against the President's life was a Federal violation. Mr. TITTLE stated after Mrs. TITTLE and Mrs. HILL had left the table, HILL stated he could not help it if he had upset her, meaning Mrs. TITTLE, and insisted he was not kidding.

Mr. TITTLE stated HILL is a very large man and can hold large amounts of liquor and certainly was not drunk when he made these statements.

TITTLE further advised HILL stated he had completely switched from the Democrat Party to the other side because of what he had found out.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Mr. TITTLE stated following the above incident, he tried to avoid HILL as much as possible but still had had three or four personal meetings with HILL in Dallas attempting to collect money which HILL owed him. He stated the last of these meetings was in August, 1963, and on each of these meetings, HILL asked if he had done anything about getting "the situation changed" and stated, "You can see what KENNEDY is doing." Mr. TITTLE advised he had had three contacts with HILL subsequent to August, but HILL had not mentioned President KENNEDY at these meetings.

Mr. TITTLE advised at the meeting prior to August when HILL had spoken about President KENNEDY, there had been no persons present besides HILL and himself except for their wives. He advised that at the meeting subsequent to August when there had been no mention made of President KENNEDY, there had been other persons present.

Mr. TITTLE stated HILL about 30 days ago hired ART HILL, who is no relation and who formerly was the operating head of El Paso Natural Gas in El Paso, Texas. He advised HILL had been in partnership with JOE DRISCOLL and they had sold their oil and gas leases around Farmington, New Mexico, to Mid Continent Supply Company, and each had obtained about two and one-quarter million dollars apiece from this sale. Mr. TITTLE advised DRISCOLL had severed partnership with HILL about sixty days ago. He further advised he believed HILL may have informed DRISCOLL of the threat mentioned in the Cipanga Club. Mr. TITTLE stated DRISCOLL, who has offices in the Southland Center, Dallas, Texas, is a very reputable tax attorney and reportedly is friendly enough with Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY that he, DRISCOLL, has visited in the Attorney General's home.

TITTLE advised HILL is very impressed with wealth; and while he is not known in the first class clubs in Dallas, he does throw his money around and frequents after-hours joints.

Mr. TITTLE advised he feels HILL knew JACK RUBY because HILL frequented places similar to those run by RUBY and is a heavy drinker.

Mr. TITTLE stated his first thought after hearing of the assassination of President KENNEDY was of the conversation he had had with HILL in the Cipango Club.

Mr. TITTLE stated HILL associates with OSCAR WYATT, President of Coastal States Gas, Corpus Christi, Texas, and is also close to PAUL KAISER, Chairman of the Board of El Paso Gas. He advised HILL is an unstable person but is a shrewd business operator. He described HILL as follows:

Name	JOHN HILL
Race	White
Sex	Male
Age	31
Height	6'7"
Weight	260 lbs.
Marital status	Married
Wife	JO BETH HILL

Mrs. THELMA TITTLE, 2202 Avondale, advised she and her husband, ROGER TITTLE, had had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. JOHN HILL at the Cirange Club in Dallas, Texas, about the time EDWARD KENNEDY was a candidate for the U. S. Senate. She advised they had had some drinks before dinner and after sitting down for dinner, HILL remarked it would be the end of free elections in this country if EDWARD KENNEDY was elected. He then began a vicious verbal attack on President KENNEDY personally, generally accusing him of ruining the country. Mrs. TITTLE stated she could not recall the exact wording, but HILL then stated he knew two or three Dallas oil men who would have President KENNEDY "taken care of." She stated she could not recall the precise wording, but it left no doubt in her mind he meant assassination. She further stated HILL indicated the oil men were very high up financially, although she could not recall that he mentioned any names.

Mrs. TITTLE advised HILL was definitely serious and was not drunk at the time of this conversation.

Mrs. TITTLE advised she may have met HILL two or three times after this occasion but carefully avoided any discussion of politics.

Mr. R. E. "GENE" CHAMBERS, Manager, Armour Properties, Oil and Gas Building, Wichita Falls, Texas, residence 2110 Avondale, advised Mr. ROGER TITTLE, President of Panhandle Steel Company, Wichita Falls, Texas, had, following the assassination of President KENNEDY, informed him that JOHN HILL, owner of the Southwest Producing Company, 31st Floor, Southland Center, Dallas, Texas, had made a vicious verbal attack on President KENNEDY personally and had informed TITTLE he knew two or three oil men in Dallas who would have the President killed. Mr. CHAMBERS stated Mr. TITTLE informed him this was about the time President KENNEDY had definitely made plans to visit Dallas. Mr. CHAMBERS stated Mr. TITTLE informed him he had occasion to meet HILL subsequent to the meeting when the threat had been mentioned, and at these subsequent meetings, HILL asked if TITTLE had done anything about contacting LBJ about getting something done, referring to a change in administration policy.

During the week prior to the assassination, HILL asked TITTLE if he had warned President KENNEDY and told TITTLE he would be sorry the rest of his life.

Mr. CHAMBERS advised HILL had formerly resided in Wichita Falls, Texas, and had first come to Wichita Falls about ten or twelve years ago as a salesman for the Industrial Supply Company. HILL later became associated as a minor partner with J. C. MANN, JR., an oil man in Wichita Falls. Mr. CHAMBERS advised HILL is an overbearing type of oil promoter who will not take "no" for an answer. He advised HILL has made a great deal of money in recent years through the sale of gas and oil interests.

Mr. CHAMBERS stated he personally has not heard HILL make the type of statements which TITTLE advised HILL had made to him.

Mr. CHAMBERS was reinterviewed after he had talked with Mr. TITTLE on November 26, 1963, concerning the above information, and Mr. CHAMBERS advised at this time he had apparently misunderstood Mr. TITTLE as to the exact wording of HILL's conversation and the dates of HILL's conversations.

Date November 29, 1963

Mr. JOHN HENRY HILL, who resides at 3415 Centenary, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at the Vermejo Park Ranch, at which time he was advised that he need not make any statement; that any statement made by him could be used against him in a court of law, and that he could talk to a lawyer before making any statement.

Mr. HILL stated that he is a partner in the operation of the Southwest Production Company at 3108 Southland Street, Dallas, and that his partner in this operation is Mr. JOSEPH P. DRISCOLL. Mr. HILL advised that JOSEPH DRISCOLL is a former college roommate of ex-President KENNEDY and that his only contact with Mr. KENNEDY has been through DRISCOLL. He said that he did not personally know Mr. KENNEDY but that he was an active supporter of the ex-President during his election campaign and contributed between $2,000 and $10,000 to Mr. KENNEDY's campaign through Mr. DRISCOLL. HILL stated that after the KENNEDY administration began to put its civil rights and integration program into effect, he began to discontinue his support of the President because he disagreed with these programs. HILL stated that there was no conflict between his business interests and the KENNEDY administration and that, in fact, he made five or six million dollars in business while Mr. KENNEDY was President. He stated he had no personal animosity towards the President and no reason, because of business differences, to attempt to bring pressure upon the President or his administration to change administration policies.

Mr. HILL advised that during the last year of the KENNEDY administration he and his associates were attempting to complete a business deal in the oil industry whereby his group would purchase the complete oil rights in the State of Texas of the Pan American Oil Company, after which they would reorganize this company and sell gas to the City of El Paso, Texas. He said that in attempting to complete this business arrangement, they were thwarted by the complicated procedures of the Federal Power Commission in the KENNEDY administration. He said that as a result of the regulations of the Federal Power Commission, his attorney finally advised him and his associates to withdraw from any further attempts to complete this business transaction. Mr. HILL stated that because of this he was disappointed with the KENNEDY administration and stated that he may have said that the KENNEDY administration appeared to "be going socialistic" but added that he is positive he never stated that the KENNEDY administration was "bringing communists and socialists into the Government." Mr. HILL advised that he cannot recall President KENNEDY's ever having said, "Oil was $1.00 per barrel too high," and, accordingly, he could never have made this statement to anyone. Mr. HILL advised that he did not attempt at any time to bring pressure to bear on Mr. KENNEDY personally or his administration in order to have administration policies with regard to the oil industry changed. HILL denied in this connection that he ever made the statement, "You'd better do something to get this stopped because I know several oil men who have what it takes to have the President assassinated." HILL advised he had no knowledge of any oil men or other persons who might have contemplated any violence toward Mr.KENNEDY.

Mr. HILL stated that while he disagreed with some phases of the KENNEDY administration policies and was disappointed in not being able to complete business transactions because of the complicated procedure of the Federal Power Commission under the KENNEDY administration, he did not at any time make any statements advocating or urging physical injury to Mr. KENNEDY. He said that in connection with his business activities he was in company of many oil people who were not pleased with the activities of the KENNEDY administration and that he also disagreed with many of the political practices of the administration while in company with these business associates. He advised, however, that these opinions were political in nature and definitely were not aimed at the personal safety of the President of the United States.

HILL stated that he could not recall having been in any group where he was alleged to have made remarks against the safety of the President of the United States and stated that at no time was he informed by anyone that his remarks constituted a Federal violation. HILL advised that he was at a loss to understand why anyone should attribute remarks such as these to him and added that it is his opinion that the basis of these remarks probably began with people in the oil business in Dallas who were envious of his business deals or had suffered financial loss because his company had been successful in obtaining business which they were seeking.

Mr. HILL stated that he never knew JACK RUBENSTEIN, who is also known as JACK RUBY, and that he never visited any of RUBENSTEIN's clubs in Dallas. HILL stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD is unknown to him and that he has no knowledge of the activities of either OSWALD or RUBENSTEIN.

Mr. HILL furnished the following background and descriptive data concerning himself:

Name:	JOHN HENRY HILL
Race:	White
Sex:	Male
Date of Birth:	May 9, 1928
Place of Birth:	Jacksonville, Florida
Height:	6'6"
Weight:	280 lbs.
Marital Status:	Married - wife, JO BETH HILL

Ball. Due to the fact that she was approximately seven months pregnant, they did not attend this function.

She and her husband were in Dallas, Texas on the day of KENNEDY's assassination and, in fact, on the morning of November 22, 1963, she went to Neiman Marcus Department Store in Dallas and took some jewelry to be repaired, at which time the Jewelry Department gave her a diamond clasp which they had made for her. Upon leaving Neiman Marcus shortly before noon, she met her husband at Cullom and Boren Sporting Goods Store where Mr. HILL purchased a hunting rifle and various articles of clothing for their present hunting trip to the Vermejo Park Ranch. Upon leaving Cullom and Boren, they had lunch together at the Imperial Club, Baker Hotel, in Dallas, and upon completion of lunch, she returned to Neiman Marcus and picked up the jewelry she had left for repair. She left Neiman Marcus at approximately 1:00 p. m., and on walking out of the store, noticed a television set carrying news of the President's assassination. This was the first she knew of KENNEDY's assassination.

Mrs. HILL denies that she and her husband frequent nightclubs and that her husband is any more than a social drinker. She states her husband, on occasion, has had one too many drinks, however, he is basically a very quiet individual who does not become overly talkative after several drinks. She states their membership in social clubs in the Dallas area is confined to the Cipango Club, the Imperial Club, and the Dallas Hunting and Fishing Club.

Mrs. HILL denies any knowledge of any oil men or any other persons who might have contemplated any violence toward Mr. KENNEDY.

HODGE, owner, Buckhorn Bar and Buckhorn Trading Post, 217 South Ervay Street, stated that in regard to a telephone call received at Fort Smith, Arkansas, on the evening of November 22, 1963, he had no information, since no one had talked with him about the killing until he had heard about it on the radio. S. Army service. Mr. HODGE stated his manager immediately fired this individual, and they have not seen or heard from him since. ROBERT BENJAMIN HUGHES, Jr. was located at the Allright Parking Lot in the 300 block of North Austin, Dallas, and furnished the following information:

He resides at 2622 Kinsey, Dallas, with his mother, MONETTA HUGHES. He was in the U. S. Army from January, 1958, to December, 1960, receiving an honorable discharge, Army Serial No. RA 18476986. On leaving the service he was employed for two months by Hardware Mutual Insurance in Dallas and then by the Union News Company, also Dallas, from April to June of 1961. He has worked since August of 1961 for the Allright Systems, Inc., Wilson Building, Dallas, as a parking lot attendant. HUGHES admitted making statements to various people after the assassination of President KENNEDY to the effect that that assassination was just the beginning. He explained these statements by saying that he believed the Communists were beginning a reign of terror and that being anti-Communist he was interested in doing anything that would fight Communism. As part of his activities, he had contributed money to the Christian Crusade headed by BILLY JAMES HARGISS, Tulsa, Oklahoma, and had worked for General EDWIN WALKER during his campaign for Governor in Texas in 1962. Since the election campaign he has passed out additional literature, anti-Communist in nature, put out by General WALKER. During the interview, he expressed the opinion that ADLAI STEVENSON, U. S. Representative to the United Nations, had left the officer protecting him on his recent visit to Dallas and mixed with the crowd in the hopes that an incident would occur which would "make Dallas look bad". He feels that the shooting of President KENNEDY might be another incident designed to bring trouble to Dallas. When specifically questioned re this statement, HUGHES advised that this was a personal opinion he had, not based on any facts in his possession or any information he had obtained from any particular person or source.

He said he was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY; to his knowledge he had never met them and knew of no connection between them and had no information whatsoever re the assassination of President KENNEDY.

RE: THREAT TO THE LIFE OF THE PRESIDENT
DR. M. E. "MAC" HUNTER, JR.
BAYTOWN, TEXAS

Mr. JOHN M. POWERS, #2 Westwood Street, Baytown, Texas, an employee of the Research and Development Division, Humble Oil Company, and a graduate chemist of Notre Dame University in 1937, advised SA LEVERETTE A. BAKER on November 26, 1963 he had attended a dinner of a "gourmet club" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. (FAYE) SMITH, JR., Houston, Texas, about four months ago at which time Dr. M. E. "MAC" HUNTER made a statement, substantially as follows:

"I would give $4,000.00 to have KENNEDY killed".

Mr. POWERS stated that Dr. HUNTER has always been extremely "anti-Kennedy", has always been extremely uncomplementary in speaking about President KENNEDY, and has always taken the firm position that the KENNEDY administration is forcing the United States into socialism.

Mr. POWERS stated he has never had any reason to question Dr. HUNTER's loyalty to the United States, Dr. HUNTER is a veteran of the U. S. Navy, and he is not known to be a member of any organization advocating overthrow of the United States Government.

Mr. POWERS stated he believed the remark by Dr. HUNTER was occasioned by some adverse news in the local news media, such as the Cuban situation, etc., and was "an ill advised statement made at an ill-tempered occasion".

Mr. POWERS advised he does not believe Dr. HUNTER would actually do what he said since Dr. HUNTER has never been a person "expected to be cruel in the sense of doing something to take a man's life'.

HO 62-2115

On November 27, 1963, Dr. MALCOLM E. HUNTER, JR., 1604 Oak Shadows, Baytown, was located at his office at 1009 Polly, Baytown, and was interviewed by SA LEVERETTE A. BAKER and SA CLARENCE E. WRIGHT.

Dr. HUNTER readily stated he is and always has been, completely against President KENNEDY's administration and would do anything legal to get him defeated. He stated he had never made any remark to the effect he would contribute funds to have KENNEDY killed but had stated he would contribute campaign funds to the candidate of his choice in order to defeat KENNEDY.

Dr. HUNTER also stated he had recently remarked that if anyone wanted to assassinate the president it (the Dallas trip) would be a good time to have it done because of the attacks which had occurred against ADLAI STEVENSON in Dallas recently.

Dr. HUNTER stated the assassination of President KENNEDY was a serious blow to this country, that he was absolutely against any such measure to remove a man from office.

Mr. DON C. MC GLOTHLIN, 1047 South Carol Avenue, Wheeling, Illinois, was interviewed at his place of employment, the William Howard Taft High School, Nagle and Bryn Mawr, concerning remarks made by a student during an 11:00 a.m. class on November 22, 1963. He identified the student as GEORGE KANTAK, age 16, a member of the Sophomore English class meeting from 10:20 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. He said the student asked him how many Presidents had been assassinated and he replied that there had been three Presidents assassinated. The student displayed some surprise and said he "thought there had been only two". MC GLOTHLIN identified the assassinated Presidents as LINCOLN, GARFIELD and MC KINLEY and the student expressed some surprise that GARFIELD had been assassinated.

Mr. MC GLOTHLIN advised GEORGE KANTAK, age 16, resided with his parents, BART and MARJORIE KANTAK, at 5939 Navarre Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. He said the student came from a good home and his academic record revealed he was an average to below average student. He said he could furnish no additional information concerning remarks made by the student and did not suspect that the student had any prior knowledge of the assassination of President KENNEDY.

WILLIAM R. CAMPBELL, SR., 7701 Hemlock, advised his son, WILLIAM R. CAMPBELL, JR., is presently a patient in the Veterans Hospital at Knoxville, Iowa. On November 26, 1963, his son first made mention of an alleged plot against President KENNEDY's life which a BOB KENNEDY supposedly told him about on November 21, 1963. His son, CAMPBELL, JR., had previously made no mention of such a plot or any conversation with a BOB KENNEDY, and certainly had made no mention of this matter to him on Thursday, November 21, 1963, the day before the President's assassination.

CAMPBELL, JR. told him on November 26, 1963, that KENNEDY, a member of the Fair Play For Cuba Committee had told him on November 21, 1963, that the President was going to be killed with a rifle and invited CAMPBELL, JR. to join in the plot.

CAMPBELL, JR. said he told KENNEDY he would not join in any such plot, and in fact would tell the FBI about this conversation; whereupon, CAMPBELL, JR. related KENNEDY threatened to kill him if he revealed the assassination plans to the FBI. CAMPBELL, JR. urged CAMPBELL, SR. to telephone the FBI, but he declined to do so.

CAMPBELL, SR. explained to the interviewing agent that it was his definite opinion that his son was having a delusion since he has been suffering from persecution delusions in recent weeks. His son was severely affected by the President's assassination and watched most of the television news broadcasts Saturday, Sunday, and Monday, the 23rd, 24th, and 25th.

CAMPBELL, SR. explained that his son was released from the Veterans Hospital at Knoxville, Iowa, last June. He returned him to the hospital on the same date he told of the assassination plot allegedly involving BOB KENNEDY, on November 26, 1963.

He is casually acquainted with WILLIAM R. CAMPBELL, JR. and ROBERT G. KENNEDY, JR., who are frequent customers of his store.

He has thought that CAMPBELL is a bit "strange" noting that CAMPBELL's favorite attire is a boy scout uniform. He described KENNEDY as a quiet, reserved young man. He recalled that KENNEDY had done some painting for him in the drug store. He has never known KENNEDY to be a practical joker or a trouble maker. He has no recollection of whether either KENNEDY or CAMPBELL was in his drug store on November 21, 1963.

Sergeant M. E. KNIFFIN, Overland Park Police Department, advised he was acquainted with both WILLIAM R. CAMPBELL, JR. and ROBERT G. KENNEDY, JR. He recalled that CAMPBELL seemed a bit odd, but comes from a "nice family", his father being a building contractor. He further recalled that KENNEDY had been in minor trouble on several occasions since he was a juvenile, but was seldom in serious enough trouble to warrant charges being placed against him.

Sergeant KNIFFIN advised his records reflect KENNEDY was arrested October 16, 1963, for vagrancy, "for hanging around the Sunflower Drug Store", and on November 6, 1963, was sentenced to one-half day in jail.

His records further reflected KENNEDY was the subject of an investigation December 17, 1960, on which occasion he was found drinking beer with juveniles in a parked car.

Sergeant KNIFFIN advised KENNEDY's father, ROBERT G. KENNEDY, SR., was arrested November 4, 1960, for speeding and subsequently forfeited a $9.00 bond.

Sergeant KNIFFIN said KENNEDY, SR. operates Chris Speedometer Service in Kansas City, Missouri, and has no serious blemish on his reputation to his knowledge.

ROBERT GREGG KENNEDY, JR., 9005 Hemlock, was advised of the identity of interviewing agent, that he did not have to make a statement, and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised of his right to consult an attorney before proceeding with the interview. KENNEDY advised the following:

He is casually acquainted with WILLIAM R. CAMPBELL, JR. whom he has seen on several occasions at the Sunflower Drug Store in Overland Park, Kansas.

He has never on any occasions prior to the President's assassination discussed the Fair Play For Cuba Committee or any assassination plot against President KENNEDY with CAMPBELL. He does not recall whether he was in the Sunflower Drug Store on Thursday, November 21, 1963, nor does he recall whether he saw or spoke with CAMPBELL on that date.

He recalls seeing CAMPBELL in the drug store on November 22, 1963, the date of the President's assassination, and further recalls he, CAMPBELL, and other customers in the drug store were listening to radio broadcasts concerning the assassination.

He and CAMPBELL may have made some comment to each other concerning the assassination, but certainly no mention was made of his being a member of the Fair Play For Cuba Committee or the prospect of CAMPBELL joining this committee. He has never been associated with any such committee, and considers himself completely loyal to the United States. He has never even in a joking manner told CAMPBELL he was involved in any assassination plot.

He was unable to recall precisely his activities on November 21, 1963, but said he believed he was in the downtown area. He explained that he regularly patronizes the Sunflower Drug Store, almost daily, and therefore could not say with certainty whether or not he was in the drug store on November 21, 1963.

Thomas [illegible] Koontz

Mr. THOMAS KOONTZ, 5611 North Ridge, Chicago, Illinois (telephone 275-3530) telephonically reported on November 22, 1963, that he formerly attended the University of Dallas, Dallas, Texas, during the summer session of 1963. KOONTZ stated that the professor who taught American History First Semester 101, whose name he does not recall, expressed strong personal views against President KENNEDY. KOONTZ stated he talked with the professor after class regarding the right of the American people to make changes through legislation or election if they were not satisfied with present political situations. The professor reportedly stated "you don't have to wait to change things." KOONTZ stated he talked at length with the professor, however, upon learning that the professor allegedly served in the armed service during the Korean conflict, was captured by North Koreans and was held as a prisoner of war, KOONTZ refrained from further discussion with the professor. KOONTZ could furnish no further information regarding the professor and stated he dropped from the class due to the professor's views as stated above.

Sister MARY MARGARET, Registrar, University of Dallas, stated her records reflect that THOMAS BURKE KOONTZ, 5030 Vandelia, Apartment C, enrolled for the 1963 fall semester at the University of Dallas, but was unable to attend after enrolling. She stated KOONTZ'S application is dated September 10, 1963, and his transcript from BALDWIN WALLACE, Berea, Ohio, was received by date of September 14, 1963. KOONTZ was accepted and notified of his acceptance by letter of September 17, 1963, and in turn notified the school he would not be able to attend by letter of September 28, 1963.

Sister MARY MARGARET stated there is no record that KOONTZ ever attended the school either under the above registration or at any other time.

She stated that History--101 is currently being taught during the fall semester by Mr. ROBERT S. WOOD, who resides at 3109 Bryn Mawr, Irving, Texas.

Mr. ROBERT STEPHEN WOOD, 3109 Bryn Mawr (BL 5-1462), stated that he teaches History--Western Civilization, 101, at the University of Dallas. T...

Richard S...

Mr. WOOD made a check of his records and found an undated card reflecting THOMAS B. KOONTZ entered his class and was dropped as of October 3, 1963. Mr. WOOD said he recalls an individual who he feels sure is the THOMAS B. KOONTZ who entered his class and this individual only attended one or two lectures. He said that during one of the lectures offered when this individual was present, he, WOOD, lectured on the rise and fall of the Roman empire and then proceeded to point out simularities between that empire at its peak of power and the present government of the United States, such as the powerful central government. He said he pointed out in this lecture that he was not opining that our present government will go the way of the Roman empire but offered the lecture to stimulate thought among his students.

Mr. WOOD said that after the class was dismissed, the individual who he feels is KOONTZ, referred to above, approached him and asked that they have a cup of coffee and discuss their political views. He said he accepted the offer and the discussion lasted for about two hours during which time they discussed almost every aspect of present forms of government and during the discussion KOONTZ expressed very sympathetic views toward the CASTRO government that is presently in power in Cuba. He said KOONTZ held firm convictions that the people of Cuba are firmly behind CASTRO and pointed out that he, KOONTZ, has visited in Cuba on three or four occasions since the CASTRO government came into power. Mr. WOOD said KOONTZ expressed sympathy toward Socialistic forms of government and felt the United States government is an inefficient governmental system.

Mr. WOOD said that he, WOOD, is a Republican and over the past years has been a strong critic of the late President JOHN F. KENNEDY as he, WOOD, is of the opinion that President KENNEDY was too soft on communism and has not been agressive enough in combating communism. He cited the Bay of Pigs invasion as an example where he, WOOD, thinks the United States government should have taken more definite action in execution of the invasion rather than allow it to terminate as it did.

Mr. WOOD stated that he recognizes that he is probably more anti-communist than most individuals, as he feels that he knows that the communist will use any means to attain their end and pointed out that he was a prisoner of the communists for three years, having been captured in North Korea and during this period of time, developed strong anti-communist views.

WOOD stated that KOONTZ is a nice looking young man, very articulate and appeared to be above average in intelligence. Based on his limited contact, he is of the opinion that KOONTZ is a boy who may be argumentative by nature and would in all probability take the opposite view regardless of what view may be expressed during a lecture. He said KOONTZ told him, WOOD, that KOONTZ was employed selling World Encyclopedias at a stand in the lobby of Dallas Love Field. Mr. WOOD stated that when he heard the news of the arrest of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, with the statement that he, OSWALD, was a member of the Fair Play For Cuba Committee, he remembered his conversation with the person believed to be KOONTZ and wondered if KOONTZ was possibly associated with that organization. WOOD stated that he has never met or heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge that KOONTZ was in any way associated with OSWALD.

Mr. WOOD stated that he, WOOD, left Dallas at about 3:30 a.m., November 22, 1963, and drove to Austin, Texas, where he participated as a member of the state Fullbright Committee, where he and the other members of the committee interviewed students from the various universities of Texas as candidates for the Fullbright Scholarship in attending leading universities in the country. Mr. WOOD stated that he left Austin, Texas, at about 1 or 1:30 p.m., November 22, 1963, and drove back to Dallas, arriving between 4 and 5 p.m. He exhibited a roster of the state committee meeting held November 22, 1963, in the East Room of the Austin Hotel, starting at 8:30 a.m., and it was noted the roster includes the name of Mr. WOOD, University of Dallas.

WOOD stated that he, WOOD, had never expressed any views that the American form of government should be changed through violence nor had he heard the individual he believed to be KOONTZ express such an opinion.

Re: THREATS AGAINST THE PRESIDENT AND PUBLIC OFFICIALS
JONATHAN C. McDONALD

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES W. RUSSELL:

Information was received by the Federal Bureau of Investigation on November 26, 1963 from MARION L. WILSON, 6210 Sherwood, Houston, that approximately one year ago JONATHAN C. McDONALD had made the statement to him that he was in touch with a group that had funds available for assassination of United States Government officials. McDONALD said $10,000.00 would be paid for the assassination of some officials and $25,000.00 for that of the President. WILSON stated that McDONALD is a member of the John Birch Society and is very radical. WILSON feels that McDONALD may have been trying to feel him out to see if he would be willing for perform such assassinations. He said that at the time the statement was made McDONALD had been drinking but did not appear to be drunk and that at the time he did not feel McDONALD was sincere.

JONATHAN C. McDONALD, 3761 Odin Court, was interviewed by Special Agents EDWIN DALRYMPLE and JAMES W. RUSSELL on November 27, 1963. He said he is employed as an insurance broker for General American Life Insurance Company, 3865 Montrose Boulevard. McDONALD admitted being a member of the John Birch Society, having joined a group about one year ago that was headed by V. L. GALLIA. He said he attended meetings for about six months and discontinued going about six months ago. He said GALLIA resides at 4521 Mimosa, phone MO 4-3919, and is employed by Lufkin Manufacturing Company. McDONALD claims he paid $2.00 per month dues while active in the John Birch Society and was requested to contribute $1.00 for signs urging the impeachment of EARL ~~WARREN~~ WARREN.

McDONALD emphatically denied that he had ever indicated that he had any knowledge of the plot to assassinate the President or Government officials. He claimed to have no knowledge such plots had been conceived by the John Birch Society and had no knowledge concerning their possible implementation.

McDONALD stated that he has possibly stated some ill advised things while intoxicated but feels emphatically certain he would not have made such a statement. McDONALD is described as a white male, born January 24, 1929 at Garrison, Kentucky. He is 5'11" tall, weighs 225 pounds, is of medium complexion and heavy build. He has a thick neck and round face with ears set very close to head. He is married to SHIRLEY R. McDONALD, nee NESTER, who is employed as a speech therapist for Houston Independent School District. McDONALD stated he was in the United States Air Force under serial number AO 2218473, serving from July 10, 1951 to March 6, 1956 and receiving honorable discharge.

McDONALD identified RICHARD A. KERR of Houston as being the most outspoken critic of the Government he knows in Houston and a John Birch Society member.

On November 25, 1963, Deputy CLARENCE M. JONES of the Dallas County Sheriff's Office, made available to Special Agents CHARLES T. BROWN, Jr. and ARTHUR E. CARTER, a signed statement which had been taken on November 25, 1963 by Deputy JONES from WILLIAM C. ANDERSON, 2503 Kilburn, Dallas, at the Dallas Sheriff's Office. The text of the statement is set forth below:

"I am presently living at 2503 Kilburn where I have a room with a Mrs. Rogers. The telephone number there is FR 4-1170. My folks live at 5125 Corrigan, Dallas, Texas and the telephone there is FR 4-8331. I am employed for Joe Summers Loop 12 Conoco Service Station at Loop 12 and Lancaster Road. The telephone number there is FR 6-6766. On Saturday, November the 16th, 1963 a man whose name I do not know moved into the cottage behind 2503 Kilburn that he rented from Mrs. Rogers. He rented this cottage for 1 week. Another man has been to this cottage named D. H. McFadin. McFadin is about 26 or 27 years of age, dark hair, heavy build, 160 to 170 pounds. The other man I have not seen but one time and I can not be sure of a good description on him. These two men either come in late at night or early in the mornings. One other odd thing is that they always park their cars by backing them into the driveway. One of the cars is a two tone Pontiac, about a 1958 model, and the other one is a foreign made car and is black. They both bear Texas license plates. Last Friday night I had been over to my girl friend's house and had left there about 11 pm and went directly home. This took me about 20 minutes, as I went directly home. I then went to bed and sometime, I think it must have been early Saturday morning, I heard voices outside my window on the walk. One person was saying "Well, it's over." The other man said "Keep quiet, that guy is probably still awake."

"I heard nothing else, and went on back to sleep. This morning Mrs. Rogers told me that she had not seen them anymore and I went out to the cottage and looked around. I found three, 30-30 caliber shells, a photograph taken at Guthrie's at Corinth and Industrial, and another picture and a letter and an envelope. I picked up these things after thinking about what had happened and the conversation I had overheard and brought them to the Dallas County Sheriff's

Mrs. K. J. ROGERS, [illegible] Kilburn Street, was interviewed at her residence, at which time she furnished the following information.

Behind her residence, she has a small cottage which she rented on November 16, 1963 to a Mr. DUDLEY McFADIN. McFADIN indicated to her his intention to occupy the cottage for a considerable period of time and he told her that in all probability, a male cousin of his, whom he did not identify, would share the cottage with him. She recalled McFADIN commented that both he and his cousin were having marital trouble and their respective wives were in the process of obtaining divorces.

She was aware of the fact that another young man did move in with McFADIN and each man had an automobile in his possession. Mrs. ROGERS knew that one of the men drove a rather late model Pontiac but she could not identify the vehicle driven by McFADIN.

McFADIN occupied the cottage from November 16, 1963 and he was last known by her to spend the night of Thursday, November 21, 1963, at the cottage. She stated that McFADIN had not reappeared since the night of November 21, 1963, although the other occupant, whose name she does not know, came back to the cottage and stayed Friday and Saturday alone. Mrs. ROGERS mentioned that she had not been paid by either of these occupants and on Friday or Saturday, November 22 or 23, 1963, she had words with the man she had been told was McFADIN's cousin. She explained telling him she wanted her rent for the week, and that she did not expect either of the men to remove his belongings from the cottage until she was paid. This individual explained to Mrs. ROGERS that the cottage had been rented by McFADIN and that she had better look to McFADIN to collect her rent. The second occupant left sometime on Saturday, November 23, 1963, and she has not seen either one since that time.

She and another tenant of hers, WILLIAM CLIFFORD ANDERSON, went through the cottage after the two men failed

Mrs. ROGERS mentioned that ANDERSON told her one night as he was in his room trying to sleep, he heard two men outside the house talking, and one of the men said something like, "Well, it's done." Another man was overheard to reply something to the effect, "Be quiet, this fellow may overhear."

WILLIAM CLIFFORD ANDERSON, 2503 Kilborn, was interviewed at his place of employment, the Conoco Service Station located at Highway 342 and Ledbetter Drive, at which time he furnished the following information:

ANDERSON said he rents a room from Mrs. M. A. ROGERS and his bedroom is at the front of the house. On November 16, 1963, he knew Mrs. ROGERS rented her small three-room cottage in her back yard to two men whom he did not meet. He believed he could recognize one of them by sight. He mentioned that each of these men drove his own automobile, and he identified the vehicles as being a rather late model Pontiac and he thought the other vehicle was some foreign make.

ANDERSON mentioned that on Friday night, November 22, 1963, he had been visiting a girl friend and when he got back to his room at Mrs. ROGERS' house on Kilborn, it was approximately 11:20 or 11:30 P.M., and he went on to bed. Sometime later while he was still lying in bed, he heard voices from out front, which voices were those of two men. He did not look out the window or make any attempt to see who the men were, but as he lay there, he believes the bit of conversation he heard was as follows: "Well, it's over," and another voice was heard to say, "Keep quiet, that guy is probably still awake." ANDERSON said he heard nothing more. He does not know that the two voice he heard were those of the men who occupied the rear cottage. He didn't hear anyone walk around and enter the cottage at that time and he never got out of bed to look and see if it were the two occupants returning to the cottage for the night.

On Monday, November 25, 1963, Mrs. ROGERS told me that she had not seen either of her two tenants since Saturday, November 23, 1963, and he offered to go out to the cottage and look around. In addition to numerous articles of clothing and other personal effects, ANDERSON found three Super X, 30-30 rifle shells which he made known to Mrs. ROGERS. Inasmuch as the assassination of President KENNEDY had occurred on Friday, November 22, 1963 and these two occupants had apparently abandoned the cottage without any notice to Mrs. ROGERS during the same weekend, he and Mrs. ROGERS became suspicious of the pair and he offered to make the circumstances known to Sheriff BILL DECKER. He took along with him to the Sheriff's Office the three rifle shells plus a photograph of the occupant named McFADIN, which photograph had been taken at Guthrie's Dance Hall.

ANDERSON stated that to his knowledge, neither of these tenants of Mrs. ROGERS has ever come back and they still have many personal belongings left in the cottage.

On December 4, 1963, ANDERSON was reinterviewed for the purpose of establishing whether or not he might not have overheard the conversation outside his bedroom window on some night other than Friday night, November 22, 1963. ANDERSON repeated that, to the best of his recollection, the occurrence did take place on Friday night when he went to bed after having visited his girl friend on that particular night. ANDERSON stated again that he did not know who the two men were that were speaking out in front of Mrs. ROGERS' house.

Dudley H. McFADIN acknowledge that on November 16, 1963, he rented a small cottage at the rear of 2503 Kilborn, and his landlady was a Mrs. M. A. ROGERS. A cousin of his, TOMMY JOHNSON, moved in with him at the cottage because both of them were having domestic difficulties, their wives were obtaining divorces, and it was convenient for he and TOMMY to stay together. McFADIN mentioned he stayed in the cottage from November 16, 1963 through the night of Thursday, November 21, 1963. He recalled specifically that on the night of November 21, 1963, he had his eight-year-old son stay with him. He is aware of the fact that he left many personal belongings in the cottage and he intended to go back after them and to pay Mrs. ROGERS the rent which he owed. He mentioned that TOMMY JOHNSON stayed on at the cottage through Friday and Saturday, November 22 and 23, 1963.

McFADIN stated that he has been working recently for the Cook Plumbing Company with offices at 1124 South Fitzhugh. He recalled that on Friday, November 22, 1963, he put in a routine eight-hour day on a job at the Lake Highland Baptist Church on Brookhurst Street in Dallas. McFADIN mentioned he can see how the circumstances of his activities might have aroused some suspicion in that he and his cousin both apparently left the cottage where they were staying without having made any explanations, and after leaving personal belongings behind on the same weekend that the assassination of the President took place.

Mrs. JAMES C. JOHNSON, 2538 52nd Street, who stated she is the mother of TOMMY JOHNSON and an aunt of DUDLEY McFADIN, furnished the following information concerning her son:

TOMMY and his wife just recently separated and his wife is seeking a divorce. TOMMY is still very fond of his wife whom he does not want to lose, and he cannot stand the thought of losing the two-year-old son. She mentioned he has been very much emotionally upset in the last few weeks and she knows that he and DUDLEY McFADIN have been staying together recently at two or more locations in Dallas. She knows they were staying at 2503 Kilborn in a cottage owned by a Mrs. M. A. ROGERS and she knows they left the cottage owing rent for at least one week. She mentioned that she went by to see Mrs. ROGERS whom she (Mrs. JOHNSON) paid $16.00 rent, and removed from the cottage the personal belongings of both men.

She understood Mrs. ROGERS had been very suspicious of her son and of McFADIN because they apparently had hurried away from the cottage leaving a lot of clothing and other personal belongings behind, among which were included three rifle bullets. Since all of this happened on the same weekend that President KENNEDY was shot, Mrs. ROGERS had told Mrs. JOHNSON she thought the story should be made known to the Dallas County Sheriff's Office.

Mrs. JOHNSON said that her son, TOMMY, has recently been employed by the Loftin-Shepherd Printing Company at 1509 South Ervay in Dallas and she knows that her son went to work on Friday, November 22, 1963. Mrs. JOHNSON added that her son told her that McFADIN spent the night of Thursday, November 21, 1963, at the cottage with his little boy but that he did not return to the cottage after leaving on Friday morning, November 22, 1963. She recalled TOMMY having said he was miserable on Friday night since he was alone.

At approximately 5 P. M., November 22, 1963, one JAMES M. O'BRIEN, 156 Dive Street, Elgin, Illinois, registered at instant hotel and was assigned Room 6 for one night.

The Carolina Hotel has no nearby parking facilities for automobiles and keeps no record of vehicles driven by guests at instant hotel. Mrs. GILTNER presumed that O'BRIEN was traveling in an automobile but had no way of verifying this.

At the time of O'BRIEN's registration at the Carolina Hotel Mrs. GILTNER said to him, "Wasn't that a horrible thing that happened to the President." O'BRIEN replied, "Yes, it was planned but the assassination was supposed to happen in December." Mrs. GILTNER asked O'BRIEN his occupation to which he replied that he was a native of Ohio but worked in Washington, D. C. There was no one traveling with O'BRIEN insofar as Mrs. GILTNER could ascertain, and she noted that O'BRIEN had his evening meal and breakfast served in Room 6 and that he was believed to have departed from the hotel approximately 9 A. AT TAMPA, FLORIDA:

At 6:40 p.m., November 22, 1963, Mr. ROLAND F. GRYBEK, 5001 Neptune Way, telephoned the Tampa Office and advised he and his wife own an apartment house at 114 Plant Avenue. He said a tenant at this address, a Yellow Cab driver named ENRICO AARON de DUSSELDORF, also known as "SCOTT", had made recent statements to the effect he was aware of a plan to assassinate President KENNEDY as well as Vice President LYNDON B. JOHNSON. DUSSELDORF was said to have stated this plot originally was to have been carried out in Tampa on the President's visit to Tampa, November 18, 1963, but due to a fluke, was not accomplished.

GRYBEK characterized DUSSELDORF as a loud mouth type individual who appears to have a very vocal opinion on every situation. He said DUSSELDORF uses the title Viscount, claiming to be a member of the nobility in El Salvador and currently exiled in the United States.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent's FRED LIGARDE and HOWARD K. RUTHERFORD:

COLEMAN HILL, Manager of the apartment building at 114 Plant Avenue, advised on November 22, 1963, DUSSELDORF is a Salvadoran National who has lived in the apartment building about fourteen to sixteen months, although the first six months he was living with a girl tenant and was not himself officially a tenant of the building. The girl is his present wife, MARY. HILL said DUSSELDORF is better known by the surname "SCOTT" and he goes by the nickname "RICO". HILL says he has no reason to think "SCOTT" has any connection with or knowledge of the assassination of President KENNEDY. HILL said he was told by DIANE (Mrs. ROLAND) GRYBEK, that "SCOTT" told her that afternoon after the shooting, he had knowledge it was supposed to take place in Tampa the preceding Monday, and that Vice President JOHNSON was supposed to be killed also; however, HILL said he believes "SCOTT" was just shooting his mouth off as he has a habit of "talking off the top of his head" about things he actually knows nothing about.

Mr. RAYMOND E. HARRELL was interviewed at his place of employment, the Don Cameron Lumber Company, 711 South Ewing, Dallas, Texas. At first he could not recall HENRY EDWARD SCOTT, and after some discussion he recalled that he and his wife had been staying at the Red Wood Lodge, Laredo, Texas, approximately four or five years ago while fishing at Falcon Lake.

During this visit, which lasted approximately one week and was in May of that year, HARRELL and his wife were driven to Mexico by a taxi driver, whom HARRELL recalled was named HENRY EDWARD SCOTT. The purpose of the trip was to purchase a Chihuahua dog, and SCOTT had informed the HARRELLs that he knew a woman in Mexico who had these dogs for sale.

HARRELL did not make the purchase but recalled SCOTT had taken his name, address and telephone number informing HARRELL that should he later locate a Chihuahua that he thought would be suitable, he would contact HARRELL in Dallas by telephone. HARRELL never heard from him again.

HARRELL stated that he has resided in Dallas all of his life; that his father, JACK HARRELL, was a member of the Dallas Police Department for a fifteen-year period. HARRELL and his wife presently reside at 3225 Rockcliff Drive, Dallas, Texas, and HARRELL is an employee of the lumber company where interviewed.

Mrs. DIANE GRYBEK, 5001 Neptune Way, Tampa, Florida, furnished the following information:

HENRY EDWARD SCOTT has resided in the apartment building at 114 Plant Avenue, Tampa, which is owned by Mrs. GRYBEK and her husband, ROLAND, about one year. She understands he is a citizen of El Salvador and a few months ago he commenced calling himself ENRICO AARON de DUSSELDORF. He has always gone by the nickname "RICO". He at first received all his mail in the name of SCOTT. When at first mail started coming in in the name of DUSSELDORF, it was returned to the post office by Mrs. GRYBEK because she did not know anyone by that name. After two or three such pieces of mail had come in this way she connected the name ENRICO with "RICO" SCOTT and asked him if it could be for him. He said it was. She does not know much about SCOTT. He told her that his father or step-father owns a home on Bayshore Boulevard, and at one time he told her he was going to move there, but never did. When he first told her about the house on Bayshore Boulevard he gave her the address and she drove by there to look at it, just out of curiosity. She found there was no such address. Later SCOTT's wife told her SCOTT had given her the wrong house number, and she gave a different one. Mrs. GRYBEK never bothered to check the latter address. SCOTT also told her at one time that his step-father and mother are in Cuba.

SCOTT has claimed to have an interest in Central American Revolutionary activities but she does not know of any specific activities or contacts of his in this connection. It is her feeling that he talks too much to be a real revolutionary, but at the same time she feels it is possible he could really be involved and his discretion is simply outweighed by his need to brag. She does not know the identity of his associates except that all are Latins who speak Spanish. One is another taxi driver who lives on Platt Street, somewhere fairly near the residence of SCOTT. He is in his 20's and calls himself a "Count" and calls SCOTT "viscount". They used to send letters back and forth to each other addressed with these titles, bearing wax seals, etc., which she thought rather juvenile. She and other tenants of the apartment building were amused by these antics.

On the afternoon of November 22, 1963, following the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, Mrs. GRYBEK was at the apartment building and encountered SCOTT sitting on the front porch. He told her he had left work at 2 P.M. that day because of the killing. She asked him, somewhat facetiously, if he knew who was responsible. His answer was: "Maybe I do and maybe I don't." They continued to discuss the assassination and the fact that President KENNEDY had been in Tampa only the preceding Monday. SCOTT then said the shooting was originally planned to take place in Tampa, but did not because there were too many opportunities. She asked what he meant by that. He said it would have been so easy to shoot the President as he drove along Tampa streets, there were so many opportunities that it would have been unsporting to do it. He went on to explain his point by his analogy: He said if he wanted a woman and there were 14 naked women standing in front of him, he would not take any of them. Mrs. GRYBEK said this explanation sounded absurd to her. She said SCOTT also said the plan was to kill Vice-President JOHNSON at the same time and that the shooting of Texas Governor JOHN CONNALLY was a mistake, the assassin having taken him for Vice-President JOHNSON.

Mrs. GRYBEK said the latter point also seemed illogical to her in view of SCOTT's earlier statement the shooting was originally planned for Tampa, because Vice-President JOHNSON was not in Tampa. She said it was her feeling SCOTT was thinking in terms of revolutions in Latin-American countries where they are accomplished by simply getting rid of the top one or two men. She told him that if both KENNEDY and JOHNSON had been killed it would only mean that the Speaker of the House, JOHN McCORMICK would succeed to the Presidency. She said SCOTT had nothing to say to this and she concluded he had not thought the matter through to that point..

Mrs. GRYBEK said her contact with SCOTT has not been sufficient to enable her to judge his veracity. She said he may be better known to her husband, ROLAND GRYBEK, or to the manager of the apartment building, COLEMAN HILL. In this connection, however, she added she does not believe he and HILL get along together too well. She recalled that one time SCOTT saw HILL talking to SCOTT's wife and he became intensely jealous, as a result of which she believes HILL has avoided contact as much as possible with Mr. and Mrs. SCOTT.

SCOTT's wife was named MARY MARTIN and is from Tallahassee, Florida. She was living in the apartment building at 114 Plant St.

TP 62-455

before she met SCOTT, and Mrs. GRYBEK believes they met when MARY happened to ride in SCOTT's cab one time. Mrs. SCOTT has a job, but Mrs. GRYBEK does not know what type of work she does or who her employer is.

Mrs. GRYBEK said another of her tenants was present during her conversation with SCOTT. He is an elderly man who lives on the second floor whose name she does not know. He did not participate in the conversation but sat on the porch the entire time and probably heard it all.

HENRY EDWARD SCOTT, 114 Plant Avenue, Tampa, Florida, was advised at the outset of this interview he was not required to make a statement, that he had the right to consult an attorney before making any statement and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was also apprised of the identity of the interviewing agents as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

SCOTT said during the afternoon of November 22, 1963, he was conversing with DIANE GRYBEK, owner of the apartment building at 114 Plant Avenue where he lives, concerning the assassination shortly after noon that date of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. He told her he did not believe the man OSWALD whom the Dallas police then had in custody was the person responsible for the killing. He also told her that anybody wanting to kill the President could easily have done so in Tampa on Monday of this week when the President's motorcade was driving along Grand Central Avenue, Tampa. SCOTT denied categorically that he had stated to Mrs. GRYBEK he knew of a plot to kill President KENNEDY and Vice President JOHNSON. He also denied that he has knowledge of any such plot. SCOTT said he has no information bearing on the shooting; his reason for doubting that OSWALD is the guilty party is that news reports have given only circumstantial evidence against him and SCOTT knows the police and FBI have so many scientific methods of detection that he feels they would have developed more concrete evidence of guilt if OSWALD was really the killer. As an example, he said they could have determined the contents of OSWALD's stomach to verify whether he was the person who ate the fried chicken, etc., remains of which were said to have been found at the scene of the shooting. SCOTT said his only reason for saying the killing could have been accomplished in Tampa was that the number of people lining Grand Central Avenue when the President's motorcade passed there on Monday would have permitted an assassin a close range and easy shot at the President.

For identification SCOTT presented Florida chauffeur's license #64293, issued January 4, 1962, in the name of HENRY EDWARD SCOTT, born August 5, 1936. His address at time of issuance was 115 S. Newport, Tampa. He also presented social security card in the same name showing account number as 457-62-6960, and a Veterans Administration claim card in the name HENRY E. SCOTT said his true name is HENRY EDWARD SCOTT and he was born August 5, 1936, in San Salvador, El Salvador. His father, HUGH ANDREW SCOTT, an American citizen, was vice president of the British-American Sugar Company. His mother's maiden name was DUSSELDORF and she was of German origin. She died when he was four years old. Some of her family still reside in East Germany but he has no contact with them. He did try to contact some of them in 1954 or 1955 but was not successful. When his father retired from his job with the sugar company he and SCOTT's stepmother came to Tampa and bought a home. His father at one time owned three homes in Tampa, two on Davis Island and one on Bayshore Boulevard. He still owns the latter house, 1115 Bayshore Boulevard, and presumably receives rentals from it at the present time. The handling of the rental is done by Mr. SIMS of the Davis & Cooper Realty Firm. His father and stepmother now live in Costa Rica and his father has gone back to work. He is with the Tabacalera Costaricense in San Jose, probably in the capacity of vice president.

SCOTT said he enlisted in the air force in 1954 at Tampa while drunk. He was discharged at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas and lived for several months following his discharge in Laredo, Texas. He did not get along well with his father and stepmother but went willingly when they came to Laredo to pick him up and take him back to San Salvador. This was sometime until the fall of 1958. He stayed there then until October of 1960 when he got word that a coup d'etat was imminent. He said he was never in any trouble in El Salvador but just did not want to be there when the shooting started, so he left and came to Tampa, traveling in his own car. He has lived in Tampa since then. He has worked for the Yellow Cab Company as a driver almost two years. He claimed he has never held any other job. He did not work the first several months he was in Tampa, and he did not work while he was living in Laredo, Texas.

When asked the identity of RAYMOND E. HARRELL, whose name was on the slip of paper in his wallet, SCOTT at first said he could not remember any such person. When the full name and address was read to him, he said he then recalled this was a man who contacted him while he was in Laredo, Texas, and who was interested in buying some Mexican chihauhau dogs. SCOTT said the name on the back of the paper was a man in Mexico who was supposed to have some for sale. SCOTT was a go-between in the transaction but he does not recall anything ever came of it. SCOTT said he has served as a "contact man" in some revolutionary activities also, in that he arranged contact with a seller of guns on behalf of some Anti-Castro Cubans. He said the guns were shipped from Houston and New Orleans to Guatemala, El Salvador, and Costa Rica about six months ago. He said the revolutionary organization involved was the Second Front of Escambray but he declined to name any individuals. He claimed he did not know the name of the individual Cubans and he refused to give the name of the seller.

SCOTT said he was a student at Brewster High School in Tampa in 1953 and for a time he studied electronics at a now defunct technical college, which was closed by the Government for non-payment of taxes or some such reason.

He said he hopes some day to return to El Salvador to live. He plans also to change his name legally to DUSSELDORF, the family name of his mother. He wants to do this because he and his father do not get along and he does not like to continue using his father's name. In Tampa he has used the name ENRICO AARON DE DUSSELDORF as well as his true name.

The following description of SCOTT was obtained by observation and questioning:

Name:	HENRY EDWARD SCOTT
Aliases	ENRICO AARON DE DUSSELDORF, "RICO".
Date of Birth:	August 5, 1936, San Salvador, El Salvador
Race:	White
Sex:	Male

RE: PEARL SIMONS, 1521 Godwin,
Houston, Texas

On November 30, 1963 the Little Rock Division advised that JAMES E. SHOCK, Route 4, Box 675, Little Rock, Arkansas, advised he was formerly associated with PEARL SIMONS, 1421 Godwin, Houston, who is a self-admitted member of the John Birch Society. He advised from her general conversation he was of the opinion she felt the only way America could be saved, was if President KENNEDY would be killed.

SHOCK advised SIMONS discussed with him the fact she had been offered a permanent position with "Special Section" of John Birch Society at Houston. SHOCK states he received impression "Special Section" was to take whatever physical action necessary to protect American liberties.

The following investigation was conducted by SAS WILLIAM J. SCHMIDT and JOHN THOMAS KESLER on November 30, 1963:

AT HOUSTON, TEXAS

PEARL SIMONS, 1521 Godwin, denied making statements attributed to her. She advised she is not aware of any "Special Section" of the John Birch Society and asked if leaders of the John Birch Society had been interviewed. SIMONS requested she be allowed to tape record the interview, at which point the interview was terminated.

SIMONS was very belligerent during the interview and on termination of the interview, requested she be advised who furnished her name to the FBI. SIMONS' request was denied, whereupon she stated it was probably a man she had filed on previously.

Records of the Houston Police Department reflect a complaint was filed on September19, 1962, by PEARL SIMONS, white female, 32, 1521 Godwin, Houston, against suspects

JAMES SHOCK and E. C. TURNER, for investigation of homicide resulting from obscene statements with a threat to kill made to SIMONS over the telephone, after she had called SHOCK's telephone number.

Records of the Houston Police Department also reflect that JAMES E. SHOCK has FBI #4398569, and was arrested on February 23, 1963 by the Houston Police Department on a pick-up issued by the Police Department, Angleton, Texas, for Disturbing the Peace. SHOCK was released to the Sheriff's Office at Angleton on February 23, 1963.

JAMES E. SHOCK, Route #4, Box 675, Little Rock, Arkansas, advised as follows:

While he was pastor of Kilby Street Church of Christ, Houston, Texas, he was associated with PEARL SIMONS, 14201 Godwin Street, Houston. SIMONS was a self-admitted member of the John Birch Society and from her general conversation, he was of the opinion that she felt that the only way America could be saved was if President KENNEDY would be killed. SHOCK believes conversations about this matter were in approximately January, 1962. SHOCK was unable to recall any exact statements made by SIMONS, but merely stated he received the impression from SIMONS general conversation. He advised SIMONS discussed with him the fact that she had been offered permanent position with a "special section" of the John Birch Society in Houston, Texas. SHOCK stated he received the impression from her purpose of special section was to take whatever physical action necessary to protect the american liberties. SHOCK was again unable to furnish any specifics, stating that this was the impression he received from her general conversation.

SHOCK advised the above is all the information in his possession of a positive nature. With reference to his statement in telegram to the Attorney General "I can give information which may prove invaluable to an investigation of a possible conspiracy behind the tragic assassination," he stated he did not intend to imply that he possessed any information concerning any individual or organization who might have been involved in assassination. He merely meant that his personal experiences with the John Birch Society members and the political officials, would prove invaluable since they show that these people will do anything to obtain their desired ends, which in his opinion, would include assassination if they were so inclined. His statement in telegram "said information involves a Texas religion political tie-up with extreme right-wing elements," again refers to his personal experiences with religious and political leaders while he was in Houston, Texas. He advised that political officials and religious leaders created an atmosphere favorable to right-wing extremist activity. He advised their attitude was anti-KENNEDY and fostered similar attitudes of the people in the City of Houston.

SHOCK was closely questioned for any information he might possess other than mentioned above, but stated he had none. He stated he was of the opinion that this attitude and prevailing atmosphere could form the basis for an investigation into the assassination.

Mr. DENNIS MARSICO, 2940 Oxfordshire Lane, telephonically contacted the FBI Office in Dallas, Texas at 5 a.m. on November 28, 1963. At this time, Mr. MARSICO stated he was employed by the Gaylord Container Company in Dallas, Texas and had a very close friend by the name of CHARLEY PEUGH. According to MARSICO, PEUGH had a roommate by the name of DENNIS SMITH who owned a bar in Dallas, Texas, the name of which was unknown to him. He further stated PEUGH and SMITH had a home telephone number in Dallas of LA 6-5425.

MARSICO further advised that he had obtained information that SMITH had reportedly told PEUGH that SMITH had heard there was a $100,000 offer to kill President JOHN F. KENNEDY. This information was told to MARSICO by PEUGH two days after the assassination. He also stated PEUGH had attempted to obtain additional information from SMITH, but SMITH has "clammed up" since the assassination.

CHARLES PEUGH was located at his residence, 4807 Denton Drive, where he resides in Apartment 1208. PEUGH advised that at some date shortly before the President's assassination, he had been a member of a group engaged in an informal political discussion. PEUGH stated that someone in the group reportedly heard there was a $100,000 offer made to kill the President. He advised after conferring with his roommate, DENNIS SMITH, they had agreed the statement had no origination and were convinced that it was made in jest and poor taste.

PEUGH advised he would confer with SMITH and a friend, DENNIS MARSICO, in order to learn more about the origin of the statement. PEUGH stated he would immediately contact the FBI if he obtains additional information concerning this statement.

Reference is made to the report that ERNEST ALLEN SMITH, 4011 Mt. Rainier, Dallas, Texas, an employee of Sears and Roebuck Company, had stated in the presence of other employees at Sears prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY that "the President will not leave Dallas alive".

ERNEST ALLEN SMITH, 4011 [illegible]. Rainier, Dallas, Texas, employed as [illegible] equisition clerk, Sears and Roebuck Company, Dallas, Texas, advised of the following concerning a report that he had commented prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY that "the President will not leave Dallas alive";

SMITH admitted that he had made such a statement prior to the President s arrival at Dallas in the presence of others at his place of employment. He said he just had a feeling about this: that he had no information that the assassination was planned; that he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

SMITH said that when he heard that KENNEDY was coming to Dallas he just felt sub-consciously that he might be assassinated at Dallas - "the way it had been publicized and everything". He said that the people were "stirred up" about ADLAI STEVENSON when he was here. He got a poor reception SMITH felt and that he felt KENNEDY would get the same kind of reception.

It had been reported that SMITH had spent $15.00 in toll calls in an attempt to reach the White House concerning this matter. SMITH said that he had called the White House but not concerning his feeling that harm might come to the President at Dallas. He said that over the several weeks passed he had placed several calls to the White House concerning Social Security payments which he felt were due his father, ERNEST THOMAS SMITH, age 61, of 3535 Delhi, Dallas, Texas, a retired cement plant worker. He said he had called first in mid-October and had called again on [illegible] November 20, 1963, but had failed to reach the Pres[illegible].

SMITH, who said he had been employed by Sears and Roebuck for the past eleven years had no other information of pertinence.

At 1:36 P.M., November 24, 1963, Mr. TED MARSICO, 1218 West Bond Street, Denison, Texas, partner, Denison Mattress Factory (residence HO 5-1558; Office HO 5-1902) called the Dallas FBI Office and furnished the following:

Mr. MARSICO stated that on October 30, 31, 1963, and November 1, 1963, his factory had display at the Minor Mart, Dallas, and on either October 31, or November 1, 1963, his display was visited by LOUIS SPRINGFIELD, 2707 San Marcus, Dallas (BR 9-5089) and who is employed as sales representative for a table company. He stated at this meeting, SPRINGFIELD stated that if President KENNEDY did come to Dallas, he would be shot and went into considerable detail explaining why the President would be shot. MARSICO stated that the comments were wild and unbelievable to him and he made efforts to turn the conversation into a vain of jest but on each occasion, SPRINGFIELD would very seriously continue to point out that the President would be shot. SPRINGFIELD pointed out it would not be difficult to shoot the President and not be caught, pointed out that if a person ordered a mail order rifle, there would be no way that the gun could be traced. SPRINGFIELD also pointed out he is a member of the active U. S. Marine Corps Reserve, Dallas, and stated at meetings the men in his unit frequently discussed the President's visit and talked about assassinating the President and in fact encouraged such action by making statements that anyone who would kill the President would have a medal pinned on him.

Mr. MARSICO stated he has known SPRINGFIELD for about three years and SPRINGFIELD is a far right Republican and on numerous occasions expressed extreme dislike for President KENNEDY and the entire KENNEDY family.

Mr. MARSICO stated that his, MARSICO's, salesman, DALE MARTIN, 2423 Fenwick Drive, Dallas, Texas, (DA 7-2423), was present during the conversation and he, MARSICO, would like for MARTIN to be interviewed to see if MARTIN recalls the discussion as related above and if MARTIN can add anything to the above information.

MARSICO stated he has no information that would in any way link SPRINGFIELD with LEE HARVEY OSWALD in any manner.

DELBERT LEE MARTIN, 2423 Fenwick Drive, Dallas, a representative for Denison Mattress Factory, 101 West Owings Street, Denison, Texas, advised that between October 30, 1963 and November 1, 1963, the company had a display in the Minor Mart Building, 2000 Stemmons Freeway. He stated that LOUIS SPRINGFIELD, who is a factory representative for Ashley Tables, Chicago, Illinois, visited their display sometime during the above three dates and began talking with his boss TED MARSICO. He said that generally SPRINGFIELD's conversations wind up in a political discussion reflecting extreme Republican or right wing views. He stated that SPRINGFIELD is highly critical of the KENNEDY administration and the KENNEDY's in general including both JACK KENNEDY and ROBERT KENNEDY.

MARTIN advised that during this conversation MARTIN advised he overheard SPRINGFIELD say that if President KENNEDY came to Dallas he would, could, or might be shot. He said he could not recall the exact word used by SPRINGFIELD. He said it would be very easy to do so, that someone could shoot the President from an overpass and could conceal himself behind the abutments on the overpass. He stated that he also overheard SPRINGFIELD comment that it would be quite easy to obtain a gun or rifle simply by obtaining one from a mail order house. MARTIN advised that at this time he made a comment that it is quite simple for these punk kids to obtain guns from various sporting magazines which advertise for rifles and guns. MARTIN advised he overheard SPRINGFIELD mention that he was a member of the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve in Dallas and attended meetings regularly but he stated he at no time overheard SPRINGFIELD mention that members of the Reserve unit were talking about assassinating the President. He said he was not present when SPRINGFIELD allegedly claimed that anyone who killed the President would have a medal pinned on him. He said he heard this from his boss, TED MARSICO.

MARTIN advised that SPRINGFIELD also mentioned that BOBBY KENNEDY might need shooting more so than the President.

MARTIN advised that he was certain that overpasses and underpasses were mentioned by SPRINGFIELD when he was talking about the shooting of the President. He said he did not know SPRINGFIELD's political affiliation except that he was highly critical of the KENNEDY administration as mentioned previously. He advised that he did not associate with SPRINGFIELD and did not know any of SPRINGFIELD's acquaintances, either business or social. He advised he did not know what reserve unit SPRINGFIELD belongs to nor any of SPRINGFIELD's fellow reservists. He stated he wanted it clear that during this conversation he was selling furniture and only managed to obtain bits of the conversation. He stated that he could not tell whether or not the man was jesting or not because he always managed to bring the conversation back to the subject of the President. He advised that he cannot recall anyone else who had visited their display that day who might have overheard these comments made by SPRINGFIELD.

He advised that the Dallas Home Furnishings Mart published a booklet for the summer-fall of 1963 which indicated that the Ashley Furniture Corporation display which occupied space #124 had one or more of the following in attendance during their display:

LOUIS COMINSKY
L. L. SPRINGFIELD
WARNER M. GROSS
JERRY MC BRIDE
WILLIAM HAVER
ROBERT WEINBERG
JERRY KIMENKER

He advised that SPRINGFIELD's post office box in Dallas is #28421 and that his telephone number as far as he knew was BR 9-5089. He stated the Ashley Furniture Corporation's address is 666 N. Lakeshore, Chicago, Illinois, telephone WH 4-1667.

MARTIN advised that the only one he knew of who might know SPRINGFIELD quite well was CLINT HUNTER of Lubbock, Texas. He stated that HUNTER also worked for MARSICO in Denison as did SPRINGFIELD.

LOUIS L. SPRINGFIELD, 2707 San Marcus Drive, a sales representative for Ashley Table & Furniture Corporation, Chicago, Illinois, advised that he was a gunnery sergeant in Headquarters Maintenance Squadron in the U. He said he used to be attached to the Triple 7 Helicopter Squadron. L.L. Springfield

Louis L. SPRINGFIELD advised that he has made numerous statements against the KENNEDYs, both ROBERT and JACK, concerning their policies and also against the administration. He said he has been very critical of the administration and their policies and has told numerous jokes about them. He advised that he cannot recall any conversation he had that was in a serious vein between the dates of October 30 and November 1, 1963, when he was at a display in the Minor-Mart Building in Dallas. He said he may have made the statement that if President KENNEDY did come to Dallas that he might be shot based upon the feelings of individuals he knew and the comments some of them had made. He said he probably did state that the individual that shot the President would probably get a medal. He said he definitely did not recall making any statement concerning the ordering of any guns or weapons through a mail order house. He advised that he may have said that it would be easy to shoot the President by hiding behind a railroad embuttment, but he said every remark he made was in jest and he would no more consider carrying out anything as foolish as this. He advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY were names he recently learned through the Presidential assassination and that he had never seen either of these individuals previously. As he said previously, he has been extremely critical at times of the KENNEDY administration and policies, but he was shocked to learn of the President's death, and he advised that he was shopping in northwest Dallas at the time with his wife and baby. He mentioned that at 12:15 he was eating in the Medallion Cafeteria in northwest Dallas, had ordered a corn beef sandwich and that the stove in the cafeteria was broken and they could not fix the sandwich for him so he obtained a bowl of soup. He said he is providing the above information in the event that someone desires to check out his story.

[illegible] FALCON, Bellboy, Eagle Hotel, advised that VICTOR N. STOKES registered November 19, 1963, and has occupied Room 219 since that time. He paid for the room on a daily basis, but since being in the hotel had been drunk most of the time. His registration card reflected that he was from Dallas, Texas, although he had made phone calls to Irving, Texas, apparently to a sister. His registration card reflected the address of 808 Edith Street, Dallas, Texas. On the day of the President's assassination he went in and told STOKES about and the latter jumped out of bed and asked if they had caught the person who did the shooting, and FALCON advised that they had and identified him by name as OSWALD. Subsequently when OSWALD was killed he notified STOKES of this and the latter then asked if they had arrested the fellow who killed OSWALD and when advised that it was RUBENSTEIN, STOKES repeated his question about three times as if he did not believe it.

He described STOKES as a man approximately 50 years old, skinny, short, weighing about 120 pounds. He has been short of money the last day and telephoned his sister at Irving, Texas, for money. No record of the call was maintained at the Hotel in view of the fact it was a collect call. FALCON reported the matter to the local Sheriff's Office and also indicated that STOKES was driving a 1957 red and white Mercury, two door sedan, which was then parked in the parking lot of the hotel. It had 1963 Texas license PA 5958.

Mr. WILLIAM H. BERRY was interviewed at the Albuquerque Division. He stated his permanent address is 217 South Sims, Columbia, South Carolina. He stated he is en route to Charlotte, North Carolina, where he will continue his employment with the Periodical Publishers Service Bureau located in the Wilder Building there. He said he is en route east from Salt Lake City, Utah, where he was employed by the same firm. He furnished the following information.

He is driving a gray 1963 Studebaker Lark sedan, bearing Florida license, and at 7:30 AM or 7:45 AM, November 23, 1963, after spending last night in Gallup, New Mexico, he was proceeding east on Highway 66. He stopped at a Texaco Station located on the south side of Highway 66 in the Grants, New Mexico, area. He parked his car on the street and merely went to the service station in order to use the rest room. There he joined a Spanish male employee at the Texaco Station in general conversation. During this conversation, the person he presumed to be manager walked in during the time the assassination of President KENNEDY was mentioned.

The manager mentioned that it was nothing but a gangster killing and that JACK RUBY is a known prominent gangster. The manager mentioned two $5,000 bets which were made that KENNEDY would not complete his trip on that particular procession or parade. Mr. BERRY assumed that these bets were made elsewhere than the Grants, New Mexico, area and could furnish no further details on the comments made by the manager. The manager did mention, however, that a gangster killing was behind the assassination.

Continuing the conversation, the manager stated there was a man in the station yesterday, November 24, 1963, who showed the manager $8,000 which he had won on an identical kind of bet, that is, that President KENNEDY would not complete the parade in which he was riding and in which he was killed. The unknown man allegedly mentioned to the manager that the $8,000 was tax free. Mr. BERRY described the manager as white male, 40 years, 6' tall, 140 pounds, slender build, reddish brown hair.

The Spanish boy was described as young, 175 pounds, 5'7" tall, rather husky build.

FELIX VORST, owner and operator of a Texaco Service Station located [illegible] West Santa Fe Avenue, Grants, New Mexico, was interviewed and it was determined that he is the person who talked to Mr. WILLIAM H. BERRY earlier that day. He acknowledged telling BERRY that a gangster killing was behind the President's assassination, and that a man was in his station November 24, 1963, claiming to have won an $8,000 bet.

At the outset of the interview, VORST appeared very nervous and stated numerous tourists from back East had recently stopped at his station stating that President KENNEDY's death was the work of gangsters and that bets could be made back East lately, to the effect that President KENNEDY would not last out his four-year term of office. When interviewed further, VORST stated that only one such person had made the above statement, that being last Saturday, November 23, 1963. This particular individual did not state that he had made such a bet or that he had won any money on this type of bet.

VORST also stated that to his knowledge no individuals have been into his station claiming they have won $5,000 bets on the fact that President KENNEDY would not complete his trip through Dallas, Texas.

Nevertheless, VORST stated that on November 24, 1963, an individual described as a white male, American, over 6' tall, heavy build approximately 60 years of age, driving a 1955 black four door Chevrolet, bearing Texas license unknown, came into his station and filled up with gasoline paying cash. This unknown individual stated that JACK RUBY was an ex jewel thief from Chicago, Illinois. This unknown individual also stated he had recently won $8,000 on a bet regarding the "KENNEDY deal." When further interviewed, VORST stated this unknown individual did not further specify or explain what he meant by the "KENNEDY deal." the station and heard this unknown individual make the above statement.

VORST stated he had not heard any other individuals make any type of statement concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY in regard to gambling bets being made on the fact that the President would be assassinated.

Dec November 22, 1963

ANDRES MARTINEZ was interviewed at his place of employment, Vorst's Texaco Station, 301 West Santa Fe Avenue, Grants, New Mexico. He stated that he remembers a heavy set individual over six feet tall, approximately 60 years of age, driving a 1959 black four door Chevrolet from Texas, stopping at the gasoline station yesterday, November 24, 1963, and engaging in a conversation with his employer, FELIX VORST. When this man paid for the gasoline which was put in his car, he came inside the gasoline station and briefly engaged in a conversation with VORST. Nevertheless, he knows nothing about their conversation, inasmuch as he was working at the grease rack during the short time this individual was inside the gasoline station talking to VORST.

He stated he did not hear this individual mention anything about winning a large sum of money on a bet that President KENNEDY would be assassinated, and in fact does not recall anything concerning the conversation he had with VORST.

The "Dallas Times Herald", Dallas, Texas, October 27, 1963, contained an article entitled "'Riot' Tag Denied by Demonstrator" which stated the demonstrations against United Nations Ambassador ADLAI STEVENSON were "grossly exaggerated" as having been a "near riot" according to LARRIE H. SCHMIDT, 5735 Gaston Avenue, the leader of 14 collegiate demonstrators. It quoted SCHMIDT as saying his group was made up of 14 college students who were all conservatives and opposed to ADLAI STEVENSON and the United Nations. He said none of his group entered the auditorium where STEVENSON spoke or was involved in any disturbances. The article referred to another article on the previous Friday in the "Dallas Times Herald" which stated a large band of demonstrators cheered, shouted and heckled United States Ambassador STEVENSON to the United Nations at the time of his speech on Thursday night (October 24, 1963) at the Dallas Memorial Auditorium. The previous article quoted a police officer has stated a student demonstrator spat on Mr. STEVENSON and caused "a near riot as a result of screaming and shouting". Mr. STEVENSON was also struck in the head by the sign of one demonstrator.

The October 27, 1963 article further quoted Mr. SCHMIDT as saying his group of demonstrators "were carrying on a protest that was no more and no less in keeping with a treasured and traditional American political activity, long utilized by factions both left and right, from labor unions to businessmen."

It further stated that SCHMIDT was asked if his group would picket President KENNEDY at the time of an expected visit to Dallas in November. SCHMIDT replied "We feel anyone has the right to picket against the President but we have too much respect for the office to picket Mr. KENNEDY in his coming visit here."

The "Dallas Morning News", on page 14, Section 1, on Friday, November 22, 1963, carried the following full-page advertisement:

"WELCOME MR. KENNEDY To Dallas...

"...A CITY so disgraced by a recent Liberal smear attempt that its citizens have just elected two more Conservative Americans to public office.

"...A CITY that is an economic 'boom town,' not because of Federal handouts, but through conservative economic and business practices.

"...A CITY that will continue to grow and prosper despite efforts by you and your administration to penalize it for its non-conformity to 'New Frontierism'.

"...A CITY that rejected your philosophy and policies in 1960 and will do so again in 1964--even more emphatically than before.

"MR. KENNEDY, despite contentions on the part of your administration, the State Department, the Mayor of Dallas, the Dallas City Council, and members of your party, we free-thinking and America-thinking citizens of Dallas still have, through a Constitution largely ignored by you, the right to address our grievances, to question you, to disagree with you, and to criticize you.

"In asserting this constitutional right, we wish to ask you publicly the following questions--indeed, questions of paramount importance and interest to all free peoples everywhere--which we trust you will answer...in public, without sophistry. These questions are:

"WHY is Latin America turning either anti-American or Communistic, or both, despite increased U.S. foreign aid, State Department policy, and your own Ivy-Tower pronouncements?

"WHY do you say we have built a 'wall of freedom' around Cuba when there is no freedom in Cuba today? Because of your "policy, thousands of Cubans have been imprisoned, are starving and being persecuted--with thousands already murdered and thousands more awaiting execution and, in addition, the entire population of almost 7,000,000 Cubans are living in slavery.

"WHY have you approved the sale of wheat and corn to our enemies when you know the Communist soldiers 'travel on their stomachs' just as ours do? Communist soldiers are daily wounding and/or killing American soldiers in South Viet Nam.

"WHY did you host, salute and entertain Tito -- Moscow's Trojan Horse -- just a short time after our sworn enemy, Khrushchev, embraced the Yugoslav dictator as a great hero and leader of Communism?

"WHY have you urged greater aid, comfort, recognition, and understanding for Yugoslavia, Poland, Hungary, and other Communist countries, while turning your back on the pleas of Hungarian, East German, Cuban and other anti-Communist freedom fighters?

"WHY did Cambonia kick the U. S. out of its country after we poured nearly 400 Million Dollars of aid into its ultra-leftist government?

"WHY has Gus Hall, head of the U. S. Communist Party praised almost every one of your policies and announced that the party will endorse and support your re-election in 1964?

"WHY have you banned the showing at U. S. military bases of the film 'Operation Abolition'--the movie by the House Committee on Un-American Activities exposing Communism in America?

"WHY have you ordered or permitted your brother Bobby, the Attorney General, to go soft on Communists, fellow-travelers, and ultra-leftists in America, while permitting him to persecute loyal Americans who criticize you, your administration, and your leadership?

WHB:jeg:mam

"WHY are you in favor of the U. S. continuing to give economic aid to Argentina, in spite of that fact that Argentina has just seized almost 400 Million Dollars of American private property?

"WHY has the Foreign Policy of the United States degenerated to the point that the C.I.A. is arranging coups and having staunch Anti-Communist Allies of the U. S. bloodily exterminated?

"WHY have you scrapped the Monroe Doctrine in favor of the 'Spirit of Moscow'?

Mr. GUSTAVE FALK, Director, Southwest Region, American Jewish Committee, 1809 Tower Petroleum Building, Dallas, Texas, advised that he and Mr. GEORGE KELLMAN, American Jewish Committee, Institute of Human Relations, were quite concerned over an ad which appeared in the Dallas Morning News on Page 14, Section 1, Friday, November 22, 1963.

He stated this ad was signed BERNARD WEISSMAN, "American Fact Finding Committee, Chairman," Post Office Box 1792, Dallas 21, Texas. He stated he would like to maintain close liaison with local FBI Agents in matters relating to extremists, activists, bigots, and subversive group actions in the Dallas and San Antonio, Texas, areas.

He stated he and Mr. KELLMAN had determined Mr. WEISSMAN is a 26 year old salesman, and it is hard for them to understand how he could afford to pay $1,500.00 for the ad, and they are attempting to determine who it was behind the ad.

He said that through contact with a source they would not like to identify they had determined BERNARD WEISSMAN and WILLIAM M. BURLEY reside together at 4618 Reiger Street, Apartment 7 in Dallas, Texas. Each of them had taken a job in the very recent past with the Carpet Engineering Company of Texas as salesmen in the Dallas area.

Contact with this company determined that they made no sales in the area, and WEISSMAN used a telephone number WH 2-7271; however, attempts to contact him at that number were unsuccessful, and the person answering the telephone stated he was not known there. A check of the Criss-Cross directory indicates the number is listed to WILLIAM CRAWFORD, 202 South Lancaster, whose identity had not been determined.

Mr. FALK advised that the sales manager, name not recalled, for the Carpet Company is described as a white male, about 5'7", dark olive complexion. The sales manager went to the Reiger Street address on the night of November 26, 1963, for the purpose of obtaining the Carpet sales kits which were in possession of WEISSMAN and BURLEY, both of

Mr. GEORGE KELLMAN, American Jewish Committee, Institute of Human Relations, 1809 Tower Petroleum Building, Dallas, Texas, advised that his office is at 165 East 56th Street, New York 22, New York, telephone number PLaza 1-4000. Mr. KELLMAN voluntarily appeared at the Dallas Office and advised that he wanted to furnish additional information to that given SA ARTHUR E. CARTER in an interview on November 27, 1963. He said that he had determined that WEISSMAN had received local telephone calls while attending sales meetings at the Carpet Company from a LARRY SCHNEIDER (who is listed as a reference of WEISSMAN on his application for employment with the Carpet Company).

Mr. KELLMAN said on Friday, November 22, 1963, WEISSMAN received a call from a person who identified himself as LARRY JONES, but this person's voice was believed by an unidentified witness to be identical with LARRY SCHNEIDER. This JONES told WEISSMAN they would meet at the same place where the "brothers meet for lunch." Mr. KELLMAN said he thought this information might have some significance; however, he was unable to explain it further.

Mr. KELLMAN advised that he has determined from a source whose identity he cannot divulge but one whom he believes to be reliable that Col. MAYO, who is connected with the Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company and present head of Civilian Defense in Dallas, Texas, knew about the ad in question several days before it was published, and he reiterated the fact that WEISSMAN paid $500.00 on the ad before it was published and paid the balance after publication, and he is still at a loss to know how he obtained this large amount of money. Mr. KELLMAN said that he had also learned that the complete ad was reproduced in The Worker bearing an advance date of December 1, 1963, on Page 6, and additional material is around the ad which covers a full page tabloid size.

1 Date 12/4/63

Mr. NORMAN SIEGEL, Manager, Carpet Engineers of Dallas, 2006 South Beckley, telephone WHitehall 3-7371, home telephone ADams 5-0607, advised that BERNARD D. WEISSMAN had answered an advertisement in the newspapers and had been employed by Carpet Engineers about November 6, 1963. SIEGEL stated that WEISSMAN had applied for a position as salesman for the firm and with him was WILLIAM M. BURLEY, who was likewise employed by the firm as a salesman. He understood that WEISSMAN and BURLEY had served in the United States Army together and had recently come from New York City. WEISSMAN and BURLEY worked for the Carpet Engineers up to, and including November 22, 1963, but did not report for work thereafter. SIEGEL said that as salesmen, they went out together on appointments but did not make any sales while working for the company. When WEISSMAN made application for a job, he requested that his phone number not be given out to anyone and SIEGEL said that he heard from someone, whose name he does not recall, that WEISSMAN was engaged in politics. WEISSMAN received telephone calls every day from a man who gave his name as LARRIE SCHMIDT. SIEGEL stated that to the best of his recollection, WEISSMAN was attending a sales meeting at 2006 South Beckley on November 22, 1963, from sometime in the morning until about 12:00 Noon. At noon on Friday, the men came out of the sales meeting and someone asked WEISSMAN if he had paid for the full page ad which had appeared in "The Dallas Morning News". WEISSMAN acknowledged that he had inserted and paid for the ad. SIEGEL did not know of any other income that WEISSMAN or BURLEY had but remembered that on that morning, WEISSMAN received a telephone call and when the operator told the caller that WEISSMAN was tied up in a conference, the individual left a message to the effect that LARRY JONES had called and wanted to meet him (WEISSMAN) where his brother hangs out for lunch. It was believed by SIEGEL that this was just a few minutes before President KENNEDY was assassinated and when the message was called to the attention of WEISSMAN, WEISSMAN said something like "Somebody is crazy, I don't know anyone named LARRY JONES".

It was SIEGEL's recollection that WEISSMAN attended all of the sales meeting on that date but he said that WILLIAM M. BURNEY did not come into the Carpet Engineers office on Beckley until about 2:00 PM on November 22, 1963. BURNEY did not attend the sales meeting that morning.

SIEGEL said that FRANK DiMARIA, the Sales Manager for Carpet Engineers of Dallas, had gone out to WEISSMAN's and BURNEY's apartment and picked up a kit which had been issued to them by the company. It was his recollection that DiMARIA had told him that WEISSMAN and BURNEY had 2 or 3 other people in the apartment when he came out and picked up the kit.

SIEGEL recalled that WEISSMAN listed employment with Great Books, 300 Madison Avenue, New York City, and requested the company not to check on this employment because he said he was still working for them and they owed him money. He said he was afraid he would not get his money if they knew he was employed elsewhere.

SIEGEL stated that he had no knowledge that either WEISSMAN or BURNEY were acquaintances of JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

SIEGEL made available verifax copies of WEISSMAN's application for employment which is dated November 6, 1963, and signed by WEISSMAN. WEISSMAN's Social Security Number is listed as 113-28-1879 and his residence shown as 4618 Reiger, Dallas, Texas. He was born November 1, 1937, and stated he was a United States citizen. His employer was listed as Carpet Engineers, Inc., 2006 Beckley, Dallas, Texas, and his position was salesman. He listed his marital status as married and stated that he held no interest in real estate. His personal property consisted of a 1957 Ford convertible automobile, valued at $675.00. There were no debts or liabilities listed and he said he did not have any private income. He said he had been in the costume jewelry business working on the party plan but had been drafted in the United States Army. WEISSMAN had never been bankrupt or insolvent according to his application, and had never been in arrears or default in a previous employment. The application showed that he had never been discharged from any position but had been bonded while employed by the Underwood-Olivetti Corporation, and the Great Books of the Western World. He did not know the names of the surety companies. He listed his wife as JANE WEISSMAN, Rural Free Delivery 4, Jefferson Valley, New York, and stated from June, 1956 to December, 1957, he was employed by the Nuclear Development Corporation, White Plains, New York, as a model and tool maker by Dr. A. E. SUROSKY.

He was terminated because of a layoff. In January 1957 to July, 1961, he was employed by the Jayne Williams Company, Inc. and American Sellers of Music, Inc. as President and Sales Manager, at 1108 Clinton Avenue, Irvington, New Jersey, and 160 Renner Avenue, Newark, New Jersey. He left this employment because he was drafted. He listed employment from June, 1960 to July, 1961 with the Underwood-Olivetti Corporation, Broad Street, Newark, New Jersey, as a sales supervisor, under FRANK SELLERS, Sales Manager, but was drafted. He served in the United States Army from August, 1961 to August, 1963, being discharged. From September, 1963, to October, 1963, he was employed by Great Books, 300 Madison Avenue, New York City, as district manager under ART GARDINER. He left this employment to re-locate in Dallas. He listed his military service discharge as being honorable, attaining the rank of Corporal, E-4, MPC (Military Police), Serial Number US 51474607. His references were LARRY SCHMIDT, insurance salesman, 5735 Gaston Avenue, Dallas, Texas, and SOL WEIL, President-Owner, Swiss Knitting Mills, 5 Stanwix Street, Brooklyn, New York.

He made an application again on November 6, 1963, listing the person to be notified in case of accident as HARRY WEISSMAN, 439 South Columbus Avenue, Mount Vernon, New York, telephone MO 4-6994. WEISSMAN signed an agreement on November 21, 1963, to pay Carpet Engineers, Inc., 345 North Cannon Drive, Beverly Hills, California, the sum of $300 for one complete kit and samples. He also signed a sales executive agreement which is in blank and not signed by the company. His Employee's Withholding Exemption Certificate reflected that WEISSMAN had one dependent.

WILLIAM M. BURLEY likewise signed application for employment on November 6, 1963, with Carpet Engineers, Inc., listing his Social Security Number as 218-30-6968. He was married and had four persons to support. He gave references as LARRY SCHMIDT, 5735 Gaston, Dallas, and BERNARD MAIER, 6018 Eastern Avenue, Baltimore, phone ME 3-8095. In case of accident, MARY BURLEY, 724 East Morehead, Charlotte, North Carolina, phone ED 2-8410, was to be notified. His wife was listed as WINIFRED BURLEY, 7039 Conley Street, Baltimore, Maryland, phone 282-0454 and his children were listed as BILL, DAVE and MELANIE. WILLIAM M. BURNEY served in the United States Army as a policeman at $122.50 per month from August, 1961, to August, 1963, and was discharged. From June, 1959, to August, 1961, he was employed by the Albright Boat Company, Pineville, North Carolina as sales manager at $200 per month. He left this employment because he was drafted. From September, 1958, to June, 1959, he received $150 per week while sales manager of the West Toledo Marine, Toledo, Ohio, leaving for a better position. From September, 1956, to September, 1958, he received $150 per week as district manager for the Trojan Boat Company, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, leaving there because of a pay cut. He worked for the Fuller Brush Company, Baltimore, Maryland, as a salesman at $125 per week from August, 1953, to August, 1958, leaving because he wanted to travel. In another application for a surety bond, to the Fidelity Insurance Company at 111 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois, he stated his residence was 4618 Apartment 7, Reiger, Dallas, Texas. He was born July 17, 1935, and is a United States citizen. He listed his father's name as WILLIAM M. BURLEY, 729 East Morehead Street, Charlotte, North Carolina, and his mother, MARY M. Mr. FRANK DiMARIA, Sales Manager, Carpet Engineers of Dallas, 2006 South Beckley, who resides at 2441 Connecticut Lane, advised that BERNARD WEISSMAN and WILLIAM M. BURNEY were formerly employed at Carpet Engineers, Inc. in Dallas for about 2 or 3 weeks. They worked through November 22, 1963, and did not show up for work thereafter. DiMARIA received word that WEISSMAN called the company headquarters and requested that the kit which had been issued to them in their sales work be picked up on Tuesday, November 26, 1963. DiMARIA stated that he went to 4618 Reiger Street where WEISSMAN and BURNEY were living together in an apartment there and picked up the kit which had been issued by the company. When he called for the kit, WILLIAM M. BURNEY was also present as was WEISSMAN, and a well dressed young man and his wife, and three other men. He estimated that all of these people were in their 20's. When DiMARIA talked to WEISSMAN, WEISSMAN wanted to know if anyone was looking for him. DiMARIA stated that this had reference to the full page ad which appeared in "The Dallas Morning News", which advertisement was signed by the American Fact Finding Committee with BERNARD WEISSMAN as chairman. When DiMARIA told them he did not know if they were looking for them, WEISSMAN stated that the ad was badly timed and that his organization wanted to kick themselves for putting the ad in the newspaper. WEISSMAN also added that he had a lot of money and power behind him. It was DiMARIA's belief that WEISSMAN had told him that he was going on vacation for about three weeks and that he was sorry he placed the ad in the newspaper.

WEISSMAN introduced DiMARIA to all persons present except BURNEY, whom he knew, but he did not remember the names. From the dress of the couple he described it as their being dressed college style and that they wore expensive clothing. DiMARIA saw some kind of a newspaper on a desk in the apartment, the newspaper being about tabloid size, but he does not recall the name of the newspaper. He only recalls that the newspaper on the desk had a picture of JOE STALIN with a uniform on and the area around STALIN's picture was shaded in some manner. He believed that the newspaper said something about "Workers Union" and he did not believe that it was a regular newspaper.

DiMARIA did not know of any income that either WEISSMAN or BURNEY had and did not know of any associates of BURNEY and Mrs. MARGUERITE A. ROBERTS, manager of apartment house located at 4618 Reiger Street, who resides in Apartment 5 there, stated that WILLIAM M. BURLEY and BERNARD WEISSMAN came to her during the first part of November, 1963, and wanted to rent an apartment. She talked to BERNARD WEISSMAN, who told her that he and BURNEY had just been discharged from the United States Army and that they only had $100. WEISSMAN persuaded her to accept $62.50 for a two week period until one of them could get a job. She believed that this was on the night of November 5, 1963, and she recalled that WEISSMAN stated that they had been staying with friends on Gaston Avenue in Dallas.

She stated that on the afternoon of November 27, 1963, BERNARD WEISSMAN came to her between 4:00 and 5:00 PM, telling her that he had received a telegram calling him home to New York. He requested that she forward any mail for BURNEY or himself to General Delivery, New York City. She made available mail which had been received since the depature of WEISSMAN and BURNEY, including a card from RICHARD K. MARKS, Assistant Cashier, Republic National Bank, Dallas, which had been inserted in the door. The letters, all addressed to WILLIAM M. BURNEY, bear the following return addresses:

El Paso, Texas

Post Office Box 5715
Caramel, California

24 Rope Ferry Road
Waterford, Connecticut

The letter from El Paso appeared to be a personal letter, Mrs. ROBERTS stated, and the other two letters she said were probably advertising material. She did not know RICHARD K. MARKS of the Republic National Bank of Dallas and did not know why he had contacted them. She stated she had seen JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television and said that she had never seen either of them at the apartment of BURNEY and WEISSMAN and that she was not personally acquainted with either OSWALD or RUBY.

During conversations with WEISSMAN and BURNEY, Mrs. ROBERTS said that WEISSMAN always did the talking and BURNEY said very little.

She recalled that the mail which had come for BURNEY, had arrived on December 2, 1963, and that she was going to forward it to General Delivery, New York City.

She advised that on the morning of December 3, 1963, some advertising material had been received by BURNEY, addressed to 4618 Reiger Avenue, Apartment 7, Dallas, Texas, from Merlite Industries, 114 East 32nd Street, New York, New York.

Mrs. ROBERTS stated that they drove a reddish yellow Fairlane convertible with a black top bearing New York license plate WH 2815. She said that on one occasion she saw the full page advertisement appearing in "The Dallas Morning News" signed by the American Fact Finding Committee, BERNARD WEISSMAN, Chairman, and she asked WEISSMAN if he had placed that in the paper. WEISSMAN stated that he had placed the ad but stated that he had been questioned and had been released as his questioners had nothing on him. Mrs. ROBERTS did not know who the questioners were, if in fact, WEISSMAN had been questioned.

Mrs. ROBERTS said when they were leaving the apartment, WEISSMAN told her that he had received a telegram on Wednesday morning about 2:00 AM, that being November 27, 1963, and that as a result, they were going home. They left some bedding and other material there. WEISSMAN stated that BERNIE SMITH would come and pick it up. She said it was not until Friday morning, November 29, 1963, that BERNIE SMITH came to her apartment and picked up the belongings of BURNEY and WEISSMAN, which had been taken out of Apartment 7, which they occupied and placed in the storeroom. She remembered that they had a big beer dispenser and keg inside of it and some papers

Mrs. ROBERTS advised she obtained the license number of BERNIE SMITH's car which bore Texas license NY 8889. She stated that an individual called her number on Monday night, November 25, 1963, stating she was Mrs. SMITH and requested that

BERNIE, meaning BERNARD WEISSMAN, called her at EM 8-4244 between 6:00 and 6:30 PM. Mrs. ROBERTS called this number and the people acknowledged being named SMITH but claimed they did not know WEISSMAN. She said that the Dallas Criss Cross Directory reflects that this number is listed in the name JOHN R. SMITH, 6731 Norway in Dallas.

Mrs. ROBERTS noted on some of the papers in the apartment, when she cleaned up, was the address 5735 Gaston. WEISSMAN and BURNEY had some pamphlets in the apartment concerning politics, one book being by Senator TOWER which BERNIE SMITH picked up when he called for their belongings.

She recalled that on about November 15, 1963, someone called her in an attempt to contact WEISSMAN and the caller indicated that WEISSMAN was to attend a Southern Methodist University rally and someone was to pick him up.

Mrs. ROBERTS said she did not know where either of them worked and stated that BERNIE SMITH was much younger than WEISSMAN and BURNEY and could have been a college student.

Mrs. ROBERTS stated that WEISSMAN and BURNEY had two telephones in the apartment, one in one room and one in another. She did not know whether it was one telephone with an extension or whether they had had two telephones installed. She said it was mysterious to her when the telephone was taken out because no one appeared at her apartment to ask her for admittance to the apartment and she therefore did not know when the telephone was disconnected. She said they did not put up a deposit on the apartment.

RICHARD K. MARKS, Assistant Cashier, Republic National Bank, Dallas, Texas, on December 3, 1963, advised SAs W. HARLAN BROWN and EDWIN D. KUYKENDALL that he met BERNARD WEISSMAN and WILLIAM M. BURLEY on about November 12, 1963, when BURLEY was at the Republic National Bank considering opening a bank account. He understood WEISSMAN was only there with BURLEY and was not engaged in any business transaction himself although WEISSMAN was heard to remark that he might want to open an account later at that bank. BURLEY told Mr. MARKS on about November 26, 1963, that he thought the check he has used in opening his account at the bank might possibly be returned because of insufficient funds; that his father might not have enough funds in his account in North Carolina to cover same.

Mr. MARKS understood that BURLEY and WEISSMAN were in the armed forces together and were good friends. He believes they are both friends of one LARRIE H. SCHMIDT, an employee of Mutual of New York, Dallas, Texas. He believes SCHMIDT would know a great deal about BERNARD WEISSMAN's background and activities. He said SCHMIDT is a "right winger" and has been very outspoken in his thinking as a "right winger". He said SCHMIDT is a friend of WARREN CARROLL, 4326 Mc Kinney Avenue, Dallas, a writer employed by "Lifeline", an enterprize believed controlled by H. L. HUNT, a wealthy Dallas oil man.

Mr. MARKS said LARRIE SCHMIDT on December 3, 1963, told him that he thought BURLEY had gone to South Texas "for the holidays" and presumed WEISSMAN may have gone with him.

Mr. MARKS stated he has no information indicating WEISSMAN and BURLEY are affiliated with any specific organizations. Mr. MARKS does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY and has no information that would indicate any association between WEISSMAN and BURLEY with either OSWALD or RUBY.

Records of the Republic National Bank, Dallas, Texas, reflect WILLIAM M. BURIEY, 4611 Roger, Apartment 7, Dallas, Texas, opened an account there, number 69-304-9 on November 12, 1963. He listed his occupation as with Garret Engineers of Dallas, 2006 South Beckley, Dallas. He listed a bank reference as Maryland Trust Company, Highland Town Branch, Baltimore, Maryland. This account was opened with a $50 check dated November 2, 1963, drawn on the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, Greensboro, North Carolina, account number 9-205-988. The check was signed "WILLIAM M. BURIEY" and was made payable to "WILLIAM M. BURIEY" on personalized check form bearing the printing "WILLIAM M. BURIEY, Box 1435, Greensboro, North Carolina". This check has been sent through bank channels for collection and has been returned both times marked "insufficient funds".

On November 26, 1963, an "official check" (same as cashier's check) in the amount of $50.00, drawn on the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, Greensboro, North Carolina, dated November 22, 1963, was cashed by the Republic National Bank, Dallas. That check bears a rubber stamp impression showing the teller's initials as R.C. who cashed that check. The check was payable to WILLIAM M. BURIEY. Cash was given for that check and it was not deposited to BURIEY's account at the Republic National Bank. The $50.00 check that BURIEY used in opening the account at the Republic National Bank as of December 3, 1963, remained in possession of the Republic National Bank without being paid by the bank on which it was drawn.

The Republic National Bank received a letter dated November 22, 1963, from I. B. MERRIMAN, JR., Manager, Credit Department, Maryland National Bank, Baltimore, Maryland, advising WILLIAM M. BURIEY had a noninterest bearing checking account at that bank from July, 1960 to April, 1961, which as of November 22, 1963, was a closed account. That letter was in reply to inquiry by the Republic National Bank.

LARRIE H. SCHMIDT, 4015 Simpson, Apartment 19, Dallas, an insurance salesman employed by Mutual of New York, 2505 Turtle Creek Boulevard, Dallas, opened a checking account at the Republic National Bank, Dallas, on June 18, 1963.

Mr. RUSSELL G. [illegible], [illegible], 1602 Kirby Building, advised that Mr. GERALD KELLMAN, American Jewish Committee, Institute of Human Relations, had given the Dallas FBI Office most of the information he had concerning the advertisement which had appeared in the "Dallas Morning News" of November 22, 1963. This ad was signed by BERNARD WEISSMAN, purporting to represent The American Fact Finding Committee, as Chairman.

He said that he had received information from informants to the effect that Colonel MATO, who is head of the local Civil Defense in Dallas, Texas, had seen the advertisement which had appeared in the "Dallas Morning News" before it was published in that newspaper. Mr. GINSBERG declined to identify his informants but said that he is convinced that the persons responsible for placing the ad in the newspaper used the name of a young Jewish boy who had just come to Dallas and that it was his belief that The American Fact Finding Committee was a name only and there was no such organization. He said he would not divulge the name of his informants and that this was a surmise on his part but that he understood that the people connected with the National Indignation Convention in Dallas, which had protested Yugoslav officer training in the United States, people connected with General EDWIN WALKER, and the John Birch Society were responsible for raising the funds for the full page ad in the "Dallas Morning News." He said that he surmised that some of the officials of the "Dallas Morning News" had read and approved the publication of this advertisement when it was submitted to that newspaper. He also surmised that the ad had no actual connection with the assassination of President KENNEDY, nor did it pertain to the murder of OSWALD by JACK RUBY.

Mr. GINSBERG, who is a former law partner of U. S. Attorney BAREFOOT SANDERS, advised that RONNIE DUGGER, a reporter, is currently serving as a correspondent for the "Washington Post" and was going to write an article concerning the placing of this advertisement in the "Dallas Morning News."

Mr. GINSBERG stated that BERNARD WEISSMAN had left Dallas and he did not know his whereabouts. He believed that

Mrs. DICK HITT advised she received a telephone call from a woman who refused to furnish her name and stated she was calling for BERNARD WISEMAN and that she was WISEMAN's secretary. The woman stated since Mrs. HITT was the wife of DICK HITT who has a daily column in the Dallas Times Herald she wanted Mr. and Mrs. HITT to start a campaign in Mr. HITT's column to deport Mrs. OSWALD and the children, and a campaign should also be started to ban Mrs. OSWALD and the children from society in the Dallas area. The woman stated that a committee should be formed to burn the home of the PAINEs with whom Mrs. OSWALD is residing. The woman asked Mrs. HITT if she would sign a petition to aid RUBY in his trial which would be held in the near future for the shooting of OSWALD. Mrs. HITT advised the last comment made by the woman was to the effect that Mrs. OSWALD should be done away with.

STANLEY MARCUS, Neiman-Marcus, Dallas, Texas, advised that he was in New York on November 22, 1963, and had been there for several days. He received a full page advertisement from the Dallas Morning News of November 22, 1963, while he was in New York on November 23, 1963, and at that time called Dallas and gave instructions to an employee of his who is also active in the American Jewish Committee to determine who was responsible for the full page advertisement which was attributed to the American Fact-Finding Committee, BERNARD WEISSMAN, Chairman. He stated this employee determined that WEISSMAN was an itinerant rug peddler who had been in Dallas only a short period, and facts were developed indicating the probable origin of the funds paying for the advertisement, at which point Mr. MARCUS instructed this employee to make the information available to the FBI.

Mr. MARCUS stated at the time of the assassination and immediately following this when he saw the advertisement, he thought there was some possible connection between the advertisement and the person or persons responsible for the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, although in the light of further developments he does not now have this opinion.

LARRIE HENRY SCHMIDT, [illegible], Apartment E, Dallas, Texas, advised that he is employed as an insurance salesman by Mutual of New York, 2505 Turtle Creek Boulevard, Dallas. He advised that BERNARD WEISSMAN and WILLIAM M. BURLEY are two friends of his who served in the U. S. Army with him at Munich, Germany, during 1962. All three then were attached to the Headquarters, Southern Area Command, U. S. Army, at Munich. They spoke then about Dallas and how well he, SCHMIDT, liked Dallas. BURLEY and WEISSMAN said then they would like to come to Dallas and at least visit SCHMIDT there after they got out of service. SCHMIDT originally resided at Lincoln, Nebraska. SCHMIDT entered the Army in 1954 and was discharged in 1957 as an enlisted man. He then worked for a while in 1959 as editor of the Culver City Citizen, Culver City, California. After that he again served in the U. S. Army from 1959 to October, 1962. SCHMIDT has resided in Dallas since October, 1962. He has on occasions corresponded with his friend, BERNARD WEISSMAN who after being released from the Army in about August, 1963, resided at Mt. Vernon, New York. Recently WEISSMAN and his wife separated and WEISSMAN decided to come to Dallas more or less toward seeking a new location because of his domestic difficulties and pending divorce proceedings. WEISSMAN, accompanied by WILLIAM BURLEY, arrived in Dallas around the first of November, 1963. WEISSMAN had been employed as a salesman at or near Mt. Vernon, New York. His permanent home address was 439 South Columbus Avenue, Mt. Vernon, New York, c/o his father, name unknown.

He said that he (SCHMIDT) at about the time BERNARD WEISSMAN and BURLEY arrived in Dallas, conceived the idea of placing an advertisement in a newspaper pertaining to President KENNEDY's visit to Dallas on November 22, 1963. He exhibited a newspaper clipping entitled "'Riot' Tag Denied by Demonstrator" which article had appeared in the "Dallas Times Herald", Dallas, Texas, October 27, 1963.

He said that article pertained to a demonstration put on by college students when ADLAI STEVENSON, United Nations Ambassador, visited in Dallas shortly before that date. The article identified himself as the leader of the collegiate demonstrators. SCHMIDT said he had told the "Dallas Times Herald" that the 14 students participating in that demonstration were from the University of Dallas, Irving, Texas. He said these students did some picketing at the time of ADLAI STEVENSON's appearance in Dallas but these students were not the ones who struck or "spat" upon STEVENSON at that time. SCHMIDT said the students were only picketing in an orderly manner. SCHMIDT said he himself is not a student.

SCHMIDT described himself as a "conservative" and felt that no demonstration such as picketing should be given at an appearance of a President of the United States but he felt that some type of activity should be engaged in which would indicate disapproval of President KENNEDY's policies. He therefore conceived the idea of inserting an ad in the newspaper instead of engaging in any other type of a demonstration. He first considered placing his own name in the ad. BERNARD WEISSMAN appeared in Dallas at about the time he was thinking about this ad. He said BERNARD WEISSMAN is a "good conservative" and is of the Jewish Faith. SCHMIDT said on numerous occasions "anti-Semitism charges" had been made against "conservatives" and he thought the use of BERNARD WEISSMAN's name in the ad would to some extent counteract the anti-Semitism charges that had been leveled against "conservatives". He believed the appearance of the name of a person of the Jewish faith in such an ad might attract persons of that faith to reply to the ad. Also SCHMIDT said he was interested in finding out if replies would prove "left wing" persons are just as anti-Semitic as persons in the "right wing". It was decided, therefore, that BERNARD WEISSMAN's name with his permission would be placed in the ad. He said the ad was written as if an organization known as The American Fact Finding Committee had inserted it with BERNARD WEISSMAN being shown as its chairman. SCHMIDT said that there is no such organization as The American Fact Finding Committee; that it is simply a name thought of by him for this advertisement. He said no organization participated in the preparation or placing of this ad in the "Dallas Morning News" which appeared on November 22, 1963. He said it was written by himself at his apartment at 5735 Gaston and was assisted some in its preparation by JOSEPH P. GRINNAN, 4640 Southern, Dallas, an independent oil man who has an office in the Wilson Building, Dallas. He said he began writing this advertisement by himself about a week before it was taken.

to the "Dallas Morning News"; that he and GRINNAN took it to the "Dallas Morning News" four or five days before the ad appeared. The ad cost $1463. The funds to pay for same were solicited by Mr. GRINNAN from prominent Dallas businessmen. That amount of money was said to have been contributed by five or six prominent Dallas businessmen whose names he does not know. He denied that any organization backed this ad and said it was handled by himself and GRINNAN only as individuals.

SCHMIDT stated Post Office Box 1792, Dallas 21, Texas, was rented by BERNARD WEISSMAN one or two days before the ad was placed. SCHMIDT said it was felt there was a "great basis for the ad" but said the ad would never have been placed had they known what they know now. He said "conservatives" are not pro-KENNEDY but certainly they did not wish him any personal harm. He said he and GRINNAN wanted to place tough questions in the ad in order to put President KENNEDY on the spot regarding such questions, but certainly there was no desire to cause him any physical harm.

SCHMIDT said WEISSMAN and BURNEY did not come to Dallas specifically in connection with the placing of this ad and in fact had nothing to do with the ad until after they had arrived in Dallas. SCHMIDT said he and JOSEPH P. GRINNAN are both members of the John Birch Society but their activities in connection with this ad were solely as individuals. SCHMIDT does not know if GRINNAN is affiliated with any other organizations but knows of none. SCHMIDT said he (SCHMIDT) also is a member of Young Americans for Freedom, which has headquarters at Washington, D.C., Post Office Box 1731. He identified it as a national "conservative" organization, the primary function of which is to inform and interest young persons of high school and college age concerning "conservative" politics. He said by "conservative" he means conservation of the United States Constitution and Bill of Rights; preservation of our freedoms and our traditional way of life; and preservation of individual responsibilities rather than collective responsibilities.

He said President KENNEDY has put it beautifully as "not what your country can do for you but what you can do for it", and further defining the word "conservative" he said responsibility should start with the individual and be retained on a family or local level as opposed to the "big brother" aspect of "welfare state at the Federal Government level". SCHMIDT identified the John Birch Society as a patriotic organization, the basic function of which is to fight Communism by informing people of the threat of Communism at the grass roots level.

SCHMIDT stated WEISSMAN and BURLEY left Dallas on November 27, 1963, and as of the time of this interview were supposed to be in El Paso, Texas, visiting BURLEY's brother, full name unknown. He said BURLEY has in the past resided at Baltimore, Maryland. They left Dallas because the reaction to the advertisement bearing WEISSMAN's name was far greater with the assassination of President KENNEDY than it would have been otherwise. He said WEISSMAN was employed by Carpet Engineers of Dallas but lost his job there. The Jewish Welfare Committee in Dallas was trying desperately to find WEISSMAN and numerous other persons were trying to get in touch with him. He said BERNARD obtained the mail from Post Office Box 1792, Dallas, the first time after the ad appeared and found 25 correspondents who favored the ad and 27 who opposed the ad. SCHMIDT said those favoring the ad were written prior to the time of President KENNEDY's assassination and those opposing were written subsequent to the assassination. The second time WEISSMAN obtained the mail from that Post Office box a large man wearing a "ten gallon hat" appeared to be waiting for him and tried to follow him from the Post Office. He said WEISSMAN did not know the man's identity. He said BERNARD told him "if there are the kind of "nuts" on the other side who don't hesitate to attack and kill the President of the United States, there are some who wouldn't hesitate to do the same to me". SCHMIDT said WEISSMAN being afraid of possible physical harm to himself left Dallas. SCHMIDT recalled WEISSMAN also had been interviewed by a representative of the "Dallas Morning News" on November 23 following which an article appeared in that newspaper on November 24, concerning that interview with WEISSMAN.

SCHMIDT stated he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY. He further stated that BERNARD WEISSMAN, WILLIAM BURLEY and JOSEPH P. GRINNAN do not know either OSWALD or RUBY so far as he knows.

BERNARD WILLIAM WEISSMAN, 439 South Columbus Avenue, Mount Vernon, New York, was advised of the identities of the interviewing Special Agents, that he did not have to make any statement, that any statement he did make could be used in a court of law, and that he had the right to consult an attorney. WEISSMAN indiciated he understood this and stated he desired to cooperate fully.

WEISSMAN advised that he first met LARRIE SCHMIDT while both were serving in the United States Army in Germany in August, 1962. SCHMIDT had formed an organization called Conservatism U.S.A. (CUSA). The membership of this organization consisted of individuals at that time in the Armed Services.

After WEISSMAN's discharge from the United States Army, he maintained contact with SCHMIDT and WILLIAM BURLEY, another individual whom he had met while in the United States Army.

According to WEISSMAN, SCHMIDT, BURLEY, and himself had made long range plans to utilize their conservative political convictions to further their chances in the business world. SCHMIDT called WEISSMAN from Dallas, Texas, in the early morning of the day after ADLAI STEVENSON, United States Ambassador to the United Nations, had been assaulted by pickets in Dallas, Texas. At that time, SCHMIDT urged WEISSMAN to come to Dallas for business purposes. SCHMIDT also commented concerning the assault of Ambassador STEVENSON, stating that he had organized some of the picketing, but that he was not responsible for the assault.

WEISSMAN furnished the following handwritten letter, which was received by WEISSMAN from LARRIE SCHMIDT on November 1, 1963:

Dear BERNIE & BILL:

To much has happened in the past few days. I don't know where to begin. First of all, what appeared at first to have been a great blunder of ours has rapidly turned into a great victory. I refer to STEVENSON incident.

You must understand, that I personally had nothing to do with the sign-hitting and spitting incidents. Secondly, the press reports were so outrageously exaggerated it is unbelievable. This, plus the fact our mayor and City Council have issued an official apology on behalf of Dallas, has aroused the scorn and anger of all Dallasites, the overwhelming majority of whom are right wingers.

The ultra liberals of Dallas, led by STANLEY MARCUS of Neiman-Marcus went too far in pressuring for denunciation of "extremists" and "Fascists" in Dallas. As a result, a bomb has exploded everywhere here against them. This town is a battleground and that is no joke. Never before have Dallas conservatives from the GOP to the John Birch Society ever been so strongly united.

And, in the middle of it is myself. Thus far, I am the only organizer of the demonstration to have publicly identified himself. I have been interviewed by UPI, AP, the two local daily newspapers, TV stations, CBS, and local radio. I am a hero to the right -- a stormtrooper to the left.

I have been beseiged by calls, some threatening my life. It is both hell and fun, but not at the same time.

All details when you arrive. In any event, due to this international incident, I have become, overnight, a "fearless spokesman" and "leader" of the right wing in Dallas. What I worked so hard for in one year -- and nearly failed -- finally came through one incident, in one night!

Politically, CUSA is set. It is now up to you two to get Ambus going. We need Ambus financing bad. Have arranged for you to meet and talk with many people. Jop opportunities set up -- so are business opportunities, such as DuCharme Club. Again, I promise nothing. What you achieve is up to you. All I can do is pave the way.

You shall find it all interesting!

Your friend,

LARRIE"

In answer to this letter, WEISSMAN and BURLEY left in WEISSMAN's automobile from Mount Vernon, New York, on November 2, 1963, and arrived in Dallas, Texas, on November 4, 1963. WEISSMAN stated that the main purpose of his trip to Dallas was to participate with BURLEY and SCHMIDT in a business enterprise entitled "Ambus", which WEISSMAN described as a holding company to oversee business interests that these three individuals intended to operate. The first business operation that they intended to operate was the DuCharme Club located on Haskell Avenue, Dallas, Texas. However, according to WEISSMAN, when they first personally inspected the DuCharme Club they felt that it was not worth their efforts to go into the operation further.

WEISSMAN also stated that his secondary purpose for going to Dallas, Texas, was political, that is, he decided that this would be the proper area for him to get started in Conservative politics. WEISSMAN described himself as a Conservative on international issues, but a Liberal on national issues. By this, he explained that he was very much in favor of integration and civil rights and other programs which he associated with the Liberal groups in the United States, but that with regard to international dealings of the United States, he considered himself more closely associated with the Conservative outlook.

WEISSMAN freely admitted that he had sought to use his political connections to further his business opportunities.

Upon his arrival in Dallas, WEISSMAN and BURLEY met with SCHMIDT, and SCHMIDT again informed them that he, SCHMIDT, had organized twelve Dallas college students in a protest against Ambassador STEVENSON, but again denied any responsibility for the assault on Ambassador STEVENSON.

Upon the decision not to go any further with the DuCharme Club, WEISSMAN obtained a job as a salesman with Carpet Engineers of Dallas. He stated that he received no salary or commission for the time he was employed by the Carpet Engineers. His sole means of subsistence was $200 that he brought with him to Dallas, and the occasional use of a credit card of SCHMIDT's to buy necessary items for his apartment at 4618 Reiger Street, Dallas, Texas.

WEISSMAN stated that SCHMIDT discussed the Conservative group activity in Dallas, Texas, and stated that they should do something for the then pending arrival of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. SCHMIDT decided that a demonstration against President KENNEDY would not be in order, and therefore the only thing that they could do would be to place an ad in one of the Dallas newspapers indicating disapproval of President KENNEDY's policies. SCHMIDT was the individual who drew up the format of the advertisement which appeared in the Dallas Morning News, Friday, November 22, 1963. WEISSMAN identified an autostat of this article as the article in question.

WEISSMAN stated that the one quarter inch black border which appeared on this advertisement was his, WEISSMAN's, idea and was merely done for the purpose of attracting attention to the ad and for no other purpose. He stated in view of the subsequent events, he very deeply regretted this decision concerning the black border. He also stated that the American Fact-Finding Committee does not actually exist, and that it was a name made up by LARRIE SCHMIDT and JOSEPH GRINNAN, whom he described as an independent oil man.

The decision to use WEISSMAN's name was made by WEISSMAN and by SCHMIDT in order to offset anti-Semetic charges made by several people against the Conservative movement in Dallas, Texas.

WEISSMAN stated he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and to his knowledge never met OSWALD. He also stated he never met nor did he know JACK RUBY. With respect to OSWALD, he advised that his mother, Mrs. LILLIAN WEISSMAN, has advised him that OSWALD at one time resided at 1061 Sheridan Avenue, Bronx, New York. WEISSMAN pointed out that he, at one time, resided at 1063 Grant Avenue, Bronx, New York, which WEISSMAN described as being only a few blocks from the Sheridan Avenue address. He again stated he had never met OSWALD. WEISSMAN advised that he left Dallas, Texas, on November 27, 1963, by automobile and arrived in New York City the night of November 29, 1963.

WEISSMAN advised that he would be available for recontact at any time, and would be most desirous of cooperating fully.

The following is a description of WEISSMAN:

RE: DAVID McFADDEN WHITNEY

On November 27, 1963, CARL KREAMER, United Staes Navy Department, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, reported he had learned of statements allegedly made to one JEAN DAVIS of Cedar Rapi... Iowa, by her boyfriend, one DAVID WHITNEY of Houston, Texas. KREAMER reported WHITNEY was alleged to have said he thought President KENNEDY should not make a trip to Dallas, Texas. It was further alleged that after the assassination, WHITNEY had contacted JEAN DAVIS and had requested that she destroy his letter containing these remarks.

When interviewed at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, on November 27, 1963, NORMA JEAN DAVIS, an employee of Collins Radio Corporation, denied having made the statements concerning WHITNEY. She stated WHITNEY told her he was a member of the John Birch Society, and WHITNEY told her in a telephone conversation several weeks before the assassination that he hoped the president would not come to Texas. She stated WHITNEY had never written her regarding the presidential visit to Texas, had never indicated he hoped harm would come to the president and had never requested her to destroy any letters.

The following investigation was conducted on November 29, 1963, by SA EDWIN DALRYMPLE:

AT HOUSTON, TEXAS

Mrs. E. A. BIGBEE, St. Regis Apartments, 8271 Stone, advised that DAVID WHITNEY rented an apartment at that location in August, 1963, and had apparently come to Houston from Miami, Florida. Mrs. BIGBEE stated WHITNEY was employed as a chemist by one of the oil companies.

Mrs. BIGBEE further stated that MICHAEL SCHNEIDER, another tenant, whom she greatly admired, had reported to her statements made by WHITNEY shortly after the president was assassinated. She said SCHNEIDER was present when WHITNEY stated that President KENNEDY "got just what he deserved." Mrs. BIGBEE stated that SCHNEIDER had been incensed by this remark of WHITNEY's and had resolved never to speak to WHITNEY again.

DAVID McFADDEN WHITNEY, 8271 Stone Street, was interviewed at the Shell Chemical Company, Deer Park, Texas, where he is employed as a chemist. WHITNEY stated he was born May 7, 1940, at Taylorville, Illinois, and his father, JAMES P. WHITNEY, presently resides at 900 West Main Street, Taylorville, Illinois. WHITNEY received a Bachelor of Science Degree from the Virginia Military Institute (VMI) in June, 1962, and did graduate work at the University of Miami, Miami, Florida, from September 1962, until June, 1963. He came to Houston, Texas, in June, 1963, to accept employment with the Shell Chemical Corporation. He resides at 113 North Tatar Street, Pasadena, Texas, from June, 1963, until August, 1963. WHITNEY stated he completed ROTC training at VMI, has been commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army and expects to go on active duty with the United States Army in June, 1964.

WHITNEY stated JEAN DAVIS of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is a friend with whom he corresponds. WHITNEY recalled that he once told Miss DAVIS that President KENNEDY should not visit Texas. WHITNEY denied making any statement to the effect that President KENNEDY would not visit Texas if he knew something that WHITNEY knew. Concerning his admitted statement, WHITNEY explained that he did not intend to imply that President KENNEDY would be harmed while in Texas but was merely expressing his disapproval of what he considered a political trip being made at the expense of the tax payers. WHITNEY stated the last letter he wrote JEAN DAVIS was before the assassination, and he denied he had communicated with DAVIS or attempted to do so in any manner since the assassination. WHITNEY stated the last letter he wrote DAVIS was written at about 3:00 in the morning, and he stated he could not recall anything about the contents of this letter. WHITNEY denied ever requesting Miss DAVIS to destroy any letter he had written her.

WHITNEY stated he is a member of the John Birch Society. He related that he possessed no knowledge whatever concerning the persons connected with the assassination of President KENNEDY concerning the actual assassination itself or any plans for the assassination. He stated he had never heard anyone in or out of the John Birch Society make any statement to the effect that money was being raised to bring about the assassination. WHITNEY stated that while he strongly opposed the Kennedy Administration, he considers himself a very religious man. He felt the assassination was a terrible thing for the United States and that he could never approve any murder of anyone under any circumstances.

WHITNEY was asked whether he had made a statement immediately after the assassination to the effect that President KENNEDY "got what he deserved." WHITNEY admitted making this statement. When asked to explain how he could justify this statement if he opposed murder on moral grounds, WHITNEY at first attributed this statement to his opinion that President KENNEDY was responsible for the recent murders of political leaders in South Viet Nam. When questioned as to what knowledge he had that President KENNEDY was responsible for those events, WHITNEY stated that he was actually confused. He then asserted that he believed his statement was based on his belief that President KENNEDY was responsible for the death of many persons in connection with the unsuccessful attempt at invasion of Cuba. After further considering this matter, WHITNEY finally acknowledged that he believed there was no justification whatever for his statement that President KENNEDY had gotten what he deserved and he considered this to have been a "completely irresponsible remark" for which he is now sorry.

Captain JOE PRICHARD, Orlando, Florida Police Department, furnished the following set forth information to SA JAMES B. HAFLEY on November 23, 1963:

Shortly after President KENNEDY's assassination on November 22, 1963, one ED WILSON, who operates the Triple A Radiator Service at 1024 South Orange Blossom Trail, Orlando, Florida, erected two large homemade signs on his property in front of this radiator shop. One of the signs read "Finished - Hooray, Hooray - Kennedys." The other sign read "Goldwater Next."

Captain PRICHARD said his department received complaints about the signs and dispatched police officers to the scene in order to talk with WILSON. They asked him to remove the signs as they were in very bad taste. WILSON told them he put the signs in his window to attract business and he further told them that he planned to run for Mayor of Orlando in the next City election. WILSON also told the officers that "he despised churches and would get elected by using Hitler methods."

Captain PRICHARD advised that on November 23, 1963, the signs had been removed from the outside of WILSON's property, but one remained inside the window of his repair shop and this sign read, "Lyndon is Next."

Captain PRICHARD further advised that WILSON definitely appears to be an exhibitionist or a "crackpot"; however, the Orlando Police Department was observing the situation at his shop very closely in order to prevent possible violence from irate citizens who defintely resent the signs.

SA JAMES B. HAFLEY conducted a check of the current Orlando City Directory which lists an ED WILSON, wife GLENA E., as operating an auto radiator service in Orlando and residing at 103-A East Orlando Avenue, Orlando, Florida.

On November 22, 1963, WEBB ROGERS, 102 Pennystone, San Antonio, Texas, telephonically advised the San Antonio Office that Mrs. H. G. WILSON, his wife's sister, had phoned his wife on November 21, 1963. Mrs. WILSON said to her sister, Mrs. ROGERS, "Your husband has a scope for his rifle, so has mine. Let's go out to Johnson City and get those KENNEDYs".

WILLIAM CHAMBERS, U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, Del Rio, Texas, Officer in Charge, advised on November 22, 1963, that about 2:00 p.m. that date he had received a long distance telephone call from a male claiming to be in Fort Worth, Texas, inquiring as to whether or not the International Bridge was open in view of what had happened that date, referring to the assassination of President KENNEDY. This man indicated that he did not want to drive four hundred miles in vain. The call was received at the office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service at the International Bridge, Del Rio, Texas, which telephone number is 775-2834. The call was paid for; therefore, there was no record in the Immigration Office.

On November 23, 1963, WILLIAM CHAMBERS stated that he had checked with his secretary concerning the call, and that the call originally was received by her but since the man was inquiring concerning the International Bridge, she referred the call to Mr. CHAMBERS. The secretary stated no operator was on the line, and therefore she had no information as to where the call originated and did not have a telephone number regarding same. It was her opinion, however, the call was between 2:00 and 3:00 p.m. CHAMBERS stated that he had no information as to where this call originated other than the statement of the individual with whom he talked to the effect that he was in Fort Worth, Texas.

FRED MOORE, 2611 Aster, Dallas, Texas, employed as a clerk at the Jiffy Store, 310 South Industrial, Dallas, Texas, advised of the following concerning a report that he had waited on LEE HARVEY OSWALD as a customer at the Jiffy Store at about 8:30 a.m. and again later in the morning on November 22, 1963 prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY:

Identification of this individual as OSWALD, MOORE said, arose when he asked him for identification as to proof of age for purchase of two bottles of beer. MOORE said he figured the man was over 21 but the store frequently requires proof by reason of past difficulties with local authorities for serving beer to minors. Much of the beer sold is consumed on the premises.

When asked for identification, this customer in question said, "Sure, I got ID" and pulled a Texas drivers license from his billfold. MOORE said that he noted the name appeared as "LEE OSWALD" or possibly as "H. LEE OSWALD". He remembered this particularly, he said, as moments later he had remarked to GEORGE WORTHINGTON, the store manager who came into the rear of the store as this individual left, that "LEE OSWALD" was a good Jewish name. As MOORE recalled, the birth date on the license was 1939 and he thought it to have been the 10th of the month.

Further identification of this individual as OSWALD, MOORE said, arose when he had seen OSWALD on television in the course of his travel from the Dallas Police Department prior to his being shot by RUBY. At this time, he recalled the name and the identification of OSWALD as the customer in his store on the previous day.

by Special Agent DAVID H. BARRY/rms Date dictated 12/2/63

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Shown a photograph of OSWALD (New Orleans Police Department number 112723, dated August 9, 1963), however, MOORE said that the man in the store appeared to have been thinner in the face.

MOORE described this individual as follows:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Age	21
Height	5'8½" - 5'9"
Weight	150 pounds
Hair	Dark
Facial Features	Hallowed cheeks
Clothing	Light shirt, other description of which not recalled; a sweater of which color and type unknown; no hat; no glasses.

The time of OSWALD's presence in the store on the morning of Friday, November 22, 1963, MOORE said, was difficult to place. He came in and had departed before the manager, GEORGE WORTHINGTON, came to work, usually this being between 9 a.m. and 10 a.m. MOORE had the television turned on and this occurrence was prior to the President's arrival at Love Field in Dallas.

The individual whom MOORE considered to be OSWALD entered the store alone approaching from the side street, Rock Island. MOORE said he had not associated the man with a car.

While in the store, this individual purchased two bottles of beer, either Pearl of Jax, in throw-away bottles at 25 cents each which he paid for either with a dollar bill or change. He took the beer from the store but returned in less than a half hour to buy two pieces of Peco Brittle at five cents each which he consumed on the premises. MOORE remarked to him in the form of a question, "Candy and beer?" as he considered this to be an odd combination. This is another reason for his recollection. The man seemed to be nervous while in the store pacing the aisles as he ate the candy.

Several other persons were in the store at the time, but MOORE could not recall their identities.

GEORGE WORTHINGTON, 2222 Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas, manager of Jiffy Store, 310 South Industrial, Dallas, Texas, advised the following concerning the possible identification by FRED MOORE, store clerk, of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in this store early in the morning of Friday, November 22, 1963, prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY:

WORTHINGTON said that he had arrived at the store on this morning at about 9:30 a.m. He had entered from the rear as the person whom MOORE identified as OSWALD was leaving at the front. WORTHINGTON did not see this individual but had learned about him from MOORE who did say something about him at the time. WORTHINGTON could not remember what comment MOORE had made; had no recollection that MOORE remarked that the name LEE OSWALD was a good Jewish name.

On November 23, 1963, SA's WILLIAM O. JOHNSON, Houston Office, and JOSEPH J. HANLEY, Dallas Office, interviewed DONALD CLEVELAND GARRETT of 501 East Ninth Street, Dallas, Texas. He was interviewed at Marek's Cafe, at 623 East Jefferson, where he has been employed for the past three years as a dishwasher.

On the occasion of this interview, GARRETT furnished a postcard, which bears a photograph of President KENNEDY, which postcard was received by him on Tuesday or Wednesday, November 19 or 20, 1963. The card was mailed to him from Laredo, Texas, and was postmarked November 19, 1963. It is addressed to GARRETT at his place of employment and the message portion of the postcard reads as follows:

"Boo! Guess Who?".

The only thing which bears particular attention is the fact that the four cent Lincoln stamp is affixed to the card and the name LINCOLN is printed with quotes on the card and an arrow points to the postage stamp.

GARRETT was unable to say who had directed the postcard to him. He does not know of anyone who is travelling who might have forwarded the card from Laredo and he is not acquainted with any residents of Laredo.

GARRETT mentioned he is not at all familiar with the handwriting on the postcard, and he was unable to furnish any information concerning what significance the printed name "LINCOLN" and the arrow pointing toward the postage stamp bearing LINCOLN's image was supposed to have.

GARRETT stated he had no further use for the postcard and the same is retained in the Dallas file.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agents JACK A. FRENCH and RICHARD T. RABIDEAU on November 23, 1963 at Fort Worth, Texas:

ARTHUR WALLACE HALMES, telephonically contacted the Federal Bureau of Investigation Resident Agency, Fort Worth, Texas on at least two occasions on November 22, 1963 and advised that he had seen a person whom he believed to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his wife, the Thursday preceeding, and he insisted that he be taken to Dallas to identify the couple.

HALMES was interviewed at his residence at 5913 Bertha Lane and he advised as follows. On Thursday night, November 21, 1963, he went into Keggie's Bar on Belknap Street, Fort Worth about 6:00 P.M. as was his usual practice every work night.

He stated that shortly after he arrived, a young man and woman came into the bar and seated themselves near him. He stated the couple almost immediately got into a violent argument. HALMES stated that the jest of the argument was that the woman kept telling the man "don't do it, you can't get away with it". The man remarked "I can do anything I want, I'll kill the S.O.B.".

HALMES advised he took offense at the man's abusive language and cautioned him there were decent women present. HALMES said the man replied "This is my wife and I'll talk any way I damn please".

HALMES stated the wife of the man appeared to have a foreign accent and although he could not give a description of either the man or woman, he was positive he could recognize both of them again.

HALMES was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWLAD and he stated positively this was the man he saw in the bar. He admitted, however, that he had seen numerous pictures of OSWALD in the newspaper since the assassination. HALMES was shown a picture of OSWALD's wife together with pictures of other women and he was unable to determine which was OSWALD's wife.

During the course of the interview, HALMES repeated himself many times and stumbled over words. His face was very flushed and he gave the impression of being intoxicated. He stated his only purpose in furnishing this information was so that he could be taken by the FBI to Dallas and identify OSWALD and his wife.

At 10:02 A.M., on November 23, 1963, Mrs. ROBERT D. (VIRGINIA) YOUNG, 311 N. Grafton, Dublin, Texas, telephoned and advised that about a month and a half ago, an individual came to her residence, which is located across the street from the Catholic church in Dublin. This was at the time that President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY was touring Wyoming and California. When the man came to the door he asked her, "Do you know where the man is who runs this place?", indicating the place by pointing his finger in the direction of the Catholic church. She told him that she did not know where he was, but went to the house and looked up the address of the Catholic priest at Stephenville. She said that she did not invite him into the house, but that he entered anyway. While talking to her he asked her if she believed in segregation and talked further, but she does not remember all of the conversation, she said. At any rate, this person blamed the President and remarked to her that the President was coming to Texas. She alleged that he told her that he was going to get the President and they were going to get rid of him. She said that she had never seen this man as he was a stranger, but he was driving a two-tone car, make unknown, in which three women sat while the conversation was going on. After the conversation she telephoned JACK JOHNSON, Cashier of the local bank in Dublin, and told him about what the individual had said. Later, she said that she had talked to the housekeeper of the priest, who told her that someone had left a "crazy note" in the door of the church. The housekeeper did not remember what the note said, but remembered that at the bottom of the note it said 'God help you". Mrs. YOUNG believed that the Catholic priest's name is Father KEOUGH and that he lives in Stephenville, Texas.

She said she reported this incident to the Sheriff and a Deputy Sheriff at Stephenville on November 22, 1963, and the Sheriff told her that it was probably some "crank". The Sheriff requested that she call him if she got any additional information concerning this individual.

BERNADINE CHRISTIAN, 5225 North Melvina, advised that she is employed by the Illinois Bell Telephone Company, 212 West Washington Street, as a telephone operator. She stated that the nature of her job is such that she is not allowed to divulge information received during the course of her employment, however she wished to pass on the following information confidentially:

On either Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday of last week which was either November 18, 19 or 20, 1963, between 6:00 p.m. and midnight she recalled receiving a telephone call through her switchboard at the telephone company from an unrecalled Chicago exchange to a large city in Texas wherein the caller asked for a Mr. OSWALD. She could recall no details of this call other than it was between two males, one of whom asked the other "Has the baby come yet?" She added that her division is called Office Number 13 and that all telephone tickets made out by her under number 7567 are picked up hourly and transferred to the Portage Park Branch Accounting Office of the Illinois Bell Telephone Company. She was unable to recall the exchange from which the call originated or the city and telephone number to which the call was placed. She stated she did recall the receiving party's name as OSWALD because her son formerly belonged to a Boy Scout troop led by a man named PAT OSWALD and she wondered at the time whether the recipient of this call might be related to the former scoutmaster. She explained that this call in all probability had no connection with the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY but that if by some remote chance that the recipient was in fact the suspected assassin LEE HARVEY OSWALD there would be some bearing on his motive.

She concluded by stating she could recall no further details of this call however if she were to recall any additional details she would immediately notify the Chicago FBI Office and she could be reached at her home telephone RO 3-5269.

Mrs. GLADYS SHASTID (telephone LA 6-6373), 4646 Travis, Dallas, Texas, employed as a night cashier, 11 PM to 6 AM, Lawrence Coffee Shop, Lawrence Hotel, 203 South Houston, Dallas, was interviewed in the presence of MARVIN JOHNSON, Detective, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas.

The information supplied by Mrs. SHASTID concerned the matter of two individuals, one of whom she first had considered to have been identical with OSWALD -- at the cafe at about 3:30 to 4:00 AM, November 22, 1963, under circumstances which she described as most unusual, one upon departure inquiring about the President's visit, making adverse remarks concerning the President, and stating something to the effect there were some who would like to see him not get out of here alive.

The first individual entered the cafe at about 11 PM on November 21, 1963, taking the fifth table facing the door and ordering only coffee and a doughnut, but remaining there to about 4 AM, November 22, 1963, during which time he appeared to be working a cross word puzzle. She described this individual as a white male, about 30 years of age, but appearing to be much older by reason of heavily wrinkled hands and face. She stated that he had a distinct foreign appearance, with black thick, wavy hair, about 5'8" tall, and chunky build and was wearing a dark suit and light colored shirt. Mrs. SHASTID said she could hardly understand him when he had placed his order with her.

The second individual came into the cafe about 3:30 AM, took the third table from the door, facing the first individual. At this time the first man, although making no acknowledgment, moved to the other side of his table with his back to the second individual. Mrs. SHASTID described this second individual as a boy of about 23 or 24 years of age, 6' tall, slender, 150 to 160 pounds, blond hair, wearing tan clothing. She stated that at first she had considered this boy to be identical with OSWALD, but upon viewing the photograph of OSWALD, said he was not.

At about 4 AM, the second individual, whom she described as a boy, paid his check, during which time he passed the time with Mrs. SHASTID by asking her whether she intended to see the President. She told him she did not as she had seen him during the RAYBURN funeral. He responded by saying, "I would not walk out of the door to see him". He was matter of fact about this and not threatening as he was when he added that there probably were some who would like to see him "not get out of here alive".

Having made these above remarks, the boy left the cafe to stand outside the door where he appeared to have been joined by the first man. They stood side by side very close together but they were not known to have engaged in conversation.

Mrs. SHASTID advised that regular patrons of the cafe, Mrs. JEAN (last name unknown), employee of the Post Office; and cab driver, Mr. BROWN, observed these individuals standing in front of the cafe in apparent recognition of one another.

She supplied the above information for whatever value it may be.

Sister MARY CYRILLA, St. Josephs Orphanage, Camp Robinson Road, North Little Rock, Arkansas, furnished the following information:

At about 12:40 PM, November 22, 1963, Sister MARY KEVIN entered her office and asked if the telephone was in use. Sister CYRILLA informed Sister KEVIN that it was not, whereupon Sister CYRILLA picked up the receiver and heard the following message "The President is dead" and "The Governor was shot too". At this point Sister CYRILLA asked Sister KEVIN to listen on the receiver while she went to an adjoining office where she picked up the receiver to a second telephone, which was turned on the house telephone, and she heard more conversation as follows "51 wait just a minute". A young woman's voice then was heard to say "Hello, daddy", and a man replied "We've been waiting to hear from you." The woman was then heard to say "The President was shot" and the man replied "That's all we need to know". The woman was then heard to say "The Governor of Texas was shot too".

Sister CYRILLA stated that she then hung the receiver up and went upstairs to turn on the radio to see if there was any news to this effect being broadcast. Shortly after she arrived upstairs, Sister KEVIN also came up to listen to the radio.

Sister CYRILLA noted that the conversation was as clear as though it was a direct contact. She had no idea who the individuals were who were involved in the conversation and no way of knowing how this conversation came into their telephone receivers.

Sister MARY KEVIN, St. Josepha Orphanage, Camp Robinson Road, North Little Rock, Arkansas, advised as follows:

At about 12:40 PM, on November 22, 1963, she picked up the receiver on one of the telephones at the orphanage to make a telephone call. After dialing three digits, she realized there was a conversation on the line, so she stopped dialing and listened for a brief moment, after which she placed the receiver back in the telephone cradle, but before she did she heard the name "PAUL" mentioned but she could not recall if it was a woman's voice or a man's voice that mentioned this name.

After this, she went into the adjoining room where Sister MARY CYRILLA was sitting and asked Sister CYRILLA if the line was busy. Sister CYRILLA told her that it was not and she then told Sister CYRILLA she heard someone on the line. At this point, Sister CYRILLA picked up the receiver of the telephone of the office in which she was sitting and after a brief moment, handed the receiver to Sister KEVIN and instructed Sister KEVIN to listen while she, Sister CYRILLA, went to the telephone in the adjoining room. Sister KEVIN stated she heard the following conversation "51" and after a brief pause, the individual stated "Wait just a minute". Sister KEVIN did not recall if this was a man's or a woman's voice. The next thing she heard was a young woman saying "Hello, daddy" and a man replied, "We've been waiting to hear from you". The next thing Sister KEVIN heard was "The President was shot" and the second person replied "That's all we need to know". Then one of the two commented "The Governor of Texas was shot too". Sister KEVIN stated she could not recall which comments were made by the man and which comments were made by the woman. Sister KEVIN stated she did not hear anymore although she said she held the receiver for a brief period, then placed the receiver back in the cradle and returned to upstairs where Sister CYRILLA was by the radio. Sister KEVIN stated, however, before she went upstairs, she listened briefly on the receiver of the telephone which she first used, but learned after dialing three digits that someone was on the line, and found this telephone carried no conversation.

Mr. W. A. ANDERSON, Anderson's Humble Service Station, W. Main Street, advised that two unknown individuals, appeared at his station on the afternoon (time unrecalled) of November 16, 1963. They were driving a compact car, make unknown, but believed to be a 1963 or 1964 model, color unrecalled. ANDERSON advised he filled the car with gasoline and at this time the driver of the car stated he had left all his money at home and wanted to give a check. ANDERSON told him he did not accept checks from strangers without identification. At this time the individual produced a temporary drivers license. ANDERSON was unable to recall from which state the license was issued.

Mr. ANDERSON stated this individual gave him a check in the amount of $3.40 in payment for the gasoline. The check was filled out by the individual with the exception of the name of the payee, which ANDERSON states he inserted on the check. The check is dated 11/16/63 in the amount of $3.40 and signed VIRGIL L. REECE. The check was made out on an Eastland National Bank counter check blank. It is noted the name "Eastland National" is crossed out and the name "Bank of America" written in, thus making the check drawn on the Bank of America, Eastland, Texas. The check bears the following letters and numerals in the upper left hand corner: L188037DD. ANDERSON advised the driver of the vehicle produced his drivers license or a temporary license bearing the name of VIRGIL L. REECE with number L188037DD. ANDERSON did not recall the name of the state issuing the temporary license. He advised the license did not reflect a description of the person to whom it is issued.

ANDERSON advised that in addition to accepting the above mentioned check in payment for the gasoline, he also took from these individuals a brown sweater and brown corduroy coat.

ANDERSON advised the above individuals were traveling in a compact car, make unrecalled. He noted the car bore no license numbers, and when he called this to the attention of the driver, the driver stated he had just got the car and had not had time to register it.

BOB SMITH, owner, Aero Smith, Highland Park Airport, telephone AD 9-5316, who resides at 3258 Latham Drive, Dallas, Texas, residence telephone FL 2-7287, telephonically advised SA ALFRED C. ELLINGTON on November 30, 1963, that his firm operates an aircraft rental and charter service in the North Texas area. He advised that at approximately 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, November 24, 1963, an unknown white male telephonically contacted his firm from the bus station in Sherman, Texas, and desired "quick transportation to Dallas".

SMITH advised the pilot of the plane carrying this man to Dallas is JIM BAILEY, who resides in the vicinity of Sherman but whose specific residence is not known or immediately available to SMITH. He described the passenger as being white male, dark hair, 5'10", 180 to 200 pounds, well dressed, but allegedly wearing "about three days' growth of beard".

It is SMITH's understanding this man arrived in Sherman on a bus which he had ridden from St. Louis, Missouri and that "at every stop between St. Louis and Sherman this man had gotten off the bus and attempted to arrange for air transportation to Dallas". He said in connection with payment for his flight from Sherman to Dallas, the man used currency which included a $20.00 Canadian bill. It is SMITH's impression the passenger advised his pilot that he was a Life Magazine reporter from New Zealand, and he had earlier told fellow passengers, or other unidentified persons in the bus station, that he was "OSWALD's brother".

SMITH advised he does not know the significance, if any, of this information but that he had recently heard from BOB THORNTON, an executive at the Mercantile National Bank in Dallas that he, THORNTON, had heard from some source unknown to SMITH, that one of the Dallas newspapers had received a telephonic inquiry from some point in Canada prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and inquiring as to whether the President had been shot.

He advised that upon receipt of this information and in view of the use by the unidentified passenger of a $20.00 Canadian bill he felt this information should be reported to the FBI. SMITH advised he is well acquainted with several individuals employed by the Dallas newspapers and that he himself plans to determine whether any of these individuals had received such an inquiry from a Canadian caller.

SMITH also advised that his pilot had advised him that the passenger in answer to the pilot's inquiry as to which airport in Dallas he desired to land answered he desired to land at the airport nearest the FBI Office.

SMITH stated in the event any additional information in this regard comes to his attention or in the event any additional information is desired by the FBI, he will gladly cooperate in any way possible.

Mr. MACK KING, 520 East 145th Avenue, Tampa, Fla., telephonically advised at 12:10 PM that he is an employee of Bonded Maintenance, and that he works at Tampa International Airport in connection with this employment.

Mr. KING advised that he desired to report that, on the evening of November 18, 1963, during a period from about 4:00 to 4:30 PM, he noticed a white male, in his middle 20s, weight about 160 pounds, approximately 5'11" in height, seated in the west section of the Tampa Airport. This individual had, as his only piece of baggage, a shotgun case with weapon inside. The man seemed to be very nervous and impatient, according to KING.

Mr. KING said he especially noticed this individual as he, KING, likes to hunt and was jealous of the fact that he was not accompanying this individual to go hunting. He did, however, feel that it was very strange that this was the man's only piece of baggage.

KING stated that he could furnish no further information concerning this individual. He repeated that his only basis for suspicion of the man was that his only piece of baggage was the gun, and that he appeared to be a highly nervous, impatient character. He said that, after hearing of the President's assassination, he talked the situation over with his wife and they decided that he should notify the FBI concerning the incident.

She was in the store owned by Mrs. FRANK TRABULA, Cotulla, Texas, on the afternoon of November 23, 1963, about 5:00 pm when two white males were trying to buy ammunition. She observed the two young men leave the store and saw a young woman driving the vehicle. When the car left, she made a mental note of the license number and about five minutes later, wrote it down. She is quite certain that the vehicle was 1952 - 55 Chevrolet, and is certain of the perfix CM on the license plates. She thought the license number was 6883; however, although she repeated the number in her mind, she could have made a transposition of numbers when she finally wrote it down.

During Easter recess, 1963, she traveled to Washington, D.C., to visit friends and tour Washington. On the morning of Saturday, April 13, 1963, as she drove by the White House, she took two photographs of the White House. On November 25, 1963, GEORGE WILLIAM PEKAR, 37 Benton Street, Fairfield, Connecticut, telephone number 366-2140, advised as follows:

He has been employed as a commercial artist for the past eleven or twelve years by the Rosner - Lewis Agency, an advertising agency at 2440 Reservoir Avenue, Trumbull, Connecticut. Also located in the same building at the Reservoir Avenue address are the International Electronics Company, Limited, the International Electronics Company of Puerto Rico, and the American Merchandising Corporation. All of these corporations are owned by LOU LEWIS whose true name is LOUIS ISLOWITZ. LEWIS formerly lived in Newtown, Connecticut but now lives at 2440 Reservoir Avenue, Trumbull, Connecticut.

LEWIS is a very secretive person and is reputed to frequent nightclubs. His brother, LEO LEWIS, also known as LEO ISLOWITZ, is reported to have operated a nightclub in Miami, Florida at one time.

LEWIS formed the International Electronics Company, Limited and the International Electronics Company of Puerto Rico several months ago. About two months ago International Electronics Company, Limited, hired seven or eight workers to set up a pilot assembly line for the production of electronic control switches, intending to mass produce these units at the Jarardo, Puerto Rico plant of International Electronics of Puerto Rico. The workers were laid off after a short time when International Electronics Company, Limited was unable to get parts. The basic unit of these switches was purchased from Hunt Electronics, Dallas, Texas. Some representatives of an electronics company in Texas have visited at the Trumbull plant of International Electronics Company, Limited, but PEKAR had no information on what company they represented.

About two or three weeks ago LEWIS went to Dallas, Texas but PEKAR had no information on his contacts or activities there, or if he had made any other trips to that city.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Approximately three weeks ago after LEWIS returned from his trip to Dallas, Texas, PEKAR overheard Mrs. MARY SHEARER (phonetic), LEWIS' secretary, speaking to someone and mentioning the Carousel, Vegas, and RUBY.

PEKAR could not recall hearing LEWIS say anything about the Carousel, Vegas or RUBY.

About two weeks ago while at work, PEKAR saw through the front window of the plant a woman who resembled the picture of Mrs. LEE HARVEY OSWALD that appeared in the November 24, 1963 issue of the Bridgeport Sunday Post, a local paper published weekly at Bridgeport, Connecticut. The woman was standing outside the plant and seemed hesitant to enter the building. A car with New York license plates was in the parking lot and PEKAR concluded that the woman came to the plant in that car.

As PEKAR was walking through the office to go downstairs he saw a stocky woman who resembled the photograph of the mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD which appeared in the above issue of the Bridgeport Sunday Post. The stocky woman had a baby in her arms and had just arrived on the second floor of the plant when PEKAR saw her. The woman who resembled OSWALD's mother looked around and then went to Mrs. SHEARER at her desk.

PEKAR went downstairs and saw nothing more of either women. PEKAR thought nothing more of the two women until after he saw the pictures of OSWALD's wife and mother in the Bridgeport Post for November 24, 1963. When after looking at the picture for some time he concluded that the two women he had seen at the Trumbull plant were possibly identical with the wife and mother of OSWALD.

PEKAR was unable to furnish any description of the woman whom he feels resembles OSWALD's wife, other than that she appeared to be similar to the picture and had light brown hair. He said the woman who resembled OSWALD's mother appeared to be in her late 40's, with light brown hair, heavy build and a big head.

PEKAR furnished the following description of LEWIS:

Name:	LOU LEWIS, also known as Louis Islowitz
Age:	43
Height:	5' 6" (with elevator shoes)
Weight:	150 - 160 pounds
Build:	Stocky
Hair:	Dark and bald, wears dark wig
Glasses:	None
Complexion:	Ruddy
Characteristics:	Occasionally wears mustache
Marital Status:	Married, but separated from wife
Peculiarities:	Short stubby fingers, wears wig and elevator shoes.

At no time has PEKAR ever heard any information of a plot to assassinate the President of the United States or anything against the best interest of the United States Government discussed at his place of employment.

At the time the radio broadcasted the news of President KENNEDY's assassination, PEKAR noticed nothing unusual in the shop.

PEKAR explained that LEWIS' secretary, Mrs. MARY SHEARER (phonetic) lives in Monroe, Connecticut; is separated from her husband; and is a very close friendof LEWIS. The only other employee in the office, Mrs. BOBBY ADAM, Monroe, Connecticut, who is the typist and file clerk, is also very friendly with Mrs. SCHEARER and LEWIS.

The only other two people in the plant who might have seen the two women are RUDY PIRHALA (phonetic), another commercial artist who works with PEKAR, and TOM FITZPATRICK, an accountant employed by LEWIS, who has an office on the second floor.

JIM BATES, 401 East Birdsong Drive, stated he has worked as a driver for the Safeway-Yellow Cab Company in Longview, Texas, for the past twelve years.

BATES stated he recalls two fares from the Holiday Inn in Longview, Texas, to Whatley Road in Gregg County, Texas, on November 22, 1963, about 9:00 a.m. He stated both men were white males and one indicated he was from Alabama and the other from Georgia.

BATES stated that during the trip of about seven miles, he and the two men talked about President KENNEDY's visit to Dallas on that date. He stated all of them indicated they were worried that some embarrassing incident might befall the President as had befallen U. S. Ambassador to the United Nations, Mr. STEVENSON, during October, 1963.

He stated he did not make the statement that President KENNEDY would not leave Dallas alive, but as the President's visit to Dallas was a matter of concern to him, he probably mentioned to both men that he hoped nothing happened to President KENNEDY during the visit to Texas.

ADMINISTRATIVE DATA

The pretext used by SA DAVID J. REID in contacting families by the name of PERRY listed in the El Paso Telephone Directory was as follows: SA REID, without identifying himself, asked to speak to EARL PERRY, it being determined in each case, that no EARL PERRY resided at the address in question and that no one by the name of EARL PERRY was known to the person answering the telephone.

No leads are being set out in this report in view of the fact that all leads have been previously set out by teletype.

INVESTIGATION TO IDENTIFY (FNU) QUIROGA

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date December 1, 1963

Mr. THEODORE L. GIORGETTI, Patrol Inspector, United States Border Patrol, El Paso, advised as follows:

At about 5:30 pm on the day of the assassination of the President of the United States, JOHN F. KENNEDY, while the United States-Mexican border was closed between El Paso, Texas, and Juarez, Chihuahua, Mexico, he was advised by a Mexican Immigration Officer, namely ARMANDO MIRAMONTES PEREZ, that a Mexican Customs Officer at the Cordova Island crossing point had shortly before overheard a man dressed in a uniform of the United States Army state in the Spanish language that he had been in Dallas, Texas, the night before the assassination and at that time knew that the assassination was going to take place.

GIORGETTI was pointed out the soldier in question by MIRAMONTES and then GIORGETTI, in an unobtrusive manner, approached the soldier and determined that the name attached to his uniform was "QUIROGA". This soldier was detained at the border along with many other persons for a period of about three hours prior to being allowed to return to the United States.

GIORGETTI described the soldier as follows:

Sex	Male
Height	5' 9" or 5' 10"
Build	Slim
Hair	Black
Complexion	Olive, not too dark
Characteristics	Latin features
Dress	Enlisted man's uniform of United States Army

Mr. ARMANDO MIRAMONTES PEREZ, Mexican Immigration Officer, Juarez, Chihuahua, Mexico, advised as follows:

Shortly after about 4:30 pm, El Paso time, on the night of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, he was contacted by a Mexican Customs Officer, name not known, at the Mexican Immigration Station at the Cordova Island crossing between Juarez, Mexico, and El Paso, Texas, and was advised by this Mexican Customs Officer that he had just overheard a soldier in the United States Army make the statement that he had been in Dallas, Texas, the night before the assassination of President KENNEDY and had known ahead of time that the assassination was going to take place. A large group of persons had gathered at the crossing point at that time and were awaiting the opening of the border so that they could return to the United States. The above-mentioned soldier was one of the group of persons waiting to return to the United States.

MIRAMONTES was busy with other matters and had no direct contact with the soldier, who had to wait at the border for a period of about three hours before the border was reopened and he was allowed to return to the United States. MIRAMONTES contacted a representative of the United States Border Patrol at the crossing point after having been furnished the above information by the Mexican Customs Officer and in turn furnished this information to the Border Patrolman.

MIRAMONTES said he would attempt to identify the Mexican Customs Officer mentioned above and would have this individual immediately contact the FBI in El Paso. MIRAMONTES said he understood the importance of this matter and would make every effort to immediately identify and locate the above-mentioned Mexican Customs Officer.

Mr. ANGEL MARTINEZ JUAREZ, Mexican Customs Officer, Cordova Island Bridge, Juarez, Mexico, advised as follows:

At about 4:30 pm, El Paso time, on November 22, 1963, a soldier of the United States Army, who was in uniform, arrived at the Cordova Island crossing point in a taxi, which had come from the direction of Juarez. The United States-Mexican border had been closed by Mexican authorities earlier in the afternoon to assist United States authorities in connection with the investigation into the assassination of President KENNEDY. When the above-mentioned soldier arrived at the crossing point, a large group of individuals had already collected and were waiting for an opportunity to cross the border.

The soldier, whose rate was not determined but who had the name "QUIROGA" attached to his uniform, made the statement to MARTINEZ that he had been in Dallas, Texas, the night before, meaning the night of November 21, 1963. The soldier then asked MARTINEZ why the border was closed and MARTINEZ told him that it was due to the assassination of the President. The soldier then made the statement to MARTINEZ that they had caught a spy in Dallas. The soldier made no further statements of a pertinent nature to MARTINEZ.

MARTINEZ wondered how the soldier knew that a spy had been arrested in Dallas and decided to relay the above information to ARMANDO MIRAMONTES PEREZ, a Mexican Immigration Officer at the Cordova Island crossing point. He immediately furnished the above information to MIRAMONTES but did not tell MIRAMONTES that the soldier had stated that he knew ahead of time that the assassination was going to take place.

MARTINEZ then saw MIRAMONTES contact a member of the United States Border Patrol at the crossing point for the purpose of relaying the above information to United States authorities. The soldier waited at the crossing point along with the other persons who were being temporarily detained and returned to the United States after about a three hour wait.

MARTINEZ described the above-mentioned soldier as follows:

Sex	Male
Race	White
Age	25-28
Height	5' 11"
Weight	155 pounds
Hair	Black
Racial Origin	Latin (medium complexion)

POSSIBLE CONNECTION BETWEEN LEE HARVEY OSWALD AND ONE EARL PERRY

The following investigation was conducted in an effort to identify one EARL PERRY who reportedly served with LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the United States Marine Corps in 1956, was from El Paso, Texas, and allegedly was employed for an organization distributing anti-Mexican propaganda, and was reportedly in current contact with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

On November 23, 1963, Mrs. LENA INGRAM, Credit Bureau, El Paso, Texas, advised Special Agent WILLIAM H. NIMMINS that the only EARL PERRY contained in the records of her Office was one EARL S. PERRY, 417 W. Yandell Street, El Paso, a Sergeant in the United States Army as of June, 1955. PERRY's wife was listed as HELEN PERRY, a stenographer for El Paso Electric Company, beginning in December, 1954.

On November 23, 1963, Mr. JAMES P. DAVIS, American Furniture Company, El Paso, advised Special Agent DAVID J. REID that the records of the company reflect that Specialist Third Class, EARL S. PERRY, 417 W. Yandell Street, Apartment 20, made a purchase at the American Furniture Company in October, 1955. PERRY's Army Serial Number was listed as 554 387 69.

The 1955 El Paso City Directory listed EARL S. PERRY and wife, H. ANN PERRY, as residing at 1621 E. Rio Grande, Apartment 3, El Paso. No listing was found for PERRY in subsequent El Paso City Directories.

On November 24, 1963, Mrs. HORTENCIA AYLESWORTH, Manager, apartment building located at 417 W. Yandell, El Paso, advised Special Agent REID that she had managed the apartment building for a short period of time and that there was no one residing in the building who had been there for a period longer that two and a half years.

On November 24, 1963, Mrs. ALVINA H. MOTTINGER, 1621 E. Rio Grande, El Paso, advised Special Agent REID that she had resided at this address since 1949 but did not recall anyone by the name of EARL PERRY or HELEN ANN PERRY. She said that there were no persons currently residing at this address who lived there prior to 1960.

The El Paso City Directories for the years 1954 through 1963 were checked under the name EARL PERRY and no individual was listed in these city directories by that name, except for the EARL S. PERRY mentioned above.

On November 23, 1963, Mrs. LENA ANDERSON, El Paso Public Library, El Paso, advised that records of the library contained no information regarding anyone by the name of EARL PERRY. She furnished this information to Special Agent REID.

On November 23, 1963, PAUL ANDOW, National Head of the League of United Latin American Citizens, El Paso, advised Special Agent WILLIAM H. NIMMINS that he knew of no organization or group in El Paso which distributed anti-Mexican propaganda. He said he was not acquainted with anyone by the name of EARL PERRY.

On November 26, 1963, Mrs. DOROTHY RAYMOND, El Paso City Schools, El Paso, advised Special Agent REID that she checked the records for the City of El Paso regarding grammar school, junior high school, and high school students and that she was unable to locate any record to indicate that anyone by the name of EARL PERRY ever attended the El Paso City schools. She said that she also checked the school census records for the years 1950 through 1955, these records including parochial schools as well as El Paso City schools, and no record was located regarding anyone by the name of EARL PERRY.

On November 24, 1963, pretext telephone contact was made with all of the PERRY families listed in the 1963 El Paso Telephone Directory. No information was developed regarding anyone by the name of EARL PERRY except for the following information furnished to Special Agent REID by Lieutenant Colonel JAMES F. PERRY, 5100 Chateau Street, El Paso: T/k

PERRY had a brother by the name EARL PERRY who was a Sergeant in the United States Marine Corps and who was, at that time, stationed in Okinawa. EARL PERRY was believed to be assigned to MAM Helicopter Repair Parts Unit in Okinawa. EARL PERRY was stationed in California in 1956, left the Marine Corps in about 1957, lived in Lubbock, Texas, between 1957 and 1960, and never resided in El Paso. EARL PERRY was scheduled to return to the United States from Okinawa in about November or December, 1963.

MISCELLANEOUS COMPLAINTS

At 4:01 P.M. on November 22, 1963, Mrs. W. P. SCHUMACHER, 1308 Cincinnati Street, telephonically advised Special Agent in Charge HERBERT E. HOXIE as follows:

She had seen films on KTSM-TV, the NCB outlet in El Paso, that afternoon. In that connection, one film which had been taken by a cameraman at the time of the actual shooting, showed the camera out of focus when the cameraman left the camera at the time of the actual shooting. During this period, it showed other people who were interested in the event and allegedly showed one man in the window who ran away rather than expressing an interest in the actual shooting. Mrs. SCHUMACHER said she thought this man fitted the general description of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, who had been described on television as being in custody and as a suspect in the assassination.

On November 22, 1963, VAN FRIS, Official at KTSM-TV in El Paso, advised SA WILLARD D. WHARTON that the above-mentioned film involved a cameraman who was in a car behind the President's car and that this film had been sent "live" into NBC Headquarters from Station WFAA, Fort Worth. Mr. FRIS stated two officials of KTSM-TV had seen the film and did not recall the specific incident referred to by Mrs. SCHUMACHER, mentioned above. Mr. FRIS stated that the film did show Secret Service men running.

On November 22, 1963, Mr. ELMA A. COLLINS, District Sales Representative, Texaco Inc., 1930 East Paisano, El Paso, telephonically advised SA ROBERT S. GAST II that there was a boxcar in the yard of Texaco Inc. which had been in Dallas, Texas two days previously and which contained the following writing on the door of the boxcar, "Oh, how odd that God would choose the Jews". "You tell them fat boy, Roy". "Bye Bye - Jews, you're next after Kennedy".

On November 22, 1963, JOSEPH F. SPARTI, 9215 Roanoke Drive, El Paso, telephonically advised SA DAVID J. REID the following information:

SPARTI was told by his daughter, ELEANOR SPARTI, that she was present at her place of employment shortly after the election of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, at which time JOHN C. TROXAL, 10037 New Castle, El Paso, made the prediction that President KENNEDY would be assassinated and that he would be the last person to serve as the President of the United States.

On November 22, 1963, TROXAL made the statement, in the presence of ELEANOR SPARTI, "You see, my prediction was right".

TROXAL is employed in the electronics field by the Western Electric Company at White Sands Missile Range in New Mexico. He has made many remarks against the United States, according to ELEANOR SPARTI. He has been making remarks about President KENNEDY for quite some time. On Saturdays and Sundays, he gives religious talks at the Plaza in downtown El Paso and is considered a religious fanatic.

At 6:40 P.M. on November 22, 1963, EMMETT IKE MILLER, 901 Radford Street, El Paso, telephonically furnished the following information to SA WILLIAM H. NIMMINS: During the afternoon of November 15, 1963, MILLER was in El Carlo's Bar located on Myrtle Street in El Paso and heard one man say to another individual in the bar in the Spanish language that President KENNEDY offered support in connection with the Bay of Pigs invasion of Cuba and added "Well, he won't last long", or words to that effect.

MILLER saw a photograph of the suspected assassin on television on November 22, 1963 and thought that there might be some resemblance between the suspected assassin and the above-mentioned man in the El Carlo's Bar, whom he described as follows: race, white; age, 25 to 26; 6' tall or over, 170 lbs. to 175 lbs., complexion, light; eyes brown; hair, black (crewcut); wearing light coat and dark trousers.

MILLER recontacted SA NIMMINS the same afternoon, furnished him general information and then indicated he was going to bed.

At 12:23 P.M. on November 23, 1963, EMMETT IKE MILLER, mentioned above, telephonically advised SA JOHN R. MAURER about the above-mentioned incident in the El Carlo's Bar in El Paso. On this occasion, he stated that he overheard the person whom he believed to be identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD say "President Kennedy offered to help in the Bay of Pigs". The individual to whom this comment was addressed then replied "He won't last very long. He will be killed".

MILLER then stated that he had heard that the Dallas Police Department had a Mexican in custody and that this development led him to believe more strongly than ever that LEE HARVEY OSWALD and the other individual mentioned above were in the El Carlo's Bar in El Paso on November 15, 1963.

MILLER indicated that it was his opinion that the assassins probably came from Mexico to El Paso and on to Dallas. MILLER said he definitely believed that the man he observed in the El Carlo's Bar in El Paso was LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

On November 23, 1963, CHESTER MC LAUGHLIN, United States Probation Officer, El Paso, furnished to Special Agent ROBERT C. NAGEL the name of GARY EDWARD PETERSON, FBI # 740 654 C, and stated that PETERSON was convicted in the United States District Court in El Paso in August, 1960, on an extortion charge involving a threatening letter to his mother. MC LAUGHLIN indicated that PETERSON received psychiatric treatment and was placed on supervised probation during the early part of 1963. MC LAUGHLIN further advised that PETERSON obtained employment as a trainee at the Curtis Mathis Plant in Athens, Texas, and was last known to be located in Athens.

Mr. MC LAUGHLIN said he believed PETERSON wrote threatening letters to the President of the United States while serving in the United States Army in about 1959.

On November 23, 1963, Mr. N. F. DAVIDSON, Senior Patrol Inspector, United States Border Patrol, El Paso, telephonically advised Special Agent HAROLD H. BOYCE as follows:

A neighbor of Mr. DAVIDSON's, namely ELTON D. MARSH, 131 Edith Drive, El Paso, reported to him that after viewing television broadcasts concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY, he recognized the building where the assassin allegedly hid as the Texas School Book Depository Building, where an attorney acquaintance, namely ROSS CARLTON, had his office. CARLTON supposedly was President of the Texas Text Book Company in the same building and was admittedly anti-KENNEDY administration and outwardly outspoken in indicating that he was a vicious personal enemy of Vice-President LYNDON B. JOHNSON. CARLTON was apparently a segregationist and associate of reactionary groups in Dallas. CARLTON also admittedly had an extensive gun collection. In view of this, MARSH was of the opinion that ROSS CARLTON could be suspect in connection with the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Inspector DAVIDSON was of the personal opinion that MARSH was not too reliable and had a brother who was then located in a mental hospital.

The following investigation was conducted to determine if the individual driving an automobile registered to JOE P. SWANSON, 3631 Nations, El Paso, was one of two men who reportedly stopped at a drive-in grocery operated by FRANK TRUBULA, Highway 81 South, Cotulla, Texas, at about 5:10 PM on November 23, 1963, and made the statement regarding a shell that he had in his possession, "That is what I got the President with yesterday."

On November 23, 1963, RICHARD MARVIN SWANSON, 3631 Nations, El Paso, advised Special Agents ROBERT G. ARREGUIN and DEAN N. RAY as follows:

SWANSON has a 1956 Plymouth, two-door, green, 1963 Texas license CM 6883, in his possession which was registered to his father, JOE P. SWANSON, of the same address. SWANSON pointed out that the above mentioned license plates were on the vehicle in question. SWANSON currently attends Texas Western College and is employed at Price's Creameries in El Paso.

SWANSON claimed that he had not loaned the above mentioned automobile to any person on November 22, 1963. SWANSON does not own a 6.5 rifle but admitted ownership of a Remington 22 caliber rifle.

On November 23, 1963, the records of the El Paso Police Department, El Paso, were checked and it was determined that JOE P. SWANSON was the owner of the above mentioned vehicle. It was also determined that no stolen report on the vehicle or the license plates was contained in the Police Department files and that no record was maintained regarding RICHARD MARVIN SWANSON in the files of the Police Department.

On November 23, 1963, ROBERT D. MC INTYRE, Night Manager, Prices Creameries, El Paso, advised Special Agents ABEGGLEN and RAY that SWANSON was working at Prices Creameries from 11:00 AM to 7:00 PM on November 22, 1963.

On November 23, 1963, JOHN DEFEE, JR., a fellow student at Texas Western College, El Paso, advised Special Agents ABEGGLEN and RAY that SWANSON attended classes at Texas Western College on November 23, 1963.

On November 23, 1963, L. I. BATES, 2305 West Second Street, Odessa, Texas, advised SA ROY C. DAHL as follows:

BATES knew the President was to be killed. BATES had known this for the past three years as he had heard a rumor shortly after the Democratic Convention in San Francisco that President KENNEDY would "not last out a full term". BATES did not know when the President was to be killed but knew it would happen. BATES did not know the source of this rumor nor could he recall when or where he heard the rumor. This rumor was generally known around Odessa. BATES knew nothing regarding the individual responsible for the shooting of President KENNEDY.

The following investigation was conducted to determine if the Church of the First Born of the Fullness of Time (CFB), which reportedly had headquarters in El Paso, Texas and was led by JOEL AND ERVAL LE BARON, had been, as alleged, plotting the assassination of top government officials and the killing of the top officials of the Mormon Church in order that the CFB take over the United States Government.

One JOEL FRANKLIN LE BARON, one ERVIL MORREL LE BARON and one ALMA DAYER LE BARON, brothers, fled the United States in 1944 to evade the draft and went to Mexico. JOEL FRANKLIN LE BARON surrendered himself at El Paso, Texas in 1948, pled guilty to a draft evasion charge and was sentenced to one year in the custody of the Attorney General, the sentence being suspended and JOEL FRANKLIN LE BARON being placed on probation for three years.

In October, 1960, Dr. E. L. HATCH, Colonia Juarez, Chihuahua, Mexico, a Mormon, advised SA WILLIAM H. NIMMINS that the LE BARON brothers were then residing in Colonia Juarez, located about 175 miles Southwest of El Paso, Texas.

On November 26, 1963, Dr. CLARK S. KNOWLTON, Head of the Sociology Department, Texas Western College, El Paso, a Mormon, telephonically advised SA RICHARD K. GRAHAM, that the headquarters of the CFB were located in Galeana, Chihuahua, Mexico near Colonia Juarez. He said CFB members practice polygamy, which makes living in the United States difficult. Dr. KNOWLTON said he had been told by members of the CFB that most CFB members had left the El Paso area and that the LE BARONs are no longer leaders of the CFB. Dr. KNOWLTON said the CFB seemed to be very unstable, new members remaining as members for only a short period of time. Dr. KNOWLTON said he did not know of any plotting by the CFB against government officials and did not believe the CFB members to be that stupid. Dr. KNOWLTON said that a Master's thesis regarding the CFB had been written and was located in care of the Religion Department of Brigham Young University.

On November 26, 1963, Mr. M. PRATT and Mr. LIONEL M. WEST, Bishop and Stake President respectively, Mormon Church, El Paso, telephonically advised SA GRAHAM that the above-mentioned statements by Dr. KNOWLTON were generally believed to be correct.

On November 26, 1963, ROSS JOHNS, a transient who listed his residence as 102 Glenrose Street, Nashville, Tennessee, advised SA ROY C. DAHL in Midland, Texas as follows:

JOHNS was in the Hollywood Bar in El Paso on September 29 or October 1, 1963 and met a man in the bar by the name of OSWALD, first name not known. An unidentified man and OSWALD's girl friend, a Mexican girl from Juarez, Chihuahua, Mexico, were with OSWALD at that time. The man who identified himself to JOHNS as OSWALD, approached JOHNS in the Hollywood Bar on the above-mentioned occasion and offered to sell JOHNS some "dope", telling JOHNS at that time that he could get anything for JOHNS that JOHNS wanted across the river, meaning in Mexico. This individual also told JOHNS that if JOHNS needed anything he could be contacted at the Hollywood Bar.

Investigation conducted at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Mexico, developed information that LEE HARVEY OSWALD entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963 and departed from Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963. No information was developed that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been in the vicinity of Juarez, Chihuahua, Mexico or El Paso, Texas during that period of time.

On November 29, 1963, Mrs. LELA KAY LORD, 2403 Holloway Street, Midland, Texas, advised Special Agent ROY C. DAHL that in October, 1959, her son, BILLY JOE LORD, Air Force Serial Number 18649720, who is presently station at the United States Air Force Base in Minot, North Dakota, traveled to France to attend school. Her son made the trip aboard a Lykes Brothers Steamship. LEE HARVEY OSWALD was on this same ship and shared a cabin with her son. Her son told her that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was an atheist.

On November 30, 1963, the Odessa, Texas, Police Department telephonically advised Special Agent ROY C. DAHL in Midland, Texas, that WILLIAM RAY DOBKINS of Monahans, Texas, had been locked up. The Odessa Police Department further advised that during the night of November 29, 1963, DOBKINS had gone to the back door of the Texas Cafe in Odessa and had attempted to enter the Cafe. DOBKINS reportedly told the person at the Cafe that he was investigating LEE HARVEY OSWALD. DOBKINS reportedly then entered the Odessa Police Department and told the Desk Sergeant that he had killed President KENNEDY. The Odessa Police Department further advised that in view of the fact that DOBKINS was drunk, he was arrested and placed in jail.

On November 30, 1963, WILLIAM RAY DOBKINS, mentioned above, advised Special Agent DAHL that he had been drunk the night before and that he had actually not had anything to do with the shooting of President KENNEDY. DOBKINS indicated that he resided in Monahans, Texas, and worked with his father in a bakery in Monahans.

DOBKINS' employment at the bakery in Monahans was verified by Special Agent ROY C. DAHL on November 30, 1963, at which time it was determined that DOBKINS was in Monahans during the time and subsequent to the shooting of President KENNEDY.

ALLEGED STATEMENT KENNEDYS WOULD BE KILLED IF THEY CAME SOUTH

The following investigation was conducted by SA C. McAFEE McCRACKEN:

On November 26, 1963, THOMAS E. BRYSON, 101 North Holland Street, Asheville, North Carolina, advised he had an argument approximately three months ago in front of the Imperial Newsstand, 30½ Patton Avenue, Asheville, North Carolina, which is operated by E. C. GOLDBERG, with a person, name unknown, but believed to be the brother of E. C. GOLDBERG. BRYSON advised something was said about the KENNEDYS and that he then said, "They will be elected again," and that the unknown man said, "If they ever come South we will kill 'em, and especially ROBERT KENNEDY. We are keeping quiet until they come." BRYSON stated he "cussed" the man out, stated E. C. GOLDBERG heard the argument and should know the identity of the person with whom he had the argument. BRYSON described the person as white, male, age approximately 55 to 60, 5'5" to 5'7", 145 to 160 pounds, hair graying.

During the interview BRYSON stated he has a heart condition and asthmatic condition and that he drinks considerably.

On November 26, 1963, E. C. GOLDBERG, owner, Imperial Newsstand, Asheville, North Carolina, advised he knew BRYSON but does not recall an argument. He stated BRYSON is known to tell fantastic tales. GOLDBERG advised his brother, HYMAN GOLDBERG, of Savannah, Georgia, did visit him in July, 1963, but does not recall him talking or arguing with BRYSON.

"M-O-Y-A," DALLAS, TEXAS

At 12:30 P.M., November 27, 1963, an unknown male telephoned the Charlotte FBI Office and, speaking to the switchboard operator, stated, "Check M-O-Y-A, Dallas, Texas." The caller then hung up without identifying himself or making any additional statement. Instead of stating the word "MOYA" he spelled each individual letter "M-O-Y-A."

STATEMENT MADE HENDERSONVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA, THAT MONEY SHOULD BE RAISED TO SHOOT KENNEDY

By communication dated November 23, 1963, the Tampa FBI Division advised that on November 23, 1963, a letter was found under the door of the St. Petersburg, Florida, Resident Agency Office of the FBI. This letter reads as follows:

"Gentlemen:

"While in Hendersonville, North Carolina, this past September a young man from the locality said to me that 'a $1,000,000 should be raised to kill that guy KENNEDY.'

"This person was only 17 years old and I'm quite certain that his statement has not the remotest connection with yesterday's tragedy. Nevertheless it shows the hatred rammed in the above section and very probably in other parts of the South against President KENNEDY.

"I feel impelled to write the above in view of what happened yesterday in Dallas.

"Respectfully yours,

"/S/ WALTER FRANK, 4816 5th St., South, St. Petersburg, Fla."

Upon contact, WALTER FRANK advised he and his wife vacationed at Edgewater Manor Apartments, 801 Lakeside Drive, Lake Osceola, Hendersonville, North Carolina, during the first half of September, 1963. This resort is owned by J. E. JACOBSON, Box 525, Hendersonville, North Carolina.

During this period FRANK engaged in conversation with handyman, name unrecalled, about 17 years old, tall, skinny, reddish hair, no glasses, who made the comment during a conversation that "$1,000,000 should be raised to kill that guy KENNEDY." FRANK did not recall the context or subject of instant conversation and recalled only this comment. FRANK does not recall this boy's name, however, JACOBSON would know the same.

In May, 1963, their last discussion concerned the attempted assassination of President DE GAULLE of France, with the conversation shifting to the question of how one would go about the assassination of a President. President KENNEDY's name was not mentioned. ALEXANDER advised that these individuals have strong Marxist and pro-Cuban feelings. ALEXANDER stated that she, along with ROBERT HOFFMAN, published a newspaper entitled "The Reed," which was a very liberal paper. She stated HOFFMAN's brother, DAVE, held a party during the summer at his apartment near Slogan's Bar in New Orleans. This salesman in talking about the assassination of President KENNEDY stated he heard from some unknown source that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been in Monroe, North Carolina, during the trouble some time ago with ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS who has since fled to Cuba. Chief of Police A. A. MAUNEY, Monroe, North Carolina, previously advised in August, 1961, that RICHARD PAUL GRISWOLD was one of a group of so-called "Freedom Riders" who came to Monroe in August, 1961, and assisted ROBERT WILLIAMS in his integration activities. These activities culminated in a near riot on August 27, 1961, when a white couple was kidnapped by WILLIAMS' group. That night WILLIAMS and his family fled Monroe and ultimately obtained asylum in Cuba. Chief MAUNEY stated that as a result of these activities in Monroe on August 27, 1961, GRISWOLD was one of the several individuals arrested and placed in jail in default of bond. While in jail GRISWOLD was attacked and beaten by another inmate and as a result GRISWOLD had to be treated at the Union County Hospital.

The December 2, 1963, issue of the "Charlotte Observer," a Charlotte, North Carolina, daily newspaper, carried an article entitled "The Story of LEE HARVEY OSWALD." This article reflected that in October, 1959, OSWALD went to the Soviet Union and returned to the United States June 13, 1962.

APPENDIX

ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS

The following is information regarding ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS of Monroe, North Carolina:

On April 10, 1950, a source advised that ROBERT F. WILLIAMS attended a Communist Party (CP) meeting which was held in the Headquarters Office of the CP-USA, District 22, Room 14, Brown Building, Charleston, West Virginia, in April, 1950. WILLIAMS, who was a student at that time at West Virginia State College, Institute, West Virginia, was teaching Communism to other students at the school and claimed that he had taken Communist leaflets and newspapers and placed them in various places at the school or so other students would find them.

On June 15, 1955, WILLIAMS voluntarily appeared at the Charlotte Office of the FBI, at which time he denied ever being a member of the CP, but stated he had met individuals who were members but declined to name them. He said at one time he was invited by the "Michigan Edition of the Daily Worker" to become a member of the "Daily Worker" staff in New York. He said that while he was in the State of West Virginia, he had made a speech before an open forum which pertained to the Negro situation and following the speech an organizer for the CP of West Virginia approached him and offered him a free subscription of the "Daily Worker." WILLIAMS further stated he had never been a member of the CP, however, in 1953 he had been selected as an individual who should attend the Jefferson School of Social Science in New York City. He attended one session of classes at the school for one night and it was his observation the information being taught was not "good," and he discontinued his attendance without completing the course. He did not elaborate on his statement that the information being taught was not "good."

Jefferson School of Social Science in New York City has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast daily newspaper which suspended publication January 13, 1958.

APPENDIX

On February 29, 1956, a second source advised that on that date WILLIAMS had contacted the Soviet Embassy in Washington, D. C., and requested that he be allowed to enter and live in the Soviet Union. WILLIAMS pointed out to the Embassy officials that he had been discharged from the United States Marine Corps on April 27, 1955, as a security risk because he spoke out against racial discrimination in the Marine Corps; also, that he had been denied all his veteran rights although he held an Honorable Discharge from the United States Army; further, that he had been unable to obtain employment and as a Negro could not expect to receive justice because racial prejudice was greater than social justice in the United States.

The June 11, 1960, issue of "The Crusader," a weekly newspaper published in Monroe, North Carolina, by ROBERT F. WILLIAMS, stated that WILLIAMS left Monroe on Thursday night, June 9, 1960, for New York City and contemplated a plane trip to Cuba. The June 18, 1960, issue of "The Crusader" contained an article stating that WILLIAMS had called Monroe, North Carolina, from Havana, Cuba, on June 13, 1960, and stated, "I wish every American Negro could visit Cuba and see what it really means to be treated as a first class citizen."

On August 10, 1960, a third source advised that on August 7, 1960, he attended a meeting at 116 University Place, New York City, at which time ROBERT WILLIAMS was introduced as a Negro leader from Monroe, North Carolina, and that WILLIAMS had just returned from an extended tour of Cuba where he observed the revolution firsthand and participated in the July 26, 1960, celebration in the Sierra Maestra. WILLIAMS then spoke on the topic "The Campaign Against Progress." WILLIAMS stated that he visited Cuba to see the advancement of the Cuban Revolution and was very impressed by its success; "Today in Cuba one does not see any racial discrimination and that the United States Government and the State Department are making a definite effort to keep Negroes out of Cuba." WILLIAMS stated further "The progress of the revolution can be seen all over--if this is Communism, then I vote for Communism."

An article appearing in the July 26, 1960, issue of the "Durham Sun" a Durham, North Carolina, newspaper, carried an article written by DREW PEARSON, dateline New York City. According to the article, WILLIAMS had visited Cuba several times and had invited CASTRO to visit him in North Carolina. The article further reflected that WILLIAMS stated he had received a telegram from CASTRO stating that the State Department would not let him move outside of Manhattan and could not visit WILLIAMS in North Carolina.

Chief of Police A. A. MAUNEY, Monroe, North Carolina, advised SA ROGER E. SCHULTZ in August, 1961, that true bills of indictment were returned by a Union County Grand Jury, Monroe, North Carolina, on August 28, 1961, against ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS and on August 31, 1961, against HAROLD REAPE, RICHARD CROWDER, JOHN C. LOWRY and WILLIE MAE MALLORY, charging two counts of violation of the North Carolina State Kidnaping Statute in connection with the kisnaping of Mr. and Mrs. G. BRUCE STEGALL at Monroe, North Carolina, on August 27, 1961, following a race riot at Monroe on August 27, 1961. On August 28, 1961, Mr. ROBERT L. Chief of Police MAUNEY subsequently advised that according to information received by him, WILLIAMS had fled to Cuba where he is still living.

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY

Pursuant to your instructions, Liaison Agent O. H. Bartlett conferred with Chief James J. Rowley, U. S. Secret Service, on the night of 12/3/63 to determine the scope of the Secret Service investigation as a result of President Kennedy's assassination with particular reference to Lee Harvey Oswald.

Mr. Rowley advised that the Secret Service was flooded with bits of information, particularly from telephone calls, which they immediately covered in various field offices of the Secret Service. Mr. Rowley said that the original wave of "frantic bits of information" has now been handled and any pertinent information has been furnished to the Bureau. Mr. Rowley stated that there is no question but that the FBI is completely handling the Oswald investigation and his Service is ready to assist in any way. He said that on 12/3/63 his special agent in charge in New York telephoned him about some court records in New York City on Oswald and Mr. Rowley's instructions were to the effect that any information should be immediately turned over to the FBI inasmuch as the Bureau is handling the investigation.

Mr. Rowley again commented on the fact that during the heat of battle when this tragedy first happened, his Service may have covered some leads which should have been given to the Bureau. However, this was not done in any attempt to take away the Bureau's jurisdiction.

Ruby Posed as TV Cameraman's Helper to Get at Oswald

JOSEPH C. GOULDEN
Inquirer Reporter

DALLAS, Dec. 7.—Jack Ruby, carrying an equipment-carrying prop for a television crew to enter the jail basement where he killed accused Presidential assassin Lee H. Oswald.

An unimpeachable law enforcement source says Ruby relied on a close friendship with a local TV cameraman to gain admission for the crew.

PASSED GUARDS

Armed with heavy electronic equipment, he walked unimpeded past police whose security cordon around the basement was somewhat less than tight. A pistol in his overcoat pocket, the strip-tease club operator waited patiently until detectives brought Oswald through the basement the morning of Nov. 24 for transfer to the county jail, a mile away.

Then with a single pistol shot Ruby mortally wounded Oswald, silencing forever the man who had the answers to America's crime of the century.

Ruby's ruse is one of several previously overlooked facets of the slaying of President Kennedy noted by an Inquirer reporter in Dallas this week.

Others included:

—The discovery that the U. S. Communist Party wrote Castro-sympathizer Oswald a letter thanking him "for your photographic contributions to the Communist Party." Photo materials and a negative of a blank selective service system card were found among Oswald's effects.

—The revelation that the Federal Bureau of Investigation tried to recruit Oswald as an undercover informant in Castro groups two months before Mr. Kennedy's death.

—Statements from residents who saw Oswald with a rifle in a window of the Texas School Book Depository Building 15 minutes before the shots killed Mr. Kennedy and wounded Texas Gov. John Connally.

—Indications of bitter rivalry and lack of cooperation among officers working on the case — both between themselves and with the county district attorney, Henry Wade, and Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr. The implied villain is the FBI.

The story of the Oswald slay

...as pieced together from ...mentative law enforcement ...ources, is at sharp variance ...ith the version offered public... by Ruby's lawyer, Tom ...eward.

Ruby's story, as relayed by ...eward, is that he sneaked ... ... officers guarding the ... basement at Dalas City Hall ... ...ed the shot before any... could stop him.

... investigator who has in... ...gated Ruby says Howard's ... on "just isn't true."

...ORADIC CHECK

Ruby came to the jail about ... A. M. Nov. 24, 15 minutes ... the time Police Chief ... had set to transfer ... a full view of TV cam... ... waiting newsmen.

Police were making a sporadic and inefficient check of newsmen's credentials — supposedly the only outsiders allowed in the basement.

Ruby had wandered freely through the police station the previous two nights, even attending, and asking questions at, one of Wade's press conferences.

OFFERS TO HELP

With more serious things on his mind now, Ruby took no chances of being barred at the gate. He approached a cameraman for a Dallas area television station who is a frequenter of his strip tease joint, the downtown Carousel Club.

"How about getting me in there?" Ruby asked the cameraman, who was unloading equipment. "I can help you with some of that gear."

The cameraman agreed, and Ruby carried several satchels of TV equipment. He then mingled with the mass of newsmen and policemen in the basement until Oswald came out.

The name of the cameraman is known to law enforcement agencies here. And presumably the episode will be made public in a report on Ruby now being drafted by a special panel of police investigators.

REFUSES DISCUSSION

The cameraman, however, denied helping Ruby. "I don't know anything about it," he said, and would not discuss the matter further.

Dallas police are handling the matter gingerly. Curry and Capt. Will Fritz, homicide division head, have been roasted in the national and foreign press for "Keystone Kop bungling" on the transfer.

If police are able to prove, therefore, that an unsuspecting newsman helped Ruby get into the basement, they expect much of the criticism to halt.

CLOSELY GUARDED

Newsmen have not been able to ask Ruby how he entered the basement. Sheriff Bill Decker has him under heavy guard in the county jail; his only visitors, save for Howard and investigators, have been relatives and business associates.

The fact Oswald had done photographic chores for the Communist Party was revealed by Assistant District Attorney William F. Alexander, Wade's chief prosecutor.

The letter, Alexander said, was among perhaps six found in Oswald's room in Oak Cliff, which he occupied under a false name.

Alexander said the letter gave no indication of what type of photographic work Oswald had performed.

Several expensive cameras and rolls of film were found in the room by sheriff's detectives and turned over to the FBI.

The most vital piece of material, however, was the negative for a blank draft card.

A Federal intelligence source —not involved in the murder investigation—said such a negative "would be invaluable" to anyone involved in espionage work.

FORGERY POSSIBLE

"With a printing plate made from such a negative, you could run off blank draft cards by the hundreds," the intelligence agent said.

"A draft card is considered sufficient documentation for issuance of a tourist card into Mexico, for example, or for obtaining a job or a driver's license.

"Also, if an alien got into the country — say from Cuba — and wanted to assume a false undercover identity, a draft card would be the first thing he sought."

Oswald had worked for a photographic firm in Dallas earlier this year. This was after a visit to the Soviet Union during which he sought to renounce his U. S. citizenship.

INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN

Alexander said one of the letters — three pages in length — gave Oswald detailed instructions on how to set up a "Fair Play for Cuba Committee." This was on Communist Party stationery and was signed by the same man who had thanked Oswald for the photographic help.

The FBI has not released the text of the letters, nor would local agents discuss them.

During interrogation after Mr. Kennedy's assassination Oswald steadfastly denied that he was a Communist. Instead, he said, he was a Marxist.

Other materials were found in Oswald's quarters in suburban Irving, where his wife and two children lived with Mrs. Ruth Paine, who had befriended them. These included:

—Seven metal file boxes with names of Castro sympathizers.

—Batches of leaflets with the legend: "Hands Off Cuba." These bore the imprint of the "Fair Play for Cuba Committee."

—A catalogue of books and pamphlets on socialism and Communism.

The FBI attempt to recruit Oswald as an informant, an informed law enforcement source said, was made in September, just after he had moved to Dallas from New Orleans.

Oswald's mother said an "agent named Hosty" came to the Irving house and talked to the young man at length in his car.

An FBI agent named Joseph Hosty handles investigations of subversives for the Dallas field office.

The source said he did not know if the FBI succeeded in hiring Oswald; and the Federal agency would not discuss the matter.

THOUGHT IT 'FUNNY'

Mrs. Oswald, however, said her son "thought the whole thing was pretty funny."

Mrs. Oswald also said the FBI questioned Lee in 1961, just after he returned from Russia, and again last summer, when he was arrested for pro-Castro activities in New Orleans.

Investigators previously said Oswald built a "cave" of boxes in which he hid from view in a fifth-floor window of the book warehouse, and was not clearly visible from the street.

This is contradicted however, by at least two residents who told deputy sheriffs immediately after the shooting they had spotted a man there earlier.

'WAS TAKING AIM'

One of the men—whose name is being withheld by The Inquirer at the request of officers — said he glanced at the building several minutes before the Presidential calvacade rolled by.

"He was sitting up there and looking down, apparently waiting for the same thing I was—the President," the man said. He noticed nothing unusual, then casually looked up again as Mr. Kennedy's car approached.

In stunned, frozen horror, the man said: "He was taking aim with a high-powered rifle. I was looking at the time he fired the shots. He did not seem to be in any hurry."

'MAN IN WINDOW'

A couple was standing at an intersection across from the building, 15 minutes before the parade. The man remarked to his wife that he hoped no incidents would mar the President's visit, that the Secret Service was protecting him. He looked at the building and saw a man.

"He was holding in his arms what appeared to be a high-powered rifle," the man said. "He was holding it at parade rest."

"Looks like the Secret Service is really on the job," the man said, pointing to the rifleman. His nearsighted wife could not see him.

A quarter of an hour later the couple was among hundreds of sidewalk viewers who heard the fatal shots from the building.

On 12/5/63, Mr. WILTON J. LUTWACK, who identified himself as President of the Colad Co. Inc., 701 Seneca St., Buffalo, N.Y., telephone TL 2-8888, residence 1189 West River Parkway, Grand Island, N.Y., telephonically contacted the Buffalo Office and spoke to SAC JOSEPH K. PONDER. Mr. LUTWACK advised he has a theory which might have a bearing upon the assassination of President KENNEDY which he would like to discuss with an agent of this office and would produce a book which has a bearing upon his theory. He said his information was something known to the military, probably highly classified and that he did not desire to discuss the matter by telephone. He said that he desired that the information which he would furnish be brought to the attention of top officials of the FBI and to Chief Justice EARL WARREN for consideration. He stated he is not a crank and desired no publicity in connection with the matter.

On 12/5/63, Mr. LUTWACK was contacted by SA BIRL WILSON. At the outset Mr. LUTWACK stated that he does not want any publicity in connection with his theory and does not want his name mentioned in any way as the source of the theory.

Mr. LUTWACK related that he is a graduate of the State University of Iowa, School of Journalism [(1938)] and has many friends in the newspaper field. He stated he could have contacted close friends who are the editors of large newspapers throughout the United States and suggested that they explore the ramifications of his theory, but he preferred to furnish the information to the appropriate officials of the United States Government.

Mr. LUTWACK advised that while in college and for many years since, he has studied hypnotism and is aware that the United States Army is experimenting in the use of post hypnotic suggestion. It is also being used to some extent by private industry in the field of industrial psychology. Mr. LUTWACK produced a copy of the book "Hypnotism," completely new and revised edition by GEORGE H. ESTABROOKS, who is described as former president of Colgate University and an American pioneer in the field of hypnotism. The book was published by E. P. Dutton and Company, Inc., 1957. He stated this book deals with post hypnotic suggestion and is the primary source of information for his theory.

Mr. LUTWACK stated that he is of the opinion that during the three year period LEE HARVEY OSWALD was in Russia he was prepared for the assassination of President KENNEDY through mis-treatment and "brain washing," followed by post hypnotic suggestion.

Mr. LUTWACK said the planting of the thoughts concerning details of the assassination such as acquiring a weapon, waiting until the time the President was in a parade, killing the President and those riding with him, making his escape, etc., could have been done without OSWALD being aware that he was being hypnotized. OSWALD then could have been under hypnosis for a long period of time prior to the assassination. LUTWACK further said that the thought could have been planted with OSWALD that following completion of the mission he would have no recollection of it. In this event, according to LUTWACK, if OSWALD was questioned in the future he would have no recollection of what he had done. LUTWACK said that if a polygraph was used in the questioning there would be no reaction, nor would any admissions be obtained through the use of drugs.

U.NDATION

Mr. LUTWACK advised that facts supporting his theory may be found in the aforementioned book and that he is of the opinion that the author of the book, as well as other authorities on hypnotism, will support his theory.

Mr. LUTWACK advised that Colad Company, Inc., is the world's largest manufacturer of custom designed plastic coated book covers. He furnished the enclosed reprint from "Iowa Alumni Review," Volume 14, No. 6, October, 1961, which contains background data concerning himself and describes the Colad Company as a "multi-million dollar" company. During the interview Mr. LUTWACK mentioned that he and his wife recently returned from a European trip which included West Germany, where they visited his cousin, Justice MARK ROBINSON, one of the presiding judges of the Nuremburg trials.

The Bureau's attention is directed to the reports of SA HAROLD C. BREUEL dated 2/7/44, and 3/28/44, at Buffalo, in case captioned WILTON J. LUTWACK.

[redacted]

Page 4, second column of the aforementioned reprint from "Iowa Alumni Review," identifies LUTWACK as one-time chief of the Administrative Branch of the Rochester Ordnance District.

In view of the information furnished by Mr. LUTWACK the Bureau may desire to consult military authorities or other experts for an evaluation of the theory advanced by Mr. LUTWACK.

A Man With Ideas

school, of "working his way through." He wrote to half a dozen colleges where he thought such opportunity might exist, but there was no immediate reply.

In 1934 he was thumbing through his mail when out popped what appeared to be a form letter. He tore it open but didn't read the contents. He tossed it toward the waste basket, but it glanced off and out fell his letter of acceptance from the University of Iowa.

"I gave up my job, sold my convertible, borrowed on my life insurance and hitch-hiked to Iowa City with $140," he says. Even in 1934 $140 didn't begin to cover tuition, room and board and books, so Wil, as his associates call him, got a job peeling potatoes in a local restaurant for his three meals a day; found another job janitoring for his room rent, and played with a dance band to meet incidental expenses.

By buying fourth and fifth-hand books, he saved more than half of the usual cost. "Say, these books look pretty awful," he protested to the clerk in the bookstore. "Don't you have something I can hide them in?" The clerk pointed to a supply of covers at 10 cents each.

Down to the local meat market headed Wil. The butcher was very obliging. For a dime he gave the young freshman enough brown wrapping paper to cover a small dormitory.

Lutwack had never used a book cover in his life. But he worked at it intently then, tucking in the edges, tailoring the corners and drawing the heavy paper snug and smooth. Later when he was studying in the library he sat down next to another student who admired his handiwork. "I'd give you a nickel apiece to cover my books like that," the latter said.

And Lutwack found himself in business. The covers were adjustable to any size book so he had samples printed, with a space for advertising, and sold the idea to the local bookstore. Probably the first testimonial letter Lutwack received came from Williams' Iowa Supply Company, Iowa City, dated October 30, 1934.

"My dear Mr. Lutwack: This is to advise you that if at any time in the near future you plan on getting out any advertising stunts similar to the book cover on which I took space with you, I would be glad to have you call to see me in that I would be interested in anything you might promote. The ad which I purchased on your book cover was one of the best pieces of contact that I have ever subscribed to and I wish to congratulate you on your ingenuity and farsightedness in figuring this novel advertising suggestion. Sincerely yours, W. Williams."

Later, with Williams' support, Lutwack sold advertising to other local business establishments and for some time the covers were made and distributed in the back of Williams' Supply, now the Iowa Book and Supply Company.

Lutwack gives considerable credit for his book cover success to Bill Williams, the owner of Williams Supply. "He was grand to me and was one of the people who encouraged me to continue my advertising and sales promotional career. Bill was a real friend, and when my father died, he loaned me money to rush home for the funeral, even though he had only known me about 30 days. In those days, money was pretty tight, and credit was an almost unknown thing."

After his success with University of Iowa covers, Lutwack tried an experimental campaign in the local secondary schools. Merchants who advertised on the covers were provided with a supply for free distribution to school children and their stores were identified by cards.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

It has been theorized that the assassination of President John F. Kennedy was accomplished through posthypnotic suggestion, Lee Harvey Oswald serving as the unconscious tool of the Soviet Union.

Pursuant to such theory, it has been suggested that while in the Soviet Union (October, 1959 to June, 1962), Oswald may have been prepared for the assassination by mistreatment and "brain-washing," followed by posthypnotic suggestion. It has been suggested that necessary details may have been planted without awareness by Oswald that he was being hypnotized and that he could have been so conditioned as to have had no recollection of the assassination following its completion, even though subjected to drugs or a polygraph.

No claims of factual support for this theory have been advanced.

RE: Cincinnati airtel dated 12-3-63.

POSSIBLE ACTIVITY BY RUBY IN FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE
FPCC

Referenced Cincinnati airtel is concerned with an anonymous communication postmarked Cincinnati, 12-2-63, by which the writer encircled the picture of a man whom the writer believed bears a "striking resemblance to Jack Ruby" among a group of persons affiliated with FPCC, who were picketing the UN Building in April, 1961.

The New York Office by airtel dated 12-6-63, transmitted to Dallas two blown up photos taken 4-13-61, which corresponded with the photo received from the anonymous correspondent. The individual whose picture was encircled by the anonymous correspondent bears no resemblance to RUBY in the opinion of Agents in the Dallas Office who have observed photos of RUBY taken 11-24-63, following his arrest.

Lee Oswald

Dear Sir,

I noticed in the December issue of Time Magazine on page 38A that Oswald had taken several Ian Fleming thrillers out of the New Orleans Public Library. In reconstructing his idea of assassinating the President, one should note the or his taking the books out of the library. I have recently read one of Fleming's stories, Casino Royale, in which an assassination is performed from a office building window in Chapter 20. If Oswald had read this book and then taken out the book on the President and the assassination of Huey Long, it might be that the whole idea was triggered by this incident in a spy thriller. In any case if Casino Royale was one of the Fleming books (there are ten) taken out, the incident must surely have intersected him.

If it is possible, I should like to know for my own curiosity the titles of the Fleming books Oswald took out, and if this idea on Casino Royale fits, I will be only too glad to have helped in some small way to elucidate the twisted mind that conceived the incredible and horrifying plot to assassinate the President.

Sincerely yours,

Peter H. Gore

Your letter of December 8th has been received, and I want to thank you for giving me the benefit of your observations and comments.

My staff and I certainly share your concern over the brutal assassination of President Kennedy. Pursuant to the instructions of President Johnson, we are conducting a full investigation into the assassination and the murder of Lee Harvey Oswald, and I can assure you every ramification of these matters will be looked into.

Since we do not disclose developments in connection with our investigations, I will not be able to answer your question.

With regard to Dallas teletype dated 12-9-63, the Director inquired if we have at any time or any place approached subject to develop him as an informant.

The answer to the Director's inquiry is no. Subject was interviewed 6-26 and 8-16-62 shortly after his return from Russia. At that time he denied having been given any Soviet intelligence assignments in this country. He was requested to advise the FBI in the event he was contacted in this country by any individual under suspicious circumstances suggesting that it was a Soviet intelligence approach. He agreed to do so. Subject was again interviewed at his request on 8-10-63 while he was in a New Orleans jail. He had been arrested on the previous day on a charge of disturbing the peace arising out of his distribution of Fair Play for Cuba Committee pamphlets.

During none of the 3 interviews with subject was any attempt made to develop him as an informant concerning the Fair Play for Cuba Committee or anything else. ASAC Sylvester telephonically advised on 12-10-63 that this was true of the New Orleans interview 8-10-63 and the Dallas communications covering the 2 previous interviews in 1962 indicate that no attempt was made to develop him as an informant.

Assassination of the President

I called Inspector Malley in Dallas at 5:15 p.m. today, pointing out that newspaper reports of interviews with Mrs. Paine, the landlady of Oswald in Irving, Texas, quote her as saying that FBI agents had interviewed Mrs. Marina Oswald, the wife of Lee Oswald, several times in October 1963, rather extensively.

I told Mr. Malley we had previously checked this with Dallas and Dallas had assured us that we had not interviewed Mrs. Oswald. I requested that agents contact Mrs. Paine and tell her that what information she gives to the press is her business; however, it must be factual and accurate, and on the face of it the statements she is now reportedly giving are not accurate.

Inspector Malley advised that agents had already talked to Mrs. Paine on this and she said that she had not made such statements to the press; that she had talked very little to the press and most certainly had not made these statements.

I told Malley to have agents go back to her again and reiterate the fact that whatever she says must in every sense be completely accurate, and particularly in so far as any reference is made to the FBI. He said he would do this.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - R

Wilton J. Lutwack, President of Colad Company, Buffalo, New York, has theorized that the assassination of President John F. Kennedy was accomplished through posthypnotic suggestion, Lee Harvey Oswald serving as the unconscious tool of the Soviet Union. Lutwack, who claims many influential friends in the newspaper business, has requested that his theory be brought to the attention of top officials of the FBI and to Chief Justice Earl Warren, but that his name not be mentioned.

Lutwack suggests that while in the Soviet Union (October, 1959 to June, 1962), Oswald may have been prepared for the assassination by mistreatment and "brain washing," followed by posthypnotic suggestion. He said that necessary details could have been planted without Oswald being aware that he was being hypnotized and that Oswald could have been so conditioned as to have had no recollection of the assassination following its completion, even though subjected to drugs or a polygraph. Lutwack, who claims his company is the world's largest manufacturer of custom designed plastic coated book covers, stated that he has studied hypnotism for years and believed his theory will be supported by George H. Estabrooks, former president of Colgate University and author of the book "Hypnotism," and other leading experts in this field.

Wilton J. Lutwack, then doing business as the Federal Redistribution and Salvage Company, was interviewed in 1944 as the subject of an Impersonation investigation (Bufile 47-31119), but changed the name of his organization and prosecution was declined. Bureau files contain no other references identifiable with him.

OBSERVATIONS:

As Lutwack describes it, this is but a theory. We could contact experts or discuss it with United States Army authorities (who, according to Lutwack, are experimenting in the use of post-hypnotic suggestion), but it would still be theory, and would be exploited by apologists for Oswald and purveyors of sensationalism.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA

The Director inquired concerning an article which appeared in the "Evening Star" on 12-7-63 containing information concerning Mrs. Ruth Paine and the subject's attempt at assassination of General Edwin A. Walker. The Director also noted that 2 articles appearing in the New York "Journal American" 12-8-63 should be thoroughly reviewed.

The "Evening Star" article 12-7-63 points out that Mrs. Paine had stated publicly that sometime after 10-16-63 she had advised the FBI that subject was working in the building from which the shots that killed the President were fired. She stated that she furnished this information during the second visit to her home by FBI agents. She also reportedly stated that agents had interviewed subject's wife on these 2 visits, one sometime after 10-4-63 and one sometime after 10-16-63.

The facts are as follows:

On 10-25-63 the New Orleans office ascertained that subject had left a forwarding address of 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, when he left New Orleans 9-26-63. New Orleans requested Dallas to check this address. Dallas made inquiries in the neighborhood on 10-29-63 and determined that this was the residence of Mrs. Ruth Paine and that she had a Russian woman living with her. Preliminary checks concerning Mrs. Paine were made and she was then interviewed by agents on 11-1-63. She confirmed that Mrs. Oswald was living with her but said subject was living in Dallas and working at the Texas School Book Depository; that he visited his wife on weekends. During the interview Mrs. Oswald entered the room and upon learning the identity of the agents was quite concerned. She was told through Mrs. Paine (since Mrs. Oswald only speaks Russian) that she should not be concerned but she was not interviewed.

On 11-5-63 agents again interviewed Mrs. Paine who advised that she had been unable to ascertain subject's Dallas address and he had admitted to her of being a "Trotskyite communist." Mrs. Oswald was not interviewed during this visit and she told Secret Service agents on 11-24-63 that she had seen an agent talking to Mrs. Paine just as he was leaving. This was the second and last interview of Mrs. Paine before the assassination.

With regard to the General Walker incident, the article in the "Evening Star" refers to a scribbled notebook entry with General Walker's name and phone number. This probably refers to the note in Russian which was found on 12-2-63 in a book being sent to Mrs. Oswald by Mrs. Paine. This note when translated indicated that subject was preparing to take some drastic action and expected to be killed or at least arrested. This note was turned over to the Dallas office by Secret Service on 12-3-63. It had been found in one of 2 books which were given to Secret Service on December 2nd by the Irving Police Department. These books had been given to the Irving Police Department by Mrs. Paine on 11-30-63 so that they could be given to Mrs. Oswald who frequently used them.

Mrs. Oswald was later interviewed and advised that she had originally found this note in the Spring of 1963 on a night when her husband came home and said that he had shot at General Walker. It is noted that Walker was shot at on 4-10-63 and that the bullet which was recovered according to the Laboratory may have come from subject's gun although a positive identification cannot be made.

We have reviewed the articles in the "Journal American" dated 12-8-63. These articles contain no additional pertinent information which has not previously come to our attention. The reference in one to a man arrested in Madrid as a self-confessed plotter of Kennedy's death named as Pasquale R. Gongora probably refers to Pascual Enrique Ruedolo Gongora, a Cuban national, deported from the U.S. on 11-23-63 for involvement in criminal activities. The head of the Information Section of the Spanish Directorate General of Security advised the Legal Attache on 12-9-63 that he was improperly given a visa to enter Spain and that he has no connection with the assassination. Our files contain no information on him.

However, investigation has failed to show that Oswald had any connection whatsoever with the "School Book Depository" until October, 1963, and it does not appear that the mail carrier could possibly have seen mail addressed from Oswald with the return address "School Book Depository" on the envelope prior to October, 1963.

Dear Sir:

Our City Carrier #5, Mr Robert Pichiotino and who lives at 805 Huntington Dr., Owosso, Michigan, Owosso phone SA-3-1925, came to me with the following information which may or may not, be of value to you.

Mr Pichiotino is an alert carrier with a retentive memory and told me that he was reluctant to give the information because he did not wish to bring unnecessary disrepute on an innocent family. I assured him however that he had done the right thing and no family would suffer unless the evidence was proper.

He brot in the attached slip and said that this last summer, he had taken a letter back to the 312 S. Oak St. address for postage due. The letter was from Rubenstein and directed to some school or college in Moscow, Russia. His memory tells him that he has also seen mail addressed as the sample enclosed. He is not sure of the Lee H. part of the return address.

Also, the family living at 312 S. Oak St. Owosso, Mich. has the name of Lybo. Lybo is a Russian and writes mail to Russia. There is some other correlating information that the carrier has on the matter that I did not attempt to assimilate or evaluate. You would have to get it from him.

ST-104 REC-44 105 [illegible] -475

The Rubenstein referred to was at the S. Oak St. address for just a couple of weeks this summer. He was also known as Ruby.

DEC 13 1963

I feel that this evidence should be checked.

Gerald A. Gale

TOLD HERE FOR THE FIRST TIM

Sunday

Ever since the shocking murder of President Kennedy, Detroit Free Press reporter Gene Roberts has been digging into the strange twists that led Lee Harvey Oswald to assassination. He has interviewed dozens of witnesses, spliced together unrevealed information into the most detailed account yet prepared. Roberts, a former Nieman Fellow, handles general and labor assignments for the Free Press.

Only minutes after the party began in a middle class Dallas home in February of this year, it became apparent that the guest of honor—a wiry ex-Marine named Lee Oswald—was a "crashing boor."

The guests had come to hear of Oswald's three-year-stay in Russia as a factory hand.

Instead," said Norman Frederickson, a geologist, "he began reciting a lot of slogans.

"He obviously wasn't any great thinker, and I don't even think he knew what the Marxist slogans meant. His Russian seemed to be that of someone who had picked it up in a factory, without any study at all."

The party was to take on a special significance, however, when the attention of the guests turned to Oswald's Russian-born wife. Unlike her husband, who was a 23-year-old introvert with thinning hair, Marina Nicholaevna Oswald was a pretty, vivacious girl who spoke precise and grammatical Russian.

Almost immediately she won a friend—a Mrs. Ruth Paine, a tall urane Quaker housewife.

Today, Mrs. Paine thinks is friendship may have led er, unwittingly, to transport nd store the rifle used to assassinate John F. Kennedy.

It all began casually. Mrs. Paine was invited to the party y the host, Everett Glover, Dallas chemist who met Oswald through a geologist, George de Mohrenschildt, who n turn met him through Russian refugees in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Mr. Glover had "eight or 0" friends who were studying Russian. Mrs. Paine developed her interest in Russian as a student at the University of Pennsylvania and t Middlebury College in Connecticut. The other guests —chemists and geologists— were learning the language read Russian technical journals.

"I thought Marina to be wonderful person," says Mrs. Paine. "We were both young mothers and like to talk about our families and housework.

"I didn't like her husband, though. He wasn't at all sociable. It was almost as if he were daring you to like him and hoping you wouldn't.

"I knew right away that he considered himself a Marxist, and that he was opinionated and would never grant you a point."

In the weeks after the party, Mrs. Paine visited the Oswalds, invited them to her home, saw no evidence of marital squabbles. Oswald himself seemed to be a quiet family man.

Learned He Bought Rifle for $12.78

Following the President's assassination, Mrs. Paine was "very surprised" to learn that during this period—on March 20—a Chicago firm mailed Oswald a high powered Italian rifle. The price—$12.78.

About April 1, the Oswalds told Mrs. Paine that Lee had been dismissed from the job he had held for six months with Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall, Inc., a Dallas graphic arts firm.

Oswald's discharge delighted his co-workers who had been "shocked" to see him reading a copy of the Communist "Worker" during a lunch break.

Offers to Take Marina Into Home

Mrs. Paine came to the rescue, offering to take Marina into her home while Lee traveled to New Orleans in search of a new job. Mrs. Paine was separated from her husband, Michael, and had room in her four-room house.

A month later, Oswald wrote that he had found work and Ruth Paine drove Marina Oswald to her new home.

Life in New Orleans was busy for Lee Oswald. When not working he distributed pro-Castro leaflets, was fined $10 for brawling with anti-Castroites, participated in radio debate in which he declared himself a Marxist.

Did Research On President

In retrospect it seems that he might have been planning one of history's great tragedies. From a New Orleans library, he borrowed a biography of President Kennedy, W. R. Manchester's "Portrait of the President," and Hermann Deutsch's "The Huey Long Murder Case," the story of an assassination.

When Ruth Paine passed through New Orleans on Sept. 23, at the end of a vacation trip, she once again found Oswald out of a job. Once again, she offered his wife lodging at ther home.

"He told me he was going to Houston to look for a job and would send for his wife Marina as soon as he found one," said Mrs. Paine.

Mrs. Paine and Marina, now eight months pregnant with her second child, left New Orleans with Mrs. Paine's 1950 station wagon heavily laden with the Oswald possessions.

Believes Weapon Was In Blanket

Among them, Mrs. Paine now believes, was a blue and green blanket roll concealing an Italian rifle.

"I don't remember seeing the blanket roll when we were loading or unloading the car," she says, "but it must have been there. Later, I noticed it in my garage and I don't know how else it could have gotten there, unless we brought it that day."

Oswald never went to Houston for a job. Government records show he entered Mexico at Laredo on Sept. 26. On the same day Oswald entered Mexico, newspapers confirmed rumors that President Kennedy was planning a trip to Dallas and to other major Texas cities on Nov. 21-22.

Applied for Soviet Visa in Mexico

The following day, Oswald applied at the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City for a Cuban transit visa to the Soviet Union, only to be turned down by the Cubans because he had no Russian visa.

Later, the Russian Embassy staff told him any visa must come from Moscow, that this could take three months.

Sketchy reports indicate he traveled Mexico by bus, living meagerly, before reentering the United States on Oct. 3.

According to one report, Oswald applied for a job at an Alice, Texas, radio station on Oct. 4, but without success. That same day, he called his wife, for the first time since they left New Orleans, said he was in Dallas and needed a ride to the Paine home in suburban Irving, 12 miles away.

"Marina told him I couldn't go get him because I had just stood that day in advance to help defray hospital expenses when Marina's baby came," said Mrs. Paine.

Oswald checked into the Dallas YMCA, hitchhiked to the Paine home on the Fifth, left on the Seventh for Dallas, rented a $7 a week room.

"One needs one when looking for a job," she said.

MRS WILLIAM RANDALL likes to start the week by walking four houses south on 5th st. in Irving to the home of a friend, Dorothy Roberts. After a couple of cups of coffee with Dorothy, the week ahead begins to brighten.

Neighbor Worried About Russian Girl

Monday, Oct. 14, was different, however. Mrs. Randall went to Dorothy's home as usual but found her friend in a "sorrowful mood." She was worried she said, about Marina—the pregnant Russian girl who was living with her next door neighbor, Ruth Paine.

Later, when Marina and Ruth walked into the Robert's home to join in the coffee, Mrs. Randall offered to help find Marina's husband a job.

Texas Gypsum was a good prospect, Mrs. Randall said. So was Manor Bakery—that firm needed truck drivers. They wouldn't hire Wesley Frazier, her 19-year-old brother, but he ultimately found work with the Texas School Book Depository, a private firm that serves "as sort of a clearing house and distributing center" for several textbook publishers.

Depository Boss Was Impressed

Ruth Paine does not recall now that any companies were mentioned other than the School Book Depository. She walked to her home, phoned the firm, asked for the man in charge of hiring, got R. S. Truly, superintendent and a director of the depository.

"She said she had a fine young man and his wife living at her house," Mr. Truly recalls. "She said it was expecting a baby and that the husband really needed the work.

"Tell him to come on in," I said."

"Well, as I remember—the FBI has my files—he came in on the 15th and I talked to him and he seemed a quiet, well-mannered young man. He said he spent three years in the Marines and left me with the idea he was just out of service.

"I hired him and told him to report to work the next day." The pay would be $1.25 an hour, 40 hours a week. He would work from 8 a.m. to 4:45 p.m., with 45 minutes for lunch.

If, at this time, Lee Oswald was plotting an attempt on the life of President Kennedy, then fate was a co-conspirator. A sniper, scheming in advance to fire on the President, could pick no better spot than the School Book Depository building.

Triple Underpass Key Thoroughfare

Although no route had been announced on Oct. 16 for the President's upcoming visit to Dallas, it was rumored in the city that he might be persuaded to tour the downtown area in a motorcade. If the uptown tour was made, then the President almost certainly would pass in the shadow of the depository building, which overlooks the "triple underpass."

The three major traffic arteries of downtown Dallas—Elm, Main and Commerce—bleed into the Triple Underpass. It is difficult to enter or leave the Western end of the business district without passing under it.

From either of the top two floors of the seven-story depository building, a sniper would have all approaches to the underpass within the range of a highpowered rifle.

When Oswald reported to work at the depository, fate once again came to his aid.

"Call it fate," says Mr. Truly, "but I could have sent Oswald to work in a very isolated warehouse two blocks away and out of range of the President's motorcade. Oswald and another fellow reported for work on the same day and I needed one of them for the depository building and another for the warehouse. I picked Oswald for the depository building.

"And another thing," says Mr. Truly, "on any other year but this one he might not have been working with us on Nov. 22 (the day the President was shot). Oswald was only hired as an extra employe, and was to work through the rush season.

"The rush in school books is usually over by Nov. 1—or a little after—but this year we decided to keep the extra workers on and rearrange our stock and do some repair work."

Oswald Caught Onto Job Fast

Oswald settled quickly into his work with the textbook firm.

"We hired him on as an order filler," Mr. Truly says. "And within an hour or two, he caught on to the job.

"He took the book orders from schools and filled them. If a school wanted, say, 10 workbooks, 20 practice sets and 10 or 12 textbooks, Oswald would get them all together. This might take him all through the building. Stacks of books were stored on the sixth and seventh floors, and when we ran out of supplies downstairs, Oswald would go up and get some more.

"He seemed to be a satisfactory employe. Every time I saw him, he had an order in his hand and was trying to fill it. I often asked him, 'How are you doing? How is your baby?'

"He seemed pleased that anyone was interested. He always answered, 'very fine, thank you, Mr. Truly'."

Oswald's second daughter was born during his first week with the depository, on Oct. 20, and he announced the birth to his co-workers.

Kept to Himself And Read Papers

"The rest of the time, he was quiet," says Truly. "He didn't join the rest of the workers during the smoke breaks or play dominos with them during the 45-minute lunch break.

Oswald also "kept to himself" at his rooming house at 926 N. Beckley, two miles from the depository. He appeared at the rooming house, a squat, labyrinthine bungalow, with 17 rooms, on the night of Oct. 14—only hours after Mrs. Paine contacted the depository in his behalf. He gave his name as O. H. Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Johnson, the rooming house owners, told him the room would be $8 a week, and he quickly agreed to take it, although it was $1 a week more than the room that he had just vacated.

His room was cramped, a 10x12 foot cubicle.

An average-sized man, standing in the middle of the room, could extend his arms, shoulder high, and brush the walls with his finger tips.

Despite the room's size, Oswald spent most of his free hours in it.

"He was always in there by 9:30 or 10 p.m.," said Mr. Johnson. "You could hear him in there listening to a small radio."

Although Mr. Johnson doesn't remember them, there were exceptions to Oswald's stay-at-home rule. On Oct. 24, the night before United Nations Ambassador Adlai Stevenson was struck and spat upon in Dallas, Oswald attended a rightwing rally called by Edwin A. Walker, the former major general who was ousted from the Army after indoctrinating his troops with extremist right-

Walker Called Adlai Red Symbol

Gen. Walker told the cheering crowd of more than a thousand that Adlai Stevenson would deliver his speech from the same stage.

"Tomorrow night," he said, "there will stand here a symbol of the Communist conspiracy and its United Nations."

The crowd applauded as Gen. Walker broadened his speech into an attack on every President since Herbert Hoover, including President Kennedy.

"Oswald told me about the rally later," said Michael Paine, Ruth's estranged husband. "He said he thought the people there were anti-Semitic."

While living at the rooming house, Oswald also contacted a liberal organization, the American Civil Liberties Union, applied for membership, sent a $2 contribution in.

Other Roomers Not Suspicious

The ACLU provides legal defense in cases in which civil rights may have been violated.

Other roomers at the Johnson roominghouse had no reason to suspect Oswald of anything.

"I lived just across the livingroom from him—not more than 15 feet away," says Floyd D. Graffenreid. "I never saw him more than four or five times, and then he didn't have anything to say."

"There are always four to eight of us sitting around watching television," says Bob Palmer, another roomer.

"A lot of nights he would go to the phone between the kitchen and livingroom and we could hear him talk to someone in a foreign language. I thought it was German, but I guess now it was Russian. I wouldn't know the difference."

On weekends, he visited his wife at the Paine home. He hitch-hiked the 12 miles on Saturdays, and on Mondays walked over to the Randall home at 7:25 a.m. and rode in with Wesley Frazier.

Watched TV, Played With 2 Children

Saturdays and Sundays, he spent watching television, playing with his two-year old daughter and new baby. He liked the college football games on Saturday afternoons, and the professional games on Sundays. Saturday nights, he watched the movie, was fascinated most by World War II movies.

Michael Paine dropped by his estranged wife's home most weekends to visit his children and he and Oswald talked, always about politics and Russia. They seldom agreed.

"He was a Marxist, a revolutionary, but never said how the revolution was coming. He wasn't a deep thinker. He had memorized some doctrine on economics and politics and in an argument he always fell back on this.

"He didn't think Russia was perfect however. He griped about the restrictions placed on his freedom there. He was told where to live and work. And he once complained that they wouldn't allow you to own a rifle.

"The only way you could shoot a rifle there, he told me, was to be a member of a rifle club. He didn't like rifle clubs. I got the idea he joined one, but quit.

"He went hunting in Russia, too, and liked it."

Mr. Paine never knew Oswald won a Marine Corps "Marksman" medal, that he had been reprimanded by the Corps for possessing unauthorized firearms.

Bitter on Everything, Rightwing or Left

He was not surprised to learn after the Kennedy assassination, however, the Oswald had been working on a book critical of Russia, one almost certain to have an appeal among Far-Rightists.

"I think he was deprived as a child and was bitter at everything, right and left. Essentially though, Oswald was a leftist, but not a liberal."

To avoid arguments, the Paines did not discuss religion in Oswald's presence.

"We said grace before a meal once," says Mrs. Paine, "and the silence from his corner was so heavy that we never said it again."

Interest in JFK Visit Mounted

While Oswald played his triple role—days at the School Book Depository, nights as the solitary O. H. Lee, weekends as a devoted family man — interest in President Kennedy's upcoming Texas tour mounted steadily in Dallas.

An atmosphere of excitement, tinged with unease, prevailed in the city. Community leaders pleaded for a courteous welcome, urged citizens to refrain from demonstrations of the type that marred Ambassador Stevenson's visit in October.

"I am hoping we won't have any kind of demonstration here," said County

Judge W. L. Sterrett. "That kind of thing can give a city and county a black eye."

Almost daily, the city's two newspapers discussed the visit, exploring its possibly political ramifications, detailing plans for a Presidential luncheon.

Anti-Harassment Ordinance Passed

On Monday, Nov. 18, four days before the President's visit, the City Council adopted an anti-harassment ordinance to protect the President and future speakers. The ordinance made it illegal to interfere "with a public or private assembly by the use of insulting, threatening or obscene language or intimidation."

Earlier that day, the News announced that it was now definite: the President would tour the downtown area. "Most likely," the paper said, "the motorcade will move west on Main st." This would bring the President within range of a sniper firing from the Depository Building.

On that same day a crisis developed in the life of Lee Oswald, alias O. H. Lee.

An Angry Call, Admonishes Wife

Ruth Paine telephoned Oswald's rooming house to ask him to buy "some things" for the baby before coming to her apartment on Saturday. Oswald had left his phone number "in case of an emergency," but had not told Mrs. Paine he was living under an assumed name.

"Is Lee Oswald there," asked Mrs. Paine when the call was answered.

"I don't know any Lee Oswald," the voice replied. "No one by that name lives here."

Mrs. Paine apologized, hung up. Minutes later, Oswald called Mrs. Paine and, speaking in Russian, angrily demanded that his wife be put on the phone.

"I guess he overheard the phone conversation at the rooming house, because he hailed Marina out for having me call him," Mrs. Paine recalls. "He told her he was using an assumed name and that the call could have gotten him in trouble. He told her to tear his phone number off my scratch pad."

The course of history might [illegible] today if Mrs. [illegible] suspicions had been aroused by Oswald's alias.

While Oswald fretted over the telephone conversation, Dallas completed plans for the Presidential tour. On Tuesday, the Morning News announced the President's motorcade would travel under the Triple Underpass to the Stemmons Expressway.

On Wednesday, newspapers announced that the President would arrive at Love Field in Dallas at 11:35, tour the downtown area and arrive at the Dallas Trade Mart at 12:30 p.m.

The timetable would put the President in the shadow of the depository building at about 12:25 p. m., almost precisely in the middle of the depository's 45-minute lunch break. Chances were excellent that the book storage rooms on the top floors of the building would be empty.

Security Detail of 40 Assigned

On Thursday, Dallas Police Chief Jesse E. Curry announced Dallas would provide the President a security detail of 400 men, the most elaborate security network ever fashioned in the city.

Meanwhile, an advance detail of Secret Service men inspected the motorcade route, checked the Trade Mart, but not the depository building. It would have taken them weeks to inspect every building along the route.

Despite the precautions taken by the Secret Service and Dallas police, a last minute wave of jitters swept Dallas. A private plane bombarded the downtown area with segregationist leaflets.

Chief Curry warned that he would issue litterbug citations if the President's visit was marred by leaflets.

At 4:45 p. m. on Thursday, Lee Oswald completed the day's work and asked Wesley Frazier for a ride to the Paine home in Irving.

"You're going out there in the middle of the week, now?" asked Frazier. "I thought you went only on weekends."

"I want to get some curtain rods," Oswald replied.

Other than his unexpected arrival, there was nothing unusual about Oswald's visit. He cuddled the baby, p[illegible] with his 21-month daughter, watched television a bit, then walked into the garage which adjoins the house.

"There was nothing odd about his visit to the garage," says Mrs. Paine. "Many of his belongings were stored there. He had two large duffle bags in there, plus several boxes and a long, blue and green blanket roll."

Friday, Nov. 22, dawned hazy and warm.

Woke Up Early, Made Own Coffee

Oswald arose, dressed, made his own coffee and walked from the house without awakening Ruth Paine or his wife.

Four houses away, Mrs. Randall was standing by her kitchen sink, looking out the kitchen. At 7:10 — perhaps, 7:15 — she saw Lee Oswald turn into her driveway and walk to the car owned by her brother Wesley.

"I thought to myself, 'Boy, you sure are up and about early this morning.'" she says now. "Wesley usually leaves for work at 7:25, and on the two or three times Oswald had hitched rides with him before, he usually came into the yard just as Wesley was getting into his car."

There was one other thing, Mrs. Randall noticed. Lee Oswald was carrying a package. It was something long —maybe two or three feet or more—and wrapped in brown paper, maybe a paper laundry bag. It was a heavy package. You could tell that. He held it a few inches away from him, and his shoulder dipped slightly, the way a man's shoulder dips when he is carrying a pail of water.

"I noticed that," says Mrs. Randall, "but I didn't think much about it. A lot of people carry packages."

When Mr. Frazier stepped into his car, he also noticed the package. It was in the back seat.

"What you got there?" asked Wesley Frazier.

"Curtain rods," was the answer.

"That was about all I got him to say that morning," says Wesley, "but he never talked much. About the only time I ever got him to talk [illegible] when I asked him about babies. Then he would laugh and tell me about them.

"When we got to work a little before eight, he got out of the car with that package under his arm and walked into the building ahead of me. I never saw what he did with it."

As President John F. Kennedy rode down Dallas' main street, it seemed that everyone in Dallas was out to greet him.

Everyone was not.

Three and a half blocks from the School Book Depository, a pudgy nightclub owner stood in the Dallas Morning News Building, helping an advertising salesman draw up an ad for his small nightspot, the Carousel. The clubowner's name was Jack Ruby.

The time was now 12:25 and the motorcade had slowed to a crawl.

President Waves To Dallas Crowd

Mrs. John Connally turned in her seat in the President's car, saw the President turning right to wave at the last knot of the people lining the motorcade route.

"Well," she said, "you can't say Dallas isn't friendly today."

The crack of a rifle shot punctuated her comment.

H. L. Brennan, a 44-year-old steamfitter, glanced upward to the southeast corner of the depository building, glimpsed the sunman in a sixth floor window, saw him squeeze off the second and third shots.

"He was a slender guy, a nice-looking guy," Mr. Brennan said. "He didn't seem to be in no hurry."

Depository Superintendent Truly, who had been watching the parade from the sidewalk in front of the depository, was swept into the street by the surging crowd when the shots rang out.

"I didn't know the shots came from our building," he says, "but I saw a motorcycle policeman run in the door. I thought he was trying to get to the room to survey the scene and I ran to him and said, 'Come on, I'll show you.'"

"We ran to the back of the building to catch a freight elevator to the top floors. The front elevators don't go any higher than the fourth floor.

"Both back elevators were up in the top, which was strange, I guess, since everyone should have been out to lunch. I didn't think about it at the time, though. I pointed to the stairs.

"The policeman ran up the stairs ahead of me and when I arrived at the second floor he had his pistol out and was confronting Lee Oswald in the doorway of a little lunchroom—a place with a few candy and drink machines.

"Does this man work here?" the policeman said.

"Yes, I answered, and the two of us ran up to the fifth floor, caught an elevator to the seventh floor and then walked out on the roof of the building."

While Mr. Truly and the motorcycle police were on the roof, Detective Capt. Will Fritz, Chief of the Dallas Homicide Bureau, directed a systematic search of the building.

On the sixth floor storage room, they found a window two thirds open. Near it were three spent cartridges—each of them a 6.5 millimeter, or about .30 caliber.

The storage room seemed made to order for an assassin. It was cluttered with rows of book cartons, some of them in stacks six feet high. Five depository employes had worked in the storage room until noon, covering its floor with plywood.

One of them, Bonnie Ray Williams, walked near the window at the 10 o'clock smoking break, downed a bottle of pop, chewed on a piece of chicken. This killed the theory that the assassin had eaten while waiting in ambush.

Count Employes, One Man Missing

Meanwhile, Mr. Truly was trying to account for all employes in the building. Ninety-one persons worked there that day, and all were present now, except Lee Oswald. He had been him just minutes before at the lunchroom entrance.

"I don't know if it means anything," he told a policeman, but I'm missing a man—a young fellow named Lee Oswald."

It might mean a great deal, the policeman replied. Homicide Capt. Will Fritz immediately phoned in a description to the radio dispatchers at police headquarters.

"He's 23, about five-foot-nine and weighs around 150 pounds . . . His name is Lee Oswald." Fritz also sent a team of investigators to the Paine residence in Irving—the only address Oswald had listed on his employment record.

It was now 1 p. m.—perhaps later. Oswald was safely out of the building.

Catches a Bus Six Blocks Away

At about 12:40, Oswald tapped on the window of a bus, caught in traffic six blocks east of the depository building on Elm st. Bus driver C. J. McWatters is certain of the time. He checked his watch three or four minutes earlier and it was then 12:36.

"There's no regular bus-stop where I picked him up," said Mr. McWatters, "but I let him in. He sat three seats back, on the right."

The bus would have made a perfect getaway vehicle. It was traveling east on Elm—passing directly over spot where the President had been slain. Few policemen would think to check an approaching bus for a murder suspect only minutes after the crime.

If this was Oswald's scheme, it didn't work. The bus traveled only a block before being halted once again by heavy traffic.

Caught in Traffic, He Gives Up Bus

While Mr. McWatters leaned against his steering wheel waiting for traffic to clear, a man in working clothes banged on the door.

"The President's been killed," he cried. "That's why traffic has been held up."

A woman—one of about six passengers on the bus—was rushing to match a train and wanted off the bus immediately. Oswald followed her.

"Give me a transfer," he told the driver as he stepped off the bus. The transfer was punched with Mr. McWatter's distinctive transfer mark and later led police to him and to his story.

William Wayne Whaley, a cab driver, next saw Oswald three blocks away, at the Greyhound Bus Terminal.

Oswald opened the door, stepped in and said: "Take me to 500 North Beckley," a location five blocks past Oswald's rooming house at 1026 North Beckley.

Handed Cabbie ... A Nickel Tip

Mr. Whaley, who has hauled "all kinds" in more than 30 years as a cab driver, saw nothing unusual about Oswald, even when he refused the one attempt at conversation.

"What the hell you think happened out there?" Mr. Whaley asked, with a wave in the direction of the assassination scene.

If Oswald had tipped him a quarter at the end of the ride Mr. Whaley might never have remembered him. Instead, Oswald handed him a dollar for a 95 cent ride and hurriedly left the cab.

A cabbie doesn't forget a nickel tipper.

Oswald backtracked the five blocks to his rooming house, raced in the door.

"You sure are in a hurry," said Mrs. Earlene Roberts, the housekeeper, who was dazedly watching a television account of the assassination.

"He didn't say anything," she recalls. "He just ran into his room, got a short tan coat and ran back out." Oswald also may have grabbed a pistol while in his room. Later, police were to find an empty holster.

Confronted by Cop He Pulls a Gun

At 1:15 p.m. at a street corner eight-tenths of a mile from Lee Oswald's rooming house, Mrs. Helen Markham was waiting for an overdue bus.

Glancing down the street, hoping to catch sight of it, she saw a police prowl car stop. In a series of events that flicked by her eye in a blur, a man "about 30, with bushy hair and a white coat" walked to the prowl car, said something and moved away.

The patrolman, J. D. Tippet, got out of the car and walked toward the man in the coat.

"All of a sudden they stopped, looked at each other and he (the man in the coat) pulled out his gun and shot the officer," Mrs. Markham

"I thought he was going to shoot

"I ran to the door and a man was walking across the yard just as carefree as if he was out for a stroll. He wasn't more than 50 yards from where the policeman was dying on 10th st. and he was cutting across my yard to turn left on Patton.

"He was taking the empty shells out of his gun and throwing them over beside my house. A taxi driver started chasing him. And a woman on a corner was screaming 'call the police—call the police.'"

"I called them."

Mrs. Davis saw only the side and rear of the gunman's head and the description given by Mrs. Markham did not quite fit Oswald, who was younger, wore a tan coat and had thinning hair.

Just Mumbled To Auto Salesman

A positive identification was made later, however, by an auto salesman.

A block away from the Davis home, Ted Callaway, sales manager at the Harris Brothers' used car lot—at Jefferson and Patton, was standing on the porch of his sales office, trying to let the news of the President's death "sink in."

"I heard shooting and yelling, so I ran to the edge of the car lot — on the Patton side—and I saw this fellow trotting on the other side.

"He had a pistol in his hand in a raised position. I said, 'Man, what's going on.'"

He mumbled something and kept on jogging. He wasn't in a dead run. He just jogged around to the right on Jefferson.

"I got a good look at him. It was Oswald. I picked him out of a police lineup that night, just like that." The car salesman snapped his fingers.

"Well, I didn't know whether to chase him or go help whoever was hurt. I decided to go help, but when I got there the officer was dead. I grabbed his gun and yelled to a taxi-driver.

"I said, 'Man, we can get that guy if you hurry.'"

The chase was futile.

Mrs. Mary Brock stood in the service yard of a gasoline station, a block from the used car lot, and watched a "slim man" walk into an alleyway behind the stores fronting Jefferson.

Discards Coat During Chase

Five blocks past the station, Johnny Brewer, a salesman at the Hardy Shoe Store, saw a man, coatless, duck into the apse between his show windows (police later found a tan jacket behind the gasoline station).

"He was breathing hard and he looked scared," says Mr. Brewer. "Then I heard sirens, and a police car passed, made a U-turn and started back in the same direction it came from.

"Then the fellow left and started walking to the Texas Theatre. I followed him, a ways behind, and when I got to the theatre I asked the cashier, Julie Postal, if she had seen a man come in. She hadn't. The man who takes up tickets hadn't either.

"That's not unusual, though. A lot of people walk in to get Cokes from their machine and they don't pay much attention.

"I told Julie to call the police and the other man and I looked for the guy I had seen.

"We couldn't see him, so we waited until the police came and I walked out on the stage, and the lights came on and the picture stopped. It was a war movie, 'War is Hell'."

"From the stage I could see him. There were only 10 or 15 people in there. He was sitting in the middle aisle, half-way down.

"I pointed to him and he stood up and a policeman walked toward him and they started fighting and four other policemen came, and he fought them all before they finally put him in handcuffs."

AN HOUR AND A HALF after the bullets smashed into President Kennedy, Lee Oswald was at Dallas police headquarters, walking past television cameramen, finding himself for the first time in his lonely life before an eager audience.

"We know you killed the President," policemen told him.

"I don't know anything about it," he answered.

"There's no question about you killing Officer Tippit."

"I don't know anything about it."

Oswald was to repeat the phrase again and again in the next 48 hours. He was innocent, he said. He was being held illegally.

Wife Tells Police He Owned Rifle

While Oswald defied his interrogators, a network of hundreds of state, city, county and Federal investigators built a case against him.

In the Paine garage, they found a sagging blue and green blanket roll. Yes, Marina Oswald told them through Mrs. Paine, Lee Oswald owned a rifle. Yes, she thought he kept it in the blanket roll.

A goldmine of evidence awaited the police in Oswald's rented room: A Dallas map, with Xs marking the President's motorcade route and a line roughly tracing the trajectory of the bullets that claimed the President's life. A holster, just fitting the 38 caliber pistol Oswald wielded in the theater. A private journal, detailing Oswald's activities in New Orleans and naming his acquaintances.

Find Gunpowder On Both Hands

Still the evidence mounted. There was a photograph of Oswald holding an Italian rifle and a 38 caliber pistol identical to those the police had seized.

Paraffin tests showed traces of gunpowder on both of Oswald's hands. Oswald's fingerprints were on the book cartons and a palm print was on the rifle.

Even the questions Oswald refused to answer pointed to his guilt. If he had carried curtain rods to work that day, why couldn't police find them. Instead they discovered a long brown paper bag that could have concealed the rifle. Other employes in the office could account for their whereabouts at the time of the assassination. Why couldn't Oswald?

Why were both freight ele-rators on top floors at the time of the assassination, effectively blocking rapid pursuit of the assassin? Few persons other than an employe would have known how to operate them.

Why had he used the alias, O. H. Lee? Why was there an identification card in his wallet with the name A. Hidell?

Soon, FBI agents would trace the Italian rifle found in the depository to a New York importer and then to Klein's, a Chicago mail order firm. From 10 p.m. on Sunday until 4 a.m. on Monday following the shooting, three FBI agents and five Klein executives looked at microfilm sales slips until they found the record of a sale to an A. Hidell in Dallas.

Web of Evidence Entangles Suspect

Even without ballistics test results, which have not yet been made public, this web of evidence entangles Oswald: He owned a 6.5 millimeter rifle, and 6.5 millimeter cartridges were found by the half-open window from which the assassin fired. He had a .38 caliber pistol in his possession when arrested and .38 caliber cartridges were found a half block from Patrolman Tippit's body.

Oswald's Marine Corps marksman's badge indicates he had the ability to hit the President and Gov. Connally from the sixth-story window. The shots were fired at ranges of 50 to 80 yards, not an extraordinary feat for a marksman taking deliberate aim at a slow-moving target.

Tests made recently by police departments and rifle clubs around the nation show three shots can be fired in as little as three seconds from a bolt-action rifle.

Still [illegible] no confession from Oswald. Reporters clamored in the hallways of the police headquarters for the latest scrap of news.

Mingling with the reporters was nightclub owner and girlie show impressario, Jack Ruby, who dressed as if he might have seen too many cops and robber movies starring Edward G. Robinson.

With his felt hat pulled low over his forehead, he was everywhere, talking to his friends on the Dallas police force and in the city's press corps.

"I brought over some sandwiches," he said, when detectives asked him why he was in the building.

Slowly He Began To Thaw a Little

On Saturday night, detectives told reporters they would transfer Oswald to the Dallas County jail soon after 11 a. m. on Sunday, but had not abandoned hope of "getting him to talk."

Slowly, Homocide Capt. Fritz was breaking through Oswald's reserve. True, he was far away from a confession. Capt. Fritz told his lieutenants, but Oswald was beginning to "thaw a little." He was talking freely about incidents not connected with the shooting.

Capt. Fritz' hope of a confession that would reveal the true story of the assassination crumbled at 11:21 a.m. Sunday, when Jack Ruby jabbed a gun into Oswald's ribs and squeezed the trigger.

When asked about a possible link between Ruby and Oswald, Dallas police have a simple answer. You don't plan an assassination with a man you have met only once or twice. If Ruby and Oswald met more frequently, ask the policemen, why wouldn't someone have seen them?

Could Oswald have been the triggerman in a giant conspiracy to assassinate the President? Official "leaks" from Washington indicate the FBI has found no evidence of a conspiracy, either from the left or from the rightwing. Their evidence suggests the case is little more complex than it appears on the surface: Oswald killed President Kennedy. Jack Ruby killed Oswald.

Sitting at her home in a chair which once held Oswald, Ruth Paine said she [illegible] that he was involved in a conspiracy or that he planned, weeks or months ahead, to kill the President.

"I believe that he thought, somehow, he had a chance to make history and he took it," she said.

"But the only thing I really know is that all of it seems incredibly, utterly unbelievable."

MICHAEL RALPH PAINE
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA

RUTH HYDE PAINE
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA

For several weeks prior to President Kennedy's assassination, Marina Oswald, wife of Lee Harvey Oswald, resided at the residence of Ruth Hyde Paine, 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, and this memorandum summarizes subversive background of Paines' families; investigation to date discloses no connection between Paines and assassination.

MICHAEL RALPH PAINE

This individual, born 6-25-28, New York City, residing at 2377 Dalworth Street, Grand Prairie, Texas, is husband of Ruth Hyde Paine, but at time of Kennedy's assassination and for approximately two months prior thereto, was separated from his wife, contemplating divorce. He is employed as Design Engineer, Bell Helicopter Company, Fort Worth, Texas. He served in the U. S. Army 7-15-52 to 4-28-54, receiving honorable discharge and served in the U. S. Army Reserves, inactive status, from 4-29-54 to 7-14-60, receiving honorable discharge. His military service record contains statement dated 7-15-52 "The following inductee, Paine, Michael R., was inducted today 15 July 1952 but refused to take oath of allegiance."

Investigation has determined that Michael Paine's father and stepmother are George Lyman Paine, Jr., and Frances "Freddie" Paine, both of whom are on the Security Index because of their affiliation with the Johnson-Forest Group (JFG). Both have long histories of affiliation with the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and the JFG. The SWP and the JFG have been cited pursuant to Executive Order 10450. George Lyman Paine, Jr., was a Key Figure until 1960 based on his position as a national co-chairman of a group within the JFG.

The JFG is a group of former SWP members who broke away from the SWP in 1951 over the question of whether Yugoslavia should be considered a "worker" state. George Lyman Paine, Jr. and his wife were described as the brains behind the JFG in the Los Angeles area. The JFG was dedicated to bringing about a social revolution in the U. S.

Re: MICHAEL RALPH PAINE
RUTH HYDE PAINE

Subsequently in 1955, a split in the JFC occurred over a difference of opinion concerning a publication of the JFC and the desire of certain elements in the JFC to avoid having the organization designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450. This split resulted in two factions, one known as the "Forest Faction" and one known as the "Johnson Faction." The "Johnson Faction" is commonly known as "Correspondence." George Lyman Paine, Jr., and his wife associated themselves with the "Johnson Faction" and were reportedly the leaders of this faction in the Los Angeles area.

The "Johnson Faction" had a further split in 1962 concerning the politics of the national chairman of the "Johnson Faction" and the Paines affiliated with the minority group who followed the politics of the national chairman. At the present time George Lyman Paine, Jr., is a member of the "Johnson Faction" in Los Angeles and his wife is chairman of the Los Angeles group of the "Johnson Faction." This faction has a total membership in the U. S. of approximately six individuals. Due to the limited membership the activities of the Paines at the present time are confined primarily to membership by name and financial contributions.

The "Johnson Faction" of the JFC has completely divorced itself from the SWP and all publications of the SWP, including the "Militant."

Review of Bureau files concerning George Lyman Paine, Jr., and Frances "Freddie" Paine disclosed no information to indicate a close association between Michael Paine and those two individuals. On interview 12-10-63 Michael advised that his father divorced his mother when Michael was four years of age and since he has only seen his father on a very limited basis since he was four years of age, he does not have a close attachment to his father and does not feel he has been influenced by him to any great degree. Michael has always considered his father as somewhat of a "radical" and denied having knowledge of any organizations which his father belongs to. Michael stated his father has always looked toward "the revolution" but he has never shared his views in that connection and added that they differ basically on ways of solving any problems which the U. S. has.

In interviews with Michael Paine subsequent to the President's assassination, he furnished details of his association with Lee Harvey Oswald, including the fact that in October, 1963, he took Oswald to a meeting of the American Civil Liberties Union. Michael stated he first met the Oswalds on 4-2-63 when the Oswalds had dinner at Paines residence in Irving, Texas. After that first meeting he saw Oswald on approximately five occasions. Oswald told him that he left the USSR because he did not like his job and did not like to be told where to live. He said that in the Soviet Union a person could not own a rifle, but could own a shotgun.

Oswald expressed an objection to the restriction on rifles. Oswald claimed that he became a Marxist in the United States and that he learned Marxism from reading books. Oswald said that he had never met a communist before he went to the Soviet Union, but he did not mention whether he had met any communists in the United States after his return. He stated that he did not believe in the exploitationof man by man, and he quoted frequently from Marx. Paine mentioned to Oswald during one discussion that he was against violence in any form, but Oswald did not elaborate on Paine's comment. They also discussed hunting. Oswald spent considerable time watching football games on television and appeared to be an avid football fan.

Bureau files contain no identifiable subversive information concerning Michael Paine's brother, Cameron Forbes Paine, his stepfather, Arthur M. Young, and his mother, Ruth Forbes Young.

On 12-6-63 Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) furnished to Bureau Liaison copy of a memorandum dated 12-2-63 which Allen Dulles, former CIA Director, received "from a friend" who was not identified. That memorandum revealed that Michael Paine's mother, Ruth Forbes, has been married three times, Arthur Young being her third husband; that Arthur M. Young is an inventor, having invented improvements to the helicopter, is wealthy and in recent years has devoted himself entirely to research in what is known as "ESP (Extra-Sensory Perception) (he believes that there is another 'force' in the universe-like electricity or similar-that has not yet been tapped)." The memorandum which Dulles furnished CIA also contained this statement, "I have also heard, but not from his mother, that Michael had homosexual tendencies, although he did marry and have children." The memorandum from Dulles also contained information that Michael Paine's grandfather was a famous Boston "crackpot."

RUTH HYDE PAINE

This individual who currently resides at 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, is a Quaker and reportedly very religious. In interviews Mrs. Paine advised that she first met the Oswalds about February, 1963, at a social gathering in Dallas. About two months later, Oswald and his wife had dinner at Mrs. Paine's residence. She developed a friendship with Mrs. Oswald because Mrs. Oswald spoke only Russian and Mrs. Paine, who also speaks Russian and teaches the Russian language, wanted someone to converse with in that language to perfect her knowledge of it.

After Oswald lost his job at Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall in Dallas and went to New Orleans to find a job, Mrs. Paine drove Oswald's wife and child to New Orleans to join Oswald. In September, 1963, Mrs. Paine picked up Marina Oswald and the child at New Orleans and drove them to the Paine residence in Irving, Texas, where they remained until November 22, 1963. Oswald visited his family on weekends at Irving, Texas. Oswald paid none of the expenses connected with his wife's stay at the Paine's home.

In conversations with Mrs. Paine, Oswald claimed to be a Marxist, but she considered him to be a little odd and nothing further. She did not think he was a very logical person but, at no time, did he ever give any indication to her that he would commit a violent act such as killing a person. She claimed her friendship with the Oswalds was based on her fondness for Mrs. Oswald.

Bureau files contain information that the April 26, 1958, issue of the "Friends Journal," a Quaker weekly, published by the Friends Publishing Corporation, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, reported that "Young Friends" have made final plans for a six-week summer visit of four Russians to the United States. The article stated that six Americans will travel with the Russians by automobile, and their plans include contact with Friends; visits to industry, farms, and schools; as well as visits to areas of public interest to the Soviet young people. The article identified the members of the planning group. Among them was the name "Ruth Hyde Paine."

Ruth Paine's brother, Dr. Carl D. Hyde, Yellow Springs, Ohio, was investigated by the Bureau in 1953 as a Conscientious Objector (CO). He based his objections on religious convictions. Persons interviewed during that investigation advised that Carl D. Hyde was a Quaker and they were convinced of his sincerity in claiming to be a CO.

Ruth Paine's sister, Sylvia Ludlow Hyde Hoke, born 10-2-29 at New York City, was subject of a Security of Government Employee (SGE) investigation in 1956-1957. At that time she was employed as a personnel research technician, U. S. Air Force. She resigned prior to security determination being made. She was reportedly pregnant at time of resignation. That investigation was predicated on information that a telephone call had been made on 12-23-55 from residence telephone of Dorothy Wilson (who admitted to an informant she was Communist Party (CP) member between 1946 and 1948) and to the information that Sylvia Hoke's mother, Carol E. Hyde had admitted to neighbors she was a communist. In an interview by Office of Special Investigations, Air Force, 12-5-56, Sylvia advised that Dorothy Wilson associated with her mother-in-law, Helen Hoke Watts, in the publishing business, and that Wilson had assisted in editing a book coauthored by Sylvia's husband, John L. Hoke, and Helen Hoke Watts. Sylvia denied having any social contacts with Wilson and stated she did not know Wilson's political views or ideologies. Investigation at that time developed no substantial subversive information concerning Sylvia and persons acquainted with Carol E. Hyde characterized as rumors only the information that she was a CP member and further advised that Carol E. Hyde was suffering from mental disorder.

Ruth Paine's mother, Carol E. Hyde, is currently divorced from Ruth's father, William Avery Hyde, and according to an acquaintance, Carol Hyde is a former mental patient and is currently attending and residing at the Oberlin Theological Seminary, Oberlin, Ohio.

Bureau files contain no identifiable subversive information concerning Ruth's father, William Avery Hyde, an actuary, Nationwide Insurance Company, Columbia, Ohio. On 12-4-63 CIA made available information to Bureau Liaison that in 1957 CIA considered using this individual to operate a cooperative educational center in Viet Nam but he was not used by CIA. Investigation by CIA at that time concerning William Avery Hyde was favorable.

Lee Oswald

Mr. Lee Rankin called from New York to check in with me on the matter of the Commission. He wanted to work out an arrangement with me which he thought might be satisfactory. He said he understood Mr. Belmont handled the investigation.

I told Mr. Rankin that Mr. Belmont, Mr. Rosen and I handled the preparation of the report and will handle additional items as they come in.

Mr. Rankin asked how he should handle anything that comes up, things the Commission will want developed further, in regard to the FBI - whether they should be handled directly with me or somebody I would designate.

I replied that I will designate someone. I explained that I sent Mr. Malley down to Dallas to handle all of our angles down there; that he was on the ground there; and that I think he probably would be the man who would be more familiar with things Mr. Rankin should further explore. I stated Mr. Malley is in Dallas at the present time but will be ordered back tomorrow; that he will be available; and that we will be glad to run out any additional matters he may want.

I advised Mr. Rankin of the difficulty I had [illegible] about the Department's desire to issue certain conclusions; that they wished to issue a statement before the report went to the Commission re[illegible] conclusions Oswald was the assassin, no foreign or subversive elements involved, and Mrs. Oswald and Oswald had no connection; that I flatly disagreed; they took it up with the White House and the President agreed with me that we should reach no conclusion; nevertheless the report does reach two conclusions in substance.

I said I personally believe Oswald was the assassin; that the second aspect as to whether he was the only man gives me great concern; that we have several letters, not in the report because we were not able to prove it, written to him from Cuba referring to the job he was going to do, his good marksmanship, and stating when it was all over he would be brought back to Cuba and presented to the chief; that we do not know if the chief was Castro and cannot make an investigation because we have no intelligence operation in Cuba; that I did not put this in the report because we did not have proof of it and didn't want to put speculation in the report; that this was the reason I urged strongly that we not reach conclusion Oswald was the only man.

As to Rubenstein, I said I did not want a statement about Rubenstein and Oswald; that we have no proof they were ever together. I stated Rubenstein is a shady character from the hoodlum element of Chicago, has a poor background, runs a nightclub in Dallas, and is what would be called a police bait; that the police officers in that precinct have been able to get food and liquor from him at any time they drop in; that while I think there was no connection between him and Oswald, I did not want the report to be 100% sure on that.

Fourth, I stated I did not believe any conclusions concerning Rubenstein should be reached at this time because he has not been tried; that was why I suggested to the Attorney General of Texas - and understood the Chief Justice did too - that his court of special inquiry be held in abeyance until after the Commission makes its findings. I said I thought they would go ahead with the Rubenstein trial in February; that was why I felt our report should name merely the facts we have established.

I further stated there may be some aspects Mr. Rankin will want to have run out further; that there may be letters written to members of the Commission; that we have letters from people who claim to have seen Oswald; that up to the time we submitted the report we had cleared up all these angles except the Cuban thing which I discussed generally and explained that the informer recanted and blew that angle out of the window; that sort of thing may be popping up all the time. I advised Mr. Rankin if he wanted any leads followed out or any implementation of what we have already done we will give him 100% cooperation.

Mr. Rankin stated he knew we would that he does wanted to establishing it as a matter I should know. I told him not to hesitate to call me; that I will designate Mr. Malley and he will advise me at once of anything. Mr. Rankin then said he would get in touch with me if he thinks there is anything which should be taken up on that level.

I mentioned to him the actions of the Soviet Embassy, the Communist Party in New York, and John Abt in making available to us their information on Oswald.

I also discussed the operations of the Dallas Police Department in the case which led to the murder of Oswald.

I told Mr. Rankin the Department held the report about five days and then began to look items from the Department on it, items such as the shooting of General Walker, things not known in Dallas; that I kept pressing them to get the report to the Commission; that a debate was going on between the Department and me; that I did not want any conclusion drawn but I thought a conclusion had been made in the letter of transmission to the Commission; that there would have been no purpose in appointing a Presidential Commission except to evaluate the facts; that it was the duty of the FBI to get the facts and let the Commission reach a conclusion.

I told Mr. Rankin we would want to do anything we can here to make his job easier. He said he has always had complete confidence in that and in me.

Mr. Rankin inquired if anything had been done about seeing that the films would be preserved and available for the Commission. I answered that we have them ourselves; that we have films taken by private individuals; that the President was not being covered by a car with television people as they do here in Washington; that there was not a professional photographer where this took place; that the Secret Service car immediately in back had already passed the building, which was at an angle, with the result they couldn't tell where the shots were coming from. I mentioned the comment by former Chief of Secret Service Baughman that he could not understand why the Secret Service men did not open fire with machine guns at the window. I said the Secret Service men did not see where the shots came from and would have killed a lot of innocent people if they had done so.

In connection with stories indicating Oswald could not have done this alone, I stated he was a marksman and it wasn't anything he could not do; that we have tested it on our rifle range and were able to get shots off even faster than he did; that there is no question in my mind about it; that we also found the fingerprints and the bullets so conclusively fired from the gun; that we have all this and we have all the photographs.

Mr. Rankin inquired if we also have the television film run off of the shooting of Conrad, and I told him we have this.

Mr. Rankin said Mr. Malone delivered to him a copy of the report and also offered to help in any way possible; this was very kind of Malone; but he will not deal with Malone in anything unless it is some emergency and he has to handle it locally. I told Mr. Rankin this was all right and if he should need to call upon Malone, Malone would be available.

I also told Mr. Rankin there is a direct wire between the New York Office and here; that he can always place any calls to here over our wire; and that I will arrange for this.

I told Mr. Rankin to let us know if there is anything we can do.

Very truly yours,

J. E. H.

TO : Mr. Rosen

DATE: December 13, 1963

FROM : J. R. Malley

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY
NOVEMBER 22, 1963
DALLAS, TEXAS

Reference is made to teletype dated 12-12-63, to all SACs captioned, "Lee Harvey Oswald, IS-R," also bearing the caption, "Jack L. Ruby, aka, Lee Harvey Oswald, aka - Victim, Civil Rights." The last two paragraphs of this teletype deal with complaints being received alleging that some group or person other than Oswald not connected with Oswald planned or executed the assassination.

Based on the instructions set forth in referenced teletype, the Dallas Office advised that they had at this time approximately 200 pages for a portion of the report dealing with such miscellaneous allegations and, in view of the new instructions, Dallas desired information as to the procedure which could be followed without duplicating the work that had already been completed. After discussion of this matter with SAC Shanklin, he was advised to combine all of these allegations into one report, to make certain that no other material was included and to submit the report under the Assassination of the President caption and that, upon receipt of this report at the Bureau, a copy of same could then be disseminated to Secret Service. Such procedure would comply with the Bureau's desires for proper dissemination.

SAC Shanklin was advised that he should make certain that once he has gotten rid of this backlog of this type of allegations he should then completely follow the Bureau's instructions contained in the teletype concerning new allegations received.

December 13, 1963

ASSASSINATION OF
PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY
DALLAS, TEXAS, NOVEMBER 22, 1963

On December 11, 1963, information was received at Houston, Texas, to the effect that one HARRY L. WASHBURN, inmate, Texas Prison System, Ramsey Prison Farm, Otey, Texas, possibly had information regarding the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

On December 12, 1963, Washburn upon interview at Ramsey Prison Farm, advised that during the latter part of September, 1963, he was transported from "Ramsey" to the main prison at Huntsville, Texas for the purpose of having a physical examination. While exercising in the yard at "Huntsville", he overheard a conversation between two convicts (unidentified) to the effect that a "bar owner friend" from Dallas, Texas (unidentified), had contacted one of the convicts with a proposition to find a person to "wipe out" (kill) a high government official (unidentified). For this "service", said convict would receive $25,000.00. The fee would be paid by Texas State Senator, Dorsey Hardeman.

Washburn said that the reason that he paid particular attention to the conversation between these two convicts was because he heard the name Hardeman mentioned. He pointed out that Hardeman, who is a "slick crook", was the person who prosecuted him for the crime for which he is currently serving two to ninety-nine years.

Washburn was hesitant to discuss this matter, advising that he knew that the interview room (the office of the Assistant Warden) was "bugged", and that he did not want the Warden (Sidney Lanier) to hear the conversation.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

RE: ASSASSINATION OF
PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY

Yet, it was to Lanier that Washburn conveyed his desire to speak to an FBI Agent regarding the assassination.

Washburn concluded the interview with a statement to the effect that "Communists" get a "good break in here," specifically mentioning "one from Dallas," who was only made to work in the "fields" for a few months, before getting an easy job, while he had to work in the "fields for a year or so."

Warden Lanier upon interview advised that Washburn was confined in the Texas Prison System after conviction for the crime of Murder with Malice, regarding the placing of an explosive in the auto of his mother-in-law, which was detonated when she engaged the starter of the vehicle. Prison records reflect that he (Washburn) has an unstable personality, and may have difficulty in adjusting to prison life. Warden Lanier described Washburn as being a "prison politician", who, though not being a disciplinary problem, is a prolific letter writer, and has communicated with almost every person of prominence in an effort to bring attention to himself in the hope of getting a new trial. Washburn proclaims complete innocence of the crime for which he was convicted, advising that he was "framed", and that "high officials" were "paid off" to "railroad" him to prison. He included Jack Heard, Assistant Manager of Detention, Texas Prison System, as being one of the "paid off" officials.

Warden Lanier stated that he is of the firm belief that Washburn has lost contact with reality, and that before long he will become a "mental case", that will necessitate his (Washburn's) transfer to the hospital unit of the Texas Prison System.

On December 5, 1963, our Dallas, Texas, Office learned that the Secret Service had intercepted a letter postmarked November 28, 1963, at Havana, Cuba, addressed to Oswald, c/o Mail Office, Dallas. This letter, which was dated November 10, 1963, was signed by Pedro Charles (Peter) and was written in such a manner as to indicate that Oswald had been paid by Charles to carry out an unidentified mission which involved accurate shooting.

This Bureau is also in receipt of a letter postmarked November 28, 1963, at Havana addressed to "Mr. Robert Kennedy, Secretary of Justice, Washington, D.C.," and written by one Mario del Rosario Molina of Havana. This letter was dated November 27, 1963, and alleged that Lee Harvey Oswald assassinated President Kennedy at the direction of Pedro Charles, a Cuban agent who has traveled in the United States under various aliases. According to the writer, Oswald met with Charles in Miami, Florida, several months ago and was paid $7,000 by Charles.

An examination of both of the above-described letters has shown that they were prepared on the same typewriter. In addition, both envelopes appear to have come from the same batch, both postmarks contain similar irregularities, and the same type pen and ink was used to sign both letters.

Inquiries by our Miami Office have failed to develop any information concerning either Pedro or Peter Charles and Mario del Rosario Molina.

Based on the circumstances, including the postmark on the first letter (six days after President Kennedy's assassination) and the fact that both letters were prepared on the same typewriter, it appears this matter represents an attempted hoax. FBI Reported Told of Oswald Job Address

DALLAS, Tex., Dec. 7 (AP).—The Federal Bureau of Investigation, some time after October 16, knew Lee Harvey Oswald worked in the building from which the shots that killed President John F. Kennedy were fired a month later, a housewife with whom Mrs. Oswald lived, said today.

Mrs. Ruth Paine, of nearby Irving, Tex., told the Associated Press that she told two FBI agents that Oswald, accused of assassinating the President, worked in the Texas School Book Depository.

Mrs. Marina Oswald, widow of the accused man, lived with Mrs. Paine in her home until the day of the assassination.

Pay "Courtesy Call"

"The two agents were making what they called a 'courtesy call' on Marina," Mrs. Paine said. "I understand they visit all immigrants from behind the Iron Curtain and invite them to tell of any attempts at blackmail or other threats against relatives left behind in Europe."

Mrs. Paine said she interpreted for Oswald's Russian-born wife on the two occasions FBI agents visited her. During the course of conversation, she said, she told the two agents where Oswald worked and that he had rented a room in the Oak Cliff section of Dallas.

"They did not seem particularly interested in Lee," she added. "They seemed to want to help Marina if any of her family was threatened after she come to this country."

Made Second Visit

Mrs. Paine said the agents visited Oswald's wife sometime after October 4 and again "sometime after October 16." It was on the second visit, she said, that she told of Oswald's employment location and where he lived in Dallas.

"I first assumed they were here to see Lee," she said, "but that was not the case."

Meanwhile, the Dallas Morning News today said that "officers are convinced" Oswald fired the rifle shot that narrowly missed former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker last spring.

The News said an entry in a notebook and a statement by Oswald's widow proved the convincing factors. A sniper hiding in a dark alley behind Gen. Walker's home shot at him April 10 as he was inside working on an income tax return.

The story said Oswald scribbled a notebook entry with Gen. Walker's name and phone number. Investigators found the notebook in Oswald's room after his arrest in the Kennedy shooting.

Federal agents reportedly have been told by Oswald's Russian-born wife that her husband came home the night of April 10 and boasted he had shot at the former general.

BACKGROUND OF ABRAHAM J. AND ESTHER SCHECK

The following investigation was conducted by SA HOMER E. SCHWARZ, on November 27, 1963, at Great Bend, Kansas:

On November 27, 1963, the following news broadcast was made by radio station KVGB, Great Bend, Kansas, and was furnished by GROVER C. COBB, General Manager. News broadcast was as follows:

"A Great Bend resident has proposed [illegible] enable citizens who professed forgiveness during the nation's recent tragedy to put this feeling into practice.

"Mrs. ABE SCHECK of 918 O'Dell, Great Bend, Kansas, told KVGB news this date she would like to see the people of Great Bend extend an invitation to Mrs. LEE HARVEY OSWARD, widow of President KENNEDY's alleged assassin, to move to Great Bend, Kansas, with her children and make her home here. Mrs. SCHECK issued a challenge to local residents to prove what kind of Americans we are by helping Mrs. OSWALD, a native of Soviet Russia, to become an American citizen and learn the English language. Mrs. OSWALD has expressed the desire not to return to Russia.

"Mrs. SCHECK said she had called various ministers, the Chamber of Commerce, along with news media, concerning her idea. Anyone desiring to support this proposal may leave their names with Mrs. SCHECK by calling GL 3-9297, Great Bend, Kansas."

PAT SCHROEDER, Credit Bureau, advised Credit Bureau records indicate record concerning ABRAHAM J. SCHECK, and ESTHER SCHECK, now residing at 918 O'Dell, Great Bend, Kansas, showing they have a credit rating indicating "very slow pay". SCHROEDER advised the Credit Bureau has a record of the SCHECKs since 1950. SCHECKs are believed to have five children. The ages of SCHECKs are unknown, but they are believed to be grandparents. Mr. SCHECK is employed in the construction business with Dorsey Wilson Company, Great Bend, Kansas.

CHAD A. WYMER, Manager, Chamber of Commerce, 2620 18th Street, Great Bend, advised Chamber of Commerce did receive a telephone call from a person representing herself to be Mrs. ABE SCHECK of Great Bend, regarding bringing the OSWALD family to Great Bend, Kansas. WYMER stated he advised Mrs. SCHECK that the Chamber of Commerce, before taking any action would first have to have :

1. The approval of the Board of Directors, Chamber of Commerce.

2. The reaction of the public.

3. Interest of the FBI as to citizenship and security of Mrs. OSWALD.

4. Documentary evidence of no connection with the assassination of the President of the United States.

The Great Bend "Daily Tribune", evening edition, November 27, 1963, carried a front page article entitled "G. B. Woman May Offer Home to Oswald Family".

MARION WEIS, Detective Police Department, Great Bend, Kansas, advised that records of the police department contain no information regarding ABRAHAM J. SCHECK, ABE SCHECK, or Mrs. ESTHER SCHECK.

The following investigation was conducted by SA BERTIE L. SAPP:

AT LAWRENCE KANSAS:

On 11/23/63, DONALD DUANE SOLTER, 646 W. 23rd St., Apt. 7, advised as follows:

On 11/22/63, just after he heard that President KENNEDY had been shot, and before any release of the type of weapon used and before any release of the person arrested, he was sitting in the Hawks Nest (Eating area), Kansas Union, University of Kansas, with two individuals having coffee. These two individuals names are both unknown to him.

One of the persons said regarding the shooting of the President, "This is not a screwball," "A foreign power did this, and it isn't Russia," and he asked this individual, who, France, and the person said "No, Cuba, CASTRO." He stated the person positively said this. The person then said, "Even if CASTRO had not done it, this is the time to go clean out Cuba." He had the impression the person really did not mean the last statement, and was not really sincere that the United States should go clean out Cuba.

He stated this person has visited Santo Domingo and Venezuela supposedly. Possibly other South American countries have been visited by this individual. He does not feel this person had anything to do with the assassination of President KENNEDY and the statements may have been conjecture only but the statements were made prior to any release of information regarding the weapon or person who was arrested and information concerning his background, so he decided to call the FBI.

On 11/26/63, SOLTER at the University of Kansas Law School pointed out an individual to SA BERTIE L. SAPP, who reportedly made statements mentioned above.

The individual pointed out by SOLTER is as follows:

On 11/26/63, BENJAMIN GORDON MORRIS, Freshman, University of Kansas Law School, residence Rural Route #2, % DELBERT RICHARDSON, 23rd and Haskell, home address 605 Main St., Quinter, Kansas, advised as follows:

He graduated from University of Kansas in 2/62 with a AB Degree in History. His senior year, 2/61-12/61 he was in San Jose, Costa Rico, as a Kansas University exchange student. He was at the Kansas University from 12/61-4/62. From 4/62-6/1/62, he was in New York working for the Institute of International Labor Research, 113 E. 37th, New York City, New York. From 6/1/62 to about 1/10/63, he was in San Jose, Costa Rico, working for the Inter-American Institute of Political Education, sponsored by the Democratic Parties of Latin American and the Institute. Working for the same institute, from 1/10/63 to 4/63, he was in New York, Illinois, and various places in the United States. From 4/63 to about 8/1/63, he was in the Dominican Republic working for the same institute and mainly working for CIDES, Inter-American Center of Economic and Social Studies. From 8/63 he was in the hospital at Quinter, Kansas, because of Hepatitus and because of his nervousness is the reason he returned from the Dominican Republic as he resigned.

While in the Dominican Republic he saw quite a bit of CASTRO under ground operations and believes them to be well organized.

He talked to JOSE RODRIGUEZ, who was in charge of the clandestine operations for the Partido Revolucionario Cubano (Autentico) Miami, Florida, and was in the Dominican Republic working for CIDES. He also talked to TONY SANTIAGO, Secretary of Political Section of the party. He knew SANTIAGO in the Dominican Republic and Costa Rico.

He advised RODRIGUEZ'S permanent address is 2393 Southwest 25th St., Miami, Florida, phone #445-[illegible], and SANTIAGO'S address is P. O. Box 163, Riverside Station, Miami 35, Florida and phone #FR9-5827.

He advised that he knows RODRIGUEZ and SANTIAGO well and that they are very anti-CASTRO.

He advised that after talking with the above two individuals, while in the Dominican Republic and Costa Rico, he formed the opinion that the CASTRO underground is well established.

After President KENNEDY was shot, he merely formed the opinion it could have been the CASTRO underground. He stated he has no direct information that the CASTRO underground is responsible for President KENNEDY'S death and it was mere supposition on his part.

He advised that the only persons in the U. S. he knows and may still be Pro-CASTRO, are LUIS MAYOR and RAMON MAYOR. He advised both of these individuals were students at the University of Kansas and RAMON still is. He advised LUIS has been in California, possibly Los Angeles, but LUIS on 11/17/63, came back to Lawrence, Kansas and is planning on going back to Kansas University, the Spring session of 1964 to work on his masters degree.

He advised that prior to the time [illegible] Costa Rico on the Exchange Program (1961), both of the MAYOR'S were Pro-CASTRO and tried to start the Fair Play for Cuba Committee at the University at Kansas. He advised this started about October 1960, but died out by December 1, 1960, mainly due to LUIS making very foolish [illegible] challenging the Anti-CASTRO people in a very rude way and that had no one who was a good organizer was another reason it died out, and also because this time numerous atrocities by CASTRO were being committed.

He stated LUIS was much more Pro-CASTRO, but RAMON was more quiet, and he does not feel that RAMON likes political discussions.

He believes the MAYOR brothers could still be Pro-CASTRO, but they have quieted down because of the great Anti-CASTRO sentiment now. He stated he could talk with them and by conversation tell whether they are still Pro-CASTRO or not, but that he has not conversed with them for sometime and therefore does not know absolutely that they are still pro-CASTRO. He stated he does not feel they could accomplish much in Lawrence, Kansas, at the University of Kansas, because of the very high Anti-CASTRO sentiment here.

He further advised that there is a foreign exchange student presently at the University of Kansas, he believes on a fulbright scholarship, from Paris, France, Beltran (LNU), who in private conversations with him and others has expressed feeling that Cuba has been a victim of U. S. propaganda and a victim of U. S. Aggression on the Blockade situation. BELTRAN (LNU) has also expressed an opinion that the firing squads in Cuba were unfortunate, but necessary and an astute political move. MORRIS stated however, that he does not feel that BELTRAN appears to be well informed on Cuba. He stated that BELTRAN hates CHARLES DE GAULLE.

For the information of offices receiving copies of this airtel, Captain WILLIAM E. ALLEY advised the Houston Office that all officers, stewards, and waiters on Voyage 110, SS MARION LYKES, would have become acquainted with the passengers.

ROBERT F. RADER, General Vice President, Lykes Brothers Steamship Lines, New Orleans, after checking records, advised that the passengers would have become acquainted with the officers, the chief steward, purser, and those waiters who served officers and passengers. Based on information supplied by Mr. RADER, the following persons identified below would be the persons who might have become acquainted with OSWALD during the above trip and appear to be the logical persons to interview.

It is noted that a complete list of all crew members and their respective positions has been set out in the report of SA STEPHEN M. CALLENDER dated 12/10/63 at New Orleans and the desirability of interviewing persons other than those mentioned below is being left to the discretion of the Dallas Office. Captain WILLIAM E. ALLEY and Purser CHARLES B. PARKHILL have been interviewed by the Houston Office. Neither could recall OSWALD.

The following officers and crew members of the SS MARION LYKES, Voyage 110, are now employed by Lykes Brothers Steamship Co. and their itineraries are as follows:

FRANK N. MIJARES, JR., Messman on SS LESLIE LYKES, due in Gulf of Mexico 12/28/63.

According to Mr. RADER, the following former crew members of the SS MARION LYKES are no longer employed by Lykes Brothers or on vacation:

WALLACE WILLIAMS, Messman, 614 Thayer Ave., New Orleans, La.;

VICTOR FRANKLIN, Messman, 2700 Dryades St., New Orleans, La.

NO 100-16601/sab

On 12/9/63, Capt. H. G. STEGALL, International Organization of Masters, Mates, and Pilots, AFL-CIO, 423 Gravier St., advised JAMES L. GRIFFIN, Third Mate, is on vacation until 1/4/64 and that his home address is 2415 Oaklawn Drive, La Marque, Texas.

On 12/9/63, FLOYD HEPLING, Port Agent, American Radio Association, AFL-CIO, Room 608 Godchaux Building, New Orleans, La., advised LOVIX M. STEPHENSON, Radio Operator, resides at 3928 P ½ St., Galveston, Texas. He stated that if not located there, TED BERMAN, Port Agent, American Radio Association, 6704 Capitol St., Houston, Texas, will be in a position to furnish a current address for STEPHENSON.

The New Orleans Office will maintain contact with the Lykes Brothers Steamship Co. at New Orleans and advise appropriate offices concerning first ports of call and arrival dates of the various Lykes Brothers' vessels on which former crew members of the SS MARION LYKES are now sailing. When this information is available, so that they may be interviewed concerning any information they may have concerning OSWALD. If it is determined that OSWALD associated with crew members on the SS MARION LYKES in September - October, 1959, the identity of these crew members should be obtained so that leads may be set out to interview them.

Any information about him relative to his spiritual training would be greatly appreciated.

Regarding the information published in the newspaper "Excelsior" of Mexico City, stating that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had in September requested a transit visa to travel to the Soviet Union at the Cuban consulate in Mexico, the Cuban government checked with our consular officials in that city, verifying that it is true that Mr. LEE HARVEY OSWALD requested on the 27 of September at said consulate, a transit visa to travel to the Soviet Union. U

When the consular officials advised him that they could not grant such a visa without the authorization of the Ministry of Foreign Relations of Cuba, which in turn would not grant it without prior issuance of a visa by the country of destination, Mr. OSWALD left the consulate visibly disgusted. Said visa was never granted. U

VOEBEL SAID HE AND OSWALD ACTUALLY SAW GUN BUT, HE, VOEBEL, TALKED OSWALD OUT OF STEALING SAME. VOEBEL SAID HE KNEW OF NO OTHER ASSOCIATE OF OSWALD OTHER THAN HIMSELF, AND HAS HAD NO CONTACT WITH HIM SINCE NINETEEN FIFTYFIVE.

VOEBEL ALSO STATED THAT ABOUT NINETEEN FIFTYFIVE HE JOINED THE CIVIL AIR PATROL WHICH MET ON SUNDAY AND SOMETIMES ON A WEEKNIGHT AT MOISANT AIRPORT, NEW ORLEANS. VOEBEL STATED HE TALKED OSWALD

END PAGE TEN.

INTO JOINING THIS SAME GROUP,
AND OSWALD ATTENDED TWO OR THREE MEETINGS. VOEBEL STATED THAT TRAINING CONSISTED OF CLASSES AT THE EASTERN AIRLINE HANGER IN FLIGHT INSTRUCTION, METEOROLOGY, ENGINE MECHANICS, AERODYNAMICS, AND DRILLS. VOEBEL STATED THAT THE UNIT RECEIVED NO FIREARMS TRAINING, AND DRILL WAS WITH WOODEN TRAINING RIFLES.

VOEBEL ADVISED THAT AFTER HE HAD BEEN A MEMBER OF THIS UNIT ABOUT SIX MONTHS, CAPTAIN DAVE FERRIE TOOK COMMAND. VOEBEL STATED THAT PREVIOUS INSTRUCTORS WERE LIKE SCHOOLTEACHERS IN THEIR APPROACH, BUT FERRIE INTENSFIED DRILLING AND OTHER TRAINING BECAME MORE SEVERE. VOEBEL WAS UNABLE TO RECALL IF OSWALD ATTENDED MEETINGS UNDER COMMAND OF FERRIE OR WITH PREVIOUS COMMANDER, WHOSE NAME VOEBEL COULD NOT RECALL. VOEBEL STATED HE BELIEVES FERRIE WAS AN EASTERN AIRLINES OR DELTA AIRLINES PILOT OR CO PILOT, AND LIVED IN AIRLINE PARK, JEFFERSON PARISH, LA., AT THIS TIME. VOEBEL RECALLED THERE WERE TWENTY TO TWENTYFIVE MEMBERS OF UNIT, INCLUDING SOME GIRLS, BUT HE COULD NOT RECALL THE UNIT/S NAME. HE STATED THAT OSWALD PURCHASED A UNIFORM AT ANY ARMY SURPLUS STORE AT NEW ORLEANS JUST BEFORE HE QUIT ATTENDING MEETINGS.

OSWALD TOLD VOEBEL MOISANT AIRPORT WAS TOO FAR TO GO TO ATTEND MEETINGS, AND HE INTENDED TO JOIN A GROUP AT NEW ORLEANS AIRPORT. VOEBEL SAID HE TALKED LATER TO A FRIEND WHO BELONGED TO THE NEW ORLEANS AIRPORT GROUP

AND WAS ADVISED THAT OSWALD DID NOT ATTEND THE CAP. VOEBEL SURMISED THAT OSWALD DID NOT WANT TO JOIN THE CIVIL AIR PATROL IN THE BEGINNING AS HE DID NOT APPEAR TO LIKE AUTHORITY, BUT WAS TALKED INTO JOINING BY VOEBEL.

FORMER SCHOOL MATE MRS. ANNA LANGLOIS, METAIRIE, LOUISIANA, RECALLS OSWALD ONLY AS ATTENDING BEAUREGARD JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL, NEW ORLEANS, DURING YEAR FIFTYFOUR AND FIFTYFIVE. SHE HAD NO PERSONAL CONTACT WITH HIM WHATSOEVER AND KNEW NOTHING OF HIS PERSONAL CONDUCT AND BELIEFS. SHE KNEW HIM ONLY BY SIGHT.

MARINA ADVISED THAT SHE AND OSWALD HAD SPENT THE NIGHT AWAY FROM THEIR RESIDENCE IN NEW ORLEANS ON MAGAZINE STREET ON ONLY ONE OCCASION. THAT OCCASION WAS WHEN MR. MURRET ACCOMPANIED THE OSWALDS TO MOBILE, ALA. ON THAT OCCASION, OSWALD SPOKE TO A GROUP OF STUDENTS AT A SEMINARY WHICH MR. MURRET-S SON ATTENDED IN MOBILE. MARINA SAID THAT SHE AND OSWALD STAYED IN A MOTEL SATURDAY NIGHT AND RETURNED TO NEW ORLEANS WITH MR. MURRET ON SUNDAY. THIS INCIDENT HAS BEEN REPORTED BY THE NEW ORLEANS OFFICE IN A TELETYPE TO THE BUREAU.

MARINA WAS FURTHER QUESTIONED CONCERNING OSWALD-S POSSIBLE CONNECTIONS WITH PRO DASH CUBAN GROUPS. SHE ADVISED OSWALD WAS AN ADMIRER OF FIDEL CASTRO AND WAS IN FAVOR OF THE PRESENT CUBAN GOVERNMENT. SHE DOES NOT RECALL ANY CONTACTS OF OSWALD-S AT NEW ORLEANS OR DALLAS OR FORT WORTH WITH CUBAN INDIVIDUALS OR EITHER PRO OR ANTI DASH CUBAN ORGANIZATIONS OR GROUPS. SHE SAID AS FAR AS SHE KNOWS, OSWALD OPERATED ALONE IN NEW ORLEANS AT THE TIME HE WAS PASSING OUT PRO DASH CUBAN THROWAWAYS.

MARINA ADVISED AGAIN THAT SHE KNOWS NOTHING THAT WOULD INDICATE OSWALD HAD ENGAGED IN TARGET PRACTICE WITH THE RIFLE. OSWALD NEVER MENTIONED THAT HE HAD PERFORMED SUCH PRACTICE OR INTENDED TO.

NOTE FOR SAC, DALLAS:

In reinterview of Marina Oswald question her concerning Spanish language ability of subject.

NOTE: Delgado is former Marine associate of subject who says he taught Oswald Spanish in 1959 at which time became proficient. He claims to have been friend of Oswald, says he suggested subject contact Cuban Consulate, LA, as result of which Oswald was in frequent contact in person and by mail with the establishment. Also says he made trip to Tijuana in Spring, 1959, with subject and two Negro Marines. Our info is that Delgado was disturbed at having to live in same quarters with subject. We, accordingly, doubt veracity of Delgado's statements and reinterview is necessary.

MARINA OSWALD WAS INTERVIEWED AGAIN TODAY.

SHE WAS CLOSELY QUESTIONED CONCERNING HER PREVIOUS STATEMENT THAT OSWALD HAD RECEIVED A PERMIT TO OWN AND HAD OWNED A RIFLE IN RUSSIA. SHE WAS EXHIBITED A SMALL CALIBER RIFLE WITH SCOPE AND A TWELVE GAUGE SHOTGUN IN ORDER TO SEE IF SHE COULD DISTINGUISH BETWEEN THE TWO AND IDENTIFY THE TYPE OF WEAPON OSWALD HAD IN RUSSIA. SHE LOOKED AT THE WEAPONS AND SAID SHE REALLY COULD NOT SAY WHETHER IT WAS A SHOTGUN OR A RIFLE THAT HE HAD. SHE SAID THE WEAPON HAD LOOKED MORE LIKE THE RIFLE SHE WAS SHOWN. SHE SAID SHE HAD ALWAYS REFERRED TO THE WEAPON OSWALD HAD IN RUSSIA AS A RIFLE. SHE COULD NOT RECALL THE RUSSIAN WORD THAT OSWALD CALLED HIS WEAPON. SHE STATED OSWALDS COMMAND OF RUSSIAN WAS NOT SUFFICIENT TO CLASSIFY WEAPONS IN AN ACCURATE MANNER. SHE SAID OSWALD BELONGED TO A HUNTING CLUB COMPOSED OF WORKERS OF HIS FACTORY AND

AS A MEMBER OF THE CLUB HAD RECEIVED A PERMIT TO OWN A WEAPON. 'THERE WERE MANY MEMBERS OF THIS CLUB. THE HUNTING THAT WAS DONE AROUND MINSK WAS FOR RABBITS, SQUIRRELS AND BIRDS. THERE WAS NO LARGE GAME, SUCH AS, DEER OR BEAR. ON THE OCCASION THAT SHE PREVIOUSLY MENTIONED WHEN OSWALD WENT HUNTING IT WAS FOR SQUIRREL. IT WOULD APPEAR THAT IT IS VERY POSSIBLE THAT THE WEAPON THAT OSWALD OWNED WAS A SHOTGUN BUT MARINA CANNOT DEFINITELY STATE WHAT TYPE OF WEAPON IT WAS. SHE SAYS SHE KNOWS NOTHING ABOUT FIREARMS.

MARINA WAS MORE CLOSELY QUESTIONED CONCERNING THE EVENTS SURROUNDING THE ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION OF GENERAL WALKER. SHE SAID HE HAD CONFESSED TO HER ON THE SAME NIGHT OF THE ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION THAT HE HAD ATTEMPTED TO KILL GENERAL WALKER BY SHOOTING HIM WITH A RIFLE. ON THE FOLLOWING EVENING, THEY AGAIN DISCUSSED THE ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION. ON THAT EVENING OSWALD TOLD HER HE HAD ORIGINALLY GONE TO THE WALKER HOUSE THREE DAYS OR MORE PRIOR TO THE ACTUAL ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT TO TRY TO SHOOT WALKER

BUT HAD CHANGED HIS MIND. WHILE HE WAS IN THE VICINITY OF THE WALKER HOUSE ON A BUS EN ROUTE THERE OR IN SOME MANNER HE HAD HEARD THERE WAS TO BE A GATHERING AT A NEARBY CHURCH TO THE WALKER RESIDENCE AND HE PREFERRED TO DO THE SHOOTING OF WALKER WHEN MORE PEOPLE WERE AROUND AND IT WAS FOR THIS REASON THAT HE EVENTUALLY MADE THE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT, APRIL TEN. A MORMAN CHURCH IS SITUATED IN THE NEXT BUILDING TO WALKER RESIDENCE. ON THE NIGHT OF THE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT, MARINA ASKED HIM WHAT HE HAD DONE WITH THE RIFLE AND HE SAID HE HAD BURIED IT IN THE GROUND FAR FROM THE ACTUAL SPOT OF THE SHOOTING AND HE MENTIONED A FIELD AND THE FACT THAT THE FIELD WAS NEAR A RAILROAD TRACK. ON APRIL ELEVEN HE TOLD MARINA THAT THERE WERE QUITE A NUMBER OF PEOPLE IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD ON THE NIGHT OF THE SHOOTING.

OSWALD BROUGHT THE ~~F~~RIFLE BACK TO THE NEELEY STREET ADDRESS WHERE THEY WERE LIVING ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL FOURTEEN. HE HAD THE RIFLE WRAPPED IN A RAINCOAT.

MARINA WILL BE INTERVIEWED AGAIN WHEN SUFFICIENT MATERIAL IN WHICH TO QUESTION HER IS ACCUMULATED.

The caption reveals that the KENNEDYs were arriving at Saint Stephen the Martyr Church in Middleburg, Virginia, on 10/27/63. In the background there is an individual who does bear some resemblance to photographs of OSWALD.

It is believed that the same photograph was forwarded with Tampa airtel to WFO 12/5/63 under the Assassination caption with request to display same to Secret Service.

By airtel dated 12/4/63 under the Assassination caption, WFO reported that the photograph was displayed to Secret Service Agents who were with the President in Middleburg, Virginia, on 10/27/63. The Secret Service identified the individual in this photograph as a local Middleburg citizen and member of Saint Stephen the Martyr Church, that town.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Mohr

DATE: November 22, 1963

FROM : C. D. DeLoach

SUBJECT: LEE M. OSWALD

At the invitation of Tom Cole, Special Assistant to Senator John G. Tower (R-Texas), I had SA Hanning personally contact the Senator's office to review the file the Senator has on captioned individual. Photostat copies of the complete file are attached. The file was personally reviewed to insure that the attached was the entire content of the file inasmuch as there are very obvious gaps in the information. For the most part, the file consists of letters exchanged between Oswald and the State Department during 1961 and 1962 when he was making efforts to get out of the Soviet Union with his Russian wife. There is only one letter to Senator Tower which was written to him by Oswald from Minsk, USSR, in which he requests the Senator's assistance in returning to the United States. Although this letter is undated, the Senator's office believed it was received in January, 1962.

It is of interest to note that there is a memorandum in the file dated 2-1-62 signed Linda. Linda is an assistant in Senator Tower's office. This memorandum indicates that she had received a call from Mr. Stanfield in the Department of State regarding Oswald's request to return to the United States. The memorandum states that on 11-2-59, Mr. Oswald swore to the following affidavit:

> "I affirm that my allegiance is to the Soviet Socialist Republic."

Oswald requested that his American citizenship be revoked. The memorandum indicated that he now wished to return to the United States but his mother was unable to finance his return trip and that the State Department would probably furnish him a loan. The memorandum concludes that the Senator should not become involved in this case.

Senator Tower's office said it is obvious that the State Department never kept them advised as to the final disposition of this case.

RECOMMENDATION:

For information.

ADMINISTRATIVE DATA

All Agents of the Dallas Office participated in this investigation, as well as numerous Agents from other surrounding offices, and their identities are reflected in the report.

The security aspects concerning OSWALD will be submitted in a report in the case entitled, "LEE HARVEY OSWALD, IS - R - CUBA", office of origin Dallas, Dallas file 100-10461, Bufile 105-82555.

ADMINISTRATIVE

On November 22, 1963, U. S. Attorney H. BAREFOOT SANDERS, Northern District of Texas, Dallas, Texas, and his staff did considerable research in an effort to locate a Federal statute that would cover the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY with negative results. Contacts by representatives of the FBI in this connection were confirmed by letter to U. S. Attorney SANDERS on November 26, 1963.

No local dissemination of this report is being made to U. S. Attorney or to the local U. S. Secret Service in Dallas. Extra copies of this report have been made for the Dallas Office in the event the Bureau directs that a copy of this report should be disseminated to both the local Secret Service and the U. S. Attorney's Office at Dallas. It is felt that dissemination at a national level might be more appropriate.

By teletype dated November 23, 1963, the Bureau instructed all offices to furnish all information of interest to the U. S. Secret Service to the Bureau and follow with a letterhead memorandum for dissemination. Throughout the initial stages of this investigation, the Dallas Office has received a mass of allegations with respect to people who in the past have made remarks constituting threats against the late President KENNEDY. Investigation in connection with such remarks has been conducted and the results will be set forth in a subsequent report which it is felt should be disseminated to the U.S. Secret Service, but letterhead memoranda were not prepared in each such instance.

Where information was received indicating alleged threats against President LYNDON B. JOHNSON, such information has been immediately furnished local U. S. Secret Service and letterhead memoranda submitted to the Bureau.

Results of negative contacts with all informants, security, racial and criminal, as well as other sources, for information bearing on the assassination of President KENNEDY are being retained in the Dallas file.

The contents of communications from other offices reflecting their investigation in establishing the whereabouts of bombing suspects, known Klan and hate group members, are not being set forth herein but are being retained in the Dallas file.

In some instances there are contained in this report FD-302s reflecting interview with certain individuals by different agents on different days. It is pointed out that many people who appeared to possess information of value were in a state of mind when interviewed which could have caused them to fail to mention some pertinent detail and they were reinterviewed a day or so later during the investigation. In connection with the interview of Mrs. LOIS SITZ at Fort Worth, Texas, on November 22, 1963, an unknown subject - Impersonation case has been opened in the Dallas Office.

A separate case was opened in connection with the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD captioned "JACK L. RUBY, aka. Jack Rubenstein, Jack Leon Ruby, "Sparky"; LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka. - VICTIM. CR", Dallas file 44-1639, and the results of such investigation will be contained in a separate report in that case.

It is to be noted that this report contains information in the details which ordinarily would be reported in the administrative section and the identity of the source of the information not revealed. Due to the fact that the FBI Laboratory reports set forth in the details of this report contain certain information based on such confidential records, and further because of the gravity of this matter and the fact that President LYNDON B. JOHNSON had requested the FBI conduct investigation, it was felt best to reflect the source of such information. It should be noted further that in connection with information from the Selective Service Records there is a false Selective Service Card in which instance it would not be necessary to conceal the identity of the source of information from such records.

The information from the records of the U. S. Post Office, Dallas, Texas, was made available on 11/23/63 by Mr. HARRY HOLMES, U. S. Postal Inspector, Terminal Annex, Dallas, Texas.

The information from the records of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Ft. Worth, Texas, on 11/23/63, was made available to SA B. TOM CARTER by JOHN B. MOORE, District Manager, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Ft. Worth, Texas.

The information from the records of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Dallas, Texas, was made available on 11/23/63 to SA ROBERT C. LISH by Assistant Chief Special Agent ANTON PAVELKA, JR.

The information obtained from the records of the Southwestern States Telephone Company, Irving, Texas, was made available on 11/26/63 by W. P. ESSLINGER, Division Manager.

The information from the records of the Irving Bank & Trust Company, Irving, Texas, was made available on 11/26/63 by GENE GLAZIER, Cashier.

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD;
Assassination of President
JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY, 11/22/63,
Dallas, Texas

Character: ASSAULTING FEDERAL OFFICER

Synopsis: President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY assassinated at Dallas, Texas, 11/22/63, while riding in motorcade. Three shots fired from sixth floor window of Texas School Book Depository Building, 411 Elm Street, striking President KENNEDY and Texas Governor JOHN B. CONNALLY, who survived. Assassination witnesses placed LEE HARVEY OSWALD in building at 411 Elm Street shortly before assassination and immediately thereafter. One witness, HOWARD LESLIE BRENNAN, saw man in window near the corner of the floor beneath the top floor with what appeared to be a heavy rifle in his hands taking deliberate aim and, after having fired the third shot, he observed this person place the butt of the rifle on the floor and step slightly back momentarily to observe the scene which was created below from the firing of the shots. This witness later picked OSWALD from a police lineup as looking most like the person he observed in the window, but did not make positive identification. Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, received report of this shooting at 12:35 p.m. OSWALD then proceeded to Oak Cliff section of Dallas via bus, cab and on foot, to 400 block of East Tenth Street, where he shot Dallas Police Officer J. D. TIPPIT. OSWALD arrested at Texas Theater by Dallas Police Officers approximately 2 p.m., and placed in Dallas City Jail. OSWALD denied shooting President KENNEDY. A 6.5 millimeter Mannlicher-Carcano rifle with telescope sight, No. C2766, three 6.5 millimeter cartridge cases, and one live cartridge found on sixth floor, Texas School Book Depository Building. OSWALD employed at this building and had access to sixth floor. Rifle shipped to OSWALD from Klein's Sporting Goods Company, Chicago, Illinois, under name A. HIDELL, P. O. Box 2915, Dallas, Texas, on 3/20/63. Post Office money order used in purchase of rifle in the amount of $21.45 located. One bullet and two bullet fragments recovered and identified as having been fired from above described rifle. All three cartridge cases recovered identified as having been fired with this rifle. Latent fingerprint developed on wrapping paper found at scene identified with the left index finger impression of OSWALD, and one latent palmprint developed on wrapping paper found at scene identified with the right palmprint of OSWALD. OSWALD charged with murder of President KENNEDY and Dallas Police Officer J. D. TIPPIT, 11/22/63, and with assault to murder JOHN B. CONNALLY on 11/23/63. On late morning, 11/24/63, as OSWALD being moved from Dallas City Jail to Dallas County Jail by Dallas Police Officers, he was shot and killed by JACK L. RUBY.

He advised that he was told by Mr. LAWSON that the President had 45 minutes to get from Love Field to the Trade Mart building for the luncheon which was to begin at 12:15 p.m. He stated that the route selected from Love Field to the Trade Mart building was via Lemmon Avenue to Turtle Creek Drive to Cedar Springs, to Harwood, to Main to Houston, Houston to Elm, Stemmons Expressway to Trade Mart. Chief CURRY stated this route was actually run and timed, and it was estimated that the trip could be made in 38 minutes. He stated that on November 22, 1963, during the motorcade this time schedule was not kept for the reason the motorcade drove 10 miles per hour in some areas that had been scheduled for 25 miles per hour at the request of the President in order that he could be seen by the people.

II. Verification of Death of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy

Date 11-25-63

On November 25, 1963, Mr. C. J. PRICE, Administrator, Parkland Memorial Hospital, Dallas, Texas, advised that the Death Certificate and Statements of Medical Treatment relating to President JOHN F. KENNEDY had been taken by GEORGE G. BURKLEY, MD, White House, Washington, D.C., and Secret Service Agents. Mr. PRICE stated, however, that a summary had been prepared by Dr. KEMP CLARK, Director, Service of Neurological Surgery at the request of GEORGE G. BURKLEY, MD, and was transmitted to Dr. BURKLEY by letter dated November 23, 1963.

Mr. PRICE made available reproduced copies of the summary and letter furnished Dr. BURKLEY.

The following are the contents of the summary prepared by Dr. KEMP CLARK, verbatim:

summary

"The President arrived at the Emergency Room at 12:43 P.M., the 22nd of November, 1963. He was in the back seat of his limousine. Governor Connally of Texas was also in this car. The first physician to see the President was Dr. James Carrico, a Resident in General Surgery.

"Dr. Carrico noted the President to have slow, agonal respiratory efforts. He could hear a heartbeat but found no pulse or blood pressure to be present. Two external wounds, one in the lower third of the anterior neck, the other in the occipital region of the skull, were noted. Through the head wound, blood and brain were extruding. Dr. Carrico inserted a cuffed endotracheal tube. While doing so, he noted a ragged wound of the trachea immediately below the larynx.

"At this time, Dr. Malcolm Perry, Attending Surgeon, Dr. Charles Baxter, Attending Surgeon, and Dr. Ronald Jones, another Resident in General Surgery, arrived. Immediately thereafter, Dr. M.T. Jenkins, Director of the Department of Anesthesia and Doctors Giesecke and Hunt, two other Staff Anesthesiologists, arrived. The endotracheal tube had been connected to a

"Bennett respirator to assist the President's breathing. An anesthesia machine was substituted for this by Dr. Jenkins. Only 100% oxygen was administered.

"A cutdown was performed in the right ankle, and a polyethylene catheter inserted in the vein. An infusion of lactated Ringer's solution was begun. Blood was drawn for type and crossmatch, but unmatched type 'O' RH negative blood was immediately obtained and begun. Hydrocortisone 300 mgms was added to the intravenous fluids.

"Dr. Robert McClelland, Attending Surgeon, arrived to help in the President's care. Doctors Perry, Baxter, and McClelland began a tracheostomy, as considerable quantities of blood were present from the President's oral pharynx. At this time, Dr. Paul Peters, Attending Urological Surgeon, and Dr. Kemp Clark, Director of Neurological Surgery, arrived. Because of the lacerated trachea, anterior chest tubes were placed in both pleural spaces. These were connected to sealed underwater drainage.

"Neurological examination revealed the President's pupils to be widely dilated and fixed to light. His eyes were divergent, being deviated outward; a skew deviation from the horizontal was present. No deep tendon reflexes or spontaneous movements were found.

"There was a large wound in the right occipitoparietal region, from which profuse bleeding was occurring. 1500 cc. of blood were estimated on the drapes and floor of the Emergency Operating Room. There was considerable loss of scalp and bone tissue. Both cerebral and cerebellar tissue were extruding from the wound.

"Further examination was not possible as cardiac arrest occurred at this point. Closed chest cardiac massage was began by Dr. Clark. A pulse palpable in both the carotid and femoral arteries was obtained. Dr. Perry relieved on the cardiac massage while a cardiotachioscope was connected. Dr. Fouad Bashour, Attending Physician arrived as this was being connected.

"There was electrical silence of the President's heart.

"President Kennedy was pronounced dead at 1300 hours by Dr. Clark.

HOWARD LESLIE BRENNAN, 6814 Woodard (EV 1-2713), employed by Wallace and Beard Construction Company as a steamfitter, and engaged in doing prefabrication work at a location near the rear of the Texas School Book Depository building at 411 Elm Street, Dallas, advised he stopped work at 12 Noon on November 22, 1963, for the purpose of eating lunch. He had lunch alone at a cafeteria at the northeast corner of Main and Record Streets in Dallas.

After finishing lunch, he walked back to the front of the Texas School Book Depository building and on Elm Street, directly across from the above building, took a seat on a retainer wall some 4 feet in height. He explained the place where he was seated was on the south side of Elm Street, about 20 feet west of the southwest corner of the intersection of Elm and Houston Streets, and about 5 feet from the curb.

He estimated he seated himself at this point some 3 to 5 minutes after having left the cafeteria about 12:18 PM, on November 22, 1963. He recalled noting the time as he left the cafeteria, since he was supposed to be away from the job for lunch only one-half hour. He estimated he had been seated on the retainer wall about 10 minutes before the automobile carrying President KENNEDY passed in front of him, at which time he observed the President and his wife sitting on the back seat of the vehicle. He said the automobile had passed down Elm Street (going in a westerly direction) approximately 30 yards from the point where he (BRENNAN) was seated, when he heard a loud report which he first thought to be the "backfire" of an automobile. He said he does not distinctly remember a second shot but he remembers "more than one noise", as if someone was shooting fire crackers, and consequently he believes there must have been a second shot before he looked in the direction of the Texas School Book Depository building.

Upon hearing the report, or reports, he looked across the street to the Texas School Book Depository building, where he saw a man in a window on the sixth floor near the southeast corner of the building. The man he observed in the window had what appeared to be a "heavy" rifle in his hands. He could not tell whether or not this rifle had a telescopic sight, as the rifle was protruding only about half its length outside the window.

He was positive that after he had observed this man in the window, he saw this person take "deliberate aim" and fire a shot. He then observed this person take the rifle from his shoulder and hold it by the barrel of the rifle, as if he were resting the butt of the rifle on the floor. He said this individual observed the scene on the street below, momentarily, and then stepped back from the window. He said the rifle was pointed in the direction of the President's car when he saw it fired.

He added there was nothing to obstruct his line of vision between the place where he was seated and the window on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building where he saw the man with the rifle. He estimated distance between the point where he was seated and the window from which the shots were fired to be approximately 90 yards.

He noticed there appeared to be a stack of heavy cartons visible in the window and slightly to the rear of the place where the man stood with the rifle. He stated he saw two Negro men on the next lower floor, immediately beneath the window where the man was observed with the rifle. One of these men (on the floor below) was looking out a window directly beneath the window in which the rifleman stood. The other Negro was in a window immediately to the west of the first Negro mentioned above. He observed these two men glance upward, as if they were trying to determine the spot from which the rifle shots were being fired.

BRENNAN described the man with the rifle as a white male, who appeared to be in his early 30's, about 5'10" tall and around 165 pounds in weight. He said this individual was not wearing a hat and was dressed in "light color clothes in the khaki line". He added this individual may have been wearing a light-weight jacket or sweater; however, he could not be positive about the jacket or sweater.

He advised he attended a lineup at the Dallas Police Department on November 22, 1963, on which occasion he picked LEE HARVEY OSWALD as the person most closely resembling the man he had observed with the rifle in the window of the Texas School Book Depository building. He stated, however, he could not positively identify OSWALD as the person he saw fire the rifle.

He volunteered he has been informed by his optometrist, Dr. HOWARD F. BONAR, Port Lavaca, Texas, that he (BRENNAN) has "perfect" vision at a distance or, in other words, he is far-sighted. He advised he wears glasses for reading purposes only.

ROBERT H. JACKSON, 4030 Sperry, Dallas, Texas, who is employed as Photographer for the Dallas Times Herald (newspaper), advised he was in the presidential motorcade at Dallas on November 22, 1963, riding in approximately the seventh or eighth car. He advised the car in which he was riding was proceeding north on Houston Street, between Main and Elm Streets, and the presidential car had already turned left on Elm Street (off Houston Street) when he heard three loud reports which sounded like shots from a gun. He stated that there was a "pause" after the first shot, which was followed by the second and third shots in rapid succession.

JACKSON advised that upon hearing the three shots, he looked upward and straight ahead at a window in the Texas School Book Depository Building, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, in time to see the barrell of a rifle being pulled inside the window. JACKSON said he was unable to see the person holding the rifle and therefore could not describe such individual.

JACKSON made reference to the last row of double windows toward the east on the side of the Texas School Book Depository Building facing Elm Street. He described the window in which he saw the rifle as being on the floor next to the top floor of the building and nearest the southeast corner of the building. He recalled there were two Negro individuals looking out the double windows immediately below the window in which he saw the rifle. JACKSON said he could not be certain, but it is his impression these two Negroes were looking upward in the direction of the window in which he observed the rifle.

JACKSON advised there were four other individuals riding in the same car with him in the motorcade. He recalled one of these individuals was TOM DILLARD, Dallas Morning News Photographer, and that another individual in the car was JIM UNDERWOOD of radio and television station KRLD. He stated he did not recall the identity of the other two individuals in the car with him.

THOMAS C. DILLARD, Chief Photographer, Dallas Morning News, states he was riding in car number 7 of the Presidential motorcade on November 22, 1963, along with JIM UNDERWOOD, KRLD-TV, Dallas, Texas; BOB JACKSON, Dallas Times Herald, Dallas, Texas; BERT SHIPP, WFAA-TV, Dallas, Texas, and one other individual besides the driver, neither of whose names he can recall.

Mr. DILLARD stated the car in which he was riding had not approached the corner of Houston and Elm Streets when he heard a noise sounding like a "torpedo" (a large firecracker). He states upon hearing another sound similar to the first he realized it was gunfire. He states that upon hearing the third shot the car in which he was riding was stopped almost in front of the Texas School Book Depository Building.

He states at that time he heard BOB JACKSON of the Dallas Times Herald exclaim "I see a rifle. It's up there in the open window." Then JACKSON pointed toward the Texas School Book Depository Building located at Elm and Houston Streets.

Mr. DILLARD stated he looked upward toward the building and saw nothing resembling a rifle protruding from an open window. He states he did, however, take two photographs of the building at that time.

Mr. DILLARD further stated he then left the car attempting to get to the front of the motorcade in order that he could determine if anyone had been hurt. He also stated from that time on he was in a position that he could see anyone exiting the Texas School Book Depository Building.

JAMES ROBERT UNDERWOOD, Assistant News Director, KRLD - TV, Dallas, states he was an occupant of car number 7 or 8 of the Presidential motorcade on November 22, 1963, along with TOM DILLARD, Dallas Morning News, Dallas, Texas; BOB JACKSON, Dallas Times Herald, Dallas, Texas; JAMES DARNELL, WBAP-TV, Fort Worth, Texas and one other person, besides the driver, neither of whose names he can recall.

Mr. UNDERWOOD states the car in which he was riding was approaching the corner of Houston and Elm Streets, Dallas, Texas, when he heard a loud noise sounding similar to a gunshot. He states that upon hearing the second noise he realized it was a gunshot and that at the sound of the next shot the car in which he was riding was almost directly in front of the Texas School Book Depository Building located on Elm and Houston Streets. He stated at this time the car in which he was riding had been stopped, and he overheard BOB JACKSON of the Dallas Times Herald say "There's a rifle." Then JACKSON pointed upward toward the Texas School Book Depository Building.

Mr. UNDERWOOD states he looked toward the Texas School Book Depository Building but could see nothing resembling a rifle protruding from a window. Mr. UNDERWOOD further states at this time he left the car in which he was riding and that for sometime afterwards he was near the entrance of the Texas School Book Depository Building, but he did not notice a person resembling LEE HARVEY OSWALD come from the building.

MALCOLM O. COUCH, 4215 Live Oak, Apartment 302, Dallas, Texas, a photographer for WFAA-TV, advised that he was in the seventh or eighth car of the presidential parade on November 22, 1963, along with ROBERT H. JACKSON, Dallas "Times Herald" photographer, JIM UNDERWOOD of KRLB-TV, Dallas, and JAMES DARNELL, WBAP-TV, Fort Worth. He said they left Love Field and were traveling the presidential route on Houston Street when he heard two loud noises about ten seconds apart which sounded like a motorcycle backfire. He said as they turned the corner onto Elm from Houston, he heard another noise, and ROBERT JACKSON yelled to look up at the window. He said he immediately turned his head toward the area of the Texas School Book Depository Building, and around the fifth or sixth floor he observed what appeared to be a rifle being withdrawn from a window. He said by this time the car was approximately in front of the window in question, but he could not observe any figure behind same. He said he recalled at least two Negroes on the third or fourth floor of the building looking up toward the next floor. He advised the car proceeded down Elm and under the underpass, and by this time the presidential car was well on its way to the hospital. He advised their car stopped, and he and JACKSON got out and began taking shots of the area. He said the driver of the car, whose name he did not know, did not observe anything at all and did not turn his head that he knew of. He said he never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never met JACK RUBY. He had no dealings with them in connection with his employment. He advised that he was certain that the first noises he heard appeared to be motorcycle backfires since a motorcycle had backfired on the presidential route during this trip, and it sounded just like it.

COUCH further advised that he has been informed by numerous sources that on the day of the assassination of President KENNEDY, WES WISE, an employee of KRLD-TV, saw JACK RUBY emerge from the rear of the Texas School Book Depository Building shortly after hearing the shots which killed President KENNEDY.

Check this out. Was Wes stalked too.

JAMES RICHARD WORRELL, 13510 Winterhaven, furnished the following information to Patrolman G. W. HAMMER and Detective K. L. ANDERTON of the Dallas, Texas, Police Department and SA LOUIS M. KELLEY.

On Friday, November 22, 1963, about 12:30 p.m., he was standing on the sidewalk in front of the Texas School Book Depository Building watching President KENNEDY's procession pass. He heard a shot from above his head and at first thought it was a firecracker, but when he looked up, he saw about 12 inches of a gun barrel sticking out of a window of the building. He said this window was either on the fifth or sixth floor. He saw the gun fire once again and looked at President KENNEDY in time to see him slump forward on the seat of his car. He was unable to see who was firing the gun.

WORRELL advised he became frightened and started to run. Just as he started to run, he heard the gun fire two more times. He noted that some people said the gun fired three times, but he felt there were four shots.

He ran to Elm Street from Pacific Street on Houston. When he had run about 100 yards, he stopped to catch his breath and upon looking back, saw a man he described as a white male, height 5' 8-10", dark hair, dark clothing, wearing some type of jacket, leave the building where he had seen the gun and start to run in the opposite direction from him.

He stated that last night when he saw photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television, he felt this was the person he had seen running away from the building. He stated this person did not look back, but he was certain this was a white person, since he had a profile view.

WORRELL stated he caught a bus home and probably would not have gone to the Police Department except he had heard Chief of Police CURRY make an appeal for persons who had seen anything to report what they had seen.

ARNOLD LOUIS ROWLAND was interviewed at the Dallas County Sheriff's Office. He advised he was born April 29, 1945 at Corpus Christi, Texas. He resides at 3026 Hammerly Street, Dallas, telephone FE 7-1861. He is a student at Adamson High School in Dallas, Texas, and is employed on weekends at the Pizza Inn on West Davis Street in Dallas.

At approximately 12:10 PM, November 22, 1963, he and his wife BARBARA took a position on Houston Street at the west entrance of the Sheriff's Office to observe the KENNEDY Motorcade as it was to pass that position and then turn left on Elm Street. While standing there waiting for the motorcade to come, ROWLAND talked to his wife about security measures that were being made for the President's visit. He advised that he was talking of this subject in view of the recent trouble that Mr. ADLAI STEVENSON had upon visiting Dallas.

About 5 or 10 minutes after they had arrived at this position on Houston Street, he looked up at the Texas School Book Depository building and noticed two adjoining windows on the second floor from the top were open and in the windows he observed a man standing back about 10 or 15 feet and he was holding in his hands what appeared to be a rifle with a scope. He was holding the rifle at a parade rest sort of position.

Upon seeing this, ROWLAND said he mentioned it to his wife and made the remark that the person must be a Secret Service man.

He advised this person was a white male of slender build and appeared to have dark hair. He appeared to have on a light colored shirt, open at the neck.

The KENNEDY Motorcade passed this spot about 15 minutes after ROWLAND observed the man at the window with the rifle and had just turned west on Elm Street and headed down the hill toward the Triple Underpass, when he heard the first shot, which he said sounded somewhat like a backfire of an automobile. He said following the first shot some people around him had laughed. He said that about 8 seconds after the first shot, there was another loud report which he was positive was a rifle shot. A

MRS ARNOLD LOUIS ROWLAND, 3026 Hammerley, telephone FE 7-1861, advised that he is a white male, 18, and resides with his wife, BARBARA WALKER ROWLAND at the above address and they attended school at Adamson High School. He stated that on November 22, 1963, he and his wife went to downtown Dallas for the purpose of seeing President KENNEDY in the parade through the downtown area. He stated that at approximately 12:15 PM, he and his wife were standing on the East side of Houston Street, adjacent to the Dallas County Courthouse. He stated he and his wife were discussing the security of protecting the President under such circumstances as the forthcoming parade and he was looking around at the buildings and observed an unknown male wearing a light colored shirt and holding what appeared to be a .306 rifle with telescopic sight on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository. He stated this man was standing inside the window on the southwest corner of the sixth floor of the building, which window is nearest the overpass. He stated he assumed that the individual in possession of the rifle was a security guard there for the purpose of protecting the President and that he called this matter to the attention of his wife but the man moved back out of sight before his wife could see him.

ROWLAND stated that he was not close enough to identify the person he saw and cannot say if it was or was not LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

"I, Arnold Louis Rowland, make the following statement of my own free will to James W. Swinford and Paul E. Wulff, who have identified themselves as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

"I am 18 years of age, live at 3026 Hammerly, and am employed at Pizza Inn, 2841, West Davis, Dallas, Texas.

"My wife Barbara and I arrived at a point on Houston Street in Dallas between Main and Elm Streets at about 12:10 p.m., November 22, 1963, for the purpose of observing President Kennedy in the motorcade. The exact position where we were located was on the sidewalk on the west side of the Dallas County Courthouse just under the office of Sheriff Decker and a few feet to the south of the elevator shaft which comes out of the sidewalk.

"Between 12:10 p.m. and 12:15 pm. , I looked toward the Texas School Book Depository which faces the South and is located on the corner of Elm and Houston. I observed the two rectangulor windows at the extreme west end of the Texas School Book Depository on the next to the top floor were open. I saw what I believed to be a man standing about 12 to 15 feet back from the window on the right. He appeared to be slender in proportion to his height, was wearing a white or light colored shirt, either collarless or open at the neck. He appeared to have dark hair. He also appeared to holding a rifle with scope attached, in a ready position or in military terminology, port arms. I saw him only momentarily and he seemed to disapear in the shadows of the room.

"I gave this no further consideration / at the time as I believed he was probably a Secret Service man. I also called this to the attention of my wife, but she did not see the man.

"About 15 or 20 minutes later the President came by, but I did not see him get shot, nor did I see any shots fired. I did hear three shots. By about 1:45 p.m. I had advised an officer of what I had seen and I was taken to the Office of Sheriff Decker.

"I would not be able to identify the person I saw due to the distance involved.

"I have read this 3-page statement which contains to my knowledge the correct truth.

BARBARA WALKER ROWLAND, born April 5, 1946, at Grand Prairie, Texas, advised she resides at 3026 Hammerly Street, Dallas, telephone FE 7-1861, and is a student at Adamson High School in Dallas. She advised she and her husband, ARNOLD LOUIS ROWLAND, came to downtown Dallas on the morning of November 22, 1963, to observe the KENNEDY Motorcade. At approximately 12:10 PM, they took a position at the west entrance to the Sheriff's Office on Houston Street, to await the Motorcade.

They were standing on the street talking about the security measures which were being taken to protect the President and talked about the recent incident involving Mr. ADLAI STEVENSON. Shortly after they arrived at this place her husband told her to look up at the building across the street, which was the Texas School Book Depository. He said that two adjoining windows on the second story from the top were open and there was a man standing up there holding a rifle. Her husband told her he must be a Secret Service man. She said she looked up and then her husband told her that the man had moved back. She said she could not see the man because she is very nearsighted and she did not have on her glasses.

She said they did not say anything more about this and in about 15 minutes the President's Motorcade passed by and headed left on to Elm Street and started down toward the underpass, when they heard the three shots, spaced several seconds between each shot. She advised after hearing the shots, they started running. She stated that is all she could remember.

HAROLD DEAN NORMAN, 4858 Beulah Street, employed as a shipping clerk, Texas School Book Depository, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, stated around noon, November 22, 1963, he and fellow employees, JAMES JARMON and BONNIE RAY WILLIAMS, were watching the Presidential Motorcade from the windows on the fifth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building. He stated that about the time the car in which the President was riding turned on to Elm Street, he heard a shot. He said he thought the shot had been fired from the floor directly above him. He further stated at that time he stuck his head from the window and looked upward toward the roof but could see nothing because small particles of dirt were falling from above him. He stated two additional shots were fired after he had pulled his head back in from the window. He stated he could see people walking toward the other end of the building. He, JARMON and WILLIAMS ran to the other end of the room and looked out the windows there. He stated he saw nothing and then returned to the window from which he had been previously looking.

NORMAN stated he knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD as a fellow employee in the Texas School Book Depository, and only talked to him when his work required. He stated he does not recall OSWALD ever having visitors at the Texas School Book Depository or ever associating with anyone employed there.

He further stated he cannot recall whether he saw OSWALD at the Texas School Book Depository during Friday, November 22, 1963.

Mrs. R. A. REID, Clerical Supervisor, Texas School Book Depository, Houston and Elm Streets, Dallas, advised she had observed the Presidential Motorcade proceed down Elm Street from a position in front of the Texas School Book Depository building, and had heard three shots which she later determined came from the above building. During the commotion and excitement that followed the shooting on November 22, 1963, she did not observe anything outside of the building. The only thing she noted was that the three shots had come from overhead somewhere. At the conclusion of the shots, she had turned and saw some Negro boys standing at a window of the building. Thereupon she proceeded back to her office on the second floor of the building, being somewhat confused. As she entered the offices, she observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD, whose name she did not know at that time but whom she had seen previously and whose name she later ascertained from newspaper publicity, coming from the back hallway which is used as an aisleway between the warehouse and the clerical offices and which has a lunch room leading off to the side. OSWALD was carrying a Coca Cola, which she believed to be full, as she recalled, in his right hand and she said to him, "Someone has shot the President. I hope he didn't hit him", to which OSWALD mumbled some reply that she did not recall. At this point OSWALD proceeded past her and was walking toward the front entrance of the office which leads into a hallway where the elevators and stairway are adjacent to each other and this was the last she recalled seeing OSWALD.

She stated as she recalled OSWALD was only wearing a T-shirt and was not wearing or carrying a jacket at that time.

She advised further she had seen OSWALD many times in the Texas School Book Depository building; however, she had not known his name nor had she ever spoken or talked to him.

CHARLES F. BREHM, 1619 Kings Highway, was interviewed at his residence at which time he furnished the following information:

He and his five-year-old son went to downtown Dallas Texas to view the President's motorcade, and they parked their car in the Main-Houston Street area about 15 minutes before the motorcade was due to come down Main Street. He took a vantage point on the northwest corner of the intersection of Main and Houston Streets and from that point, he was able to watch the car in which the President and Mrs. KENNEDY rode, making a right turn from Main Street into Houston Street.

After the President's automobile had rounded the corner into Houston Street, he picked up his five-year-old son and ran across the grass from Main Street over to the downhill curved portion of Elm Street which leads from Houston Street to the Stemmons Expressway. He and his son stood right at the curb on the grass and saw the President's car take a wide swing as it turned left from Houston Street into Elm Street.

When the President's automobile was very close to him and he could see the President's face very well, the President was seated, but was leaning forward when he stiffened perceptibly at the same instant what appeared to be a rifle shot sounded. According to BREHM, the President seemed to stiffen and come to a pause when another shot sounded and the President appeared to be badly hit in the head. BREHM said when the President was hit by the second shot, he could notice the President's hair fly up, and then roll over to his side, as Mrs. KENNEDY was apparently pulling him in that direction.

BREHM said that a third shot followed and that all three shots were relatively close together. BREHM stated that he was in military service and he has had experience with bolt-action rifles, and he expressed his opinion that the three shots were fired just about as quickly as an individual can maneuver a bolt-action rifle, take aim, and fire three shots.

BREHM stated he definitely knew that the President had been shot and he recalled having seen blood on the President's face. He also stated that it seemed quite apparent to him that the shots came from one of two buildings back at the corner of Elm and Houston Streets.

Immediately after the third shot rang out, BREHM pushed his son down on the grass and for the moment was more concerned with the safety of his son who might be hit accidentally by any wild gunfire which might follow.

BREHM expressed his opinion that between the first and third shots, the President's car only seemed to move some 10 or 12 feet. It seemed to him that the automobile almost came to a halt after the first shot, but of this he is not certain. After the third shot, the car in which the President was riding increased its speed and went under the freeway overpass and out of his sight.

As soon as the President's car went on its way out of sight, numerous reporters and police officers came running down the hill to the general area where he was standing and many of them gathered around him and began asking him questions. He answered questions of reporters and police officers to the best of his knowledge and recollection, after which he was escorted up to the Dallas police station where he was interviewed some more. He estimated that he was detained at the Police Department for a period of two hours before he was finally permitted to leave.

EMMETT JOSEPH HUDSON, 107 South Bishop, Dallas, Texas, who is employed by the City of Dallas (Park Department), called attention to a photograph contained in the Sunday edition, November 24, 1963, of the Dallas Times Herald, which photograph was taken (according to information contained in the newspaper) by Mrs. MARY MOORMAN, and which photograph showed the President in a slumping condition immediately following the impact of the shots. HUDSON called attention to a group of three men in the photograph standing on some concrete steps north of Elm Street and north of the position of the Presidential car in the photograph. He pointed to the man in the middle of this group of three individuals in the photograph and advised, "That is me in the light colored clothing and that is where I was standing at the time the President was shot."

He said he was looking directly at President KENNEDY and saw his head slump to one side simultaneously with the loud report made by the first shot fired by the assassin. He said he then heard two more reports which sounded like shots, such reports coming in rapid succession after the first shot. He volunteered the shots were fired "just about as fast as you could expect a man to operate a bolt action rifle," or words to that effect.

HUDSON said the shots sounded as if they were fired over his head and from some position to the left of where he was standing. In other words, the shots sounded as if they were fired by someone at a position which was behind him, which was above him, and which was to his left. He again called attention to the photograph referred to above, and particularly to the corner of the Texas School Book Depository building appearing in such photograph and said the shots sounded as if they were coming from that building (Texas School Book Depository building).

HUDSON stated when he heard the shots, he turned around and looked in the general direction of the Texas School Book Depository building, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas; however, he did not see anyone with a rifle or firearm of any kind. He pointed out, however, it was a matter of two or three seconds after he heard the shots before he focused his vision on the Texas School Book Depository building and perhaps in that small lapse of time the assassin had stepped back from the window.

HUDSON estimated he was approximately thirty feet from the Presidential car at the time he heard the shots and immediately noticed the President's head slump to one side.

He advised he did not know the identity or address of either one of the other two men referred to above in the three man group in the photograph. MARY ANN MOORMAN, 2832 Ripplewood, telephone number DA 1-9390, advises that she and a friend named JEAN HILL, 9402 Bluff Creek, Dallas, Texas, watched the President KENNEDY parade from the grassy area in the parkway between Main and Elm Streets, and at approximately 12:25 p.m., as well as she recalls, she took a photograph of the procession as it proceeded toward her. She took this photograph with a polaroid camera, and the photograph showed the police motorcycle escort preceding the President's car. In the background of this photograph she said the Texas School Book Depository Building was visable.

She took a second photograph of the President as his automobile passed her, and just as she snapped the picture, she heard what she at first thought was a firecracker and very shortly thereafter heard another similar sound which she later determined to have been gunfire. She knows that she heard two shots and possibly a third shot. She recalls seeing the President "sort of jump" and start to slump sideways in the seat, and seems to recall President KENNEDY's wife scream, "My God, he's been shot"!

Mrs. MOORMAN states that she and her companion fell to the ground, but does not now recall what prompted her to fall unless it was the reports and the commotion in the President's car. She says she must have instinctively realized that there was shooting, but does not recall actually thinking about it. She states that she could not determine where the shots came from, and her next recollection is of people running more or less aimlessly, it seemed to her. She recalls that the President's automobile was moving at the time she took the second picture, and when she heard the shots, and has the impression that the car either stopped momentarily or hesitated and then drove off in a hurry.

She stated that as the President's car drove off she started to leave the grassy area and was stopped by a Mr. FEATHERSTONE, a newspaper man with the KRLD Radio All TV Station

Mrs. MOORMAN advises that the photograph she took showing the police motorcycles preceding President KENNEDY's car and also showing the Texas School Book Depository Building was given by her to Secret Service Agents JOHN JOE HOWLETT and BILL PATTERSON shortly before 4:00 p.m. November 22, 1963. The second photograph taken at the time she heard the shots showed the President slumping sideways in the automobile. She furnished this photograph to Bureau Agents. Dallas Texas

Mrs. MOORMAN advises that she saw no one in the area that appeared to have possibly been the assassin, and could furnish no additional information.

VICKIE ADAMS, 3651 Fontana Street, Dallas, Texas furnished the following information:

She is employed as office service representative by the Scott Foresman and Company, with offices located on the fourth floor of the Texas School Book Depository Company, Dallas.

On November 22, 1963, she was on duty at her place of employment and at about 12:20 PM on that date she went to the second window from the left of the building on the fourth floor and opened same in order to watch out of this window to observe the passing of the motorcade, bearing President KENNEDY and group. She took her lunch with her at this time and stationed herself there with a fellow employee, SANDRA STYLES, 2102 Grauwyler Street, Dallas. They observed the motorcade as it approached and began passing in front of her window and at about 12:30 PM, as the car containing President KENNEDY, Governor CONNALLY and his wife, was passing, she heard three loud reports which she first thought to be fire crackers of a crank and she believed the sound came from toward the right of the building, rather than from the left and above as it must have been according to subsequent information disseminated by the news services. After the third shot, she observed the car containing President KENNEDY to speed up and rush away. She had not been able to fully observe the President at the exact moment he was shot, inasmuch as her view was partially obstructed. She and her friend then ran immediately to the back of the building to where the stairs were located and ran down the stairs. No one else was observed on the stairs at this time, and she is sure that this would be the only means of escape from the building from the sixth floor. She and her friends ran out of the building, turned to the left and ran across the railroad tracks in the direction where they observed other people running, inasmuch as they felt that an attempt had been made on the life of the President, and they wanted to find out more about this situation. They had not gone far until they were stopped by a police officer who instructed them to return to the building. Consequently, they returned to the building and re-entered it.

She did estimate that the time between her departure from the building and her return to the building was about four or five minutes. She stated that she did not observe anything or anybody during this time or immediately before or after, which would cause her place a connection with the attempted assassination of the President.

Miss ADAMS was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, bearing New Orleans, Louisiana number 112 723. She stated that she saw this individual only on one occasion which was about two or three weeks ago while he was in the company of other individuals at the building. At that time she did not know who he was and did not speak with him. She recalled only after seeing his photograph in the current newspapers that this was the individual suspected of having shot President KENNEDY. She stated that she is rather sure that she did not see this individual on the day of President KENNEDY's assassination.

Mrs. R. E. ARNOLD, Secretary, Texas School Book Depository, advised she was in her office on the second floor of the building on November 22, 1963, and left that office between 12:00 and 12:15 PM, to go downstairs and stand in front of the building to view the Presidential Motorcade. As she was standing in front of the building, she stated she thought she caught a fleeting glimpse of LEE HARVEY OSWALD standing in the hallway between the front door and the double doors leading to the warehouse, located on the first floor. She could not be sure that this was OSWALD, but said she felt it was and believed the time to be a few minutes before 12:15 PM.

She stated thereafter she viewed the Presidential Motorcade and heard the shots that were fired at the President; however, she could furnish no information of value as to the individual firing the shots or any other information concerning OSWALD, whom she stated she did not know and had merely seen him working in the building.

Mrs. A. G. (JANE) BERRY, 3126 Lemmon Avenue, Apartment 2, advised she was employed by Scott-Foresman Publishing Company, fourth floor, Texas School Book Depository Building, 411 Elm Street. Dallas Texas

At approximately 12:40 p.m., on November 22, 1963, she was standing just west of the building, watching a parade in which President JOHN F. KENNEDY was riding. Just as the car was passing by her, she heard a rifle shot. A few seconds later she heard a second and third shot. She observed President KENNEDY slump over and everyone began falling to the ground or running. She realized that the President had been shot and observed the motorcade in which he was riding immediately speed off in a westerly direction.

Everyone was very excited and no one seemed to know where the shot had come from. It sounded as if it had been fired from a position west of where she was standing.

She soon returned to her office on the fourth floor of the building and began listening to radio reports on the shooting. A few minutes later police officers came to the office investigating the matter, but she was unable to furnish them with any information concerning the person who had fired the shots.

After seeing photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, she could not recall ever having seen him before. She has been working for the above firm about one year and knows many of the older employees in the building by sight.

She could furnish no other pertinent information.

He stated this tower is located just north and west of the Texas School Book Depository Building, which is located at the northwest corner of Houston and Elm Streets.

BOWERS advised that he was watching the Presidential Motorcade from his tower at about 12:28 P.M. when he heard three shots. He saw no one run from the west or south sides of the Texas School Book Depository Building and prior to the shooting did not see any suspicious persons enter the building. He stated he did observe three cars parked in the parking lot located west of the building. The first, a blue over white 1959 Oldsmobile Station Wagon, arrived at about 11:55 A.M. It had an out of state license plate consisting of six black numbers on a white background. The car was extremely dirty. There was one white male occupant, possibly middle aged. The second car, a 1957 black Ford Tudor with a gold stripe on the side bearing Texas license plates, arrived at about 12:15 P.M. BOWERS believed the occupant of this second car was a police officer, as he observed him talking on a radio telephone or a radio transmitter. He was a white male, age about 30. The third car, a 1961 or 1962 white Chevrolet Impala Four Door with an out of state plate similar to that which he had observed on the first car, the 1959 Oldsmobile, arrived at about 12:22 P.M. This car had one white male occupant, age about 30, with dirty blond hair, long on the sides and wearing a plaid sport coat. This car was also very dirty. Following the shooting BOWERS observed that none of these cars was in the parking lot.

Mrs. JOSEPH EDDIE DEAN, 7727 Bearden Lane, advised as follows:

She is employed by The Macmillan Company on the third floor of the Texas School Book Depository Building, 411 Elm Street.

At approximately 12:40 p.m., on November 22, 1963, she and some other employee in the building were standing on the steps of the building facing Elm Street, when a motorcade in which President JOHN F. KENNEDY and Governor JOHN CONNALLY of Texas were riding, was passing by.

President KENNEDY had just looked in their direction and waved when she heard a rifle shot. Shortly thereafter, she heard another rifle shot and then a third. During these moments, she observed President KENNEDY slump down into the car. After the first or second shot, she observed President KENNEDY reach to the back of his neck just before he slumped down.

When she realized the shots came from above her, she ran out into the street, but did not look up at this time. Everyone was running in various directions and some were falling to the ground, as if to avoid being shot. Everyone was very excited, including herself.

She returned to the steps of the building and met Mrs. MADIE B. REESE, her office manager, and then accompanied Mrs. REESE to the National Bank of Commerce, making a deposit.

After viewing photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television, she could not recall ever having seen him before. She could furnish no further pertinent information.

LARRY HUBER FLORER, 3609 Potomac, Dallas, Texas, telephone number LA 1-7150, advises that he watched the President's parade on November 22, 1963 from a position at about Main and Poydras Streets. After the President's automobile had passed, he and his companion, RICHARD BARTHOLOW, a teller in the National Bank of Commerce, went to a barbeque stand located on Pacific Street about one block east of Poydras and had lunch. While they were eating, they heard a radio broadcast indicating that President KENNEDY had been shot. BARTHOLOW had to return to the bank where he worked, but he (FLORER) went down to the vicinity of Elm and Houston Streets to see what had happened. When he arrived he observed that the Texas School Book Depository Building was completely surrounded by officers and he stood and watched the activity for about 10 or 15 minutes. He then decided that he had better call his employer, Mr. R. S. CRAIG of the S. L. Ewing Company and let him know he would be late returning to work.

FLORER stated he asked a woman bystander, name unknown, where the nearest telephone was, and she said there was one on the third floor of the building located directly across the street from the Texas School Book Depository Building. She apparently worked in this building and he went up the elevator with her to the third floor. He advises that on this floor there was an information desk of some company and he asked permission to use the telephone. He stated that a man apparently connected with the company located on that floor very curtly refused him permission to use the telephone, wanted to know what he was doing in the building, and told him to "get out". He said this man escorted him to the elevator and as he left the building, he was surrounded by police officers, apparently called by the individual who had ordered him out of the building. FLORER advises that he was taken to the Sheriff's Office and questioned concerning his presence and activity in the area.

Mr. FRANZEN advised he and his wife and small son were standing in the grass area west of Houston Street and south of Elm Street at the time the President's motorcade arrived at that location at approximately 12:30 P.M. on November 22, 1963. He said he heard the sound of an explosion which appeared to him to come from the President's car and noticed small fragments flying inside the car and immediately assumed someone had tossed a fire-cracker inside the automobile. He heard a second and third and possibly a fourth explosion and recognized these sounds as being shots fired from some firearm. At the same time he noticed blood appearing on the top and sides of the head of President KENNEDY. He noticed a colored family consisting of a man, woman and small child nearby and at the sound of these shots the man picked up the small boy and ran with the woman west on Elm Street toward the overpass. During the ensuing confusion he remembers looking at the side of the building occupied by the Texas School Book Depository, located across Elm Street from his position but does not remember seeing anything of a suspicious nature with regard to that building. He noticed the men, who were presumed to be Secret Service Agents, riding in the car directly behind the President's car, unloading from the car, some with firearms in their hands, and noticed police officers and these plain clothesmen running up the grassy slope across Elm Street from his location and toward a wooded and bushy area located across Elm Street from him.

Because of this activity he presumed the shots which were fired came from the shrubbery or bushes toward which these officers appeared to be running.

He looked over the crowd which had assembled along both sides of Elm Street in this block but noticed nothing which appeared unusual among these spectators.

Mr. FRANZEN advised he is aware that the information which he has furnished may not be of any particular significance

MR. S. M. HOLLAND, 1119 Lucille Street, Irving, Texas, on November 24, 1963, advised SAS JAMES C. KENNEDY and WILL HAYDEN GRIFFIN that on Friday, November 22, 1963, in anticipation of the Presidential motorcade passing underneath the three-tier crossing on Elm Street, that he had been waiting approximately fifteen or eighteen minutes when the motorcade turned on Elm Street and began proceeding directly toward him, as he was standing on top of the underpass, looking down Elm Street.

The motorcycle escort and the lead car had passed underneath the underpass and the Presidential car was approximately forty to fifty yards away. He stated that he heard what he first believed to be a fire cracker and then saw President KENNEDY, who had just waved to a crowd on the President's left, crumple forward. JACQUELINE KENNEDY appeared to rise up in the rear seat and caught the President in her lap and then sat back down with the President's head face down in her lap.

Simultaneously with the first shot, he stated he heard either three or four more shots fired together and saw Governor CONNALLY, sitting directly in front of the President, fall forward and at the same time, Governor CONNALLY's wife knelt down behind the Governor's fallen body on the floor of the car.

When the first shot was fired, HOLLAND stated that a motorcycle officer behind the car stopped his motor, left it in the street, drew his gun, and began running back toward the intersection of Elm and Houston Street. One of the officers in the front seat of the Presidential car stood up with a machine gun in his hands and was looking back from the car when it immediately speeded up, throwing this officer back across the front seat. This Presidential car went under the underpass at a rapidly rising rate of speed en route to Parkland Hospital.

HOLLAND stated that he looked toward the fence to his left to observe anyone that he might see running from this fence but saw no one.

FRANCES GAYLE NEWMAN, 718 W. Clarendon Street, advised that at the time President KENNEDY was assassinated and Governor CONNALLY was wounded she was standing on the north curb of Elm Street between the triple underpass and Houston Street. Also standing there were her two children, ages 2 and 4, and her husband, WILLIAM EUGENE NEWMAN, Jr. She estimated that when the limousine bearing the Presidential party was about 50 feet from them she heard rifle reports and the President seemed to rise up in his seat. A few seconds later she heard another shot and saw that the President had been hit in the head because she saw blood flowing from his body. She said a man had been standing back of them on a pedestal near an arcade taking photographs and there were a couple of people east of them on the north side of Elm Street.

She stated that after the President was shot officers and probably Secret Service men started running toward the arcade near the point where the photographer was taking his pictures. She believed there were first two shots in succession, a pause, then another shot was fired which struck the President. She said the limousine was a three seated one carrying Governor CONNALLY and his wife in the middle seat and the President and Mrs. KENNEDY in the back seat. She did not notice the occupants of the front seat as she had her eyes on the President whom she had come to see. After the shots were fired, she and her husband each grabbed a child and lay down on the grass fearing that they might be hit by gunfire. She noticed that Governor CONNALLY seemed to be lying down in the front seat holding his stomach when he passed directly in front of them. She was taken with her husband to the WFAA Studio where they waited a short time after the announcement came that the President was deceased, she and her husband were interviewed. They later made statements to Deputy Sheriffs concerning their eye-witness account of the assassination of the President and the wounding of Governor CONNALLY.

The shots were fired at the President and Governor CONNALLY about 12:30 p.m. on November 22, 1963. She said she did not see LEE HARVEY OSWALD during that time.

Mr. & Mrs. WILLIAM EUGENE NEWMAN, Jr., 718 W. Clarendon, Dallas, Texas, who is an unemployed electrician, advised that at the time of the assassination of President KENNEDY he and his wife, GAYLE, and their two children were standing on the north side of Elm Street about mid-way between Houston Street and the triple overpass. There were very few people on that side of the street. One man was standing on a pedestal near an arcade to the rear of them taking movies and he believed that two women were a few steps up the street from him. He believed that when the President's car was approximately 50 feet from him proceeding in a westerly direction on Elm Street he heard the first shots fired. It was his belief that two shots were fired in rapid succession which he thought at the time was a firecracker. Gayle Newman

The car was proceeding toward him and it seemed that the President's arms went up and that he raised up in his seat and started to look around. The car proceeded to a point about even with him and he could see Governor JOHN CONNALLY was holding his stomach. About that time another shot was fired which he estimated was ten seconds after the first shot was fired. At that time he heard the bullet strike the President and saw flesh fly from the President's head. He noticed that Governor CONNALLY was lying back in the seat of the car and that his eyes "were real big." NEWMAN first thought the President and Governor were playing some kind of a game and suddenly realized they had been shot and that he was perhaps in the line of fire because officers started running toward the arcade directly back of him and his wife. He grabbed one child and his wife the other. They both lay down on the grass until after the procession passed. He stated he did not see any blood on Governor CONNALLY or President KENNEDY and that the limousine in which they were riding was a three seated limousine with Governor CONNALLY and President KENNEDY sitting on the side nearest him and the side nearest the Texas School Book Depository building from where he learned later the shots had been fired. President KENNEDY was seated in the back seat with his wife and Governor CONNALLY and his wife were in the middle seat of the limousine. He could not recall any of the bullets hitting the car but he said the report of the rifle was very loud and clear. He was later taken to the offices of WFAA Studio in Dallas and they interviewed him concerning his eye-witness account of the assassination of the President and the shooting of Governor CONNALLY.

He was also interviewed by Deputy Sheriffs and gave a statement as to what happened. He recalled that when the President was shot Mrs. KENNEDY seemed to grab him and pull him toward her. He was positive this occurred because when all shots were fired at the President he had his eyes directly on him. He could not state whether Mrs. CONNALLY was helping her husband or not but he seemed to be lying down when he passed them.

He said the President was hit on the right side of the head with the third shot and he heard the thud when the bullet struck the President. He did not see any rifle in the possession of anyone whom he thought might be responsible for the shooting. He has seen pictures of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television and stated he had never seen him insofar as he knows.

The assassination of the President occurred about 12:30 p.m. on November 22, 1963.

She stated that as the company was in the process of moving she left work at about 11:30 a.m. and drove to Oak Cliff taking a friend home and returning through the downtown Dallas area to her home in north Dallas. As she proceeded through the downtown area, she noticed crowds gathering in connection with President KENNEDY's visit to the area. She stated she, on the spur of the moment, decided she would like to see the President so she parked her car in Simmons Parking Lot #2 located at the northwest corner of the Dallas County School Book Depository Building. She then walked in front of the building and turned right on Elm Street and stood on the curb on the north side of the street immediately west of the Stemons Expressway sign. A car carrying the President and other persons had just passed her when she heard a report and saw the President jump, raising his hands to his chest area. She stated she assumed the report to be a firecracker and thought how "human" the President was that he too would react by jumping at a sudden noise. She stated the car had proceeded to approximately 12 feet to her right when she heard a second report and saw the President slump to the front of the car. She said the only other person in the Presidential car that she recognized was Mrs. JACQUELINE KENNEDY who immediately jumped to her knees over the President when he slumped.

Mrs. NEWMAN stated she only heard the two shots but cannot definitely state that additional shot or shots were not fired as people around her realizing what had happened began milling around and screaming. She stated that when she realized the reports were shots she immediately turned and looked up the hill to the north toward the parking lot but did not see anything after which she proceeded back up the hill and walked in front of the Dallas County School Book Depository Building to the parking lot to get her car where she was questioned by an officer and eventually taken to the Dallas County Sheriff's Office where she made a statement.

Mrs. NEWMAN stated that after the shots were fired she was in the area of the School Book Depository Building for some minutes and actually walked immediately in front of the building in returning to the parking lot but did not see or hear any person emerging from the building in such a manner as to attract her attention but pointed out all persons in the area were very excited at the time.

Mrs. REESE advised that she had seen photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television and simply cannot remember ever having seen him in the Texas School Book Depository Building. She said that if he had ever come into the office she does not remember it.

Mrs. REESE stated when the President's motorcade passed she was standing on the second step in front of the Texas School Book Depository Building and had heard three shots or what seemed to her to be shots. Mrs. REESE was unable to provide any other information which might identify OSWALD with the shots.

PAULINE ~~K~~ SANDERS, 4226 Delmar, Dallas, Texas, a Clerk, Texas School Book Depository, 411 Elm Street, advised she arrived at work at 8:45 a.m., on November 22, 1963, and immediately reported to the main office where she was employed. She said she was acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD who worked in the warehouse section and she has seen him three or four times during lunch breaks in the lunch room but did not talk to him on any occasion. She said he was very quiet and she had never seen him talking to any of the other employees that she could recall. She said she would not be in a position to observe what time he arrived at work or the way he arrived.

She said on the morning of November 22, 1963, she went outside to watch the Presidential parade at about 11:25 a.m. She said she did not see OSWALD during this time and she stood in the last line of spectators nearest the door to the Texas School Book Depository building. She advised she could not recall the exact time but immediately after the Presidential parade passed she heard three loud blasts and she immediately realized that the shots or whatever it was came from the building above her. She said within a matter of ten seconds a uniform police officer in a white helmet ran into the building but she did not observe him any further and could not state where he went in the building.

Mrs. SANDERS advised that Mr. CAMPBELL, Office Manager, arrived shortly after the police officer entered the building and she told him she believed the blasts came from the upper part of the building however he insisted the shots came from the embankment. She advised she did not pursue the matter any further and she entered the building within five minutes of the blast. She said she did not observe OSWALD in the lobby but the lobby was crowded with people at this time. She said she did notice a uniform police officer talking to an individual dressed in grey clothing with a silver type construction helmet and he claimed to be an engineer. She said he definitely did not work in the building and she had never seen him before. She said the police officer appeared to be taking his name and address. She said she did not observe whether the elevator was in use or not and she could not recall whether it was on the first floor but she did use the stairwell and walked to the second floor where their offices are maintained. She said she could not recall seeing OSWALD the entire day and at this time the only thing that was on their minds was whether the President had died.

Mrs. SANDERS advised that this morning she called GERALDINE REID, another employee, telephone number FE 1-6617, who told her that the police officer who had first entered the building ran into the lunch room where Mr. TRULY, the warehouse manager, and OSWALD were evidently lunching. The police officer put his gun into OSWALD's stomach but TRULY advised the police officer that OSWALD worked for him. Police officer turned away and evidently left the area. She said according to REID, OSWALD then went to the main office and REID, although she had not observed the initial incident with the police officer, told OSWALD that the President had been shot. According to SANDERS, Mrs. REID claimed that OSWALD just mumbled something and then left the office. She said REID did not mention how OSWALD left the office or for that matter if she knew how he might have left the building. SANDERS advised that the stairwell would probably have been the easiest way to leave without being too noticeable since the stairwell is in need of repairs and employees had been instructed not to use the stairwell.

OCHUS V. CAMPBELL, 7120 Twin Lakes Lane, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He is Vice President of the Texas School Book Depository Company, with offices located on the second floor of the Texas School Book Depository Building in Dallas.

On November 22, 1963, he was present at his office at the above named building and at about 12:30 PM on that day, he and several other associates were together stationed about 30 feet in front of this building facing away from the building observing the passing motorcade containing President KENNEDY. At this time, he heard a loud report, which at first he considered to be a fire cracker or some such object set off by a crank and believed the noise came from away from his building. This illusion, he explained, may have been due to the sound bouncing off the building and other objects in the vicinity. After hearing two more such reports, he realized that these must have been rifle shots and since President KENNEDY's car had advanced just out of his vision, he went forward a few feet to observe this automobile, inasmuch as he feared that the rifle shots were in connection with an attempt upon President KENNEDY's life. He then observed the car bearing President KENNEDY to slow down, a near stop, and a motorcycle policeman rushed up. Immediately following this, he observed the car rush away from the scene. He then immediately rushed into his building without having seen anything unusual from any window of this building. Inside he was told shortly thereafter by the warehouse superintendent, Mr. TRULY, that all the employees of the company had been rounded up and one employee, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, was missing.

Mr. CAMPBELL observed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, bearing New Orleans, Louisiana No. 112 723, and stated that he is sure this is a photograph of the employee named above, but added that he is not personally acquainted with him and has never seen him. He advised that he has always given Mr. TRULY the responsibility of hiring employees for the warehouse.

VIRGIE RACKLEY, 405 Wood Street, telephone 544-3827, employed as a bookkeeper at the Texas School Book Depository, second floor, corner of Houston and Elm Streets, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

From an examination of the photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, she does not believe that she has ever seen him and is certain that she has never spoken to him. She works on the second floor at the front of the building and rides to work on an elevator located in the east end of the building which goes only to the first four floors.

At about 12:15 p.m. on November 22, 1963 she left her office and went out the south door of the Texas School Book Depository Building to watch the Presidential motorcade pass. She was standing across the street immediately in front of this building but on the north side of the entrance to the Triple Underpass along which the motorcade traveled. She observed President KENNEDY's car pass her point of observation and almost immediately thereafter heard three explosions spaced at intervals which she at first thought were firecrackers. It sounded as though these sounds were coming from the direction of the Triple Underpass, and looking in that direction after the first shot she saw something bounce from the roadway in front of the Presidential automobile and now presumes it was a bullet bouncing off the pavement. She stated she did not see President KENNEDY being shot and that she did not realize this was what happened until later.

After the shots she and others in the crowd moved on down toward the Triple Underpass and on returning to the building were told they could not go inside. She did not go inside until about 3:00 p.m.

She stated that just before the shooting a man had passed out on the parkway between the Elm Street entrance and the Main Street entrance to the Triple Underpass and that an ambulance had picked him up and left the scene just seconds before the Presidential car came into sight on Houston Street.

This ambulance picked up the man directly across Houston Street from the Sheriff's Office.

RACKLEY stated that she did not look up at the Texas School Book Depository Building since she did not think that the sounds were coming from that building. She recalled no one who had mentioned seeing anyone in the windows of the building prior to the shooting although just after the shooting some unidentified man who had been sitting on a wall directly across the street and south of the Texas School Book Depository Building stated "I saw everything". She did not know what he was talking about at the time and does not know whether he saw anyone in the windows of the building or not.

She recalled that after the second shot she smelled gunsmoke but did not know where it was coming from.

DOLORES KOUNAS, 825 Arpege Circle, Dallas, Texas telephone FR 4-7251, employed as a clerk-typist by McGraw-Hill Publishing Company, third floor of the Texas School Book Depository Building, Elm and Houston Streets, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

She examined a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and stated she cannot recall ever having seen him. She stated that the building in which she works has office space on the lower floors and that she goes to the third floor via an elevator in the east end of the building which runs only to the ~~third~~ fourth floor.

She stated on November 22, 1963 she had left the building about 12:00 noon. She stated she went to a spot on the southwest corner of Houston and Elm Streets to watch the Presidential motorcade pass. She was approximately 100 feet south of the Texas School Book Depository Building and observed the motorcade of President KENNEDY pass in front of her and proceed west toward the Triple Underpass. After the car had passed her point and was almost to the underpass she heard a noise like a firecracker. She stated there were three of these noises which she now knows were shots equally spaced by a few seconds and that it sounded as though these shots were coming from the Triple Underpass. She stated she looked in that direction but was unable to see the car in which President KENNEDY was riding due to the mass of people in front of her.

She stated that after standing there a few minutes she walked across the street toward the Texas School Book Depository Building but was not allowed to go in the building until about 3:00 p.m.

She stated during the time she was watching the motorcade, before and after the shots were fired, she did not look up at the Texas School Book Depository Building and thus did not know whether there was anyone at the windows in that building. She stated it did not sound like the shots were coming from that direction but rather from the Triple Underpass.

ROGER CRAIG, 7711 Piedmont, Apartment B, employed as Deputy Sheriff, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, was reinterviewed. Mr. CRAIG stated that about 12:20 p.m., November 22, 1963, he was standing about 20 feet east of Houston Street on Main Street in downtown Dallas when he heard a noise which he presumed to be a gun shot. He states he immediately started west on Main Street toward Houston Street, and while en route, he heard two additional noises which he also presumed to be gun shots.

He stated he crossed Houston Street and there met a Dallas city police officer who advised him that the noises he had heard were in actuality gun shots. He stated he then proceeded to the Santa Fe railroad tracks which run alongside the Texas School Book Depository building, and while en route there noticed a car with a woman sitting in it. He stated he immediately took her to a Mr. LUMMY LEWIS, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, who took her name and address. Dallas Trio

Mr. CRAIG stated he then went to the southwest corner of the Texas School Book Depository building and there talked with a young man and his wife who claimed they had observed a man through a window of the Texas School Book Depository holding a rifle about 15 minutes before the parade passed, but assumed he was a Secret Service man. CRAIG stated he also took these people to Mr. LEWIS, who took their names and addresses. CRAIG stated he then crossed to the south side of Elm Street in front of the Texas School Book Depository building to see if he could see marks on the pavement which would indicate that a bullet had ricocheted.

He stated that at that time he heard a shrill whistle, looked up, and saw a man running across the lawn toward Elm Street coming from direction of Texas School Book Depository building. He stated he also noticed an automobile traveling west on Elm, which he feels was a white Nash Rambler station wagon with a luggage rack on top. He stated he observed the driver look at the man running down the hill, then observed the driver stop at the curb. He stated the man on foot got in the Rambler and they left going west on Elm Street. Mr. CRAIG stated he did not have the license number, but feels that it was a 1963 Texas license.

W. W. SCOGGINS, 3138 Alaska, advised he is a driver for the Oak Cliff Cab Company and furnished Detective MARVIN JOHNSON of the Dallas Police Department and SA LOUIS M. KELLEY the following information:

He had picked up a fare at Love Field on Friday, November 22, 1963, which he discharged at 321 North Ewing at 1 p.m. He then drove to the Gentlemens Club, 125 South Patton, to get a cold drink to go with his lunch. He could not find a parking place in front of the club, so he parked on the east side of Patton at 10th Street and stated he parked where a stop sign had been but which had been removed. He parked heading north on the right side of the street.

He walked back to the club, obtained his cold drink, and watched the President on TV for a minute. He then returned to his cab and got his lunch out of the pocket. He estimated this to be about 1:25 p.m.

About the time he got his lunch out, he saw a policeman in a squad car going east on 10th Street at a slow rate of speed. This officer stopped on 10th Street just east of PATTON. The officer got out of his car and apparently said something to a man walking west on 10th Street and who was on the south side of 10th. When the officer spoke to him, the man stopped.

The next thing that attracted SCOGGINS' attention was a gun firing and he heard three or four shots, saw smoke near the squad car and saw the officer fall beside the car on the driver's side. The man the officer had stopped started running. He ran west on 10th to Patton and south on Patton onto Jefferson. The last time he saw this man was when he was going down Jefferson. He reported this to his dispatcher as soon as the man passed his cab and was asked if an ambulance was needed. He advised the dispatcher he did need an ambulance and shortly thereafter one arrived as did other officers.

He stated he did not know the man who shot the officer but felt he would recognize him again if he saw him.

MRS. HELEN MARKHAM, residence 328 E. 9th Street, employed as a waitress at the Eatwell Cafe, Main Street, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

On the early afternoon of November 22, 1963, possibly around 1:30 p.m., she observed a marked Dallas Police Department patrol car parked in the 400 block of East 10th Street. She saw a young man walk from the sidewalk to the squad car and put his face up to the front window on the right-hand side of the car which was next to the curb and engage the officer in a brief conversation of about ten seconds. Thereafter, the officer got out the left-hand door, drivers side of the car, walked around behind the squad car and on rounding the corner of the car was shot twice in the head by the young man.

MRS. MARKHAM immediately ran out to the car and was afraid that this young man might shoot her, but felt that she must go to the aid of the officer. The young man ran west on 10th Street to the corner, turned south and disappeared.

MRS. MARKHAM stated that she is sure that she can identify him and described him as a white male, about 18, black hair, red complexion, wearing black shoes, tan jacket, and dark trousers.

V. Arrest of Lee Harvey Oswald

FD-302 (Rev. 8-8-58) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1 Date 11/22/63

At about 1:25 p.m., while at the Texas School Book Depository Building, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, I, SA ROBERT M. BARRETT, heard a radio broadcast on a police car radio that a police officer had been shot in the 400 block of East Jefferson Street and that a suspect had been observed fleeing from the area. I proceeded immediately to the area and learned that the shooting had actually taken place in the 400 block of East 10th Street. While there I overheard police officers interviewing the female witness who stated that she had first observed a young white male about 27 years of age leaning on the front door of the passenger side of a Dallas police car, talking to the police officer through the open window. The officer got out of the car, according to this witness, and walked around the back of the car. As he did so, the young man stepped back, took a gun from his shirt, fired twice at the officer hitting him. The woman ran to the aid of the officer and was told by the gunman to leave him alone or he would shoot her. According to this witness, the gunman then fled in a westerly direction.

I noted, however, that the blood from the fatally wounded officer was near the left front fender of the squad car, indicating that he had walked around the front of the car. I also learned that the first report of this shooting had been received by the police dispatcher at 1:19 p.m.

At approximately 2:00 p.m. I heard a police broadcast from one of the nearby squad cars advising that the suspect had possibly been sighted at the Texas Theater in the 200 block of West Jefferson. I proceeded immediately to this area and along with numerous other law enforcement officers entered the theater to assist in the search for the suspect. As I entered the seating area on the main floor, I heard a police officer, later identified as M. N. MC DONALD, shout "Here he is". At this time about 12 police officers converged on this area. I observed Officer MC DONALD, along with Detective BOB CARROLL, Captain W. R. WESTBROOK, and numerous other officers, struggling with a young man, later identified as LEE HARVEY OSWALD. I heard OSWALD yell in a loud voice, "kill all the sons of bitches".

One of the officers took a .38 caliber snub-nose revolver out of OSWALD's right hand and handed it to Detective CARROLL. I then heard OSWALD yell, "I'm not resisting arrest, I'm not resisting". The officers then led OSWALD from the theater after handcuffing him, and as they did so OSWALD started yelling, "They are violating my civil rights".

At no time did I observe any officer strike OSWALD, abuse him, or use any more force than was necessary in subduing and handcuffing him in view of his resistance and the fact that he had a weapon in his possession.

Later at police headquarters, I observed the .38 snub-nose revolver and noted that it was a Smith and Wesson, Serial Number 510210. On the chamber hinge was the number 65248. I was also shown the six cartridges taken from the weapon and noted that one of them had an indentation on the primer. I was told by Officer MC DONALD that when he first approached OSWALD, the subject attempted to pull the weapon from his shirt, at which time MC DONALD grabbed the gun with both of his hands. MC DONALD stated that OSWALD did pull the trigger once, but that the gun did not fire. MC DONALD also stated that when he was holding onto the gun, OSWALD hit MC DONALD in the face with his fist, knocking MC DONALD against the seat and causing him to receive a scratch on his face.

At approximately 2 p.m., November 22, 1963, I was informed by an unidentified policeman of the Dallas Police Department that a suspect had been seen entering the back door of the Texas Theater.

I immediately proceeded to the Texas Theater, 231 West Jefferson, and entered the front door and stood in the lobby to see that no one left the theater, since there were no officers on guard there. A minute or two after arriving in the lobby, a Dallas County Deputy Sheriff ran by me from inside the theater stating "they have him", and within a minute thereafter, I observed a young man with his hands cuffed behind him in the midst of a group of Dallas police officers being hustled out the front door of the theater. As he passed through the lobby he shouted "police brutality".

This man was a white male, age about 22, 5' 8", 160 pounds, brown hair, and was wearing a white shirt, dark trousers, and a reddish brown jacket with zipper open all the way in front.

From photographs observed later in the day on November 22, 1963, I identified this individual as LEE OSWALD.

VI. Interviews with Lee Harvey Oswald and Relatives

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

LEE HARVEY OSWALD, 1026 North Beckley, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed by Captain WILL FRITZ of the Homicide Bureau, Dallas Police Department. Special Agents JAMES P. HOSTY, JR. and JAMES W. BOOKHOUT were present during this interview. When the Agents entered the interview room at 3:15 p.m., Captain FRITZ had been previously interviewing LEE HARVEY OSWALD for an undetermined period of time. Both Agents identified themselves to OSWALD and advised him they were law enforcement officers and anything he said could be used against him. OSWALD at this time adopted a violent attitude toward the FBI and both Agents and made many uncomplimentary remarks about the FBI. OSWALD requested that Captain FRITZ remove the cuffs from him, it being noted that OSWALD was handcuffed with his hands behind him. Captain FRITZ had one of his detectives remove the handcuffs and handcuff OSWALD with his hands in front of him.

Captain FRITZ asked OSWALD if he ever owned a rifle and OSWALD stated that he had observed a MR. TRUELY (phonetic), a supervisor at the Texas Schoolbook Depository on November 20, 1963, display a rifle to some individuals in his office on the first floor of the Texas Schoolbook Depository, but denied ever owning a rifle himself. OSWALD stated that he had never been in Mexico except to Tijuana on one occasion. However, he admitted to Captain FRITZ to having resided in the Soviet Union for three yeaws where he has many friends and relatives of his wife.

OSWALD also admitted that he was the secretary for the Fair Play for Cuba Committee in New Orleans, Louisiana a few months ago. OSWALD stated that the Fair Play for Cuba Committee has its headquarters in New York City. OSWALD admitted to having received an award for marksmanship while a member of the U.S. Marine Corps. He further admitted that he was living at 1026 N. Beckley in Dallas, Texas, under the name of O. H. LEE. OSWALD admitted that he was present in the Texas Schoolbook Depository on November 22, 1963, where he has been employed since October 15, 1963. OSWALD stated that as a laborer, he has access to the entire building which has offices on the first and second floors and storage on the third and fourth, as well as the fifth and sixth floors. OSWALD stated that he went to lunch at approximately noon and he claimed he ate his lunch on the first floor in the lunchroom; however he went to the second floor where the Coca-Cola machine was located and obtained a bottle of Coca-Cola for his lunch. OSWALD claimed to be on the first floor when President JOHN F. KENNEDY passed this building.

After hearing what had happened, he said that because of all the confusion there would be no work performed that afternoon so he decided to go home. OSWALD stated he then went home by bus and changed his clothes and went to a movie. OSWALD admitted to carrying a pistol with him to this movie stating he did this because he felt like it, giving no other reason. OSWALD further admitted attempting to fight the Dallas police officers who arrested him in this movie theater when he received a cut and a bump.

OSWALD frantically denied shooting Dallas police officer ~~TIPPIT~~ Tippit or shooting President JOHN F. KENNEDY. The interview was concluded at 4:05 p.m. when OSWALD was removed for a lineup.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD, interviewed in offices of the Dallas Police Department, was advised that he did not have to make any statement, any statement he made could be used against him in court and of his right to an attorney. He was requested to furnish descriptive and biographical data concerning himself.

The following was obtained from his responses and examination of contents of his wallet:

OSWALD declined to explain his possession of a photograph of a Selective Service card in the name of "ALEK JAMES HIDELL".

When interview had been substantially completed and OSWALD was asked as to his present employment, he stated he thought perhaps interview to obtain descriptive information was too prolonged, that he had declined to be interviewed by any other officers previously, and did not desire to be interviewed by this agent. He remarked "I know your tactics - there is a similar agency in Russia. You are using the soft touch and, of course, the procedure in Russia would be quite different."

OSWALD was advised questions were intended to obtain his complete physical description and background. Upon repetition of the question as to his present employment, he furnished same without further discussion.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD was interviewed at the Homicide and Robbery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, by Captain J. W. FRITZ in the presence of Special Agent JAMES W. BOOKHOUT, Federal Bureau of Investigation. OSWALD was advised of the identity and official capacity of said agent and the fact that he did not have to make any statement, that any statement he did make could be used in a court of law against him, and that any statement made must be free and voluntary and that he had the right to consult with an attorney.

OSWALD stated that he did not own any rifle. He advised that he saw a rifle day before yesterday at the Texas School Book Depository which MR. TRULY and two other gentlemen had in their possession and were looking at.

OSWALD stated that on November 22, 1963, at the time of the search of the Texas School Book Depository building by Dallas police officers, he was on the second floor of said building, having just purchased a Coca-cola from the soft-drink machine, at which time a police officer came into the room with pistol drawn and asked him if he worked there. MR. TRULY was present and verified that he was an employee and the police officer thereafter left the room and continued through the building. OSWALD stated that he took this Coke down to the first floor and stood around and had lunch in the employees lunch room. He thereafter went outside and stood around for five or ten minutes with foreman BILL SHELLEY, and thereafter went home. He stated that he left work because, in his opinion, based upon remarks of BILL SHELLEY, he did not believe that there was going to be any more work that day due to the confusion in the building. He stated after arriving at his residence, then he went to a movie, where he was subsequently apprehended by the Dallas Police Department.

OSWALD stated that his hours of work at the Texas School Book Depository are from 8 a.m. to 4:45 p.m., but that he is not required to punch a time clock. His usual place of work in the building is on the first floor; however, he frequently is required to go to the fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh floors of the building in order to get books and LEE HARVEY OSWALD was interviewed by Captain J. W. FRITZ, Homicide and Robbery Bureau, Dallas Police Department. OSWALD was advised of the identity of SA JAMES W. BOOKHOUT, and his capacity as a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He was informed of his right to an attorney, that any statement he might make could be used against him in a court of law, and that any statement which he might make must be free and voluntary. He furnished the following information in the presence of T. J. [redacted], U.S. Secret Service; DAVID B. GRANT, Secret Service; ROBERT I. NASH, United States Marshall; and Detectives BILLY L. SENKEL and FAY M. TURNER of the Homicide and Robbery Bureau, Dallas Police Department.

Following his departure from the Texas School Book Depository, he boarded a city bus to his residence and obtained transfer upon departure from the bus. He stated that officers at the time of arresting him took his transfer out of his pocket.

OSWALD advised that he had only one post office box which was at Dallas, Texas. He denied bringing any package to work on the morning of November 22, 1963. He stated that he was not in the process of fixing up his apartment and he denied telling WESLEY FRAZIER that the purpose of his visit to Irving, Texas, on the night of November 21, 1963, was to obtain some curtain rods from MRS. RUTH PAINE.

OSWALD stated that it was not exactly true as recently stated by him that he rode a bus from his place of employment to his residence on November 22, 1963. He stated actually he did board a city bus at his place of employment but that after about a block or two, due to traffic congestion, he left the bus and rode a city cab to his apartment on North Beckley. He recalled that at the time of getting into the cab, some lady looked in and asked the driver to call her a cab. He stated that he might have made some remarks to the cab driver merely for the purpose of passing the time of day at that time. He recalled that his fare was approximately 85 cents. He stated that after arriving at his apartment, he changed his shirt and trousers because they were dirty. He described his dirty clothes as being a reddish colored, long sleeved, shirt with a button-down collar and gray colored trousers. He indicated that he had placed these articles of clothing in the lower drawer of his dresser.

OSWALD stated that on November 22, 1963, he had eaten lunch in the lunch room at the Texas School Book Depository, alone, but recalled possibly two Negro employees walking through the room during this period. He stated possibly one of these employees was called "Junior" and the other was a short individual whose name he could not recall but whom he would be able to recognize. He stated that his lunch had consisted of a cheese sandwich and an apple which he had obtained at MRS. RUTH PAINE's residence in Irving, Texas, upon his leaving for work that morning.

OSWALD stated that MRS. PAINE receives no pay for keeping his wife and children at her residence. He stated that their presence in MRS. PAINE's residence is a good arrangement for her because of her language interest, indicating that his wife speaks Russian and MRS. PAINE is interested in the Russian language.

OSWALD denied having kept a rifle in MRS. PAINE's garage at Irving, Texas, but stated that he did have certain articles stored in her garage, consisting of two sea bags, a couple of suitcases, and several boxes of kitchen articles and also kept his clothes at MRS. PAINE's residence. He stated that all of the articles in MRS. PAINE's garage had been brought there about September, 1963, from New Orleans, Louisiana.

OSWALD stated that he has had no visitors at his apartment on North Beckley.

OSWALD stated that he has no receipts for purchase of any guns and has never ordered any guns and does not own a rifle nor has he ever possessed a rifle.

OSWALD denied that he is a member of the Communist Party.

OSWALD stated that he purchased a pistol, which was taken off him by police officers November 22, 1963, about six months ago. He declined to state where he had purchased it.

OSWALD stated that he arrived about July, 1962, from USSR and was interviewed by the FBI at Fort Worth, Texas. He stated that he felt they overstepped their bounds and had used various tactics in interviewing him.

OSWALD stated that he desired to contact Attorney ABT, New York City, indicating that ABT was the attorney who had defended the Smith Act case about 1949 - 1950. He stated that he does not know Attorney ABT personally. Captain FRITZ advised OSWALD that arrangements would be immediately made whereby he could call Attorney ABT.

OSWALD stated that prior to coming to Dallas from New Orleans he had resided at a furnished apartment at 4706 Magazine Street, New Orleans, Louisiana. While in New Orleans, he had been employed by WILLIAM B. RILEY Company, 640 Magazine Street, New Orleans.

OSWALD stated that he has nothing against President JOHN F. KENNEDY personally; however in view of the present charges against him, he did not desire to discuss this phase further.

OSWALD stated that he would not agree to take a polygraph examination without the advice of counsel. He added that in the past he has refused to take polygraph examinations.

OSWALD stated that he is a member of the American Civil Liberties Union and added that MRS. RUTH PAINE was also a member of same.

With regard to Selective Service card in the possession of OSWALD bearing photograph of OSWALD and the name of ALEK JAMES HIDELL, OSWALD admitted that he carried this Selective Service card but declined to state that he wrote the signature of ALEK J. HIDELL appearing on same. He further declined to state the purpose of carrying same or any use he has made of same.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD was interviewed at the Homicide and Robbery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, at 6:35 p.m., by Captain J. W. FRITZ in the presence of Special Agent JAMES W. BOOKHOUT, Federal Bureau of Investigation. OSWALD was advised of the identity and official capacity of said Agent and the fact that he did not have to make any statement, that any statement he did make could be used in a court of law against him, and that any statement made must be free and voluntary and that he had the right to consult with an attorney.

Captain J. W. FRITZ exhibited to LEE HARVEY OSWALD a photograph which had been obtained by the Dallas Police Department in a search, by search warrant, of the garage at the residence of MRS. RUTH PAINE, located at Irving, Texas, which photograph reflects OSWALD holding a rifle and wearing a holstered pistol. OSWALD was asked if this was a photograph of himself. OSWALD stated that he would not discuss the photograph without advice of an attorney. He stated that the head of the individual in the photograph could be his but that it was entirely possible that the Police Department had superimposed this part of the photograph over the body of someone else. He pointed out that numerous news media had snapped his photograph during the day and the possibility existed that the police had doctored up this photograph.

OSWALD denied that he had purchased any rifle from Kleins Store in Chicago, Illinois.

OSWALD complained of a lineup wherein he had not been granted a request to put on a jacket similar to those worn by some of the other individuals in the lineup.

Mrs. MARINA NIKOLAEVNA OSWALD was interviewed in the Russian language by SA LEON I. GOPADZE of the U. S. Secret Service, with SA MAX D. PHILLIPS of the U. S. Secret Service also present. SA GOPADZE introduced himself as Mr. LEE, an agent of the Government, and introduced the two interviewing FBI agents as agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

At the outset of the interview, before SA GOPADZE could advise MARINA OSWALD of her constitutional rights, she stated, "Do I have a right not to answer questions if I do not want to." MARINA OSWALD was advised she did not have to talk if she did not want to, that she had a right to an attorney, and anything she did say could be used against her.

She was asked if she would mind answering questions that were to be asked. She replied that she did not wish to be asked anything, as anything she had to say she had said before and she had no further information.

MARINA OSWALD was advised that there were many unanswered questions and would she care to be asked these questions. She replied that she was tired and worried about one of her children, who was slightly ill, and for this reason she did not care to be interviewed. She was told that her cooperation in this investigation was needed and she was asked whether she would consider an interview at a later date or on some other occasion. She indicated that she did not wish to be interviewed.

MARINA OSWALD stated the Government knows all the facts and she has no further facts except what is known to the Government. MARINA OSWALD stated she did not have a friendly attitude toward the FBI because she felt the FBI had caused her husband to lose his job following his arrest in New Orleans for distributing pro-Castro literature and disturbing the peace.

When asked if she intended to stay in the United States, MARINA OSWALD stated she would like to stay in the United States because of her children and to be near where her husband is buried. She then asked for assurance that she would be allowed to stay in the United States and she was advised that this was a matter coming under the jurisdiction of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. She was advised that the Government needs her cooperation and this might help. MARINA OSWALD then stated if she was not allowed to stay in the United States, then that was all right also. When asked how she intended to live and support her children, she stated she would find some type of work. She was then advised that if she cooperated with the Government this could be of some assistance to her.

MARINA OSWALD then stated she was tired of answering questions. When told that the Government only wanted the facts, she stated she had the same facts as everyone else and no other. MARINA OSWALD was then asked if she ever had any conversations with her husband about former President JOHN F. KENNEDY. MARINA OSWALD stated "No." She was then asked if her husband, LEE OSWALD, ever indicated in any way that he intended to kill former President KENNEDY. She stated "No, I feel he did not do it because he never spoke against President KENNEDY at any time." When asked if he had ever said anything against Texas Governor JOHN CONNALLY, she stated she could not recall any statements that LEE OSWALD made against Texas Governor JOHN CONNALLY. When asked if LEE OSWALD could have had a grudge against Texas Governor CONNALLY, she stated she did not know. MARINA OSWALD then stated "I swear before God that LEE OSWALD did not intend to kill President KENNEDY." When asked if she believed in God, MARINA OSWALD stated she has believed in God since the death of her mother. When asked if she was a Christian, she said "Yes." MARINA OSWALD was then asked if she knew any of her husband's associates, and she stated "No," that LEE OSWALD was a "loner" and was always by himself. MARINA OSWALD also stated her husband never expressed political views or opinions to her since he felt that women did not belong in politics. When asked if LEE OSWALD had any friends in Russia, she stated "No," as he was a "loner" in Russia also and he was always reading Marxist books, such as "Das Kapital." MARINA OSWALD stated that one time she became so exasperated with LEE OSWALD she asked him "What are you trying to do, start another revolution?" She stated that LEE OSWALD was strong-willed and stubborn; he was hot-headed and had his own ideas about everything. MARINA OSWALD was asked if she had ever seen LEE OSWALD with a gun and she stated "No." When asked if she had ever seen him go hunting, MARINA OSWALD stated there was no place around Dallas or Fort Worth where he could hunt and he had no transportation to go hunting and could not drive an automobile.

When asked if she would like to have another visit from the FBI , she stated that there is no reason for another visit. MARINA OSWALD stated that she was treated satisfactorily, however, she hoped she would not be bothered again, that the Government has all the facts and in her mind, due to what has been told her, she is satisfied that LEE OSWALD had killed President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

MARINA OSWALD was then asked if she would help furnish additional facts so that it might be possible to clear her husband, LEE OSWALD, if he had not killed the President. MARINA OSWALD stated if she knew any additional facts she would furnish them to clear up the case. She stated that "the Government knows more than I do".

The conversation was momentarily interrupted, at which time MARINA OSWALD snapped "Let's come to the business of this conversation". MARINA OSWALD then requested termination of the interview and it was discontinued immediately at this point.

ROBERT LEE OSWALD, 109 Sierra, Denton, Texas, employed by the Acme Brick Company, Denton, was interviewed at the Dallas Police Department regarding his brother, LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He advised his brother, LEE, had been in the United States Marine Corps and had gone to Russia as he recalled, on Halloween day, 1959. During the time that his brother was in Russia, he received a number of letters from him when he first went there and subsequently his brother stopped writing until approximately March or April, 1961. At that time he received a letter from his brother advising him that he had married a Russian girl and indicated in the letter that he was trying to get back to the United States. Subsequently, his brother and his Russian wife returned to the United States in June, 1962, in New York, and came to live with ROBERT OSWALD at his residence in Fort Worth, Texas. LEE OSWALD resided with ROBERT OSWALD for approximately two months and during this time LEE never indicated to ROBERT OSWALD why he had gone to Russia or why he had returned. During this time, LEE told ROBERT that he had received a dishonorable discharge from the Marine Corps and he was going to try to have it rectified. He then understood his brother had written Secretary of the Navy CONNALLY regarding his discharge and as he recalled, had also written Congressman WRIGHT in regard to this matter. Subsequently, his brother moved into a duplex located near Montgomery Ward in Fort Worth and contacted a number of employment agencies and was put in touch with one Mr. GREGORY in Fort Worth, Texas. Mr. GREGORY, according to ROBERT OSWALD, is a consultant in the oil business in Fort Worth, and a man who speaks Russian fluently and GREGORY allegedly wrote some letters of recommendation of employment for OSWALD. On two or three occasions, Mr. GREGORY, whom ROBERT OSWALD described as a white male, 55 to early 60's, 6'1" - 6'2", well dressed and distinguished looking, as well as his son, name unrecalled, described by OSWALD as white male, age 20, sandy hair, 5'11" to 6' tall, 170 pounds, visited with his brother, LEE, and his wife at ROBERT OSWALD's residence in Fort Worth. At this time it was alleged to ROBERT OSWALD that Mr. GREGORY's son was attending either Oklahoma University or Oklahoma State University, where he was studying Russian and wanted to increase his knowledge in that subject.

MARINA OSWALD indicated to ROBERT OSWALD that Mr. GREGORY's son was not very good in the Russian language for the length of time that he had studied it. Subsequently, after LEE OSWALD had moved to a duplex near Montgomery Ward, in Fort Worth, ROBERT OSWALD stopped by their residence on a number of occasions and on one occasion Mr. GREGORY's son was at their residence at which time he understood LEE OSWALD's wife, MARINA, was tutoring him in Russian. ROBERT OSWALD mentioned that a friend with whom he worked in Fort Worth, ERNEST FENDER, JR., knew Mr. GREGORY and referred to him as "the mad Russian". Subsequently ROBERT OSWALD was transferred by his company to Arkansas and approximately two months ago was transferred to his present position with Acme Brick in Denton, Texas. Since his transfer to Arkansas, OSWALD has only had a Post Office Box in Dallas, through which he could contact his brother, LEE, and did not know if he had traveled outside the State of Texas to New Orleans or other places since the time that ROBERT OSWALD had left Fort Worth, Texas.

ROBERT OSWALD recalled his brother had gone as far as the ninth grade in school and he considers his brother, LEE OSWALD, to be at least average or slightly above average intelligence. He advised the only gun he ever knew his brother to own was a .22 caliber rifle which they had when they were boys and in fact, he, ROBERT, had bought the gun from LEE for $10. as he recalled. LEE had never displayed to him any particular interest in guns or marksmanship and further, LEE OSWALD to ROBERT's knowledge, had never owned an automobile or ever had a driver's license. On his return from Russia, ROBERT inquired of LEE if he would like for him to teach him (LEE) how to drive to which LEE replied he felt he would find out soon enough.

During his association with his brother since his return from Russia he stated LEE knew the Russian language and both he and his wife talked at all times in the Russian language, as she knew no English.

From the gist of the letters his brother had written, he, LEE, indicated he disliked Russia although since his return from that country, he had never actually told ROBERT OSWALD that he did not, in fact, like Russia.

ROBERT OSWALD advised that he served in the United States Marine Corps for three years from 1952 to 1955, rising to the rank of Sergeant, stating 18 months of this time was spent in Korea and he subsequently received an honorable discharge. He at the present time has a half-brother, JOHN E. PICK, who is in the United States Air Force. He advised he resides in Denton, Texas, with his wife, VADA, and his daughter, KATHY, age 6, and son, ROBERT, age 2½ years, and he stated his mother, MARGUERITE OSWALD, resides in Fort Worth, Texas, and his father, ROBERT L. OSWALD, Sr., is deceased.

At 5:26 PM, Mrs. MARGUERITE CLAVERIE OSWALD, 2220 Thomas Place, Fort Worth, Texas, was interviewed, at which time she was advised that she did not have to make any statement, any statement she did make could be used in a court of law, and further that she had the right to consult an attorney before making a statement. Mrs. OSWALD stated she desired to make a statement to a representative of the Government from Washington. SAs CHARLES T. BROWN, JR. and W. HARLAN BROWN had previously identified themselves to Mrs. OSWALD as being Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and as representing this Bureau with headquarters in Washington, D. C. During the interview, Mrs. OSWALD said she did not desire to make a written statement in this matter.

Mrs. OSWALD advised she is a practical nurse. She stated LEE HARVEY OSWALD is her son and he was born October 19, 1939, at New Orleans, Louisiana. She has another son, ROBERT OSWALD, a Certified Public Accountant, who resides in Denton, Texas, and another son in the U. S. Air Force during the past 15 years, whereabouts of whom is unknown.

When LEE HARVEY OSWALD was approximately 5 years of age, she moved with her family from New Orleans, Louisiana, to Fort Worth, Texas. LEE HARVEY OSWALD attained 11th grade at Arlington Heights High School in Fort Worth after having attended grammar schools in the same city.

At the age of 17, LEE HARVEY OSWALD entered the Marine Corps, serving in that organization for approximately two years until he received a "dire need" discharge. At the time of his discharge Mrs. OSWALD was ill and after the Red Cross had investigated her illness, LEE HARVEY OSWALD was discharged from the service. When he returned home to Fort Worth, it was her recollection that he remained at home for about three days and left her home for the purpose of going to work. She stated she received a letter postmarked New Orleans, Louisiana, which stated that he was going to Europe aboard a ship. She said that the next time she heard of her son, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, was when she read in the newspapers that he was in the U.S.S.R. The newspaper accounts showed that he had defected to the Soviets; however, Mrs. OSWALD said she could not believe this because he had never expressed an affinity for Communism, nor had he been known to belong to any hate groups or use words which would indicate hatred for anyone. It was her recollection that he went to Russia about 1958 and remained there about 2½ years.

About February, 1960, Mrs. OSWALD stated she made a trip to Washington, D. C., and while there had a conference with State Department officials there whom she described as top officials in the State Department. She stated they were GENE BOSTER, officer in charge of Soviet affairs, DENMAN STANFIELD, Office of Special Consular Service, and ED HICKEY, Deputy Director of the Passport Department. She also said she had the telephone number of Secretary of State DEAN RUSK, but never contacted him. She did talk to Mr. RUSK's secretary who, in turn, made her appointment with BOSTER, STANFIELD and HICKEY.

After her return to her home in Fort Worth, Texas, the State Department wrote her giving the address of her son about three weeks later. She stated she felt this was strange in that the State Department had professed no knowledge of his whereabouts when she was in Washington. The State Department first informed her that he had gone to Finland and later told her that he was living in Minsk, U.S.S.R. She said that her son, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, did not have any knowledge of her having gone to Washington and does not have such knowledge at the present time. She said the State Department arranged for him to return to the United States with his wife MARINA, a Soviet citizen who is still a Soviet alien. She stated had her son remained in Russia, she would have written the newspaper concerning her son's life before he went to the U.S.S.R. She did not know why he had defected as he had never indicated any sympathy for Russia and "loved" the Marines. At one time LEE HARVEY OSWALD stated in a letter to her that she should have no fear because he would never become a Russian citizen. She stated that he held no animosity toward anyone as far as she knew, but never had any close friends.

Mrs. OSWALD stated that LEE HARVEY's wife MARINA was a registered pharmacist in the Soviet Union and spoke French fluently, in addition to Russian. When she last heard from MARINA, she was trying to learn English.

It was Mrs. OSWALD'S recollection LEE HARVEY OSWALD returned to the United States about the last of September, 1962, and stayed with a brother for about a week or two before they moved to her home, where LEE HARVEY and his wife stayed about one month.

Mrs. OSWALD stated that about a year ago, or a little more, LEE HARVEY OSWALD kissed her good-bye and she stated she had not heard from him since that time, but inspfar as she knew he had moved to Dallas. She did know that they had one child and that he had had difficulty in finding employment in Fort Worth because no one wanted a defected Communist in his employ.

Mrs. OSWALD stated that she had never seen a rifle or any other firearms in LEE HARVEY's possession at any time and did not know anything about his activities during the past year. She could not give any information regarding the friends or associates of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, nor did she know anything concerning any organizations to which he belonged.

Mrs. OSWALD did not believe that her son had actually defected to Russia, stating he could have been shanghaied and made to remain there, although she said this was her opinion only.

During her son's Marine service, she recalled he was in the "Formosa crisis" in the summer of 1957 or 1958, having entered the Marine Corps about 1956 and being released in September, October, or November, 1958.

Mrs. OSWALD stated that her son was a brilliant boy and wanted to attend college. He did receive a high-school diploma while a member of the U. S. Marines. She stated that she raised LEE HARVEY OSWALD as an orphan because his father died before he was born.

While in high school he played football, belonged to the Y.M.C.A. and seemed to get along with others, but had no friends. He was aloof, spending spare time reading, listening to the radio and television and playing monopoly. Mrs. OSWALD stated she worked as a practical nurse and on many occasions did not have the money to pay for her children's lunches. While her sons were in school, they came home before she did almost every afternoon. LEE HARVEY OSWALD, she stated, had never caused her any trouble and she did not know of any instances in which he had been arrested. Her son, ROBERT OSWALD, attended Texas Christian University and ~~MARINA~~ VADA attended that school for a short time.

She read in the papers that LEE HARVEY spoke Russian fluently and it was her belief if this were true he studied Russian in the service. He had never had any mental trouble and had never been examined by a psychiatrist at any time, Mrs. OSWALD stated. He at no time indicated any animosity toward the Government of the United States or the President.

SA JOHN JOE HOWLETT, U. S. Secret Service, Dallas, advised that with the aid of a surveyor and through the use of 8 millimeter movie films depicting President JOHN F. KENNEDY being struck by assassin's bullets on November 22, 1963, HOWLETT was able to ascertain that the distance from the window ledge of the farthest window to the east in the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository Building, 411 Elm Street, to where the President was struck the first time in the neck was approximately 170 feet. He stated this distance would be accurate within two or three feet. The distance from the same window ledge to the spot where President KENNEDY was struck in the head by the assassin's bullet was approximately 260 feet. Mr. HOWLETT stated that Secret Service Agents, using the 8 millimeter film had been unable to ascertain the exact location where Governor JOHN B. CONNALLY was struck.

SA HOWLETT advised that it had been ascertained from the movies that President KENNEDY was struck with the first and third shots fired by the assassin, while Gov. CONNALLY was struck with the second shot. SA HOWLETT stated the window referred to above was the one from which the shots were fired and faces south.

A crime scene search was made of the pertinent areas of the Texas School Book Depository building located at 411 Elm.

On the sixth floor, the area around the window from which the assassin shot President JOHN F. KENNEDY was searched for physical evidence with negative results.

The aisleways leading from the window to the sixth floor stairway and the area where the rifle was located were also searched for physical evidence. These checks were met with negative results.

The employees' lunchroom on the second floor, where the Dallas Police Department officer observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and the immediate area between the lunchroom and the stairway were also searched for evidence, but nothing of an evidentiary nature was found.

On the first floor of the building the office space, the hallways, and exits were searched for evidence. These checks also met with negative results.

The enclosed stairways leading from the first to the sixth floor were also searched with negative results.

During the search, photographs were taken of the pertinent areas where the assassin fired the rifle, the hallways on the sixth floor, the location where the rifle was found, the sixth floor stairway, the lunchroom on the second floor, and the hallway on the first floor. These photographs are being maintained in the Dallas file.

A survey was made at the Texas School Book Depository building, Dallas, Texas, in an effort to determine the time required to go from the window on the sixth floor where it is believed that shots were fired in the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY to the front door of the Texas School Book Depository building. Several methods of travel were utilized in this survey and the travel was done at a fast walk except in areas where an individual would have walked at a normal pace so as not to arouse suspicion. The following results were obtained from the methods of travel described.

1. Walking from window on sixth floor to stairway, walking down stairway to first floor, and walking from stairway to front door: 1 minute 45 seconds

2. Walking from window on sixth floor to freight elevator which was on the sixth floor, riding freight elevator to first floor and walking from freight elevator to front door: 1 minute 54 seconds

3. Walking from window on sixth floor to freight elevator, calling freight elevator from first floor to sixth floor, riding freight elevator from sixth floor to first floor, and walking from freight elevator to front door: 2 minutes 33 seconds

4. Walking from window on sixth floor to stairway, walking down stairway to fourth floor, walking from stairway to passenger elevator which was on the fourth floor, riding passenger elevator to first floor, and walking to front door: 1 minute 46 seconds

5. Walking from window on sixth floor to stairway, walking down stairway to fourth floor, walking from stairway on fourth floor to passenger elevator, calling passenger elevator from first floor to fourth floor, riding passenger elevator from fourth floor to first floor and walking to front door: 2 minutes 9 seconds

6. Walking from window on sixth floor to stairway, walking down stairway to second floor, walking on second floor from stairway to lunch room, spending 30 seconds in lunch room, and then walking to front stairway and walking downstairs to first floor and then walking to front door: 2 minutes 25 seconds.

Walking from window on sixth floor to freight elevator which was on sixth floor, riding freight elevator to second floor, walking to lunch room, spending 30 seconds in lunch room, and then walking to front stairway, down stairway to first floor, and then walking to front door: 2 minutes 52 seconds

8. Walking from window on sixth floor to freight elevator, calling freight elevator from first floor to sixth floor, riding freight elevator to second floor, walking to lunch room, spending 30 seconds in lunch room, walking from lunch room to front stairs, down front stairs and walking to front door: 3 minutes 31 seconds

9. Walking from window on sixth floor to stairway, walking down stairway to fourth floor, walking from stairway to passenger elevator which was on fourth floor, riding passenger elevator to second floor, walking from passenger elevator to lunch room, spending 30 seconds in lunch room, walking from lunch room to front stairway, and down stairway, and walking to front door: 3 minutes 26 seconds

From the interview of witnesses and the position where the gun used in the assassination was located, which was in the general vicinity of the door entrance to the stairway on the sixth floor, it appears that LEE HARVEY OSWALD possibly walked from the window on the sixth floor to the stairway, walked down the stairway to the second floor, walked to the lunch room where he spent an unknown amount of time, estimated at 30 seconds, then walked from the lunch room to the front stairs, down the front stairs, and then walked to the front door which as set forth above took 2 minutes and 25 seconds.

The distance from the front door of 411 Elm Street (the Texas School Book Depository Building) to the bus stop at Murphy and Elm Streets in Dallas was walked three times by SA LEE, and the average time was 6½ minutes. This is a distance of approximately 7 blocks.

A bus in very heavy traffic was timed in its traveling the distance from the bus stop at Murphy and Elm Streets to the bus stop at Poydras and Elm Streets, a distance of two blocks, and it took this bus in this type traffic approximately four minutes.

The distance from the bus stop at Poydras and Elm Streets to the cab stand at the northwest corner of Lamar and Jackson Streets, four city blocks, was walked by SA LEE in three minutes.

SAS BARRETT and LEE drove the distance from the cab stand at Lamar and Jackson Streets to the 500 block of North Beckley with a maximum speed used of 35 miles per hour, a distance of 2.6 miles, in seven minutes. The same distance was driven with a maximum speed of 30 miles per hour in 8½ minutes. The same distance was driven with a maximum speed of 25 miles per hour in seven minutes. Mr. SEYMOUR WEITZMAN, Deputy Constable, Dallas County Constable's Office, was interviewed in the presence of Detective C. W. BROWN, Homicide Bureau, Dallas Police Department. He furnished the following information: Dallas, Texas

At about 12:15 p.m., November 22, 1963, he was assigned to observe the route of President JOHN F. KENNEDY's motorcade through downtown Dallas, Texas. His station was located on the corner of Main and Houston Streets, next to the courthouse, in Dallas. He observed the car in which President KENNEDY was riding to travel north on Houston Street and turn west on Elm Street. Shortly after the President's car turned the corner along Elm Street, he was looking in another direction and heard three sounds in rapid succession, which he believed to have been gunshots. He believed these sounds to have come from a northwesterly direction from where he was standing. He heard someone say that the "shots" had come from behind a wooden fence which is located west and a little north of the intersection of Houston and Elm Streets. He immediately started running in that direction and climbed over the fence. Another officer followed him over the fence. When they arrived at a point on the other side of the fence which is near the railroad track, some railway employees told him they had heard the sounds and believed they came from the old Texas Building, which building is now called the Texas Schoolbook Depository building, which is located just north of the northwest corner of Houston and Elm Streets. He then entered this building and started a search of the various floors in the building. A few minutes later, Captain J. WILL FRITZ, Dallas Police Department, arrived and ordered a thorough search of the sixth floor of this building. Dallas, Texas

He, WEITZMAN, along with Dallas County Deputy Sheriff S. BOONE, began a minute search of the sixth floor of the building. He was concentrating his search in the southwest corner of the sixth floor, while BOONE was searching the northwest corner of the sixth floor. BOONE called his attention to a rifle which he had found between some boxes located near the northwest corner of the sixth floor.

He made the notation of the time, 1:22 p.m., when this gun was found, and called to his attention by Deputy BOONE. He recorded that time on the back of his copy of a warrant or summons which he was carrying in his pocket.

Mr. WEITZMAN described the rifle which was found as a 7.65 caliber Mauser bolt-action rifle, which loads from a five shot clip which is locked on the underside of the receiver forward of the trigger guard. The metal parts of this rifle were of a gun metal color, gray or blue, and the rear portion of the bolt was visibly worn. The wooden portions of this rifle were a dark brown in color and of rough wood, apparently having been used or damaged to considerable extent. This rifle was equipped with a four-power 18 scope of apparent Japanese manufacture. It was also equipped with a thick brown-black leather bandolier type sling.

After he had observed this rifle to the extent described above, Captain FRITZ appeared and took the rifle from him. He did not make note of any serial number on the rifle. He observed Captain FRITZ eject one rifle round of ammunition from this rifle. At this point, he discontinued his search of the sixth floor of the building and thereafter became engaged in regular patrol work in connection with investigation being conducted by law enforcement officers from all law enforcement agencies in Dallas County.

SEYMOUR WEITZMAN, Deputy Constable, Dallas County, Texas, advised that on November 22, 1963, he was observing the motorcade of President KENNEDY at Main and Houston Streets in Dallas, Texas. He advised that as the motorcade went out of his line of vision, turning at the corner of Elm and Houston and proceeding under the underpass, he heard three shots ring out and immediately ran to the point where Elm Street turns to go under the underpass and up the grassy slope located on the opposite side of Elm Street to a fence.

He advised at this point he was of the opinion that some prankster had thrown a firecracker, and it was his goal to locate this person. He advised that as he came to the fence located at the top of the grassy slope, some bystander mentioned that the firecracker or shot had come from the other side of the fence, and he requested a bystander to bend over and he used the bystander's back as a step and vaulted over the fence.

He advised there were several other officers present, who also jumped over the fence, and they immediately searched the area behind the fence. He stated they located no one and after talking to a yardman, the yardman told him that the noise had come from the end of the fence closest to the Texas School Book Depository, and a search was immediately made of that area.

While still on the other side of the fence, someone, believed to be an officer of the Dallas County Sheriff's Office, mentioned having seen or having heard about something red rolling on Elm Street, and they went and found what appeared to be a portion of a bone or bone structure which bore fresh blood stains. This was taken to the Dallas Police Laboratory.

He advised that about this time, he and the other officers went back to Elm Street, and someone stated that the President had been shot, and the shot had come from the Texas School Book Depository building. This was approximately 15 minutes after he heard the first three shots. He stated he assisted members of the Dallas County Sheriff's Office and the Dallas Police Department in searching the building, and he and EUGENE BOONE, Dallas County Deputy, were the ones who found the rifle stuck between some boxes or crates on the sixth floor of the building. He advised they did not touch the rifle, but immediately showed it to Captain FRITZ of the Dallas Police Department, and from what he could observe, the rifle looked like a 7.65 German-made Mauser rifler.

WEITZMAN stated that during the time he was running from the intersection of Main and Houston, he observed a blonde woman, 20 to 25 years old, drop a lunch sack at a point about half a block west of the Texas School Book Depository building, but thought nothing of it at the time. He advised, however, that it was later determined this lunch sack was very similar to the lunch sack found at the sixth floor window where the assassin apparently stationed himself and fired the fatal shot.

He said this information had been brought to the attention of the Dallas Police Department.

WEITZMAN stated he did not observe LEE HARVEY OSWALD or any other person possibly responsible for the shooting during the above described period of time.

Detective R. L. STUDEBAKER, Crime Scene Search Section, Identification Bureau, Dallas Police Department, on November 22, 1963, advised that he and his partner had made detailed photographs of the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository Building, Elm and Houston streets, Dallas, had measured the floor, and made a drawing of it, had conducted a thorough crime scene search of the floor and had dusted everything in the area of the southwest corner of the floor in an effort to develop latent finger or palm prints. He stated that he had been successful in locating a latent print on the wrapping paper on a bundle of books or school supplies on which the assassin of President KENNEDY had apparently sat while shooting at KENNEDY. He stated that he had found what appeared to be brown wrapping paper and tape in which a rifle had been wrapped for concealment and was present when a rifle was found on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository Building. Dallas, Texas

STUDEBAKER advised copies of the photographs and drawings would be made available to the FBI if desired.

Lt. CARL DAY, Dallas Police Department, stated he found the brown paper bag shaped like a gun case near the scene of the shooting on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository Building. He stated the manager, Mr. TRULY, saw this bag at the time it was taken into possession by Lt. DAY. TRULY, according to DAY, had not seen this bag before. No one else viewed it. TRULY furnished similar brown paper from the roll that was used in packing books by the Texas School Book Depository. This paper was examined by the FBI Laboratory and found to have the same observable characteristics as the brown paper bag shaped like a gun case which was found near the scene of the shooting on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository Building. The Dallas police have not exhibited this to anyone else. It was immediately locked up by DAY, kept in his possession until it was turned over to FBI Agent DRAIN for transmittal to the Laboratory. It was examined by the Laboratory, returned to the Dallas Police Department November 24, 1963, locked up in the Crime Laboratory. This bag was returned to Agent DRAIN on November 26, 1963, and taken back to the FBI Laboratory.

Lt. DAY stated no one has identified this bag to the Dallas Police Department.

On Monday, October 7, 1963, she took LEE HARVEY OSWALD from her house to the bus station at Irving, Texas, from which he was to catch a bus to Dallas, where he would look for work. Before leaving her home, she gave OSWALD an Enco map of the City of Dallas, which she had obtained sometime earlier in the Dallas area. She was unable to recall from what station or when she had obtained same. She stated this was not a new map and it had been around the house for possibly several months. She did not mark anything on this map for OSWALD and she does not recall any markings on the map, although it is quite possible she had made some markings on the map when using it on occasions prior to October 7, 1963. She further stated that if she had marked the map, she would probably indicate her destination on the map with a simple dot made with a pencil or pen. She stated she usually uses a ball-point pen.

Mrs. PAINE stated that she gave OSWALD this map so he could find his way around Dallas while looking for work.

RESULTS OF AUTOPSY ON JOHN F. KENNEDY

On November 23, 1963, an autopsy was performed on the body of former President JOHN F. KENNEDY at the National Naval Medical Center, Bethesda, Maryland. A total body X-ray and autopsy revealed one bullet hole located just below shoulders to right of spinal column and hand-probing indicated trajectory at angle of 45 to 60 degrees downward and hole of short depth with no point of exit. No bullet located in body.

A second bullet entered back of head and thereafter emerged through top of skull. Two metal fragments removed from brain area, the first 7 x 2 millimeters and the other 3 by 1 millimeters in size.

The above two metal fragments were turned over to Agents of the FBI for delivery to the FBI Laboratory.

A piece of skull measuring 10 by 6.5 centimeters had been flown in to Bethesda from Dallas hospital and this disclosed minute metal fragments where bullet emerged from skull.

With respect to the bullet hole located in the back, pathologist at National Naval Medical Center was of the opinion this bullet worked its way out of the victim's back during cardiac massage performed at Dallas hospital prior to transportation of the body to Washington.

With respect to this situation, it is noted that Secret Service Agent RICHARD JOHNSON turned over to the FBI Laboratory one 6.5 millimeter rifle bullet (approximately .25 caliber), copper alloy, full jacket, which he advised was found on a stretcher in the emergency room of the Dallas hospital to which the victim was taken. JOHNSON was unable to advise whether stretcher on which this bullet was found had been used for the President.

The above information was received by communication from the Baltimore Office, dated November 23, 1963.

Dr. HARPER stated that his nephew indicated he had found the piece of bone at approximately 5:30 P.M., November 23, 1963, in the area approximately 25 feet south of the spot where President KENNEDY had been assassinated. Dr, HARPER stated that his nephew immediately brought the bone to him; and he and the chief pathologist at Methodist Hospital, Dr. C. E. KERNS, D. His Tex., had examined the piece of bone, and both definitely felt that it was a piece of human skull.

Dr. HARPER advised that he felt that in view of the proximity of the place where the piece of bone was located, it might possibly be a part of President KENNEDY'S skull.

WILLIAM O. (BILL) STINSON, Administrative Assistant to the Governor of Texas, Second Floor, Parkland Hospital in Dallas, stated that during surgery performed on the Governor on November 22, 1963, in connection with the shooting of the Governor on November 22, 1963, in Dallas, that a fragment of the spent bullet which penetrated the Governor's left shoulder from the rear had been removed by DR. TOM SHIRES and/or DR. ROBERT R. SHAW who performed the surgery. He stated the fragment of lead was retained and placed in a receptacle on his instructions and turned over to his office and ultimately to Texas Highway Patrolman NOLAN for delivery to the FBI.

STINSON stated the Governor was shot below the right shoulder blade with the bullet coming out at the fifth rib. He stated the lower portion of the right side was shattered and that as the bullet penetrated this area it proceeded through the right arm, breaking the radius and a piece of the spent bullet came to rest in the Governor's left thigh.

STINSON stated that although the Governor had been in very critical condition, at that moment was much improved and that it was anticipated he would recover satisfactorily.

Mrs. John B.

STINSON stated MRS. CONNALLY was, of course, an eyewitness to the shooting of the Governor insofar as occupancy of the President and Governor's car was concerned and that MRS. CONNALLY would be available for interview by the FBI on November 23, 1963, if requested.

In interviews with Doctor CHARLES FRANCIS GREGORY and Surgery Supervisor AUDREY BELL, a determination was made that the metal fragment in question was actually removed from the Governor's right arm and that no surgery was performed in connection with the wound in his left thigh.

Doctor CHARLES FRANCIS GREGORY, Parkland Hospital, stated he and Doctor TOM SHIRES and other staff physicians performed surgery on Governor JOHN CONNALLY on November 22, 1963. He stated surgery performed by him was done on the Governor's right arm, and that he removed from the arm a small fragment of metal. He stated the metal fragment was placed into a transparent container for preservation, and that during the operation, he recalled no other pieces or bits of metal being removed from the Governor's body.

Doctor GREGORY was asked whether or not he removed or saw another doctor remove a small fragment of metal from the left thigh of Governor CONNALLY, and he stated that although X-rays indicated the possibility of a small fragment of metal imbedded in the left thigh that no surgery was performed to remove same.

Doctor GREGORY stated Surgery Supervisor AUDREY BELL took custody of the fragment of metal removed from the Governor's arm, and that the ultimate disposition of the metal which was considered to be of possible evidentiary value, could best be exnlained by Miss BELL. He stated he did not on his own knowledge know, however, but he had been advised Miss BELL obtained a receipt from State Trooper BOB NOLAN and transferred the metal fragment to him in accordance with instructions from the Governor's office at Parkland Hospital.

Dr. JACK REYNOLDS furnished the following letter which accompanied this x-ray negative which is set out as follows:

"SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT DESCRIBING IN DETAIL THE APPEARANCE AND LOCATION OF A SMALL METALLIC DENSITY SUPERIMPOSED ON THE SOFT TISSUE SHADOWS OF THE MEDIAL ASPECT OF THE LEFT THIGH OF GOVERNOR JOHN B. CONNALLY ON FILMS DATED November 22, 1963.

"AP and lateral films of the distal portion of the left thigh were obtained and include the distal portion of the shaft and the region of the knee. One film is in the AP projection and the other the lateral projection with the direction of the beam from medial to lateral and the film lying adjacent to the lateral aspect of the thigh.

"No fractures are seen. A few punctate and linear densities are seen on the film but these are inconstant, and appear on one and not the other and therefore are interpreted as artifacts.

"There is, however, one density which remains constant on both films and appears to lie beneath the skin in the region of the subcutaneous fat in the medial aspect of the thigh. By measurements on these films, without correction for target film distance and object film distance, this small density lies 15.2 cms. above the distal end of the medial femoral condyle on the AP film and, on this film, lies 8 mms beneath the external surface of the skin. It is 6.25 cms medial tothe femoral shaft. On the lateral film, the center of this small metallic density lies 15 cms above the distal end of the medial femoral condyle. It lies 4.9 cms posterior to the skin of the anterior surface of the thigh and it is superimposed on the shaft of the femue. In relation to the femur, the density is superimposed on a point 1.5 cms posterior to the exterior of the anterior cortex.

"The shape of this density is irregular but is roughly oval. Precise measurements are difficult but it is estimated that the greatest length in the AP projection is about 3.5 mms and the greatest width about 1.3 mms.

"Measurements of the density in the lateral projection reveal the greatest length to be about 2 mms. and the greatest width to be about 1.5 mms. The long axis of the metallic object is oriented generally along the axis of the femur."

"Q14 Three metal fragments recovered from rear floor board carpet
"Q15 Scraping from inside surface of windshield

"Also submitted: Photograph of rifle, K1
Finger and palm prints of Lee Harvey Oswald

"Results of examinations:

"The bullet, Q1, is a 6.5 millimeter Mannlicher-Carcano rifle bullet. Specimen Q1 weighs 158.6 grains. It consists of a copper alloy jacket with a lead core.

"Specimen Q2 is a portion of the core of a rifle bullet. Specimen Q2 weighs 44.6 grains and is composed of a portion of the copper alloy jacket and a portion of the lead core. Speciman Q3 is a portion of the base section of a copper alloy rifle bullet. Q3 weighs 21.0 grains and is composed of a section of the jacket from which the lead core is missing. It could not be determined whether specimens Q2 and Q3 are portions of the same bullet or are portions of two separate bullets.

"The rifle, K1, is a 6.5 millimeter Mannlicher-Carcano Italian military rifle Model 91/38. Test bullets were fired from this rifle for comparison with specimens Q1, Q2, and Q3. As a result, Q1, Q2, and Q3 were identified as having been fired from the submitted rifle.

"Specimens Q6 and Q7 are 6.5 millimeter Mannlicher-Carcano cartridge cases. They were manufactured by the Western Cartridge Company, East Alton, Illinois, as was the 6.5 millimeter Mannlicher-Carcano cartridge, Q8.

"Test cartridge cases obtained from the submitted rifle were compared with specimens Q6 and Q7. As a result, specimens Q6 and Q7 were identified as having been fired in this rifle. The bullet, Q13, from Officer Tippett, is a .38 Special copper-coated lead bullet. Q13 weighs 156.6 grains and possesses the physical characteristics of 158 grain Western-Winchester revolver bullets. The surface of Q13 is so badly mutilated that there are not sufficient individual microscopic characteristics present for identification purposes. It "was determined, however, that the .38 Special Smith and Wesson revolver, K3, is among those weapons which produce general rifling impressions of the type found on Q13.

"The lead metal of Q4 and Q5, Q9, Q14 and Q15 is similar to the lead of the core of the bullet fragment, Q2.

"A small tuft of textile fibers was found adhering to a jagged area on the left side of the metal butt plate on the K1 gun. Included in this tuft of fibers were gray-black, dark blue and orange-yellow cotton fibers which match in microscopic characteristics the gray-black, dark blue and orange-yellow cotton fibers composing the Q11 shirt of the suspect. These fibers could have originated from this shirt.

"A single brown viscose fiber and several light green cotton fibers were found adhering to the Q10 paper bag. These fibers match in microscopic characteristics the brown viscose fibers and light green cotton fibers present in the composition of the Q12 blanket and could have originated from this blanket.

"It is pointed out, however, that fibers do not exhibit sufficient individual microscopic characteristics to be positively identified as originating from a particular source to the exclusion of all others.

"No fibers were found on the K1 gun that could be associated with the Q12 blanket and no fibers were found on the Q10 paper bag that could be associated with the Q11 shirt.

"The debris, including foreign textile fibers and hairs, removed from the Q12 blanket and Q11 shirt has been placed in pillboxes for possible future comparisons. These pillboxes and the glass microscope slides containing fibers removed from K1 and Q10 are being temporarily retained in the laboratory for possible future comparisons with additional items of the suspect's clothing should they be recovered

"The Q12 blanket has been folded double and one corner has been folded in and pinned with a safety pin. A length of white cotton cord has been tied around this corner giving it a triangular-shaped appearance as if it had once contained a long object.

"The paper of the wrapping and the tape, Q10, were found to have the same observable characteristics as the known wrapping paper and tape, K2, from the Texas Public School Book Depository.

"The inside surface of specimen Q10 did not disclose markings identifiable with the rifle, K1. A number of indentations, folds and extraneous markings appear on the inner surface of the Q10 wrapping.

"The latent prints appearing in the photograph taken of the rifle, K1, by the Dallas Police Department, are too fragmentary and indistinct to be of any value for identification purposes. Photographs of this weapon taken by this Bureau also failed to produce prints of sufficient legibility for comparison purposes.

"A latent fingerprint was developed on the wrapping paper, Q10, which was identified with the left index finger impression of Lee Harvey Oswald. In addition, one latent palm print developed on specimen Q10 was identified with the right palm print of Oswald.

"No latent prints of value were developed on Oswald's revolver, the cartridge cases, the unfired cartridge, the clip in the rifle or the inner parts of the rifle.

"Specimens Q1 through Q5, Q14 and Q15 are being retained in the Laboratory until called for by a representative of the U. S. Secret Service.

"Specimens Q6 through Q13, K1, K2 and K3 are being returned to the Dallas Police Department by Special Agent Vincent E. Drain of the Dallas Field Office of this Bureau. The photograph of the latent print on the rifle is being returned separately. The fingerprints and palm prints of Oswald are being retained."

On November 22, 1963, SA J. DOYLE WILLIAMS photographed a 6.5 caliber 1940 model rifle made in Italy, Serial Number C2766, bearing a 4 x 18. coated scope. The scope was manufactured by Ordinance Optics, Incorporated, Hollywood, California.

The rifle was in possession of the Dallas Police Department Crime Laboratory.

A Speedgraphic camera, 4 x 5, was used with camera settings at F32 at 100th of a second. Each photograph was identified with a description of the weapon together with the initials JDW, Federal Bureau of Investigation Dallas.

Two photographs were also made on November 22, 1963, of two 6.5 ammunition hulls obtained from the Dallas Police Department Crime Laboratory. Also photographed along with the two above items was one "live" round of 6.5 ammunition obtained from Captain WILL FRITZ of the Dallas Police Department.

Each photograph of the above items was identified in the photograph with the initials JDW and the date November 22, 1963, Federal Bureau of Investigation.

A speedgraphic 4 x 5, camera was used with a lense setting of F32 at 100th of a second.

DL 89-43

On November 29, 1963, the FBI Laboratory telephonically advised that an examination had been made of the revolver taken from OSWALD at the time of his arrest. This gun was a Smith & Wesson .38/200 British Service Revolver, bearing serial number V510210 and the assembly number was 65248.

The gun was originally chambered for a .38 Smith & Wesson cartridge. In addition, the gun has been sent back to England by Smith & Wesson. This conclusion is on the basis of the Birmingham-England proof mark on the gun.

The FBI Laboratory advised that the following alterations have been made on the gun:

1. The barrel has been cut off up to the first "S" in Wesson. This makes the barrel a total of 2½" at the present time.

2. The gun has been re-chambered to a .38 Special.

3. The converter has stamped on left side of the frame Caliber .38 Special.

4. The swivel hole in the butt of the gun has been filled.

5. A different set of grips other than the original grips are on the gun at the present time. These grips are the same type as the original, however the present grips have No. 74149.

6. It is probable the gun has been re-blued but it is not possible to determine.

7. The gun has been checked completely and all numbers check as the original numbers on the gun with the exception of the numbers on the grips.

8. There is nothing unusual about this type of gun as it was produced by Smith & Wesson during World War II for the English. After World War II this gun was declared surplus and numerous guns of this type have been coming back into the United States. This gun is the old style without the bar safety.

By communication dated November 25, 1963, the FBI Laboratory advised as follows:

The enlarged copy of a photograph of suspect LEE HARVEY OSWALD holding a rifle and wearing a pistol strapped to his hip previously furnished the FBI Laboratory was compared with photographs of the murder weapon, but due to lack of detail in the enlarged picture of OSWALD, no definite conclusion as to whether the weapon he is holding in the picture is identical with the murder weapon was made. It should be noted it is the same type weapon; no differences were noted and it is possible the rifle being held by OSWALD in the submitted photograph may well be the murder weapon.

On November 28, 1963, PAUL P. REICHERTZ, 3644 Warick, Dallas, Texas, Manager, Socony Research Laboratory, 3600 Duncanville Road, Duncanville, Texas, advised SA'S ROBERT J. ANDERSON and ROBERT E. BASHAM on this date he has been informed by a co-worker, E. S. WILHELM, that WILHELM had been informed by a Miss FLORENCE E. MC DONALD that she, MC DONALD, and several other employees of the Socony Laboratory had attended a party in early February of 1963, at the home of EVERETT GLOVER. In attendance at this party were Mr. and Mrs. LEE HARVEY OSWALD. REICHERTZ stated he has never met either of the OSWALDs and knows nothing of this matter.

FLORENCE E. MC DONALD, 511 East 6th Street, Irving, Texas, employed by the Socony Research Laboratory, Duncanville, Texas, advised that in early February of 1963, she attended a party at the residence of EVERETT GLOVER, a fellow employee of the Socony Research Laboratory, 3600 Duncanville Road.

In attendance at this party were Mr. and Mrs. LEE HARVEY OSWALD, Mr. EVERETT GLOVER, Mrs. RUTH PAINE, Irving, Texas, RICHARD L. PIERCE, another employee of the Socony Laboratory, Mr. and Mrs. NORMAN FREDERICKSON, Irving, Texas, now a student at the University of Wisconsin, and Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT, who are now residing in Haiti. FLORENCE MC DONALD advised that this was her first and only meeting with either of the OSWALDs. She advised it was her understanding that the OSWALDs had been brought to the party by the DE MOHRENSCHILDTs, and the DE MOHRENSCHILDTs throughout the evening appeared to take a special interest in the OSWALDs. She stated that the main topic of conversation was OSWALD's travels and experiences in the Soviet Union. United States politics, Cuban affairs and the policies of the KENNEDY administration were not discussed at this party. During the course of the evening, OSWALD informed all in attendance that he was a Communist and had attempted to join the Communist Party while he was in Russia. OSWALD appeared to be fairly intelligent and articulate. Mrs. OSWALD spoke very little English and participated only to a limited degree in the conversation. Miss MC DONALD recalled that OSWALD stated he was employed by a large downtown printing firm and was at that time experiencing difficulty in supporting his family on his income. OSWALD made no statement which would indicate any future violent activity against any one person or group of persons.

Miss MC DONALD stated that GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT, wife, JEAN, is a geological consultant who moved to Haiti in the Spring of 1963. She recalled that JEAN DE MOHRENSCHILDT reportedly was employed by SANGER HARRIS in Dallas, Texas. Both have children by previous marriages. Miss MC DONALD stated that both DE MOHRENSCHILDTs appear to be eccentric individuals. She recalled the DE MOHRENSCHILDTs described a trip they took through Mexico to the Panama Canal on foot, which supposedly spanned one years time. She described GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT as a white male, 45 years old, 5 feet 8 inches, 160 pounds, sandy hair, unkempt and a ruddy complexion. He appears to be well educated and stated he grew up in either France or Russia and speaks fluent Russian. Mrs. DE MOHRENSCHILDT was described as a white female, 5 feet 6 inches, 140 pounds, blond hair--possibly bleached, 45 years old and also fluent in Russian and possibly Chinese. Mrs.

RICHARD L. PIERCE, Research Department, Socony Research Laboratory, 3600 Duncanville Road, Duncanville, Texas, advised he formerly resided with EVERETT GLOVER and VOLKMAR SCHMIDT at 4449 Potomac Avenue, Dallas, Texas.

PIERCE advised that in February, 1963, GLOVER held a dinner party at the above residence. In attendance at this party were Mr. and Mrs. LEE HARVEY OSWALD, Mrs. RUTH PAINE, Irving, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. NORMAN FREDERICKSON, Irving, now a student at the University of Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT, who are now residing in Haiti, and PIERCE, himself. PIERCE stated he had never met either of the OSWALDs prior to this party and has seen neither since that time. He recalled that OSWALD said he worked for Jaeger Press located in downtown Dallas, Texas. During the course of the conversation, OSWALD described his travels in Russia and mentioned to PIERCE that while in Russia he worked in a factory in Minsk, Russia. PIERCE recalled that OSWALD did not hesitate in stating he was a Communist and sympathetic to the views of Communism. At no time during the evening were United States politics discussed, and at no time was any comment made concerning any of the KENNEDYs or their policies.

PIERCE stated it is his understanding that GEORGE and JEAN DE MOHRENSCHILDT both were Russians and both claimed to speak Russian fluently. In addition, JEAN DE MOHRENSCHILDT claimed to speak Chinese.

VOLKMAR (NMI) SCHMIDT, 4724 Alcott, Apartment 206, Dallas, Texas, employed as a geologist by the Socony Research Laboratory, 3600 Duncanville Road, Duncanville, Texas, advised he was a roommate of EVERETT GLOVER and RICHARD PIERCE at 4449 Potomac Avenue, Dallas, Texas in February of 1963. SCHMIDT stated that on the day this party took place he had out-of-town visitors and therefore was not in attendance at the party.

SCHMIDT stated that one week previous to the above party, probably in early February of 1963, he met Mr. and Mrs. LEE OSWALD at a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. DE MOHRENSCHILDT at their residence near Southern Methodist University, specific address not known. SCHMIDT advised he speaks Russian fluently and during the course of the evening spoke to MARINA and LEE OSWALD in their native tongue. He advised that for several hours he discussed politics with OSWALD, and OSWALD appeared to be very frank with him from all aspects. OSWALD told SCHMIDT that he, OSWALD, was reared by a poor family and as such saw many of the shortcomings of the United States society. As a result of his early experiences, OSWALD said he became interested in Communism and became desirous of living in the Soviet Union. OSWALD described many of his experiences in Russia but appeared to be disillusioned with the Soviet System. This prompted his return to the United States. SCHMIDT stated that throughout the evening OSWALD was objective and was very articulate in his descriptions of the United States and Russian societies. OSWALD did not speak of President KENNEDY or his policies. On one occasion, SCHMIDT praised President KENNEDY by stating that President KENNEDY would improve the welfare of the working man in the United States. OSWALD made no objection to this statement.

SCHMIDT stated that OSWALD, from outward appearances and from his conversation, appeared to have a burning dedication to political truth. SCHMIDT surmised that OSWALD had great ambitions but realized he could not fulfill these ambitions because of limited education. Throughout the conversation, OSWALD did not express any views which would indicate future violent action but appeared to be a violent person. SCHMIDT stated he did not see OSWALD at any time after their conversation at the party.

MRS. MICHAEL R. PAINE, 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, advised that she first met LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his wife MARINA OSWALD during mid winter of 1963, possibly February 22, 1963. They met at a social gathering at which time MRS. PAINE who speaks Russian became acquainted with MRS. MARINA OSWALD who speaks only Russian and has no knowledge of the English language. MRS. PAINE stated that in approximately April, 1963, LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his wife MARINA visited them at their home where they had dinner together. MRS. PAINE stated that during this period, OSWALD was employed at Jaggars-Chiles and Stovall, a blueprinting company, located at 522 Browder Street, Dallas, Texas. OSWALD lost his job in either late April or early May and went to New Orleans, Louisiana, to find a job in early May of 1963. MRS. PAINE stated that on May 10, 1963, she drove MARINA OSWALD and her child to New Orleans, Louisiana, to join LEE OSWALD. MRS. PAINE further stated that following LEE HARVEY OSWALD's arrest for distributing pro-Castro literature in New Orleans, Louisiana, he lost his job and MRS. MARINA OSWALD was in the late stages of pregnancy with their second child. MRS. PAINE stated that she is very fond of MRS. MARINA OSWALD and felt sorry for her so she drove to New Orleans, Louisiana, and on September 23, 1963, took MRS. MARINA OSWALD back to Irving, Texas, with her. They arrived in Irving, Texas, on September 24, 1963. When they left Louisiana LEE HARVEY OSWALD was still in that city; however, MRS. PAINE stated that she later determined from a rough draft of a letter that LEE HARVEY OSWALD left lying around the house that he had apparently gone to Mexico City where he contacted the Soviet Embassy and apparently the Cuban Embassy. MRS. PAINE stated that on October 4, 1963, LEE HARVEY OSWALD contacted his wife MARINA OSWALD at her residence and advised her that he was now in Dallas. He indicated that he had arrived in Dallas on October 3, 1963, and had an apartment somewhere in Dallas, which address he did not give. MRS. PAINE did learn that OSWALD moved to another apartment a few days later which was the apartment that he was apparently residing in at the time of his arrest on November 22.

MRS. PAINE stated that on Monday, November 18, 1963, MRS. MARINA OSWALD telephonically contacted LEE OSWALD at a telephone number which MRS. PAINE stated she cannot recall and she had MRS. PAINE ask for OSWALD by his true name. OSWALD apparently became quite incensed with his wife for giving out his true name since he was apparently living at this apartment under another name.

MRS. PAINE stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD received mail which included newspapers and periodicals from the Soviet Union at her address. This mail first began arriving on October 5, 1963. MRS. PAINE denied that OSWALD had received any mail at her address prior to October 5, 1963. MRS. PAINE further stated that on October 15, 1963, OSWALD obtained a job as a laborer at the Texas Schoolbook Depository, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas. According to MRS. PAINE, after LEE HARVEY OSWALD returned to Dallas on October 3 or 4, 1963, he usually visited with his wife on weekends at PAINE's residence in Irving, Texas. MRS. PAINE stated, however, on Thursday, November 21, 1963, LEE HARVEY OSWALD came and spent the night at her residence in Irving, Texas. MRS. PAINE stated that evening OSWALD went out to the garage where he had many of his personal effects stored and spent considerable time, apparently rearranging and handling his personal effects.

MRS. PAINE stated she later determined that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had a rifle wrapped up inside a blanket among some personal effects in her garage. MRS. PAINE stated she did not realize this until MRS. OSWALD admitted it to Dallas police detectives on November 22, 1963, at which time she turned over to the Dallas police officers the blanket which the rifle had been wrapped in. MRS. PAINE stated that she did not think LEE HARVEY OSWALD was a very logical individual, but at no time did he ever give any indication to her that he would do a violent thing such as killing an individual.

MRS. PAINE stated that OSWALD claimed to be a Marxist but she just considered him to be a little bit odd and nothing further and that her main friendship with the OSWALDS was with MRS. MARINA OSWALD.

Mrs. RUTH PAINE, 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, furnished the following information:

She has known LEE and MARINA OSWALD since meeting them at a party in February 1963 at the home of EVERETT GLOVER, 4449 Potomac, Dallas, Texas. GLOVER has now moved to 5723 West Southwestern Boulevard in Dallas, telephone FL 2-5296, and she believes he is living in the home formerly occupied by GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT. She stated that GLOVER had met the OSWALDS through the DE MOHRENSCHILDTS who are now in Haiti where GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT is employed as a free lance geologist.

Mrs. PAINE stated that the OSWALDS were not separated in the marital sense but their physical separation was occasioned by financial difficulties since OSWALD was not making enough money to support both himself and his wife and since Mrs. PAINE did not invite him to live at her home with his wife.

Mrs. PAINE stated that LEE OSWALD first appeared in Dallas about October 3, 4, 1963 and stated that he had been in Houston looking for work after leaving New Orleans and had been in town a few days before he contacted Mrs. PAINE and MARINA. He did not say anything about being in Mexico if he had been in Mexico prior to that time.

Mrs. RUTH PAINE, 2515 W. 5th, Irving, Texas, furnished the following information:

She arrived in New Orleans, Louisiana, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LEE OSWALD on Magazine Street in the late afternoon of September 20, 1963. She stated that she fixes this date in her mind by referring to a cancelled check in her possession payable to the 16th Street Baptist Church, Birmingham, Alabama, in the amount of $25, signed by Mrs. PAINE which she knows she wrote on the day before she arrived in New Orleans. She stated she was at Birmingham on that date and that the date of the check is September 19, 1963.

She stated that on the night of September 19, 1963, she stayed under the name RUTH PAINE at the Holiday Inn on the Bypass in Meridian, Mississippi, and the following day went to New Orleans arriving before dark and staying at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. LEE OSWALD.

She recalls LEE OSWALD was either there when she arrived or came in a very short time later. She remained at the OSWALD home until the morning of September 23, 1963, when she and MARINA and the OSWALD baby departed New Orleans leaving LEE OSWALD there. She recalls going to a service station about a block and a half from OSWALD's residence and located on the same side of the street, where she purchased a new tire for her car, a 1955 green Chevrolet station wagon with 1963 Texas license NK 4041.

She stated that on leaving New Orleans they drove to a small town in Texas where she and MARINA spent the night on September 23, 1963, and on September 24, 1963, she arrived with MARINA at Irving, Texas. She fixes this date because she had made a notation on her household calendar.

Mrs. PAINE stated that while in New Orleans on one occasion, possibly Saturday night or Sunday night, she and MARINA toured Bourbon Street with their children looking at the burlesque shows from the sidewalk although they did not go into any of the "joints." Mrs. PAINE recalled that on this occasion LEE OSWALD did not join them expressing no interest in the matter. When they returned to the house they found that LEE had washed the dishes and straightened up the apartment.

Mrs. PAINE recalls talking to an older man who was cutting the grass in front of the house in which the OSWALDs were residing and this man asked her where she was from. She told him Texas and answered several other questions. Thereupon, LEE OSWALD speaking in Russian to Mrs. PAINE told her to quit furnishing so much information.

Mrs. PAINE supposes that the reason for this was that LEE did not want the landlord to know he was moving.

During the time that Mrs. PAINE was in New Orleans from the late afternoon of September 20, 1963, to the morning of September 23, 1963, LEE OSWALD was not away from his residence for any appreciable period. He was not working and while he did not appear to have a lot of money she recalls him spending $3.00 or $4.00 for groceries. There was nothing said to indicate that LEE OSWALD had been out of New Orleans and it was her impression that he and MARINA had not been out of New Orleans since May 14, 1963, when she left them in New Orleans.

MICHAEL PAINE, 2377 Dalworth, Grand Prairie, Texas, was interviewed at the Dallas Police Department, concerning his association with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and advised as follows:

Approximately Spring of 1963, he and his wife, RUTH HYDE PAINE, from whom he is presently separated, but with whom he visits frequently, had met LEE OSWALD and his wife, MARINA, at a party through a mutual friend, one EVERETT GLOVER, who resides in Dallas, Texas. At that time, his wife RUTH had indicated she wanted to meet a real Russian and subsequently he and his wife had OSWALD and his wife over to their house for supper on a few occasions. PAINE advised he is a research engineer at Bell Helicopter, Hurst, Texas, and has attended Harvard University and Swarthmore College, and on one occasion had taken OSWALD to a party and to a meeting of the American Civil Liberties Union, of which PAINE is a member. He alleged that in discussions with OSWALD, OSWALD had indicated to him to have read extensively of Communism and various subjects and appeared to him to have Communistic ideas. He described OSWALD as a mixed-up type person who always took the opposite side of free enterprise in any political discussion. At one party OSWALD attended with him, he got into a discussion with another individual who PAINE described as a colleague of his, at his place of employment, whom he did not identify and after the discussion stated he, OSWALD, thought this colleague was a Communist. He stated he had taken OSWALD with him to a meeting of the American Civil Liberties Union to, as he stated, show him the correct side of Democracy, however, OSWALD apparently was not impressed with the organization and showed little interest.

In approximately July, 1963, OSWALD and his wife were driven to New Orleans, Louisiana, by his wife, RUTH PAINE, where OSWALD found work as PAINE recalled, working as an engraver in New Orleans. He stated due to numerous quarrels that OSWALD and his wife had, returned to Dallas approximately 6 weeks ago and at that time OSWALD's wife, MARINA, moved into the residence of his wife, RUTH HYDE

PAINE, in Irving, Texas. PAINE stated during this time he usually would visit his wife at her residence in Irving on the weekends and saw OSWALD there and stated OSWALD was very disrespectful to his wife at times, acted extremely angry at her and insulted her frequently.

At the time OSWALD and his wife moved to his wife's residence in Irving, OSWALD had numerous belongings which he placed in the garage located at the rear of his wife's residence in Irving. Among these items PAINE stated were, as he recalled, two duffle bags and a blanket which he subsequently identified in the possession of officers at the Dallas Police Department and which blanket PAINE had occasion to lift off other articles in the garage and contained what he thought were camping supplies. He stated during the time of the residence of MRS. OSWALD with his wife, RUTH, LEE OSWALD was residing somewhere in Dallas and he would visit the residence in Irving usually on the weekends. He stated the last time he saw OSWALD at the residence of his wife, in Irving, was approximately two weeks previous and PAINE stated he had never seen a rifle or other weapon in the possession of OSWALD. PAINE did advise, however, in previous discussions with OSWALD, OSWALD had told PAINE that he had been a member of a gun club or rifle club in Russia when he resided there, however, PAINE could not recall the name of the club of which OSWALD was a member. He did recall, however, that OSWALD's wife was from Leningrad and their first baby had been born in Kiev.

He described their children as JUNE OSWALD, age 2, and RACHEL ~~X~~ OSWALD, age 4 weeks.

MICHAEL PAINE, 2377 Dalworth Street, Apt. 217, Grand Prairie, Texas, telephone AN 2-7976 was interviewed at the home of his estranged wife, Mrs. RUTH PAINE, 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas. He furnished the following information:

He is currently employed as a research engineer at Bell Helicopter, Hurst, Texas, but works in Arlington, Texas, where a portion of the company is located and can be reached at telephone CR 5-5211.

In September 1963 he was at the residence of his wife, RUTH PAINE, 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, after MARINA OSWALD had moved to Irving from New Orleans, Louisiana, with her luggage and some household equipment.

He stated he went to the garage which is attached to the residence and desiring to use his drill press moved an object which was wrapped in a cotton blanket, green and red in color. He stated it was a cheap blanket such as one might use for camping and at the time he thought it contained metal tent poles. He stated that the object was about 40 inches long or slightly longer and that in the light of recent events he is now certain it was a rifle. He stated that he moved this object two or three times in various spots about the garage so he could use his band-saw and other equipment. He stated he did not look into this package and cannot definitely state what was in it. He stated that at first he felt if this object was a gun it did not have a scope on it, but that after seeing pictures of the gun and noting the small size of the scope, on the weapon used to assassinate President KENNEDY, he is of the opinion that this object he lifted could have been a rifle with a scope mounted on it. He estimated the weight of the object as about 7 pounds.

PAINE stated that on one occasion he took LEE OSWALD to a meeting of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) held at Southern Methodist University in Dallas. This was in October 1963 a short time after ADLAI STEVENSON had visited Dallas. During this meeting some mention was made of the John Birch Society, and comments were made about alleged anti-Semitism in the John Birch Societies. Someone else made a comment that even though some members of the John Birch Society might be anti-Semitic, such policies should not be attributed to the society as a whole without proof. Thereupon OSWALD spoke out and gave what appeared to be logical and appropriate instances of anti-Semitism by the John Birch Societies.

After the meeting FRANK KRYSTINIK, also employed at Bell Helicopter, Arlington, Texas, residing 2121 Greenway, Arlington, telephone CR 5-1517, got into a discussion on free enterprise with LEE OSWALD. PAINE paid very little attention to this argument.

Texas

On the way home from this meeting LEE OSWALD asked MICHAEL PAINE about the identity of an elderly man who was more or less involved in OSWALD's discussion with KRYSTINIK. PAINE told OSWALD that he did not know the identity of this person. Thereupon OSWALD stated that he thought this man must be a communist. PAINE asked him why he thought this and OSWALD stated it was because the man was interested in the "Fair play for Cuba" organization which OSWALD had mentioned.

PAINE stated that on the night before ADLAI STEVENSON appeared at Dallas, Texas, in October 1963, LEE OSWALD attended a right wing rally held at the Civic Auditorium in Dallas and that he presumed since the John Birch Society was one of the sponsors of this meeting that OSWALD had gotten his information about the John Birch Society during this meeting.

He stated that he does not believe that OSWALD attended the rally the following night at which ADLAI STEVENSON appeared, this being the same night when an incident involving STEVENSON being spit upon and hit with placard occurred. He stated that OSWALD never made any comment about being at such meeting and, therefore, he believes he was not at such a meeting.

PAINE stated that OSWALD, following the ACLU meeting, told him that he could not join an organization such as the ACLU since it had no political function.

MICHAEL PAINE stated that about April 24, 1963 LEE OSWALD went to New Orleans, Louisiana, and that he believes his motive in going there was to get a job, and OSWALD told him this was the reason he was going there. He stated that he knew OSWALD had lost a job while he was living at 214 Neeley Street, Dallas, Texas, about June of 1963. At that time he was working in a photographic engraving plant where they were doing advertisements for fashion ads. PAINE stated he did not know the reason for OSWALD losing this job although MARINA had told Mrs. PAINE he was laid off for lack of work. PAINE personally thought he was probably laid off because of his continual statements regarding the "Marxist principle, being opposed to exploitation of man by man", and since such "exploitation" is a part of every job of the capitalistic system, statements by OSWALD regarding same would tend toward his termination by employers.

PAINE stated he does not recall LEE OSWALD ever stating that he had been terminated because of his beliefs or statements but that OSWALD's mother had mentioned that she had lost many jobs because of her son's (LEE OSWALD) defection to Russia.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

Ill. Texas D.C. N.Y

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. However, during the past year this source observed there has been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that today their influence is negligible.

On May 30, 1963, a second source advised that the National Headquarters of the FPCC is located in Room 329 at 799 Broadway, New York City. According to this source, the position of National Office Director was created in the Fall of 1962 and was filled by VINCENT "Ted" LEE, who now formulates FPCC policy. This source observed LEE has followed a course of entertaining and accepting the cooperation of many other organizations including the CP and the SWP when he has felt it would be to his personal benefit as well as the FPCC's. However, LEE has indicated to this source he has no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. LEE feels the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations, but not support the Cuban revolution per se.

The CP and the SWP have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

MR. MICHAEL R. PAINE was interviewed at 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas. He advised that the first time he met LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his wife MARINA OSWALD was on April 2, 1963, when he drove to their apartment at 214 Neeley Street in Dallas, Texas, and picked them up and drove them back to his house in Irving, Texas, where he (PAINE) and his wife and the OSWALDS had dinner together. He did not see LEE HARVEY OSWALD again until October 4, 1963, when OSWALD visited his wife and children at the PAINE's residence in Irving, Texas. He saw him again on October 18, 1963, and saw him for the last time on November 8, 9 and 10, 1963.

MR. PAINE stated he did have several discussions with OSWALD during the time, but was unable to converse with MRS. OSWALD, since he did not speak Russian and she did not speak English. PAINE stated that he could not recall exactly on which date OSWALD made certain statements, but he does recall a composite of his different conversations with OSWALD. PAINE stated he asked OSWALD why he left the Soviet Union, but he could never give a satisfactory answer. He just stated he did not like his job and he did not like to be told where to live. He stated that in Russia you could not own a rifle, you could only own a shotgun, and he objected to this restriction. OSWALD stated the only way a person in Russia could shoot a rifle was to join a rifle club which were paramilitary type clubs and he did not like belonging to such a club. OSWALD stated he became a Marxist in this country and that he learned Marxism from reading books. OSWALD stated he had never met a communist before he went to Russia, but he did not mention whether he met any communists in America after returning from Russia. He stated that no one where he works wanted to discuss politics. PAINE asked OSWALD why he wanted to change the system in the United States. OSWALD stated that he did not believe in the exploitation of man by man. PAINE stated that OSWALD was always quoting from MARX and would never depart from this line. PAINE stated that he told OSWALD that he (PAINE) was against violence in any form, but OSWALD did not reply to this. PAINE also stated that he was opposed to violent revolution and again OSWALD did not answer.

~~not report to duty~~ October 15, 1963 - Trans-Texas - Cargo Handler - ~~not referred since~~ did Notice received 10:30 a.m., October 16, 1963 that OSWALD was working.

This application is a working item used by TEC and notations are made on this sheet by various persons. All writing is in pencil and although the application is not dated the first date appearing in a block for dates is October 9, 1962.

The date of the notations made on the back of the form where the interviewer's comments are recorded is not shown and all of these comments may not have been made at the same time.

A counseling record card for LEE OSWALD, 3519 Fairmont, telephone LA 1-0692 reflects interview of LEE OSWALD on October 9, 1962 by CUNNINGHAM. This same record shows reinterview dates of October 10, 11, and 15, 1962.

Mr. MILLER interpreted notations in the date column of the application card as follows:

October 30, 1962 - card inactivated

April 8, 1963 - card reactivated

April 12, 1963 - notation of contact at which time OSWALD probably appeared at the TEC office, 1025 Elm Street, Dallas

May 8, 1963 - card again placed in inactive status apparently due to OSWALD moving and leaving no address which item is recorded under the date May 8, 1963 on the reverse side of the application.

October 3, 1963 - OSWALD reinterviewed

October 17, 1963 - card again placed in inactive status apparently due to fact OSWALD was working as indicated by notation dated October 16, 1963 on back of application form.

Unemployment Claims

Mr. MILLER made available a claim record card which had been forwarded from the New Orleans office of the Louisiana Employment Commission. This reflects that an initial claim for unemployment compensation was made on April 29, 1963 by L. H. OSWALD, 757 France Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, Social Security Number 433-54-3937.

The original address is typed in but penciled notations indicate changes as follows:

French Street instead of France Street; P. O. Box 30061, no city listed; 2515 West 5th, Irving, Texas. The dates of these changes are not shown.

Mr. MILLER advised that this claim card indicates that L. H. OSWALD filed a claim for unemployment compensation at New Orleans based upon employment in Texas and that in addition to April 29, 1963, LEE OSWALD, according to the notations on the card, appeared at the New Orleans office of the Louisiana Employment Commission on the following dates:

May 7, 1963	August 20, 1963
May 15, 1963	August 27, 1963
July 22, 1963	September 3, 1963
July 30, 1963	September 10, 1963
August 6, 1963	September 17, 1963
August 13, 1963	September 24, 1963

During this period no earnings were shown for OSWALD except on July 22, 1963 he reported $58.00.

Mr. MILLER advised this card further reflects that LEE OSWALD appeared at the Dallas office of TEC on October 3, 1963 and October 10, 1963 and noted that on October 10, 1963 OSWALD signed his name on this card when he appeared. He advised that on ~~these dates~~ OSWALD appeared at the TEC office at 2210 Main Street, Dallas,

Texas, where he was interviewed by HARRY SANDERSON. He appeared at this same address October 10, 1963 where he was interviewed by MC CLUSKEY. Mr. MILLER made this identification of the persons whom OSWALD contacted through initials appearing opposite the contact date on the claim record card.

Mr. MILLER further advised that the unemployment benefits of OSWALD were terminated with the claim which he submitted on October 3, 1963 and that no further benefits were payable or were paid to him.

MILLER advised that he has no record of the exact amount of the check paid on each claim period to OSWALD, and that this record could be located only in Austin, Texas, at the state headquarters of TEC.

1 Date 11/28/63

R. L. ADAMS, Employer Interviewer, Texas Employment Commission (TEC), 6th Floor, 1025 Elm Street, residence telephone BR 6-7943, furnished the following information: Dallas Texas

From the TEC record maintained on application card of LEE OSWALD, Social Security No. 433-54-3937, he can state that OSWALD called on October 8, 1963, in response to a telephone message of October 7, 1963, and was referred to the Solid State ~~Electrical~~ Electronics Company to apply for a job as sales clerk at $350 a month. He was not hired.

On October 9, 1963, he appeared at the office of TEC and was sent to Burton Dixie Company to apply for a job as a clerk-trainee at $1.25 per hour. He was not hired.

ADAMS further stated the records reflect that he left a telephone message for OSWALD on October 15, 1963, which was returned on October 15, 1963, at which time OSWALD was referred to Trans-Texas for a job as a cargo handler at $310 per month. He did not report to this employer since according to notations made by ADAMS on the card ADAMS learned at 10:30 a.m. on October 16, 1963, that OSWALD was working.

ADAMS stated that after examining a photograph of LEE OSWALD he vaguely recalls him but cannot identify OSWALD positively as being the individual whom he referred on the dates mentioned above. He stated he is interpreting the records from cryptic-type notations appearing thereon and that while the dates are correct there may be some question as to whether the contacts were telephonic or personal.

JAMES DARL HUNTER, President, Solid State Electronics Company of Texas, 2647 Myrtle Springs, Dallas, Texas, advised on November 29, 1963, that he contacted a number of employment agencies about the first week of October, 1963, in an effort to obtain a salesman. When this was not productive he contacted the Texas Employment Commission, 1025 Elm Street, and OSWALD was one of the first applicants they sent out to see him. He recalled that OSWALD arrived at his office on October 8, 1963, and he was interviewed by Mr. W. B. MARTIN and Mr. HUNTER. He said OSWALD executed an application form but failed to sign or date it until he was requested to do so, and when it was determined he was not going to employ him this form was destroyed.

He said that LEE H. OSWALD gave a Dallas address, indicated he was married and claimed he had one child. He indicated he was a citizen of the United States, had served the U. S. Marine Corps and was discharged honorably at the end of his tour of duty. He claimed he had graduated from a high school in Fort Worth and indicated he could speak the Russian language. Mr. HUNTER recalled that OSWALD did not indicate he could read and write Russian. He said he could not recall the references by name, but one of his former employers was in New Orleans, Louisiana, and one in Fort Worth. He listed a reference whom Mr. HUNTER believed to be the woman in Irving that OSWALD's wife lived with. He said that he recalled OSWALD's wife was the person shown as the one to notify in case of emergency. He said OSWALD was not accepted for employment because he had no experience, and when he told OSWALD that OSWALD said, "I sure would like to have the job - every place I go they want experience". He said that OSWALD did not seem to express any great resentment at not being able to qualify, but he just sighed and left after being advised he was not being considered for the position.

On November 23, 1963, EVERETT D. GLOVER, 5723 Southwestern Boulevard, FLeetwood 3-5296, telephonically advised that during March or April, 1963, he was invited to a party at the home of GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT, who, at that time, resided on Dickens Street in Dallas. At this party, GLOVER was introduced to LEE OSWALD who was described to him as a person who had travelled to Russia to find out for himself what life in Russia is like. GLOVER was very much interested in learning more of OSWALD's experiences in Russia and for that reason invited OSWALD to his (GLOVER's) home. OSWALD and his Russian wife did visit in the GLOVER home on one occasion, on a social function. These are the only two occasions on which GLOVER had personal contact with OSWALD.

GLOVER mentioned having been contacted by some representative of the Saturday Evening Post in connection with his personal knowledge of OSWALD. He stated he did not want to be interviewed by any periodicals but that if the FBI had any interest in interviewing him, he is willing to be interviewed. He mentioned that he was not close personal friend of OSWALD but his knowledge of the latter is limited to the two social functions during which they had personal contact.

Mrs. PENNY PEARSON, 7317 Davenport, Ft. Worth, Texas advised she and her husband have resided at this address for three years. She said that ROBERT OSWALD and his wife VADA lived next door to them at 7313 Davenport from the time of their occupancy three years ago until the OSWALDs moved in about March, 1963. Mrs. PEARSON said she believes the OSWALDs lived at the address two years or longer prior to the PEARSONs moving in the neighborhood.

Mrs. PEARSON said further that ROBERT OSWALD's brother, LEE OSWALD, lived with the ROBERT OSWALDs for a period of about six weeks in May or June, 1962. She said she or her husband actually never met LEE OSWALD but she did meet his wife, name not recalled, who spoke very little English. Mrs. PEARSON said she recalls the LEE OSWALDs had a small girl at that time who was just a few months old.

Mrs. PEARSON said from conversation with VADA OSWALD at that time that this person told her that LEE OSWALD had formerly worked in New Orleans for an import-export company after he got out of the Marine Corps. Mrs. PEARSON said she recalls VADA OSWALD saying that LEE apparently got in with some wrong people, meaning Communists, in New Orleans and went to Russia. Mrs. PEARSON said she recalls VADA OSWALD saying that after LEE had been in Russia for maybe two years that he became disillusioned and returned to the United States. Mrs. PEARSON said she believes that he returned to the United States just prior to living with his brother for the above-mentioned period of time in May or June, 1962. Mrs. PEARSON said further that she recalls the conversation with ROBERT OSWALD at a later date at which time he said LEE had moved somewhere and was working for an unknown company in Fort Worth. Mrs. PEARSON said she then recalls hearing from conversation with either ROBERT or VADA that LEE had moved to Dallas, where he was employed by some type of company which had something to do with language, and was employed because he could speak Russian. She said she does not know what company he was supposed to have been employed by at that time.

Mrs. PEARSON said that ROBERT OSWALD's mother is a practical nurse and she does not know where the mother now resides but believes she possibly resides in Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. PEARSON said she had only seen LEE OSWALD from a distance in the yard at the time he stayed with his brother and sister-in-law in Fort Worth. Mrs. PEARSON advised she had no

Mrs. A. W. (RUBY) MAXWELL, 7313 Davenport Street, advised she and her husband purchased this home in June, 1963, through the Jim Brannan Real Estate Company of Fort Worth. Mrs. MAXWELL said the former owners of the house were ROBERT L. and VADA MARIE OSWALD. Mrs. MAXWELL said it is her understanding that these persons were supposed to have lived in this home for approximately five years prior to the purchase of the house. Mrs. MAXWELL said she did not know the OSWALDs.

On 11/21/63 WILLIAM MARTIN JUREK, 9211 Hathaway Street, Dallas, Texas, who is employed at Texas Instruments Corporation, Dallas, advised he and his wife, MARION JUREK, own apartments located at 602 and 604 Elsbeth Street in the Oak Cliff section of Dallas, Texas.

JUREK made available and turned over to SAs GASTON C. THOMPSON and JACK B. PEDEN a 5x8 card containing the application for rental of apartment 2 at 604 Elsbeth Street, Dallas, in the name of "L. H. OSWALD." JUREK pointed out that this application bore the handwritten date "Nov 3/62" which he stated represented the date the application was received and the date on which OSWALD first rented the apartment. JUREK observed that the application bore only limited information in addition to the name of the applicant, and he was unable to state whether the handwriting on the application was prepared by the applicant or by the manager of the above apartment. He volunteered, however, that he had instructed the manager of the above apartments to have such applications prepared by the applicants themselves, and for that reason he felt that the handwriting probably was prepared by the applicant. He advised that the manager of the above apartments, M. F. TOBIAS, would be able to furnish definite information as to whether or not the handwriting on the rental application was actually prepared by OSWALD.

JUREK observed that the space for "Last Address" bore the notation "Service" and it was his opinion that this notation may have been placed on the application to indicate that the applicant was in the military service prior to the time he rented the above apartment on November 3, 1962. He advised that information contained on the back of the application with reference to payments of rent indicated OSWALD and his wife and one child resided in the above apartment from November 3, 1962, to about March 1, 1963. He advised the rental payments were $68.00 per month and that record of payments on the application reflected OSWALD paid the entire $68.00 on about the third of each month except on one occasion, that being on or about February 3, 1963, when he paid only $60.00.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

He added, however, that his records reflected a receipt showing OSWALD paid the remaining $8.00 on February 8, 1963.

JUREK further advised that his records revealed payments of rent by OSWALD were made in cash, and he had no information which might indicate OSWALD, or his wife, ever had a bank account.

JUREK noted that the rental application bore a notation which reflected OSWALD made a $5.00 cash "key" deposit at the time he moved into the apartment on November 3, 1963. He stated it is customary to refund this deposit if the key to the apartment is returned at the time an occupant vacates an apartment unit, provided there has been no damage to the unit for which the occupant was negligent and responsible. JUREK checked his records to determine if he had made a refund of this $5.00 by check to OSWALD, and he could find no record of having made such refund. He made a search for such refund check, as he stated an endorsement on such check was the only other possibility of any handwriting prepared by OSWALD which might have been in his possession.

JUREK advised the manager of the above apartment, Mr. M. E. TOBIAS, or his wife, MANNIE TOBIAS, called him during the month preceding the date the OSWALDS vacated the apartment and advised him that one or more of the neighbors had complained about the OSWALDS "creating a disturbance," with OSWALD reportedly having "beaten" his wife. He stated upon receiving this information he contacted OSWALD at Apartment 2, 604 Elsbeth, Dallas, Texas. He said he advised OSWALD that he had received a complaint from one of the other tenants that there had been a disturbance recently in his, OSWALD's, apartment and that it was his, JUREK's, policy to keep such incidents to a minimum. He said he inquired of OSWALD as to whether he could give him any help, whereupon OSWALD maintained he and his wife had not had a fight or any argument and that the noise referred to by the other tenant(s) undoubtedly was caused by his small child which was about one year of age. JUREK said that at the time he contacted OSWALD he talked to him through the screen door and was not invited inside the apartment. JUREK stated he was never inside the apartment during the time it was occupied by the OSWALD family.

JUREK stated that upon being advised by the manager that the OSWALD family had moved out of the apartment, he and his wife, MARION, visited the apartment for the purpose of checking it and seeing if it was in condition to be rented to another tenant. He advised the apartment had been "pretty well cleaned out"; however, he did recall having found a business-type card behind one of two drawers in a closet between the bedroom and kitchen of the apartment. He advised this business-type card definitely had the word "Cuba" on it, and it is his best recollection the card bore some printed notation such as "Friends for Cuba" or "Fair Play for Cuba" or words to that effect. He said he has a vague recollection the card may have had OSWALD's name printed thereon; however, he could not be certain as to this latter fact. He said he attached no significance to the card at the time and threw it in the trash.

JUREK advised that the OSWALDs gave no notice they were going to vacate the apartment and did not leave any forwarding address.

Prior to furnishing the above rental application to SAs THOMPSON and PEDEN, JUREK placed his name on the card for future identification purposes.

MARION JUREK, 9211 Hathaway Street, Dallas, Texas, advised she and her husband own apartments located at 602 and 604 Elsbeth Street, Dallas, Texas.

She refreshed her memory by reviewing the application for payment record in the name of "L. H. OSWALD" and advised OSWALD and his family and a small child approximately one year of age occupied Apartment 2 at 604 Elsbeth from November 3, 1962, to about March 1, 1963. She advised the rent on this apartment was $68.00 per month and her records reflected that all payments made by the OSWALDS were made in cash. She advised that it was her opinion the handwriting in ink on the face of the rental application was prepared by L. H. OSWALD; however, the manager of the apartments at the above address, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. TOBIAS, could furnish definite information in this regard. She advised that to the best of her knowledge neither she nor her husband has any other document which possibly might contain handwriting or handprinting of L. H. OSWALD or his wife.

Mrs. JUREK advised that she is of Czecho-Slovakian and Hungarian descent and was told by the TOBIASES that Mrs. OSWALD was Czecho-Slovakian. She volunteered that in view of the above information and in an effort to be friendly and make Mrs. OSWALD feel at home, on one occasion she attempted to speak to Mrs. OSWALD in the language used by Czecho-Slovakians. She advised that after speaking a few words in the language used by Czecho-Slovakians, it was readily apparent that Mrs. OSWALD did not understand her and made no answer, merely motioning with her hands to indicate she did not understand Czecho-Slovakian. Mrs. JUREK added Mrs. TOBIAS later informed her that Mrs. OSWALD had stated to Mrs. TOBIAS that her (OSWALD's) husband had told her to say that she was Czecho-Slovakian rather than Russian.

Mrs. JUREK advised that she, accompanied by her husband, checked Apartment 2, 604 Elsbeth Street, Dallas, about two or three days after the OSWALDS had vacated the

She did not recall anything about the dates or places of publication of such Russian papers; however, she said that in view of her Czecho-Slovakian background, she was certain they were in the Russian language.

Mrs. JUREK advised that she was never inside Apartment 2, 604 Elsbeth Street, Dallas, during the time such apartment was occupied by the OSWALDS.

MAHLON F TOBIAS, SR., 602 Elsbeth (Apartment 7), Dallas, Texas, advised he and his wife manage apartments at 602 and 604 Elsbeth, which apartments are owned by MARTIN JUREK.

TOBIAS was requested to review a 5x8 card containing an application for rent of Apartment 2 at 604 Elsbeth, Dallas, by one L. H. OSWALD. Mr. TOBIAS's attention was called to the fact that the face of the application bore the handwritten date "Nov 3/62", handwritten name of the applicant, "L. H. OSWALD," the handprinted word "Wife" immediately below the name of the applicant, and the handwritten word "Service" immediately below the word wife and in the space provided for "Last Address." His attention was also called to the fact the application bore the handwritten figure "2" as the number of adults who would be residing in such apartment as well as the handwritten "1" as the number of persons under 21 who would be residing in such apartment. TOBIAS observed all of the above handwritten and handprinted notations were in blue ink, and he said such handwriting and handprinting were prepared by L. H. OSWALD in his presence and in the presence of his wife, MARNIE TOBIAS, on November 3, 1962. He said he could testify, therefore, that such handwriting and handprinting were prepared by OSWALD in his, TOBIAS's, presence.

TOBIAS identified a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD (New Orleans, Louisiana, No. 112 723, 8/9/63) as being the individual who submitted the above application for rental of Apartment 2 at 604 Elsbeth, Dallas, Texas.

TOBIAS advised that on one or two occasions during the time the OSWALDS resided in the above apartment, he was told by one or more of the other tenants in the apartment building that OSWALD had "beaten up" his wife. He said that on at least one occasion he observed Mrs. OSWALD with some blue and black marks about her face which indicated Mrs. OSWALD may have been beaten.

He further recalled that after the OSWALDS had been occupants of the above apartment for one month, an individual whom Mrs. OSWALD referred to only as "George" came to the apartment at 604 Elsbeth and furnished transportation for Mrs. OSWALD and her small child to leave the apartment. He recalled that Mrs. OSWALD took with her certain clothing and personal effects at the time she left the apartment on this occasion. She said either Mrs. OSWALD or "George" mentioned that Mrs. OSWALD would be gone for about a week. He stated Mrs. OSWALD was gone approximately one week before returning to the apartment, and he did not know how or exactly when she returned to her apartment.

B. Affton 1723 Texas

TOBIAS described GEORGE as a white male, about 40 years of age, 6', 190 lbs., dark hair and dark complexion. He recalled GEORGE was driving a convertible which may have been a Chevrolet, but he was unable to remember whether this car had Texas license plates or some out of state plates.

Mr. TOBIAS said he never learned any information as to where OSWALD worked during the time he was residing in the above apartment but observed OSWALD left the apartment each morning and returned each afternoon during week days, indicating he may have been leaving for and returning from work.

TOBIAS recalled having been inside the above apartment on two occasions during the time it was occupied by the OSWALDS. He stated that he observed a number of books at the head of the bed in the bedroom of the apartment, which books appeared to be "Russian or refer to Russia in some manner." He stated that he did not observe any firearms in OSWALD's apartment on either of the occasions he was inside the apartment during the time it was occupied by that family.

He volunteered the OSWALDS did not have a phone in their apartment and from time to time asked to use and did use the telephone in their (TOBIAS's) apartment. He stated that on each of the occasions that OSWALD or OSWALD's wife used the telephone, they always spoke in a foreign language.

He advised Mrs. OSWALD spoke very little English but expressed the opinion that she "understood more English than she let on like." He recalled Mrs. OSWALD stated on at least one occasion that her husband had told her to say that she was of Czecho-Slovakian descent rather than of Russian descent. He further recalled that Mrs. OSWALD stated that her husband told her to do this as he, OSWALD, felt people might not be friendly to her if they knew she was of Russian descent.

TOBIAS placed his name and the date November 23, 1963, on the OSWALD rental application referred to above for future identification purposes.

FD-302 (Rev. 8-8-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date November 24, 1963

Mrs. MANNIE M. TOBIAS, 602 Elsbeth Street (Apartment 7), Dallas, Texas, advised she and her husband are managers of the apartment building(s) at 602 and 604 Elsbeth Street, Dallas.

Mrs. TOBIAS was asked to review the handwritten and handprinted application for rental of Apartment 2, 604 Elsbeth Street, Dallas, by L. H. OSWALD. She refreshed her memory by reviewing such application and then advised L. H. OSWALD and his wife and small child approximately one year of age occupied Apartment 2, 604 Elsbeth Street, Dallas, November 3, 1962, to about March 1, 1963. She further advised that the handwriting and handprinting in ink on the face of the application was prepared by OSWALD in her presence and in the presence of her husband, M. F. TOBIAS, on November 3, 1962.

Mrs. TOBIAS was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD (New Orleans, Louisiana, No. 112 723, 8/9/63) and she identified the subject of such photograph as being identical with L. H. OSWALD who occupied the above apartment at 604 Elsbeth, Dallas, Texas, and who prepared the rental application referred to above.

Mrs. TOBIAS stated the OSWALDs did not have a telephone in their apartment and therefore from time to time used the telephone in their, TOBIAS's, apartment. She advised on each and every occasion that Mr. or Mrs. OSWALD used the telephone, they spoke in a "foreign language" and she and her husband were unable to interpret what the OSWALDs said.

She recalled that on one occasion she received a telephone call from a male individual asking her to call Mr. or Mrs. OSWALD to the telephone. She said she told the male individual calling that they did not make a practice of calling tenants to the phone, whereupon the individual said, "This is an emergency. Tell them GEORGE called, and they will know how to get in touch with me." She advised she then went to the apartment occupied by the OSWALDS, and either Mr. or Mrs. OSWALD came to the telephone and made a call, speaking in a "foreign language."

Mrs. TOBIAS advised that sometime later, possibly around December 1, 1962, a "big fellow" came to 604 Elsbeth, Dallas, and moved Mrs. OSWALD and her child out of the apartment for about one week. She stated she observed Mrs. OSWALD back at the apartment after approximately one week; however, she did not know exactly when Mrs. OSWALD returned to the apartment or by what means of transportation.

Mrs. TOBIAS said that Mrs. OSWALD referred to the above individual as "George," who was a white male who appeared to be in his 40s, about 6', and weighing around 190 lbs. She further described this individual as having dark hair and a dark complexion. She recalled the automobile which "George" was driving was a nice looking convertible and either cream or red in color.

Mrs. TOBIAS advised that sometime around February 1, 1963, a woman came to her apartment stating she was trying to contact the OSWALDs, as she had received a telephone call from Mr. or Mrs. OSWALD stating their baby was sick and they did not have money to take the baby to a doctor. Mrs. TOBIAS accompanied this female individual to the front door of the OSWALDs' apartment and rang the doorbell; however, no one answered the front door. Mrs. TOBIAS said she then knocked on the front door and after several minutes, Mr. OSWALD came to them, having walked around the side of the building rather than opening the front door. She said she informed Mr. OSWALD that this lady wanted to see him, whereupon OSWALD opened the front door and ushered her inside the apartment, stating, "I will take care of her," or words to that effect. Mrs. TOBIAS described this individual as a white female, 30-35 years of age, 5'3", 140 pounds, nice-looking in appearance. She recalled she told this lady that Mrs. OSWALD was Russian, whereupon this individual advised she was also Russian and that she worked in an office in downtown Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. TOBIAS volunteered that Mrs. OSWALD on at least one occasion stated that her husband had instructed her to tell people that she, Mrs. OSWALD, was Czecho-Slovakian rather than Russian, as he, OSWALD, felt people might be unfriendly toward them if they knew his wife was of Russian descent.

FBI

Mrs. TOBIAS advised that when the OSWALDs vacated the apartment at 604 Elsbeth Street, Dallas, on or about March 1, 1963, they moved about two blocks away to an upstairs apartment in a frame house on Neeley Street, Dallas, Texas.

She recalled that the only means of moving used by OSWALD was a baby stroller plus what they could carry in their hands.

Mrs. TOBIAS affixed her name and the date to the OSWALD rental application for future identification purposes.

Mrs. M. F. TOBIAS, SR., manager, apartment building, 602-604 Elsbeth, Dallas, Texas, advised that she had previously furnished information that L. H. OSWALD had resided in Apartment 2 of 604 Elsbeth from November 3, 1962, until March 3, 1963. She stated that at that time she also furnished information that GEORGE (LNU) visited apartment #2 at 604 Elsbeth, Dallas, Texas, in a convertible automobile, possibly a Chevrolet, and moved Mrs. OSWALD and her young daughter out of apartment 2 sometime around the last day of November or the first day of December, 1962. Mrs. OSWALD, however, was only gone for approximately one week before she returned. She advised that she has since seen a photograph of JACK RUBY in a Dallas newspaper and felt there might be a possibility that RUBY might be identical with the person named GEORGE. She was shown a photograph of JACK RUBY taken on November 24, 1963. She stated she could not identify RUBY as being GEORGE from this photograph, however, he does resemble this man GEORGE. She stated that she would have to see RUBY in person to either identify or eliminate him.

Mrs. TOBIAS advised there are no tenants presently residing in the building at 604 Elsbeth who would have resided in that building when L. H. OSWALD did from November 3, 1962, to March 3, 1963. OSWALD definitely moved either on March 3, 1963, or the day before or day after. When he moved he moved to 214 W. Neely Street, which is only about 1½ blocks away. There are four apartments in the building at 604 Elsbeth where OSWALD resided. These apartments are numbered 1 - 4. Residing in apartment #1 which is located on the same floor as apartment #2 where OSWALD resided when OSWALD moved in was BEVERLY and GLENN BOLTON. The BOLTONs however, only resided there until about November 17, 1962, when they moved out of town. She believes that BOLTON's father is Mr. A. C. BOLTON, SR., Dallas, Texas, telephone # AX 8-2510.

Mr. ALAN TURNER, on or about November 24, 1962, moved into apartment #1 and was still residing in apartment #1 when the OSWALDs moved. TURNER she believes now resides in California but he did not leave any forwarding address with her.

Apt. 3
JACK TUCKER was residing in apartment #3 which is located on the second floor of the building on November 3, 1962, when OSWALD moved into this building in apartment 2. TUCKER moved on December 16, 1962, but did not leave any type of a forwarding

On December 29, 1962, two persons using the names of CARL and LUCY ZEMBOWER moved into apartment #3 and resided in this apartment until February 9, 1963 when LUCY moved to apartment 6 in the other building. CARL at that time was not still residing with LUCY. Apartment #3 then was vacant until after OSWALD moved. She stated that LUCY ZEMBOWER moved later to some unknown address. After LUCY moved CARL came back to the apartment looking for LUCY. CARL at that time told Mrs. TOBIAS that he and LUCY were not married and that the name ZEMBOWER was actually the name of LUCY. She did not learn the last name of CARL and could not advise where he or LUCY could be located.

ALAN TURNER, who is previously set out as being in apartment #1, was on November 3, 1962, residing in apartment #4 and resided in #4 until November 24, 1962, when he moved to apartment #1. Apartment #4 was vacant until about December 17, 1962, when a G. W. WELLS moved to this apartment. WELLS resided in this apartment until about January 8, 1963, when he moved into apartment #6 in another building. She believes that WELLS has now left the city and she has no idea where he might be at this time. Texas

RUSSELL ATKINS moved into apartment #4 on January 28, 1963, and was still residing in #4 when OSWALD moved on March 3, 1963. ATKINS has now moved and she has no idea where he is at this time. She stated the Texas State Police did come to his apartment looking for him after he moved but she could not furnish any information as to why they were looking for him.

Texas She stated that she could not furnish any information regarding the whereabouts of any of the above persons other than that set out above. She stated the owner of the apartment building, Mrs. W. M. JUREK, 9211 Hathaway Street, Dallas, Texas, telephone EM 1-0763, has the information cards which were filled out by the above tenants and these cards might give some background information which might assist in locating them.

Mrs. TEOFIL (ANNA NIKOLAEVNA) MELLER, 5930½ LaVista Drive, advised she had not seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD since about Christmas, 1962. Mrs. MELLER, who is of Russian extraction and an American citizen, stated she met Mrs. LEE OSWALD during July or August, 1962, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. PETER GREGORY, 3512 Dorothy Lane, in Fort Worth, Texas. Mrs. MELLER was sympathetic to Mrs. OSWALD because she could not speak English and had no friends in this country. She was also destitute financially and she would make periodic trips from her home in Dallas to Fort Worth taking Mrs. OSWALD clothing which had been donated by friends. At that time her baby was about six months old. She also contributed groceries to the family during that period. OSWALD was employed in Fort Worth at some unknown place, she said, and on one night, probably in November, 1962, she received a phone call about 11:00 p.m. from Mrs. OSWALD. Mrs. OSWALD told him in Russian that her husband had beaten her and she did not have any money to secure lodging. Mrs. MELLER stated she told her to take a taxi and that she would pay the fare. Thereafter, Mrs. OSWALD and the baby stayed with Mr. and Mrs. MELLER in their apartment at 5930½ LaVista Drive in Dallas. During that time, OSWALD never called her and she was never known to be in contact with him.

After the expiration of the first week at her apartment, Mrs. OSWALD stayed at the home of Mrs. DECLAN FORD, 14057 Brookcrest in Dallas. Mrs. FORD is of Russian extraction and Mr. FORD is a native American, she related. She did not know the exact time Mrs. OSWALD and the child stayed at the FORD home but was positive in her assertion that the last time she had seen Mrs. OSWALD and OSWALD was at a Christmas party at the FORD home in 1962. Since that time, Mrs. MELLER has not heard from OSWALD or his wife. Mrs. MELLER stated she had never talked politics with either Mr. or Mrs. OSWALD and it seemed to her that OSWALD was always nervous and not an easy person to talk to. She believed OSWALD had few friends and stated no one liked him. During her acquaintance with Mrs. OSWALD she said she had probably seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD about four or five times. On those occasions, she never mentioned Communism to OSWALD nor he to her. On one occasion, she said OSWALD had some books on a table in the OSWALD home at 3703 Mercedes in Fort Worth which she thought were questionable. It was her belief that they probably came from the public library but she did not know the title to any of them. Her recollection was that the OSWALDs did not have a telephone at this address and she never knew OSWALD to use another name other than his own. She had never seen any firearms in the possession of OSWALD nor had she met any of his family except his wife and child. She said she knew OSWALD had lived in the USSR at one time and that his wife was a Soviet citizen. She did not know any of the details concerning their coming to this country. She did not know of any friends or acquaintances of the OSWALDs except those mentioned other than GEORGE BOUCHE, 4740 Homer Street, Dallas, Texas. At the time she knew Mrs. OSWALD she spoke no English and Mrs. KELLER attempted to assist her in the use of English.

On one occasion, Mrs. KELLER stated she asked her husband to help OSWALD find a job inasmuch as she felt sorry for Mrs. OSWALD. She said her husband called Mrs. HELEN CUNNINGHAM, an employee of the Texas Employment Commission who lives on Winnetka Street, Dallas, Texas. This was prior to the time that Mrs. OSWALD spent a week with them in Dallas. She did not know where OSWALD was employed as a result of this contact and she said she had no knowledge of his activities after the Christmas party in 1962.

Mr. TEOFIL MELLER, 5930½ LaVista Drive, an employee of Sanger-Harris Department Store, Preston Center, stated he had never seen OSWALD except on one occasion. Mr. MELLER said he never formally met OSWALD but had OSWALD pointed out to him at a Christmas party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. DECLAN FORD in Dallas.

MELLER said his wife requested that he contact Mrs. HELEN CUNNINGHAM of the Texas Employment Commission for the purpose of securing a job for OSWALD. He contacted Mrs. CUNNINGHAM and she was successful in getting him work with a printing shop in Dallas. MELLER did not know the name of the printing shop or its exact location.

Mr. MELLER was acquainted with Mrs. OSWALD and remarked that she had stayed at his apartment at 5930½ LaVista Street in Dallas with his wife and himself. On one night she called from a filling station stating her husband had beaten her and that she was penniless. Mrs. MELLER invited Mrs. OSWALD to come to their residence which she did in a taxi, the taxi fare being paid by the MELLERS. MELLER said that on one occasion he asked Mrs. OSWALD why she ever married OSWALD in the first place and Mrs. OSWALD answered that it had been her dream to have a room of her own. In Russia, she explained to Mr. MELLER, several persons usually slept in one room sharing a kitchen and housing conditions were poor. She at no time gave MELLER any of the details concerning her coming to this country with OSWALD but MELLER did remember that OSWALD had been a resident of the Soviet Union for some time. He said Mrs. OSWALD is well educated and believed her to be a pharmacist by occupation. During the time he knew her she was never known to possess one penny, he related. It was MELLER's understanding that OSWALD was aloof and did not want to become acquainted with anyone. Insofar as MELLER knew, OSWALD had no friends and from what he could gather from persons who did know OSWALD he concluded that OSWALD was a "know all" type of person. Mrs. OSWALD never mentioned guns or firearms during her stay at their apartment and they did not discuss Communism or politics.

Mr. JANCHERI UPCHESHAW, also known as George Upcheshaw, previously known as George Rieg, advised he currently resides at 6238 Lake Shore Drive, Dallas, Texas. He stated he is a United States citizen having been naturalized August, 1963, and that his nationality origin is Circassian from the Caucasus Mountain region of Russia. He stated that he considers himself to be non-Russian inasmuch as in past history that area was not controlled by Russians many years ago. He stated that the region that he comes from consists of a population that has been oppressed by the Communists since the Communists obtained control of Russia. He stated he first came to the United States in November, 1951, and for a time was an instructor in Russian at Cornell University, New York State, until June, 1956.

He stated that a friend of his in Dallas advised him about a year ago regarding a young couple who had come to the United States from Russia; that the man was an ex-United States Marine who had previously renounced the United States and gone to Russia; that he was not happy in Russia and henceforth returned to the United States. He stated his friend told him that this couple was coming to Dallas, and if he would like to meet them the friend would let him know when they arrived. UPCHESHAW stated he himself expressed resentment because he was not sympathetic to any person with the background which this individual apparently had. He said his friend suggested to him that perhaps he, UPCHESHAW, might be able to make this individual's Russian wife feel more at home in Dallas because she spoke no English. He stated a couple of days later when this couple came to Dallas he met them but at the time paid no attention to their names. He advised that in the brief period of contact that he had with this couple on the occasion that he met them he observed that the man whom he now knows to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD was very dominating with his wife. He noted that when OSWALD's wife would say something he would suppress her as though what she had said was of no significance or value. He said he felt OSWALD's wife had used poor judgment in choosing OSWALD as her husband. He said that from what he could gather OSWALD could see no one's viewpoint but his own and was the type of person who wanted to adjust the world to himself rather than adjust himself to the world. He said that for this reason he did not like OSWALD due to his attitude. He said that OSWALD in his opinion had the symptoms of persons whom he has had occasion to observe at various times since World War II, which he considers to be pseudo-intellectual.

UPCHESHAW stated that about two months after this his friend called him and said that OSWALD had been beating his wife; that persons who sympathized with the plight of OSWALD's wife were attempting to help her get some sort of job and a place to live. He said his friend suggested that possibly he, UPCHESHAW, might be willing to keep OSWALD's wife and baby at his house until they were able to accommodate her job-wise. UPCHESHAW stated he agreed to this. He added that after two or three days his friend called him again and said that OSWALD and his wife had reconciled their differences. He said that he has never seen OSWALD or his wife since that time and until he was aware that there was some indication that OSWALD may have been implicated in the assassination of President KENNEDY he had had no occasion to be concerned about OSWALD and his wife.

UPCHESHAW stated he met OSWALD's wife on one occasion while she was apart from OSWALD during a period of estrangement. He stated that a woman brought the girl to his house to see himself and his wife. He said he had a conversation with OSWALD's wife and during this conversation no politics were discussed, and he considered it purely a social call. He stated his wife indicated after OSWALD's wife had left that she thought OSWALD's wife was impressed with UPCHESHAW, possibly because of UPCHESHAW's maturity combined with the fact that UPCHESHAW had used Russian jargon which would have been more impressive to a younger Russian person than usual Russian language. He said that to put her at ease he also quoted bits of poems in Russian and attempted to talk in a rather light vein.

UPCHESHAW said that in his opinion OSWALD's wife was not a brilliant type of person and displayed no extra intelligence. He said he regarded her as a very ordinary type of Russian girl whose education may have been approximately comparable to what is the eighth grade in the United States. He said he could recall that no discussion of her husband, OSWALD, took place at that time. He said that it was within a few days after this that he heard OSWALD and his wife were reconciled and therefore he himself and his wife had no opportunity to take her into their home. He said that he feels OSWALD's wife was aware that he and his wife had been willing to have her stay with them.

He said that he never knew OSWALD's full name until shortly following the time of the assassination of President KENNEDY in Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963, but that he knows this person to be identical to the one that he had met approximately a year ago.

KATHERINE E. FORD, 14057 Brookcrest, Dallas 40, Texas, voluntarily appeared at the Dallas Office and advised she is a friend of MARINA OSWALD, the wife of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mrs. FORD stated she was born in Russia and came to the United States over twenty years ago. She stated she became acquainted with MARINA OSWALD and her husband because of the fact they were both from Russia. She stated she first met the OSWALDs in the fall of 1962 through one GEORGE BOUHE, who resides in Fort Worth, Texas. Mrs. FORD stated that in November, 1962, LEE OSWALD and his wife separated. Their separation was caused by the fact LEE OSWALD used to frequently beat his wife. She left OSWALD and contacted GEORGE BOUHE and he arranged for MARINA OSWALD and her child, JUNE OSWALD, to reside at the FORD residence. Mrs. FORD stated she had been able to determine the exact dates that MARINA OSWALD stayed at their house as from November 11 to November 17, 1962. Following this, MARINA OSWALD went to the residence of FRANK RAY, who lived at 4524 Alta Vista Lane, Dallas, Texas. On November 18, 1962, LEE OSWALD contacted his wife and they made up and she went back to live with him.

Mrs. FORD advised the next time she met LEE OSWALD was on December 28, 1962, when she and her husband had a party and LEE and MARINA OSWALD came to this party with some other friends.

Mrs. FORD advised one of the closest friends that MARINA OSWALD had while in this country was GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILD, who is a prominent Russian-born geologist, who is now in the Republic of Haiti. GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILD tried to help MARINA and also to help her husband get a job. Mrs. FORD stated MARINA liked the Russian people but was not interested in politics, and further, that she was glad to leave Russia because of the poor living conditions. On the other hand, she remarked to Mrs. FORD that she married OSWALD so she could leave Russia. Mrs. FORD stated that OSWALD always talked to his wife in Russian so he could keep up his proficiency in the Russian language, and for this reason MARINA OSWALD never learned too much English language. Mrs. FORD stated that LEE OSWALD was not liked by any of the Russian-born people in the Dallas-Fort Worth area and they only tolerated him because of his wife. At one time MARINA OSWALD told Mrs. FORD that LEE OSWALD stated that he hated his mother. MARINA OSWALD also stated that LEE was not liked by many persons in Russia.

Mrs. FORD stated MARINA OSWALD met LEE OSWALD at a dance in Minsk, Russia, and that she was visiting him in a hospital in Minsk where he was a patient when he proposed to her. MARINA OSWALD, according to Mrs. FORD, worked as a pharmacist in Minsk, Russia. MARINA OSWALD told her her husband went to Moscow, Russia, in 1959 where we had an exhibition and worked for exhibition, then defected to the Russians at this time. He worked in a factory of some type in the Soviet Union in the City of Minsk. He liked to debate with students in the Soviet Union and associated mostly with the workers. According to Mrs. FORD, the reason MARINA OSWALD stated that her husband came to the United States was that he did not think the living conditions were good enough and he stated he could not stand another of the hard Russian winters. LEE OSWALD also stated that he had wanted to get out of Russia before his daughter JUNE was born but the American Embassy held him up.

MPK Mrs DECLAN P. FORD, 14057 Brookcrest, Dallas 40, Texas, advised that he first met LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his wife, MARINA OSWALD, sometime during the fall of 1962 through one GEORGE BOUHE of Dallas, Texas. Mr. FORD stated that his wife, KATHERINE FORD, was born in Russia and because of the fact MARINA OSWALD was also born in Russia they became acquainted as are most Russian-born people in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. He stated MARINA OSWALD stayed at his house from November 11, 1962 to November 17, 1962, when she separated from her husband. He stated he is certain of these dates because he was out of town on a business trip on these dates and had been able to verify this through his expense voucher. On November 18, 1962, MARINA OSWALD went to stay with Mr. and Mrs. FRANK H. RAY, 4524 Alta Vista Lane, Dallas. She remained there until November 19, 1962, when her husband, LEE OSWALD, contacted her and they made up and she went back to live with him again. Texas

Mr. FORD advised the next time he saw MARINA and LEE OSWALD was on December 28, 1962, when he and his wife had a party and OSWALD and his wife MARINA came with some other people.

Mr. FORD stated that none of the Russian-born people or their American husbands or wives liked LEE OSWALD and he only associated with them because of MARINA OSWALD. He stated that he had attempted to help LEE OSWALD get a job but that he was very odd in his behavior and when he asked where he was working, he refused to tell them.

He stated that when LEE OSWALD was around the Russian-born persons in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, he always talked in Russian, allegedly to keep up his proficiency in the Russian language, and this was the reason he, Mr. FORD, who does not speak Russian, was unable to converse with OSWALD at any great length. Mr. FORD stated he does know that FRANK H. RAY did have a long political argument with OSWALD and he would be in a good position to describe OSWALD's political beliefs. He said he remembered one occasion when OSWALD was visiting and he pointed out JUNE OSWALD is a Russian girl and OSWALD became incensed and stated she was just as much of an American as any other child in the room even though she was born in Russia. Mr. FORD stated the last time he saw OSWALD was on December 28, 1962.

He does maintain on a permanent basis, however, a daily sheet showing the names of the permanent guests in residence and the names of the transient guests checking in on that day and checking out on that day.

The daily sheets from July 31, 1962, to November 30, 1962, inclusive, were physically examined and it was ascertained through this physical examination that LEE OSWALD registered as a transient on October 15, 1962, in Room 415, and checked out on October 19, 1962.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date November 29, 1963

Mr. MAX E. CLARK, 4312 Selkirk Drive West, Attorney, Ridgelea State Bank Building, furnished the following information: Hubb Texas

CLARK is a native-born American citizen. He met his wife in France during World War II. She was born in France, but her parents were born in Russia. His wife speaks and translates Russian. In this way they have met and become acquainted with a number of citizens from Russia in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

In June, 1962, Mrs. CLARK received a phone call at her home from a man giving his name as OSWALD. OSWALD told her that he and his wife had just come to Fort Worth from Russia and that he speaks Russian and that his wife was born and raised in Russia. He stated he had obtained the name of Mrs. CLARK through some contacts at the Fort Worth Public Library. He further advised that he and his wife would like to meet and talk with Mrs. CLARK. She told him that she would call them later and maybe they could get together. A short time later, possibly a week or two, Mrs. CLARK called the OSWALDS and talked to Mr. LEE OSWALD. She invited them to come down to their home for a visit. OSWALD said that it did not suit them to come down to their house and would they come out to their home in Ridgelea West. At that time, Mr. MAX CLARK got on the phone and talked to OSWALD and asked him to come down to their home for a visit. He again said it did not fit into their plans and told them to come out to see them. CLARK said he was not going to do that and maybe they would talk to them later. Mrs. CLARK was gone to France all during the summer of 1962. CLARK stated that on one occasion his wife went to the home of the OSWALDS at the time they were living near Montgomery Ward Store. She made this trip with ANNA MEILER and GEORGE BOUHE, of Dallas. CLARK stated that he did not go on this visit.

CLARK advised that a friend of theirs named ELENA HALL, who lives in Fort Worth, is of Russian descent and that she had met the OSWALDS on one occasion. In about September or October of 1962, the OSWALDS had had some domestic trouble, were separated, and OSWALD had gone to Dallas. ELENA HALL asked MARINA OSWALD to stay with her as at that time HALL and her husband were separated and in the process of getting a divorce. MARINA OSWALD moved in with ELENA HALL. She remained there for two or three weeks. After about a week or ten days, Mrs. HALL was injured in an automobile accident and had to stay in the hospital. During that time, MARINA OSWALD was at this home by herself. Mrs. CLARK would go by there nearly every day to buy her groceries and see what they might need. After Mrs. HALL returned home and had recovered from her accident, CLARK and his wife went over to the home of ELENA HALL. This was on a Sunday afternoon and was sometime in October, 1962. Mr. HALL had also driven in from Odessa, Texas, and was present on this occasion. While they were there, LEE OSWALD came to the home and stayed for several hours.

CLARK advised that he had heard about OSWALD and that he was interested in finding out things about the Soviet Union. He stated he got in a conversation with OSWALD and talked to him for about two hours on this one occasion. OSWALD related the following information to CLARK:

While OSWALD was in the service of the U. S. Marines or the U. S. Army, he read and studied a lot of KARL MARX. He was dissatisfied with the Military Service in the United States and made up his mind to go to Russia as soon as he was discharged. He believed Russia was the place to live and work. Immediately after his discharge, OSWALD obtained a passport and did go to Russia. CLARK did not believe that OSWALD returned to his home after his discharge but went directly to Russia. He turned in his passport in Moscow and immediately obtained a work permit from the Soviet Union government. He was sent to Minsk, Russia, and they placed him in a factory as some type of sheet metal worker. He was furnished a small apartment to live in, and the government paid the utilities of this apartment. OSWALD said that he had a little better place to live than most of the workers due to the fact that he was an American and had recently come to the Soviet Union. He stated that his apartment had a private bath, while most of the other apartments had to share a bath with from four to six apartments. OSWALD advised that the Soviet Union also furnished medical aid and furnished free schooling for the children. He had to pay for his food and clothing out of the 75 rubles a month that he earned working in this factory. He met his wife in Minsk one night when he attended a dance given by the workers of this factory. His wife was working in a doctor's office doing some type of work. He later married this girl that he met at the dance, and when she became pregnant, the government made her work up to one month before the birth of the child and gave her a leave of three months after the child was born. At that time, his wife had to go back to work and the government took the child and placed it in a government operated nursery. OSWALD mentioned that this was one of the things that he did not like in the Soviet Union. He also stated that he did not find that conditions in Russia were exactly like the writings of KARL MARX. He felt let down when he was sent to Minsk to work as he thought he should have been kept in Moscow. He did not care to raise his child in this government nursery. He started thinking about returning to the United States shortly after his child was born. CLARK related that during this conversation with OSWALD that OSWALD would get mad and arrogant and talk rather sarcastically about the United States and the government and also about some of the conditions in Russia.

OSWALD told CLARK that it was easy to get into Russia if a person would handle it properly. He stated the way he got into Russia was that he wrote to a Russian tourist agency either in Washington or New York and got a permit from this tourist agency. He said he had to put up some money with this tourist agency. After getting this permit, he then got his passport and later obtained a visa. He told CLARK that he turned in his passport to the U. S. Embassy in Moscow. He wanted to become a Russian citizen, but the Soviet Union Government never took him in as a citizen, and he always worked as an alien in Russia. He told CLARK that he stayed in Russia a little over two years.

CLARK stated that this was the only time he ever saw or talked to LEE OSWALD.

1 Date November 28, 1963

MRS. FRANK HENRY RAY, 4524 Alta Vista Lane, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

In about October, 1962, MR. and MRS. DECLAN FORD, Dallas, Texas, Dallas, asked her to come to their house and meet a girl from Russia. She stated that she went there and met MRS. LEE HARVEY OSWALD, who had had a squabble with her husband and from what she gathered, the husband had mistreated the Russian girl. At that time MRS. OSWALD was staying at the FORD house and she herself invited her to stay at her home (MRS. RAY's) for a couple of weeks until she could locate employment. After about two days, LEE HARVEY OSWALD called on the telephone and asked if he could come by to see his baby and MRS. RAY agreed to this. LEE HARVEY OSWALD came to her house and he and his wife went into a room of the house and conferred for about one hour. She stated she gained the impression later that their conference was regarding family economics. They then announced that they had decided to go back together so MRS. OSWALD and the baby moved from the RAY premises. MRS. RAY remarked that the OSWALDs appeared to be very poor and it was her understanding that OSWALD at that time was earning approximately $1.35 per hour. MRS. RAY therefore asked some of her neighbors if they had any old clothes or other items which they could contribute for the OSWALDs to use in view of the tight financial situation of the OSWALDs. MRS. RAY said she asked OSWALD why he did not talk English to his wife, and encourage her to learn English. She pointed out to OSWALD that his wife needed to learn English in order to learn to converse while living in United States. She said OSWALD indicated he did not care if his wife learned English and pointed out that he desired to keep his Russian fluent. Upon being asked why he wanted to keep his Russian fluent, OSWALD said he liked to speak another language besides English. She said OSWALD did not seem to approve of his wife having friends and would not even let her wear lipstick, or makeup of any kind. She stated that OSWALD himself declined to accept an alcoholic beverage when offered to him and told her "I don't drink". In further describing OSWALD's wife, MRS. RAY said that she considered his wife to be terribly immature, very slow and the type of person who does not know what is going on. She said she was very undecided and exhibited no interest in political matters whatsoever. She stated that in her opinion, she did not believe MRS. OSWALD would have necessarily shared any ideas held by OSWALD, unless it was merely to appear co-operative with her husband. She stated that OSWALD's wife has indicated that she does not want to go back to Russia. She described her as a nice girl, a quiet type whom she considered shy, sweet and innocent, age about twenty-two, a wonderful mother in caring for her child. She was unaware that OSWALD's wife ever held any employment in the United States and she had no information that OSWALD's wife had ever applied for U. S. Citizenship. She stated she doubted if OSWALD would have permitted her to apply for citizenship.

MRS. RAY said she believed OSWALD's wife had no family in Russia; that her father possibly died when she was a child, that she was unaware (MRS. RAY) of any information regarding her mother and that she was raised by an aunt in Russia. She said she had no idea of where MRS. OSWALD came from in Russia but it was her belief that OSWALD and MRS. OSWALD had met initially in Leningrad.

MRS. RAY stated that in about December, 1962, she last saw MR. and MRS. OSWALD. She advised that MRS. FORD told her about two months ago, that OSWALD had been gone at that time to New Orleans, Louisiana, for about six months. She stated she was not aware they had returned to the Dallas, Texas area until after the assassination of President KENNEDY, at Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963.

MRS. RAY said that she never held any political discussions with MR. OSWALD and had no information to reflect that he was pro-Marxist in his views or that he was inclined to have any favoritism for CASTRO's Cuba. She said he never seemed to be the least bit intellectual or the "bookworm" type. She said she considered him dull and stupid. She said provided he was the person who assassinated President KENNEDY, she must, at this time, say that she would never have thought him capable of such a thing. She said he impressed her as the very quiet type but that he did seem arrogant, in the way he would look at people when they addressed him, as though they did not know what they were speaking about.

MRS. RAY said she believed that OSWALD may have been bitter over his inability to obtain employment in United States. She said that judging from what OSWALD's wife had said, OSWALD had been somewhat bitter while in Russia, because the Russians did not go out of their way go give him an important job. She said he she believes she had heard that OSWALD was a laborer while in Russia.

She said she did not know why he returned to the United States. She said that he apparently was disillusioned because he did not attract enough attention to suit him while in Russia. She said that he was apparently a person who had little training and therefore would have had no right to expect any special attention in Russia.

Regarding herself, MRS. RAY stated that her name prior to her first marriage and prior to coming to the United States, was VALENTINA ANNA PERECHANSKYA. She was born Kursk, Russia, June 18, 1928, although she stated that when the Germans took her from Russia in May, 1942, for slave labor, they destroyed her birth certificate and gave her a new one which reflected that she was born one year earlier than her actual date of birth. She stated she was raised in Stalino Ukraine, Russia. She stated she arrived in New York City on July 13, 1946, after having married a U. S. serviceman who was in the U. S. Army, in Frankfurt, Germany, previous to that. She stated she became a naturalized citizen in 1949 and has since re-married.

Mrs. JOHN R. HALL (ELENA) Mr & Alkhazoff, 4760 Trail Lake Drive, advised that she and her husband are the owners of the Crown-Bridge-Porcelain Company at 1313 East Seminary Drive in Fort Worth. Mrs. HALL said this company is a dental technician company which makes and works with false teeth and mouth bridges. Texas

Mrs. HALL advised that her maiden name is ALKHAZOFF, and that she was born in Teheran, Iran, on June 20, 1926. She said that her parents were born in Russia. Mrs. HALL advised that she had been in the United States since 1957.

Mrs. HALL furnished the following information:

She said that she met LEE OSWALD and his wife, MARINA, through GEORGE BOUHE of Dallas, Texas, in June or July, 1962, at which time BOUHE brought the OSWALDs to her home, as MARINA had a missing front tooth. Mrs. HALL said that she told BOUHE that it would take $200.00 to $300.00 in order to have a tooth replaced by a dentist. She said at the time she first met the OSWALDs, they had a small baby girl named JUNE.

Mrs. HALL stated that in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, there is a small group of Russian-speaking people, like herself, that are friends and visit together. When any Russian-speaking person comes into the community they try to help them not to be so lonely.

Mrs. HALL said that MARINA OSWALD caused her to feel sorry for her, MARINA, upon first meeting MARINA, because of the fact that MARINA did not have any clothes and LEE OSWALD at that particular time was out of work. She said when she first met the OSWALDs, they were residing at 2703 Mercedes Street in Fort Worth. Mrs. HALL said that the OSWALD baby was sleeping in an old open suitcase at that time.

Mrs. HALL stated that shortly after meeting the OSWALDs, LEE OSWALD went to work at an unknown welding company located near his residence.

Mrs. HALL stated that she, Mrs. HALL, was working at the time, and during the day at the lunch hour and in the evenings she would go by the home and visit with MARINA OSWALD and would take clothing and food and help her with the baby.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Mrs. HALL continued by saying that in early October, 1962, exact date unrecalled, that MARINA OSWALD told her that her husband wanted to move to Dallas and gave no reason. Mrs. HALL said that she asked MARINA how she was going to pay for the house and the bills, at which MARINA said she did not know. Mrs. HALL said she then asked MARINA to move into her home until such time as she could go to Dallas to join her husband.

Mrs. HALL said that shortly after MARINA OSWALD and her baby moved into her home, MARINA told her that she belonged to the Greek Orthodox Church and wanted to have her baby baptized, but she was afraid to mention it to her husband because "he didn't believe in God, baptizing or nothing". Mrs. HALL said that on about October 17, 1962, she took MARINA and her infant daughter, JUNE, to Dallas where the baby was baptized at the St. Seraphim Eastern Greek Orthodox Church, 4203 Newton Street, Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. HALL said that on October 19, 1962, she, Mrs. HALL, was involved in an automobile accident in Fort Worth and was hospitalized for a period of ten days. She said that MARINA OSWALD and baby continued to live at her home during this period of time. Mrs. HALL said that on October 31, 1962, after being released from the hospital, she went to New York to visit friends and left MARINA and the baby at her home. Mrs. HALL said that she returned from New York on November 15, 1962, and at that time MARINA and the baby had gone from her home, and she does not know exactly what date she had left Fort Worth.

Mrs. HALL said that during the period of time MARINA OSWALD lived in her home, she actually saw LEE OSWALD one weekend, at which time she believed it was on a Sunday afternoon when LEE OSWALD was driven to Fort Worth from Dallas by a GARY and ALEXANDRIA TAYLOR, who resided at that time at 3519 Fairmount, Apartment 12, telephone LA 1-0692. She said that the TAYLORs had a small child with them, and they spent the afternoon with LEE OSWALD at her home. Dallas Texas.

EH,RDM:mam

Mrs. HALL said that she had met the TAYLORs on that one occasion only and believes that GEORGE BOUHE had possibly known Mrs. TAYLOR's father in Dallas. Mrs. HALL said that she later learned from friends in Dallas that the TAYLORs are possibly separated now, and she does not know where they would be residing at the present time.

Mrs. HALL continued by saying that after MARINA OSWALD left her home she later learned through ANNA MILLER in Dallas that the OSWALDs were residing at 604 Elsbeth Street in Dallas. 7 X 5

Mrs. HALL said further that on Christmas, 1962, she and her husband drove to Dallas to take baby JUNE OSWALD a small Christmas gift. Mrs. HALL said at this point that while MARINA OSWALD was living at her home she had shown an interest in a sewing machine that Mrs. HALL had, and Mrs. HALL told her that she could use the machine. Upon returning from her visit in New York, she observed the machine to be gone from her home and assumed that MARINA had taken it. She said that when she visited the OSWALDs on Christmas in Dallas, she asked MARINA about the sewing machine, and MARINA told her that she still wanted to use it.

Mrs. HALL said that at the time she visited the OSWALDs at Christmas she recalls asking LEE OSWALD where their Christmas tree was because of the small baby. She said OSWALD told her that he did not agree with Christmas as it was too commercial.

During the above visit at Christmas, Mrs. HALL said she recalls asking LEE OSWALD why he did not speak English to his wife and why he spoke to her only in Russian. He told her that he was afraid that he would forget his Russian. Mrs. HALL said that OSWALD spoke Russian very well.

Mrs. HALL said further that the next time that she saw the OSWALD family was on Easter day of 1963, at which time she took a little Easter gift to the OSWALD baby. She said that she went to the 604 Elsbeth Street address and was told by the landlady that the OSWALDs did not live there any longer. Mrs. HALL said the landlady showed her where the OSWALDs had moved, which was about two blocks north and one block west of the Elsbeth address. Mrs. HALL said she does not recall the street or the street number of this residence. She said that the OSWALDs lived on the second floor of a very shabby apartment at this address.

Mrs. HALL said that on Easter day, LEE OSWALD and his wife were both at home, and she recalled LEE OSWALD telling her husband that he did not like the Capitalistic system. At that time OSWALD appeared to be "high on Russia" and said he would like to go back to Russia.

Mrs. HALL said that at that time on Easter, MARINA OSWALD returned to her the sewing machine.

Mrs. HALL said that at the time she and her husband visited the OSWALDs in Dallas on Easter, they stayed for a period of about 45 minutes, and since that visit she has not seen either person again or heard from either person. Mrs. HALL said she had heard from friends in Dallas at a later date that the OSWALDs had moved to New Orleans, Louisiana. However, Mrs. HALL said that the OSWALDs never wrote or corresponded with her, and she had not heard of the OSWALDs again until the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Mrs. HALL said that MARINA OSWALD, in conversation with her, told her that she actually did not like Russia and was very appreciative of the United States. She said that MARINA told her that the people in Russia actually would not believe what they saw in the United States if they could be here concerning the merchandise, stores, type of food, cars and other such things.

Mrs. HALL said that she recalls when she first met MARINA OSWALD, she noticed black and blue marks on her face. She said at a later date when she got to know this person, she asked her about those bruises on her face and MARINA told her that her husband had beat her.

EH,RDH:mam

After that, Mrs. HALL said that MARINA told her that on several occasions her husband had beat her and that MARINA and her husband argued a great deal of the time.

Mrs. HALL advised further that MARINA told her at one time the reason they returned from Russia to the United States was that her husband wanted to return and she also wanted to live in the United States. Mrs. HALL said that she understood from MARINA that she was a pharmacist in Russia and had worked in a hospital in Minsk. Mrs. HALL said she recalls Mrs. OSWALD's telling her that she and her husband had met at a dance in Minsk

Mrs. HALL said that she never actually talked a great deal with LEE OSWALD as he was very uncommunicative. She said that during the time she was in their home she saw books on Marxism and Red literature around the house, and for that reason she did not converse a great deal with LEE OSWALD. She said that she considered LEE OSWALD to be a "Red Russian", and she did not try to change him. Mrs. HALL said she recalls at one time LEE OSWALD's telling her he was going to write a book, but he did not mention what the book would be about.

Mrs. HALL said that it was her personal opinion that LEE OSWALD was "no good" because of the fact that he beat his wife, his way of thinking, and that she considered him to be a "Red Russian".

Mrs. HALL said further that during the period of time that she knew the OSWALDs, they never owned an automobile, and that she never met OSWALD's mother or brother. In fact, Mrs. HALL said the only interest that she and her Husband actually had in the LEE OSWALD family was MARINA and the baby and trying to help those two persons.

Mrs. HALL said that MARINA never mentioned any friends or associates of her husband's in Fort Forth or Dallas, and MARINA was a "lonely person". Mrs. HALL said she recalls MARINA wanted to go to Dallas because she had heard there were English classes held at the YMCA; however, Mrs. HALL said that she asked MARINA at Easter when she visited her if she had gone to any classes, and MARINA told her that she had not because she lived too far from town, the classes were in the evening and she would have to take a bus. Further, MARINA said that her husband would not take care of the baby.

Mrs. HALL said further that the only place she knows the OSWALDs to have lived in Fort Worth prior to moving to Dallas was when they first moved to Fort Worth, MARINA told her that they stayed with LEE OSWALD's brother for a short time and then moved to 2703 Mercedes Street, at which time OSWALD went to Dallas, Texas, and MARINA OSWALD stayed in the HALL's home until she moved to Dallas.

Mrs. HALL said further that the only acquaintances she knows the OSWALDs had in Fort Worth would be PETER GREGORY, Mrs. ~~MAX~~ CLARK, and herself, Mrs. HALL.

Mrs. HALL advised that she does recall that the TAYLORs, the persons who drove LEE OSWALD to Fort Worth to visit his wife when she was at the Hall's residence, drove an old model, possibly a 1955 or 1956, dark metallic green car, which would have been the Buick or Oldsmobile type of automobile.

Mrs. HALL stated that she had no further information concerning LEE OSWALD and his wife. Mrs. HALL said that she does not know any person named JACK RUBY or RUBENSTEIN and had never heard of this person until he was charged with the killing of LEE OSWALD in Dallas.

Mr. GEORGE A. BOUHE, 4740 Homer Street, Apartment O, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at 3752 Westcliff Road North, Fort Worth, Texas. He stated that he was doing accounting work for Mr. MACK CLARK and he had telephonically contacted Mrs. ELIZABETH GREGORY and she indicated that the FBI might be interested in talking with him.

Texas

Texas

BOUHE pointed out that he was born in St. Petersburg, Russia, and had come to the United States in 1924.

He stated that in about July, 1962, he had read in a Fort Worth newspaper that LEE OSWALD had returned to Fort Worth with his Russian wife and his small child.

BOUHE stated that he believed it was two or three weeks after he read this article that he got a telephone call from PETER GREGORY, who was giving OSWALD a get-acquainted dinner at GREGORY's house and invited BOUHE to attend. BOUHE stated that he was interested in attending this dinner and was vitally interested in talking to OSWALD's wife.

He stated that the newspaper had indicated that MARINA OSWALD was from the same place in Russia as BOUHE had lived in. He stated that he determined that MARINA was not from the exact town that he was from, but they still had considerable discussion about life in Russia.

He stated also that MARINA OSWALD had stated she was having a hard time and that her husband had been unable to keep a job in Fort Worth. He stated MARINA indicated that OSWALD's brother was having them move from his house and OSWALD's mother had no money to help support them.

BOUHE stated that he had visited the OSWALD's home on Mercedes Street in Fort Worth, Texas, and further that there were very little furnishings in the house and that the baby was sleeping on the floor. BOUHE stated that because of his good fortune in the United States, he felt he should try to help the OSWALDs.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

BOUHE pointed out that the first thing he did was to buy some groceries, some baby clothes, and also a baby crib. BOUHE advised that subsequently he contacted two ladies in Dallas who were "his Russian friends" and they obtained some clothes for MARINA. He stated at the same time he had two shirts which were used but in good shape which he offered to LEE OSWALD, and OSWALD refused to accept them.

BOUHE stated that OSWALD was very arrogant when he refused to accept the shirts.

He stated regarding MARINA OSWALD that he considers her to be a product of the Soviet machine and that all initiative has been removed. He stated as an example, he along with two of the ladies tried to educate MARINA in minor things such as the use of Kleenex and cleanser in the house and she did not seem to grasp what they meant.

He stated also that he exerted considerable effort to teach MARINA OSWALD the English language and prepared simple tests such as teaching her to write and read that my husband goes to work. He stated after she had taken two or three lessons he sent her a fourth lesson which she never returned and never continued her effort to learn the English language.

BOUHE stated that in early September, 1962, OSWALD went to Dallas and attempted to obtain employment. He pointed out OSWALD stayed at the Y.M.C.A. in downtown Dallas for about a week and later moved to South Oak Cliff in Dallas. BOUHE stated he sent OSWALD to the Texas Employment Commission and after a few tries OSWALD obtained employment with Jaggars-Chiles-Stoval, Inc., as an apprentice printer. BOUHE stated two or three weeks after OSWALD obtained this employment, OSWALD telephonically contacted him every two or three days.

BOUHE stated that after about three weeks, OSWALD said something to the effect that don't worry, BOUHE, we've got everything under control and we will do all right.

BOUHE stated that from around the first of October, he did not see OSWALD again until December 27 or 28, 1962. He said OSWALD was at a party on one of these dates at which BOUHE was in attendance and they have had no contact or communication since that time.

...Y FERRIE ...
...FOUNDATION

BOUHE stated during the time that he was in contact with the OSWALDs, the following events occurred:

BOUHE stated during the first two or three weeks that he saw the OSWALDs, he noticed on different occasions that MARINA OSWALD would have a black eye or a spot on her which she indicated to some of their mutual friends were caused by her husband beating her. BOUHE stated that he overheard women talking and MARINA indicated that OSWALD had hit her for smoking.

He stated he recalled on one occasion that one of the ladies received a telephone call from MARINA OSWALD, while the OSWALDs were in South Oak Cliff, and MARINA was at a service station and advised she had been beaten by LEE OSWALD and had no place to go. BOUHE stated that the friend picked up MARINA and she stayed with this friend for three or four days. He stated that thereafter they arranged for MARINA OSWALD to stay five days or a week at a house of one of the friends and then move to a second house for a second week, and this was to be continued until MARINA could make some arrangements or obtain employment.

BOUHE stated this lasted only two weeks because the third week OSWALD appeared at the house where she was staying and apologized to MARINA and induced her to return with him to South Oak Cliff in Dallas.

BOUHE stated that during this time MARINA OSWALD was to clean the house and run the sweeper, but apparently she did not do any of this. He stated that instead she would sleep until midday and would not try to cooperate and help herself.

He stated that this was the last he heard of MARINA OSWALD until June, 1963, when LYDIA DIMYTRUK stated that she had seen MARINA OSWALD and MARINA was living somewhere in Irving, Texas. He pointed out DIMYTRUK was employed by Whites Grocery Store in Irving, Texas, but resides at 3542½ Kent Street in Fort Worth, Texas.

BOUHE pointed out that during the time OSWALD resided on Mercedes Street in Fort Worth, he (BOUHE) visited OSWALD's home he would say four times. BOUHE stated that he observed books written by KARL MARX and ENGLE, and OSWALD would point to these books and stated that "this is the book". BOUHE stated that he asked OSWALD why he did not return to Russia if he thought so much of these books and Russia, and OSWALD would not give him a direct answer.

BOUHE stated that OSWALD said he had gone to Russia because he was enthusiastic about their system of government and opposed the bloody capitalism.

BOUHE said in his opinion OSWALD wanted to "shine" and also felt when he talked he was giving out "pearls of wisdom". BOUHE stated that OSWALD made statements that Russia would be the leader in the world and that Russian courts were courts of justice while the courts in the United States were a shambles.

BOUHE stated that in his opinion when OSWALD arrived in Russia OSWALD felt he would be an individual sought in Russia and that the Russians had seen through OSWALD and placed him in a menial job. He stated that in other words he felt that OSWALD went to Russia feeling that they would use him as a speaker and for propaganda.

BOUHE continued that OSWALD kept making statements that the capitalist system exploited the people, but OSWALD never gave a solid answer to BOUHE as to why OSWALD returned to the United States.

BOUHE stated he recalled that there was one instance where OSWALD mentioned he returned to the United States because MARINA desired to come to the United States.

BOUHE advised that he had never observed LEE OSWALD with any type of weapon or gun.

He advised that the only recollection he has of OSWALD mentioning his service in the U. S. Marine Corps was on one occasion OSWALD made application for employment at Sangers Department Store in Dallas, Texas, and BOUHE helped OSWALD fill out the application. He stated the application had a space for military service and BOUHE asked OSWALD what about his discharge from the Marines. OSWALD said "put down honorable", and that is what BOUHE put on the application.

BOUHE advised that the only time OSWALD mentioned anything about any contact with any Government official was when he said the American Embassy in Russia had given him (OSWALD) money to return to the United States. He stated OSWALD had indicated he still owed for money he obtained from the Embassy.

BOUHE stated that he never heard OSWALD mention any other Government official or agency.

He stated that his primary reason for maintaining contact with OSWALD was the interest he had in helping MARINA OSWALD. He stated that in his opinion all of the people that were associated with the OSWALDs during the summer and fall of 1962 were more interested in helping MARINA OSWALD.

BOUHE stated that he felt strongly that OSWALD was a rebel, a misfit, no good for society, and very arrogant.

BOUHE stated that OSWALD seemed to be against everything and for nothing.

He stated that the following were associated with the OSWALDs, and in particular, MARINA OSWALD:

Mr. and Mrs. GEALANT FORD, Brookcrest, Dallas, Texas;

Mr. and Mrs. TEOFIL MELLER, 5930½ LaVista Drive, Dallas, Texas;

Mrs. JOHN (~~ELAINE~~ ELENA) HALL, Trail Lake Drive, Fort Worth, Texas.

HIRAM B. CONWAY, Division Manager, Leslie Welding Company-Louv-R-Pac Division, 200 E. North Vacek, with home office Leslie Welding Company, Inc., 11241 W. Melrose Street, Franklin Park, Illinois, furnished the following information:

A LEE OSWALD was employed for this company by TOMMY BARGAS, Shop Foreman. CONWAY said he knew OSWALD as an employee only and only talked to him on a few occasions which conversation would have been concerning his work in the shop. CONWAY said he does recall that OSWALD never talked unless he was asked a direct question.

CONWAY said he knew absolutely nothing concerning OSWALD's background or his life outside of the plant other than what appeared on his employment application. CONWAY said he actually did not know OSWALD well.

CONWAY said further he closed the plant on November 22, 1963, at about 3:00 p.m. due to the assassination of President KENNEDY. However, CONWAY said he remained at the office and that at about 3:30 p.m., ELLIOT BARGAS telephoned him at the office saying he had been watching television at home and believed the person arrested by the Dallas Police Department in Dallas, Texas, had formerly been employed by the company. CONWAY said upon reaching his home and observing television that he saw a picture of LEE OSWALD on television as the person being arrested in Dallas and this was the same person who was formerly employed by this company. CONWAY said he could again identify OSWALD in the event it should be necessary.

Mr. CONWAY made available for review the personnel file for LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Contained in the file was an application for OSWALD dated July 13, 1962, with address 1501 7th Street, telephone No. PE 2-3245. OSWALD indicated that he had Social Security Number 433-54-3937, a citizen, born in New Orleans, Louisiana. He was a male, weighing 150 pounds, 5'9", married, and had one child, age five months. He listed as other dependents his wife. The file reflected that he was applying for sheet metal work having had two and one half years experience; that he was employed by this company through Texas State Employment Commission, and he had no relatives working for this company. Under the item Military Service Records, he indicated he had service in the Armed Forces from 1956 to 1962. The branch of the service was the U. S. Marine Corps and his duties were that of sheet metal worker and machinist. His rank was that of private at time of enlistment and rating at time of discharge was sergeant. He was honorably discharged from the Armed Forces with no disability.

Under the item Education, he indicated that for the period 1950 through 1953 he attended school at Ridglea West, Fort Worth, Texas, taking a general course and from 1953 to 1956 he attended the Jackson School in New Orleans taking a general course.

Under the item Experience, he listed active duty with the U. S. Marine Corps as a machinist and sheet metal worker.

Under the item references, the following were listed:

PETER P. GREGORY, Consultant, Oil Engineering, Continental Life Building Ft. Worth Texas;

ROBERT OSWALD, Junior Executive, Acme Brick Company

The aforementioned application for the most part is handprinted and in pencil.

CONWAY advised he received an undated letter directed to Leslie's Welding Company, from OSWALD asking that his last paycheck for the period October 1 - 8 be forwarded to LEE H. OSWALD, P. O. Box 2915, Dallas, Texas.

Photostat of Internal Revenue Form W-4 in file reflected LEE HARVEY OSWALD, 1501 W. 7th Street, Fort Worth, Texas, Social Security Number 435-54-3937, with three dependents, dated July 17, 1962, and signed by OSWALD. The personnel records further reflected that OSWALD was employed July 17, 1962, at an hourly rate of $1.25. He had Social Security Number 433-54-3937, three dependents, and resided at 1501 W. 7th Street, Fort Worth, Texas. His job was that of sheet metal helper until he terminated approximately October 8, 1962.

Inquiry was made of Mr. CONWAY regarding the Social Security numbers for OSWALD, 433-54-3937 and 435-54-3937. He stated that one is wrong due to a possible typographical error and he assumes that the Social Security Number appearing on OSWALD's Form W-4 which is 435-54-3937 is correct.

Mr. CONWAY made available the aforementioned application for employment and handwritten letter to the company from OSWALD.

TOMMY (no middle name) BARGAS, Shop Foreman for Leslie Welding Company-Louv-R-Pac Division, 200 E North Vacek Street, advised that the home office for this company is Leslie Welding Company, Inc., 11241 West Melrose Street, Franklin Park, Illinois. BARGAS advised further that his home residence is 301 E. Drew Street, Fort Worth, Texas.

Mr. BARGAS furnished the following information:

A LEE OSWALD was employed by him, BARGAS, as a sheet metal helper on about July 17, 1962. BARGAS advised that he cannot recall if OSWALD was employed through an employment agency or if this person just appeared at the plant seeking employment.

Mr. BARGAS stated that OSWALD during his period of employment with his company carried out his work assignments and that he, BARGAS, considered OSWALD to be a good employee and one who always did his work as he was told to do.

BARGAS stated that OSWALD was a very uncommunicative type of individual and the type of person who kept strictly to himself. He said that OSWALD never talked to him or any of the other employees and that at no time did this person ever volunteer any type of information concerning himself or his background. BARGAS said further that OSWALD would "clam up" any time any person would ask him a question. In fact, BARGAS said that OSWALD did not associate with any of the employees; kept strictly to himself even to the extent of eating his lunch alone, away from the other employees in the plant.

BARGAS said that he knew OSWALD was married only because he noticed this fact on OSWALD's employment application.

BARGAS stated the only time OSWALD ever talked to him other than to ask questions concerning the work involved was that OSWALD would on occasions ask him how he was doing with his work.

BARGAS said he knows of no person employed at this plant with whom OSWALD associated during the period of his employment.

plant which was about October 8, 1962, that he recalls that OSWALD did not appear for work one day. BARGAS said he thought at the time OSWALD was probably ill and did not try to contact him. He said that in about three days the company received a letter from OSWALD advising the company to forward his last week's pay check to a Dallas address stating he had moved to Dallas.

BARGAS said he has not seen or heard from OSWALD since that time.

However, BARGAS said this plant was shut down about 3:00 p.m. on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, because of the death of JOHN KENNEDY. BARGAS said he went to his home and shortly after arriving home received a telephone call from his brother, ELLIOT BARGAS, who is also employed by this company, to the effect that he had just seen on television a person named OSWALD who had been arrested by the Dallas Police Department and felt sure this was the same person who was formerly employed at this company. BARGAS said he then turned on his own television set and observed a picture of OSWALD, a former employee of this company, who had been arrested by the Dallas Police Department.

BARGAS said he could definitely again identify LEE OSWALD in the event it should be necessary.

Mr. PETER PAUL GREGORY, 3513 Dorothy Lane, Consulting Engineer, Continental National Life Insurance Building, furnished the following information:

GREGORY was born in Russia, has lived in the United States for approximately 45 years, and is a naturalized citizen. He has been teaching Russian at the Fort Worth City Library for many years. During the latter part of May, 1962, he received a telephone call from a man by the name of OSWALD. OSWALD told him that he had obtained GREGORY's name from some person at the Fort Worth Public Library. OSWALD stated that he spoke and translated Russian and was interested in getting a part-time job as a translator in order to make some money. GREGORY told him that he would have to talk to him and acquire some knowledge of OSWALD's Russian before he could recommend him as a translator.

A few days later, OSWALD came by the office of GREGORY and talked to him. GREGORY gave him a book in Russian, and OSWALD translated it into English without any trouble. He stated that OSWALD had very good command of the Russian language. He told OSWALD that he would qualify as a translator; and in the event he heard of anyone needing his services, he would get in touch with him.

At that time, OSWALD was living with his brother in West Ridgelea. Sometime during the early part of June, 1962, GREGORY and his son, PAUL GREGORY, went to the home of OSWALD in West Ridgelea to talk to OSWALD and his wife about PAUL GREGORY's taking lessons in Russian from Mrs. OSWALD. PAUL GREGORY had been studying Russian, but he desired to become a better translator and speaker of the Russian language. They visited with OSWALD and his wife a short time, and Mrs. OSWALD agreed to teach Russian to PAUL GREGORY. PAUL GREGORY took lessons from Mrs. OSWALD about twice a week during the three months of the summer of 1962. On one occasion, Mr. GREGORY took his son to the home of OSWALD for this lesson. At that time, they were living in a small duplex apartment near Montgomery Ward Store in Fort Worth. GREGORY talked to OSWALD and his wife a short time on this visit and inquired as to the living conditions and everyday life in the Soviet Union. Mrs. OSWALD told him that she was born in St. Petersburg and that her parents had died when she was a very small child and her uncle and aunt had reared her in Russia. She also said she had one sister still living in Russia. GREGORY did not discuss any politics or form of government with either Mr. or Mrs. OSWALD.

During the latter part of August or around the first of September, 1962, Mr. GREGORY and his wife decided to have a small dinner for the OSWALDS so that they could meet some other Russians from Fort Worth and Dallas. They invited OSWALD and his wife, as well as Mrs. ANNA KELLER, 5930½ La Vista in Dallas. He also invited Mr. GEORGE BOUHE from Dallas. During this visit, they never discussed politics or any form of government but talked more about living conditions in the Soviet Union. GREGORY related that he did not see or talk to the OSWALDS any more after this dinner at his home in 1962. He heard from mutual friends in Dallas that the OSWALDS had moved to Dallas and that they had had some domestic trouble and also that several of the Russian people in Dallas had tried to help Mr. and Mrs. OSWALD, but they were not too successful in this venture.

GREGORY stated that on Saturday, November 23, 1963, about 4:00 a.m., Secret Service agents came to his home and questioned him about LEE OSWALD and his wife. On the same date at about 4:00 p.m., Secret Service agents came back to his home and asked him if he would go to Dallas and assist them in interviewing OSWALD and his wife. They asked him to be the interpreter, and he stated he would be glad to assist in any way possible. He left his home with Secret Service agents and went to the Dallas Police Department, where he met Mr. FORREST SORRELS, who is in charge of the Secret Service Office in Dallas. He sat around the Dallas Police Department for about an hour but never interviewed OSWALD. At that time, the Secret Service agents took him to the Adolphus Hotel, where Mrs. OSWALD and the mother were supposed to be staying. They asked him to be the interpreter in an interview with Mrs. LEE OSWALD. Dallas Texas

After arriving at the Adolphus Hotel and waiting around a considerable length of time, the Secret Service agents told him that some persons from Life Magazine had picked up

Mrs.OSWALD, the wife, as well as the mother and two children and had taken them away from the Adolphus Hotel. He stated at that time the Secret Service agents brought him back to Fort Worth, Texas.

On Sunday, November 24, 1963, around 7:00 or 7:30 a.m., he received a call at his home from some unknown person. This woman talked rather excitedly and stated she needed some help. She said she was in Dallas and that she knew him from Fort Worth. GREGORY finally asked her if she was Mrs. OSWALD, the mother of LEE OSWALD. She told him that was correct but not to use her name over the phone. The mother stated that she needed some help over in Dallas and that she wanted to get away and she did not know anyone to call other than Mr. GREGORY. GREGORY told her he would see what he could do, but he did not know exactly how he could help her.

Around 8:00 or 8:30 a.m., this Sunday morning, GREGORY called Mr. MIKE HOWARD and told him about the phone call he had received from the mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. HOWARD said he would come by and pick up GREGORY and see what they could do. HOWARD did pick up GREGORY, and they drove to the Howard Johnson Restaurant on the Fort Worth-Dallas Turnpike where they met ROBERT OSWALD, brother of LEE OSWALD. ROBERT was in another car with some Secret Service agents. At that time, both cars drove to the Executive Inn, Dallas. ROBERT OSWALD and GREGORY went to the room of Mrs. OSWALD, where they found the mother, wife of OSWALD, and the two children. He and ROBERT OSWALD told them to pack their things as they were leaving. The mother told ROBERT OSWALD that she had $50.00 that Life Magazine had given her to pay their bill. The brother made the remark, "I do not want any of that money. I will pay the bill myself." GREGORY and ROBERT OSWALD did pay the bill at the office.

The mother, wife, and the two children then left in the two cars and started back toward Fort Worth. After a short distance, Mrs. OSWALD, the mother, said they needed some diapers and other things for the children and they had to go by Mrs. PAINE's house in Irving. The Secret Service men as well as everyone else told Mrs. OSWALD that that would be very bad as a lot of people were around that house and they told her they would not go back to the home in Irving. The mother insisted, stating she was an American citizen, that she had certain rights and, "I demand under my rights to go by that house and pick up some clothes for the baby." The Secret Service agents then contacted the Irving Police Department over the radio. They were advised by the Irving Police Department not to go to the house in Irving. The Chief of Police said they could drop by his house and all of them proceeded to the home of the Chief of Police, where they stayed a short time waiting to pick up these clothes. During this time, Mr. HOWARD learned of the shooting of LEE OSWALD. He told MARINA OSWALD and the mother that LEE OSWALD had been shot, but he did not know the extent of his injuries. While they were waiting to get these clothes, they learned that OSWALD had died at Parkland Hospital. The mother then said that she wanted to see the body of her son. The Secret Service men said they could not go to the hospital. They told her that would be very unwise as a lot of people were around that hospital and that would place their lives in danger as well as the lives of the children. The mother again argued with the Secret Service agents as well as with GREGORY and stated that she was an American citizen and she had a right to see her son and that under her rights she was going to see her son. The authorities argued with Mrs. OSWALD and the wife but to no avail. They then drove to Parkland Hospital, where the mother and the wife did see the body of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. The brother, ROBERT OSWALD, arrived a little later, but he never was able to see the body of his brother.

They left Parkland Hospital and then drove to a place out in the country not too far from Fort Worth, Texas. GREGORY stated he had been asked not to divulge this location to anyone and he would prefer the FBI obtain this information from the Secret Service.

He remained at this location with Secret Service agents and acted as an interpreter all during the time that the Secret Service agents interviewed Mrs. MARINA OSWALD.

GREGORY believed that Mrs. MARINA OSWALD was telling everything that she knew; and as a result of this interview, he, in his own opinion, did not believe that MARINA OSWALD knew anything about the outside activities of her husband and did not know anything about this assassination other than what she had told the Secret Service.

According to Mrs. GREGORY, her husband gave OSWALD a test and told him that he was capable of translating the Russian language but there was really no demand for it in Fort Worth, Texas.

Mrs. GREGORY stated subsequent to this meeting they invited OSWALD and his wife to a dinner at GREGORY's home and also invited was GEORGE BOUHE of Dallas, Texas. She stated that this was the only contact that she had in her home with OSWALD.

She stated when they learned that OSWALD's wife spoke the Russian language, their son, PAUL GREGORY, took Russian lessons from MARINA OSWALD during the summer of 1962. She stated PAUL visited in the OSWALD home when he lived near Montgomery Ward Company in Fort Worth, Texas, during the summer of 1962 on several occasions while he was taking lessons in Russian.

She stated that she had heard of OSWALD through GEORGE BOUHE around Thanksgiving of 1962 and there was some talk of OSWALD having beaten his wife. She stated she could recall no details of what the conversation was regarding OSWALD.

She stated that after OSWALD contacted her husband, she learned that OSWALD had been to Russia and told her husband that he should not have anything to do with OSWALD. She stated after she made this statement, she reconsidered and felt that she may be hypocritical and thereafter/when her son took lessons from MARINA OSWALD.

Mrs. CRANER stated that Mrs. MARGARITE OSWALD rented a two-room apartment from her, located at the rear of this address, during the summer of 1959, exact dates not recalled. However, she said that Mrs. OSWALD was in the apartment for about two to three months.

Ft Worth Texas

Mrs. CRANER said that at one time during the peribd Mrs. OSWALD was in the apartment, that she recalls this person telling her that her son, a LEE OSWALD, had just arrived in town after being discharged from the Marine Corps and asked Mrs. CRANER if it would be possible for her son to stay a few days in the apartment with her. Mrs. CRANER said that she had a roll-away bed placed in Mrs. OSWALD's apartment for the son. Mrs. CRANER said Mrs. OSWALD told her at that time that she would like for her to meet her son, as he was only going to be in town for a few days.

Mrs. CRANER stated that she never did meet the son, and in about a week after placing the roll-away bed in the apartment, Mrs. OSWALD told her that her son had already left and had gone to New Orleans, Louisiana. Mrs. CRANER said Mrs. OSWALD did not give any reason for her son going to New Orleans.

Mrs. CRANER said further that during the period of time Mrs. OSWALD lived at this apartment, that she was unemployed; however, she always paid her rent. She was involved in some type of compensation suit concerning an injury she had received while employed at a candy company.

Mrs. CRANER said further that the only contact she has had with Mrs. OSWALD since Mrs. OSWALD moved from this apartment was one day after the news of her son going to Russia, Mrs. OSWALD called and asked if she had any mail at this address.

Dr. J. T. SALDIVAR was interviewed at his offices located at 3300 Cole, Dallas, Texas. Dr. SALDIVAR stated that in addition to his own private practice, he spent some portion of his time helping the Public Health Department of the City of Dallas in operating clinics principally in connection with the immunization of children.

Dr. SALDIVAR was asked if he had occasion to see a Mrs. LEE OSWALD of Irving, Texas, who was described to him as a Russian national who did not speak English and would undoubtedly have been accompanied by some other woman to translate for her. Dr. SALDIVAR advised that he had seen the children of Mrs. OSWALD on at least two occasions, with the last time being not more than a month ago. He said he had no contact to speak of with Mrs. OSWALD in that he was principally concerned with the innoculation of her children.

He did state that one of the youngsters had a slight tumor on one wrist which seemed to be enlarging and he had referred the child to the Freeman Memorial Clinic for further treatment. He also said he had told Mrs. OSWALD that if her husband earned over a certain sum of money, she would have to see a private physician.

In connection with his contacts with Mrs. OSWALD, Dr. SALDIVAR pointed out that the nurse assigned to the clinic by the Public Health Department of the City of Dallas would be the individual having the principal contact. He said the nurses would take the child's case history from the mother and make all the preliminary examinations. Following this contact with the nurse, the doctor said that he would then examine the child and check on the findings of the nurse.

In view of the foregoing, Dr. SALDIVAR stated that he had not had any occasion to hold any conversations whatsoever with Mrs. OSWALD. He said that in discussing her children's health problems with her, he found it extremely difficult to get her to understand him, even with the aid of a translator. He said she definitely never spoke English in his presence.

Mrs. RUTH PAINE, 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, phone BLackburn 3-1628, was interviewed at the Dallas Police Department and advised that she first met LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his wife MARINA OSWALD during the early part of 1963 at a party. Inasmuch as she is interested in the Russian language, and is a teacher of said language at the St. Mark's School, she became friendly with the OSWALDS. About May, 1963, she brought MARINA OSWALD to Irving, Texas, from New Orleans, Louisiana, for the purpose of living with her while MARINA gave birth to a child. PAINE stated that she has never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD with a rifle and did not know that he had one in her garage at 2515 West Fifth. She stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD is employed at the Texas School Book Depository and usually visits his wife at her residence over the weekends on which occasion he rides from work with WESLEY FRAZIER and FRAZIER thereafter takes him back to work on Monday morning. PAINE stated that on the night of November 21, 1963, OSWALD made no mention to her of curtain rods and she definitely had no plans to give him any.

She added that on November 22, 1963, OSWALD did not return back to 2515 West Fifth Street anytime during the day since leaving there early that morning.

B. Apr. 1944

BUELL WESLEY FRAZIER, white male, age 19, residence 2435 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, was interviewed concerning his association with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. FRAZIER advised he is presently employed at the Texas School Book Depository located at the corner of Elm and Houston Streets in Dallas and has been so employed there since September 13, 1963. He advised he resides at the residence of his sister, ~~LENNIE~~ MAE RANDLE at 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas. In regard to his association and meeting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he advised as follows:

Approximately one month ago as he surmised, his sister was having coffee with RUTH PAINE and OSWALD's wife at his sister's house in Grand Prairie. At that time his sister mentioned that he, FRAZIER, was employed at the Texas School Book Depository and RUTH PAINE made inquiries as to possible employment for LEE HARVEY OSWALD. As he understood, about that same day, PAINE called the Texas School Book Depository to see about obtaining a job for LEE OSWALD which he believed to be on a Friday and the following Monday, OSWALD started work at the Texas School Book Depository. He advised he had ascertained over the weekend from his sister, ~~LENNIE~~ MAE RANDLE, that OSWALD had obtained employment. Subsequently, the following Monday morning, when he got to work, he introduced himself to LEE OSWALD at which time OSWALD told FRAZIER he had an apartment in the Oak Cliff section of Dallas. At that time they discussed OSWALD riding in FRAZIER's vehicle at which time OSWALD told FRAZIER he would like to ride home with him on Friday evenings to Irving and return to work with him in Dallas on Monday mornings. FRAZIER agreed with this arrangement and subsequently drove OSWALD on the weekends from his place of employment to his wife's residence in Irving, and returned him to work on Monday mornings.

He advised during the day of November 21, 1963, OSWALD had approached him at work and requested that he be able to ride with FRAZIER to Irving as he wanted to obtain some curtain rods for his residence, in Dallas.

FRAZIER was agreeable to this and on Thursday afternoon, he drove OSWALD to the residence of his wife in Irving and did not see him again that evening. On the morning of November 22, 1963, FRAZIER got up to go to work between 6:00 and 6:30 AM, and while having breakfast at approximately 7:15 AM, LEE OSWALD appeared at the kitchen window, at which time the mother of FRAZIER, Mrs. ESSIE MAE WILLIAMS, his nieces PATRICIA ANN RANDLE and DIANNE LYNN RANDLE, were having breakfast. His mother inquired as to who that was at the window, to which FRAZIER recalled "that's LEE". He thereupon got up from the breakfast table, brushed his teeth, obtained his lunch and left the house to get into his car. He advised his car was parked on the grass adjacent to the carport and he got in the driver's side and OSWALD got in the front seat on the passenger side. As he got into the vehicle, he glanced at the rear seat behind OSWALD at which time he saw what appeared to him to be bulky brown paper sack sitting on the back seat which he described as the kind of sacks that one obtains in a 5 and 10¢ store. After glancing at the sack, he inquired of OSWALD as to what was in the sack, to which OSWALD replied, "curtain rods". Thereupon, FRAZIER backed his car out of the driveway and proceeded en route to the Texas School Book Depository, driving down Fifth to Sixth in Irving, then via O'Conner to Stemmons Freeway to Main Street in Dallas, from Main Street to Record, then to McKinney Street, where they parked approximately three blocks from the Texas School Book Depository.

All Irving Texas

FRAZIER said he glanced at his wristwatch when they arrived at the parking lot and noticed they had five minutes to get to work, stating this would have been at 7:55 AM, November 22, 1963. He said he sat in the car for a second or two, to race the engine so as to keep the battery charged and at that time OSWALD got out of the front seat of the vehicle which FRAZIER stated is a 1954 Chevrolet, 4 door, and opened the rear door behind the passenger seat and obtained the brown package which was sitting on the seat. Thereupon, FRAZIER got out of the car at which point OSWALD walked around the rear of the car, being approximately 10 feet in front of him. OSWALD was carrying this package in a straight up position under his right arm and appeared to be holding the end of whatever was in the package and proceeded then to the Texas School Book Depository. FRAZIER stated he would estimate the length of the package under OSWALD's arm as approximately 2 feet in length, however, he paid very little attention to the package. FRAZIER stated as they started toward the Texas School Book Depository, OSWALD began walking faster than FRAZIER and by the time they reached the back door, near the loading dock on Houston Street, OSWALD was approximately 50 feet in front of him. After arriving at work, FRAZIER did not see OSWALD for approximately 20 or 30 minutes, and during the course of the morning, saw him on two or three occasions in various parts of the building and judged that the last time that he saw OSWALD was at approximately 11:00 AM, on the first floor of the Texas School Book Depository. FRAZIER did not observe OSWALD carrying a lunch into the Texas School Book Depository and said that if OSWALD had not brought his lunch, he would probably have obtained it from the catering service which brings a lunch wagon into the Texas School Book Depository during the morning. At approximately 12 Noon, during his lunch hour, which lasts from 12 Noon to 12:45 PM, FRAZIER was standing on the front steps of the Texas State Depository, with Mr. BILL SHELLY, Supervisor, facing down Houston Street to observe the presidential caravan that would be coming within close proximity of the Texas School Book Depository. He said after the President was out of sight, he heard three shots which he thought came from the area of the railroad overpass which goes over the foot of Elm Street and shortly thereafter, someone who works in the Texas School Book Depository, said someone has shot Mr. KENNEDY. Shortly thereafter, he went back into the Texas School Book Depository where he had his lunch and later in the afternoon the employees were dismissed.

FRAZIER advised during his association with OSWALD he was not very talkative and was regarded by people at the Texas School Book Depository as very strange. He advised OSWALD had no close friends at the Texas School Book Depository and although he knew very little about OSWALD and had not talked very much with him, he was probably his only friend there, if you could call him a friend.

During previous conversation with FRAZIER he had indicated to FRAZIER that he did not know how to drive a car and FRAZIER thought it was very strange when he inquired of him as to how to work a clutch on the automobile, inasmuch as he, FRAZIER, felt that everyone knew what a clutch on an automobile was. He stated that OSWALD spoke in a very light speaking voice, somewhat girlish, and when asked whether OSWALD had ever made any homosexual advances toward him, FRAZIER stated he had not.

FRAZIER stated he had never known OSWALD to talk about guns although he, FRAZIER, stated that he had recently bought a .303 caliber gun for deer hunting.

FRAZIER emphatically stated he did not know what was in the sack in the back seat of his vehicle on the morning of November 22, 1963, and denied any knowledge regarding the death of the President.

He stated that OSWALD is also employed at the Texas School Book Depository.

On the night of November 21, 1963, she observed FRAZIER letting LEE HARVEY OSWALD out of FRAZIER's car at 2515 West Fifth. Subsequently, she asked FRAZIER why OSWALD was visiting his wife on Thursday evening, as he usually did not visit her until Friday evening of each week. FRAZIER told her that OSWALD claimed he was visiting his wife the night of November 21, 1963, because he is fixing up his apartment and RUTH PAINE, with whom his wife resides at 2515 West Fifth, Irving, was going to give him some curtain rods.

RANDLE stated that about 7:15 a.m., November 22, 1963, she looked out of a window of her residence and observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD walking up her driveway and saw him put a long brown package, approximately 3 feet by 6 inches, in the back seat area of WESLEY FRAZIER's 1954 black Chevrolet four door automobile. Thereafter, she observed OSWALD walk to the front, or entrance area, of her residence where he waited for FRAZIER to come out of the house and give him a ride to work.

RANDLE stated while at the Dallas Police Department on the evening of November 22, 1963, officers of the Dallas Police Department had exhibited to her some brown package paper, however she had not been able to positively identify it as being identical with the above-mentioned brown package, due to the fact she had only observed the brown package from her residence window at a distance.

OUNDATION

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1 Date 11/23/63

Mr. ROY S. TRULY, Warehouse Superintendent, Texas School Book Depository Building, Elm and Houston Street, Dallas, furnished the following information:

LEE HARVEY OSWALD is an employee of that company and has been so employed for approximately two months as an order filler and in the course of his occupation has access to the seven floors of the Texas School Book Depository building.

He has never seen OSWALD with a gun or rifle of any kind.

On November 22, 1963, OSWALD appeared for work as usual on the morning of this date and went about his occupation of filling orders for school books. A few minutes after 12 noon, he, TRULY, and most of the other employees of the Texas School Book Depository and the other concerns having offices in this building, went out on the street or sidewalk in front of the building in order to watch the President's procession pass in front of the building. Shortly after 12:30 p.m., as the President's procession did pass in front of the building, he heard what he believes to be three shots. He was unable to place exactly the source of these shots but believed they came from the area of the railroad yards adjoining the depository building. He then noticed a Dallas City Police officer wearing a motorcycle helmet and boots running toward the entrance of the depository building and he accompanied the officer into the front of the building. They saw no one there and he accompanied the officer immediately up the stairs to the second floor of the building, where the officer noticed a door and stepped through the door, gun in hand, and observed OSWALD in a snack bar there, apparently alone. This snack bar has no windows or doors, facing the outside of the building, but is located almost in the center of the building. The officer pointed to OSWALD and asked if OSWALD was an employee of the company and he, TRULY, assured the officer that OSWALD was an employee. He and the officer then proceeded onto the roof of the building, where the officer conducted a thorough search but found nothing. They then searched the 7th floor of the building and by this time many officers were swarming through the building, and he returned to the first floor of the building. The time that he and the officer saw OSWALD in the shack bar could not have been more than two or three minutes after the shooting of President KENNEDY and they saw no one else in the building at that time. He has not seen OSWALD since that time, and shortly after, he, TRULY, had returned to the first floor of the building, he at the request of other Dallas police officers started checking on the company employees and found all of them to be present except OSWALD, who could not be located.

Mr. TRULY advised that it is possible OSWALD did see him with a rifle in his hands within the past few days, as a Mr. WARREN CASTER, employed by Southwestern Publishing Co., which company has an office in the same building, had come to his office with two rifles, one a .22 rifle which CASTER said he had purchased for his son and the other a larger more high powered rifle which CASTER said he had purchased with which to go deer hunting, if he got a chance. He, TRULY, examined the high powered rifle and raised it to his shoulder and sited over it, then returned it to CASTER, and CASTER left with both rifles.

Mr. TRULY stated he does not own a rifle and has had no other rifle in his hands or in his possession in a long period of time.

Mr. TRULY stated that OSWALD has been riding to and from work with WESLEY FRAZIER, who resides in Irving at an address unknown to him but whose telephone number is BL 3-8965.

Mr. TRULY stated that he would estimate that there are approximately 65 people legitimately employed in the Texas School Book Depository Building by the various companies operating there.

ROY S. TRULY, 4932 Jade Drive, Dallas, Texas, Superintendent, Texas School Book Depository, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, was interviewed in the presence of J. R. LEAVELLE, Detective, Homicide Bureau, Dallas Police Department, at which time he furnished the following information:

He was working in the capacity of superintendent of the above agency on Friday, November 22, 1963. About 19 employees work in the plant itself in the Shipping and Order Department under his supervision. LEE HARVEY OSWALD was one of these individuals. TRULY felt quite sure he saw OSWALD at work during the morning hours of November 22, 1963. TRULY originally hired OSWALD as a temporary employee and although the busy season for this business was just past, he had not been contemplating any layoff of OSWALD at this time. He works a lot of extra employees during the summer and early fall each year and OSWALD was one of these extras.

On November 22, 1963, he, in company with Mr. O. V. CAMPBELL, one of the Vice Presidents of the Texas School Book Depository, started to lunch from their place of business at 411 Elm Street, a few minutes past 12 noon. They noted a parade had started, wherein President JOHN KENNEDY was scheduled to ride, and they stopped to watch it. He saw the President go by and at about that time heard three explosions.

The crowd of people in the area began to surge back toward the building at 411 Elm Street and he realized that what he had heard must have been shots. He moved toward the building and thought at first the shots came from behind the building. He saw a police officer in uniform approaching the building and realized he probably knew nothing of the building and, therefore, TRULY ran into the building with him. They stopped at the freight elevators and, observing that these elevators were not on the first floor, they ran up the stairway after he showed the officer where the stairway was. As they reached the second floor landing, the officer opened a door to a small lunch room next to the business office on that floor, and stuck his gun in the door. LEE OSWALD was in the lunch room. The officer asked him if he was an employee, to which OSWALD replied that he was. TRULY and the officer gave this no further consideration, inasmuch as OSWALD was an employee, and they ran up to the fifth floor of the building. TRULY saw an elevator and he and the officer jumped onto the elevator and rode to the seventh floor. Then they proceeded up a short stairway and out onto the roof of the building. They searched the roof area thoroughly and found no one. They stood a moment looking down onto the crowd below, in the vicinity of the building, and also looked out over the railroad tracks that pass nearby.

When TRULY and the officer came back down to the lower floors of the building, other officers were looking around on the floors below. He recalled one officer on the fourth floor, and possibly an officer on the fifth floor. By that time there were a lot of people inside the building milling around. Probably some of them were not employees who worked in the building.

Mrs. REED, or READ, an employee working under TRULY, advised TRULY that OSWALD had come through an office area where she was with a "Coke" or "Dr. Pepper" in his hand. She said she remarked to him, OSWALD, something to the effect that it was an awful thing that had happened out there, referring to the incident on the street outside the building, and OSWALD mumbled something in reply. TRULY tried to account for the employees under his supervision about 15 minutes after this and OSWALD was missing. He advised Chief LUMPKIN and shortly thereafter Captain FRITZ, both of the Dallas Police Department, of this. He did not see OSWALD any more after that until time of this interview.

TRULY had no information of any affiliation with organizations on the part of OSWALD. He stated that initially he first heard of OSWALD on about October 14, 1963, when a lady from Irving, Texas, whose name he cannot recall, telephonically advised him that her neighbor's brother was working for TRULY and had stated that TRULY's agency needed some more help; that LEE OSWALD might be suitable for such employment, and that he had a baby and his wife expected another. TRULY believed this neighbor's brother was possibly WESLEY FRAZIER, an employee of Texas School Book Depository, and TRULY talked to him.

FOUNDATION

He saw nothing objectionable about him and told him he had some extra work to be performed. TRULY does not run a thorough check on temporary employees, but has them fill out an application for him. In this form, OSWALD listed three or three and a half years in the U. S. Marines, with an honorable discharge. TRULY felt that if OSWALD was in the U. S. Marines for that long a time and was not long out of the service, this was a good recommendation for him, and therefore he hired him.

CHARLES DOUGLAS GIVENS, 2511 Cochran Street, advised he was employed by the Texas School Book Depository, Houston and Elm Street, from October 1, 1963, to present time. GIVENS said he has worked at this same position as a wrapper on several occasions prior to this employment.

On November 22, 1963, GIVENS worked on the sixth floor of the building until about 11:30 A.M. when he used the elevator to travel to the first floor where he used the restroom at about 11:35 A.M. or 11:40 A.M. GIVENS then walked around on the first floor until 12 o'clock noon, at which time he walked onto the sidewalk and stood for several minutes, then walked to the Classified Parking Lot at Elm and Records Street. GIVENS then walked to Main Street to watch the parade and after the President and the group had passed, he walked back to the parking lot, at which time he heard several shots fired from the direction of the building at which he is employed. He attempted to return to work but was told that he had been released for the balance of the day.

GIVENS advised that a white male, known as LEE, (LHO) was employed in the same building and worked as a wrapper or order filler. He said he saw this same person's picture on television on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, who was supposed to have been the person being investigated for the shooting of the President. LEE worked on all floors of the building, and on November 22, 1963, GIVENS recalls observing LEE working on the fifth floor during the morning filling orders. LEE was standing by the elevator in the building at 11:30 A.M. when GIVENS went to the first floor. When he started down in the elevator, LEE yelled at him to close the gates on the elevator so that he (LEE) could have the elevator returned to the sixth floor. GIVENS said that during the past few days LEE had commented that he rode to work with a boy named WESLEY.

GIVENS said all employees enter the back door of the building when JACK DOUGHERTY, the foreman opens the door at about 7 A.M. On the morning of November 22, 1963, GIVENS observed LEE reading a newspaper in the domino room where the employees eat lunch about 11:50 A.M.

BONNIE RAY WILLIAMS, residence 1502 Avenue B, Apartment B, employed at the Texas School Book Depository, furnished the following information:

Dallas Texas

During the past three weeks he has been putting in new flooring in the Texas School Book Depository Building at the corner of Houston and Elm Streets. During that time, he became acquainted with a young man known to him as LEE.

WILLIAMS stated on November 22, 1963, he worked installing flooring on the sixth floor of the building until about 11:30 a.m. At that time, he went down on an elevator from the sixth floor to the first floor. At the same time, CHARLES GIVENS was on the other elevator, descending at the same time. As they were going down, he saw LEE on the fifth floor. He had previously seen LEE at least once that morning at about 8 a.m. on the first floor, filling orders.

Dallas Texas

At approximately 12 noon, WILLIAMS went back upstairs in the elevator to the sixth floor with his lunch. He stayed on that floor only about three minutes, and seeing no one there, descended to the fifth floor, using the stairs at the west end of the building. There he joined two other men known to him as HANK and JUNIOR. They were looking out windows on the south side of the building approximately at the middle of the building and saw the car of President JOHN KENNEDY come north on Houston Street and then make a turn going west on Elm Street down into the triple underpass and passing directly in front of the Texas School Book Depository. While they were watching this car pass, WILLIAMS heard two shots which sounded like they came from right over his head. He stated he was not hanging out the window, but did glance up and saw no one. He stated he and the other two then ran to the west end of the building where they looked out and they did not realize that the President had been shot and WILLIAMS did not see him shot. While they were standing at the west end of the building on the fifth floor, a police officer came up on the elevator and looked all around the fifth floor and left the floor. WILLIAMS stated he and HANK and JUNIOR were standing where they would have seen anyone coming down from the sixth floor via the stairs and that they did not see anyone coming down. He stated someone might have been coming down on the elevator and they would not have noticed that. He stated that after the police officer left the fifth floor, WILLIAMS went down to the fourth floor where there were a lot of women around the west end of the floor. BILL SHELLEY asked about LEE, but no one had seen him.

WILLIAMS stated that while working on the sixth floor until 11:30 a.m. on November 22, 1963, he did not see LEE or anyone else in the southeast corner of the building. He stated there are a number of shelves stacked with books in this area and he would have been unable to see this corner from where he was working. He pointed out, however, that he did go to the windows on the south side of the sixth floor, middle of the building, about three minutes after 12, and did not see anyone standing at any of the windows at that time.

WILLIAMS stated that LEE was always reading the newspapers, but that he did not read the sport pages like many men do, but read "politics." He stated LEE would read something in the paper and then laugh about it. On one occasion he looked at the paper LEE was reading when he laughed and noticed LEE was reading something from the front page of the newspaper.

WILLIAMS advised that LEE did not seem to have any close friends or associate with anyone else on the job. He recalled that LEE at one time rode to work with a boy named WESLEY who works in the Depository. He last saw WESLEY between 10 and 11 a.m. on November 22, 1963, on the sixth floor of the Depository, talking to Mr. SHELLEY.

WILLIAMS stated he had seen numerous pictures of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television and that OSWALD was identical with LEE referred to above.

BILLY NOLAN LOVELADY, Apartment C, 7722 Hume Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that he has been employed by the Texas School Book Depository, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, since December 16, 1961, as a stockman.

On November 22, 1963, LOVELADY and his foreman, BILL ~~SHELLY~~ SHELLEY, were standing on the front doorstep at 411 Elm Street at about 12:30 P.M. watching the Presidential Motorcade pass. At about this time he heard three shots. At first he thought it was a firecracker or the backfire of a motorcycle. He could not tell from which direction the shots came. He said immediately after hearing the shots he and ~~SHELLY~~ SHELLEY started running towards the Presidential car, but it sped away west on Elm Street under the triple underpass. He and ~~SHELLY~~ SHELLEY then returned to the Texas School Book Depository Building. During this time he saw no one run out of the building or saw no suspicious individuals.

LOVELADY advised that one LEE OSWALD was employed about a month or two ago at the Texas School Box Depository as an order filler. As such he had access to the entire building where books and school supplies are stored, specifically the basement, the first, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh floors.

LOVELADY described OSWALD as a "loner," who never seemed to be very friendly or associate with any of the other employees. At lunch periods OSWALD would go to the second floor on occasion by himself where he would eat his lunch and read a newspaper. If he did eat lunch in the lunchroom with the other employees he would stay by himself and "always had his face in the newspaper." On November 22, 1963, LOVELADY saw OSWALD at about 10 A.M. on the sixth floor, at which time he was filling an order. The last contact he had with OSWALD was at about 11:50 A.M. when LOVELADY, CHARLES GIVENS, a Negro employee, DANNY ARCE (phonetic), and another Negro male started down from the sixth floor on the two elevators to take their lunch break. As they passed the fifth floor, LOVELADY heard OSWALD call for them to stop, but one of the four told him "we're going to wash our hands" and did not stop for him.

After the shooting, and his return to the building, LOVELADY did not see OSWALD again at any time.

LOVELADY was of the opinion that from his conversations with WESLEY, last name unknown, that WESLEY had been the person who told OSWALD to seek employment at the Texas School Book Depository.

LOVELADY stated it takes thirty seconds for the elevators to go from the seventh floor to the first floor, as he has timed this. He stated there are three ways a person could leave the sixth floor -- by the elevator, by the stairs or by the fire escape. LOVELADY said he did not observe any strangers during the morning period prior to the lunch break, 12 noon.

JAMES JARMAN, 3942 Atlanta, advised he formerly resided at 3105½ Thomas and that he is currently employed with the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD), 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas. He stated that he knew LEE OSWALD only casually through their mutual employment with TSBD. He stated that from what he could observe OSWALD was not particularly well acquainted with anyone employed at TSBD. He said that no one could seem to get acquainted with OSWALD and that he, himself, had never talked to OSWALD sufficiently to draw any conclusion as to OSWALD's thoughts, aspirations, or attitudes. He noted that OSWALD worked as an order filler on the first floor of the building occupied by TSBD, but that he had access to every floor of the building in the course of carrying out his duties as an order filler. He said he had observed OSWALD reading on a number of occasions, but he did not know the nature of the literature being read by OSWALD. He believed it consisted of newspapers, paperbacks, and possibly other forms of literature.

JARMAN stated that on November 22, 1963, he observed OSWALD on the first floor of the TSBD building, around 8:15 a.m. He stated OSWALD had filled an order for books that was not correct and that he, himself, told OSWALD to obtain the right book inasmuch as he, himself, is an order checker. He said he next saw OSWALD about 9 a.m. or possibly a little later. JARMAN said OSWALD looked out the window and observed that people were gathering outside the building and asked him why they were there. JARMAN told him the President of the United States was supposed to come that way sometime that morning. He stated OSWALD asked him which way the procession would be going and JARMAN told him he thought probably it would be going down Main Street, turning on Houston, and then on Elm Street. He said he next saw OSWALD between 11:30 a.m. and 12 noon, when OSWALD was taking the elevator to an upper floor, at which time they had no conversation. OSWALD had an order-filler pad.

JARMAN said that as the President passed by he, himself, was watching the procession from a fifth floor window of the TSBD building; that he was in the third window from the east side of the building which was located in the front of the building, overlooking the procession. He stated that two other employees,

HAROLD NORMAN and BONNIE RAY (LNU) were in the first window from the east side of the building two windows away from him, from which vantage point they were viewing the procession. He said that he heard a shot and then saw President KENNEDY move his right hand up to his head. After an elapse of three or four seconds, he heard a second shot and then the vehicle bearing President KENNEDY speeded up and he was unable to observe any more about the presidential vehicle. He said a third shot was heard by him closely following the second shot possibly within a second or two afterward. He said these shots sounded to him to be too loud to have been anywhere outside the TSBD building.

JARMAN said that he and HAROLD NORMAN and BONNIE RAY (LNU) went to the west side of the building on the fifth floor where they discussed the shots. He said they decided the shots had come from inside the building because they were too loud to have come from outside the building. He said that HAROLD NORMAN stated at that time that something had fallen from above him and that a piece of debris, in addition, had hit him in his face; that his window was open at the time, where he was viewing the procession below. JARMAN said that he did not see OSWALD again and has not seen him since the presidential motorcade passed the TSBD building on November 22, 1963. He stated also that he did not see OSWALD at the start of their work day on November 22, 1963, pointing out that OSWALD normally got to work in advance of him.

O. V. CAMPBELL, Vice President and Secretary, Texas School Book Depository, Elm and Houston Streets, Dallas, advised his firm acts as a broker for approximately 44 publishers in the United States in connection with obtaining, storing and delivering books to various schools in the State of Texas. In connection with this, he advised there are seven publishers who have offices adjacent to the warehouse. He furnished a list of all employees, clerical and warehousemen, who work at the Texas School Book Depository. Among employees he noted was former employee, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, carried on their warehouse payroll as LESLIE OSWALD.

Mr. CAMPBELL advised OSWALD started working at the warehouse on October 15, 1963. He advised OSWALD's original application had been previously turned over to FBI Agents. He stated a perusal of payroll records indicated that OSWALD had not missed a day's work from October 16 through November 22, 1963.

He advised in addition to the main warehouse located on the corner of Houston and Elm Streets, they also have a warehouse located at 1917 North Houston Street, which is located approximately three blocks north of their main warehouse.

He made available to SA HARRISON a Form W-4 Employee's Withholding Exemption Certificate, which he stated was filled out and signed by LEE HARVEY OSWALD, reflecting the following information: LEE HARVEY OSWALD, Social Security No. 433-54-3937, home address 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, total exemptions 4, dated October 16, 1963, signed LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Regarding events that occurred on November 22, 1963, Mr. CAMPBELL advised he had viewed the Presidential Motorcade and subsequently heard the shots being fired from a point which he thought was near the railroad tracks located over the viaduct on Elm Street. He advised he had not observed anyone fire any shots from their building; however, an individual wearing a construction-type hat was talking about seeing an individual fire from the window of the Texas School Book Depository building and he noted that a police officer had taken this individual's name.

He stated that he and Mr. ROY TRULY, the manager, observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD on the second floor of the building and he asked TRULY who that was and TRULY told him OSWALD was all right, that he worked in the building. He stated they proceeded on up the stairs and did not see OSWALD anymore until after his arrest by the Dallas Police Department.

Mrs. MARY E. BLEDSOE, 621 N. Marsalis, Dallas, was interviewed relative to any knowledge she had concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and concerning this association she advised as follows.

LEE OSWALD had rented a room at her residence at 621 N. Marsalis, Dallas, on October 7 through October 14, 1963. During the course of his stay at her residence, she advised that she described him as a quiet roomer, very neat in appearance, stating he seldom left his room. On two occasions he alleged that he was attempting to obtain work at Texas Instruments and Collins Radio in Dallas and over the weekend of October 12-13, 1963, he was gone from the residence, allegedly spending the weekend with his wife in Irving. While at that residence she had heard OSWALD speaking over the telephone in a foreign language and had stated she had indicated a displeasure with him at remaining at her residence and on October 14, 1963, he returned from the weekend allegedly with his wife in Irving, Texas, collected his belongings and left.

Subsequently on the morning of November 22, 1963, she was in Downtown Dallas and had occasion to view the motorcade in which President KENNEDY was riding at a vantage point on the street opposite from Titche's Department Store on Elm Street. After the motorcade went by her position she walked over to St. Paul and Elm Street across from the Dallas Athletic Club where she got on a bus, as she recalls, a Marsalis bus. She paid her fare and sat down in a seat directly opposite the driver facing the aisle and the bus proceeded down Elm Street. As she recalled, when the bus stopped on Murphy Street she saw LEE OSWALD get on the bus, pay his fare, and immediately walk to the rear of the bus where he sat down. She stated at this time the bus was not crowded and there were very few people on the bus. At that time she stated OSWALD appeared to be somewhat nervous and she noticed that he was wearing dirty clothes stating she felt this was strange inasmuch as when he resided with her he had been very neat in his personal appearance. After he got on the bus, traffic going west on Elm Street became extremely heavy and the bus made short, jerky moves in the congested traffic, and while stopped a passing motorist told the bus driver that the President had been shot.

She stated that at that point people in the bus began talking about the President being shot and shortly thereafter LEE OSWALD got up from the rear seat where he had been sitting and came to the front of the bus, passing in front of her, and got off the front entrance at the next stop, she thought, and disappeared in the crowd.

Mrs. BLEDSOE advised as best she recalled, OSWALD was dressed as follows: wearing ragged gray work pants, wearing a brown shirt with holes in the elbows. She advised after OSWALD disappeared in the crowd this was the last she saw of him and she stated definitely that the bus at the point at which OSWALD had alighted had not reached Lamar Street.

Mrs. MARY BLEDSOE, 621 N. Marsalis, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

She identified a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as being the individual who on Monday, October 7, 1963, at about 3:00 p.m., appeared at her home seeking to rent a room. At that time he was carrying a suitcase and some clothes on hangers over his arm. He stated his wife lived in Irving, Texas, but that he was not working. He gave his name as LEE OSWALD and paid $7.00 cash for a week's rent. After renting the room he immediately went out and bought groceries and some milk which he put into Mrs. BLEDSOE's refrigerator. He did not leave the room after bringing these groceries back and stayed in his room until about 9:30 a.m. on October 8, 1963, at which time he left the house dressed in a suit and tie, apparently seeking work.

He returned to the house about 1:30 p.m., October 8, 1963, and called his wife on the telephone. He stayed in his room for the remainder of that afternoon and night. Mrs. BLEDSOE recalled that he drank lots of ice water since he was in and out of the refrigerator too much.

On the morning of October 9, 1963, OSWALD left the house at about 9:30 a.m. and returned again around 1:30 p.m. staying in his room for the remainder of the afternoon and night.

On the morning of October 10, 1963, OSWALD went out about 9:30 or 10:00 although this time he was not dressed in a suit. He returned to the house about 2:30 p.m. and talked on the telephone to someone in a foreign language which Mrs. BLEDSOE did not recognize. In this conversation he seemed to be angry. He remained in his room the rest of the afternoon and that night.

On October 11, 1963, he stayed in his room all day although Mrs. BLEDSOE recalled that he did not make a trip to the refrigerator on this date. He did not leave the house throughout the day or that night so far as Mrs. BLEDSOE knows.

On Saturday, October 12, 1963, OSWALD received a telephone call about 9:30 a.m. and told someone that he would meet them. Shortly thereafter he left the house with a bag stating he was going to be gone over the weekend. Mrs. BLEDSOE told him that when his rent was up he was not going to be living at this address any longer. He then told Mrs. BLEDSOE to clean up his room and make up his bed. Mrs. BLEDSOE stated she had been unable to do so since he had stayed in his room so much and she told him that when he left Monday she would clean his room up. OSWALD then told her that if she would give him $2.00 back on the rent he would leave then. Mrs. BLEDSOE told him she did not have $2.00 He finally left and she believes he caught the Marsalis bus going toward downtown Dallas.

On October 14, 1963, Monday, OSWALD came into the house about 9:00 or 10:00 in the morning, used the telephone, and left the house at about 10:00 a.m. without speaking to her although he walked by her while going out the front door.

Mrs. BLEDSOE stated that during the time OSWALD was living in the room she rented to him he did not have any visitors, never went out during the evenings except possibly to a nearby store for a very short period, and apparently was not working. He did not have a car and she did not see anyone pick him up at any time.

On November 22, 1963, Mrs. BLEDSOE watched the Presidential motorcade from a spot on the corner on the southeast corner of Main and St. Paul. She saw President JOHN KENNEDY pass this corner in a motorcade and she then walked to St. Paul and Elm Streets where she caught a Marsalis bus going west on Elm Street. This was approximately ten minutes after the motorcade had passed St. Paul and Main.

This bus proceeded west for several blocks and in the vicinity of Murphy Street she saw LEE OSWALD get on the bus. She does not believe that he saw her. He proceeded to the back of the bus. At this point no one on the bus had heard about the assassination but in a few minutes the driver of the bus heard from a driver of a car stalled in a traffic jam next to the bus that President KENNEDY had been shot. The driver turned around and told the passengers on the bus that the President had been shot. Everyone was talking about this and almost immediately LEE OSWALD got up from his seat in the rear of the bus and walked out the front door of the bus. He could have gotten off the side door but he did not do so. At this time the bus was about two blocks further west along Elm Street from the point where OSWALD had gotten on the bus but the bus had not yet reached Lamar Street.

Mrs. BLEDSOE recalled that when LEE got on the bus he looked "ragged and dirty." She stated he was wearing a shirt which had a hole in one elbow and she remembers something "ragged" around his belt line. As she recalls he was wearing a brown shirt and gray pants and no jacket.

MIKE NEIBUHR, 1429 East Jefferson, Apartment 1, telephone WHitehall 1-5883, unemployed, came to the Dallas Texas FBI Office the morning of November 28, 1963, and presented a sheet torn from a calendar for the month of October, 1963, which, according to NEIBUHR, bears the handwriting notations of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on the dates of the month of October, 1963, as follows:

October 7 - "From Oswald"

October 14 - "To Oswald"

NEIBUHR stated the above sheet torn from the calendar had been obtained by him from PORTER BLEDSOE, 621 North Margalis, Dallas, WHitehall 2-1985, he being the son of Mrs. M. E. BLEDSOE of the same address, whom he said was a former landlady of OSWALD [illegible] Texas

NEIBUHR advised he had paid $4.00 for the above sheet torn from the calendar to PORTER BLEDSOE on November 26, 1963, as he considers in time "it would be worth some money".

Photographs of the sheet torn from the calendar have been made for the Dallas FBI Office.

MC WATTERS stated that he went to the Dallas Police Department on November 22, 1963, and from a lineup picked a man whom he said is the only one in the lineup who resembles the man who had ridden on his bus on November 22, 1963. He stated that this man was LEE OSWALD, but emphasized that he cannot specifically identify him as being on his bus or as being the person who made the remark to the effect that the President was shot in the temple.

He stated that while at the Dallas Police Department on November 22, 1963, he was shown a Dallas Transit transfer which he identified as having been issued by him on November 22, 1963, on the run which he has described above as being at St. Paul and Elm at 12:36 P.M. He stated that all transfers issued on this run from north to south showed a time of 1 P.M. and that 1 P.M. was shown on the transfer exhibited to him at the Police Department. He further stated that he recognized the mark of his ticket punch on this transfer he examined in the "P.M." box and in the "Lakewood" box. He stated this transfer was dated November 22, 1963.

He stated that he does not know who the woman passenger was that got on at Vermont and Marsalis, that he does not recall ever seeing her before and has no idea as to how to identify her. He stated that she was at least 55 or 60 years of age.

WILLIAM WAYNE WHALEY, 619 Pine Street, Lewisville, Texas, Route 2, was interviewed in the office of the Homicide Bureau, Dallas Police Department, by SA HARDIN and Detective L. C. MONTGOMERY, Homicide Bureau, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas and Mr. W. F. ALEXANDER, Assistant District Attorney, Dallas County, Dallas, Texas. Mr. WHALEY furnished the following information:

He has been a capable driver for the city transportation company for the past 37 years, presently driving Cab #36. He is so employed at Dallas, Texas.

During the morning of November 23, 1963, he noticed a photograph of an individual named OSWALD in a Dallas newspaper and learned that this was the photograph of a suspect in the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY on November 22, 1963, a few minutes following the assassination of Mr. KENNEDY. He explained this incident as follows:

At about 12:30 p.m., November 22, 1963, he was sitting in his cab at the cab stand located at the Greyhound Bus Terminal at Lamar and Jackson Streets, Dallas. A few minutes earlier he had begun to hear sirens and noticed a few blocks away that people were running about excitedly. He thought perhaps it was due to a robbery of some sort and did not connect this unusual activity with the shooting of President KENNEDY and Governor CONNALLY. At about 12:30 p.m., on this date, he noticed in his rear vision mirror a young man come up to his cab from the rear, from the direction of Commerce Street, that is, from the north, and "mosied up there" and did not appear to be in a hurry. Mr. WHALEY's cab was the only cab standing at that location at that time. The location was about seven blocks from the spot where President KENNEDY was assassinated. This man could have gotten off a bus nearby without his having seen him do so and he does not recall seeing him approaching at a great distance from the cab. The young man approached him and asked "Can I get the taxicab?", to which he answered in the affirmative. The man got inside the cab and stated "I want to get to the 500 block of North Beckley". Just before pulling away with the young man a woman came up to the cab and asked him if she could have the cab, whereupon he told her the cab was taken. She then asked him if he would call her another cab, whereupon he explained to her that he could but added it would do no good, inasmuch as another cab would be along before he could get one to come by calling. He recalls that just as the woman asked for the cab, the young man opened a door and then closed it again immediately. He may have said something to the woman which may have been a repetition of what he had told the woman about the cab being taken or about another cab coming along very soon. He does not recall definitely just what conversation, if any, took place between the young man and the woman. He then pulled away with the young man and immediately after, starting up, he told the young man "I wonder what's going on", referring to the unusual activity in connection with the sirens and apparently excited people a few blocks away. The young man did not say a word but remained silent throughout the entire trip and did not appear to be excited or to notice the unusual activity to which Mr. WHALEY referred above.

Mr. WHALEY took the young man to the 500 block of Beckley Street, where the man stated "This will do right here". He then got out, gave Mr. WHALEY a dollar bill to pay the fare of $.95, and stated "Keep the change". The man then angled across the street and started walking down Beckley Street in a southward direction. At that point, Mr. WHALEY left him and did not see him any more.

Mr. WHALEY estimated that he drove this man a distance of about 2-3/4 miles and dropped him off about seven blocks from the spot where OSWALD allegedly shot a police officer a few minutes later. The spot where he dropped this man off was located about one mile from the theater where OSWALD was arrested a few minutes following this.

He recalled that the young man he drove in his cab that day was wearing a heavy identification bracelet on his left wrist, he appeared to need a haircut and was dressed in gray khaki pants which looked as if they had been slept in. He had on a dark colored shirt with some light color in it. The shirt had long sleeves and the top two or three buttons were unbuttoned. The color of the shirt nearly matched the pants, but was somewhat darker. The man wore no hat. He appeared to be about 25 years of age, 5' 7" to 8", tall, about 135 pounds, with brown hair thick on top. He had a long thin face and a high forehead. He did not appear to have a noticeable accent but rather talked as people in this area normally do.

A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, New Orleans Police Department #112723, was shown Mr. WHALEY, who stated that this is definitely the photograph of the man referred to above whom he drove in his cab November 22, 1963.

On November 23, 1963, immediately following interview with Mr. WHALEY, Mr. WHALEY was present at a lineup at the Dallas Police Department Lineup Room, where LEE HARVEY OSWALD appeared with three other white males of similar ages and descriptions. Mr. WHALEY without hesitation stated that OSWALD is definitely the man whom he drove in his cab on November 22, 1963, as related above.

Mr. WILLIAM WAYNE WHALEY, cab driver, City Transportation Company, 610 S. Akard, Dallas, Texas, advised the following information in regard to the fare he has identified as OSWALD who he picked up at the cab stand at the Greyhound Terminal at Lamar and Jackson Streets about 12:30 P.M. on November 22, 1963. After picking up OSWALD he turned left on Austin to Wood and took Wood to Houston and then turned left across the viaduct and then proceeded up Zangs Street to Beckley where he turned south on Beckley and drove to the 500 block where he let OSWALD out. OSWALD when he left the cab walked in front of the cab and angled south walking across Beckley Street. He did not see OSWALD after this as he, WHALEY, turned around and drove north on Beckley back to Zangs where he proceeded back across the viaduct where he turned into the Union Station Terminal through the express company which has an entrance from the viaduct. During this trip he stated he would have averaged 25 MPH until he hit the viaduct and then would have driven 43 MPH until he came to Zangs. He has a governor on his car and his car will only do about 43 MPH and this is why he knows he would have driven this speed across the viaduct. On Zangs Street he would have driven about 35 MPH and then slowed down to about 25 MPH on Beckley.

The reason he turned on Austin to start the trip was because he had the traffic light and knew by turning on this street he would not have to stop for any traffic signals. He did not stop for any traffic signals until he arrived at Zangs and Beckley Streets where he stopped for a few seconds for the traffic signal at this intersection. He estimated the entire trip from the bus terminal to Beckley and back to the Union Terminal only took 10 or 11 minutes.

He stated when he got back to the Union Terminal he made an entry of the trip on his manifest for the day. This manifest is available and shows that he listed the time out on the trip as 12:30 P.M. and the time back at Union Station as 12:45 P.M. He usually rounds off his times and stated for this reason it probably could have been shortly after 12:30 when he picked up this fare but he does recall it being 12:45 P.M. when he made the entry as he looked at his watch at Union Terminal. He stated that his watch usually is about two minutes slow with the accurate time but he does not know for sure if this was true on November 22, 1963. He added his trip manifest is kept in the regular course of business by his company and would be available at the office.

Mrs. EARLENE ROBERTS, housekeeper at 1026 North Beckley, telephone WH 3-8993, furnished the following information: Dallas, Texas

A person known to her as O. H. LEE, but identical to an individual she had seen on television on November 22, 1963, identified as LEE OSWALD, rented a room at this address October 14, 1963.

She last saw him sometime in the early afternoon of November 22, 1963. At the time, she had just learned President KENNEDY had been shot and had turned on her television to get the news. While she was watching the TV, LEE came in, went to his room, got a coat, and left again. She remarked to him, "You sure are in a big hurry," and LEE said nothing. He proceeded to a bus stop which is near the house.

She stated she had never seen LEE in possession of a gun, but that she did observe a holster for a hand gun in the room on the late afternoon of November 22, 1963.

She stated LEE had never come into the house in the middle of the day during a week day like he did on November 22, 1963, and that it was rather unusual.

ROBERTS advised since LEE had been residing at this rooming house, he would leave before 7 in the morning and would return at 6 or 7 in the evening. Each week end, LEE told her he was going to Irving, Texas, to visit friends.

EARLINE ROBERTS, housekeeper, 1026 N. Beckley, telephone WH 3-8993, furnished the following information:

She identified a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as an individual known to her as O. H. LEE whom she first saw at about 4:00 p.m. on October 14, 1963, when he rented a small room just off the dining room at 1026 N. Beckley.

He returned approximately one hour later and moved his belongings into this room which he continued to occupy until November 22, 1963.

Mrs. ROBERTS occupies a room which adjoins the room occupied by OSWALD at that time and she knows from seeing him and hearing him about the house that he was in his room every evening from October 14, 1963, through November 20, 1963, except that he was usually gone on weekends.

During this period, OSWALD habitually left for work on Friday morning and did not return to the house until Monday afternoon after work indicating he went to Irving, Texas, on these weekends. The only exceptions to this were as follows:

1. November 11, 1963 - This was a holiday. This occurred on Monday and OSWALD did not return to the house until November 12, 1963, after work. Mrs. ROBERTS recalls him saying that he had had a long weekend.

2. On the following weekend, OSWALD did not go to Irving as usual but returned to the house on Friday night. Mrs. ROBERTS recalls his being in his room on this evening. She also recalls seeing him on Saturday afternoon, November 16, 1963, at which time he was watching a football game on television in the living room of the house. She stated she does not recall seeing him on Sunday, November 17, 1963, since she was away from the house all day.

3. On the night of November 21, 1963, OSWALD did not come home and the next time she saw him was in the early afternoon of November 22, 1963.

She exhibited a sheet of paper on which she had recorded in her handwriting the account for O. H. LEE, noting that OSWALD had printed the name O. H. LEE on this sheet of paper for her. This accounting lists the room as room "0" and shows payments of $8.00 on the following dates: October 14, 1963; October 21, 1963; October 28, 1963; November 4, 1963; November 11, 1963, and November 18, 1963. She stated this indicated each time that rent of $8.00 cash was paid for a week's rent beginning with the date listed. She stated that on each occasion she received the $8.00 in cash from OSWALD on the date listed except November 11, 1963. The money for this week was not received from OSWALD until November 12, 1963, since he was not at the house on November 11, 1963.

Mrs. ROBERTS advised OSWALD very seldom left the house for more than a few minutes, and to the best of her knowledge, was never out a single evening during the time he stayed at the house except for the trips to Irving, Texas.

She stated that on November 22, 1963, OSWALD entered the house some time about 1:00 p.m. at which time he was wearing a light colored shirt either short sleeved or with the sleeves rolled up, dark pants and no jacket. She had just learned of the assassination of President JOHN KENNEDY from a friend and was watching the television to learn what she could. OSWALD entered the house, went into his room and left again, staying in the house no longer than four or five minutes. On entering and leaving the house he passed through the living room but did not stop to look at television and said nothing to Mrs. ROBERTS. He was very hurried and as he left, Mrs. ROBERTS said something to the effect that he was in a terrible hurry. OSWALD made no reply. She stated she cannot definitely recall what he was wearing as he left but that she remembers he was putting on a jacket and zipping it up the front as he left the house. She has the impression that he had changed clothes but cannot definitely recall anything other than the jacket.

Mrs. EARLINE ROBERTS, 1026 N. Beckley, Dallas, Texas, advised she could not furnish the exact time that OSWALD returned to his room at 1026 Beckley after the assassination of the President but said a rough guess would be 1 p.m. Mrs. ROBERTS received a telephone call from a friend telling her the President had just been shot, and Mrs. ROBERTS turned on the television and recalled the announcer saying President KENNEDY had just been shot and was at Parkland Hospital. Mrs. ROBERTS advised after OSWALD had entered his room at about 1 p.m. on November 22, 1963, she looked out the front window and saw Police Car No. 207 with two uniformed policemen in the car which slowed up and stopped in front of the residence at 1026 Beckley, and one of the officers blew the horn on the car and then drove slowly on Beckley toward Zangs Boulevard. Mrs. ROBERTS said the reason she recalled the number of the car was because she had worked for two policeman who drove Squad Car 170, and she looked to see if these were the two officers she knew parked in front of the residence.

Mrs. GLADYS JOHNSON, wife of A. C. JOHNSON, residence 1026 N. Beckley, WH 3-8993, employed as operator and owner of Johnnie's Cafe, 1029 Young Street, RIverside 1-0192, furnished the following information:

She identified the photograph of LEE OSWALD as being identical to an individual who first appeared at her home sometime about the first week in October, on a date which she cannot definitely fix, asking about a room for rent. At that time she explained to him that she had no vacancy but had neglected to remove her "Room for Rent" sign. She told him to watch the yard since she would probably have a vacancy before very long.

She stated that on October 14, 1963, in the middle of the afternoon probably around 3:00 or 4:00 p.m. this individual returned to her home and she told him she had a very small room off the dining room which she usually did not rent but if he wanted it she would let him keep it until a larger room was vacant. She stated he rented this room at this time and made a payment of $8.00 for one week's rent.

Mrs. JOHNSON knew LEE OSWALD under the name O. H. LEE and he moved in on the evening of October 14, 1963, although Mrs. JOHNSON was not at home when he brought his belongings. He stayed at the house from that time until November 22, 1963.

Three or four days after he moved in which would have been about October 17 or 18, 1963, she had a larger room vacant and told LEE he could move into this room. He told her he liked the room he was in and was getting his money's worth out of it and did not care to move to a larger room.

When LEE rented the room on October 14, 1963, he told Mrs. JOHNSON he would be gone almost every weekend since he would go to Irving, Texas, to visit his wife. He stated he wanted to rent the room so he could be near his work.

During the period he stayed at this address, LEE, or OSWALD as Mrs. JOHNSON now knows his true name to be, would customarily leave home on Friday morning for work and not return to the house until Monday afternoon after work. The only exceptions to this routine were as follows:

1. On Monday, November 11, 1963, he did not return after being gone since Friday morning, November 8, 1963, but returned on the night of November 12, 1963, after work.

2. On the weekend of November 15, 16, and 17, 1963, OSWALD was at the house and was not absent to any extent. Mrs. JOHNSON remembers seeing him on Saturday, November 16, 1963, when he made a trip to a nearby washateria and she recalls seeing him in the living room on Sunday, November 17, 1963, watching television.

3. On the night of November 21, 1963, OSWALD did not return to the house and Mrs. JOHNSON has not seen him since that time.

Mrs. JOHNSON stated that OSWALD stayed "closer to Home" than any roomer she has ever had before. He did not drink or smoke and rarely left his room in the evening except to watch television in the living room or to go to the nearby Cabell's Market where he usually got bread, lunchmeat, and jelly to prepare meals in his room. He did not talk to anyone and had no visitors. To her recollection, he never spent an evening away from the house except the evenings previously mentioned when he indicated he was going to Irving, Texas.

MR. SAMSON WIENER, Proprietor, Wiener Lumber Company, Inwood Road at Maple Avenue, telephone MI 1-1111, who stated he is a member of the Crime Commission in Dallas, furnished a copy of an application for employment dated October 14, 1963, in the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, born October 18, 1939, place not given, which was filled out in his handwriting. WIENER stated that he was mildly impressed with OSWALD as a prospective employee until OSWALD was asked to show his Honorable Discharge Card, inasmuch as he alleged to have been in the U. S. Marine Corps. When he was unable to satisfy him regarding his alleged former service with the U. S. Marine Corps, he was not hired, according to MR. WIENER.

MR. WIENER advised that one of his employees advanced the theory that OSWALD may not have come to WIENER Lumber Company purely by accident, that it was entirely possible that a motorcade from Love Field to downtown Dallas could have passed by this lumber company at Inwood Road and Maple Avenue. WIENER pointed out that in his opinion it would have possibly been even a more direct route to the downtown area than the route which was taken subsequently by the Presidential Motorcade when President KENNEDY visited Dallas. He felt that the possibility existed that LEE HARVEY OSWALD may have contacted other places on what he may have thought to have been a potential motorcade route from the airport to downtown Dallas for the President.

FRANK PIZZO, Assistant Manager, Downtown Lincoln-Mercury, 118 East Commerce, residence 800 Burns, telephone FE 1-1831, Dallas Texas stated during the afternoon of November 22, 1963, he heard the name of LEE OSWALD on a radio newscast in connection with the latter's arrest as a suspect in the assassination of President KENNEDY. He said he recognized the name and asked ALBERT G. BOGARD, salesman, if he did not have a prospect of the same name. BOGARD stated that he had, in fact, and after discussion and on viewing newspaper photographs of OSWALD on November 23, 1963, he recognized him as an individual who had been in the showroom some several days previously and who had talked to Mr. BOGARD. He recalled BOGARD had remarked on the extended demonstration ride OSWALD had taken. He said he had not seen this individual again to the best of his knowledge.

MEL AUDREY, Realtor, 311 South Bishop, telephone WH 3-8341, advised he overheard a conversation in the office of WALLER BOEDEKER, Vice-President, Boedeker-Verner Motor Co., 111 North Marsalis, on November 27, 1963, to the effect that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had, sometime (exact time not known) prior to the assassination of PRESIDENT KENNEDY, been in the premises of the Lincoln-Mercury dealer located at Industrial Avenue and Fort Worth Avenue (Downtown Lincoln-Mercury), attempting to purchase an automobile Dallas, Texas

A salesman of this firm, whose identity is not known to AUDREY, was allegedly asked by OSWALD to drive him over Elm Street, a portion of the route proposed by the PRESIDENT's Motorcade. It is AUDREY's impression OSWALD was allegedly shopping for a car and the purpose of this trip was to "try out" the car. He does not know whether or not the man allegedly identified as OSWALD ever drove this car.

AUDREY did not hear the name of the salesman allegedly contacted, but advised the owner or manager of the Lincoln-Mercury Agency is BILL JANIN, the son-in-law of MR. WALLER BOEDEKER, and that MR. JANIN will likely know the salesman's identity.

ALBERT G. BOGARD, salesman, Downtown Lincoln-Mercury, 118 East Commerce, telephone RI 8-0611, residence 304 Brighton, telephone WH 6-1689, DALLAS, TEXAS, advised as follows:

At about 3:00 to 4:00 p.m., Saturday, November 9, 1963, a young man came to the automobile showroom walking and alone, stating he was interested in a car. BOGARD said he introduced himself and asked the prospective customer his name about twice before the individual gave his name as LEE OSWALD. BOGARD said he seemed to recall OSWALD said he had previously looked at Rambler and Plymouth automobiles, although he could not be certain.

He said he showed OSWALD "every car in the showroom and on the Lot," following which he took OSWALD back inside in an effort to "close" with him. At this time OSWALD said he had no money but that he would have money in a couple or three weeks. BOGARD said he suggested a down payment and tried to find out where OSWALD intended his money would come from. OSWALD replied, "I've got it coming." He was particularly interested in a two door Mercury hardtop which sells for about $3,000.00. OSWALD asked for a demonstration ride.

BOGARD said he and OSWALD got in a demonstration car, with OSWALD driving, that OSWALD drove to Industrial Boulevard, south on Industrial about two or three blocks, and made a U-turn, proceeding north on Industrial and thence to Stemmons Freeway. He drove out Stemmons at a rapid rate of speed, 75-85 miles per hour, to the Inwood Road exit to the right, back to the left under the Freeway, and again to the left and onto the Freeway, where he proceeded in a southeasterly direction. OSWALD continued on Stemmons Freeway to R. L. Thornton Freeway, turned to the right at the Colorado Avenue exit, made a left back under the Freeway, and thence back up on the Freeway, and proceeded in a northwesterly direction. At a point where OSWALD had a choice of continuing on the Freeway which would mean bearing to the left, he started to go straight northward on Cadiz Street. BOGARD called his attention to the fact the car had little gasoline in it, whereupon OSWALD turned back onto Industrial and thence to the automobile concern.

BOGARD said he again approached OSWALD on the proposition of a down payment, stating he could proceed with a credit check. OSWALD declined, stating he would pay cash. He would not give his address but said he lived in the Oak Cliff section of Dallas. He said as he recalled, OSWALD wore no coat or tie and was believed dressed in a "sweat shirt," was bareheaded, and did not look like a $3,000.00 car man. BOGARD said he wrote OSWALD's name "LEE OSWALD" on the reverse side of one of his, BOGARD's, business cards.

He related that on November 22, 1963, he heard the name of OSWALD on a radio newscast and recognized the name as that of his prospective customer. He said he remarked on this to others and pulled a number of cards out of his pocket, selected the card with OSWALD's name on it, and threw it in the waste paper basket. He said he saw OSWALD's picture on television, and confirmed that this was the same individual who had come to his place of business on November 9, 1963, but who had never returned to his knowledge.

He stated OSWALD did not enter into any conversation except as to the car, and he observed no unusual actions. BOGARD remarked that he has been in Dallas for a short time only and that OSWALD appeared much more familiar with the streets than is he, BOGARD. Agents requested BOGARD to travel the same route that OSWALD had driven. Agents observed this route carried BOGARD and OSWALD on Stemmons Expressway on a portion of the route traveled by President KENNEDY's motorcade on November 22, 1963, and that the site of the proposed luncheon for Mr. KENNEDY was on this route. A total distance of some 13 miles was traveled. It was observed that the Texas Schoolbook Depository Building is within sight of Downtown Lincoln-Mercury showroom, perhaps three-fourths mile distant. Upon return to the motor company, agents asked BOGARD to attempt to locate his business card on which he said he had written the name of OSWALD. He stated trash had been picked up by the janitor and placed in a large receptacle to the rear of the building, somewhat inaccessible for a thorough search. He did not locate the card.

DORIS BURNS, 2617 Shelby, Dallas, Texas, advised that she is employed as a correspondent for Mac Millan Company, officed at the Texas School Book Depository building in Dallas, Texas.

MRS. BURNS stated that when she had seen pictures of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television, she recognized him as one with whom she had ridden the elevator in the Texas School Book Depository building sometime during the week prior to November 22, 1963. She stated that she had not seen OSWALD in the building on the day of the assassination.

When the President's motorcade passed the building, MRS. BURNS said she had walked from her office to that of Allyn and Bacon, also on the third floor of the building, in order to view the motorcade from the windows of this firm. As she walked to the office of Allyn and Bacon, MR. WILSON, the manager, whose first name MRS. BURNS did not know, stated, "My god, there's been a shooting". MRS. BURNS stated that she had not seen the shooting of the President nor had she heard shots fired.

After being informed of the shooting by MR. WILSON, she stated that she had returned to the office of Mac Millan Company in order to listen to reports coming over the radio and thereafter went to the women's restroom on the third floor, a restroom located next to the back stairs. While in the restroom, she heard someone running down the steps. She had of course, no idea as to the identity of this individual nor could she see whether there was more than one.

MRS. BURNS stated that she had not seen OSWALD leave the building during the pertinent period. She advised she had no additional information.

Mrs. GENEVA L. HINE, 2305 Oakdale Road, Dallas, Texas, advised in the presence of Detective ERNEST R. BECK the following information:

She has been employed as a clerk by the Texas School Book Depository, Dallas, for the past seven years. She was at work on November 22, 1963. She spends most of her time on the second floor of the company building but also spends part of her time on other floors of the building. She actually goes into the warehouse section of the building which is on the first floor sometime early in the afternoon.

Mrs. HINE was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She identified this photograph as being a likeness of a person who has been employed for a time as a book clerk at the company. She does not know his name. She usually sees OSWALD on the first floor of the building, but has noticed that almost every day, sometime between 12 noon and 1 p.m., he comes to the second floor where there is another employee who has a change box and asks for change for a dime. She assumes he uses this change in the Coke machine in the building. She described OSWALD as being a peculiar person because during all the times she has seen him and spoken to him during her rounds of the building, he has never returned her greeting and has never so much as acknowledged her presence. He is entirely different from other employees in this regard because other employees are friendly and responsive. She said another way that he is peculiar is that his facial expression never changes. She has mentioned these peculiarities to Mr. WILLIAM H. SHELLEY, the Assistant Foreman of the warehouse, and he told her that this is probably "just OSWALD's way".

Mrs. HINE advised that she knows nothing about OSWALD other than what she has described. She advised that she did not see OSWALD at all on November 22, 1963.

Mrs. HINE advised that sometime between approximately 12:25 p.m. and 12:35 p.m., she was alone in her office on the second floor of the company building and the five or six other female employees were watching the parade of the procession of President JOHN F. KENNEDY which was passing by the building. At approximately that time she heard what she described as three shots. She heard these very distinctly and believes they came from somewhere inside the building, inasmuch as it sounded to her that the shots originated at the point above and to the west of her.

She said that after hearing these shots she looked out the windows on the east side of the building and saw several people on Houston Street and on Elm Street running in various directions. Almost immediately after she observed this a policeman came in to the office where she was and told her not to leave. At about that same time the telephone switchboard which she was tending and on which there had been no activity for some time, began to register several incoming calls. Mrs. HINE advised that the policeman who had come in then took over the switchboard and operated it. She asked him who got shot and he told her that it was the President. She said the building then began to fill with law enforcement officers.

In conclusion, Mrs. HINE advised that she sees LEE HARVEY OSWALD almost every day at work, however, she did not see him at all on November 22, 1963.

MR. WILLIAM H. SHELLEY, Department Manager, Texas School Book Depository, Elm and Houston Streets, Dallas, on interview at his place of employment furnished the following information: On the morning of November 22, 1963, HARVEY LEE OSWALD, who is an employee of the Texas School Book Depository, appeared at work as usual and went about his occupation filling orders for school books. He saw OSWALD on two or three occasions during the morning and last saw him sometime between 11:45 A.M. and 12 Noon, when he, SHELLEY, went to lunch. He did not see OSWALD again on this date until he observed OSWALD at the Dallas Police Department, where he went at the request of Dallas police officers. OSWALD said nothing to him about leaving work early or going home, and he did not give OSWALD permission to leave work.

MR. SHELLEY accompanied the Agents to the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository where some bones, apparently the remains of fried chicken, and accompanying wax paper, were observed on the floor near the center window on the south side of the building. MR. SHELLEY stated that he observed an employee other than OSWALD eating fried chicken at this location fairly early on the morning of November 22, 1963, and is certain that these bones and wax paper were left there by this other employee and not by OSWALD.

MR. SHELLEY stated that he has never seen OSWALD with a gun or rifle of any kind.

Mr. JOE R. MOLINA, 4306 Brown, Dallas, in the presence of B. L. SENKEL, Detective, Homicide Bureau, Dallas Police Department, advised as follows:

Dallas, Texas

Mr. MOLINA is employed by the Texas Schoolbook Depository, 411 Elm Street. His position with that company is that of Credit Manager, which he has held for approximately three to four years. He advised that his office is located on the second floor. MOLINA does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD personally, however, he has seen him, but has never talked to him. MOLINA did not see OSWALD on November 22, 1963, the day of the assassination of President KENNEDY. MOLINA recalled that he left his office at approximately 12:15 p.m., and proceeded to the front of the building to observe the parade. He recalled hearing three shots, however he was not aware of the direction from which the shots had come. Subsequent to the assassination of President KENNEDY, when it was determined the President had been assassinated, MOLINA met EDDIE PIPER, a porter in the building where the Texas Schoolbook Depository is located. In a conversation with PIPER, PIPER mentioned to MOLINA that he had heard that all employees in the building had been accounted for, except "LEE". MOLINA stated at the time of the discussion with PIPER it had already been determined that the shots had come from the building at 411 Elm Street and that, also, the weapon used in the assassination had been located. MOLINA recalled also that at this time it had also been ascertained that food particles, reportedly identified as bits of chicken, had been located on the sixth floor. MOLINA stated that PIPER felt that it was possible that the assassin may have gotten the chicken from a catering service that services the employees at the Texas Schoolbook Depository. MOLINA was unable to furnish the name of the catering service.

Date November 28, 1963

Mr. FRANK RAY, co-owner of the Pollock-Ray Company, 3508 Dickason, was interviewed at his office and furnished the following information concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD:

Dallas Texas

Mr. RAY advised during a period sometime between November 1 through November 15, 1962, MARINA OSWALD wife of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was trying to get away from her husband and was canvassing Russian-speaking people in Dallas in an attempt to find a place to stay. Mr. RAY's wife, Mrs. Frank Ray ANNA VALANTINA RAY, was born and reared in Russia and speaks the Russian langauage. When she met MARINA OSWALD at a coffee party, she offered to let MARINA OSWALD stay at the RAY residence.

Dallas Texas

MARINA, although she had been in the United States for about 11 months at that time, could speak no English. RAY stated that his first knowledge of this event was when he came home one evening and found MARINA was moving in with them. RAY's wife told him that OSWALD had beaten MARINA. RAY decided to let her stay with them until she could learn enough English to get a job. Within a few days, OSWALD called and wanted her to come home and shortly thereafter came to the RAY residence.

OSWALD talked with his wife in private for about three hours, and his wife then announced she was going home with him. OSWALD had no car so RAY transported them and Mrs. OSWALD's personal belongings to their apartment at about 9:30 p.m. that same evening. RAY did not recall the address to which he took them but states it is near the intersection of Elsbeth and Davis Streets in Dallas.

Mrs. OSWALD was at the RAY residence no more than a few days. RAY recalls no definite time other than this event took place sometime during the first two weeks of November, 1962. After RAY had taken the OSWALDS to their residence, he sat in his car with OSWALD and talked with him for about three hours. He believes OSWALD was employed as a printer at that time and recalls OSWALD complained bitterly about his low pay and the exploitation of labor in general in the United States. OSWALD made no specific reference to his trip to Russia but did seem somewhat disillusioned about conditions in that country. He was emphatic, however, in his opinion that socialism and communism were far superior to capitalism.

RAY stated that OSWALD showed little elasticity in arguing, that he argued in generalities and sounded as if he were quoting from something he had read. RAY stated it was "like arguing with a tape recorder." OSWALD admitted he had a better standard of living in the United States than he had in Russia but still complained about starting wages. He made no reference to any specific organizations or political party, and RAY states he did not get the impression OSWALD was "trying to convert him." He was very unimpressed with OSWALD's intelligence and described his arguments as being "on the 6th grade level." RAY pointed out the main objective of this conversation was to resolve OSWALD's differences with his wife. Consequently, he, RAY, did most of the talking and did not concentrate on listening to OSWALD's political views.

He described OSWALD as having wild looking eyes and said he seemed moody.

RAY had no direct conversations with MARINA OSWALD as she spoke no English.

RAY saw OSWALD on one more occasion at a party at the DECLAN FORD residence sometime between Christmas and New Year's Eve of 1962. At this time he had little contact with either of them and recalls no specific conversation. He cannot advise whether or not OSWALD engaged in any political discussions with other guests on that occasion.

Irving, Texas. On leaving the bus station, PAINE took LEE back to the OSWALD apartment. He had shipped some things at the bus station and was to pack up the rest of his things and return to the bus station in time to catch a night bus to New Orleans. PAINE let him off at his apartment about 4:00 or 5:00 p.m.

May 9, 1963 - LEE OSWALD called MARINA at PAINE's home and stated he was living with his aunt and uncle in New Orleans and was working.

May 10, 1963 - MARINA and RUTH PAINE drove from Dallas to Shreveport staying in a run-down motel across the street from the Holiday Inn on the north side of Highway 80 West.

May 11, 1963 - MARINA and RUTH drove from Shreveport to New Orleans arriving about supper time at LEE OSWALD's uncle's home. PAINE believes his name was JOHN MURET. They went directly to an apartment LEE had rented at 4709 or 4907 Magazine.

On the morning of May 14, 1963, RUTH PAINE left New Orleans leaving MARINA and LEE in this apartment. LO.

May 14, 1963, to September 20, 1963 - During this period RUTH PAINE did not see LEE or MARINA OSWALD. She received one letter probably about June, 1963, in which MARINA stated she would soon have to return to Russia. RUTH wrote to tell her she could stay with her (RUTH).

Sometime probably in July, 1963, RUTH PAINE received a second letter from MARINA in which she stated she was in good health.

About the end of August, 1963, RUTH received a letter from MARINA stating LEE was out of work again. RUTH wrote back asking if she could stop by New Orleans and see them when she returned to Texas after visiting her family in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

September 21, 1963 ? - RUTH PAINE arrived in New Orleans and visited the OSWALDs still living in the same apartment. LEE had been working previously but had lost his job. LEE mentioned that he had been in jail. RUTH asked MARINA if LEE had lost his job because of his political views. MARINA stated she did not know.

September 22, 1963 - RUTH PAINE remained at OSWALDs' apartment.

September 23, 1963 - MARINA left New Orleans with RUTH PAINE. LEE OSWALD stated he would go to Houston where he had a friend and look for work. He also mentioned he might go to Philadelphia. On that night MARINA and RUTH stayed in a motel just across the line in Texas.

September 24, 1963 - MARINA and RUTH PAINE arrived at Irving.

October 4, 1963 - LEE OSWALD called MARINA at Mrs. PAINE's home in Irving. He wanted MARINA to have Mrs. PAINE pick him up. MARINA told him that Mrs. PAINE could not come because she had just given blood. Mrs. PAINE produced a receipt for blood donated on October 4, 1963, at Parkland Hospital for MARINA OSWALD, by which Mrs. PAINE fixed the date that LEE OSWALD contacted MARINA. This card is signed ~~B. X~~WHITNEY.

LEE OSWALD arrived at the PAINE residence, Texas Irving, while RUTH PAINE was gone. She returned from grocery shopping before dark and found him at the house. He stated he had been in Houston but had not found work. He also claimed to have been in Dallas for a few days before coming out to the house.

October 5 and 6, 1963 - LEE OSWALD remained at the PAINE residence throughout this period.

October 7, 1963 - RUTH PAINE took LEE OSWALD to the bus station in Irving. At this time she gave him an Enco map with Dallas on one side and Fort Worth on the other side. She recalled that sometime during this time LEE stated he stayed at the YMCA.

Either on this date or some time in the next day or two, LEE OSWALD called the PAINE residence to report that he had moved to a $7.00 a week room. He gave MARINA OSWALD a telephone number and MARINA contacted him at that telephone number at least once.

October 12, 1963 - LEE OSWALD arrived at the PAINE residence and spent the night.

October 13, 1963 - LEE OSWALD was at the PAINE home all during this day and night.

October 14, 1963 - RUTH PAINE took LEE OSWALD to the bus station in Irving.

October 15, 1963 - RUTH PAINE did not see LEE OSWALD on this date but she learned through telephone conversations that LEE had started to work at the Texas School Book Depository. Mrs. PAINE had located this job for him through a sister of WESLEY FRAZIER with whom RUTH was having coffee at her nextdoor neighbor's. WESLEY FRAZIER lives a few doors away and works at the Texas School Book Depository.

October 18, 1963 - LEE OSWALD arrived at the PAINE home having obtained a ride with WESLEY FRAZIER from work. This was LEE's birthday.

October 19, 1963 - LEE spent entire day and night at PAINE's residence.

October 20, 1963 - MARINA OSWALD had labor pains and Mrs. PAINE took her to Parkland Hospital while LEE OSWALD babysat with his older child and Mrs. PAINE's children. MARINA gave birth to a girl, named AUDREY MARINA RACHEL OSWALD, at 10:41 p.m., Parkland Hospital in Dallas, Texas.

October 21, 1963 - LEE OSWALD left for work with WESLEY FRAZIER. He returned that night to the PAINE residence and Mrs. PAINE finally got him to go visit his wife and the baby at the Parkland Hospital. LEE OSWALD did not want to go and RUTH PAINE's theory was that he did not want the hospital to find out he was working for fear they would bill him for the cost of delivery.

October 22, 1963 - LEE OSWALD went to work with WESLEY FRAZIER. MARINA came to RUTH PAINE's home from the hospital with her new baby.

October 25, 1963 - LEE OSWALD came out after work with WESLEY FRAZIER and saw his wife and baby for the first time after they had left the hospital.

October 26 and 27, 1963 LEE spent the day and night at the PAINE home.

October 28, 1963 - LEE went to work in the morning with WESLEY FRAZIER. During this period LEE called and talked with his wife almost every night.

November 1, 1963 - LEE OSWALD came to the PAINE residence after work with WESLEY FRAZIER.

November 2 and 3, 1963 LEE spent entire day and night both dates at the PAINE home.

November 4, 1963 - LEE went to work in the morning with WESLEY FRAZIER.

November 8, 1963 - LEE OSWALD came to the PAINE home after work with WESLEY FRAZIER.

November 9, 1963 - Mrs. PAINE drove to the driver's license office located in Oak Cliff to try to help LEE OSWALD get a learner's permit. LEE was not able to drive a car and had never learned. He had never held a driver's license. He told RUTH PAINE that once he had driven his uncle's car in New Orleans but RUTH PAINE recalls helping him try to learn how to drive and park the car. They were unable to get a learner's permit on this date since the office was closed due to it being an election day.

November 10, 1963 - LEE spent the entire day at the PAINE home watching television. He spent that night there also.

November 11, 1963 - This was a holiday. He stayed at the PAINE residence this entire day and night. He practiced parking for a short period with Mrs. PAINE's car. Mrs. PAINE was gone for two or three hours this date but LEE was there when she left and there when she came back,

November 12, 1963 - LEE OSWALD left with WESLEY FRAZIER in the morning to go to work.

November 18, 1963 - Mrs. PAINE placed a call for MARINA OSWALD to a WHitehall number which LEE had given her as his residence telephone number.

ARY FEL
OUNDATION

Mrs. PAINE asked for Mr. OSWALD and was told that no one by that name lived there. She asked if this was the number repeating it and was told it was. She then asked if this was a rooming house and was told it was.

November 19, 1963 ? - LEE OSWALD called MARINA at the PAINE residence and bawled her out for trying to call him the previous day. He instructed MARINA, according to what she told RUTH PAINE, to get hold of RUTH PAINE's address book and scratch out the WHitehall number which was written there.

November 20, 1963 - Whereas LEE had usually called his wife once a day he did not call on this date.

November 21, 1963 - LEE OSWALD arrived about 5:15 p.m. at the PAINE residence having come out with WESLEY FRAZIER. He was not expected and it was unusual since he had never come before on Thursday night and had very seldom come on a weekday and had never come before without calling to ask if he could come out. On this night he said to MARINA that they should get their own apartment. Mrs. PAINE did not see him in the garage of her home but someone had been moving things around in the garage. LEE OSWALD went to bed early, about 8:00 or 9:00 p.m.

November 22, 1963 - Mrs. PAINE was up at 7:30 a.m. and found that LEE OSWALD had already arisen and departed. She found a coffee cup which had been used in the kitchen and believes he fixed himself a cup of coffee before leaving.

November 23, 1963 - LEE OSWALD called RUTH PAINE twice in rapid succession telling her he wanted her to get in touch with a Mr. ABT, an attorney in New York City, and ask him to defend OSWALD in his trial for the murder of President JOHN KENNEDY. These calls were received some time in the evening probably around 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. PAINE maintains a calendar with notations made on certain dates and she referred to this calender in fixing many of the dates set forth above.

Mrs. RUTH PAINE advised that LEE OSWALD received about $50.00 per week gross from his employer, Texas School Book Depository, and that he was paid twice a month by them, the first pay being October 29, 1963. She stated she recalls seeing him cash what she believes was a pay check at the A & P in Irving while she was buying groceries. This check was for about $50.00 and was some time in the period between October 29 and November 2, 1963.

She stated she knew of no bank account he might have used and she knows of no other income he had other than unemployment compensation and wages. She stated she had never observed him in possession of any sizeable amount of money and that he spent very little.

Mr. AL YEARGAN, H. L. Green Company, Main and Ervay Streets, advised that company has in stock and is offering for sale a large number of Italian 6.5 mm rifles that are surplus from World War II. He exhibited his record books reflecting the serial numbers of all rifles sold by that company and the names and addresses of the persons to whom sold. A review of these records failed to reflect any record of a 6.5 mm rifle with Serial No. C 2766.

Mr. YEARGAN advised that they get their supply of these rifles from Crescent Firearms Company, New York City. N.Y.

Mr. YEARGAN advised that he believes that H. L. Green Company is the only company in Dallas handling any quantity of these Italian 6.5 mm rifles.

On November 22, 1963, the New York Office advised that a check of the Crescent Firearms, Inc., 2 West 37th Street, New York, New York, reflected subject weapon, Serial Number C2766, was sold to Klein's Sporting Goods, Inc., Chicago, Illinois, on June 18, 1962. Said office subsequently advised November 24, 1963, that a further review of Crescent Firearms, Inc. records reflected subject weapon, Serial Number C 2766, was received by the Crescent Firearms, Inc., from Italy in carton of ten weapons and as is indicated above, was subsequently sold to Klein's Sporting Goods, Chicago, Illinois.

On November 23, 1963, the Chicago Office advised that WILLIAM J. WALDMAN, Vice President, Klein's Sporting Goods, Chicago, Illinois, had telephonically advised SA H. WALDMAN stated their receiving date is not certain at this time but the carton was opened February 22, 1962, by Klein's and shipment had been received through North Penn Transfer - Mitchultz. He advised said records further disclosed the subject weapon with four power scope, was shipped March 20, 1963, by parcel post, to "A. Hidell, POB 2915, Dallas, Texas." The subject weapon had been ordered by air mail letter, bearing postmark Dallas, Texas, March 2 or 12, year not legible with return address and name, A. Hidell, POB 2915, Dallas, Texas. Chicago Ill.

The envelope contained a Klein's ad, on which the order had been written. The order was prepaid in the amount of $21.45, and notation on shipping bill "M.O.". Said records further disclosed receipt of Postal Money Order or American Express Company Money Order received by Klein's in payment for said gun on March 13, 1963. A roll of microfilm records containing photographs of order blank and envelope pertaining to above was obtained from Klein's Sporting Goods, Inc. and forwarded to the FBI Laboratory.

Investigation at Dallas, Texas, as set forth elsewhere in this report reveals records of the U. S. Post Office, Dallas, reflect P. O. Box 2915, Dallas, Texas, on March 20, 1963, was listed to LEE H. OSWALD. The records of the U. S. Post Office, Dallas, reflect Post Office Money Order No. 2,202,130,462 in the amount $21.45, payable to KLEIN'S Sporting Goods, signed A. HIDELL, Post Office Box 2915, Dallas, Texas, was issued March 12, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, and is endorsed in favor of First National Bank of Chicago, by Klein's and bears Klein's stamp number 5091144. At 6:45 p.m., November 23, 1963, SAC J. GORDON SHANKLIN advised Chief of Police JESSE E. CURRY, Dallas Police Department, that the sale of the rifle used in the killing of President KENNEDY had been traced through serial number to a firm in Chicago, Illinois, and through that firm it had been established that such rifle had been shipped to Dallas. Chief CURRY was also advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been identified through handwriting as the individual who had ordered this rifle.

Mr. DIAL D. RYDER, 2028 Harvard (BL 3-4876) stated he is employed as Service Manager, Irving Sport Shop, 221 South Irving Boulevard. Mr. RYDER viewed a photograph of the gun used to assassinate President KENNEDY after which he stated he did not sell the mount on that gun as that is not the type of mount handled by Irving Sport Shop and does not recall the gun.

Mr. RYDER located Irving Sport Shop repair tag number 18374, which is undated and contains the name "OSWALD" as the owner of the gun being repaired. The tag reflects the work as being "drill and tap $4.50" and "bore sight $1.50" for a total of $6.00. The tag contains no additional information, is prepared in pencil, is not dated and Mr. RYDER stated this is the only record in existence of this transaction. RYDER said the tag was prepared by himself. He pointed out that as there is no record of sale of mounts or other items this would reflect that customer OSWALD brought in the gun, scope and mounts with only work being performed which was drill and tap and bore sight. Mr. RYDER stated that the work for OSWALD was performed between November 1 and 14, 1963, and the only other person employed in the store during that period was CAROL BERRY, a clerk who resided at 2302 Druid Drive, Irving, Texas.

Mr. RYDER stated he has no recollection of mounting a side mount of the type on the gun used to assassinate President KENNEDY but pointed out that during the past few weeks he had attached a tremendous number of scopes, therefore, it is possible he did mount this scope and does not have any recollection of it at this time.

Mr. RYDER viewed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, taken August 9, 1963, after which he stated that he cannot be positive that OSWALD has been a customer in the Irving Sport Shop but is quite sure that he has seen and/or talked to OSWALD probably in the store. He stated that he associates OSWALD's picture with that of an individual who brought in an Argentine made rifle about two weeks ago and he, RYDER, attached a scope on that gun. He pointed out that an Argentine rifle of the type he has in mind has a different bolt assembly than does the gun used to assassinate President KENNEDY, therefore he cannot be definitely sure that the person he has in mind is identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Miss CAROL BERRY, 2302 Druid Drive, Irving, Texas, stated she is employed as a clerk by the Irving Sport Shop, 221 South Irving Boulevard.

After viewing a photograph of the gun used to assassinate President KENNEDY and a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD taken August 9, 1963, she stated she cannot recall either the gun or OSWALD ever being in the sport shop. She stated that she has no recollection of a gun being in the sport shop during the recent past that had a side mount carrying strap but pointed out that a carrying strap can be detached with relative ease, therefore, she cannot be sure the assassin's gun was not in the shop.

At 2:30 AM, I received a telephone call at the office of the Dallas FBI from an unknown male who spoke in a calm voice and asked, "I would like to talk to the man in charge."

I told the caller that the SAC was not present at that time and asked him if someone else could help him. The caller then said, "Wait a minute.", and apparently turned the phone over to another man. I am not certain there were two different voices, however, the tone of the unknown caller's voice changed somewhat at this point.

The voice at this point was calm and mature in sound and this person stated as follws: "I represent a committee that is neither right nor left wing, and tonight, tomorrow morning, or tomorrow night, we are going to kill the man that killed the President. There will be no excitement and we will kill him. We wanted to be sure and tell the FBI, Police Department, and Sheriff's Office and we will be there and we will kill him."

The unknown caller hung up without any other statement and without identifying himself in any manner.

I immediately prepared a memorandum reflecting this information and furnished same to SA MILTON L. NEWSOM. I was present when SA NEWSOM furnished this information to the Dallas County Sheriffs Office at approximately 3:00 AM, and to the Dallas Police Department at 3:20 AM.

Detective J. R. LEAVELLE, 7703 Rilla Avenue, Dallas, Texas, Homicide and Robbery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, advised about 11:15 a.m., November 24, 1963, LEE HARVEY OSWALD was taken from the Homicide and Robbery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, located on the third floor of the City Hall Building, for the purpose of transporting him to the Dallas County Jail. OSWALD was handcuffed and was thereafter handcuffed to the left hand of LEAVELLE. LEAVELLE stated that Detective L. C. GRAVES had hold of the left arm of OSWALD. He stated that Captain J. W. FRITZ, Homicide and Robbery Bureau, and Lieutenant R. E. SWAIN, Burglary and Theft Bureau, proceeded in front of them, and L. D. MONTGOMERY, Homicide and Robbery Bureau brought up the rear. All of the above mentioned individuals proceeded from the third floor by way of the jail elevator to the jail office located in the basement of the City Hall Building. Homicide and Robbery detectives E. R. BECK and C. N. DHORITY had previously departed for the purpose of getting the transportation cars into position.

Detective LEAVELLE and GRAVES after arriving in the jail office hesitated at the door leading from the jail office into the outside corridor until they obtained an all-clear signal from Captain FRITZ who had proceeded into the corridor ahead of them. LEAVELLE stated that thereafter, he and GRAVES, with OSWALD between them as previously described, proceeded from the jail office into the corridor leading out into the underground parking area. It was noted in the corridor that uniform officers were lined up along the wall, and that news media were gathered on the auto ramp to the left and front of LEAVELLE and the escorting officers. The car in which OSWALD was to be transported was on the ramp and was backing up to the position where OSWALD could get in. Captain FRITZ was in the lead and was stopped at the edge of the ramp waiting to get into the front seat of the car. GRAVES and LEAVELLE stopped momentarily for the car to back up. When the bumper of the car got even with the right side of LEAVELLE, JACK RUBY darted from the crowd of news media about six feet away and had gun in hand. RUBY shot OSWALD at a distance of approximately fifteen inches away.

At about 11:20 AM, SAs IVAN D. LEE and ROBERT M. BARRETT were contacting EDDIE BARKER, Director of KRLD-TV and Radio News Department. In BARKER's office was a TV monitor and BARKER advised it was set on a closed circuit channel and that it would depict in a few minutes the removal of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the City Jail to the Dallas County Jail.

The Agents ~~first~~ observed numerous police officers and members of the press in an area in the basement of the City Hall near a door which connects the City Jail Office and the garage area in the basement. At about 11:24 AM, Agents observed Captain WILL FRITZ come out of the hall which leads to the City Jail Office and he was preceding the officers and men who were bringing OSWALD from the jail to the armored truck. This armored truck was parked on the south side of the City Hall which is the exit from the City Hall garage area and which was up a ramp from the garage area. About 10 to 15 feet behind FRITZ, Agents observed Lieutenant RICHARD E. SWAIN preceding the group of officers which were leading OSWALD. OSWALD had a police officer holding on to each arm and numerous police officers were behind him. There was no officer in that 5 to 6 feet area between SWAIN and OSWALD. At about 11:25 AM, the Agents observed a man wearing a dark hat and suit jump into the clearing with a revolver in his right hand and he moved directly toward OSWALD. A shot was heard and the TV announcer immediately screamed, "OSWALD has been shot." He repeated this numerous times. OSWALD was observed falling forward and numerous officers jumped on top of him. The man who fired the shot was observed being grabbed by several officers and taken immediately back into the City Jail Office.

About 4 minutes later an ambulance appeared on the scene and Agents observed OSWALD being brought out on a stretcher. He was entirely limp with his arms hanging over the side of the stretcher. He was lying on his back. He was immediately placed in the ambulance and taken to the hospital.

Within about 2 minutes of the shooting the announcer at the scene announced over the closed circuit TV that the man who shot OSWALD was well known to Dallas police officers. About 5 minutes after the shooting the announcer stated that the man who shot OSWALD had been identified as JACK RUBY.

The TV announcer was observed interviewing an unknown French reporter immediately after the shooting and this French reporter claimed that he was standing directly next to RUBY at the time RUBY bolted through newsmen and cameramen and shot OSWALD.

At about 1:01 PM, Mr. BARKER, in contact with his correspondent at Parkland Hospital, advised he had just learned that OSWALD had been shot in the left side of the abdomen just below the heart and had suffered severe abdominal injury and was at the time receiving heart massage in an effort to keep him alive. It was also being reported he was being given blood transfusions.

At the time the shooting first occurred, it was reported that the man who shot OSWALD had posed as a Secret Service Agent to gain entrance. This was later determined to be an erroneous report.

Mr. BARKER advised that newsreel film and video tape from the closed circuit TV would be made available to the FBI immediately upon processing.

At about 2:00 PM, Mr. BARKER furnished SAs LEE and BARRETT a roll of video tape depicting the shooting and a roll of 16 millimeter newsreel film taken by GEORGE ROBERT PHENIX, a KRLD, news cameraman. This film was taken directly to Love Field where it was given to Braniff Air Lines Pilot ROBERT R. ROSS, who resides at 1806 Glenbrook, Irving, Texas. Captain ROSS stated he would personally deliver this package to FBI Agents at National Airport, Washington, D. C. Captain ROSS was the pilot for Braniff Flight No. 110 which was scheduled to leave Dallas at 3:15 PM and arrive at Washington, D. C. at about 8:00 PM.

At 8:45 p.m., Mr. RAY BRANTLEY, Proprietor, Ray's Hardware Store, who resides at 103 Highland, advised his records reflected that JACK RUBY purchased a Colt Cobra revolver from his establishment which is located on Singleton Blvd., in Dallas, on January 19, 1960. When he purchased the gun he gave the address of 3508 Oaklawn, Dallas, Texas. The books reflected this Colt Cobra bore Serial No. 2744. The revolver had a 2" barrel and was blue in color.

It was BRANTLEY's recollection that RUBY was accompanied by a Dallas policeman at that time whose name he does not remember. It was also believed by him that a prize fighter was with them also. BRANTLEY had had no business dealings with JACK RUBY prior to that time but later, approximately one year ago, JACK RUBY came to his hardware store and requested that he clean a .38 caliber Smith and Wesson revolver. The revolver was rusty and after cleaning the revolver, BRANTLEY held the gun for two or three months before RUBY called for it. He believed that it was during 1961 that this revolver was brought into his business establishment.

BRANTLEY advised he was only casually acquainted with RUBY but recalled that a few months ago RUBY had contacted him and requested that a gun be shipped to an individual in Las Vegas, Nevada. He made available the books of his store which reflected that on May 10, 1963, a .38 Smith and Wesson Centennial revolver with no hammer, bearing Serial No. 13810, had been shipped to L. C. McWILLIE, 3040 Kishner Drive, Apt. 204, Las Vegas, Nevada. This gun was later returned to him inasmuch as McWILLIE did not pay for the gun. BRANTLEY stated he had sent the gun C. O. D. and that it cost him about $7.00 to send this gun to McWILLIE who did not pay for it. He was only casually acquainted with RUBY and in fact did not recognize his picture on television on November 24, 1963. He could give no information concerning friends or relatives or background on RUBY.

BRANTLEY said that the Smith and Wesson revolver JACK RUBY had requested him to clean in 1961 was blue in color, but he could not remember exactly what model the revolver was. He believed that it was probably a Chief Special with a hammer.

Mrs. LILLIAN BRANTLEY, 103 Highland Street, co-proprietor of Ray's Hardware Store in Dallas, Texas, attested to an entry in the books of the store which show that JACK RUBY purchased a Colt Cobra revolver from Ray's Hardware Store on January 19, 1960. The serial number listed was 2744 and RUBY gave the address of 3508 Oaklawn. It was her recollection that RUBY came to the store with a police officer whose name she does not recall. She also said the store records show that on May 10, 1963, a .38 Smith and Wesson Centennial revolver, Serial No. 13810, had been sent to Las Vegas, Nevada. JACK RUBY, when he called at their hardware store, said he had received a letter from a friend in Las Vegas who could not find a Smith and Wesson Centennial there. The friend, according to JACK RUBY, requested that RUBY find him one and forward it to him. The books show that this revolver had been sent to L. C. McWILLIE, 3040 Kishner Drive, Apt. 204, Las Vegas, Nevada. Mrs. BRANTLEY had marked "Void" over this entry in the books because the C. O. D. package sent to McWILLIE had been returned. The cost to Ray's Hardware Store was about $7.00 and it was her recollection that it was sold to some other person. She knew RUBY by sight but stated she did not know anything about his background.

RALPH LEON YATES, 13564 Brookgreen, Dallas, Texas, voluntarily appeared at the Dallas FBI Office, accompanied by his uncle, Mr. J. O. SMITH, 13770 Sprucewood, Dallas, Texas, and furnished the following information:

YATES stated that he is employed as a refrigeration service-man for the Texas Butcher Supply Company, Dallas, Texas, and in connection with this employment was driving a pickup truck on R. L. Thornton Expressway at approximately 10:30 AM, on either November 20 or 21, 1963. He stated he noticed a man hitchhiking at approximately the Beckley Street entrance to the R. L. Thornton Expressway, and he had stopped and picked up this man.

YATES said after seeing photographs and television pictures of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he is of the opinion that this man was identical with OSWALD.

He continued that when the man walked up to get into the pickup truck, he was carrying a package wrapped in brown wrapping paper about 4 feet to 4½ feet long. He said he told this man he could put the package in the back of the truck, but the man said that the package contained curtain rods and he would carry it with him in the cab of the truck.

YATES stated as they drove along, the man had asked him if he knew a certain party, whose name YATES cannot recall now, and he had indicated to this man he did not. He said the man then asked if he had ever been to the Carousel Club and YATES had replied that he had serviced refrigerators in the past in a number of clubs and that possibly he had been to this one, but he did not recall.

YATES said that he had said to the man that there was going to be a lot of excitement in Dallas soon, referring to the President's visit, and the man had asked YATES what he meant. He said he replied that the President was coming to Dallas, but that he personally felt that the President should not come in view of the ADLAI STEVENSON incident which had occurred previously.

The man then asked YATES if it could be done from the top of a building or out of a window, high up, and YATES said he guessed this was possible if one had a good rifle with a scope and was a good shot.

YATES advised about this time the man pulled out a picture which showed a man with a rifle and asked YATES if he thought the President could be killed with a gun like that one. YATES said he was driving and did not look at the picture but indicated to the man that he guessed so.

YATES said that the man then asked if he knew the President's route for the parade in Dallas and YATES replied that he did not know the route but that it had been in the paper. He said the man then said that he had misunderstood him and that actually he had asked YATES if he thought that the President would change his route. YATES said he replied that he doubted it unless they might for safety reasons.

He said as they approached downtown Dallas, the man indicated that he was going on Houston Street and that although he was going to Irving, he told the man he would drive off the expressway and to Houston Street and let him out there, then would go back to the expressway. YATES said he went off the Expressway on Commerce Street, turned off of Commerce on Houston, drove north on Houston and let the man off on the corner of Elm and Houston Streets.

He said he saw the man cross Elm Street, but does not know where he went from there. He said that as the man got out of the truck, he recalled him saying something about the Triple Underpass, but cannot recall exactly what was said.

YATES stated that he had mentioned this incident to another employee at the Texas Butcher Supply Company, one DEMPSEY JONES, prior to the time that the President was assassinated.

Date November 28, 1963

DEMPSEY JONES, Route 4, Box 376, Dallas, Texas, telephone number Diamond 8-1051, has been employed by the Texas Butchers Supply Company (TBSC) at 2038 Commerce Street in Dallas, Texas, for nine and one-half years. He said he has known RALPH LEON YATES as a fellow employee for a little over a year. He said YATES is a big talker who always talks about a lot of foolishness.

JONES recalled that he and YATES were working in the shop on the second floor of the TBSC about 11:00 or 11:30 a.m., one morning, and YATES had returned from a call earlier that he had made at Irving and Oak Cliff before returning to TBSC.

JONES said YATES told him he had picked up a boy in Oak Cliff and taken this boy to Houston and Elm in Dallas. YATES said this boy had a package not described at that time, but after the death of the President, YATES described the package as a "long package" and then on telling the facts over again, YATES said this man told him it was some window shades he was carrying for the company he (the man) had made. JONES said that YATES told him on the first date that the man discussed the fact with him that one could be in a building and shoot the President as he, the President, passed by.

He said YATES did not discuss this man the day before the President was shot in any great detail, but after the President was shot, YATES told him he believed the man he had in the pickup was the man who shot and killed the President, and he was going to call it in and tell them what he knew about it.

JONES was unable to describe what agency YATES was talking about. He said he recalled that YATES mentioned calling "them" on November 26, 1963. He said no other person was present when YATES discussed these matters with him in the shop. He described YATES as a white male, in his 20s, about 5'4", 160 pounds, stocky build, hair brown, eyes believed gray, and is employed as a refrigerator mechanic with the TBSC.

J. R. GILPIN, Partner, Texas Butchers Supply Company (TBSC), 2038 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that RALPH YATES, one of his employees, came to him on November 26, 1963, and asked him if it was possible to confirm the date that he, Mr. GILPIN, had ordered or called YATES to go to Irving, Texas, on a service call to the Park-It Market Drive-In Grocery, at 2320 Shady Grove Road at Story Road in Irving, Texas.

13564 Brookgreen Dallas Texas

Mr. GILPIN said he located a record dated November 21, 1963, Shop Bill No. 8760, Invoice No. 36919, dated November 21, 1963, billed November 23, 1963, to the Arlington Food Stores, Post Office Box 91, Arlington, Texas, telephone number AN 2-0597. This bill was in the amount of $12.00 which would indicate it was a two hour service call. He said he recalled that he gave the order to RALPH YATES about 10:30 a.m., at the TBSC office, and he told YATES at the time he would call him at the time he was at the Park-It Market to find out what the trouble was they were having. He said that he recalled he made a telephone call around noon to YATES and determined that the compressor at the Park-It Market was out of oil and not burned up so YATES replaced the oil and should have returned to TBSC about 12:30 or 1:00 p.m. He said YATES was re-checking the time of the call on November 27, 1963, and that he, GILPIN, had discussed the matter with SAM OWENS, his partner, who recalled that YATES had called in from Irving, Texas, sometime after 11:30 a.m., on the morning of November 21, 1963. He said that he knew of no reason that YATES might have had for being in Oak Cliff on that morning. He had no other information which would further establish the time that YATES made the service call.

Mr. FRANK RIGNEY, President, Anderson Furniture Studios, Cedar Springs and Harwood Streets, Dallas, Texas, telephonically related that on NOVEMBER 22, 1963, while he and his employees were listening to the radio account of President KENNEDY's tour through Dallas, an unidentified male individual, described as white, male, age about 28, sallow complexion, foreign appearance, with a very prominent nose, came in telling his switchboard operator, Miss HELEN ZELLERS, that he wanted to make a long distance telephone call collect. She told him he would have to use the phone immediately adjacent to the switchboard. Then this individual sat down in a chair, apparently listening to the radio, appearing very nervous upon hearing over the radio that the President had been shot; this individual then jumped up, and started to come into the actual switchboard area, but Miss ZELLERS told him again he would have to use the other phone. This man did so, and Miss ZELLERS overheard only his telling the operator that it was a collect call to Indiana (city not overheard by Miss ZELLERS). She told Mr. RIGNEY that the man did not complete the call, then hung up and abruptly left the store without even thanking them.

Mr. RIGNEY stated that all his employees felt this was very strange, and since he, (RIGNEY), had formerly been in the U. S. Army Intelligence, he thought the individual might have been signaling someone by merely letting the other telephone ring, without having it answered. He said he personally did not see the male individual, but the following employees did observe him, and furnished the above description:

Mr. LEROY VAUGHN, decorator;

MARDIE JIM ROBINSON, decorator;

Miss NELLA BOORLAND, Draperies Department.

Date November 23, 1963

Mrs. LOIS SITZ, manager and co-owner of the Motel "Half Circle J", 9600 West Highway 80, advised that on November 20, 1963, at about midnight a man came into the office and asked to rent a room. She stated that he asked her if she had any coffee which he could take to his room, as he had been drinking heavily and needed the coffee to sober him up. Mrs SITZ stated she had no coffee but advised he could get some coffee at a nearby truck stop. She then showed him Unit 9. She stated she entered Unit 9 first and turned the light on. She stated when she came out of the room he was removing a gun from his car. Mrs. SITZ states this was a pistol, but she cannot tell whether it was an automatic or a revolver. She stated seeing the gun in his hand frightened her, but she said nothing about it.

She stated she returned to the office, and he followed her in. She further stated it was at this time he advised her [redacted] he had a gun, but it was legitimate as he was with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. She stated he then returned to Unit 9 and assumedly went to bed.

Mrs. SITZ stated this man returned to the office at about 9:00 a.m., November 21, 1963, and turned in the key to Unit 9. She stated he then asked her "What time is the President coming in, and where is he going to stay in Fort Worth?" She states her husband, who was with her at that time, told him the President was to arrive at Carswell Air Force Base, Fort Worth, Texas, at 10:45 p.m. and would be staying at the Hotel Texas She states upon that he left, driving a 1955 Oldsmobile or Chevrolet, which was two-tone red and cream in color. She stated this car bore 1963 New Mexico license 2-80392.

Mrs. SITZ stated the registration card which this man had filled out bears the name, which cannot be definitely made out, but which appears to be "ROBT. E. _____ (last name unidentifiable), 3424 Hayeldran, S.W., Albuquerque, New Mexico."

Details: AT MARINE CORPS AIR STATION (MCAS)
EL TORO, CALIFORNIA

Major WILLIAM P. GORSKY, Assistant Provost Marshal, MCAS, El Toro, California, advised SA SAM J. SHOEMAKER on November 22, 1963, that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was assigned to the Lighter Than Air Base, an air facility adjacent to MCAS, El Toro. Major GORSKY stated that OSWALD was discharged from the Marine Base in March, 1959, and that all of OSWALD's records had been forwarded to Washington, D.C. Major GORSKY noted that OSWALD reportedly had been arrested by the Santa Ana, California, Police Department for hitchhiking in 1959, but that a check of the records of the Santa Ana Police Department failed to locate a record for this arrest.

LA 105-

Corporal BART IMMINGS, Criminal Investigative Division (CID), MCAS, El Toro, California, advised SA HENRY F. ALSTON on November 23, 1963, that he was formerly assigned to the same unit at MCAS, El Toro, with OSWALD during 1958. Corporal IMMINGS advised he does not recall any specific conversations with OSWALD. He does recall, however, that after OSWALD's discharge from the service, there were numerous rumors circulating at MCAS, El Toro, that OSWALD had gone to Russia. Corporal IMMINGS advised that he does not have any specific information regarding OSWALD and the records of CID, as well as the Counter-Intelligence Corps, MCAS, El Toro, contain no investigative records concerning OSWALD.

PAUL EDWARD MURPHY, 1706 South Evergreen, Santa Ana, California, furnished the following information:

He knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the U.S. Marine Corps, having served several months with OSWALD in mid-1958 at Atsugi, Japan, with Marine Air Control Squadron #1. He later served with OSWALD for several months in the first part of 1959 in Marine Control Squadron #9 at Marine Corps Air Facility, Santa Ana, California. He was not a close friend of OSWALD, who was a very self-contained individual, who had no close friends. OSWALD, while in Japan and at Santa Ana, California, reportedly studied Russian. While at Santa Ana, California, OSWALD received a paper believed to be "The Worker." The only ideological discussion MURPHY recalled concerning OSWALD took place in Japan when OSWALD adopted a "pro-CASTRO stand" in a barracks discussion. The exact views expressed by OSWALD were not recalled but OSWALD seemed intense in his conviction.

While in Japan, OSWALD accidentally wounded himself in the arm with a small caliber Derringer-type pistol, which he was not authorized to possess. According to MURPHY's recollection, while at Marine Air Control Squadron #9 in Santa Ana (El Toro), OSWALD lived in a small quonset barracks with BOB ALLEN, NEIL D. TESSEN, and DONALD OSBORNE, all of whom have since been discharged. OSBORNE was from Lubbock, Texas, and had attended Texas Tech there. ALLEN is believed to be from the vicinity of Providence, Rhode Island, and NEIL D. TESSEN was from Oregon. MURPHY was unable to recall any further identifying data.

"The Worker" is an East Coast communist newspaper.

AT SANTA ANA, CALIFORNIA

On December 1, 1963, EARL BLOCK, Businessmen's Association (credit bureau), advised the records of that agency contained no information concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD or his aliases, ALEK J. HIDELL, O. H. LEE, A. J. HIDELL, or A. G. HIDELL.

On December 1, 1963, the records of the Santa Ana Police Department, Identification Division, which were reviewed by Miss SUSAN COLEMAN, Records Clerk, contained no information identifiable with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or his aliases.

Miss LEILA MC GAFF, Records Clerk, Orange County Sheriff's Office, Santa Ana, California, advised December 1, 1963, the records of this agency contained no information identifiable with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or his aliases.

AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

Reverend MAURICE DAWKINS, Peoples Independent Church of Christ, 1025 East 18th Street, Los Angeles, telephonically advised November 25, 1963, that he had received a letter on November 24, 1963, from Miss ANNIE L. WARREN, who resides at the Embassy Hotel, Room 616, 851 South Grand, stating she had attended a meeting of "Wings of Healing, World Crises Conference" sometime during the week of October 13 - 24, 1963. She stated a man was introduced at this meeting by the Reverend DALE YOUNG. YOUNG did not give the man's name but described him as a "young man that had something to do" and that the audience should pray for him. WARREN's letter said she turned to the woman next to her at the meeting and stated "he (the man introduced) doesn't look right - suppose he wants to kill the President." WARREN further stated in the letter that one of the women who attends these meetings, MARY ORR, who also resides at the Embassy Hotel, stated in a recent conversation, "I think the President ought to be shot." Her letter further stated that she thinks what the Russians are saying is exactly right, that OSWALD is a racist, a Ku Klux Klansman, and added, "I believe the killers of the President were paid by the 'right wing,' which is a disguised name for the Ku Klux Klan."

ANNIE L. WARREN, Embassy Hotel, Los Angeles, California, advised SAs VINCENT W. HUGHES and ROBERT K. BURESH on November 25, 1963, that the man she observed being introduced by Reverend DALE YOUNG appeared to resemble OSWALD. WARREN furnished substantially the same information as that appearing in her letter to Reverend DAWKINS. She admitted that she is 64 years of age and during the interview with the Bureau Agents was moved to tears.

Mrs. THOMAS WYATT, wife of Reverend THOMAS WYATT, the owner of the Embassy Auditorium, 847 South Grand Avenue, Los Angeles, and the head of the "Wings of Healing, World Crises Conference," advised SAs HUGHES and BURESH on November 25, 1963, that she met every minister who was present at the meeting of October 13 - 24, 1963, Conference and no one by the name of OSWALD was present and further, no one resembling OSWALD was present at this Conference.

Logical informants who are familiar with subversive activities within the territory of the Los Angeles Division were contacted in November, 1963, and advised they have no information concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

PREDICATION

On December 2, 1963 the Dallas Office of the FBI reported the following data had been recorded in the address book of LEE HARVEY OSWALD:

HORACE TWIFORD
7018 Schley
MI 9-8500
WA 3-5492.

H. WARNER KLOEPELER
UN 6-3089
UN 6-2741, Extension 276.

The Dallas Office further advised that information had been received that OSWALD's wife and Mrs. RUTH PAINE had last seen OSWALD in New Orleans, Louisiana on 9/23/63 at which time he indicated he had a friend in Houston, Texas and might proceed either to Houston or to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. When OSWALD next contacted his wife and Mrs. PAINE at Irving, Texas on October 4, 1963 he reportedly claimed he had been in Houston, Texas looking for a job.

RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION

RE: HORACE ELROY TWIFORD

On December 2, 1963 Mrs. DAISY BROWN, Credit Bureau of Greater Houston advised her agency had maintained a record since June, 1956 pertaining to HORACE ELROY TWIFORD. This record was last revised in September, 1962 at which time TWIFORD was reported to be 39 years of age and residing at 7018 Schley, Houston, Texas with his wife ESTELLE TWIFORD. His employment was listed as second mate with Local #20 of the International Organization of Masters, Mates and Pilots. TWIFORD was reported to have been so employed for 10 or 12 years at a salary of approximately $9,000 per year. He had previously resided at 7823 Dixie Drive, Houston, Texas, at several other Houston addresses, and prior to 1956 at Manteo, North Carolina. Mrs. BROWN stated TWIFORD had a good credit record at Houston.

This file also contained a credit report dated June 27, 1956 from Elizabeth City, North Carolina indicating TWIFORD had recently moved to 4315 West Alabama Street, Apartment 5, Houston, Texas but had previously resided for several years at Manteo, North Carolina. TWIFORD was reported to have been single in 1956, had been a seaman since World War II and he was well regarded at Manteo, North Carolina.

On December 2, 1963 Detective D. D. COLLINS, Intelligence Unit, Houston, Texas Police Department advised he had checked the arrest records of that department on that date and had found no record indicating that HORACE TWIFORD had ever been arrested in Houston, Texas. COLLINS stated HORACE TWIFORD had become known to the Houston, Texas Police Department inasmuch as he had been publicly identified in 1962 as the head of a committee appointed by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) at Houston which was referred to as the "Due Process Committee." COLLINS stated that this committee was reportedly formed to look into allegations of police brutality at Houston and another member of this committee was attorney KENYON HOUCHINS. COLLINS stated this committee actually never functioned beyond writing a few letters in the Houston area. COLLINS stated several people with whom he talked considered TWIFORD to be rather immature inasmuch as he frequently wore a goatee and impressed people as being of college age.

On December 2, 1963 Mrs. ESTELLE TWIFORD, 7018 Schley Street was interviewed by SAS JAMES W. RUSSELL and EDWIN DALRYMPLE. Mrs. TWIFORD stated her husband, HORACE TWIFORD, was the second mate on the "SS Del Monte" operated by the Delta Lines, Inc. She stated this vessel left Houston in late October for a trip to South America and was scheduled to return to Houston on December 14, 1963.

Mrs. TWIFORD first stated that she had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD except for newspaper reports she had read since the assassination of President KENNEDY. She stated she had never seen OSWALD and felt sure her husband was not acquainted with him. Mrs. TWIFORD acknowledged that she and her husband distributed various types of literature including literature of the Socialist Labor Party in which they were active. She acknowledged that her husband had records of people to whom he had mailed such literature but she initially refused to consult these records or to furnish any information from them.

Mrs. TWIFORD then acknowledged that she did have other information about OSWALD but declined to discuss the matter until she had telephoned attorney KENYON HOUCHINS. HOUCHINS arrived at the TWIFORD residence within a few minutes, stated that he was thoroughly familiar with the matter and instructed Mrs. TWIFORD to cooperate completely.

Mrs. TWIFORD then stated that she and her husband were among the few members of the Socialist Labor Party in Texas and the headquarters of this organization at New York, New York frequently furnished them the names of any persons in the Texas area who made inquiry about the organization. She recalled her husband had received OSWALD's name in this manner and had mailed him literature of the Socialist Labor Party to a post office address in Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. TWIFORD related that at some time which she believed to be in late October or early November she answered a telephone call and the man making this call identified himself as LEE OSWALD. OSWALD asked for her husband and stated he had received a copy of the "Weekly People" and wanted to know how HORACE TWIFORD had obtained his name. Mrs. TWIFORD explained that the "Weekly People" is a newspaper published by the Socialist Labor Party. Mrs. TWIFORD stated her best recollection was that OSWALD stated on that occasion that he was flying to Mexico, had a few hours, and desired to talk with Mr. TWIFORD. She believes OSWALD identified himself as a member of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee but stated neither she nor her husband was a member of that organization and to the best of her knowledge the Fair Play for Cuba Committee had never been active in the Houston area. A characterization of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee is set forth in the appendix of this report.

Mrs. TWIFORD stated she informed OSWALD that her husband was then at sea but if he desired to correspond with Mr. TWIFORD he could direct a letter to 7018 Schley, Houston, Texas.

Mrs. TWIFORD attempted to recall more specifically the date of this telephone call by relating it to some other event and finally stated she still believed it had been received in late October or early November, 1963. She was sure that it came a few days before HORACE TWIFORD left Houston for his current trip to South America. She states her husband had left Houston on the "SS Del Monte" : " had proceeded to Louisiana, back to Freeport and Corpus Christi, Texas and back to Houston, Texas where it remained a very short time before leaving Houston for South America. Mrs. TWIFORD recalled that the telephone call from OSWALD was received while her husband was on this coast wise trip because she told her husband of this telephone call during the few hours he had at home before leaving for South America. She said that, when she told HORACE TWIFORD that OSWALD had called her husband did not show any particular reaction at all and it appeared to her that the name OSWALD did not mean anything to him. Mrs. TWIFORD stated that she had in fact recalled this incident only since the publicity about the assassination. She stated it should be possible to check records of the Delta Lines, Inc. to determine the approximate date of this telephone call by relating it to the coast wise trip made by this vessel. Mrs. TWIFORD stated OSWALD made no mention of looking for a job in Houston and did not specifically say he was in Houston and she assumed it was a local telephone call because no telephone operator was involved and because of the remark of OSWALD to the effect that he only had a few hours and desired to talk with her husband. She stated she actually had no information concerning OSWALD's exact whereabouts when this call was made.

Mrs. TWIFORD further stated that except for the above incident she had never had any contact whatever with OSWALD, has never seen him, and to the best of her knowledge HORACE TWIFORD has never had any personal contacts with OSWALD at any time. Mrs. TWIFORD also stated that she has never known JACK RUBY and that she could furnish no information whatever concerning the persons involved in the assassination of President KENNEDY, the later murder of OSWALD or the possible motives involved.

Mrs. TWIFORD then obtained from her records a small manilla envelope printed and bearing the address of the New York Labor News Company, 61 Cliff Street, New York 38, New York, P. O. Box 76. She identified this as the envelope which had been mailed to her husband by the Socialist Labor Party. It was noted the upper left corner of this envelope carried the return address, in hand printing as follows:

"L. H. Oswald
Dallas, Texas.

The above envelope was originally post marked at Dallas, Texas on November 10, 1962 and a rubber stamp impression indicated it was received at New York, New York on November 13, 1962. There was no indication of the date on which this envelope had been mailed to HORACE TWIFORD. A handwritten note across the front of this envelope contained the words "Labor Day issue WP, 9/11/63." Mrs. TWIFORD stated this was the handwriting of her husband and this note indicated to her her husband had mailed to OSWALD on September 11, 1963 the above issue of the "Weekly People". Mrs. TWIFORD stated she would retain this envelope permanently.

Attorney KENYON HOUCHINS, 1207 Welch Street was also interviewed on the above occasion at the residence of Mrs. TWIFORD. HOUCHINS stated he was likewise active in the Socialist Labor Party and noted that there were actually only 5 or 6 members of this organization in the entire State of Texas. HOUCHINS explained it was fairly common when the New York headquarters of this organization received an inquiry from anyone in Texas for that organization to advise HORACE TWIFORD just in case TWIFORD might have an opportunity to make a personal contact. HOUCHINS stated he did not know of the receipt of the above telephone call by Mrs. TWIFORD until a few days after the assassination of President KENNEDY at which time he had discussed the matter thoroughly with Mrs. TWIFORD. HOUCHINS stated he also at that time telephoned DAN RATHER, a member of the NBC news staff to inform RATHER on a confidential basis of the receipt of this telephone call. HOUCHINS stated he had not reported this matter to the FBI or any other law enforcement agency. HOUCHINS stated he had discussed with TWIFORD various individuals in Texas who had shown an interest in the Socialist Labor Party but to the best of his knowledge HORACE TWIFORD had never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD. HOUCHINS volunteered the following comments as being of possible value in this investigation:

HOUCHINS recalled that TWIFORD once told him he had received correspondence from someone in Arlington, Texas requesting information concerning the program of the Socialist Labor Party. TWIFORD informed HOUCHINS he had written that person but no names were mentioned. HOUCHINS stated he mentioned this incident only because he believed he had read that LEE OSWALD had a brother or some relative residing in the area of Arlington, Texas between Dallas and Fort Worth. In connection with this incident HOUCHINS located a notation dated May 22, 1963 containing the name JACK E. GRIMMER, 500 South Cooper, Arlington, Texas. HOUCHINS stated he could not recall for sure but GRIMMER may have been the person who requested the above literature.

HOUCHINS further recalled that during the summer of 1963 HORACE TWIFORD had received the name of some man in Fort Worth, Texas who was also interested in the Socialist Labor Party. He stated that HORACE TWIFORD made a trip to Fort Worth and later remarked to him he had seen two or three people in Fort Worth who appeared to be interested in this organization but that one man in particular showed the most interest. HOUCHINS recalled TWIFORD described this man as a young man who indicated he could not discuss the Socialist Labor Party at his residence and when they got together elsewhere this man had very little to say and acted rather strangely. HOUCHINS stated this is a very vague recollection but he volunteered it on the remote chance the man referred to could have been OSWALD.

Both Mrs. TWIFORD and KENYON HOUCHINS stated they were not acquainted with JACK RUBY and that no additional information had come to their attention which might relate in any way to this investigation.

Mrs. TWIFORD stated she felt sure her husband would be glad to cooperate in this investigation but it would be impossible to interview him prior to December 14, 1963 except by radio telephone which would not afford any security.

Mrs. TWIFORD stated she and her husband have had telephone number WA 3-5492 since they moved to 7018 Schley in November, 1962. She pointed out their previous telephone number was MI 9-8500 when they resided at 7823 Dixie Drive.

She stated the old address and telephone number still appear in the current (January, 1963) Houston telephone directory because the directory had already been prepared at the time they changed residences.

On December 2, 1963 N. J. RAITHEL, Assistant Manager Delta Lines, Inc., 1300 Texas Street furnished the following information concerning the recent movements of the "SS Del Monte" operated by his company:

8/31/63	Departed Brazil enroute to Houston
9/16/63	Arrived Houston
9/23/63	Departed Houston for New Orleans, with brief stop at Galveston, Texas on 9/23,24/63

11/28/63	Departed Victoria, Brazil

Mr. RAITHEL stated the above vessel would visit no other United States port prior to arriving at Houston, Texas and could only be reached prior to December 14, 1963 through the facilities of Mackey Radio Company.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JOE P. PATTY:

AT HOUSTON, TEXAS:

On December 3, 1963, Mr. JAMES BRIDWELL, Station Manager, Trans-Texas Airlines (TTA) advised that TTA is the only airline flying to Laredo, Texas. He stated that the only route a passenger for Laredo could take is by TTA Flight 473 from Houston to McAllen, Texas, and TTA Flight 432 from McAllen to Laredo. He said this is actually a through flight, but the flight number changes at McAllen. He said the other possibility would be for a passenger to take any one of numerous flights from Houston to San Antonio and then board one of two flights from San Antonio to Laredo. Mr. BRIDWELL made available the passenger lists for TTA Flight 473 out of Houston for the period September 23, 1963, through September 26, 1963. A review of these lists failed to reflect a passenger by the name of OSWALD, HIDELL, HITELL, LEE or any variation thereof.

On December 3, 1963, Mr. A. D. FARRIOR, Desk Clerk, Y.M.C.A., 1600 Louisiana, Houston, Texas, advised SA DANIEL D. DREILING that he had no record reflecting that LEE HARVEY OSWALD, A. HIDELL, ALEX JAMES HITELL or O. H. LEE had stayed at the Y.M.C.A. during the year 1963.

On December 2, 1963 the records of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Houston, Texas were checked and it was determined that the Houston telephone exchange does not have a number beginning with UN-6.

On December 2, 1963 Mr. F. A. FALK, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Beaumont, Texas advised that the Beaumont telephone exchange does have numbers beginning with UN-6 but he pointed out the numbers UN-6-3039 or UN-6-2741 had never been issued in the city of Beaumont.

On December 2, 1963 the telephone directories and current city directories for Beaumont and Houston, Texas were checked and no name found identifiable with H. WARNER KLOEPELER.

HO 105-1291

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening In Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. Charles A. Santos-Buch identified himself and Robert Taber as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and Taber obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. However, during the past year this source observed there has been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that today their influence is negligible.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that the National Headquarters of the FPCC is located in Room 329 at 799 Broadway, New York City. According to this source, the position of National Office Director was created in the Fall of 1962 and was filled by Vincent "Ted" Lee, who now formulates FPCC policy. This source observed Lee has followed a course of entertaining and accepting the cooperation of many other organizations, including the CP and the SWP when he has felt it would be to his personal benefit as well as the FPCC's. However, Lee has indicated to this source he has no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. Lee feels the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations, but not support the Cuban revolution per se.

The CP and the SWP have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Lee Oswald

Dear Sirs:

From the information we are getting on radio and television and the papers, the American people are given to understand that your investigation shows that this miserable wretch Oswald was working along and had no accomplices. I am afraid that you will have a hard time making the American people believe this.

First of all if you did investigate this Oswald creature just previous to the assassination and knew that there was to be a parade involving the President of the United States why wasn't he kept under strict surveillance? Second....How was this Oswald admitted back to the United States and given money besides to come back and bring a Russian wife who wasn't a citizen? And why did Russia let her and him get out of the country without a bit of trouble. Why wasn't his wife interrogated more?

I am sorry that I cannot buy the idea that the Russian embassy turned over their complete file on Oswald; I don't believe it; they in all their tricky ways, kept out what would have been the truth.

It must be considered a strange xxxin coincidence that both Ruby and Oswald stopped at the Y.M.C.A. It is a strange coincidence that that either one of them would stop at a Y.M.C.A. To begin with and within a short time of each other. Also, if you watched television, how easy the Dallas Police made it for Ruby to go up right up and shoot Oswald. Nothing will make me believe that this good for nothing bum Ruby did it but for only one reason to liquidate him so that he couldn't talk. When you hear that fourth grade students cheered when the President was killed, then you can pin anything on those Dallas Keystone Comedy Cops but with one of saddest endings.

If you have considered this case closed, I am sure that the American people do not until the Dallas Police, Oswald and Ruby xxx are further investigated and the real truth told. His crack lawyer is having his trial pushed quite far ahead so that this matter may cool off and the anger of the American people dies down. This will never happen for our beloved President Kennedy of Blessed Memory will forever be enshrined in our hearts with the pen of a diamond and the tongue of an angel.

DEC 13 1963

I hope that you succeed in tracking down these killers who [illegible] Castro or the Soviet Union.

ENCLOSURE

ANSWERING COMMUNICATIONS
KEEP ENVELOPE ATTACHED

RICHARD STARNES

Truth Won't Out

REALISM instructs us to expect little from the special commission created by President Johnson to investigate the death of his predecessor.

No member of the commission has any competence as an investigator, nor does any have access to a disinterested investigative staff. The commission will be almost wholly dependent upon the facts made available to it by the Secret Service, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Dallas Police Department.

In a sense, of course, the special commission is investigating the role played by each of these agencies, and it is manifestly naive to expect these cops to bear witness against themselves or, indeed, each other.

Any reporter who has wasted a portion of his young life in a hick police station thinks he knows exactly how Rubenstein, the squalid impresario of skin shows, gained access to the Dallas Municipal Building where he apparently shot and killed the man who apparently shot and killed President Kennedy. (If you contend there are too many apparentlys in that sentence, my reply is that there are too many apparentlys in the murders that took place in Dallas.)

Ruby probably had a press pass issued by the Dallas cops. Every reporter has known police buffs of the stripe of Rubenstein, and the sleazy breed invariably prizes possession of a press card.

But is anyone foolish enough to expect the Dallas Police Department to step before Chief Justice Warren and say, yes, your worship, we did give Rubinstein a press pass to which he was not entitled and he did use it to gain access to the basement where he performed the gallant act of gut-shooting a manacled prisoner?

If you believe the Dallas police will ever give up the truth about how Rubenstein got a clear shot at Oswald you will believe anything, possibly including the solemn assertion that Rubenstein was not paying off any officials for the privilege of skirting the law in operating his peltorama.

In their extravagant outpouring of grief over the death of their young President, the American people have largely overlooked the disgraceful failure of the Secret Service. We are assured that these hard-nosed federal cops could not possibly check every window along the parade route, and no one is moved to ask why they couldn't. The building from which the assassination of Mr. Kennedy is said to have taken place was a prime stake-out for a sniper, since the President's automobile had to slow for a turn beneath its windows.

Will the Secret Service candidly explain to the special commission why Oswald was permitted to rest patiently on his hunkers gnawing a chicken bone, a rifle beside him, in one of perhaps a dozen choice locations for a bushwacker?

Again, little has been made of the fact that the President was shot not once but twice. The autopsy findings on Mr. Kennedy have not been made public, and may never be, but suppose the first wound was not mortal? Then the lax protection that permitted a second bullet to strike home becomes a great historical scandal. Will Mr. Justice Warren and his colleagues ever know the truth of this, and if they do learn

Captain ROBERT E. BLOCK, U. S. Marine Corps, MACS No. 9, Lighter Than Air Station, Santa Ana, California, advised that he was former Operations Officer during the time that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was stationed at the Marine Corps Air Force Lighter Than Air Station, Santa Ana, California, from approximately February to May, 1959.

OSWALD was one of 60 men assigned to BLOCK. BLOCK had only one or two personal contacts with OSWALD. One of the contacts was in connection with a complaint that BLOCK had received to the effect that OSWALD was subscribing to the "People's World" and had other "leftist" literature in his barracks. When BLOCK questioned OSWALD concerning his subscribing to the "People's World," and having "leftist" literature in his barracks, OSWALD said that he was only trying to indoctrinate himself in Russian theory in conformance with Marine Corps policy. BLOCK was unable to recall the names or titles of any of the "leftist" literature mentioned above.

Other than this, BLOCK had no particular problems with OSWALD and considered him normal in his performance ratings. BLOCK was unable to furnish any other information concerning OSWALD.

Mr. EDWARD LEHMAN, Editor and Publisher, "The Longmont Daily Times-Call," Longmont, Colorado, made available a photo copy of a card which was placed on the windshield of the automobile of a Longmont, Colorado, resident who was visiting relatives in Dallas, Texas, on November 20, 1963.

Mr. LEHMAN advised that on Wednesday, November 27, 1963, Mr. C. WALTER CARLSON, 312 Sunset Drive, Longmont, who is a highly respected local cattle feeder, informed him that while on a visit to relatives at Dallas on the night of Wednesday, November 20, 1963, a card was placed upon the windshield of their automobile. The contents of this card are as follows:

"Patriots wear mourning Nov. 20, 22

"3 big liberal-socialists are coming to town: two of the Kennedy tribe on Nov. 22 and Producer Otto Preminger on Nov. 20.

"Our (illegible) president is bringing his current wife on a political tour on your tax money. Does he need her stack of hair to hide behind? Doesn't he trust that battalion of secret servicemen? No doubt he senses his presence will be an insult to all loyal Americans in Dallas. This little dictator debases the office of U.S. President low lower than his predecessors. In fact, Gus Hall, top communist, says Kennedy must be reelected. After all, he's disarming the U.S. for the benefit of the UN police force, he forces integration and promotions of negroes--for their votes, he protects communists in Cuba, wangles wheat and other products to Red tyrannies, sanctions no federal center for Dallas, the moving of the VA office to Waco, the closing of Love Field, you name it. OAKS, JR., 1540 Billings Street, Space H - 8, Aurora, Colorado, who is employed as a technical writer by the Martin Company, Denver, Colorado, advised that he has observed photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in newspapers and has a vague recollection of observing a photograph of GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL, head of the American Nazi Party, in some newspaper with several of his men, all dressed in khaki trousers and shirts. OAKS said that it is his recollection that one of these individuals resembles OSWALD. OAKS could not recall when he observed this photograph or in what newspaper, but said the photograph was a wire service photograph rather than one from a local paper and the article related to ROCKWELL and his group being kicked out of some town in some other area. He said he believes he saw this photograph some time subsequent to the spring of 1962 and if that is the case would have observed it in the "Denver Post" since that is the only newspaper to which he has subscribed since February, 1962. OAKS said he has resided at the following locations since December, 1958.

DANSKY stated that the reason this letter was not received by his office until November 30, 1963, was that it had been initially missent to Universal CIT Corporation.

Mr. DANSKY stated that he recalled that he interviewed McCLUSKEY for a sales job on November 18, 1963. Mrs. BARBARA RUCKER, 10712 West 62nd Place, Arvada, Colorado, advised that in July, 1963, a friend of her husband's, LOREN GRAVES, visited their home at which time he got into a heated discussion with them about the slipshod attitude of the American people. Mrs. RUCKER stated that GRAVES made the remark that Americans were "silly and letting the rest of the world go by when others were trying to overthrow the Government." She said that GRAVES strenuously urged that Americans should take more interest in politics and the affairs of the Government and illustrated his remarks by saying that "Do you know that President Kennedy could be killed."

Mrs. RUCKER stated that she was unsure of exactly what GRAVES' remarks were aimed at, but received the impression that he made the statement concerning the President in order to illustrate his point that Americans should take more interest in protecting their rights and preserving our way of life.

Mrs. RUCKER advised that she did not receive the impression that GRAVES held any animosity toward the President of the United States or the present Democratic Administration.

Mrs. RUCKER stated that GRAVES formerly resided on Vine Street in Denver and was last employed by the Centennial Pre-Mix Concrete Company. She said that she does not know GRAVES' present address but believes that he lives near the Cherry Creek Shopping Center.

WILLIAM JOHN MARTIN, Apartment 17, 6140 West Colfax, Denver, Colorado, advised that on November 21, 1963, at about 6:30 P.M., he and his wife were at the Stanley Bar, on West Colfax, Denver, not far from where they live, across from the Pancake House. They were sitting in a booth directly opposite the bar. There were three women sitting at the bar on the first three stools, and there was a man standing near them talking to them. MARTIN did not know whether the man was acquainted with the women, or whether he was trying to strike up an acquaintance with them. He had bought them a drink. He was not drunk, although he had been drinking, and was rather loud-mouthed.

He made some remark to the women, exact context unrecalled, but such as "OK now, what's this game again, assassination - like John F. Kennedy?" or "OK let's play this game again, assassination, John F. Kennedy." MARTIN recalls that the man specifically mentioned the words "game," "assassination," and "JOHN F. KENNEDY." After the remark one of the women stood up from her stool and said something to him rather firmly, possibly telling him to shut up.

MARTIN and his wife left shortly thereafter. The man and three women were still there. MARTIN stated he is a carpenter working on a job at Aspen, Colorado; that he left Denver that evening for Aspen and thought nothing more about the remark until after the President's assassination. MARTIN stated he had just returned to Denver, and decided to report the incident.

MARTIN described the unknown man as 35 - 36 years of age, 5'11" tall, large frame, light wavy hair, wearing white trousers, white coat jacket or sweater, white sport shirt, appearance casual but neat. He stated the women appeared to be between 25 - 35, neatly dressed, with one of them wearing a red dress. He could furnish no other descriptive data.

Mr. LEHMAN related that he was not sure whether the incident took place on Wednesday or Thursday, November 20 or 21, 1963, but that there had been three ladies in his bar on either one of those days, one of the ladies being Mrs. DOROTHY KOZAN, the wife of Mr. NORMAN KOZAN, a friend of his. He advised that he did not know MEL's local business address.

Mr. LEHMAN advised that on the day that Mrs. KOZAN and her friends were at this bar, MEL had been standing at the end of the bar near them talking to them and anyone else in the vicinity who was listening. Mr. LEHMAN related that it was general barroom conversation and he does not recall MEL being drunk or making any offensive remarks to the ladies. Mr. LEHMAN advised that he believes MEL had made some political remarks about the KENNEDY Administration. He stated that to the best of his recollection MEL might have stated "We should get rid of the KENNEDY Administration" or "Get them out of the White House." Mr. LEHMAN advised that he was not sure of MEL's remarks about the KENNEDY Administration as he, LEHMAN, was busy behind the bar at the time MEL was talking.

C. EDWIN BUSH, 2451 South Gaylord Street, Denver, Colorado, advised he recalls a party, possibly sponsored by the Cliff Dwellers, a bachelor men's club, nonpolitical in nature, held in the Petroleum Club, Denver, in March, 1962. BUSH stated he recalls HARRY NIER being at this party and later discussing with HENRY OXNARD that same evening the fact that OXNARD stated NIER was spouting the communist line. BUSH denied conversing personally with NIER and denied hearing NIER make any comments regarding knowledge of a person named "OSWALD."

Concerning the veracity and reliability of HENRY OXNARD, EDWIN BUSH stated that OXNARD is the son of BENJAMIN A. OXNARD, Vice President, Great Western Sugar Company; that HENRY OXNARD has a strong sense of loyalty and an intense interest in politics. BUSH stated that if OXNARD said that NIER mentioned the name of OSWALD, it is true.

JOHN G. FLOBECK, 647 South Grape Street, Denver, Colorado, advised that he specifically recalls a party held in March, 1962, sponsored by the Cliff Dwellers at the Petroleum Club, Denver.

While FLOBECK and a friend, H. GREGORY AUSTIN, Jr., Denver attorney, and HENRY OXNARD were drinking and conversing, they were joined by a man who identified himself as HARRY NIER. OXNARD and NIER, with assistance of FLOBECK, engaged in discussion and argument for approximately one and one-half to two hours.

FLOBECK stated that as HENRY OXNARD, the son of a sugar company executive, had some knowledge of the situation in Cuba, OXNARD and NIER argued over the seizure of Cuba by CASTRO. OXNARD at that time was attending the University of Colorado, Boulder, Colorado, and appeared to have either known NIER or had knowledge of NIER's connection with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). NIER made statements that CASTRO was a patriot, that people in the United States misunderstood him, and NIER blamed the American press for falsehoods pertaining to Cuba.

FLOBECK stated that NIER and OXNARD argued vehemently about Cuba. FLOBECK recalled that he asked NIER if he were a communist and NIER replied that he was not a communist, but a Marxist. During this discussion, NIER had with him newspaper clippings and numerous papers which he referred to during the discussion. NIER admitted leadership of the Denver Chapter, FPCC. The discussion included labor unions, agricultural problems and foreign policy.

FLOBECK stated that NIER, when he was pinned down, would change the subject and it was difficult to argue or reason with him. FLOBECK recalled that NIER stated that he either had been to Cuba or was going to Cuba and perhaps Mexico to get more information about the Cuban situation.

FLOBECK stated he cannot say that the name OSWALD was mentioned by NIER, although he recalls that NIER mentioned the names of numerous individuals which were unfamiliar to FLOBECK. FLOBECK stated that when he learned of the President's assassination and heard a rebroadcast of a radio interview of LEE OSWALD, at which time OSWALD stated he was a Marxist and had connections with the FPCC, FLOBECK then recalled his conversation with NIER as NIER had made the approximate same statements. FLOBECK stated that the name OSWALD was not recalled during this incident. FLOBECK stated he was not present during the entire discussion between OXNARD and NIER so it is possible that NIER could have made a statement mentioning a man named OSWALD.

FLOBECK stated that OXNARD has an excellent mind and, because of his intense interest in politics and the intense concentration by OXNARD with NIER during the conversation, it is possible that OXNARD would recall a name mentioned by NIER.

1 Date December 1, 1963

H. GREGORY AUSTIN, Jr., Attorney, 790 Washington Street, Denver, Colorado, advised he was present in March, 1962, at the Cliff Dwellers organization party held at the Petroleum Club, Denver. AUSTIN stated he was present briefly during the conversations between HENRY OXNARD, JOHN G. FLOBECK and HARRY NIER. AUSTIN stated he did not participate in the discussions as it appeared that NIER was connected in some way with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee and was supporting the CASTRO regime in Cuba. AUSTIN stated he did not hear NIER nor any of the other participants mention any individual named OSWALD.

Mr. AUSTIN stated that in his opinion, OXNARD is not tremendously stable, is imaginative, and could now believe that the name of OSWALD was mentioned in his conversation with NIER, when it had not been.

At approximately 11:30 A.M., November 25, 1963, a call was received from Mr. J. IVANHOE ROSENBERG of the "Herald Dispatch," a weekly newspaper in Southwest Denver.

Mr. ROSENBERG stated that as a result of information seen on television on the evening of November 24, 1963, regarding an alleged affiliation of RUBY in Denver, he had been conducting some investigation to verify this. Mr. ROSENBERG asked if he could obtain information from this office in exchange for what information he had. Mr. ROSENBERG was advised that any information in any way related to the assassination of President KENNEDY would have to be released by the Washington Headquarters of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and no information could be furnished by the Denver Office.

Mr. ROSENBERG then volunteered that he had talked with Mr. JIM BENNETT, Channel 7, Denver, and had learned that BENNETT had information indicating that RUBY has frequented and may possibly have a financial interest in the Matinee Lounge on West Colfax in Jefferson County and might be acquainted with JOHN DI ANDRO (phonetic); also that RUBY is reported to have frequented SID KING's place on East Colfax and may possibly have a financial interest in this establishment.

BROWN stated that the information that RUBY reportedly frequented SID KING's place in Denver, Colorado, came from a former news man, now retired, whose name is BILL DAY. BROWN stated that DAY had called him and advised that somehow RUBY's face was familiar. DAY further stated that he thought he had seen RUBY in Denver, but could not remember where he had seen him or what the circumstances were. BROWN advised that DAY then told him that it might possibly have been at Sid King's Crazy Horse Bar.

Mr. BILL DAY, 65 Dudley, Lakewood, Colo. was contacted after unsuccessful attempts to contact him on November 26, 27, and 29, 1963.

Mr. DAY advised that when he saw JACK RUBY's picture on television sometime during the past week and heard his name, he thought possibly this might be an individual he had heard some information about about one year ago when he stopped in at Sid King's Crazy Horse Bar in Denver, Colorado.

Mr. DAY continued that on this particular day he stopped at the above restaurant for a drink after work and was sitting at the bar. He commented to another bar patron, whose name he does not know, that SID KING "has a good thing going here." He advised he made this remark because the establishment was full of customers. He advised further that the other bar patron made the statement that "it isn't all KING's, some guy in Dallas owns a piece of it." DAY advised further that this bar patron mentioned some name at that time for the alleged part owner in Dallas; however, he cannot recall the name at this time. He added, however, that when he had heard RUBY's name on television, he thought possibly the bar patron may have mentioned RUBY, but he is not positive and it was just a thought that crossed his mind at the time.

DAY concluded that the above information is the only information that he furnished to Channel 7, KLZ Television Station in Denver, and that he did not state that he thought he had ever seen RUBY anywhere. DAY stated he was unable to furnish additional information concerning this matter.

JAMES SULLIVAN, 1405 Downing Street, Apartment Number 1, Denver, Colorado, advised that JACK BRUMETT originally comes from Houston, Texas, is a burglar, and may possibly have connections with JACK RUBY of Dallas, Texas. He said BRUMEIT is a friend of Mrs. E. L. SHAFER, 6327 Riverview Way, Houston. SHAFER resided at Writers' Manor, a motel in Denver, from November 6, 1963, to November 19, 1963. SULLIVAN advised he took SHAFER to the airport in Denver on November 19, 1963, where she boarded a Braniff airplane destined to Dallas, and then Houston. During the ride to the airport, SHAFER made the statement, "KENNEDY would never be elected again." SULLIVAN advised this statement may have been entirely innocent; however, in his opinion might have some significance in connection with the assassination of President KENNEDY. SULLIVAN advised that SHAFER made numerous long-distance telephone calls to Texas during her stay at Writers' Manor. SULLIVAN was unable to furnish any additional information.

SAMUEL MEYERS, 3104 Carson Street, Aurora, Colorado, telephonically advised that his daughter, JUDITH ANNE MEYERS, who is a student at the University of Colorado, Boulder, related to him on the morning of November 24, 1963, that she thought possibly about one year ago when baby sitting for ROBERT SHANKS, who lived on the adjacent block of Blackhawk Street in Aurora, she had received a phone call from an individual who possibly left the message that "RUBY" had called.

Mr. MEYERS advised he was reporting this inasmuch as ROBERT SHANKS is related to SAMUEL SHANKS who is presently incarcerated in Jefferson County Jail, Golden, Colorado, awaiting trial for the murder of ROBERT ROBBINS. He also advised he understood SHANKS has been in the bar business and since he had read that JACK RUBY was a bar owner in Dallas there could possibly be some connection between them.

JUDITH ANNE MEYERS, Freshman, University of Colorado, Boulder, Colorado, was interviewed at her Aurora, Colorado, residence, 3014 Carson Street, and she advised that she had earlier related to her parents information to the effect that while baby sitting for ROBERT SHANKS at 3012 Blackhawk Street, Aurora, about one year ago, she received a phone call from an individual who told her to tell MAX SHANKS that "RUBY" had called when she informed the caller that neither MAX nor ROBERT SHANKS was home at the time.

Miss MEYERS, who is 18 years of age, advised that since relating this information to her parents a few days ago, she now recalls that she had received, while baby sitting for the SHANKSes for the past year and a half, other calls for ROBERT SHANKS or his father, MAX SHANKS, from an individual who told her to tell them that "RUDY" had called and now because of this believes possibly the one above call she had told her parents about was also from "RUDY" and not "RUBY." She also related that she recalled this individual told her to tell MAX SHANKS that he could teach him at his restaurant the next day. She related that ROBERT SHANKS' father, MAX, lived with him at the Blackhawk address in Aurora and also that SAM SHANKS, who is related to ROBERT SHANKS, also resided at the Blackhawk address for a short time in the latter part of 1962.

Miss MEYERS stated she had never heard JACK RUBY's name mentioned nor had any information ever come to her attention while baby sitting for the SHANKSes that would indicate they had any connection with RUBY.

Miss MEYERS pointed out ROBERT SHANKS and his wife separated or divorced approximately six months ago and, because of this, she has not baby sat for them since that time. She also advised that their home at 3012 Blackhawk is now vacant and that she knew ROBERT SHANKS was out on bond on a charge filed against him as an accessory to the fact in the murder case of ROBERT ROBBINS, Denver bookmaker who was murdered in Jefferson County, Colorado, on August 7, 1963.

He advised in approximately 1949, PEDEN married a prostitute, DONN, last name unknown. PEDEN left ranch in 1949, to get other employment, and about one year ago, PEDEN wrote a letter to MC GILL which MC GILL and wife could not understand because the text meant nothing to them as PEDEN wrote about things unfamiliar to them. In the summer of 1948, MC GILL met JUAN, last name unknown, eighteen years old, five feet eight inches tall, weighing 150 pounds, brown eyes, in a local bar, Laramie, Wyoming. JUAN was wealthy and was from Columbia, South America, where his parents were wealthy farmers and had other relatives high in government circles. DN T-5 advised that he had flown his plane to Dallas, Texas, on November 25, 1963. Source advised that there had been a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Sweetwater Corporation in Dallas, on Tuesday, November 26, 1963.

He advised that prior to the meeting, some of his business associates had been at the King's Club, which is located on the sixth floor of the Adolphis Hotel in Dallas, around noon on November 26, 1963, at which time there had been conversation among his business associates about the death of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and also about JACK RUBY, night club owner, shooting LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

U.S.N. Source advised that one of his business associates, Texas EDWIN B. JORDAN, who is a son-in-law of L. F. CORRIGAN, a wealthy land owner in Dallas, had mentioned that the C.G.C. Realty Company, located on the 17th floor at 211 North Ervay Street, owns the building that JACK RUBY rents for his Vegas Club. FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE (FPCC)
DENVER CHAPTER

A source advised on December 15, 1960, that a meeting was held at the headquarters of the Denver Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP), on December 10, 1960, for the purpose of establishing a Denver chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. HOWARD WALLACE acted as chairman and an organizing committee was appointed.

HOWARD WALLACE has been identified by a source as a member of the Denver Branch, SWP.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A source, on May 9, 1961, advised that on May 5, 1961, the Denver Chapter, FPCC, was formed with the following elected officers:

HARRY KAUFMAN RICE, Jr., Chairman
T. E. "DUKE" ROBERTSON, Jr., Secretary
NORMAN HODGKIN, Treasurer

NORMAN HODGKIN has been identified by a source as a member of the Denver Branch, SWP.

The Denver Chapter, FPCC, has publicly announced as its purpose to help bring to light the truth about Cuba. It has indicated the FPCC is virtually the sole organized source of critical dissent from American-Cuban policy in the United States. Announced aims of FPCC are to end the ban imposed by the U.S. Government on travel to Cuba, to present those aspects of events in Cuba which the press in this country ignores, and to work toward re-establishment of diplomatic relations and travel between the United States and Cuba.

A source advised in April, 1962, that the Denver Chapter, FPCC, had almost ceased to exist at that time, but in June, 1962, stated that at a meeting of the Denver Branch, SWP, HOWARD WALLACE proposed to reactivate the Denver Chapter, FPCC. Source advised that thereafter the Denver Chapter, FPCC, placed an advertisement in a Denver daily newspaper on June 21, 1962, concerning the travel ban to Cuba, sponsored several open meetings concerning the travel ban to Cuba, and sponsored the appearance of VINCENT TED LEE, National Director, FPCC, in Boulder and Denver, Colorado, during April, 1963.

Re telephonic instructions from Assistant Director W. C. Attached are six rolls of tape which are copies taken from the original tapes recorded at the time of the interviews on 12/5/63 and 12/6/63. It will be noted that the first tape was copied from reel #1 of 12/5/63 covering the period of 1535 to 1712 hours. The second tape was taken from reel #2 covering the period of 1712 to 1800 hours on 12/5/63. The third tape was taken from reel #2 covering the period from 1115 to 1245 hours on 12/6/63. The sixth tape was taken from reel #4 and covers the period of 1610 to 1730 hours on 12/6/63.

The CIA technician who made available these tapes advised that the original tape was recorded on a machine adapted to the 50-cycle current which is used in Mexico City. He said that the tapes should play back satisfactorily on a 60-cycle machine utilizing 60-cycle current.

For the possible assistance of the Bureau in utilizing these tapes, the person speaking only in English is CIA polygraph examiner CALVIN DAVIS, the person speaking only Spanish and a

He's a Leader In Cuba Group

By GUY RICHARDS

Copyright, 1963 by N. Y. Journal-American

Vincent Theodore Lee, 36-year-old national chairman of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, is the New York mystery man whose correspondence with Lee Harvey Oswald has been impounded by the FBI.

Lee, who recently "took the Fifth Amendment" 78 times before a Congressional Committee, was the friend and adviser who guided Oswald on many moves down South and counseled him in a letter to take special precautions against "nosy neighbors."

Lee's name in connection with the letters found in Oswald's effects and the extent of his role as a mentor for Oswald have been kept secret by the FBI and Dallas authorities.

The new developments were learned yesterday from different agencies of the Federal Government.

The FBI, refusing comment on the developments, would not say whether the bureau has put Lee through questioning regarding his affiliation with Oswald.

SHOWN TO MOTHER

It was reported in Dallas that pictures shown to Mrs. Oswald on Nov. 23—after the assassination of President Kennedy but before her own son was killed—were of one or more figures from the militant pro-Castro section of the Communist Party. She said they then were unknown to her.

Bill Aleexander, Asst. Dist. Atty. of Dallas County confirmed that all the letters found in Oswald's effects (some from Lee, it has now beeen learned) were in FBI hands and he had been asked not to discuss them.

Corroboration of the new importance of Lee and his associates was gathered painstakingly from other sources.

It pointed unmistakably to one thing. The FBI is maintaining enormous interest in the elusive and violently pro-Castro Mr. Lee — Oswald's friend and sponsor—and the group of key figures in the FPFCC who are oriented to the Red Chinese, anti-coexistence Progressive Labor Movement.

RED SPLINTER

The Progressive Labor Movement is a splinter of the Communist Party of the U.S.A. It has become, in fact, the "violent ward" of the Marxist cause in America.

It is spiritually attuned to the FALN group in Venezuela to which Fidel Castro's government has sent bombs and weapons and which has been busy blowing up refineries and threatening death to all who came out and voted in the recent general elections.

The Progressive Labor adherents have used the framework of the FPFCC as an organizational base in the United States. They are recruiting their own chapters on college campuses from the FPFCC membership rolls. They had a big hand in sending the American student group to Cuba last Summer in defiance of the State. Dept. travel ban.

INxUi

Vincent "Ted" Lee, a slim, dark and moustachioed ex-GI, and his Progressive Labor pals, are, therefore, an ideal target of any probe of those who may have aided or encouraged Oswald to assassinate the President of the United States.

Just who is Lee?

PUBLIC DEBUT

For millions of Americans he made his public debut in the hours following Oswald's capture in Dallas. Oswald's affiliation with FPFCC was quickly revealed. (Shortly thereafter correspondence from Lee was found in Oswald's effects but the authorities kept Lee's name a secret.)

The FPFCC angles in Oswald's history led reporters to interview Lee, FPFCC's national chairman, at his home at 37½ St. Mark's pl.

Lee adopted the manner of one who had never heard of Oswald. He said Oswald "might have" been an FPFCC member, (it claims more than 7,000 members) but could not have been an official in New Orleans because "there is no chapter there."

Actually, the Federal probers have learned, Lee had been in correspondence with Oswald for weeks. He had been giving him all sorts of advice including a recommendation to join the American Civil Liberties Union. Lee himself was once secretary of the Tampa, Fla., chapter of ACLU.

TRIP TO MEXICO

Investigators are trying to determine if it was Lee who arranged for Oswald's trip to Mexico City several weeks before the Kennedy assassination.

Following his comments to reporters here about Oswald, Lee has apparently vanished from his usual haunts.

This newspaper has searched for him unavailingly at the St. Mark's pl. address and at the 799 Broadway office of the FPFCC. Repeated calls have found no one in at either place.

Fragmentary but revealing is the background a reporter can assemble on Lee from local sources and the staffs of the two committees of Congress before which he made balky appearances this year — the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee and the House Un-American Activities Committee.

He was born in New York City in 1927. He lived on Remsen st., Brooklyn, attended a military academy in New Jersey, served for two years in the Army ending in February, 1956, and then shipped out as a seaman.

He has been to Cuba frequently. More recently he bobbed up as a big wheel in FPFCC.

How much trouble anyone had in pinning him down to anything can be gleaned from the following excerpt of his testimony before the Senate Internal Security Committee last Feb. 14:

Mr. Sourwine (Jay Sourwine, committee counsel): Are you the Clarence Theodore Lee who was born in New York City Aug. 11, 1927? (Lee is reported to have changed his name from Clarence to Vincent.)

Mr. Lee: I respectfully decline to answer that question. I invoke my privileges under the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States."

He was equally slippery in answer to the questions of the Committee on Un-American Activities last May 23. His testimony led the committee chairman, Rep. Edwin E. Willis, of Louisiana, to announce that after consultation with his associates he had decided to send a transcript to the Justice Department for possible "criminal" prosecution.

URGE SKEPTICISM

The hard core of disciples of violence among the pro-Castroites in the United States — the Progressive Labor boys — are such juicy logical subjects for FBI scrutiny that they present a problem in themselves.

They are almost too logical. Thus in the typical thoroughness with which te FBI combs all the niches and crannies, the agents have been exhorted to be as skeptical as they are zealous in exploring every lead this looks promising.

Placing even more suspicion on the Castroites here are a number of remarks made by Castro in recent weeks, but not published in the U. S., and translated by the anti-Castro Directorio Revolucionario Estudiantil (Cuban Student Directorate) of Miami.

On Sept. 8, for example, at a reception in the Brazilian Embasy in Havana, DRE quotes Castro as saying:

"We are prepared to fight them and answer in kind. U.S. leaders should think that if they are aiding terrorist plans to eliminate Cuban leaders, they themselves will not be safe."

THE BUTTON PUSHER

But it was the assassination of President Diem of South Viet Nam, on Nov., 1, that was reportedly the button-pusher in the world of Castro terrorists.

According to this version, Castro was persuaded that the shooting of Diem and his brother was done with the tacit assent, of not connivance, of the U. S.

Several subsequent statements made by American officials in the U. S. on the need for the liquidation of the Castro government served to bolster the theory that Castro "might be next."

He was persuaded, this version was it, that it was thereafter a race between him and President Kennedy to see who would be the first to bite the dust.

If the story checks out, the next great task for the investigators will be to determine whether Oswald's acts were the co-incidental crimes of an eccentric "loner," or part and parcel of a Castro conspiracy.

WALKER LINK

Some observers are making much of the report Oswald fired a shot at Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker seven months ago as proof that the ex-Marine must have been a "nut" and acting solely on his own. Otherwis, they ask, why would he go after two men at such opposite parts of the political spectrum?

The professional probers point out that this argument completely overlooks the point that frm Castro's viewpoint, an extreme anti-Castro attitude was about the one thing President Kennedy and Gen. Walker had in common.

If it turns out that Oswald did, indeed, have conspiratorial aid, and the man arrested in Madrid as a self-confessed plotter of Kennedy's death (Pasquale B. Gongora, who claims to be a Cuban agent, according to reports) passes all tests for authenticity, then there is another conclusion to consider.

Several teams of Kennedy assassins were commissioned to try their luck. Havana's blessings would go to the winner of the race. In true Communist style, Havana's second round of blessings would be awarded to anyone—whatever his political views—who sealed the victor's lips and thus erased all traces of his real connections.

Enjoy two pages of great comics, games and brain-twisters . . . barrels of fun for everyone! Every day in the Journal-American.

Several teams of Kennedy assassins were commissioned to try their luck. Havana's blessings would go to the winner of the race. In true Communist style, Havana's second round of blessings would be awarded to anyone—whatever his political views—who sealed the victor's lips and thus erased all traces of his real connections.

INDIVIDUAL RESEMBLING OSWALD REPORTED IN SALTILLO, MEXICO, NOVEMBER, 1962

JAMES T. TERRELL, 1152 Garden Row, Louisville 13, Kentucky, process plant engineer, International Harvester Company, Louisville, Kentucky, advised as follows:

From mid October until the end of November, 1962, he was in Saltillo, Mexico, on business for International Harvester Company. Harvester has a plant at Saltillo, Mexico. Saltillo is 60 miles southwest of Monterey, Mexico. One night in about the third week of November, 1962, which is as close as TERRELL could place the time, he and eight or nine Mexican employees of International Harvester went to a night club and house of prostitution located outside of Saltillo, known as the Mona Lisa. The only member of the group whose name TERRELL could furnish was FERNANDO MEIR, MEXICO who is foundry superintendent for International Harvester in Saltillo.

While at the Mona Lisa sitting at a table in the club, a complete stranger walked up to their table and grabbed TERRELL's thumb, pulling and twisting at it. TERRELL explained that at the time he had his arm stretched back. TERRELL thought at first that the incident was some sort of joke and he hand wrestled with the stranger, pushing him away. No further trouble ensued, but he realized that the man was serious and that it was not intended as a joke. Mexicans in the night club seemed to know the stranger and there was some talk about his being a Castro sympathizer.

TERRELL indicated that after seeing pictures of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the newspapers, he was sure that the man with whom he scuffled bore a striking resemblance to OSWALD. TERRELL indicated that he could not positively identify the man as OSWALD and was furnishing the information for whatever it might be worth.

He described the individual as follows:

Race:	White
Sex:	Male
Height:	5 feet, 7 inches - 5 feet, 8 inches

Date December 2, 1963

Dr. PAUL J. HART, a chiropractor, 3616 Dixie Highway, Shively, Kentucky, 368-8607, telephonically advised that he wished to report for whatever it was worth the following:

A patient of his, LEO MC CLURE, white, 54, a painter, residence 4027 Taylor Boulevard, Louisville, Kentucky, on November 5, 1963, Election Day, was "railing against Governmental authority and loss of freedoms". MC CLURE went on to say "we are organizing all over the country and are going to pick them off one by one" or "... pick them off a few at a time". HART said MC CLURE complained bitterly about President ROOSEVELT but about no other specific President. He did not comment concerning President KENNEDY. He urged Doctor HART to vote Republican in the current election. Dr. HART said that prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY, he regarded MC CLURE as merely a harmless crackpot and still had no specific reason to believe that MC CLURE that anything to do with the assassination of President KENNEDY.

On July 1, 1959, LS T-1 furnished a copy of a letterhead of the Citizens National Law Enforcement Committee (CNLEC), 1427 South 6th Street, Louisville, Kentucky. This letterhead lists MILLARD D. GRUBBS as Chairman of this organization and one LEO MC CLURE of Kentucky as a member of the National Committee of the CNLEC.

LS T-1 on September 12, 1960, advised that MILLARD DEE GRUBBS, age 75, Louisville, Kentucky, is bitterly opposed to racial integration. GRUBBS maintains that he is opposed to violence however and claims to remain within the law in his efforts to promote segregation. Source advised that GRUBBS was making an effort to get the CNLEC on an operating basis. The purpose of the CNLEC as outlined by GRUBBS was to defend the Constitution of the United States, which GRUBBS believes is being violated in connection with integration matters. Source furnished literature which indicates that the CNLEC shall "arrest and bring to bar...the top traitors of our Republic..." Source indicated that GRUBBS planned to have "citizens' arrests" of high ranking Government officials.

LEO EDWARD MC CLURE, 4024 Taylor Boulevard, Louisville, Kentucky, after having been advised that he need make no statement, that any statement he might make could be used against him in a court of law and that he had a right to consult an attorney, advised as follows:

MC CLURE denied having ever made any statement to the effect that he belonged to an organization that "was going to pick them off one by one" or "pick them off a few at a time". He explained that he does roofing, guttering, and painting, and general repair work on buildings. On the day of the assassination of President KENNEDY, he was repairing a roof for a lady. When the lady heard the President had been shot, she called MC CLURE into the house. He said that his remark on learning of the assassination had been of disbelief and he had exclaimed "No." He said he had thereafter remarked to the lady that he expected something like this because the President rode around without proper protection.

He explained that his wife and son were critical of his attitude regarding politics and had made remarks to him following the assassination of President KENNEDY indicating that they expected him to be pleased. He indicated that although he was a Republican, he was very sorry over the assassination of the President just as everyone else was sorry. MC CLURE indicated that he would give his own life to save that of any President. MC CLURE indicated that he was active in Republican organizations. He indicated that he does not believe that the Negroes in the South are treated as badly as is reported, that he had traveled in the South, and had talked with Negroes who were satisfied with things as they are.

MC CLURE advised that he had visited "old man GRUBBS" (MILLARD GRUBBS) several times and had furnished transportation for GRUBBS on several occasions. He indicated that GRUBBS had been described to him as one of the smartest men in the state. GRUBBS on one occasion several years ago made MC CLURE a member of the National Committee of GRUBBS' organization, the Citizens National Law Enforcement Committee. MC CLURE was never given any duties to perform and never engaged in any activity. He did not know what his function was supposed to be. Finally, GRUBBS removed him from his position with the committee, indicating that he, GRUBBS, was displeased with the fact that MC CLURE did nothing.

MC CLURE indicated that GRUBBS advocated citizens' arrests and prosecution of public officials who in GRUBBS' opinion are guilty of treason in connection with working on behalf of the integration movement. Even though aware of this, MC CLURE said he had made no statements about "picking up leaders", which statement might have been misinterpreted or misunderstood as "picking off". MC CLURE said his conscience "was as clear as the day he was born". He regards GRUBBS as a good American.

Concerning himself, MC CLURE said that he had been a machinist prior to World War II, that he had been in the Navy, and was discharged because of a "nervous breakdown". He said that in the Navy he was an "instrument man" and invented parts of the Norden bomb sight. He said he had a fourth grade education. He indicated that he had been postmaster at Valley Station, Kentucky, a small town near Louisville, Kentucky, and boasted of the excellent job he had done.

MC CLURE indicated that he had not been out of town recently and denied any knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or any organization sympathetic to the CASTRO regime in Cuba.

The following description was obtained during the course of interview with MC CLURE:

ENTERTAINERS WHO MAY HAVE APPEARED AT CAROUSEL CLUB

On November 26, 1963, LS T-2, [redacted] advised as follows:

Approximately six weeks ago, the General Electric Company, brought a group of entertainers to General Electric's Appliance Park, Louisville, in connection with the introduction of General Electric's 1964 line of appliances. The entertainers told source that they had just finished an engagement at JACK RUBY's Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas. LS T-2 also said that in contacts with the entertainers, LS T-2 had noticed that three or four of them read small gray booklets about Communism and Marxism.

On November 28, 1963, LS T-2 advised as follows:

About ten of the group of entertainers LS T-2 referred to stayed at the Brown Suburban Motel, others stayed elsewhere. LS T-2 did not know how many there were in the group.

LS T-2 at first indicated that several of the entertainers read books on Communism and Marxism, but when pressed for details could not say why source thought the book or books were on Communism and Marxism, did not recall their titles, or other details about the books or who had them. Finally source said that "at least one" of the entertainers had a pocket-size paperback book which source was "pretty sure was on Marxism". This entertainer was a singer-dancer, BETTY RHODES. RHODES had a book as described which was so worn that it was falling apart. Source asked Miss RHODES for any books or magazines that she might be discarding. Miss RODES grabbed the book in question and said LS T-2 could not have that book. Source looked at this book on one occasion, forming the opinion that it was on Marxism but could not say what this opinion was based on and did not know whether the book was favorable or critical of Communism and Marxism.

Source was "pretty sure" that LOU CUTLETT, a comedian with the group also had one of these books.

"They" (some of the entertainers) told LS T-2 that they had just finished an engagement at JACK RUBY's Carousel Club in Dallas, Texas. Ls T-2 could not state who had said this or whether the whole group or only a few of the entertainers were supposed to have been at the Carousel Club. Source did not know whether or not any of the entertainers were "strippers". Source recalled the Carousel Club especially because source found a slip of paper bearing the name Carousel Club. LS T-2 was again reminded of the Carousel Club when source saw a news photograph of JACK RUBY and two of his girl employees.

LS T-2 could recall names of only two other entertainers JOHN BISHOP and MARILYN (Last Name Unknown).

Source characterized the entertainers as a bunch of "oddballs", saying that they read a lot and that one of the group had moved from the Brown Suburban Motel to a downtown hotel to be nearer the library.

On November 29, 1963, Miss JEAN FOOTE, Secretary to Mr. C. W. THELEEN, Manager, Sales Relations, General Electric Company, Appliance Park, Louisville, Kentucky, advised as follows:

In connection with introduction of their 1964 models of appliances, General Electric produced a variety show for dealers and distributors. In this connection they contracted with Dramaturgy, Incorporated, 3207 Chester Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, to produce this show. Dramaturgy had a group of entertainers in Louisville from September 20, 1963, through about October 21, 1963. Some of them stayed at the Brown Suburban Motel. Miss FOOTE indicated that Mr. THELEEN who handled the matter for General Electric was highly pleased with the entertainment and the attitude and conduct of the entertainers.

Miss FOOTE indicated that she had no idea where any of the entertainers might have worked prior to coming to Louisville for the General Electric Show, and indicated that no one with General Electric had associated closely with the entertainers.

Miss FOOTE advised that Dramaturgy, Incorporated, is owned by a man named WILDING, and that one C. RANKIN BINGHAM is president of Dramaturgy. Director of the General Electric Production was FRANK WARRINGTON who can apparently be contacted through Dramaturgy.

Miss FOOTE identified other members of the group as follows:

DON LIBERTO, 65 West 95th Street, New York, New York,

BETTY KOERBER GLOVER, 347 East 10th Street, Apartment 26, New York 9, New York.

KIP KARLISLE, 430 East 72nd Street, Number 22, New York 21, New York.

BETTY RHODES, 325 West 45th Street, New York 36, New York. Texas

LOU CUTELL, 520 East 90th Street, New York 28, New York. Louisville

MARILYN ROSS, 175 West 79th Street, New York 24, New York. Texas

BILL PIERSON, 130 West 44th Street, New York, New York.

Miss CHE[illegible]BLE, 167 East 71st Street, New York, New York.

JOHN BISHOP, 213 Nagle Avenue, New York 34, New York (Stage Director). Texas

EDGAR HESS, 6802 Theota Avenue, Parna, Ohio (Technical Director).

GORDON MUMFORD, 160 West 73rd Street, New York 23, New York.

Miss FOOTE noted that none of the entertainers did a strip tease act on the General Electric Show.

RUMORED ASSOCIATION BETWEEN OSWALD AND JACK RUBY

On November 29, 1963, 903 South 4th St. Louisville, Ky. radio and television announcer and entertainer TOM "CACTUS" BROOKS, WHAS Radio and TV, Louisville, Kentucky, advised SA ROBERT M. DOMALEWSKI that on the night of November 28, 1963, he had been in the company of one EDDIE CAMDEN, a former Louisville, Kentucky musician and dance band leader, at the Pee Wee Reese Bowling Lanes, Louisville, Kentucky. CAMDEN made the statement that about ten years ago, he had played in JACK RUBY's night club in Dallas and that JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD used to room together. BROOKS said his wife also overheard this conversation.

The following investigation was conducted by SA GEORGE W. HUTCHISON:

On November 29, 1963, EDDIE CAMDEN, 2070 Sherwood Avenue, Louisville, Kentucky, employed by B & B Novelty Company, 715 West Main Street, Louisville, Kentucky, advised as follows:

He has never played in Dallas, Texas. He never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD until the assassination of President KENNEDY. He was in the company of TOM BROOKS at Pee Wee Peese Bowling Lanes on the night of November 28, 1963. He told of having worked in Fort Worth, Texas, in a night club about ten years ago and said that a night club operator from Dallas, Texas, came to Fort Worth to hear his band with the thought of possibly hiring CAMDEN's band for his Dallas night club. CAMDEN was not hired. CAMDEN said that in his conversation on the night of November 28, 1963, he may have said that this night club operator was JACK RUBY because he believed that it must have been RUBY. He said he did not actually know that it was RUBY. CAMDEN denied having said anything about RUBY and OSWALD having been roommates. CAMDEN said he heard speculation that RUBY and OSWALD had been roommates during the conversation in question but could not recall who had said it.

Mrs. Tom Brooks

On November 29, 1963, Mrs. BIRTTENA BROOKS, 905 South 47th Street, Louisville, Kentucky, advised that she had not overheard all of EDDIE CAMDEN's conversation about JACK RUBY on November 28, 1963, but that she did get the impression that CAMDEN claimed to have worked in Dallas and that he had said that JACK RUBY and OSWALD had roomed together.

Mrs. BROOKS advised that Mrs. BEA KIRCHNER was also present during the conversation.

On November 29, 1963, Mrs. BEA KIRCHNER, 719 Lynn, Louisville, Kentucky, advised that he had overheard EDDIE CAMDEN talk about JACK RUBY on the night of November 28, 1963, at Pee Wee Reese Bowling Lanes and that CAMDEN had said that he had had contact with JACK RUBY regarding booking his band into RUBY's Dallas night club. She said that this was supposed to have occurred a number of years ago since CAMDEN has been out of the music business for several years. CAMDEN indicated that he had had lunch with RUBY. Mrs. KIRCHNER said that CAMDEN had said nothing about RUBY and OSWALD rooming together but that during this conversation, someone had said that it had been reported on television that RUBY and OSWALD had roomed together.

BROOKS, recontacted November 29, 1963, advised SA GEORGE W. HUTCHISON that he recalled that "someone" had said that the "FBI had learned" that RUBY and OSWALD had roomed together.

INFORMATION AS TO BUS TICKETS FOR TRAVEL BETWEEN NEW ORLEANS AND MEXICO, NEW ORLEANS AND FORT WORTH, AND NEW ORLEANS AND DALLAS

On November 27, 1963, Mr. WILLIAM H. CUTRIGHT, Assistant Chief Auditor, Southern Greyhound Bus Lines, Lexington, Kentucky, furnished to SA JOHN F. MC CAULEY 68 carbon copies of "expended trip tickets" or "lifts" issued for travel between New Orleans and Mexico, New Orleans and Fort Worth, and New Orleans and Dallas, Texas. These tickets were extracted from a group of 262,000 tickets for the period between September 15 and September 27, inclusive, 1963.

It is to be noted that bus tickets are issued in form of a booklet with a separate sheet or page, referred to by the bus company as a "lift", for each leg of the journey. Southern Greyhound covers travels between New Orleans and Mexico only as far as Lake Charles, Louisiana. The portion of the journey from Lake Charles to Mexico is in an area covered by Central Greyhound which has its home offices in San Francisco, California. The ticket form covering the leg from New Orleans to Lake Charles, Louisiana, is maintained by the home office of Southern Greyhound Lines, Lexington, while the portion of the ticket covering the leg of the journey from Lake Charles on to Mexico is stored at San Francisco.

The following ticket "lifts" which were furnished by Mr. CUTRIGHT were furnished to the Identification Division with a request that latent fingerprint examinations be conducted in an attempt to identify any latent fingerprints of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on these ticket forms or "lifts":

DETAILS:

On October 27, 1963, NY T-1 advised that during late October, 1963, he had had an opportunity to observe certain material maintained at Fair Play For Cuba Committee headquarters, 799 Broadway, New York City. NY T-1 stated that among the material which he observed was the following handwritten letter:

"F.P.C.C.
799 B'way
New York,
N.Y.

"Dear Mr. Lee

"I was glad to receive your advice concerning my try at starting a New Orleans F.P.C.C. chapter. I hope you won't be too disaproving at my inovations but I do think they are necessary for this area.

"As per your advice, I have taken a P.O. Box.. (NO 30061)

"Against your advice, I have decided to take an office from the very beginning.

"I see from the circular I had jumped the gun on the charter business but I don't think its too important, you may think the circular is too provocative, but I want it too attract attention, even if its the attention of the lunatic fringe. I had 2000 of them run off.

"The major change in tactics you can see from the small membership blank, In that I will charge $1.00 a month dues for the New Orleans chapter only, and I intend to issue N.O. F.P.C.C. membership cards also.

"This is without recourse to the $5.00 annual national F.P.C.C. membership fee.

"However you will lose nothing in the long run because I will forward $5.00 to the National F.P.C.C., for every New Orleans chapter member who remains a dues paying member for 5 months in any year.

"Its just that the people I am approaching will not pay 5 dollars all at one to a committee in New York which they cannot see with their own eyes.

"But they may pay a dollar a month to their own chapter after having received their membership card from my hand to theirs.

"Also I think such a dues system binds the members closer to the F.P.C.C.

"I will promise only a membership card and a chapter vote to future members, that is, I don't expect you to extend them National F.P.C.C. mailing for their one dollar a month.

"As you will notice on the membership blank there is a place for those who do wish to subsribe to the national mailings for the fee of $5.00, that fee will go directly to you in New York.

"As soon as anymember has paid dues adding up to five dollars in any year, I will forward that fee to you and then you may handle it as if it was a usual application for membership in the National F.P.C.C.

"In any event I will keep you posted, and even if the office stays open for only 1 month more people will find out about the F.P.C.C. than if there had never been any office at all, don't you agree?

"Please feel free to give advice and any other help.

"Yours truly
Lee H. Oswald

RE: Education of LEE HARVEY OSWALD
At Junior High School (JHS) 117,
Bronx, New York from September 30,
1952 to January 16, 1953

On November 27, 1963, SYLVIA MININBERG, Principal, JHS 117, 1875 Morris Avenue, Bronx, New York, made available for review the school record of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. The record reflected that OSWALD, born October 18, 1939, New Orleans, Birth Certificate number 17034, entered the seventh grade at JHS 117 on September 30, 1952 and attended school there until January 16, 1953. It was indicated that OSWALD had previously attended Ridge West School, Fort Worth, Texas and from September 8, 1952 to September 26, 1952 attended Trinity Ev, Lutheran School, 2130 Watson Avenue, New York 72, New York. New York City addresses for OSWALD appeared as 1455 Sheridan Avenue, and 825 East 179th Street, Apartment 3C, both Bronx, New York. OSWALD's attendance record for the period at the above school was indicated as fifteen and two half days present and 47 and two half days absent. The record reflects OSWALD's marks for the seventh grade as follows:

English:	40
English-Spelling:	65
Mathematics:	40
Geography:	50
Science:	50
Health Education:	65
Hygiene:	70
Spelling:	50
Word Study:	50

It is to be noted that 65 is the passing grade and that OSWALD failed six out of nine courses.

The record failed to reflect any entries made regarding OSWALD's personality traits. OSWALD's father was reflected as LEE (deceased 1939); mother MARGUERITA CLAVERIE and notation appeared that he had two older brothers, names not furnished.

Mrs. MININBERG advised that during the period OSWALD attended JHS 117, ELEANOR HALPIN, 2253 University Avenue, Bronx, New York, was the acting principal. She stated that HALPIN was substituting for the Principal, MAX SCHOMBERG, who went on sick leave in 1951 and subsequently died in 1953. MININBERG also advised that OSWALD's guidance counselor had been DOROTHY K. ARTHUR, 16 East 8th Street, New York City, and his official class teacher was Miss MARY A. KANE, 265 East 182nd Street, Bronx, New York.

She added that there is no one presently employed at the school who would have any knowledge concerning OSWALD. She remarked that in view of OSWALD's absentee record, the School Attendance Bureau, the bureau concerned with school truants, may have some information available regarding OSWALD. She contacted the above bureau and stated that a Mr. GROSS, Supervisor, School Attendance Bureau covering JHS 117, had advised her that his office had no record regarding OSWALD. She stated that GROSS added that as a matter of procedure their records are destroyed once an individual reaches the age of 17 and if OSWALD did have a record, same would have been destroyed when OSWALD attained suchan age.

On November 27, 1963, Mrs. DOROTHY K. ARTHUR, mentioned above, advised SA JOSEPH T. CORRIGAN that she does not remember OSWALD and added that she had previously spoken with Mrs. ELEANOR HALPIN, heretofore mentioned, and that she also has no recollection of OSWALD.

On November 27, 1963, MARY A. KANE, 265 East 182nd Street, Bronx, New York, advised SA JOSEPH T. CORRIGAN that she vaguely recalls OSWALD's name but could not recall anything about him.

Re: Education of LEE HARVEY OSWALD
at JHS 44, Bronx, New York, from March 23, 1953 to January 12, 1954

Jr. High School On November 27, 1963, NICHOLAS CUCHETTI, Principal, JHS 44, Bronx, New York, made available for review a school record of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. An examination of same revealed that OSWALD, born October 18, 1939, entered the seventh grade at the above school on March 23, 1953, and remained there until January 12, 1954, at which time it was indicated that he went to New Orleans.

A notation appeared under a column of personality traits to the effect that OSWALD refused to go to school and hearings regarding this conduct was scheduled for January 13, 1953, but mother and son refused to appear. The record indicated that OSWALD had previously attended JHS 117, Bronx, New York and Ridge West Elementary School, Fort Worth, Texas, from January 27, 1947 to May 29, 1952, where the principal was Mrs. LUELLA MERRETT, OSWALD's address during attendance at the Fort Worth, Texas school was indicated as 7408 Ewing, phone number PE 7995. OSWALD's IQ as of January 16, 1950 was listed as 103. CUCHETTI remarked that this is an average IQ.

The record disclosed that OSWALD was afforded a Metropolitan Achievement Form Test and Stanford Achievement Test. The former test was taken by OSWALD on Feburary 8, 1950, while in the fourth grade and with the norm being 4.5, he scored 4.0 in reading comprehension, 4.7 in vocabulary and 3.3 in spelling. OSWALD took the Stanford test on February 13, 1951, while in the fifth grade and with the norm being 5.5, he scored 4.0 in reading comprehension, 4.9 in vocabulary and 3.0 in elementary science. The record indicated that on February 11, 1952, while in the sixth grade, he again took the Stanford Test and with the norm being 6.5, he scored 7.4 in reading comprehension, 8.6 in vocabulary and 4.4 in spelling.

OSWALD's marks for the seventh grade at JHS 44 were as follows:

English:	65
Mathematics:	75
Social Studies:	65
Science:	75
Health:	65
Physical Education:	65
Foods and Household Care:	30

OSWALD's marks for the eighth grade at the above school were as follows:

English:	65
Mathematics:	65
Social Studies:	65
Health:	80
Physical Education:	80
Music:	65
Art:	40
Clothing Shop:	50

The passing grade of these subjects was 65.

Notations also appeared in OSWALD's record that he had a quick temper, was "constantly losing control and getting in battles with others." His last report card from JHS 44 indicated that he received a satisfactory rating in Courtesy, Social Participation and Effort, but received an unsatisfactory rating in Congeniality, Self-Control and Dependability. A notation appeared that OSWALD was a member of the Woodwork and Airplane Model Clubs. OSWALD's health card indicated that he was 64 inches tall, 115 pounds, normal vision (20-20), but check marks appeared next to the words pallor; fails to hear questions and emotionally disturbed. CUCHETTI stated that it appeared from the health card that OSWALD had a mastoid operation on his left ear in 1947 but that further notations on his health card indicated OSWALD's hearing "OK" as of November 3, 1953, and as of January 4, 1954, "seems well".

OSWALD's attendance record at JHS 44 from March 23, 1953 to January 12, 1954, was 171 and 11 half days present and 18 and 11 half days absent. A card in OSWALD's file which appeared to have been furnished from another school, name and date not indicated, reported an address for OSWALD as 325 East 92nd Street, New York City, phone number AT 9-8644.

CUCHETTI stated that the principal of JHS 44 during the time OSWALD attended was IRENE TAUB, who is presently deceased. He stated also that a Mrs. LEHMAN, also deceased, had been OSWALD's guidance teacher. He commented that in addition to these individuals the only person who personally knows OSWALD is MILTON ROSENBERG, presently a gym teacher at the school.

On November 27, 1963, MILTON ROSENBERG advised that he had OSWALD as a student in both a gym or health education class and the official class. He advised that he does not recall OSWALD from the official class but remembers him in Gym as a quiet, lonely individual who appeared to be preoccupied and in a "dream world." He stated that on one occasion he gave OSWALD an outstanding grade in Social Participation because OSWALD made a contribution to a particular project, exact nature unrecalled, and that he thought he would "help him out", by giving him this grade.

The following investigation was conducted by SAS ROGER H. LEE and JAMES O. INGRAM:

RE: Residence of LEE HARVEY OSWALD
1952 - 1953 at 1455 Sheridan Avenue,
Bronx, New York

On November 27, 1963, ELON EBANDS, Superintendent, 1455 Sheridan Avenue, Bronx, New York, advised that he has no records of tenants prior to 1958. He stated that the owner of the building prior to 1958 was ABRAHAM ZALAZNICK, 2300 Grand Concourse, Bronx, New York. EBANDS did not know OSWALD or his family and could furnish no information concerning them except that a "New York Times" reporter contacted him on November 26, 1963, regarding the family.

The following tenants at 1455 Sheridan Avenue, Bronx, N.Y. were contacted with negative results:

EDWARD MEYERS, Apartment 1K, resident for 18 years
MAX SHARKEY, Apartment 3A, resident 15 years
Mrs. HARRY RABARNICK, Apartment 1L, resident 22 years
Mrs. DORA PATTERSON, Apartment 5K, resident 25 years
Mrs. LILLIAN DEUTSCH, Apartment 4E, resident 34 years
Mrs. ISADORE KLEIN, Apartment 1F, resident 10 years
Mrs. H. GLACION, Apartment 1D, resident 23 years
Mrs. J. FEHER, Apartment 5E, resident 12 years
Mr. WOODY GREENHAUSE, Apartment 5B, resident 21 years
Mrs. JAMES BEECHER, Apartment 4E, resident 10 years

On November 27, 1963, ABRAHAM ZALAZNICK, 2300 Grand Concourse, Bronx, New York, advised that he is a former owner of the building located at 1455 Sheridan Avenue. He stated he has no record of tenants during early 1950s and that he does not know OSWALD or his family.

RE: Residence of LEE HARVEY OSWALD
1953, 825 East 179th Street,
Bronx, New York

On November 27, 1963, Mrs. LOUISE ROBERTSON, 2039 Southern Boulevard, Bronx, New York, advised that she has resided at the above address since 1950. She stated that during the summer of 1953, a Mrs. MARGARET OSWALD of 825 East 179th Street, contacted her and asked her if she would do the cleaning in the OSWALD's apartment. Mrs. ROBERTSON accepted and she was employed in this capacity for six weeks during the summer of 1953. She worked approximately two or three days a week for the OSWALDs during this period. She recalled that Mrs. OSWALD told her that she was from Texas and had come to New York City so that her son could have mental tests at Jacobi Hospital in the Bronx. Mrs. ROBERTSON did not know if OSWALD actually had these tests. She commented that Mrs. OSWALD also stated that she was employed as a saleslady but did not mention the place of employment. Mrs. ROBERTSON believed that Mrs. OSWALD and LEE HARVEY OSWALD were the only people living in the apartment. She stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD never associated with other boys and spent all of his time, when not in school, watching television.

Mrs. ROBERTSON stated that Mrs. OSWALD told her that her son was never satisfied with the places where they resided and they subsequently moved frequently. Mrs. ROBERTSON recalled that shortly before the OSWALDs moved, Mrs. OSWALD told her that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had run away from home and was located and returned by New York City Police Department. She related that shortly after this the OSWALDs moved and that she has not seen or heard from them since that time. She stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD very seldom spoke to her but on one occasion he referred to her as "Hey nigger." Mrs. ROBERTSON said she knows of no other people in the neighborhood that knew the family.

The following individuals residing at or in the vicinity of 825 East 179th Street, Bronx, New York, were contacted with negative results:

Mr. HAROLD GOODRIDGE, Apartment 2A,
825 179th Street
Mrs. LUCY STEVENSON, Superintendent,
821 East 179th Street

Mrs. MARY BROWN, Apartment 1B,
821 East 179th Street
Mrs. CANDIDA HERNANDEZ,
2031 Southern Boulevard
MANUEL RIVERA
2033 Southern Boulevard
Mrs. FRED BOOKS, Apartment 4C,
825 East 179th Street
DAVID DIXSON, Apartment 1C,
825 East 179th Street

Bronx, N.Y.

On November 27, 1963, a review of the files at the Old Record Room of the New York City Police Department by SA AUGUST J. MICEK, disclosed that on April 16, 1953, LEE OSWALD, 13 years of age, residing at 825 East 179th Street, Bronx, New York and student at PS 44, was arrested as a juvenile delinquent on a warrant charging him as a Habitual Truant. File indicated that warrant was obtained by the Board of Education. It was further indicated that the subject was discharged on March 11, 1954, in Children's Court, Bronx, New York.

The following investigation was conducted by SA GEORGE B. HIGGINS:

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD's Aid in Repatriation by Traveler's Aid Society (TAS), New York City Upon Arrival in the United States from Russia on June 13, 1962

On November 27, 1963, JAMES M. JOSOFF, Public Relations Director, TAS, provided subject's case record. A review of same indicated that subject's wife and child were processed June 13, 1962, by S. RAIKAN, Tax, Social Worker, upon request of Miss (FNU) SOOTIN, United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare on June 5, 1962 that family may need assistance and general planning. SOOTIN described accommodation as not an official State Department referral since little known about the method in which OSWALD transported family from Russia to Rotterdam although subject known to have paid most of passage to New York.

The file indicated that subject was interviewed by RAIKAN on June 13, 1962 aboard the Holland American Liner, "Maasdam", after being assisted through United States Customs by RAIKAN. OSWALD alleged membership in United States Marine Corps and assigned at United States Embassy, Moscow. It was indicates that OSWALD was involved with a Russian girl whom he married, then renounced his United States citizenship and worked as a specialist electro technician, Minsk, Russia. It was reflected that he soon determined that life in the Soviet Union was not as rosy as propaganda image and decided to return to the United States. OSWALD, however, encountered a two and a half year delay until exit visa obtained for his wife and child. Their destination was indicated as to brother ROBERT, ~~OSWALD~~ Oswald 7313 Davenport Street, Fort Worth, Texas.

The records of the Department of Public Welfare, New York City, were reviewed and the only pertinent information disclosed was that subject processed by Department of Public Welfare on June 16, 1962, and arrangments made for him to join brother ROBERT. It was noted that OSWALD was scheduled to depart Idlewild Airport via Delta Airlines Flight 821, 4:15 p.m. enroute to Fort Worth, Texas.

1. APPENDIX

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening In Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the afore-mentioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. However, during the past year this source observed there has been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that today their influence is negligible.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that the National Headquarters of the FPCC is located in Room 329 at 799 Braodway, New York City. According to this source, the position of National Office Director was created in the Fall of 1962 and was filled by VINCENT "TED" LEE, who now formulates FPCC policy. This source observed LEE has followed a course of entertaining and accepting the cooperation of many other organizations including the CP and the SWP when he has felt it would be to his personal benefit as well as the FPCC's. However, LEE has indicated to this source he has no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. LEE feels the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations, but not support the Cuban revolution per se.

The CP and the SWP have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.
